 Now it shall spring forth;
 Shall you not know it?
 I will even make a road in the wilderness
 And rivers in the desert.

ISAIAH 43:19

Dear Family,

No matter what troubles we have suffered, our Heavenly Father offers us a new beginning! He counsels us in Isaiah 43:18 to put the past behind us and not to dwell upon it. In verse 19, He continues to say He has something better in mind for us. Only God knows the end from the beginning, so don't you think we should trust in His love and His leading?

If last year was a wilderness period for you, keep your eyes fixed on God. He has promised He "will do a new thing." He will make a way where there seems to be no way. Nothing is impossible for Him!

At 3ABN we celebrate the opportunities this New Year brings to work in God's harvest fields. Divine providence is opening doors to mend broken people around the world with a message of eternal hope. Thank you for standing in faith with us to promote life-changing programming to a lost and dying world!

Your prayers and financial support of this ministry are never taken for granted. You are greatly appreciated, and we want you to know that we are praying for you, too! Let's continue to make Christ — and our relationship with Him — our focus for the New Year.

May God richly bless you!

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

Have you been blessed?

Have you been blessed by 3ABN? Or have you come to know the Lord Jesus Christ by watching or listening? We'd love to know!

Your testimony can make a difference in our readers' lives, so why not sit down and drop us a line? You can write to us at: 3ABN World, PO Box 220, West Frankfort, IL 62896. E-mail us at: mail@3abn.org.

AMELIA, OHIO:

"I just wanted to share how much your Camp Meeting touched my life. We are members of non-denominational churches who are seeking the real truth about what the Bible really says. I want you to know that your ministry and programming are touching the lives of many people who are from other churches. Thank you again so much, and God bless."

ESTELI, NICARAGUA:

"Greetings to all at 3ABN. We live in Esteli, Nicaragua, and praise the Lord, our local cable company put on your precious channel because of the numerous letters it received from our church members. There are 150,000 people who can now watch 3ABN Latino, and many of them have accepted Bible studies after watching your programs. We know that 3ABN Latino can also be seen in at least one other city in our country. We wish you happiness and God's blessings!"

Editor's Note: At last count, 3ABN Latino is on cable in 13 cities in Nicaragua — and more are being added all the time!

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE:

"Just a note to say 'Thank You' for bringing the amazing gospel of Jesus Christ into my prison cell every day. The messages, testimonies, and music are always a blessing, and you are making a difference in people's lives all over the world. May the Lord bless and keep you now and forevermore in His almighty arms."

VIA E-MAIL:

"I am a regular viewer of 3ABN's online broadcast, and although I am a Catholic I must confess that you are doing a great job, spreading the good news contained in the gospel of Jesus Christ. I earnestly ask you to pray for me and my family, that Jesus will change our lives and instill in us His Holy Spirit, to guide us to live a holy life. Here in China we mostly depend on Internet broadcasts for worship."

ATHY, COUNTY KILDARE, IRELAND:

"Greetings from Ireland. We were moved with the interview we saw last night... and we strongly feel that the Lord is calling us to do something to help your 3ABN outreach here in Ireland. Please let us know what we can do to help you. There are only about 500 Seventh-day Adventists scattered all over the island, but we are united in Christ."

BARBADOS:

"If you only knew just how much I've been blessed by just listening to this particular programme — it is now 3:17 a.m. and I'm doing some baking and listening and watching. I watch 3ABN on a daily basis and just enjoy so much the various meetings and other interesting programmes that are available. I also participate in the Body & Spirit exercise programme from time to time. I am originally a member of the Methodist Church in Bermuda, but now reside in Barbados, but I do believe that as believers and born again Christians we are all God's children, and in the Body of Christ we should be worshipping the same God. So if I am being blessed by a sermon that is being delivered by a pastor of another belief, I see no harm in that. Thanks for your interest and God's blessings on your ministry."

