BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Eye Witness - Of What?

---

Posted by: husbandoftheyear Jan 25 2007, 08:53 PM

Okay - okay. I'm sure this is going to be a heated thread.

But I just have to ask...what exactly have you been an "eye witness" to, Eye Witness?

Did you witness...
 Linda's thoughts?
 Linda's feelings for Dan?
 Linda's phone calls to the doctor?
 Linda's trip to the Norway?
 Linda's act of "spiritual adultery"

Or perhaps...
 What Dan told you Linda thought?
 What Dan told you Linda felt for him?
 What Dan told you about the phone calls?
 What Dan told you about the trip to Norway?
 What Dan told you about "spiritual adultery?"

Or what about...
 The infamous birthday party without Linda?
 The prophetic demon?

Have you actually witness anything relevant?

Excellent question hoty. Some of us wonder the same about you. You have said several times that you were an eyewitness. Did you:
 Ever see Danny or Linda for that matter, take money that didn't belong to them?
 Did you see a "beauty queen" waiting in the wings BEFORE the marriage blew up?
 Did you see Danny's brother molest anyone?
 Did you hear Danny tell Linda she was "an old dishrag?"
 Have you ever sat in on a 3ABN board meeting?
 Have you ever saw any behavior out of Dr. Walt Thompson that would lead you to believe that he would just "accept" corrupt behavior?
 Have you ever seen Danny so intimidate Mr. Ewing that he would feel he has to lie on national TV?

Have you actually witnessed anything relevant? Or is it more that you didn't like someone's attitude or maybe you got called on the carpet for something, or thought you were treated unfairly in some situation or maybe you just have better ideas on how things should be done????

I should have bolded "something relevant" and added the caption "to which to claim to know." I asked EW what they witnessed to make them an "eye witness." But as usual it's all about smoke screens.

Posted by: sister Jan 26 2007, 03:03 PM

And just exactly why should we believe anything that Bystander says? Originally, he claimed that he would only be here posting for one afternoon and not return, now that is a lie we can all see. Like a bad penny he just keeps turning up, again and again and again... Have we received any actual evidence about anything from Bystander or only innuendo and unsupported accusations?

Much of the above could also be said of Eye Witness, WWJD and the rest of the tag team: all smoke and mirrors and nothing of substance. WOW.  THOSE ARE THE SAME STRATEGIES THAT DANNY SHELTON HAS USED AGAINST LINDA SHELTON.

Birds of a feather, as they say.

I am not following this. Why are you asking HOTY about the dishrag quote? Eyewitness said that.
<http://www.blacksda.com/forums/index.php?showtopic=12226&st=0> it is thread #12.

Alleged victims of the molestation from Tommy have submitted hardcopies of their statements. Linda's daughter has submitted a widely circulated letter about the alleged molestation done by Danny Shelton. Some posters are in possession of actual email correspondence from the key players including Danny Shelton. So can you answer the original questions and stop stonewalling please?

They hoped I would answer a couple of those questions, like if I have attended a board meeting, or not in hopes of narrowing the possibilities of who I am...

See, I asked what makes EW (by their own account) an eye witness. They have a lot of information, but I don't see how it could have been first hand. (I have already stated, but will again, that everything I've posted has been as a first-hand experience, unless I indicated in that post that it was hearsay.)

More attempts to attack and harass. They want your hide nailed to the brick wall of the lobby, alongside the plaques and other such given as worshipful offerings to Danny.

Here is what I heard on TV - something that Danny said. More than once I have heard him say that we should be focusing on the ministry that 3abn is doing and not listening to gossip, most of which he says is untrue.

There is an old saying that your actions speak so loudly (not yours, Treniece!) that they deafen my ears to your words.

Does that apply to this pronouncement of Danny's?

Posted by: Treniece Feb 3 2007, 02:15 PM

But we don't know the details of everthing, so we are passing judgment based on our personal assumptions about statements made. Persons on Linda's side seem to be sure of their support for Linda and persons on Danny's side seem to be sure of their support for Danny. This is a complicated situation, and when it is complicated like this, we need to leave this situation in God's hands.

And sometimes God used people like GJ, Pickle, GM and all the witnesses that have posted here to do His will in correcting a sinful situation.

"What you do speaks so loud that I cannot hear what you say."
 Ralph Waldo Emerson

I'm not sure this does apply considering everytime words are spoken, it makes him look even more guilty.

Thanks.

There are many of us who believe we are doing exactly what God has called us to do. We are imperfect people. Our opponents may be able to point out flaws in us and in our delivery. We may not be right in everything that we do. But, the people that God uses are those who are willing to be used by Him, notwithstanding our imperfections.

FYI: Here is an verse from Sabbath School today which I found meaningful:

Ecclesiastes 4:1 "Next, I took a careful look at all the injustice and oppression that goes on in this world. Those who are oppresed cry out for help but no one seems to pay attention. They have no power to change their situations becaue power is in the hands of the oppressors? THE CLEAR WORD.

Posted by: roxe Feb 3 2007, 07:29 PM

i'm really praying hard that there is something in this qtrs lessons on Ecclesiastes that will be an "eye salve" to Danny's team
