BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Lynch Mob

Posted by: Observer Aug 29 2006, 07:58 PM

I was asked today: Would Christ join the 3-ABN lynch mob?

Is this a valid question?

It reminds me to t he ago old question, "Have you stopped beating your wife?" Neither a "yes," nor a "no" might accurately answer that question. One who has never beaten his wife, could only give a "no."

The 3-ABN question begins with a word that is associated with the absence of law. I reminds us of the days of slavery in the United States, when people were denied any semblance of justice solely on the basis of the color of their skin. It implies extreme prejudice. Truth and justice are absent from consideration.

The question attaches all of the above to those who are raising issues regarding 3-ABN.

The person who asked that question of me likely believes that what she or he sees on the surface is all that is present. What is seen on the surface is only the tip of the iceberg. Beneath the surface of the water, there are those working quietly, within denominational channels, and outside of such, to effect a change in the 3-ABN situation.

All that is asked for by the vast multitude of people concerned about this, is that God will work to restore truth and justice. Their cry has been echoed in the passage found in Revelation 6:9-10.

No, Christ would never join a lynch mob. The people who raise their voice in protest over the injustice that they see, are simply responding to what they believe is the call of God.

It would be far easier for them to remain silent. But, it is their commitment to Christ that leads them to speak.

All of them are human. They may not speak perfectly. They may be wrong. But, they respond to a call to act, and not sit silent in a time of injustice.

All would gladly sit back and allow others who have the power to do so to settle these issues in more traditional venues. They would be glad for objective denominational authorities.to investigate, and act, if they believed the power rested with those authorities. They would be glad for the civil authorities to act, if that would happen.

Until such happens, the people can only cry out against the wrong that the believe are happening.

That cry is in response to what they believe is the call of God, and not a response to a lynch mob.

The person who asked that question of me, simply does not understand the issues, what is going on, and what is happening behind the scenes.

If you're talking about the lynching of Linda Shelton, the answer is "no."

The people asking those questions had expected Danny Shelton to carry on business as usual, I think, without skipping a beat.

Linda met the resemblance of a lynching mob in the Thompsonville Seventh-day Adventis Church when she had requested having her membership transferred to another church.

Posted by: justme Aug 31 2006, 07:27 PM

AS I recall, "a lynch mob" hangs people who are NOT guilty, just because they don't LIKE the person.

Are you referring to the "lynch mob" who work for the "Televangelist"?

Where was the "lynch mob" when Jesus cast the money-changers and animal dealers were thrown out of the temple in Jerusalem? They "WERE" the lynch mob.

Or maybe, the reprimand directed toward the Pharisees and Sadducees and the Scribes in the word, "You generation of vipers ...".

Words spoken in truth are not a lynching. They are an expose'? They are a call to abandon the ways of evil. To stop mocking God!

"Know ye not that by the words you judge you shall be judged" the judgement cast upon Linda and others is coming back to become the very basis for the judgement coming upon THEM. The punishment ye have dealt shall be dealt SEVEN-FOLD upon you". it seems.

Why is asking Danny, and his people to answer the charges against them a lynch mob? Danny has been told several times and ways he can quiet all of this talk, including Calvin offering to foot the bill for an independent investigation. Fact is, he is wrong, and as long as he is wrong, people are going to be asking him about those things which he has done wrong.

Posted by: Treniece Jan 27 2007, 03:58 PM

Danny Shelton and those who work at 3abn should expect to receive backlashes from Danny's seperation from Linda. After seeing Danny and Linda Shelton on TV for so long and then to hear of their seperation causes questions to arise in one's mind. The first question is 'why'. Then one begins to wonder who is at fault. This is only human nature, whether it be right or wrong. When you are in a high position of trust, persons usually sometimes find negative stuff to say, but when you have seperated from your wife and the grounds seem to be unclear, you have opened up a whole can of worms.

You're right...that's why Danny and his apologists use smoke and mirrors to try and distract people from the real issues, even when they're faced with first hand accounts from family members and ex-3ABN employees...they figure if they throw around enough "Danny's really the victim" stories then may the questions will stop...I don't think they factored in the fact that at BSDA this is not Sabbath School and we pay attention!!!

