Arise, shine. . . .

ISAIAH 60:1

Dear Family,

When I was a boy, my father boomed “Rise and shine” to wake us. Hearing him, my siblings and I knew it was time to hit the floor running. Now our Heavenly Father is calling, “Arise and shine!” It’s time to wake up and evangelize with power!

The recently formed Ten Commandments Commission has dedicated Sunday, May 7, as the First Annual Ten Commandments Day in the United States. Partnering with the National Religious Broadcasters, they have captivated the attention of Christians coast to coast. Jewish synagogues are joining the effort by celebrating on Saturday, May 6.

3ABN will take advantage of this incredible opportunity to proclaim the three angels’ messages of Revelation 14. As fellow God-fearing believers focus on the Ten Commandments — proclaiming them “God’s eternal moral law” and rejecting the idea they were nailed to the cross — we will use this golden opportunity to teach the undiluted truth about our Creator and His forgotten commandment.

God is looking for harvest field workers — arise! Please read the featured article on our special Ten Commandments Weekend (Sabbath and Sunday, May 5–6), to see how you can participate — shine!

It’s time for Sabbath-keepers to stand up and be counted. It’s time to lift our voices and declare God’s beautiful Bible truths about walking in obedience to His commandments — all ten of them! People will be listening with new ears on this spectacular weekend. Our time to be heard is now!

May the Lord richly bless you as you “arise and shine!”

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

NEW SOUTH WALES, AUSTRALIA

"I am thoroughly enjoying 3ABN and I am sure God is using you and the 3ABN programs to reach the remote corners of the earth, and that He will soon put an end to all the problems and tragedies. I am elderly, arthritic, and unable to do much, but I can still give some money to help with this work. I make quite a few videos to send to King Island, where there are only four elderly Seventh-day Adventists who do not have a pastor, and they are enjoying the videos! I pray daily for 3ABN and all the lovely people who put on the programs."

VIA E-MAIL

"I want to thank you with all my heart for broadcasting this message. I started watching you when I was about to lose my home and family (I'm still not sure about the home), and you got my husband and son watching on Sabbath! Suddenly it all feels better, no matter what. I am also hoping for their baptism."

SALINAS, CALIFORNIA

"I was addicted to drugs and alcohol, unemployed, on the verge of being homeless, hurting badly, and in need of help. I called the 3ABN Prayer Line, and I was given a message to begin the healing. I was also given Biblical guidance and prayer. Since then I have not used drugs, nor had the desire to. This is a miracle! I'm now employed full time. My prayer partner said that in all things we are given choice, and today I choose to live!"

WILLOW SPRINGS, MISSOURI

"I am a carry-out stock boy at my local supermarket. I don't have a car, and I walk to work every day. I was going to send you $25 when the Holy Spirit told me to double it. I said, 'I can't afford to!' But I told the Lord to give me a sign before the Post Office closed.

When I got home, there was a notice that a book club owed me a refund of $34.67. I also remembered that I loaned someone $73. So the Lord has already more than doubled back to me what I'm sending to you!"

HOT SPRINGS, SOUTH DAKOTA

"The old adage, 'Hit him on the head and knock some sense into him,' has more meaning than just the traditional reference of walking in the right direction. It all started one morning shortly after I got to work. The boss wanted a roof shingled. I got the ladder and the rest of the stuff, climbed up the ladder, and the next thing I knew — two weeks later — was that I was in the hospital! I had fallen off the ladder, hit my head, and was unconscious the whole time. When I finally got home I felt so lost, until my wife — who is a Seventh-day Adventist — turned on the TV to a station I'd never heard of before, and told me to watch it for a while. It was your 3ABN station. Every day I spent all of the time I could watching and liking every bit of it! One day my wife invited me to go to church with her. I went with her the next Saturday. Boy was I glad! I could hardly wait until the next Saturday to go again! They made me feel like I belonged. As soon as I got home, I would turn on the TV and watch 3ABN. I joined the church, was baptized, and shortly after that became a deacon! I am so glad I got hit on the head and came to my senses, so to speak. I thank 3ABN for bringing my life to this point, and I am happily waiting for Jesus to come!"

