“... Times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord.” Acts 3:19

Dear Family,

It’s March and the warm winds of spring are beginning to blow. After a long cold winter, I long to see things turn green again, to bud and blossom with new life as the warmth of the sun and spring rains bring refreshing to the earth.

As spring is breaking forth in the natural, we are sensing an even greater refreshing on this ministry from the presence of God. He is so faithful! I can truthfully say that 3ABN is bursting forth with new life. I look at all three networks: 3ABN English, 3ABN Latino, and 3ABN Radio, and stand amazed at the phenomenal growth of each. Such rapid growth has stretched us at the very seams to produce enough programming to meet the demand.

Won’t you join with us in this great opportunity to reach the millions of new souls that God is giving 3ABN, as the warmth of His Spirit blows throughout the world bringing refreshing “from the presence of the Lord.” Your prayers and financial support will make it possible for a bountiful harvest of souls to be added to the Lamb’s Book of Life.

God bless you,

As spring is breaking forth in the natural, we are sensing an even greater refreshing on this ministry from the presence of God.

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

WELCOME

It’s only March, and already so much has happened! The Lord is surely pouring out His blessings and making new opportunities available to stretch the reach of the gospel! Read about 3ABN’s new full-power television station in Uganda (p. 6) and the wonderful miracles needed to bring you the General Youth Conference coverage (p. 8). Find out what goes on behind the scenes on the Kids Time set (p. 14) and pause to think about Annette Christian’s devotional “Reality or Finality” (p. 30). And remember — God is making opportunities available to you, too! Tell someone about Jesus, and tell them about 3ABN!

Have you been blessed?

Have you been blessed by 3ABN? Or have you come to know the Lord Jesus Christ by watching or listening? We'd love to know!

Your testimony can make a difference in our readers' lives, so why not sit down and drop us a line? You can write to us at: 3ABN World, PO Box 220, West Frankfort, IL 62896. E-mail us at: worldmagazine@3abn.org

"I am so happy to have you on my computer. We can't have a dish in our condominium complex, but I would if I could! I have noticed the change in the whole atmosphere of 3ABN's programming. I know that God has a plan for everyone and everything, and He is using this ministry in a marvelous way."

LOVINGTON, NEW MEXICO

"I had my 3ABN satellite dish hooked up this past Sunday. I understand you believe as I do, except I didn't worship on the Sabbath. Now I am attending a local Seventh-day Adventist church. I love it, and I don't feel that I'm breaking the Fourth Commandment. God bless your radio and television networks, and all the work you're doing around the world."

ROSEVILLE, CALIFORNIA

"I found you on channel 27 in Sacramento, California, two months ago, and I feel like I have come home! I love the calmness of your programs, the Bible truths, the music — all of it. I am a 68-year-old retired nurse — always went to church — this is it for me!"

BERRIEN SPRINGS, MICHIGAN

"My overnight guests wanted to pay me for my hospitality, but I never take money from my guests. So they left me $50 as a gift to 3ABN. I could not deny this, so here is their $50 gift. 3ABN is my comfort and companionship. I could not get along without you. God bless you."

UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

"I am a Palestinian English language teacher working in the United Arab Emirates. I am originally from the occupied territories near the city of Bethlehem. I watch all your different programs. I hope your programs will help us overcome the conflict and hatred between us and our cousins, children of the same father, Abraham. Thank you very much again for your useful and wonderful programs."

VIA E-MAIL

"I am watching from China, but I am a Nigerian. I am really touched by your preaching about the Sabbath. It's been a long time since I heard such a gospel, since I came to China. The God that blessed the Sabbath day will surely bless you for the good news you are preaching. Remain blessed!"

"I'm working as a nanny in an Arabic house. I would like to thank you for your television network. It has made us understand many parts of being a Christian, especially for those who don't understand many things about the Holy Bible. Your network is very useful to people who have less time to go to church. Now I can learn in my own house. It's been three months now, and I have made a lot of progress in my life once again. I would like to thank you for your programs. God bless you!"

A PRISON IN ARIZONA

"I send this letter of grateful thanks to you. I am in prison, and it is such a blessing in this place of despair to be able to receive 3ABN. It's the only channel I watch. In fact, I must unplug my TV from the cable and the Lord allows me to pick up 3ABN as if by antenna. 3ABN delivers such hope for 'us forgotten souls.' And the good news of Jesus' forgiveness penetrates even these walls of darkness. I have told other Christian brothers how to receive your station, and they too send their thanks. You are all in our nightly prayers here in this prison. God bless you and continue to bless others through 3ABN."