All have sinned and hurt themselves in the process. Unfortunately, some have sinned and hurt others as well.

You are right here PB. It isn't about who has sinned. What matters is who has repented. We all have hurt others, most often unintentionally. When an honest hearted person realizes they have hurt another, they take responsibility for what they have done, and make restitution if at all possible.

So, once again, it is about the fruits of one's life. What are the fruits of the lives of those in question?

I do not believe that anyone here on this forum would refuse to grant forgiveness if there were genuine repentance. (which involves turning away from sin) People who are self deceived can not accept forgiveness, because they don't think they need it.

Wanting the 3abn mess to be cleaned up does not mean that one is against 3abn or the leadership there.

Let me add my voice to others here, Thank you Duane for coming forward, and welcome.

And God forgives all when we confess and repent.

However, we're not doing anyone a favor to tell them they're just fine in their sins and don't need to confess and repent. Not only does this cause further harm to others but harm also to those who do the sinning/abusing.

SUE SCHEFF WINS $11.3 MILLION FOR INTERNET DEFAMATION

Susan Scheff and her Weston-based company, Parents Universal Resource Experts Inc., won the jury verdict in Broward Circuit Court in Florida against Carey Bock for posting defamatory statements about her on an internet bulletin board viewed by parents, according to court pleadings. Ms. Scheff was represented by David Pollack, of the Law Offices of David H. Pollack, LLC. The Broward Circuit Court jury sent a strong message that freedom of speech has limits, and the case will make people think twice before setting out on a campaign to destroy others.

I ain't asking. I'm stating with boldness.... TOMMY SHELTON HAD SEX WITH A CHILD (and since it was proven that he did...) HE IS A MOLESTER AND ONE WHO COMMITTED SEXUAL ASSAULT ON A CHILD.

Now.

Again I ask...since you popped in EyeWitness - Would you allow Tommy Shelton to babysit your children w/o supervision? With supervision? On an "overnight" sleepover?

BTW: IF Tommy Shelton was ever on 3ABN Television - before a camera.... EVER. He IS IN FACT A PUBLIC FIGURE.

eye witness,

Notice the following:

" 'The punitive damages speak volumes,' says Scheff, 'it was set to punish the defendant for what she did to my children and me. Just because you don't like someone or what they do, it does not give you carte blanche to post false statements about a person on the internet.' "

<http://www.caica.org/NEWS%20Internet%20defamation%2010-12-06.htm>

Would you be so kind as to clearly state what statements about the Tommy Shelton child molestation allegations or about Danny's handling of those allegations is definitely false? From what I can tell, if it isn't false, there may not be a problem.

It takes Christian courage to make a statement like yours! And this is just what we need in these days when Satan is gaining control of the minds and actions of the whole world, including Christian people who are defending such actions against children.

I pray the Holy Spirit may open the eyes of such people as "Bystander" and "eye witness" that they may realize how Satan is using their talents that Jesus will lose in the final events of "The Great Controversy"!

If the church of God is not to proclaim a message of abstaining from evil, who is?

How deceitful it is to tell the world that you are proclaiming the message of the three angels with all the doctrines attached to this message, but then state in actions and words that it is all right to molest children, to lie and cheat, as long as you have the message of those three angels.

O God, have mercy!

Greg; How on earth did we get from there to here?

With all these threats, flexing of muscles, and the, "My Daddy can beat up Your Daddy" going around. We need to lighten up man! We need SMAN!

Here's one that will make lawyers laugh or get mad.

"What do you have when you get 1,000 lawyers at the bottom of the ocean?"

Answer: "A Good Start!"

OK, OK! I'm an accountant, so to be fair I will share something from SMAN that I still get a kick out of, and it makes me laugh every time I read it. In fact, I have shared it with my accounting friends!

A businessman was interviewing applicants for the position of Divisional Manager. He devised a simple test to select the most suitable person for the job. He asked each applicant the question, "What is two and two?"

1. The first interviewee was a journalist. His answer was "twenty-two."
2. The second applicant was an engineer. He pulled out a calculator and showed the answer to be between 3.999999 and 4.000001.
3. The next person was a lawyer. He stated that in the case of Jenkins v. Commer of Stamp Duties (Qld), two and two was proven to be four.
4. The last applicant was an accountant. The business man asked him, "How much is two and two?"

