BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Doug In Denial? Or Danny's Bluff?

Posted by: Pickle May 4 2007, 04:27 PM

<http://www.3abn.org/pdf/world/3ABN-World-2007-06.pdf>. The cover story is all about the merger, and the cover says that the magazine is "Published Monthly by 3ABN/Amazing Facts."

I still haven't heard Doug come out and state how he feels about Danny covering up his brother's child molestation allegations, or Danny's divorcing Linda when he didn't know whether or not she had committed fornication. Anyone know where Doug stands on these questions?

Notice how the ASI president who also sits on the ASI Mission, Inc. board, Debbie Young, has an article in the magazine too. Does that suggest that the ASI Missions, Inc. board will indeed be the new constituency?

The way this issue is put together you'd think Doug and Debbie are 100% behind Danny. Is that reality or is this just an illusion created by Danny?

I hate to call somebody's competency into question, but it's better than attacking their character.

Right now I prefer to believe that Doug and AF asked Danny about the allegations on the 'net, and were told they were all lies told by people trying to "destroy the ministry." And believed it.

Posted by: PeacefullyBewildered May 5 2007, 10:40 AM

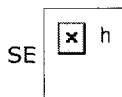

I also am giving Doug the benefit of the doubt at the moment. However, Eve believed what that serpent told her when it would have been better for all if she had attempted to confirm whether or not what the serpent had told her was true before she put her trust in him.

Character? Competency? Pleeaazzzzz.....

I think that anyone making donations to AF that is aware of the 3abn situation should be melting the wires to DB's phones. Is the AF "leader" also without a competent board that functions as a board would in the real world? Or is it also a board that is nothing more than a giant affirmation stamp for someone's dreams and aspirations? Can someone help me on this one?

I agree with you, Noahswife! If even a Peon (talking about me) can read what is on the internet here and at save3abn then someone like DB who has a "competent board" (to quote you) and who knows other solid SDA friends/ministers/evangelists/officials of the church in high places should be able to ask his own questions while sifting through all the "stuff". It is not that difficult to come to an intelligent conclusion. I do not want to judge him or his motives but it does look too cozy for me. My donations stopped going to AF when I first heard of the merger with no pronouncement of cleaning house. We must not hide behind the cloak of apparent christianity and remain silent about real issues...that leaves me with a bad taste in my mouth. Back to standing up for truth....and principles...and rights of victims...and the pure unadulterated Gospel. There is always a lesson in everything....pray that we might not be puffed up and forget our total need of Him for all things.

There doesn't seem to be any clear facts with the Danny and Linda situation, I believe that is why most of Danny's supporters would rather focus on the good of his ministry.

Well, if there aren't any clear facts, why have donations dropped in the first quarter--in the seven figures? Seems like something's clear to someone!

Original documents don't lie.

A lot of Danny's supporters were in denial until they read save3abn.com. I believe if more of them were to head on over and read without prejudice, there would be a house-cleaning.

NW and R4H are both right--AF donors ought to hold off awhile, and Doug really should know better. But the truth is, it's not the easiest thing if you've been friends with someone awhile to believe such bad things about them. Of course he should be investigating, but he's as busy as any of us and relies on people to tell him what to believe on this. I'm not commending him for it, but it's probably how it is.

Remember that we've got no evidence of egregiously bad behavior on Doug's part--unless you count ambition.

well since ASI totally spun the reason for their withdrawal from "discussions",.... it is probably both reality and DS's deliberate and conscious illusion.

it's beginning to look like the new 3abn and the new 3abn board is going to be a union between ASI, Amazing Facts & GC (in the sense that ken denslow was on the 3abn board). we were talking about this scenario last night and although it's good that "one" person is not in full control, it most likely will also mean that "the undiluted message" will disappear. this is where the "veil" is hung up and DS, etal's sins shall be hidden and "be as if they never were" and life goes on.

this is the time for deepest prayer and strong actions. time for us to do our writing with pen and paper and when we do that, we must make sure we have our information and our attitude correct lest our words come back void.

i propose a vigorous, honest and sincere writing campaign among all of us.

i also, propose that we need to vigorously support in any way we can those who's heads are on the chopping block for simply standing up and speaking out against wrongding in our ministries, whomever they are.

we must speak out in the defense of "speaking out". we must speak in the defense of having the freedom within our denomination to always be able to do that without being sued. this is not a time to speak in any deceitful way. if we want to be effective, we have to speak the truth and speak we must; not just here, but much more importantly, to the powers that be. i believe this is our small window of opportunity before all we've discussed here gets swept permanently under the "red persian rug". let's get busy.

would like to ask you and many others on this forum some questions.
Do you know Danny or Linda personally?
Have you ever been to 3abn facilities?
Have you spent a lot of time with any of those talked about on this forum?