MOOSE LAKE, MINNESOTA

"I listen to 3ABN Radio here on WMAL-LP 99.7 FM. I was baptized in October 2004 as a Seventh-day Adventist. I owe my new-found peace and happiness to 3ABN. I'm in prison, and I thank our Father for the disciplinary action He has taken for my sake. I know He has something for me to do in the future. I'm truly led by the Holy Spirit to learn and study the book of Revelation. I read my Bible daily, and I won't put it down again, since neglecting it was the main cause of my backsliding."

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

LIFE ON THE EDGE

“I was born in Cheyenne, Wyoming, in 1972, and born again, 24 years later, 40 miles away,” says David Asscherick, the young, energetic evangelist who some call “Microwave Dave,” a nickname rumored to describe his ability to preach three sermons in the time it takes most men to preach one! But David’s life was not always idyllic. In fact, some of it was very sad.

“I don’t remember meeting my father,” he says. “My parents were both 18 when I was born, and three weeks later my father left. I never saw him again, but I did know that my last name was Cross.”

Soon his mother remarried and had another son, but what should have been a happy life for the two boys turned unbearable as their alcoholic father abused them verbally and physically. Sadly, his mother stayed in that marriage for eight years. After her second marriage ended, she married an Air Force lieutenant who adopted the children that call him Father to this day.

One day he bought them new skateboards, and David seemed to be a “natural.” He was drawn to extreme sports, and like all good athletes, he shunned drugs, alcohol, and smoking. Since his father was Catholic and his mother was Protestant, they decided to raise their children as Episcopalians. Soon David was off to summer camp, where he was given a Good News Bible. “I knew about God, and I’d heard about Jesus,” he says, “but there was never really any connection. Then during an evensong service, someone read a text, and I vividly remember seeing the line drawing in my Bible of Jesus hanging on the cross. When I saw this image of Jesus — His head down, the crown of thorns — it struck me. I remember thinking, ‘Wow, this guy really died!’”

Although he felt strangely drawn to this Jesus, someone else was influencing his life. One of the counselors at that summer camp was into punk rock music, and when camp was over, David began to hang out with him. Soon his clothes, hair, and tattoos reflected the punk scene. But unlike most punk rockers, he remained a “straight edge kid,” shunning drugs and alcohol, and becoming very active in social causes. He became a vegetarian because of his strong feelings about the cruelty to animals being slaughtered. David says his vegetarian lifestyle contributed the most to him becoming a Seventh-day Adventist.

Veggies, a new vegetarian restaurant, had just opened in town, and he was eager to try it. The owners, Tom and Mary Bernt, were Seventh-day Adventists, and they loved him to Jesus. “I remember coming into the restaurant with all of my punk friends,” David says, with a hint of laughter. “They were always kind to us, and as

David Asscherick began his life with a dream of being a professional skateboarder, but along the way he came face to face with the cross of Jesus. He still lives life on the edge, but now he lives on the edge of eternity in heaven.

(And yes, he really did fall off his skateboard in this shot!)

This illustration from the Good News Bible of Jesus hanging on the cross had a major impact on David's life.

they got to know us, they called us all by name." He also tells of how Tom and Mary prayed for his punk rock band, before the group left on a long trip. A few hours later, after a terrible accident, David was certain his friends had died. When he saw that no one was badly injured, he knew that prayer had been answered!

One of the restaurant workers gave him a copy of The Great Controversy by Ellen White with a note inscribed in the front cover. David says he kept that book for a year, and could not bring himself to throw it away — because of the inscription! "That's why I always sign any book I give away," he adds, hoping that it might make that kind of difference for someone else someday.

David was attracting quite a bit of attention in California with his skateboarding skills, but finally decided to enroll in medical school. He was a "straight A" student, and was doing quite well when a three-year relationship suddenly dissolved, leaving him hurt and despondent.

"I was devastated," he says, thinking back on that dark time. "My interest in everything faded away. Each day I sat with my back against a wall and stared, listening to melancholy music. But after several months of this, I heard a still, small voice say, 'Go sit against the other wall.' When I obeyed, I had a brand new view — the bookshelf. I scanned the books until I came to The Great Controversy. I sensed the voice saying, 'Pick that one up!' Resistant at first, I thought, 'That's a silly religious book.' But then I realized I had nothing to lose. I was crying my heart out — broken and discouraged, so I picked it up."