The accountant got up from his chair, went over to the door, closed it then came back and sat down. He leaned across the desk and said in a low voice, "How much do you want it to be?"

He got the job.

QUOTE(Fran @ Feb 4 2007, 04:57 AM)

Greg; How on earth did we get from there to here?

With all these threats, flexing of muscles, and the, "My Daddy can beat up Your Daddy" going around. We need to lighten up man! We need SMAN!

Here's one that will make lawyers laugh or get mad.
"What do you have when you get 1,000 lawyers at the bottom of the ocean?"
Answer: "A Good Start!"

OK, OK! I'm an accountant, so to be fair I will share something from SMAN that I still get a kick out of, and it makes me laugh every time I read it. In fact, I have shared it with my accounting friends!

A businessman was interviewing applicants for the position of Divisional Manager. He devised a simple test to select the most suitable person for the job. He asked each applicant the question, "What is two and two?"

1. The first interviewee was a journalist. His answer was "twenty-two."
2. The second applicant was an engineer. He pulled out a calculator and showed the answer to be between 3.999999 and 4.000001.
3. The next person was a lawyer. He stated that in the case of Jenkins v. Commer of Stamp Duties (Qld), two and two was proven to be four.
4. The last applicant was an accountant. The business man asked him, "How much is two and two?"

The accountant got up from his chair, went over to the door, closed it then came back and sat down. He leaned across the desk and said in a low voice, "How much do you want it to be?"

He got the job.

Fran:

How did we get here? Lawyers like to posture. They like to bluff. They want to scare people into some kind of compliance.

But, sooner or later, as I have stated, this will wind up in litigation. It is going to get much worse before it gets better. Litigation should not be taken lightly. It will not be fun for the involved people.

I clearly believe that sooner or later a lawsuit will be filed. The first may be the one against GAJ in regard to the use of the 3ABN trademark? But, if that is so, I do not believe that it will be the last.

Further, I will suggest that once a lawsuit has been filed, the so-called other side will begin to file. It is clear to anyone who understands that law, that people on all sides of this issue [NOTE: There are more than two sides.] have the potential to file a lawsuit against someone else. The fact that I state that various lawsuits have the potential to be filed is not a statement as to who will prevail.

If multiple lawsuits are filed, the public, to include these Internet forums, may very well see some information coming to light that has never been made public. Further, there may be claims of tort (harm) made that have never been mentioned in public.

Where is God in all of this? God is not harmed by the public disclosure of wrong that is not repented of, and is covered up by knowledgeable people. God is a God of truth and justice. When the people of God either refuse, or are unable to right such wrongs, and refuse to repent of them, God will use the civil authorities, or other methods to excise the growing cancer of sin.

For those who say: "Leave it to God," God can accomplish His purpose by using civil authorities. God does not have to send a lightning bolt to destroy a transmitter, or to burn a building. God is not limited.

See: "Everyone must submit himself to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God. . . . For he is God's servant to do you good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword for nothing. He is God's servant, and agent of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer. Therefore, it is necessary to submit to the authorities, not only because of possible punishment but also because of conscience. Romans 13: 1 & 4 -5. NLT

NOTE: The Bible tells us that wrongdoers are to be submitted to the civil authorities as a matter of conscience.

I read a statement, I believed it, so therefore I acted upon it with my own judgment. Sad Diane. I believe also that when all the various forms of proof are exposed on the First Lady you will be shocked to say the least, that you fell for, believed and supported, what you do not even know to be fact. There may be a lesson ahead. Character refinement dear friend.

I find it very interesting that you refer to Linda Shelton as "the First Lady", not as the Vice President. Linda has never been referred to any where in any postings or publicly as the "First Lady" of 3ABN, but this is a term that has been coined for the Pastor's wife in our black SDA churches, never in our white SDA churches. Is this a hint to your identity? That rather narrows down the field at 3ABN. Could you be John Lomacang? Or perhaps CA Murry? It is definitely sad to think that SDA pastors could sink so low as to lie for Danny Shelton. Or like Bystander, are you just "me"?