AUSTRALIA:

"My 3ABN satellite dish installation is a miracle, as my husband would not hear of it nine months ago. But now, not only has he allowed it to be installed, but he also paid for it! I found him one evening falling asleep with the 3ABN channel on! That may not sound too exciting for you, but for me it is a big step forward. He actually switched from other Christian and ethnic programmes to yours! I am praying that God will do the 'impossible' in my own home. May the Lord richly bless you and protect you from the enemy as you go on in faith, proclaiming His truth for this time."

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

MAY CHUNG

A LIFE OF PURPOSE

May Chung has supported Three Angels Broadcasting Network for many years. In fact, she was one of the earliest supporters we had. She has traveled the world over, finding the needs of the people, and giving generously to meet those needs. Many orphanages, churches, and villages have benefited from her various projects, and she has met with heads of state around the world. But what inspired May to do so much for Jesus? One could imagine that she had benefited from the best Christian upbringing and guidance during her formative years, but nothing could be further from the truth. May's zeal for the Lord's work comes from a deep gratitude for what He has done for her, and her love for her Savior, Jesus Christ.

"I was born in Richmond, Missouri, the youngest of three children," she tells us. "Father had deposited a bag of gold coins in the bank for each of us the day we were born. He had planned a college education for us, and he didn't dream he would die before I was two years old."

Tragedy struck suddenly in her family. "Mother lost everything in months. Through all my early life she would go to court to plead for the gold coins to feed and house us. The court would give her a pittance at a time. We three children lived in misery with her."

Just when things couldn't seem to be any worse, life for her became even more bleak. "Mother took up with the local sheriff, who became violent when drunk. Earlier than I can remember, I had planned to run away, see California, and end my life. However, before I died I wanted to know if there was a God. God was only a swear word at our house, yet I wondered if there could be a God."

Even though her young life was so bleak, the Lord found a way to plant a seed in her mind. She tells that she has a bright memory from when she was six years old. "My first-grade teacher had each child say a Bible verse daily. She said, 'If you pray, God will hear and answer your prayers.' I tried it. My family laughed. But the words, 'God hears your prayers' stayed in my mind."

May left home when she was 14, running away with her best friend. Together they had a total of perhaps $7.50. "Leaving gave me a feeling of freedom," she says. "We caught a ride with a European count in his brand-new, red convertible. Later we rode with a kindly truck driver who insisted on buying us dinner. There were many wonderful people who were kind and helpful."

Her adventures took her many places. She worked along the way in a carnival, in a Mormon nursing home, and even as a cook, making mountains of mashed potatoes on a ranch in Nevada. But eventually she and her friend were picked up in Wyoming, and when her mother was notified, May found out that her sister had moved to California. When May was released, she decided to move there, but life seemed no better, despite the kindness of her sister and brother-in-law. She continued to be plagued by thoughts of suicide, and still she searched for a God she could understand.

Her search took her to numerous churches. At one she met a Christian minister who seemed offended at her questions. “He knew nothing of what happens to us after death, and seemed to have thought less the Bible that painted a picture of perfect love. When she asked them about what had happened to her father after he died, they showed her that the Bible teaches he is in a death-sleep, not being tortured in purgatory or hell.

“It was almost dark when I started home, and my feet barely seemed to touch the ground!” she relates. “Joy transformed the world, and my head was dazed with the goodness of the universe — there was a loving God behind the mystery, after all. I felt I was truly walking on air. I couldn’t wait to tell my sister, Jean.”

After showing her the passages her neighbors highlighted in her Bible, her sister believed, too! “I wept like a baby that night as I knelt to pray. I gave the Lord my thanks and love. I saw my moral deformity and mental depravity, my deep need of His forgiving love and transforming power.”

Soon May was baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist church, along with her sister and brother-in-law. “Faith gave me confidence. I went to college to study medicine and met my husband-to-be there. He persuaded me that we should marry when we were of age and then go to Hawaii as missionaries. There we saw the desperate need for a hospital in Kailua. We fought a long, hard battle. It was 13 years before the doors were opened at Castle Medical Center,” but together they began a wonderful life of service.