The book "just happened" to open up to the chapter describing Jesus weeping over Jerusalem. David could identify with Him, since he had been weeping, too. "But my reasons were selfish, and His weren't," he adds quickly. He read 200 pages — spellbound by the stories of martyrs and the Reformation.

"The next day I got my old Good News Bible. I opened the pages and found that line drawing of Jesus once again. My last name had been Cross, and I made the connection with the cross of Jesus. I had many tattoos at the time," he says, "but I wanted to have this line drawing of Jesus tattooed on me. I took it to the tattoo parlor and they inked a large version of it onto my stomach. Every time I put on a shirt, I see Christ hanging on the cross. I don't recommend tattoos to anyone, but it reminds me of the price Jesus paid for me."

Soon he called his friends at the restaurant "They sent me a 'spiritual care package,'" he says. "A Bible, some Bible studies, and an evangelistic series on videotape. Within a month and a half I was baptized!"

Now he was on fire! He began studying his Bible with several of his punk rock friends, including Nathan Renner, who was also baptized within two months! Eager to learn more, they decided to attend the Black Hills Mission College of Evangelism's four month course. Next David began working in Northern California as a Bible worker. His enthusiasm was contagious, and he was given a chance to preach an evangelistic series in Shingle Springs, California.

"The church had 30 members," he laughs. "It was a small church, and I think they thought I couldn't do too much damage!" He had been a Christian for only two years, but the Lord used him mightily, and 17 precious souls were baptized! They offered him another chance at a larger church, and 17 more found a new life in Jesus!

David accepted the invitation to work with the Adventist-laymen's Services and Industries (ASI) organization, working with the Youth For Jesus campaign. "It was just a bunch of kids in a tent," he says, smiling. "I was the preacher, and Nathan Renner and two other punk rockers helped as Bible workers!" Young people flocked to the meetings, and many were baptized. Later he began preaching another series in Atlanta, Georgia, and 3ABN was there to tape it. Even though he had to have an emergency appendectomy 10 days into the series, people all over the world watched him and were captivated by this young preacher.

Soon he was working for the Michigan Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, and in 2002 he was ordained as a minister of the gospel, accepting the senior pastor position at the Troy, Michigan, church. During this time he called on his friend, Nathan, to come work with him.

Today, because of his intense speaking schedule, David has stepped down as senior pastor, and has become Nathan's associate. Under their leadership, the church has grown from about 65 attendees to over 200, and they've created the ARISE Institute for soul winning and evangelism.

"We train 40 young people a year through an intense four month program," he says. "They receive practical instruction from the best teachers and then are placed for a year as Bible workers and literature evangelists. Many of them go on to be missionaries and evangelists, too. When I went to Mission College, Louis Torres (the director) and ASI invested in me. They gave me training, and most importantly, they gave me opportunities. I want to give other young people the same opportunities, because God has a special work for them."

"I am a very happy Christian, and my family is a happy family. We take our boys surfing, rock climbing — we're always on some adventure. And yes, I still skateboard! Christianity is not the end of joy; it's the very beginning of your life!" ■

GOD HE KEPT HER HEART

"I was raised in a churchgoing family, and it was truly a family! Uncles, aunts, cousins — we knew where we would be every Sunday! I also had two very loving aunts who prayed for me every day of my life," she adds.

Even at a young age, the Lord had plans for Dee Hilderbrand's life. "I vividly remember a sermon about the love of Jesus and feeling a strong desire to serve Him and please Him. I just wanted His love and I went forward with a sincere child's heart during the altar call." That moment set the course for her life and began a search that took her many places.

Dee's young life was very troubled. She left home at 14 and spent several years in foster care, where her drinking, smoking, and deep depression caused her to attempt suicide. Sadly, the system to help troubled teens failed her completely, and after several years of despair she wrote to a judge, begging for emancipation. Her case was so obvious that the judge not only granted her request, but even apologized for the shocking

Dee Hilderbrand has worked for 3ABN for 10 years as a production coordinator. Her story is an inspiration to all who know her.

Dee held many jobs in her young life, including working as a hostess for the Continental Trailways Golden Eagle bus line.

treatment she had endured!