You just proved that you don't read. I ain't Diane .

That's sad. You can type....but you cannot read. Bless your soul.... No "character refinement" needed unless the LORD sees fit (not you); but literacy lessons may be in order....on your end.

Now....
ahem

Change in stats...

1 in 3 girls; 1 in 4 boys will be sexually assaulted/molested before reaching adulthood.

Of the sexual molestations only 26% or less will take place by a stranger. The majority will be someone the child knows (whether friend, relative, or someone known "intimately" [someone that acts in a "family" way or a close "friend" of the family]) by the child.

Duane since you have so willingly made your statements. Would you mind answering a couple of questions? How old were you when say this all happened to you? What year was it? Also I was wondering didn't the law enforcement listen to you when you reported it?

Your questions are irrelavant:

Children can not consent!

People below the age of consent cannot consent!

Incompetent people of any age typically cannot consent!

Clergy involved in a sexual relationship with a competent adult may under the law be charged with statutory rape. Perhaps they cannot be so charged as that depends upon State law. In any case they are commonly thought to have violated the secular norms of society.

Quit grasping at straws.

I am not making a statement as to whether a crime was committed. But, I am saying that it is inappropriate for Duane who has come forward to be subject to the questions that you ask. He has come forward in a manner that society has said we should pay attention to. And, regardless of any criminal conviction, society has said that children should be protected from the accused simply on the basis of what Duane has said. Society does not require a criminal conviction.

Duane: Thank you for your courage in the face of great adversity.

"Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house. Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor manservant, nor his maidservant..."

You will notice two things:

- 1) Don't bear false testimony of others.
- 2) Don't even wish you could have a neighbor's wife.

Now, some follow up to those:

- 1) WHO has trashed his whole family and ministry?

- "All members of the family center in the father.... The father is in one sense the priest of the household, laying upon the altar of God the morning and evening sacrifice." EGW
- The family that prays together, stays together.
- "The husband is the house-band..." EGW
- "Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed." 1 Cor. 7:27
- "The husband and father is the head of the household. The wife looks to him for love and sympathy and for aid in the training of the children; and this is right. The children are his as well as hers..." EGW

- 2) Who has coveted and taken the next step, that of adultery?
- 3) Who has lied to cover his tracks?
- 4) Who will be shocked when the Day of the Lord has come?

There will be a reckoning. It will be swift and sure. "To every man according as his work shall be." Eye Witness, I'm sure you will be right about the surprises. That is why there are some who must ask, "Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?"

Duane since you have so willingly made your statements. Would you mind answering a couple of questions? How old were you when say this all happened to you? What year was it? Also I was wondering didn't the law enforcement listen to you when you reported it?

Duane;

Please do not let this phantom spook you. It is not right. Have faith and be of good courage, you have done the correct thing. God must prevail.

Another story:

People are liars, arrogant and obviously proud of their feats. Even some leaders in the SDA churches and conferences.

A child reports a sexual assault to the local conference. The person responsible was a pastor! In full denial, the SDA conference did not believe the child even though the child gave details no one else would know about the private anatomy of the pastor.

Now, we have a very confused child. The pastor continues to molest the child. No one would listen except the mother and school teacher. The teacher spoke up and got fired. Lawyers came and threatened the single parent mother with a lawsuit for her child lying.

The mother could not move, nor could she pay for the defense of a lawyer. So when someone in another SDA church in the area came to the mother and offered their home for the child, the mother was praising God. The child felt like her mother was abandoning her because everyone was saying she lied. The father in this family was the head elder of their church and teacher in the church school. This low-life swiftly took over where the pastor left off. Total despair takes over the child that is praying continually for help.

Help came in a strange way. At the age of 9, her menstrual cycle started. That very day, the wonderful elder and teacher no longer wanted her in their home. Now the child faces abandonment all over again. It was not her fault that she started her period. She thought she was dying when she saw all the blood. She got dumped back with her mother and had to go back to the old church with the same "innocent" pastor. He no longer "loved" her. He knew about her period! Who would have told him? You guess.

The child spent years trying to understand why and how this all happened. The pastor retired with honors and the teacher became the principal of an Academy. He retired, but was asked to come to a newer and larger Academy.