Then tragedy struck again. Her husband and five others were killed in a small plane accident. May and her children were devastated emotionally and financially. “Our income had stopped, but our debts had not. There were times when my burdens seemed heavy, indeed. At the time of my husband’s death, I didn’t realize that he had mortgaged everything we owned, and borrowed even more,” she says.

Faced with an enormous burden, she made a radical decision. “When I realized that I was liable for half of his debt — which was in the millions of dollars — I told the Lord, ‘I will never own another thing again.’ I turned my financial problems over to Him, and He has never failed me.”

Soon she realized that not only had God supplied her needs, He also had given her the means to be a blessing to many others in the coming years! “When you turn your money over to the Lord, suddenly He becomes liable,” she says. “He manages it well. I have given away millions of dollars, and for every million I’ve given, the Lord has replaced it with another million. When it becomes His money, He takes care of it!”

“God has promised to bless us abundantly here on earth if we will minister to the least of His brethren,” she says. May is characteristically outspoken about this subject. “Go. Sell. Give! Too many Christians think they can send a minister. Such duties cannot be delegated. Seventy-five percent of the Africans do not have a safe water supply, yet a well to supply a whole village can be had for $10,000! In the Philippines families starve. Farms can be had and people helped in many places. It is the Christian’s lot to face these needs. We can say, ‘I am only one, but I am one. I can’t do everything, but I can do something. What I can do by the grace of God, I will do.’”

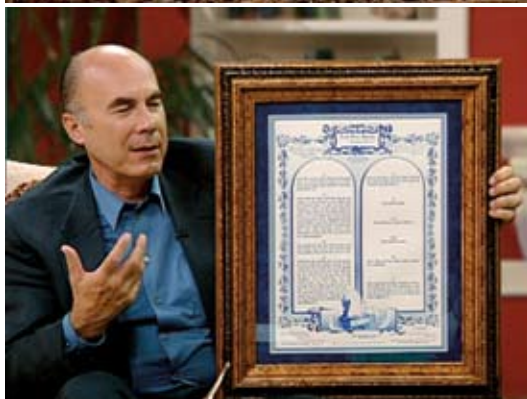

Through the years, May has

“NIGHT AFTER NIGHT I WEPT, PLANNING HOW BEST TO END THE FIASCO OF LIFE. WHERE WAS GOD?”

about it than I had,” May says. “In fact, he did not refer to the Bible at all!”

She also visited a Catholic Church, where the priest was sympathetic and gentle. But when she studied their views of purgatory and hell, they seemed at odds with the God of love in the Bible. Feeling hopeless, she sank into a life of risk-taking and despair. “Night after night I wept, planning how best to end the fiasco of life. Where was God?” she kept asking.

Then she met her new neighbors. She admired them, and asked them many questions. Instead of giving her their opinion, they showed her verses in not only served on 3ABN's board of directors, but she has also been a tireless advocate for reaching the world through television. "I see 3ABN's purpose as reaching the common people. Not with preachers, but with ordinary people telling what God has done in their lives. 3ABN's purpose is to prepare the nations for the coming of the Lord." For many years now, May has hosted several television programs on 3ABN where she interviews ordinary people who are doing extraordinary work for the Lord.

Another project that is near and dear to her heart is called Law By Choice For Freedom. After meeting founder Gerry Mahn, May has traveled to distant lands with him, helping to fulfill his dream of presenting a beautifully framed copy of the Ten Commandments to presidents and heads of nations all over the world. "I've been blessed to hand-deliver the Ten Commandments to leaders in 16 countries," she says. "But perhaps the most memorable one was when we presented the Ten Commandments to the president of Nicaragua. 'Oh,' he said, 'this solves all my problems — all my national, international, community, and family problems. I never thought of the Ten Commandments like this.'"