Seventeen, and determined to turn her life around, she finished high school while holding down a full time job and renting her own apartment. She taught ballroom dancing, worked as a hostess for a bus line, worked as a casino change girl, and took modeling jobs. Always a thrill seeker, Dee spent two years helping to build a 47-foot trimaran boat for a trip around the world. When they sailed, they missed the trade winds and got stuck in the doldrums, drifting on the open sea for two weeks! Because they had no radio, friends and family were frantic with worry, but incredibly, they safely reached Hawaii 30 days later after weeks of rationing food and water.

Dee was the first to land a job there as a cocktail waitress — something she would do off and on for many years. Back on the mainland after her adventure, Dee began dating her husband, David Hilderbrand, an inventor and entrepreneur. Together they built several businesses, including a car wash equipment company, and a national video game rental company. Finally, Dee seemed happy. She and David traveled extensively throughout the United States, Canada, and Mexico each time they sold a business. With boats, RV's, motorcycles, and money, it seemed like they had it all. But something was still missing.

They moved to Portland, Oregon, for a short time to live near their families, and one day David expressed a desire to find a church where he could fit in. One of their first visits was to the Rockwood Seventh-day Adventist church where they found a caring pastor just beginning a Bible study class. "The first thing I remember learning was that God was not going to burn me forever," Dee says. "As a teen I knew that I was never going to be good enough to go to heaven. I felt like I was a bad person, and that I had let God down. Then I started learning all of these wonderful Bible truths and I realized that God loved me — and that He would accept my love!"

They joined the church but shortly after moved away. "We hadn't anchored ourselves into home Bible study and worship yet," she says, "so we fell away from the Lord very quickly." For the next eight years they lived totally secular lives again. But God hadn't given up.

"We both saw that our lives were slipping away," Dee says. "David and I were strong, independent people who wanted to run our own lives, so the real battle was learning to trust God and surrender complete control to Him."

When they finally came back to church, they came determined. "We became involved in the church, we prayed together out loud, as a couple. We studied our Sabbath School lessons together, and instead of making Jesus our personal Savior just on Sabbath, He became our personal Savior seven days a week!" The sense of peace they felt was indescribable, but Satan hadn't given up, either. "David and I had the worst fights of our entire married life during those first few months," Dee recounts.

"It was always something small — ridiculous fights over where we lived, our work, or even who was driving, but we made a decision that Satan wasn't going to win. We were staying with the Lord, come hell, high water, or both!"

They sold their latest business and moved to Grants Pass, Oregon, to design and build their dream home. There they joined the local Seventh-day Adventist church, bought a large satellite dish and discovered 3ABN. "We couldn't get enough," Dee says with a smile. "Between being active in church and watching 3ABN, our spiritual life began to blossom, and that was God's way of preparing us for what we were about to face."

In June of 1995 David wasn't feeling well, and Dee remembers the day they got his test results. "That was the start of David's nine-month battle with non-Hodgkins lymphoma, and he chose to use natural healing methods in addition to chemotherapy." Sadly, it didn't work. "My husband died in my arms on March 10, 1996, at 7:00 a.m.," she says, her voice low, and her eyes welling up with tears. "He's

Surely we will be blessed as we learn more about God's Law of Love, and strive to obey all of His commandments! ■

A WOMAN OF FAITH

by Nikki Anderson

After seeing the ad on 3ABN television about low-power FM radio stations in 2000, Janis Effenberg told her friend, Carolyn Meeks, “You would be a good radio broadcaster!” Carolyn just laughed. “I don’t know anything about running a radio station,” she thought, but then the Holy Spirit began speaking to her heart. People at several Adventist radio stations all had words of encouragement, but unfortunately, local voices did not. Soon she learned that if she took on this project, it would be just her and God. Carolyn recalls, “I just kept praying, and kept being impressed with the words, ‘Feed my sheep.’” She was certain that if she ever did have a radio station, it would be used for one thing — to reach the lost.

One morning that Voice simply said, “File for the radio station.” That was loud and clear!

Carolyn went through all the necessary steps — she called an attorney and an engineer. She also found an open frequency and formed a non-profit corporation. When searching for a location, she was impressed that the local church academy would be the right place. The school board approved applying for the permit to build the station, the application was filed, and things looked good, praise the Lord!

Then the bad news came. After several months, she was notified that another group in her hometown of Lodi, California, had applied for the same frequency. Her attorney said they had more “points” with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), and that they would definitely be awarded the permit instead of Carolyn. Could her strong impressions have been wrong? Had she mistaken the Lord’s leading?

