Why is there no accountability on radio/TV? People take rumors broadcast as the real truth without checking the sources.

It is not the internet alone where this lack of accountability can exist. Sometimes it can even be broadcast throughout the world by satellite with millions believing every word.

Not "clueless"... just forgetting.... ignoring.... or defying the facts... that their judgment of others reveals first of all the desires, contents, intents, and purposes of their own hearts.

So OF COURSE they must claim that "God never fires"! How else could they continue in their claim to be God's "anointed one".

OF COURSE they would assume that "pastors spread rumors". That is exactly what they have done and continue to do.

And OF COURSE they note that there is "No accountability online"! That is precisely their attitude when it comes to being accountable to any authority.... be it the church they pretend to represent, the donors who support them, or the government of the country to which they belong.

Listen carefully to the words. The statement is that God does not fire us if God has called us, and we are doing God's work.

NOTE: It was qualified. Why would God fire us if God hired us and we continue to do God's work.

"Once God calls us he never fires us"

(1Sa 15:26) And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee: for thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

As Donald Trump would say, "Saul, YOU'RE Fired"

As Donald Trump would say, "Saul, YOU'RE Fired"

And as Homer Simpson would say - DOH!

BUT Saul's replacement wasn't to take possession of the throne until Saul was removed. AND that task was not commissioned to anyone in Israel. NOBODY, not even David received had received permission or a command from God to remove Saul from the throne. Any attempt to do so would have been presumptuous and a violation of God's will.

QUOTE(Chimaz @ Jan 23 2007, 03:06 PM) □

The post was in response to the quote "Once God calls us he never fires us".

The fact is that God does, at times, "fire" those who fail to continue in His ways.

In response your reply, there is nowhere that shows David ever sought "permission or command from God to remove Saul from the throne", but God may have given him the option.

David's men reminded him, "Behold the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee."

David chose not to touch Saul. It was his conviction not to touch the Lord's anointed.

There are times, however, when God commanded men to carry out justice.

(Deut 17:5-8) Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die. At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So thou shalt put the evil away from among you. If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the LORD thy God shall choose;

God, very often, uses men to bring about judgment. Sometimes he uses the righteous, and sometimes he uses heathen to bring about his divine judgment (i.e. Babylon, Assyria, Philistines, etc.).

Of course that scenario took place during the Old Testament era Theocracy and doesn't exactly fit with this present scenario:

1. The President of 3abn is not a king set up by the Lord Himself as Saul was.
2. A pastor who violates the Law of God and church doctrine can most assuredly be fired by the proper officials.
3. By inspiration, Paul, Ellen White and others gave us counsel and guidelines on what to do with unrepentant brethren.

Point blank and blunt.

GOD does fire. If you aren't doing his will he won't let it be that way forever....

So...in the end...GOD does fire....

Well, the team is pretty good at propaganda.

In this one, setting up a straw man (that Danny is being asked to step down by the board of directors) and knocking him down could divert folks from the fact that programs are taken off 3ABN.

Yes, John Lomacang is correct, "Many people have fallen victim to doing Satan's work." Unfortunately he's one of them. To vilify one for whom he should have had a pastoral concern and to uphold another in blatant sin is certainly not God's work.

Counterfeit message? 3ABN_Live_18_23Jan07_CounterfeitMessage.mp3 (67.24k) Number of

That one is so appropriate!! Revelation speaks of the Three Angels' Messages going to all the world, and 3ABN is essentially counterfeiting the fulfillment of this prophecy. They are applying the prophecy to themselves, when that is not what the prophecy means. It is about a message that is to go to all the world, but not necessarily by 3ABN, and I'm thinking not likely by 3ABN because they are distorting the message to the point of falsifying it.

Three questions:

1.) In the first sound clip. Anybody happen to notice the qualifying words, When we are called by God and when we are doing God's work followed by --- then God does not fire us followed by: unless...

2. Anybody here trying to do God's work which they believe he called them to do, willing to deny that, and claim the opposite?

3. Anybody know who wrote the following?

" Ten days after his vision to build 3ABN, Dan and I were married. It was an amazing experience to literally watch the hand of God build this network. It was an incredible privilege to be able to participate in a ministry that was ordained in the courts of heaven. But the battles still came...the evil one was angry with such an incredible evangelistic tool." 09/15/2004

And now this:

" The reputation of a televangelist is of a delicate nature. It doesn't take much to discredit, dishonor and damage one especially in today's world."

Posted by: simplysaved Jan 24 2007, 08:57 AM

IMO God does not fire....some just foolishly GIVE AWAY their blessing like Esau, Saul (because of his persistant disobedience), the Children of Israel. God's promises to us are always conditional upon our choices.

It may be a matter of perspective or semantics.....

