WELCOME

Wow! This month's edition of 3ABN World is jammed with great stuff! You'll enjoy getting to know our dedicated Call Center manager, Greg Morikone in "Seeking God First" (p. 6), and you'll love finding out how the Lord used a high school sweetheart to give David Coder a new understanding of truth in "Together Again—With 3ABN" (p. 16). You'll be fascinated by Jennifer LaMountain's article entitled, "The Bible on Music" (p. 20), and if you're in the mood for a breakfast cereal switch, you're sure to love Barbara Nolen's "Yummy Granola" (p. 22). But that's not all. We have all your 3ABN Radio and 3ABN Latino news, listings for each of 3ABN's networks, and even a wonderful devotional by 16-year-old Michelle Wilson called, "Life's Song" (p. 44). So sit back, catch up, and enjoy this month's edition of 3ABN World.

Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers... 1 TIMOTHY 4:12

Dear Family,

A young volunteer at 3ABN was asked, "How do we keep our youth in the church?" She rapidly responded, "Quit trying to entertain us, and give us a challenge!" Sounds to me like the wise advice we were given before: "We have an army of youth today who can do much if they are properly directed and encouraged." (Ellen White, Testimonies to Ministers, p. 32.)

God is up to something big! He is calling young folks into service, and everywhere I turn I see youth in action—community services, evangelism, and even fundraising for such projects as 3ABN downlink installations. These young leaders of our church are accomplishing incredible things by the grace of God.

Seeing this makes me take note of my grandchildren, and recognize the awesome responsibility the Lord has placed upon parents and grandparents to train them up for the work God has committed to us. In churches where youth are trained and active, their example energizes the entire congregation.

3ABN is diligently at work developing three new youth programs. We believe it is our privilege and responsibility to hold up our youth in prayer and in training for greater works in God's harvest fields. If the Holy Spirit impresses you to support these projects, please mark your donations for "Youth."

Thank you for all you do to advance God's ministry at 3ABN. We couldn't do it without you!

May God richly bless you,

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND:

"I want to thank you for your wonderful program. 3ABN has changed my life and my home. Although I was raised a Seventh-day Adventist, I drifted away from the Lord. My sister told me about 3ABN on the Internet—and ever since that day I have watched. It has changed my marriage and my life forever. No therapy could mend my home as your ministry has."

PASADENA, CALIFORNIA:

"Your station changed my life—spiritually and physically. I was diagnosed with Type II diabetes. I watched 3ABN daily and discovered a new approach to healthful living. It saved my life physically. I walk five miles a day and have a new spiritual relationship with Jesus Christ. My cholesterol dropped to normal, my blood pressure and sugar are within normal limits, I've reduced my diabetic medicines by half, and I've lost 75 pounds. Thank you, 3ABN!"

SPAIN (TO 3ABN RUSSIA):

"How do you do, dear Face to Face program staff! I live in Spain near Barcelona, and many Russian-speaking people live here. They need God's Word. I'd like missionaries to arrive here, because there's much harvest in our place. I want to ask you to pray for us, living in Spain. Let it be awakening here and the church will be formed. The people will turn their hearts to God and will be saved."

KETTLE FALLS, WASHINGTON:

"We really appreciate the ministry your programming has for my wife and me. Since my wife is a shut-in due to medical reasons, we are unable to get to church on Sabbath. So you are our Sabbath School and church, and we keep you on all night. In addition, I have never been so inspired to begin witnessing to my friends and neighbors as I have since watching your programs."

TALENT, OREGON:

"I am a believer in Jesus Christ, but not a Seventh-day Adventist. I enjoy your music, and this contribution is to say, 'Thank you,' and to encourage your ministry.... Goodwill from another part of the body of Christ."

DEPERE, WISCONSIN:

"I've come to know Jesus and His saving grace through 3ABN and all of your pastors and speakers. I am now a Seventh-day Adventist!"

TALLINN, RUSSIA (TO 3ABN RUSSIA):

"I like your books very much. I have never read books like these before. These books have turned my life all around. I won't enumerate what happened in my life before, but to be brief, I'll say: I didn't want to live, and I was worried by different, odd, foolish fears. I didn't know what to do and where to find help. But now I know that only God has helped me. I pray every day—whether I am fine or bad. I thank God for everything that happens to me. And many good changes happened: I got a wage raise, and my relationship with my husband improved. I've brought up my children and now I have beautiful and healthy grandchildren. Many thanks for you all!"

MT. PULASKI, ILLINOIS:

"We aren't Seventh-day Adventists—yet, but we do believe in the Fourth Commandment as it is written in the Bible. We have been receiving 3ABN for several months. Please pray that the Lord will give us faith, strength, and the desire to change."

POLI, ITALY:

"I would like to thank 3ABN for my son's baptism. It is thanks to your programming that I became a Seventh-day Adventist. My life changed completely when I met Jesus through a Pentecostal church, but it was 3ABN who guided me onto the right path in a moment of confusion. The certainty that I found has been passed on to my sons and also to my brothers in Nigeria."

BUTTE, NORTH DAKOTA:

"I really enjoy every program. Our very small church meets at my house, and we praise the Lord for having 3ABN available for the few that come out every Sabbath. Love and prayers always."