Well, 1. Doug has
2. Doug did and does
3. Doug has many times
4. Doug has
So the big question: Could it be remotely possible that Doug knows plenty that you people don't know and has made the decision of the merge accordingly.
To the lurkers here, this will make total sense.
To the rest of you, you will twist and turn it and end up with something ridiculous that makes no sense whatsoever. For instance, those of you that answered no to those questions, somehow, know more than Doug. But that's ok, I had my say.

Had you read some of the posts you would know that indeed there are MANY here who have been to 3abn, worked for 3abn, spent time at 3abn... they have 1st hand testimony....

Yes you have had your say.... thank you for sharing your opinion....

Great idea. Let's all of us, denizens and lurkers, write to:

Local Conference:

Illinois Conference of Seventh-day Adventists
Kenneth Denslow, President
619 Plainfield Rd
Willowbrook, IL 60527-8437

Union (one level up):

Lake Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists
Walter L. Wright, President
PO Box C
Berrien Springs, MI 49103-0904

Division (two levels up):

North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists
Don Schneider, President
12501 Old Columbia Pike
Silver Spring, MD 20904-6600

General Conference:

General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists
Jan Paulsen, President
12501 Old Columbia Pike
Silver Spring, Maryland 20904-6600

Elder Denslow is the local conference president; writing him is good if for no other reason than to encourage him to publicly remove himself from the board (and I don't care if his parents work for 3ABN). Danny outweighs him in power by many orders of magnitude, though, and one has to write at higher levels to encourage the church to distance themselves from him.

Here are a few more addresses:

Amazing Facts
Doug Batchelor, President
P.O. Box 1058
Roseville, CA 95678-8058

Weimar Institute
Don Christensen, President
PO Box 486
Weimar, CA 95736

ASI Ministries
12501 Old Columbia Pike,
Silver Spring, MD 20904

The following are ASI officers. I include all their names because as long as they affiliate themselves with 3ABN, they bring shame on themselves, their organization, and the church.

President - Debbie Young
Secretary/Treasurer - Ron Christman
General Vice President - Chester Clark III
Vice Presidents - Viorel Catarama, Chip Doss, Leasa Hodges, Doreen Schmidt, Barbara Taylor
NAD appointees - Juan Prestol, Don Schneider, Halvard Thomsen
Union ASI Secretary - Norm Clam
Conference ASI Secretary - Duane McKey
Union ASI Chapter Presidents - Lorayne Barton, Chester Clark Jr., Gayle Clark, Steve Dickman, Sharon

Erickson, Elizabeth Gonsalves-Remington, Sandy Miller, Dan Ross
Members at large - Ellsworth McKee, Tom Zapara
Immediate past president - Denzil McNeilus
President, Missions Inc. - Harold Lance

ASI Missions Inc.

President - Harold Lance

NAD appointees - Juan Prestol, Don Schneider, Halvard Thomsen

Members - Terry Anderson, Ron Christman, Dan Houghton, Andre Jubert, MD, Ellsworth McKee, Denzil McNeilus, Garwin McNeilus, Jane Sines, Stan Smith, Debbie Young

This is a lot of stamps, but if we can make some noise, maybe people will realize that the temple needs to be cleansed.

By the way, these are all publicly available addresses I got from the Internet, in case anyone wonders.

You realize you're making Doug look as bad as Danny. If he's colluding somehow, he's not the man I thought he was.

Perhaps if he'd spent some time on save3abn.com he wouldn't have gone through. He's a busy guy he has to rely on what other people tell him unless he decides it's important to find out for himself. That's why better writing is so important.

n Ken's defense, I'm pretty close to someone who grew up with him. Word is, he'd give away his job right now if he could. I don't think anyone in the North American Division would even take it.

That isn't to say he shouldn't speak up--he should. But as a part of the institution myself I can see why he hasn't. Perhaps in Ken's case we ought to send cards and letters of sympathy and encouragement.

A lot of Danny's supporters were in denial until they read save3abn.com. I believe if more of them were to head on over and read without prejudice, there would be a house-cleaning.