God has blessed this incredible woman with favor in the eyes of these leaders. Her stories have amazed us for many years, and we truly love this lady who has dedicated her life to spreading the good news of Jesus Christ to the whole world. ■

TESTIMONY

Never Too Old to Learn

by Berni Denslow

Arlene Jankens struggled with many adversities in her 87 years of life, but her faith in God and regular attendance at her Lutheran church sustained her through them all. Polio at 17 months left her with a deformed foot and a bad limp. She battled cancer for ten years, and as a result, lost a portion of her face, lost her hair permanently, and underwent 15 surgeries. Her husband, Erhard, was legally blind for 44 years during which she was both his chauffeur and his eyes. Then she broke her hip in October 2002, and almost died after the surgery. She also became legally blind due to wet macular degeneration. Sadly, after 64 years of marriage, Erhard died of congestive heart failure. At this point, one might imagine that Arlene must have felt like she was enduring the trials of Job!

Meanwhile, her son, Tom, and his wife, Maxine, had been on a spiritual quest. They had both been raised in the Lutheran faith, but Maxine had puzzled many years over questions about the Sabbath, what happens after death, and the book of Revelation. She questioned why God had put a book in the Bible if it wasn't meant to be understood.

One day after earnestly pleading with the Lord, she received a booklet in the mail. It was a condensed version of Ellen White's The Great Controversy. Many years went by, and Maxine's spiritual hunger continued to grow. Convinced of the need to worship on Sabbath, she and her husband began looking for a Sabbath-keeping church. They even looked up information on the beliefs of Seventh-day Adventists in their local library. When they finally began attending their local church, it wasn't Berni Denslow and her husband, Al, travel extensively with our 3ABN production team as volunteers.

Although Arlene Jankens was concerned about baptism by immersion, she was determined to follow through. With the help of her son and her pastor, she joyfully entered the baptismal waters, following Jesus' example.

long before they felt the Lord leading them to be baptized, and on November 25, 2000, they began their new life with Christ.

Before his death, Tom's father had undergone a tremendous character change after watching his son's videotapes of Evangelist Kenneth Cox. At his invitation, Erhard and Arlene were just starting to participate in a local evangelistic series at their son's church when he took a turn for the worse and he was unable to attend anymore. "I know that my father believed what he learned," Tom says, "and I am sure that we will see him again when Jesus returns!"

After her husband died, Arlene found it increasingly difficult to live alone, and Tom invited her to move in with his family. Arlene soon found that she needed something to do with her time, so he bought her a dish to watch Three Angels Broadcasting Network. The center of her vision was gone by now, but by turning her head she could see quite a bit with the aid of her big screen TV she had brought to her new home.

Then one day, after watching Pastor Doug Batchelor's presentation on baptism, her daughter-in-law, Maxine, asked her, "Do you think you would like to be baptized?"

"Yes," she said, "but I have some concerns."

Arlene wondered if she could wear her wig into the water, and also if she would be able to handle the steps into the baptismal tank. Tom, whose job of engineering had prepared him for problem-solving, had the perfect solution. He took his mother to the church while the tank was still empty. Together they tried out the steps, with him holding her on one side, and Arlene holding the rail on the other.

"I think I can do this," she said.

Tom, now an elder in his church, was in the tank with his mother when she was baptized on September 10, 2004 — just six months after she began watching 3ABN!

"I have learned so much about Jesus," Arlene beams. "I pray to Him every day, and it won't be long before He comes back. I look forward to His coming, and I am learning more about Jesus everyday on 3ABN! Before I began watching I just went to church. I wasn't learning about stories in the Bible. I understand things now which were never taught to me regarding baptism and what happens when you die. It all makes sense."

Arlene maintained her faith through all her struggles by putting herself in the Lord's hands. She says, "He was with me through everything." Tom sees his mother more at peace now, especially since she studied about what happens after death.