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

3ABN Uganda on the air!

Our newest 3ABN full-power station now broadcasts from the campus of Bugema University near Kampala, Uganda.

There is no other way to say it. We are singing for joy, as our second full-power television station begins broadcasting on foreign soil! We praise God for the dedication of those who have helped make a new UHF television station possible near Kampala, the capital of Uganda!

It all began when a persistent group of Christians contacted Pastor Owen Troy, our former Director of 3ABN International Development, to see what they could do to build a television station that would broadcast Christ-centered programming 24 hours a day in their country.

After many phone calls and much prayer, they formed a non-governmental organization and incorporated 3ABN Uganda, and obtained permission to build the tower and transmitter facilities on the campus of Bugema University.

After careful planning and a lot of hard work, the transmitter was purchased in Italy and a tower was erected. And today the everlasting gospel is proclaimed from the mountaintop to a potential viewing audience of two million precious souls in a 100 mile radius! Plans are already well underway to build a studio and begin producing local programming as well.

This station was made possible only through the faithful prayers and financial support of you, our dear viewers and listeners. You have made it possible for the Lord's final message of love and warning to be boldly proclaimed in this African land. Please pray for those who are even now hearing about Jesus Christ for the first time in their lives. And rejoice with us in the words of the prophet, "Sing to the Lord a new song, sing His praises from the end of the earth.... Let them shout for joy from the tops of the mountains. Let them give glory to the Lord." (Isaiah 42:10, 12.) ■

An army of youth...

General Youth Conference

Imagine more than 1200 youth and young adults gathering together for five days of Bible study, training in witnessing, and Christian fellowship. Imagine hundreds responding to calls for deeper consecration. Imagine young people crowding in to hear Bible-based presentations on health, lifestyle, witnessing, and other topics until there is standing room only. Imagine more than 200 coming forward in response to a call for career missionaries, messengers to bring the gospel to the unreached.

Does this sound like a youth pastor's dream fantasy? Perhaps it does — but all these things happened at the third annual General Youth Conference (GYC) in Sacramento, CA, held December 15–19, 2004.

The GYC meetings resembled a multi-ethnic youth rally. A diverse mix of attendees from across the United States and more than a dozen other countries gathered for one purpose: to prepare for and hasten Jesus' second coming.

Noticeably absent were the "ice breaker" type activities and abundance of entertainment often associated with youth events. Instead there was a vast sea of smiling faces, hearty "amens," beautiful music, and a constant buzz of activity as youth and young adults scurried from one event to the next with Bibles and notebooks in hand.

3ABN was present to record the meetings. But the production didn't come together easily. Both 3ABN trucks broke down on the way to California — which made us all the more certain this was an event God's people needed to see and hear. With the prayers and determined efforts of many people, the trucks and equipment finally arrived, and the 3ABN team worked feverishly to bring the first evening's program on the air just moments before it went live.

The evening meetings and Sabbath programs were broadcast live around the world to 3ABN's viewing audience. Powerful and inspiring messages were delivered by speakers including Jan Paulsen, president of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, along with other well-known presenters such as David Asscherick, Doug Batchelor, Shawn Boonstra, Mark Finley, and Louis Torres.

"GYC showed me that young people are getting really serious about using their talents in service for Christ," notes Israel Ramos, president of the GYC. For young people looking forward to the 2005 GYC in Asheville, NC, he adds, "GYC will show you that you can do more to hasten the soon return of Christ, and be a part of an army of young people on a mission to proclaim the three angels' messages to the whole world in this generation." ■

The trucks and equipment finally arrived, and the 3ABN team worked feverishly to bring the first evening's program on the air just moments before it went live.

3ABN's production truck experienced a major breakdown on the way to Sacramento, CA.

Miraculously, it arrived — only 1 hour and 20 minutes before airtime. By God's grace we were on the air live as scheduled!

Steel Bars Cannot Stop the Word

The Bible tells us to visit the sick, the widows, and those in prison with the good news of Jesus Christ. But in today's world, there are many unique challenges for those who would minister in prison. But praise God, the use of radio has been effective in reaching into the cells of incarcerated individuals in Upper Michigan!

Jim Morris is the General Manager for 3ABN Radio.