Dan 5:22-28

QUOTE

"Belshazzar, you are one of Nebuchadnezzar's successors. You didn't remain humble, even though you knew all this. (23) But you made yourself greater than the Lord of heaven. You had the utensils from his temple brought to you. You, your nobles, wives, and concubines drank wine from them. You praised your gods made of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, or stone. These gods can't see, hear, or know anything. You didn't honor God, who has power over your life and everything you do. (24) So he sent the hand to write this inscription. (25) This is what has been written: Numbered, Numbered, Weighed, and Divided. (26) This is its meaning: Numbered-God has numbered the days of your kingdom and will bring it to an end. (27) Weighed-you have been weighed on a scale and found to be too light. (28) Divided-your kingdom will be divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

This story to me is an example of God firing someone..... though I understand the point, does God fire or do people fire themselves....

Posted by: simplysaved Jan 24 2007, 09:14 AM

Based on the text, Belshazzar's choices led to his destruction.

Another way to look at it is a child being given a toy. If they misuse it, leave it lying around on the floor, or break it, does the fault the toy is gone lie with the person who gave it or with the child?

We thank God for his grace to us in spite of ourselves, but there is always a bottom line...at some point there has to be a change or improvement.

QUOTE(Snoopy @ Jan 24 2007, 08:20 AM)

Sorry, but I believe that was Shelley!!

You are right, Snoopy, it was Shelley Quinn. Sacrificial salaries? For the rank and file at 3ABN, yes! For those on screen that evening: Danny Shelton, Mollie Steenson, Shelley Quinn, John Lomacang, Moses Primo and Larry Ewing. A resounding NO!

Moses Primo has earned over $70,000.00 per year for quite a while, plus perks.

In 2005, Mollie made $56,729.00 plus perks and in addition to that her husband Hal also also gets a paycheck from 3ABN. The two of them together? (+/ -) $100,000.00 a year. Sacrificial?

In 2005 Larry Ewing made $68,365.00 plus perks, his wife, Roi, also works at 3ABN in the pastoral department. Their salary together plus perks? Definitely not sacrificial.

Shelley Quinn and her husband both work for 3ABN. How much do you think they make, including her book royalties from "Ten Commandments Twice Removed" which she wrote together with Danny (remember millions of copies were printed, which would not have been the case if she was not working at 3ABN)? I am sure it is not what HOTY or other 3ABN employees would consider a sacrificial salary.

Oh, and don't forget John Lomacang. He earns a normal Illinois Conference pastor's salary (half of which is paid by 3ABN) and since it is paid through the Conference, he receives the benefits of an SDA pastor, including a retirement fund. Do the rank and file at 3ABN receive the benefit of having a retirement fund? No. He and his wife live next door to Danny in a home that no other Illinois Conference pastor could afford. But how much does he pay for rent? Or does he pay any rent at all? Sacrificial? Compared to Bill Gates, yes. Compared to HOTY and majority of 3ABN workers? Hardly sacrificial.

And then there is Danny Shelton...

It was an incredible privilege to be able to participate in a ministry that was ordained in the courts of heaven. And now this:

" The reputation of a televangelist is of a delicate nature. It doesn't take much to discredit, dishonor and damage one especially in today's world."

I would love to answer number three and the "and now this".

First of all, you must recall, DANNY is the business man in the "family" so to speak. Linda never had anything to do with the financial doings at 3abn. You must also know, Linda BELIEVED EVERYTHING Dan told her (hook line and sinker as he would say). Even today, she is still in the discovery of things she never knew that were going on right behind her back. The Lord has been gracious to her in giving truth to her in bits, because let me tell you, it is been overwhelming in itself in bits. It was a TRUE privilege for her - still is. This is why it's so important for her to keep a ministry. It's in her heart (built in) and she can't help but see life and her life this way. To her, it was ordained. This is not to say it wasn't ordained, but, even though they were married, they were still two individual people who were independant of each other, and in their personal relationship with God. Again I say MOTIVES!!! You must see, EVEN after she was treated by DS the way she was, along with the added bad treatment of those she thought were friends and co-workers, add in also the treatment (judgement) from some leaders in the church she serves and is a member of, which in itself was totally devastating, she STILL doesn't want that ministry to go away - it is like a child to her, she loves it. NO ONE wants to see that ministry go away. Keep that clear in your mind Aletheia. This is about leadership, deceit, and fraud. Keep it simple.

And for your "now this" comment - that is so true. This comment does not mean that those things come undeserved (damage, discredit and dishonor), for you can EARN those things on your own by your choices. They stress that a leader(s) have a higher calling. The devil will push buttons, attack your weak points and do whatever TO DISCREDIT GOD. Danny has made his choices, lived his life, and he is choosing to discredit God by those choices, and those that believe he is a prophet or annointed one. Better to have a rock tied around your foot and you dropped in to the sea. What a great responsibility! Those that are helping him are also participating in discrediting God by thinking He would sanction or look the other way when such behavior and treatment goes out to those who are in his home, family and work place and anyone else that gets in the way of what he wants, and further more, what he doesn't want YOU to know.