To me, Arlene is a powerful example of how the Lord reaches out to the hearts of His children, young and old, and how He longs to give us peace in this life and the hope of eternal life. ■

RADIO FOR YOUR HEART

by Nikki Anderson

Temple, Texas KRYH-LP, 104.7 FM

We refer to KRYH-LP as the “miracle-a-day” station. They did 18 months of work in less than 32 days! On January 13, 2004, the project leader, Ed Medford (L) and Luis Hernandez are all smiles as their tower sections arrive.

Luis Hernandez, called 3ABN Radio to ask if it was possible to build a radio station in one month. We said yes, but they'd have to hurry ... and they did!

Luis and friend, Ed Medford, spent a solid month on nothing but radio. The two men soon found themselves, as Luis says, “Out on a limb of faith with the Lord.” When asked how God helped them to meet the challenges they faced, Ed said, “God didn't let us know it couldn't be done in one month.” Instead, God provided a miracle a day for 20 working days. Here are just a few:

January

- 13th • 3ABN Radio said go for it!
- 16th • Ed and Luis consulted a 3ABN Radio Engineer.
- 20th • Filed request for building permit with city.
- 21st • Building permit granted — in less than 24 hours!
- 26th • FAA waives four-to-six month process and gives approval in three days.
- 27th • Tower vendor couldn't get top two sections; found another vendor with all pieces for $400 less.
- 28th • Local engineer offered to construct tower. No charge.
- 29th • Local firm offers to build tower foundation. No charge.

- 30th • Electrician hired to wire studio; contractor wanted to reschedule cement work — he didn't realize the deadline was non-negotiable — contractor rearranged his schedule instead.

February

- 2nd • Water pipe (2-inch main) hit while digging tower foundation; plumber came right away. No charge.
- 3rd • Trouble getting receiver tuned.
- 4th • Foundation poured; rain started just as they finished; during a break in the rain, Luis went up on the roof again to turn (kick) the dish to get the receiver tuned — and it worked!
- 10th • Crane arrived; tower raised. You guessed it: No charge.
- 11th • If you think those were major hurdles, wait ... they had no transmitter!
- 12th • Still no transmitter. It was sitting in Virginia — with two days left! They installed the antenna on tower. Talk about faith!

- 13th • Snowed three inches, with ice. Ed called Luis in the morning and asked, “How's your faith today?” Luis had asked Ed that same question every morning, so now it was Ed's turn! UPS didn't open until 4:00 p.m., but they opened the doors at 8:30 a.m. just to give Ed the transmitter. Connections made, testing done by 2:30 p.m., and on the air at 3:00. Filed online for license. No problem. Even had a couple hours left over! They praised the Lord!
 - 14th • And on Sabbath they rested.
- Luis, not one to ask for help, said, “If God doesn't want you to go it alone, He'll bring people into your life to help do what needs to be done!” ■

ARISE & SHINE

by John Dinzey

“I am here to find out why channel 21 is not on the air.” Laura was a Pentecostal believer that had been watching 3ABN Latino on a local channel in Puerto Rico that had been purchased by 3ABN more than ten years ago. Unfortunately, due to new digital television regulations, we were required to stop broadcasting while the Federal Communications Commission granted us channel 44 to replace it, and there was a period of time when 3ABN Latino was not on the air in that area. That’s when Laura visited the Magnolia Seventh-day Adventist Church in Bayamon, Puerto Rico, to ask about the station.

After that, she continued visiting the church on a weekly basis, and we praise the Lord that after a recent evangelistic series, Laura was one of the precious souls that made a decision to be baptized just a few weeks ago. She tells us that it was the programming on 3ABN Latino that convinced her that what she was hearing was truth.

But don’t turn the page! There’s more.

Lourdes was a night club singer who suffered from severe depression because her son was in prison. Her whole life seemed made up of one problem after another. One night she came home from a party intoxicated. She cried as she considered her problems, and she felt that they were the cause of the crushing pain in her chest. She poured out a handful of sleeping pills and was considering taking the whole bottle, hoping that she would never wake up again.