The difficult part for me is my mother still prefers to deny the authenticity of TS's letter and claim the pregnancy test kit means something other than a joke gone bad. So for those who believe what they see on TV is real the internet is nothing but fabrication and lies. DS & Co have people like my mother convinced those who speak against DS and ask for transparency are the pawns of Satan. (yes that means me too)

QUOTE

Remember that we've got no evidence of egregiously bad behavior on Doug's part--unless you count ambition.

I think I would find one possible exception to this SE. If what I have come to believe is true, DB should be publicly forthright about what counselling was provided to the Sheltons by him. To not do so and be involved with DS in this manner suggests traits I do not find commendable. However, where would this proposed merger be if within the past 6 months DB had set the record straight which would be I believe a very different story than the one DS and his scribes have been telling.

Actually, SE I think this is also an excellent idea. I am much more comfortable giving encouragement than making demands or challenging someone I do not know. Thanks for the suggestion.

Lastly, my mother came home from church the sabbath after the announcement stating that due to the merger with AF they were told in church that 3abn would be back on skyangel within 3 weeks. I have not seen or heard this anywhere else unless I missed it here. Has anyone else heard anything about this?

I agree. I have been much the same.

At this point in time, he is not responding to anybody about 3-ABN.

Yes, one potential action of honor that he might to would be to resign from the 3-ABN Board. But, that would raise a tactical question as to whether or not that would be wise.

unless i missed something, the merger had nothing to do with 3abn being back. it will be on dish, not skyangel. moises met with the dish network people in las vegas, during a convention, at the same time the "emergency meetings" were taking place so i don't see how it's possible that moises could have used that to persuade the dish ppl to put 3abn on dish using dish's echostar satellite. if i am not mistaken, the echostar satellite was damaged in an area that was leased by skyangel. when they couldn't restore all the damage had done, they (dish) made a deal with skyangel to restore, i think, 4 of the 6 stations that were lost. it was up to the powers that be at skyangel to decide who they would put back on the air and it was their choice. they chose not to put 3abn back on the air. [this is pure hearsay from a member at our church, but she said the woman who heads skyangel does not like danny and didn't want to do business with him anymore.] just hearsay, but makes one wonder considering how many viewers 3abn has.

so moises said that he met with the suits at dish during the convention and that they told him they had been inundated for so long to put 3abn on dish network that they finally decided to do it. so.....3abn will be on dish which can be acquired through the skyangel "dish" dish (lol) and receiver that we already have, but it will not actually be from or through skyangel. skyangel being the middleman per se. to sum it up: it will come through the same equipment but it will come directly from dish network, not skyangel network. it's so hard to explain conversations. □ hope that makes sense and is somewhat close to correct.

Posted by: mozart May 5 2007, 09:42 PM

I just watched Wintley Phipps on the TCW. His sermon was Thou Shalt Not Steal.

It was pretty good. He talked of Judas taking money from the bag to pay himself as he saw fit. A few dollars for "holding the bag", a few more for "protecting the bag" and a few more for "counting the money in the bag". He also talked about how Lucifer stole the hearts of the angels by deceiving them and making them promises of enlightenment as he did with Eve. It was pretty interesting the way he elaborated on that.

I can understand that these ministers associated with 3abn are very busy men and they cannot investigate like we can. This is why we need to get that pen and paper out and write to them.

There were lots of vacant seats in the auditorium.

QUOTE(sister @ May 5 2007, 09:22 PM)

Yes, I know Danny and Linda personally.

Yes, of course I have been to the 3ABN facilities and spent alot more time there than Doug.

Yes I have spent probably more time with those talked about on this forum than Doug has and know the truth that lays behind the public facade.

I truly doubt that it is even remotely possible that Doug knows plenty that I don't know and if he does know what I know and is still continuing on with the merger, than shame on him.

And shame on you, Eirene, for supporting Danny Shelton, if you really know the truth.

If you read the article in <http://www.3abn.org/pdf/world/3ABN-World-2007-06.pdf>, you will find that it is felt that the announcement of the merger and the nearly simultaneous announcement that 3abn will be carried on Dish Network are being interpreted as showing God's providences. I believe something may have been mentioned about Skyangel on the April 19 merge announce show but I don't know details. I will check the show when I get back home unless someone has the information sooner.

They did mention something about Skyangel. It sounded a little confusing to me, but I wasn't very interested in what they were talking about. It sounded like they were saying they would be on Skyangel and Dish, but at the time I was not clear about what they had said.

we must speak in the defense of having the freedom within our denomination to always be able to do that without being sued.

