

174

Printable Version of Topic

Click here to view this topic in its original format

---

BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Linda: Letters Of Love And Support

---

Posted by: justme Sep 1 2006, 07:12 AM

Linda, you likely have little to no idea of the support and love going out to you.
God really, really loves you, and so do we!
We pray that God will lead you into your next ministry opportunity, in His time, in His ways.
We feel your pain and suffering, and we ask that God will use it to make you wiser and stronger.
God really, really loves you, and so do we!

God will open doors for you for you to minister like never before, when you remain faithful to Him in your heart of hearts. He will fill your loneliness in a very special way.

Let this be your theme song: by Margie Elzey,

"I Choose" ...

1)

"I choose, for to-day,
Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
And I choose, for to-day,
To give up my control and let Jesus have his way,
And I choose, for to-day,
Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
And I choose, for to-day,
To give up my control and let Jesus have his way,

2)

The path we take, will decide our final direc-tion,
We choose, each day, the hard way, or the easy way,
And I choose, for to-day,
Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
And I choose, for to-day,
To give up my control and let Jesus have his way,
And I choose, for today,
Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
And I choose, for to-day,
To give up my control and let Jesus have his way.

3)

The path He chose, took Him to the cross,
He said, "Sacrifice your life, and begin to live",
So I choose, for to-day,
Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
And I choose, for to-day,
To give up my control, and let Jesus have his way,

4)

"Sometimes it feels like You've left me all alone,
I won't doubt in the dark, what You showed me in the light",
So I choose, for to-day,
Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
And I choose, for to-day,

To give up my control and let Jesus have his way,
 And I choose, for to-day,
 Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
 And I choose, for to-day,
 To give up my control and let Jesus have his way,
 And I choose, for to-day,
 (fade out to end)
 Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
 And I choose, for to-day,
 To give up my control and let Jesus have his way.

God really, really loves you, and so do we!

Posted by: Johann Sep 11 2006, 04:15 AM

QUOTE(justme @ Sep 1 2006, 03:12 PM)

Linda, you likely have little to no idea of the support and love going out to you.
 God really, really loves you, and so do we!
 We pray that God will lead you into your next ministry opportunity, in His time, in His ways.
 We feel your pain and suffering, and we ask that God will use it to make you wiser and stronger.
 God really, really loves you, and so do we!

God will open doors for you for you to minister like never before, when you remain faithful to Him
 in your heart of hearts. He will fill your loneliness in a very special way.

Let this be your theme song: by Margie Elzey,

"I Choose" ...

1)

"I choose, for to-day,
 Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
 And I choose, for to-day,
 To give up my control and let Jesus have his way,
 And I choose, for to-day,
 Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
 And I choose, for to-day,
 To give up my control and let Jesus have his way,

2)

The path we take, will decide our final direc-tion,
 We choose, each day, the hard way, or the easy way,
 And I choose, for to-day,
 Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
 And I choose, for to-day,
 To give up my control and let Jesus have his way,
 And I choose, for today,
 Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
 And I choose, for to-day,
 To give up my control and let Jesus have his way.

3)

The path He chose, took Him to the cross,
 He said, "Sacrifice your life, and begin to live",
 So I choose, for to-day,

Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
And I choose, for to-day,
To give up my control, and let Jesus have his way,

4)

"Sometimes it feels like You've left me all alone,
I won't doubt in the dark, what You showed me in the light",
So I choose, for to-day,
Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
And I choose, for to-day,
To give up my control and let Jesus have his way,
And I choose, for to-day,
Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
And I choose, for to-day,
To give up my control and let Jesus have his way,
And I choose, for to-day,
(fade out to end)
Not to crawl off the altar, but to be faith-ful,
And I choose, for to-day,
To give up my control and let Jesus have his way.

God really, really loves you, and so do we!

Beautiful words of comfort. I know Linda thanks God for your support.

---

Powered by Invision Power Board (<http://www.invisionboard.com>)

© Invision Power Services (<http://www.invisionpower.com>)