While she was thinking these things, she turned on the TV. As she flipped through the channels, she discovered one she had never seen before — it was 3ABN Latino.

As she told me her story she began to weep. “God spoke to me through the man that was on that program,” she said. “I heard the words, ‘Why are you carrying such a heavy burden by yourself? Give them to Me and I will help you!’”

In her intoxicated condition she recognized that God was speaking to her, and in tears she prayed and gave her heart to Jesus Christ. With joy in her voice, Lourdes told me that she slept that night with a peace she had never known before! It is my great joy to report that on the same day that Laura was baptized, Lourdes was also baptized — in the same church! Please remember Laura and Lourdes in your prayers.

But while 3ABN Latino continues to grow rapidly in other countries, it has been extremely difficult to get cable systems in the United States to add us to their lineup. But we celebrate each victory — and praise God: 3ABN Latino can now be seen in New Britain, Pennsylvania! This is only the second cable system to add 3ABN Latino in the United States. Please pray that this year many more will do so! Much remains to be done within the shadow of our doors.

I encourage you to consider God’s invitation to you this year, “Arise, shine; for your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and deep darkness the people; but the Lord will arise over you, and His glory will be seen upon you.” Isaiah 60:1–2 (NKJV). ■

LIFE UNFOLDING

Exactly as it should

L to R: Cari, Annette, and Jay Christian have faced many trials together. Through it all they have drawn closer together and closer to Jesus. His power is their strength, and His love sustains them.

Over the past 21 years there have been thousands of inspiring stories on 3ABN. But among those thousands, there's a story that is still unfolding — the story of Annette Christian.

When her first marriage ended, Annette was left alone to care for her young daughter. Born to a Sicilian father and an Irish-German mother, she was never afraid of hard work. Some of the jobs she took included writing a newspaper column, and working as an adult education counselor and a part-time psychiatric nurse. But when she began working as a night shift nurse, she was so pale and weak that her daughter began to worry that her mother was dying!

Her next job was working at a radio station, where she met Jay, a tall, handsome man with an incredible passion for everything New Age. "He kept telling me that I would make a fabulous New Ager," she says with a laugh. "He would talk about the Bible and kept telling me that it was really good for its time, but that we were so much more advanced now." Annette realized that Jay had grown up in a church that taught an angry, punishing God, but she also recognized a seeker's heart, and she never missed an opportunity to share her faith in a winsome, attractive way.

Jay eventually attended church with her, partly out of curiosity and also because he wanted to meet the pastor. His hope was to convince Annette, and even the pastor, to become New Age believers! But his plan was in vain, because in a short time he became a Seventh-day Adventist himself!

"One day, he called to say hello," Annette recounts, "but the real shock came a moment later when he asked me to marry him! I remember telling him, 'No! I haven't even dated you, why should I marry you?' But later, the Lord impressed me that I should not take his marriage proposal lightly."

After their marriage, her career as a marketing director for a long-term health care corporation thrived. Jay was the general manager for Blue Mountain Television, and their lives were busy and happy. Jay's new book detailing his New Age experiences landed him an interview on 3ABN Presents, and not long after, they both received a phone call from 3ABN inviting them to join the staff.

"This was not an easy decision," Annette adds. "I wanted to be involved in a more direct ministry, but it was a struggle to give up my career. I had found the first house that felt like home, and there were plenty of incentives to stay where we were." Her daughter Cari also struggled. She finally had the family she longed for, and now her decision would make the difference on whether the family would move or not.

Finally, Cari decided that if she received a request from 3ABN for her résumé, it would be a sign from God. She told no one about this, and when she received an unsolicited phone call from 3ABN asking for her résumé, she was convinced!

For several years they worked happily at 3ABN, but then tragedy struck. In 2000 Annette was diagnosed with breast cancer and underwent surgery. She made drastic changes in her diet and lifestyle, but continued to suffer pain in her spine and hip. Finally, she was incapacitated, and forced into bed rest. For the next few years she cheerfully gave the Lord thanks for her life, but living with chronic pain disguised the fact that the cancer had returned — this time to her bones.