Carolyn Meeks listened to the Holy Spirit’s prompting and even used her inheritance to build a 3ABN Radio affiliate. Now KSTG-LP 101.5 FM broadcasts 24-hour programming to Lodi, California!

But some unusual things happened at the FCC. A new law was passed in Congress which changed things considerably. “Several months later, we both were allowed to reapply,” Carolyn says, “but the other group did not follow through.”

After three long years, Carolyn finally received a permit to build a radio station, and in September 2003 she attended our LPFM training school. What a joy it was to have her here!

Other problems surfaced. There were differences of opinion on the direction for the radio station, and major obstacles regarding the location, the tower design and height, and the studio building came up. She had to find a new frequency, and if that were not enough, financial support was withdrawn! (Remember, this is one woman taking on this project.)

But Carolyn is a woman of faith and prayer and she listens to God. “That Voice kept saying, ‘I will take care of it,’ and I decided to let God meet each challenge.” She felt so strongly that God was leading that she even used her inheritance money to cover expenses. One by one, God removed all the obstacles, and Lodi Christian Radio, KSTG-LP (101.5 FM), was born. “The call letters stand for ‘Keep Sending the Gospel!’” she says.

And here’s God’s finishing touch! “All through those years I had been praying for God to bring me someone to run this station,” Carolyn says with a smile. “I went up in the bucket to help install the antenna, and when I came down, there was David Marson, offering his help!”

Now that is a woman of faith! ■

LIGHTNING SPEED

by John Dinzey

It travels at the speed of 186,000 miles per second — or if you prefer, 300,000 kilometers per second. You may recognize this as the speed of light. But have you considered that this is also the speed at which the gospel is being broadcast?

In order to stay in geosynchronous orbit with the earth, satellites must be placed approximately 22,300 miles in space, so when 3ABN transmits its signal from Southern Illinois, the message of salvation travels at the speed of light for a distance of 22,300 miles to the satellite, and then returns to the earth for a total of 44,600 miles, in less than a quarter of a second! For those who love mathematics here's the formula:  $(22,300 \text{ miles uplink} + 22,300 \text{ miles downlink}) \div 186,000 \text{ miles per second} = 0.24 \text{ seconds (or 240 milliseconds)}$ .

Consider this statement by an inspired writer carefully: "In Ezekiel's vision God had His hand beneath the wings of the cherubim. This is to teach His servants that it is divine power that gives them success. He will work with them if they will put away iniquity and become pure in heart and life. The bright light going among the living creatures with the swiftness of lightning represents the speed with which this work will finally go forward to completion. He who slumbers not, who is continually at work for the accomplishment of His designs, can carry forward His great work harmoniously."*

Imagine that! "Lightning speed!" Your faithful prayers and financial support are contributing elements to help 3ABN to continue going forward, preaching the gospel to the world. God has blessed 3ABN Latino once again with several hundred thousand potential viewers. By His grace we have been added to two more cable systems in Bolivia, two in Mexico, 14 in Colombia, three in Peru, and one each in Guatemala and Costa Rica. Praise the Lord!

As we cooperate with the Lord we can help the work go forward to completion at the speed of lightning! From a technology standpoint we are living in times when nothing seems impossible, however Jesus said, "Without me you can do nothing."

I encourage you to make a commitment to cooperate with the Lord so that you can be prepared, and help others to prepare, for the soon return of our Savior Jesus Christ! ■

RAISED FROM THE DEPTHS

by Berni Denslow

Mark and Chris Byers and their two sons, Mark Jr. and Zach, were living in Wyoming, Michigan, a suburb of Grand Rapids. Mark had hit the lowest point of his life after a series of misfortunes. First he lost $30,000 worth of uninsured tools from a break-in to his shop. Now he had lost his newest job after a confrontation with his boss — and had no unemployment insurance. His wife, Chris, had not attended church for a very long time, but now she felt the Holy Spirit urging her to come back to the Lord. Her mother had raised her in a Pentecostal church, so she started driving some distance to attend again, and since he had also been raised in a Pentecostal church, Mark decided to go along. Soon the church members, seeing potential in Mark, urged him to begin a correspondence course preparing him for the ministry. He began reading books written by the founder of his church, who members believed was a prophetess. He also used the Bible he had acquired years before from a former vacuum cleaner salesman turned literature evangelist, who had “traded” $1,600 worth of Christian books and cassettes for a brand new vacuum cleaner — even-up trade! Previously, Mark had also been given a copy of The Great Controversy by Ellen White, which he read in three hours — over 700 pages! Through the influence of the Holy Spirit, the study guides in the back of his Bible, and from these books, Mark thought, “When I do become a Christian, I am going to keep the Sabbath!”