Did Dr. Walt or Danny respond to you?

Yes, they both did. They basically said that they get advice both ways, to defend or not. They feel they need to defend. It is a shame...they could be spreading the gospel like they say they were called to do.....

QUOTE(sister @ Jan 24 2007, 11:15 AM) □

You are right, Snoopy, it was Shelley Quinn. Sacrificial salaries? For the rank and file at 3ABN, yes! For those on screen that evening: Danny Shelton, Mollie Steenson, Shelley Quinn, John Lomacang, Moses Primo and Larry Ewing. A resounding NO!

Moses Primo has earned over $70,000.00 per year for quite a while, plus perks.

In 2005, Mollie made $56,729.00 plus perks and in addition to that her husband Hal also also gets a paycheck from 3ABN. The two of them together? (+/-) $100,000.00 a year. Sacrificial?

In 2005 Larry Ewing made $68,365.00 plus perks, his wife, Roi, also works at 3ABN in the pastoral department. Their salary together plus perks? Definitely not sacrificial.

Shelley Quinn and her husband both work for 3ABN. How much do you think they make, including her book royalties from "Ten Commandments Twice Removed" which she wrote together with Danny (remember millions of copies were printed, which would not have been the case if she was not working at 3ABN)? I am sure it is not what HOTY or other 3ABN employees would consider a sacrificial salary.

Oh, and don't forget John Lomacang. He earns a normal Illinois Conference pastor's salary (half of which is paid by 3ABN) and since it is paid through the Conference, he receives the benefits of an SDA pastor, including a retirement fund. Do the rank and file at 3ABN receive the benefit of having a retirement fund? No. He and his wife live next door to Danny in a home that no other Illinois Conference pastor could afford. But how much does he pay for rent? Or does he pay any rent at all? Sacrificial? Compared to Bill Gates, yes. Compared to HOTY and majority of 3ABN workers? Hardly sacrificial.

And then there is Danny Shelton...

why am I reminded of a book I read back in high school? Remember that book, Animal Farm by George Orwell? The quote that comes to mind. "all animals are equal but some animals are more equal than others..."

The devil will push buttons, attack your weak points and do whatever TO DISCREDIT GOD. Danny has made his choices, lived his life, and he is choosing to discredit God by those choices, and those that believe he is a prophet or annointed one. Better to have a rock tied around your foot and you dropped in to the sea. What a great responsibility! Those are him are also participating in discrediting God by thinking He would sanction or look the other way when such behavior and treatment go out to those who are in his home, family and work place and anyone else that gets in the way of what he wants

Well said.

Danny said, "Somebody ran a stop sign and killed 'em."

Does anyone know whether the police record indicates that somebody ran a stop sign and ran into the car driven by his wife?

If that is true, any other speculation would certainly appear to be way out of the ballpark.

I know where the wreck happened, and there was a stop sign there. It's now a four way stop, but was only two way at the time. I believe they actually made it four way BECAUSE of this wreck. I don't remember whether Kay (Danny's first wife) or the other driver ran the stop sign, but it's irrelevant. I'm not trying to defend Danny by any means, but it's not fair to say he murdered Kay. It was a vehicle accident in which she died.

That is why we(admin) chose not to entertain discussion about this in the beginning.

I was just trying to remember how it creped up again, and it was the broadcast. I don't know why Teresa got Danny on this tangent. She was told this was not allowed to be discussed here.

Do you know if there was a hedge there at that time which could have obscured the sign or the view from the road?

It seems like there was some heavy growth of brush at the time of the accident, and I think the county went out and cleared a lot of it off after the accident. That particular crossing has claimed a lot of lives over the years.

Some years back, when I heard Danny telling the story of his wife's accident my first thought was to wonder why she and Melody had been ejected from the van. If they had been wearing seat belts it seems unlikely that they would have been ejected. If wonder if they weren't wearing seat belts? If that's the case it sure was a shame!

I don't know why I didn't think of this before...must be getting old, but when Dan kept saying how much production went up during Tommy's employment, I wonder how that was figured out.

Before Tommy, there was only Studio A and the Uplink Studio functioning full time along with a production truck that was running about half speed. After Tommy arrived, the second studio, Studio B, was coming to completion and the Production Truck began running full time with full-time crews. So, was it that production got more efficient under his leadership, or that there were just more studios and people working in Production?

Just a thought...always look for the truth in the lie...er, the lie in the truth!