“On November 26, 2004, I got into my bathtub and took my Bible with me. I told the Lord, ‘I don’t know what’s wrong sackcloth and clothed me with gladness...’”

“I read the chapter and it brought hope to me,” Annette continued, “but I didn’t know if I’d just found this by accident. So I prayed, ‘Please give me another scripture that tells me that it’s for me!’” Her Bible fell open to 3 John 2: “Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.”

Annette felt the Lord was saying that her spiritual life must prosper before her physical healing, but then she asked for another scripture that she didn’t have to look for. Next, her Bible fell open to John 4 and 5 and the stories of Jesus’ miraculous healings.

Soon the test results came back. “The doctors told my husband that the cancer was widespread and nothing could be done for me except to control my pain until the end,” she says. “My response was, ‘Man’s hands usually mess up everything they touch anyway. Now I’m in God’s hands, and they’re perfect hands, so everything will be exactly as it should be.’”

Her family and 3ABN’s staff were devastated. Her pastor and a handful of church members gathered around her for an anointing ceremony outlined in the Bible. When everyone else left, one friend remained behind. “I was floored when he told me to get up and walk, but I did it! I got up and walked three or four times around the kitchen. Soon my color began to return, and I began to eat, and the slow process of improvement started.

“People are looking for a miracle, but I think they’re looking for magic,” she says. “I think God has dealt with me in this way because spiritual healing has to come a day at a time. The real miracle is that I have one more day, one more choice, and one more battle of faith to fight. The miracle is that I have time to do it.

“Sure, God could have healed me instantly,” she says, “but God expects me to do everything in my power to cooperate with Him, and I have to make sure that my faith is solid.”

Throughout her illness, Annette has continued to speak and sing in churches. She also produces Auntie Annie’s The StoryHouse, and this month she began co-hosting a new program with 3ABN Radio veteran, Theresa Boote, called Women at the Well. This program is produced by Nikki Anderson and takes the stories of the women of the Bible and draws modern-day applications from their inspiring lives.

“Having this disease is a blessing,” she adds. “Because I’ve had cancer I’ve had time to write, to think, and to give people material that can change their lives.”

What keeps her going in the difficult days? Lots of prayers, and lots of Bible promises. “The Bible says, ‘Let the weak say I am strong,’ so I do. The Bible says to reach out our hand, and I do that, literally, many times when I’m in pain. I’ve even claimed the promise that what we bind on earth will be bound in heaven. I’ve prayed, ‘Lord, in the name of Jesus I am going to bind this pain,’ and bang, it was gone!

“There’s nothing anybody can do for me — for my illness. God has to be real. He wants me to try and to test Him. He reminds me again and again who He is, and who I am.” She smiles and adds, “All is working out — exactly as it is supposed to.” ■

with me, but You do, and I’m in Your will.’ I was so weak I couldn’t even turn the pages!” she recounts. “Finally the Lord gave me enough energy to just open my Bible, and He made sure I opened it to Psalm 30, ‘O Lord my God, I cried out to You, and You healed me. O Lord, You brought my soul up from the grave; You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.... You have put off my Hey, Kids! Here's a great idea for a bird feeder you can make in just a few minutes with cereal and a piece of yarn! It's simple, and the birds will love your treat! Think about ways you can add your own special touch, too! Go online and check it out!

Hi Kids! Have you ever had a chance to work with other kids your age on something really special? Teamwork really is a way to get something done better, quicker, and it makes you better friends, too! My niece, Azure, drew me a really neat teamwork picture this month! (She's really good with colors! Even though the snow is cold, the colors are warm!) So find something you can do as a team, and I'll see you next month!

Love,
Tammy

Tammy loves the snow, but she hates being cold. In fact, she always wears a coat or two in the studio!