But now he was out of work, and his cable had been turned off due to nonpayment. After digging up the old “rabbit ears” antenna so they could watch a little TV, he found 3ABN on channel 48. Fascinated, he began watching “24/7,” driving his wife crazy. She would wake up at night and he’d be crying. This happened for three days! “The Lord was emptying him out,” she says, “and he would beg me to sit down and watch with him.” But she resisted, and Mark was troubled.

Chris had faith in her mother and grandmother, and had accepted what she had been taught. Now she knew she would face adversity if she accepted what Mark was learning, and adversity in her own home if she didn’t! Mark’s questions about doctrine were difficult to answer from the Word of God, and soon she was questioning why she believed as she did. “If I were to believe what my husband now believed, I would have had to change everything!” she says. She believed her church’s teaching about communicating with the dead, and about an eternal soul. But why was the Sabbath such a big deal? She could see no need for it, but the “What if this is right?” question troubled her.

“It was the hardest battle I ever faced,” Chris states. “I would listen to Mark, then ask my pastor, becoming even more confused with his attempts to answer my questions.” She also questioned her mother, who replied, “You are not at the level that the Reverend is. Just put it on the shelf.” But, as Chris puts it, “the shelf was full!”

Feeling torn, Chris decided she would not attend church anywhere — she would just serve God from home — “But I knew I couldn’t,” she adds. Anguished, Mark was literally following her around the house with the Bible, crying and saying, “Please read this!” And desperate for relief, Chris secretly put a “fleece” before the Lord, like Gideon’s story in the Bible. “Lord, if You want me to keep the Sabbath, and if it’s so important, You have to let me know — and not through Mark!” she demanded. “If this is the way

You want me to go, then I want to meet a Seventh-day Adventist today!”

It was a Friday, and she asked Mark if there was a Seventh-day Adventist church nearby. He drove her to the Wyoming church and knocked on the door. No one was there, but just as they were about to leave, a lady drove up. Chris urged Mark to go and talk to “that lady,” and when he did, they found out she was the pastor’s wife!

She invited them to church, but the next morning found Mark with a fever of 105°F! He had never felt so ill in his life, and couldn’t make it to church, although he did manage to get up and drive Chris to work.

Meanwhile, Chris had written down the phone number for the church from their sign, and later she called the pastor — unbeknown to Mark. She wanted to see what kind of people these Seventh-day Adventists really were. While they were talking, she agreed to Bible studies and set up an appointment for the following week.

Several days later, Chris was in her room praying, when she felt strongly that the upcoming Bible study had been a mistake.

She recognized the “feeling” — it started in the pit of her stomach and rose up through her body, taking control and causing her to speak in tongues. But this time, instead of feeling joy, she was angry. Then she came out of her room and ordered Mark to get rid of all the books and tapes he’d been studying. He refused to do so, but told her to cancel the Bible study if she wished.

But something made her keep that appointment. She thought, “I’ll just study and test the waters,” and as she began studying the Bible, she received answers to questions that had plagued her for so long. To each question, the pastor would gently say, “The Bible says...” Finally, someone was giving her answers!

Chris started watching 3ABN. “God began to show me how He is concerned about every aspect of my life. Even health and diet issues — everything seemed to fit together.” She began to understand the Bible truths about the Sabbath and the state of the dead, which were in direct opposition to the “spiritualism under the guise of holiness” she had learned.

Mark was also experiencing victories in his life — deliverance from his drinking and his 24 year habit of smoking two-and-a-half packs of cigarettes a day. In April 2001, his wife and two sons joined him in baptism and a new life in Christ began! Then, almost predictably, they could not get the 3ABN station anymore — it was simply gone!

