Isn't anyone close enough to this area to know the pastor... or influential church board member.... well enough to have a heart-to-heart chat with him about what he is imposing upon his church members?

Remember Palm Springs..... it was only days before the "show was to go on" that it was canceled. It could happen again.....

WB,

There is a prayer request line. I left a carefully worded prayer request that those in attendance would see the true spirit of Danny Shelton and asked for prayer that their pastor would be aware that 3abn accepts tithes from donors instead of those funds going to the appropriate local conferences.

I would be curious to see if contacting the pastor and church works. I just found out last night that our church was contacted by 3ABN to possibly have a rally there. I made a few snide comments about 3ABN, and then went on to mind my own business.

I will watch this posting, and if need be, print it out for our pastor and elders to share with the membership. Why should they come here just for Danny to walk away with our hard earned money? It really put me in a bad mood just thinking about it - and how thrilled that I would have been if this had happened, even 3 years ago.

From the Adventist articles in print, it is my understanding that Rob Benardo came to Milpitas from Michigan.

Kinda makes you think that Danny/WWJD/Bystander/Tommy forgot to take along the laptop so they could post between songs in Milpitas. Maybe they left it sitting on the jet so their man servants (the pilots) would have something to do on the Sabbath.

Or maybe they finally wised up to the fact that the more they defend the deeper it gets for them

Watchbird, so happy this particular post came from you. Even though others added to it, you specifically make the suggestion about talking to the pastor. See, in proving liability to someone's slanderous remarks, one must prove, (among other things) that the "slanderer" is trying to hurt the individual or organization financially. You, as well as others, prove this is your intent by calling, emailing, etc to try and "discourage" a pastor or church from hosting a 3abn event. Shame on you. Even though you hate Danny S. guts, even you, know of the thousands of lives that have been changed through the ministry. Your little campaign to get them cancelled shows that your "hate" seems to overcome your "love" where souls are concerned.

When you and others go so far as trying to get churches to cancel 3abn, it speaks volumes as for your motive and intent on this site. (not to mention your liability) You especially have proven by your words that you are not interested in the business of healing, restoration or ministering to others, as long as the ministering is coming from 3abn airwaves. Because God knows better than we, the motives of your heart when you want to make these "special" little phone calls, he will not let you succeed to the detriment of a great ministry.

For those of you (if any) that sent your little emails or made your little phone calls, it had absolutely no effect on the pastor or his people. I understand that those who had heard of your "little campaigns" felt you were being used as tools of Satan to undermine, divide and destroy what God has done and continues to do through the 3abn ministry.

You can fight, defame, gossip and slander the administration all you want, but God and God alone will win this battle to keep the 3angels message traveling around the globe. How thankful you, as Adventists should be to know, that people in all parts of our globe can receive that message. Instead, you waste your own time and God's judging people and instances that you had no part in, and know not of. I now understand Mrs. White's statement when she says there will be more persecution from within the church, than without.

Well, Birdy, it seems that you have now joined the privileged class of those who are being threatened with lawsuits. And on what authority does Bystander make his threats? Does he now speak officially for the great prophet of 3ABN? Actually, he sounds like the prophet himself: same pride, same self-righteousness, same posturing. Vanity, Vanity, all is Vanity. You have the audacity to slander another member of BSDA by accusing them of the very behavior you yourself are displaying with your own remarks. Accusing Watchbird, or any other member on BSDA, of hating Danny S. because they call sin by its right name and refuses to turn a blind eye to the misdeeds those, who proclaim themselves true representatives of the church, while their consistent, on and off air, behavior says otherwise, is foolishness in the extreme. Your attempts to deny anyone, who does not represent your brand of truth, their right to stand up and speak out against the things they know displeases their heavenly Father speaks volumes.

Bystander, you who speaks with a fork tongue, we strongly advise that you seal your lips. It is also our hope that you will fall to thy knees and beg the Lords forgiveness. It is our prayer that you will repent and seek the forgiveness of every brother and sister here that you have accused falsely, for all those you have betrayed, and all that you are being a stumbling block to, by spewing such venom from your lips. For your sake, wash the blood of fellow believers and any others from your hand.

Bystander please repent now before it is everlasting to late.

Before you can prove liability for someone's slanderous remarks, you must first prove that those remarks are actually slanderous. Let's take a look at the definition of "slander" from The Free Dictionary: (bolding and emphasis supplied by yours truly)

1. Law Oral communication of false statements injurious to a person's reputation.
2. A false [i]and[i] malicious statement or report about someone.

BTW, congratulations on your correct spelling of "etc"! □

I can't speak for WatchBird, but as for myself I don't hate Danny's guts. He is my brother in Christ and I love him as such. Tommy, too. The problem is that the Vine, our Lord, is good but sometimes the branches get rotten. While 3abn is producing fruit for the kingdom, which is glorious, the evidence shows that the ministry has not pruned out the disease within, allowing it to grow stronger and more pervasive until it may rot the whole branch. This is what has the potential to ruin this soul-winning ministry. I just wish you could step away from the denial and see that.

And what does it say when a Seventh-day Adventist pastor, John Lomacang, or the president of 3abn calls churches to urge them to cancel Linda Shelton's appearances? Or how about emails sent to churches and people to slander and discredit her name? I guess there will be a point when the true tools of Satan will be revealed.

What I would say to this, Bystander, is that you are entitled to your opinion even though it is wrong. Sure, there are some here who may fit this category but most are keenly interested in seeing this situation resolved properly and the cause of God strengthened instead of sullied by those who would cherish their sinful ways.

PB, Again you insinuate that Bystander is Danny S. by your california comment. You are wrong. As for the other statement about JL and Danny S. calling churches. Show me evidence that Danny ever called a church where Linda was scheduled to try to have her canceled. Show me where JL did. Even if you were 100% right, (which you are not) would 2 wrongs make a right. Should the Linda supporters, here, do exactly what they are accusing DS team of doing? If so, then they have no right to gripe about it. PB where is your info coming from to make these allegations?