GOSPEL SHOES FOR SCANDINAVIA

by Claus Nybo

A shoe manufacturing company once sent two salesmen to a faraway country to explore the new market. After a few days, one salesman wrote back a telegram: “I am returning shortly. Dead end! Nobody here wears shoes.” The other salesman also sent a telegram: “Urgently send me a large supply of shoes. Everybody here walks barefooted!”

Scandinavia is a place where few people, spiritually speaking, “wear shoes.” Yet the greater the need, the greater the possibilities to reach “barefooted” souls for Christ, and the greater the grace He is ready to bestow.

Soon LifeStyleTV will start broadcasting from southern Sweden, targeting the whole of Scandinavia. 3ABN presently covers Europe through the Hotbird satellite, and we have heard of several people coming in contact with the Seventh-day Adventist message by watching. But in Scandinavia few people tune in to Hotbird, and we have been praying for a way to reach a much larger audience. The Lord has now miraculously opened the door to broadcast LifeStyleTV as part of the Canal Digital’s Family Package, as well as free-to-air, on the Thor II satellite. This is the most popular satellite in Scandinavia, the equivalent of the DISH Network or DIRECTV systems in the United States. Can you even begin to imagine the potential of reaching five million satellite viewers — over a fifth of the Scandinavian population ministries, along with some programs being subtitled in Scandinavian languages. We will also produce programs locally, addressing issues important to Scandinavians, and giving them real answers. I am grateful for all the support and help from 3ABN and others in making this dream a reality.

Our contract launch date is January 5, 2006. We appreciate your prayers and support. They mean a lot to us!

New Book:

The Gift of Tongues

A new book by Hal Steenson entitled, The Gift of Tongues — From Heaven's Point of View, is now available from 3ABN! As a member of our Pastoral Ministries team, Hal has answered hundreds of questions about the gifts of the Holy Spirit, and recently sat down to write a short statement to e-mail to anyone who may be asking the same questions. What happened, though, is that he wrote a whole book!

Hal and Mollie Steenson moved to southern Illinois 24 years ago and founded a rapidly growing Charismatic church, where speaking in tongues was seen as evidence of the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

“This gift is not used for any other purpose in Scripture than to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ.”

“I was taught that tongues were the physical supernatural evidence,” he says, “but I grew increasingly uncomfortable with the idea. When the Lord opened my eyes to the truth of His Word, I was relieved, because I had shelved my tongues years before.”

“Jesus first commissioned this gift in Mark 16:17,” he continues. “It says, ‘And these signs shall follow them that believe: In My name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues.’ There is no mention of ‘unknown’ tongues as Jesus gave the disciples their prime directive about how and where to use this divine gift. Matthew 28:19 states, ‘Go ye therefore, and teach all nations...’ How could the disciples go, teach, and baptize people in all nations if they couldn’t speak their language? They couldn’t, and I believe that this is the one and only reason for the gift of tongues. This gift is not used for any other purpose in Scripture than to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ.”

In this new book, Hal explains simple foundational principles for the correct use of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, which were being misused in the Corinthian church. He explores the truth about tongues, as well as the errors and the exploitation of this truth by many misinformed Christians.

The Gift of Tongues is now available from 3ABN’s Call Center during regular business hours, or you can order it online by visiting our website and clicking on our eStore button. If you’ve ever wondered about this topic, and would like to know what the Bible says about it, then this book is a must-read! ■

Giving

In addition to regular gifts to 3ABN’s ministry, many of you have also helped us grow by arranging both immediate and deferred gifts of your assets.

Did you know that the best instrument for highly appreciated property such as real estate, stocks, and bonds is a Charitable Remainder Unitrust? With it you can avoid capital gains taxes on donated assets, receive attractive rates of interest, avoid probate expenses on donated assets, receive a large charitable deduction, and negotiate to receive either a fixed annual payout or a variable income.

Call our Stewardship and Trusts Services to find out how you can help 3ABN’s worldwide ministry through Charitable Gift Annuities and Deferred Charitable Gift Annuities as well. And as always, thank you for your prayers and support!
