Payment History Since Bank's New System in P

Payments from September 2005 Through March 2006

Somehow with the transition from the old system to the new system, we did not rec between April 15, 2005, and September 19, 2005. The principal still due declined in ($7,028.47 to $5,749.86), and the September 19, 2005, payment reduced the balance monthly payment is clearly $357.36, which is what it was back in April 2005.

The reduction in principal of the amount of $1,278.61 can be accounted for by the 1 May, June, July, and August, each reducing the principal by a tad more than $300.

Thus we find no evidence to support Dr. Walt Thompson's May and June 2006 claim debt on Alyssa's car. Can someone please explain this discrepancy?