On a personal note, as I researched this story, I interviewed Mark extensively. But when I spoke to Chris, I expressed how Satan had been trying to prevent their story from being told through difficulties in scheduling interviews, dropped phone calls, and other problems. I was so blessed when this sweet lady asked if she could pray with me about it. And of course, the story began to take shape!

This is only a small part of their story, but as I look over what I’ve written, I can’t help but realize that Mark and Chris have been raised from the lowest point in their lives to walk in high heavenly places. It reminds me of Psalm 18:32–33 (KJV): “It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect. He maketh my feet like hinds’ feet, and setteth me upon my high places.” ■

Kids Korne

Wow! Here's a great idea for a Spring Hat! It's easy to make and it's lots of fun! Check it out, make one, and take a picture of it to send to me! I'd love to see it! www.3abn.org/kids

Help the bee reach the flower in the middle of the garden!

Memory verse

Matthew 6:28,29 (NKJV): "Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

Hi Kids! Spring is finally here in Southern Illinois. I want to show you this special picture of the ornamental pear trees in blossom. These are the trees that line the driveway going to our world headquarters. Spring is special to me because after a long winter, I think God wants to show His love in a special way with beautiful flowers, blossoming trees, and baby green leaves. The ladybugs and cute bee artwork are from my friend Kenton who works at 3ABN. I've been traveling a lot, so he helped me out this month!

Love,
Tammy

Tammy's favorite spring flower is the daffodill!

I love coming to work in the spring. Every day, as I drive up to 3ABN, I enjoy these beautiful blossoms!

Before becoming Christians, David and Dee were successful entrepreneurs and inventors.

resting now in his grave, awaiting the Second Coming of Jesus. I'm so grateful that God took him softly and without a struggle from my arms to His — which David had asked Him to do."

A few weeks later, sitting in her living room, the sun streaming in through the windows, she felt an amazing peace. "I was reading my Bible and I felt the presence of the Holy Spirit," she recalls. "Then the Lord gave me a deep assurance that I would see David in heaven — that all I had to do was to make sure I was there, too." Dee gets a faraway look in her eyes. "I want to go home," she says quietly, "but I have family that I want to go with me, and they're not ready yet. I look forward to heaven, to feel Jesus' arms wrap around me, and have David's arms wrapped around me next."

A few months later, Dee heard that Danny Shelton would be in her area soon. "I really wanted to meet the 3ABN visitors because of the impact they had made on me and on David in those last days." After talking with the Sheltons, they invited her to visit 3ABN. "I didn't see how that could happen, since I didn't have any vacation time, or money for tickets," she says, but a few weeks later the invitation was renewed, and she agreed to come. She found an incredible deal on airfare, and she asked her boss for several days off. Amazingly, he said yes, and found three vacation days she had overlooked!

When she came, Dee was offered a position, and as evidence that she was supposed to be here, she was able to sell her truck and her fifth-wheel trailer, and even find a good home for her dog in the span of three days! "When I came here I was grieving and lost. I had gone from 'us' to 'me,' and I didn't know who 'me' was. Now, after 10 years, I have been here longer than anywhere else in my life, and God has given me closer friends than I've ever had!

"When I look back I see many times where God could have allowed Satan to take my life — and I would have been unsaved. But God knew my heart, and I truly believe that when I committed myself to Him at a tender age, He took that commitment and said, 'You will give me your life someday, Dee.' He kept me alive until I could do that. I also know that my Aunt Vada and Aunt Velva prayed for me every day by name. I love them for that!

"I lived my life on the edge for Satan," she adds. "Now I'm living my life on the edge for the Lord."

Investing In Eternity

HERE ARE FIVE GOOD reasons to develop a Charitable Gift Annuity with 3ABN:

1. Your gift provides you with a fixed income for life and helps 3ABN evangelize the world!
2. You may fund a Gift Annuity for as little as $5,000 per individual or $10,000 per couple, provided you are 55 or older.
3. You receive an immediate tax deduction, and much of the interest is tax free.
4. To gain a higher rate with greater income, you may develop a Deferred Gift Annuity with a future payout, provided you are 45 or older.
5. You may fund a Charitable Gift Annuity for another person and claim the tax deduction yourself.

A Gift Annuity is unique in that while the gift is irrevocable, the investment may earn you more than your initial gift — depending on your age.