What an interesting thought. It conjures up images of the time, foretold under the third angel's message (undiluted), when we will not be able to speak and practice our faith. That's why Seventh-day Adventists have spent so much money over the years defending the rights of citizens to both practice and speak about their faith.

PB asked the question above and here is what I heard....

Yes, I heard the very same thing this past week from a friend who works for someone who is very closely connected with ASI, DB, 3ABN. He/she said that they were very excited about the merger and that 3abn would be back on SkyAngel within 3 weeks - exact quote! They received an e-mail from DB with info about the merger and future plans. The rest of the word from my friend was just be quiet about all this...don't try to do the Lord's work....warning me.....I say.... where are the warriors who will serve in the Army of God and speak for Him? I was reminded today of the early Christians who were directed to deny their faith and burn that wee bit of incense before the idol or false god or be fed to the lions. It was such a little thing to go ahead and offer their allegiance to Rome and paganism....they could have reasoned..."You see I am only conforming outwardly....it is such a little thing....the good I can do later will make up for this act....if I die what good will I be able to do...I need to live to do great things - later."

Let us stand up today and not fear to do right no matter what the consequences might be. The Word is full of examples of men and women who made the choice to surrender all and stand for truth even if it meant they did it alone. We also have the examples of men and women who made the choice to bend the knee to Baal.

This is a great idea, Soul. But it would be nice to have email addresses as well as snail mail ones. Most Conference websites have email addresses. General conference email addresses are not so easy to find, but I understand that the address format is lastname first initial... with no space between them, and the address itself is @gc.adventist.org ... (examples wilson@gc.adventist.org, finleym etc.) except for the GC president. But Vice Presidents are sufficient anyhow, for part of their duties is to inform the GC president of email that is pertinent to him. Names of other VPs can be found at <http://www.adventistyearbook.org/default.aspx?page=ViewAdmField&Year=9999&AdmFieldID=GC>

NAD names with email addresses are at <http://www.adventistyearbook.org/default.aspx?&page=ViewAdmField&Section=General&Search=Divisions&AdmFieldID=NAD>

It would also be well to include the conference and union where Amazing Facts is located,

<http://ncc.adventist.org>,

<http://www.puonline.org>, where there is an email link on the president's page.

And also, of course, <http://www.amazingfacts.org> itself, where there is a "contact us" form where you can specify administration.

And also Jim Pederson, who is both president of NCC as well as chairman of the board of Amazing Facts, JPedersen@ncc.adventist.org .

Great idea. Let's all of us, denizens and lurkers, write to:

Local Conference:

Illinois Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

Kenneth Denslow, President

Willowbrook, IL 60527-8437

Union (one level up):

Lake Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists
Walter L. Wright, President
PO Box C
Berrien Springs, MI 49103-0904

Division (two levels up):

North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists
Don Schneider, President

General Conference:

General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists
Jan Paulsen, President
12501 Old Columbia Pike
Silver Spring, Maryland 20904-6600

Elder Denslow is the local conference president; writing him is good if for no other reason than to encourage him to publicly remove himself from the board (and I don't care if his parents work for 3ABN). Danny outweighs him in power by many orders of magnitude, though, and one has to write at higher levels to encourage the church to distance themselves from him.

Here are a few more addresses:

Amazing Facts
Doug Batchelor, President
P.O. Box 1058
Roseville, CA 95678-8058

Weimar Institute
Don Christensen, President
PO Box 486
Weimar, CA 95736

ASI Ministries
12501 Old Columbia Pike,

The following are ASI officers. I include all their names because as long as they affiliate themselves with 3ABN, they bring shame on themselves, their organization, and the church.

President - Debbie Young
Secretary/Treasurer - Ron Christman
General Vice President - Chester Clark III
Vice Presidents - Viorel Catarama, Chip Doss, Leasa Hodges, Doreen Schmidt, Barbara Taylor
NAD appointees - Juan Prestol, Don Schneider, Halvard Thomsen
Union ASI Secretary - Norm Clam
Conference ASI Secretary - Duane McKey
Union ASI Chapter Presidents - Lorayne Barton, Chester Clark Jr., Gayle Clark, Steve Dickman, Sharon Erickson, Elizabeth Gonsalves-Remington, Sandy Miller, Dan Ross
Members at large - Ellsworth McKee, Tom Zapara
Immediate past president - Denzil McNeilus
President, Missions Inc. - Harold Lance

ASI Missions Inc.

