My wife has told me of all your planned meetings together. April in Florida, which was kept a secret from me, your plans on seeing her again in May at Campmeeting. Again in June in Norway and probably again in Sept. when her daughter comes.

You said that the fact that she's who she is and how young and beautiful she is has nothing to do with your relationship with her and all the hours you spend talking on the telephone thousands of miles apart. You told me you talk to a lot of women like that. I wonder if you would fly from Norway to Florida at the drop of the hat, to see all these other women's sons? Especially if they were old, ugly, fat, or otherwise unknown? I believe you used her son to get to her vulnerable, personal side. You quit concentrating on the problem with her son and found your way in to her emotional side.

She has now seen the evil that Satan tried to do through your "good intentioned" relationship. Never forget Satan knows all of our weaknesses. He definitely has found yours and hers, in this instance, but praise the Lord, she has asked forgiveness for hers.

Pride is a terrible thing, we all fight it. Your not admitting that you have crossed a line in that relationship is unacceptable. Maybe some people there might believe that story, but it certainly would not be bought here in America.

It appears she won't be going to Florida when you meet with her son, I wonder how this will change the equation?

I'm really hoping for your sake that you quit living this lie. Ask yourself some of the questions that this professional counselor gave us concerning Doctor and patient relationships with married women and see if you would pass the test. At this point you have failed.

One last thing. When one is dealing in the physical world, Satan is the Prince. That is scriptural, according to the bible. Anyone can be deceived. But when you deal in the spiritual world, God gives one eye salve to clear the vision. The spiritual realm says that you crossed the line and became too physically or emotionally attached. The physical realm causes one to justify ones actions even though they may be directly opposed to the bible. All the excuses and all the justifying in the world will not deceive those who are looking to God for spiritual guidance. Please quit looking from the physical of what seems right and all the talk about good intentions and high and lofty conversations, and let God take you to the spiritual realm to see sin for what it is. It is destructive. It destroys. That is the road you two were on.

If I get in my car and plan on going to church and drive out of my driveway and run over a pedestrian and kill him, he is dead. All the good intentions in the world about going to church, won't take away the sorry and pain that it would cause this persons family. Good intentions still can kill and destroy.

I believe that's what you should come to "grips" with. No one doubts your good intentions, but you got caught up in the physical. Those conversations, for hours on end, felt good. Therefore your feelings would not allow you to see the damage being done. And unless you are seeking the truth on this matter, this letter will seem laughable to you. If you're seeking truth I believe God will open your eyes.

I'm not asking for any further response. These are just comments that I felt needed to be made.