The child grew and reported the low-lives again. They still did not believe. In fact a wonderful lawyer threatened to sue if she continued to say those awful things about these people. Everyone kept telling her it did not happen! She begins to question her sanity.

She ended up leaving her church. She left God for totally abandoning her in her time of real need. What did she do wrong? Why would God send lawyers to sue her mother and her, twice? How can she ever trust pastors, teachers, and church leaders again? She had no money for a lawyer, what could she do to fight at the age of 10? What about the age of 15 when she tried again to tell what had happened?

Thereafter, she remained silent wondering how many other kids were now in her place. She told no one. She marries and ...

Life repeats itself over and over again. Where does it stop? Where do these kids go to get help when the person that is supposed to help is also a molester?

This is why the majority of incidents go unreported. Lawyers scare the victims to death by laying the blame on them! This girl has seen it all. I doubt a lawyer can intimidate her in the least today. Life has been hard for her. She went from very shy, to being politically correct. Always saying the right thing at the right time and taking pride in all of her accomplishments. Becoming educated taught her many lessons.

As time passed, she starts speaking up when she could have remained silent. She vows she will never let child molestation go but will tell as many people as possible what has happened. Lawyers still came. Nothing came of it. What should she do? Tell her, she is many. There are many he's also within our church that continue to be molested.

Who is helping them? Who is protecting them? Who is telling them where they can go for help? How many classes are taught to tell them about right and wrong? Should that person be our pastors? I think not. Should it be our teachers? Maybe, maybe not. What about our parents?

Where is the solution to save our children from molesters, pedophiles and rapists? Only recently did our church come up with new rules. Was that real or just a showpiece to the public that they are doing their part, when in reality they continue to just replace the predators playground by giving him a new pot to pull from. Where is their example when they allow leaders to divorce without cause and remarry, but still remain as a leader?

Should this little girl have to watch this for the rest of her life?

Should these boys have to witness this over and over again?

Where does it end?

How can it be stopped now?

Why must a large percentage of molesters be hidden behind the mask of God, when in reality they are themselves a self appointed "god"?

Why is it that people can continue their crimes because they can afford all the lawyers in the world to threaten the victims?

How can penniless people fight that?

Maybe we all should line up at Legal Aid offices where you get a lawyer that never sees you or talks to you?

Maybe they should just be quiet and let it continue.

Somebody please tell me what the solution is to save our children from such people. I need to know.

Sad, heartbreakingly sad. And yet we see the same thing happening even today. Attacking the victim, how filled with Satan can a person get.

Duane;

Please do not let this phantom spook you. It is not right. Have faith and be of good courage, you have done the correct thing. God must prevail.

Another story:

People are liars, arrogant and obviously proud of their feats. Even some leaders in the SDA churches and conferences.

A child reports a sexual assault to the local conference. The person responsible was a pastor! In full denial, the SDA conference did not believe the child even though the child gave details no one else would know about the private anatomy of the pastor.

Now, we have a very confused child. The pastor continues to molest the child. No one would listen except the mother and school teacher. The teacher spoke up and got fired. Lawyers came and threatened the single parent mother with a lawsuit for her child lying.

The mother could not move, nor could she pay for the defense of a lawyer. So when someone in another SDA church in the area came to the mother and offered their home for the child, the mother was praising God. The child felt like her mother was abandoning her because everyone was saying she lied. The father in this family was the head elder of their church and teacher in the church school. This low-life swiftly took over where the pastor left off. Total despair takes over the child that is praying continually for help.

Help came in a strange way. At the age of 9, her menstrual cycle started. That very day, the wonderful elder and teacher no longer wanted her in their home. Now the child faces abandonment all over again. It was not her fault that she started her period. She thought she was dying when she saw all the blood. She got dumped back with her mother and had to go back to the old church with the same "innocent" pastor. He no longer "loved" her. He knew about her period! Who would have told him? You guess.

The child spent years trying to understand why and how this all happened. The pastor retired with honors and the teacher became the principal of an Academy. He retired, but was asked to come to a newer and larger Academy.