President - Harold Lance

NAD appointees - Juan Prestol, Don Schneider, Halvard Thomsen

Members - Terry Anderson, Ron Christman, Dan Houghton, Andre Jubert, MD, Ellsworth McKee, Denzil McNeilus, Garwin McNeilus, Jane Sines, Stan Smith, Debbie Young

This is a lot of stamps, but if we can make some noise, maybe people will realize that the temple needs to be cleansed.

By the way, these are all publicly available addresses I got from the Internet, in case anyone wonders.

It made me sad to get this response from a friend and I would feel the same way if I would receive this kind of reaction from anyone who presents themselves as a staunch believer. I just cannot relate or understand these kind of remarks.

If we don't get involved, if we don't stay aware of the decisions being made by our leaders and if we aren't willing to question those choices at times and take action, we will share in the responsibility for the consequences.

Amen! Like I said earlier let's remember those early Christians... and what about Luther...We are thankful for his courage...his questions...his search for truth and what about those who died at the stake for His Word. We are not even facing that degree of persecution yet but let's ask ourselves ... are we like that frog sitting in the pot of water that is slowly being heated up....not knowing that it could easily jump to safety but instead sits in the pot of hot water until life is gone and it is too late.

Well, if there aren't any clear facts, why have donations dropped in the first quarter--in the seven figures?
Seems like something's clear to someone!

Original documents don't lie.

A lot of Danny's supporters were in denial until they read save3abn.com. I believe if more of them were to head on over and read without prejudice, there would be a house-cleaning.

NW and R4H are both right--AF donors ought to hold off awhile, and Doug really should know better. But the truth is, it's not the easiest thing if you've been friends with someone awhile to believe such bad things about them. Of course he should be investigating, but he's as busy as any of us and relies on people to tell him what to believe on this. I'm not commending him for it, but it's probably how it is.

Remember that we've got no evidence of egregiously bad behavior on Doug's part--unless you count ambition.

Wow! the figures have actually dropped that much. Well DS should not be surprised, getting a quick divorce and not wasting any time in finding a new wife would raise question marks in the eyes of supporters.

I have not checked out the website 'save3abn.com' so I can not make any comments on the statements made there.

Maybe this merger is DB's desire to save 3abn.

We must keep in mind that it is difficult to dethrone a layman who has started a ministry that has reached so many souls for Christ.

DS: DS also seems to be accused for the misuse of 3abn's funds.

I would like to encourage you to go to the 'save3abn.com' website and read ALL the material. It will take some time but you will have a clear picture of what has been going on. You will find the documentation unadulterated. Bsdas is a blessing and should take the credit for stimulating the investigative process. Isn't it where the first questions about DS & 3abn were raised publicly? Correct me if I am wrong. This is a great forum to be able to ask questions, feel the support of others who want answers, and challenge ideas...not people. I am hooked and will still be here when the 3abn crisis is resolved.

I agree with you, Noahswife! If even a Peon (talking about me) can read what is on the internet here and at save3abn then someone like DB who has a "competent board" (to quote you) and who knows other solid SDA friends/ministers/evangelists/officials of the church in high places should be able to ask his own questions while sifting through all the "stuff". It is not that difficult to come to an intelligent conclusion. I do not want to judge him or his motives but it does look too cozy for me. My donations stopped going to AF when I first heard of the merger with no pronouncement of cleaning house. We must not hide behind the cloak of apparent christianity and remain silent about real issues...that leaves me with a bad taste in my mouth. Back to standing up for truth....and principles...and rights of victims...and the pure unadulterated Gospel. There is always a lesson in everything....pray that we might not be puffed up and forget our total need of Him for all things.

The legal defense fund is probably the most urgent right now, considering that Garwin McNeilus can squander a whole lot more money on lawyers than Bob Pickle or Gailon Joy, even if there is no valid case. (It's a common technique to stall until the opposition runs out of money.) Whether you can contribute $5.00 or $5,000.00, every little bit helps.

I still haven't heard Doug come out and state how he feels about Danny covering up his brother's child molestation allegations, or Danny's divorcing Linda when he didn't know whether or not she had committed fornication. Anyone know where Doug stands on these questions?

Notice how the ASI president who also sits on the ASI Mission, Inc. board, Debbie Young, has an article in the magazine too. Does that suggest that the ASI Missions, Inc. board will indeed be the new constituency?

The way this issue is put together you'd think Doug and Debbie are 100% behind Danny. Is that reality or is this just an illusion created by Danny?

Pickle, I sure HOPE not! Db is a very intelligent person, one would think he knows it all! Db ought to know is being used by ds to cy(h)a for him to continue his abuse wthin 3abn, having db upfront.