We just received a letter from an inmate in a prison close to our affiliate station in West Branch, Michigan, and he writes: "Your radio station, which is brought to us by the local Seventh-day Adventists, is such a wonderful part of our Bible learning. I thank the Lord for the 3ABN ministry and for its and His great speakers like Doug Batchelor. My prayer is that 3ABN continues to grow and touch others as it has touched me — as only the Lord can do, and He did it through His Word, prayer, and 3ABN." This man is leading other inmates in Bible study and tells us that they listen to 3ABN Radio Network on their portable radios. He also asked us to supply reading material for his fellow inmates, and would like us to sign up his children for the Kids Club Bible Studies.

How encouraging these letters are! They bring into sharp focus our commission to reach out to all people — regardless of their location in life. We thank God for all of you who support 3ABN Radio's ministry through your faithful prayers and financial support. It really does make a difference! ■

The Gift of Tongues

God is constantly giving us opportunities for evangelism. And at present we are using one of those tools, the "gift of tongues." At 3ABN Latino we take advantage of all that we can get our hands on that will be a blessing to others. For example, God impressed Danny Shelton to write a book called The Forgotten Commandment which has been translated into Spanish (El Mandamiento Olvidado). This 48-page book talks about the importance of keeping God's Holy Sabbath, and we are so excited because this means that Hispanics can also benefit from this wonderful booklet.

Also, this month we will be airing the series The Prophecy Code with Pastor Doug Batchelor from the General Conference headquarters in Silver Spring, MD. Praise God that this series will be translated into Spanish, which means that those Hispanics who are longing to understand prophecy will have the opportunity to do so.

And speaking about tongues, 3ABN Latino is happy to announce that we are producing the Portuguese version of Teen Pathways (Espaço Jovem). We praise God for all the resources available to be used for the advancement of His Kingdom. All we need to do is take advantage of every opportunity given to us. As the Lord makes available "the gift of tongues," please pray that it may be used to bring to reality what the book of Acts said, "Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."

by Sandra Juárez

3ABN Latino is expanding its Portuguese programming! Espaço Jovem began production in January, hosted by Gislaine Westphal (seated on the right).

This month I asked my niece Azure if she would illustrate a little boy flying a kite for Kids Korner. I think she is a great artist, and I thought you would like to see a picture of her.

Ecclesiastes 3:1: "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven."

Behind the Scenes!

The Story Time set was built by volunteers from the Cedar Lake, MI, church. Bible stories come alive through the efforts of volunteers young and old.

Brenda Walsh hosts and produces Kids Time for 3ABN. She also appears often with her sisters on 3ABN Today's cooking programs.

Five, four, three, two... And the countdown is on for our current production of forty new Kids Time programs! But the work begins long before we actually start taping. We spend months recruiting talent, watching hundreds of video demos, and carefully planning each segment. But most importantly, we pray about everything — especially about who should be on the program.

Everyone that tapes on Kids Time volunteers their time. No one gets paid ... not even me. Our guests travel at their own expense, and they come from all over the world! We've even featured children from as far away as Sweden and the Virgin Islands!

And what a wonderful volunteer staff we have. Lucy Neuharth sews Bible costumes all year long, just to have enough to outfit everyone for our Bible stories; Lee and Anne Jamieson dedicate two weeks each year to help with the setup, act in the stories, and even clean up at day's end! Catie Sanner, my sister Cinda, and a team of volunteers work hard on the Cooking Time segments, cooking all the samples, setting up trays, and carrying food on and off the set. It's a "beehive" of activity, but due to their efforts, we now have a Kids Time cookbook called Cooking With Catie, and the proceeds go entirely to help fund the programs.

I can't tell you what a blessing it is to have the help of my Mom, Buddy Houghtaling and the Kids Time Singers, Ranger Jim, Ben Roy, and many others who volunteer their time on a regular basis.

In fact, as many as 170 people are needed to produce just one program! Isn't God amazing? What a privilege it is to work with so many who are so dedicated in their service for Jesus!

John Owens was baptized at 3 years of age, but without a positive Christian influence in his life, he soon took to things like sniffing glue, smoking marijuana, and drinking beer. By age 16 he was shooting heroin, and it wasn't long until he was being sent to prison for armed robbery of a liquor store. "I was a thief for drugs and alcohol," he says, "and from the ages of 18 to 35 I spent most of my time locked up." Life in prison wasn't much better, and he continued to shoot up heroin, even losing his leg to gangrene as a direct result.