The child grew and reported the low-lives again. They still did not believe. In fact a wonderful lawyer threatened to sue if she continued to say those awful things about these people. Everyone kept telling her it did not happen! She begins to question her sanity.

She ended up leaving her church. She left God for totally abandoning her in her time of real need. What did she do wrong? Why would God send lawyers to sue her mother and her, twice? How can she ever trust pastors, teachers, and church leaders again? She had no money for a lawyer, what could she do to fight at the age of 10? What about the age of 15 when she tried again to tell what had happened?

Thereafter, she remained silent wondering how many other kids were now in her place. She told no one. She marries and ...

Life repeats itself over and over again. Where does it stop? Where do these kids go to get help when the person that is supposed to help is also a molester?

Last week I saw a very interesting program on HopeTV. In the case of women beaters, it is the crown that presses charges. Apparently it has dropped the rate of spousal abuse by one third in the cities where it has been used.

Maybe we should alert our legislators to the possibility of doing the same in cases of sexual assault.

WWJD: Per your speaking and what you deem as "fun"... and not even being "sarcastic" about it - but serious...here's your diagnosis. I hope that you seek professional mental therapy before it is too late.

Axis I - V71.09 - Diagnosis Deferred

Axis II - Antisocial
Secondary - Borderline

Axis III - V71.09

Axis IV - Problems w/ Primary Support Group; Social Environment; NOS

Axis V - GAF-51

Will change diagnosis as more information becomes available.

Yah, see, that is so ridiculous it is funny  thats what I'm sayin

I have been reading Robert D Hare's books. I am truly enjoying "Without Conscience". Wikepedia put this list out there as a Psychopathy Checklist. It is truly revealing.

QUOTE

] Psychopathy Checklist-Revised (PCL-R)

This is a clinical rating scale with 20 items, in which both case histories and semi-structured interviews are used. Each of the items in the PCL-R is scored on a three-point (0, 1, 2) scale according to two factors. A value of 0 is assigned if the item does not apply, 1 if it applies somewhat, and 2 if it fully applies. The two factors are: emotional detachment and lifestyle. Factor One looks for a selfish, remorseless, individual with inflated self-esteem who exploits others. Factor Two describes a lifestyle that is chaotic, antisocial and/or criminal, marked by impulsiveness, a lack of responsibility and reactive anger . According to Hare, a psychopath will score high on both factors, whereas someone with Antisocial Personality Disorder will score high only on factor two.[3]

The items are as follows:

1. Glibness/superficial charm
2. Grandiose sense of self-worth
3. Need for stimulation/proneness to boredom
4. Pathological lying
5. Cunning/manipulative
6. Lack of remorse or guilt
7. Shallow affect
8. Callous/lack of empathy
9. Parasitic lifestyle
10. Poor behavioral controls
11. Promiscuous sexual behavior
12. Early behavioral problems
13. Lack of realistic, long-term goals
14. Impulsivity
15. Irresponsibility
16. Failure to accept responsibility for own actions
17. Many short-term marital relationships
18. Juvenile delinquency
19. Revocation of conditional release
20. Criminal versatility

The items are then summed in order to obtain a total score. The cutoff for psychopathy is 30 points or greater (25 in some studies).

I am anxious to hear more. Not particularly about someone in particular, but in General.

I'm kinda sorry to see eyewitness go. To be a forum, there needs to be a difference of opinion or it gets dull and boring.

Don't worry, Frankly, we still have WWID with exactly the same line.

The old adage is "Hold your friends close and your enemies even closer". If you want to answer the "other side", you need to know what they are saying.

I'm sorry my comment seemed flippant, even to me as I read it now. However, I do feel that it is important for understanding to see what others are saying.

Tommy Shelton was a pastor when he elleged approached these young men. In case you haven't noticed, molestation charges will make Joe Blow a public figure. Sexual impropiety and misconduct by a minister, will make you a public figure. I am not quite sure why you all are overlooking the fact of Tommy's position of authority and trust that was breeched.

QUOTE(eye witness @ Feb 3 2007, 08:16 PM)

I guess asking would be one thing. . . . but the accusations have maybe went above and beyond your pocket. By the way Danny and Linda may be public figures BUT Tommy is not, was not, he was only an employee there.
