BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Linda's Schedule

Posted by: Noahswife May 22 2007, 02:20 PM

I had heard that Linda Shelton would be at the Ohio Conference Campmeeting in June. I looked and there was no mention on their website or in their pdf document regarding the campmeeting schedule. There was no mention on Linda's website either.

I just checked with the conference office and Linda will in fact be there on Sabbath afternoon, June 16 at 4 PM. I thanked them for inviting her and asked if there was anything I could do to help get the word out. Basically I was told to just show up and be supportive. Unfortunately, I am hoping to be out of town that weekend but wanted to let others know in my region.

Does anyone else know of events she is scheduled to attend over the summer or next few months?

nw

BTW.....if someone knows her webmaster please ask if there is a reason this is not up on her website yet as this is not that off.

You can scratch off Upper Columbia Conference campmeeting. She can't be at two places at the same time.

Hi Jim

On another subject, is there a NCC policy about Linda Shelton appearing in any of our conference churches? She is coming to visit a local friend of mine, and ***** told me that our Pastor will not allow her to speak at our church. I am aware that Danny has spoken in several of our conference churches so I am just curious if there is just a general rule or policy preventing Linda from doing so as well.

Hello, there is not a general NCC policy about this. Rather, it is usually a local matter. However, given the nature of some of the issues on both sides, I would be cautious to invite either of them to appear in any of our churches at this time.

I hope you have a good Sabbath.

Is there then some kind of unspoken policy that DS would be better off not speaking in SDA churches? Is this something new?

The president of the Central California Conference and his wife were having a lovely time with Shelly Quinn and husband the other evening.

I think that the NAD/NCC/etc.,etc. need to avail themselves of the services of a top-notch PR company!

What do youall think?

if she can't speak, he shouldn't be allowed to speak.... oh that's right... there is a double standard.... whatever DS says is the truth and whatever LS says must be untrue because DS would never lie....

I started a post earlier to this whole non-consistent issue. Trashed it, trying again. DS can speak (for the most part) at just about any sda church (right now) and this is with supported testimony and proof against him and things he has done. However, Linda can not (for the most part) simply because of ds spreading false lies that can not be proven or supported with evidence. Explain this nonsense to me? How is it that people are so gullable? How is it that ds knows he can capitalize on this gullable-ness? What a sad state sda's are really in if it's just this easy to be hood-winked. Oh, and give money to the man at the same time...sheeesh!

Doesn't any one see this as a positive statement? Yeh, the Northern California Conference president wouldn't invite Linda to minister(Ohio is, and I plan to be there). But neither will the chairman of Amazing Facts board invite Danny to speak as of today!

As of last Thursday he said:

Hello, as of today the proposed merger is still proceeding with the investigative stage of the discussions. Nothing is currently on hold.

Best wishes,

Jim Pedersen

Yet I just read the June issue of 3ABN World June Issue which reads on page six:

"God is abundantly confirming His providential leading of the network into greater global evangelism. The same-day announcement of the upcoming union of Three Angels Broadcasting Network and Amazing Facts - unanimously supported by both boards of directors - along with the signed contract for 3ABN carriage on DISH Network,..."

How is it that the merger can be "unanimously supported by both boards of directors" when the, "proposed merger is still proceeding with the investigative stage..." and the chairman of Amazing Facts board (Jim Pederson) would be cautious to invite Danny Shelton to speak in any of his conference churches at this time!

I think there is a serious contradiction of statements here. Who do you think is twisting the truth?

Yep - and this time, everyone gets to see just how it works...before, no one new enough to see it when it was happening...hmmm.

bad, very bad. Egg on face here - got some ketchup?

I think it was no accident that some here at bsda started communicating with the prez of N.CA Conference when they did....I know a few things happening behind the scenes, and from what I see, the timing of these emails in particular could not have been planned by men (or women  ). My opinion is that all things are working together, as they should be, and I believe it is the hand of God. JMO and I'm stickin' to it.

Would anyone know how to email, Jim Pederson on the AF board? If the AF 3abn a done deal, AF should count to ten!

Generally, you can get email address for conference officials off conference websites. Or at least call and ask if it's not stated on the websites.

You can probably get the address for the board members too. Just ask! It's always worth the time, even if it seems hopeless at times!

It is my understanding that Linda has now also been added to services on Friday but I do not know yet the time or her role. Has anyone else heard since we are now less than 10 days away? I checked her website and do not see any updates as to her schedule.

I was the phone with Linda for over two hours today, and we talked about some of her events coming up (CA and OH for example).

She has submitted information to her webmaster to have her website updated (planned for tomorrow) as she has a few changes/adds being made on it. Just a matter of waiting for them to get it done.

At Ohio Campmeeting she is on for Friday night and Sabbath afternoon.

- Friday night she is singing just before Ron Halverson Sr. speaks.
- Sabbath she does a concert in the afternoon (4pm I believe it is).

*****

UPDATING:

I am getting the details for her California event and will post that soon.

I have received details on what Linda's schedule regarding Northern California July 6th and 7th.

July 6 and 7, at 6:30 PM both nights. This event is open to all and an offering will be taken both nights to cover expenses.

The address is:
The Light
525 Fifth Street
Santa Rosa, CA

website for "The Light "is here >>> <http://www.lightconcerts.com/>

Contact number: 707-694-5885 (leave message)

This event is being sponsored by Loud Cry Music Ministry

The theme is along the lines of Operation Global Rain. Along with Linda's messages both nights there will also be a mini concert with Kathy Schallert and Linda Shelton. There will be Praise and Worship, and Linda's message from the Word!

While Linda is in N. Cal for this long weekend, she will be doing some grass roots ministry Thursday and Friday morning in the area, I believe this will include visiting a womens shelter.

If you have any questions or would like further details regarding Sabbath morning, and fellowship after church, you may PM me  I'll do my best to answer!

Her complete schedule at this moment:

Thursday PM: The Rose womens Shelter AND the Redwood Gospel Mission. The Rose has about 25 women and children who will receive a wonderful blessing by having Linda present a Bible study just for them. The Redwood Gospel Mission is a homeless Shelter/work program/Recovery Program for men. An hour long presentation at the Redwood Gospel Mission will precede the Bible Study at the Rose.

Friday AM: Manna Home, a 10 month womens recovery Program.

Friday afternoon: visiting some folk that want to meet her very much :-) one lady inparticular is staying alive just to meet Linda Shelton. She has been a faithful supporter of 3ABN since the beginning (not any more though, but she still watches it). She is 102 years old and cannot wait to meet Linda.

Friday PM: Linda will present at The Light, the theme is Operation Global Rain (as stated above).

Sabbath AM: church, as a member, no speaking, just worshipping with the family :-)

Sabbath PM: Same as Friday PM at "The Light" (all stated above)

If you have any questions or would like further details regarding Sabbath morning, and fellowship after church, you may PM me  I'll do my best to answer!

Saw Linda at Ohio camp meeting. She had Pastor Paschal with her who used to sing with "Alliance" at Oakwood before they became "Take 6." He was also her pastor at the Springfield church but he's now moving on to the Orlando area. The pastors wife(?) was also with them. Most of the program was made up of the three of them singing very powerful gospel harmonies. Loved it. Linda also brought a state of the art music video that she opened the program with and sang along with. Very impressive. My wife and I had a nice talk with her after the program. She said that this was the first big event that she has done since all of the traumatic happenings. I asked her if she had any words for the folks at BSDA. She said, "Tell them that I thank them all from the bottom of my heart."

Sounds very encouraging! I will probably see Linda on July 7 since I will be passing through on that day up to the Redwoods Coast for some R&R...