When he finally was released in 1985 he decided on a drastic change. "If I could only find a wife and settle down," he thought, "surely I could have a better life."

Sadly, his happiness was short-lived. Soon he and his new wife were off on a five-year heroin and cocaine run. John soon found himself facing another 10-year prison sentence, this time for a check forging attempt. He served three and a half years and was released, checking himself into a drug and alcohol rehabilitation center. His drug addictions took a severe toll on him, but in 1998 he finally hit bottom. As he surrendered, he got sober and clean. But while he felt better physically, he still longed for spiritual food. He tried a Charismatic church but felt that the pastor's sermons lacked depth and weight. Then he began attending another church until he saw the pastor and head elder drinking alcohol at a wedding.

John felt alone. He tried every denomination he could think of. Then he began channel surfing, looking for anything that would fill the void in his heart. "I was put off by presenters on some Christian networks who seemed to be dripping with diamonds and gold," he says. But finally, he found a new channel — 3ABN's affiliate station, Better Life TV. One of the first people he heard was Pastor Lyle Albrecht of Revelation Insights. At his urging, John began looking for the closest Seventh-day Adventist church, and when he called, Pastor Weldon Treat was all too glad to come pick him up. His long journey had finally come to an end. "The people there were so loving and kind. I felt like I was home," he says. Two weeks later, when Pastor Albrecht showed up for a five-week prophecy series, John knew he wanted to be baptized, and in February 2004 he eagerly joined the Central Point, Oregon, Seventh-day Adventist Church. His health has steadily improved, and he's lost 60 pounds since he became aware of our health message!

John Owens (left) called Pastor Weldon Treat, of the Central Point Seventh-day Adventist Church for a ride. But what he found was a loving church family, and a pastor who cared.

"John is a real blessing to all of us," Pastor Treat says. "He is always so willing to get involved and has taken a personal interest in helping with church services and sending cards to members on their birthdays and anniversaries."

"My dream is to be a missionary," John says. "I want to tell others about Jesus. I don't know what the Lord has planned for me, but whatever that is, I'm willing to do it!" We praise God for another changed life. Surely all of heaven rejoices with John. He has truly found his way home! ■

Reality or Finality?

What's your reality today? Financial difficulties, illness, fear? For Moses it was the Red Sea in front and the Egyptian army behind. For Peter, imprisonment — chained between two guards with no words unceasingly, and believe hard enough we can make it work out the way we want it. But instead, a calm assurance connecting us with One who knows the number of hairs on our head; One who has a plan for us; One who offers “life more abundantly” and who “works all things for our good according to His purposes.” The best place to be is in that plan, asking, “What can I do today that is in accordance with His purpose, so that all things can work together for good?” Faith brings together the spiritual and the physical realm. Faith connects the natural with the divine.

hope of escape. For Lazarus it was four days of death in a tomb. They all discovered that reality is not finality.

God's word is finality. Faith is finality — the jumping off point where reality ends and the Divine reshapes it. I'm not talking about the kind of faith that we treat like a magic wand, believing if we wave it often enough, recite the magic

Then there's reverse faith, fear, devil-faith that's so easy to believe when fear's phantoms grip our minds. God does not give us that tormenting spirit of fear. We can cast down evil imaginations and take our thoughts captive because “He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.”

Reality and fear said a carpenter in a cornfield couldn't put together a broadcasting network to reach the world with truth, yet millions hear and see truth beaming from the cornfield every day and night on 3ABN. God's Word and faith are finality!

Come out of your spiritual tomb, your prison. Rise up and walk in faith. Just do it. Look. Is your own personal Red Sea about to part? Yes, because you serve a real God who gives you the real good in life and has a real plan for you! ■

Giving

We are so grateful for your faithful prayers and financial support which have kept 3ABN's ministry going and growing for the past 20 years! Your regular monthly gifts have allowed 3ABN to continue broadcasting to the world, and your larger gifts have helped this ministry to grow.

Another wonderful way to support is through Charitable Gift Annuities. They provide a fixed rate of interest based on the age of the annuitant that can go as high as 11.3% for persons of 90 years and over, along with a large charitable deduction and a tax-free income.

For more information on funding a Charitable Gift Annuity with 3ABN, please contact Dr. Leonard and Rita Westphal, and thank you for your continuing support for this ministry!