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

SEEKING GOD FIRST

Greg Morikone has fond memories of bouncing in his father's company's 4-wheel drive Jeep as they climbed the ruts of a mountain road somewhere in West Virginia. His father often took him and his little sister to visit his home health-care patients.

"Looking back, I realize that we were missionaries in the truest sense of the word," Greg says. "We brought hope and cheer to those who were ill and dying, and my father always prayed with his patients. Then he would get us to sing 'Jesus Loves Me,' or some other children's song, but I have to admit I wasn't always eager. Sometimes I was a self-conscious 6-year-old singing for strangers, but their eyes would well up in tears, and it always made me feel good to know that my song had touched their heart.

"My sister and I had a great time together. We played in the creek and made mud pies. I must have been a master chef, since she thought they looked good enough to eat and tried one!" Apparently Greg was quite the actor, too. After attending a funeral with his family, the kids decided to have a "funeral" of their own. "I was the one who played dead, and we made a shallow grave. Then, since we didn't have a preacher, I had the eulogy from my grave—and apparently it was so sad that my sister cried! But that was okay," he adds with a grin, "because she was supposed to be the mourner, too!"

Greg admits to having worried his parents a bit during his teenage years. They sat him down one day and explained that they didn't want to see him heartbroken. Then they handed him a beautiful box. Inside he found a key—the key to his heart. "When you break up with someone you're dating, the next girl gets just a little less of your heart, since it was injured by the first breakup," they explained. "If this happens over and over, you become hardened, and when you find someone really special, you'll have all those past memories affecting how much of your heart you can give her." They asked him earnestly to keep the key to his heart and give it only to the one he would marry.

Greg was stunned. "I realized the risk they took of being misunderstood by me, but I was raised to honor my parents, so I honored them now by making a difficult commitment to the Lord to not pursue a relationship before and during college." He quickly adds, "I don't want to discourage anyone who didn't have the same experience I had. God is the 'God of new beginnings,' and I'm so glad that He can give each of us a brand new start from any point! But that decision saved me much heartache."

Greg went off to college and soon met Jill Penney in the cafeteria. "I had a curious feeling that someday I would marry this girl," he confesses. "I was so impressed by her love for Jesus, her genuine interest in people, and her very pleasant disposition. And besides, she's very beautiful!"

Now Greg began looking for a college internship, and his involvement in his school's media department led him to contact 3ABN. After not hearing anything for many weeks, he prayed and told the Lord that he would pursue a different option unless he heard back from 3ABN within the next 24 hours. “I checked my e-mail the next morning. Nothing. That afternoon I logged on to contact a different internship site and there it was—an e-mail saying 3ABN would be glad to have me!”

Greg and Jill Morikone have dedicated their lives to serving the Lord. Greg is 3ABN's Call Center manager, and Jill is a music teacher, plays for the Thompsonville Church, and cohosts cooking programs on 3ABN television.

Greg Morikone and the 3ABN Call Center team field thousands of calls each week, filling orders, helping satellite dish owners, and answering questions from 3ABN viewers and listeners.

Greg’s cheerful disposition and hard work as a cameraman and with lighting landed him a job working with the production crew on the road before his internship was over. Then one day they needed a video engineer, and again, Greg’s willingness turned into another opportunity.

“Over the next few years Jill and I stayed in touch through letters and the occasional phone call,” he says, “but I needed to decide if this friendship had a future. Then, one day I felt strongly impressed to talk to Jill’s parents and ask their blessing in pursuing a relationship with their daughter.” What Greg didn’t know is that Jill had asked for a sign from the Lord about whether she should allow their friendship to grow, and without his knowledge, had asked the Lord to impress Greg to talk to her parents within the next 12 hours, if it was meant to be!

Luckily, her parents agreed, and Greg was a happy man!

Soon they were married, and Greg began working in the 3ABN Print Shop so he could be home with his new wife. “Jill is my best friend and my greatest fan,” he says. “She loves to make me happy, and she is my constant encourager—like sunshine on a cloudy day. I thank the Lord for her every day!”

After several years Greg had a new challenge when he was suddenly offered the position of Call Center manager. “I couldn’t believe it,” he says. “I didn’t have the experience I needed to manage all the different aspects of that department.” But God was guiding, and Greg took the challenge. As he began the gigantic task of learning a new job, God was faithful. “I hadn’t had any time to train into my position, and when something would need to be ordered, I had no clue where to look,” he says. “Then suddenly a scrap of paper with a vendor’s name and number would appear, or I would get a phone call from someone, and God would help me find out what I needed to know. I also had a marvelous staff that was so gracious when I made mistakes. They worked their hearts out for me and shared what they knew. They were there behind me—and would not let me fail!”

It wasn’t long until the Call Center’s services were drastically improved. New systems were put in place, and new ideas were explored. What has been the secret to his success? Certainly faithfulness in doing his best, but there’s more. “When I am faced with a decision, I want to seek God’s will first. So I pray about it, and I seek counsel from my wife and those who understand the situation. Most importantly, I try to listen to the prompting of the Holy Spirit.”

Greg pauses for a moment. “I want to tell you another way God helps me know His will,” he continues. “I look in the Scriptures and I am constantly amazed how a familiar text will suddenly contain an application I’ve never seen before! Then comes the peace that only God can give.”

As you get to know Greg and Jill Morikone you can’t help but believe that God has brought this young, energetic, and lovely couple to work among us. They continue to bless us with their cheerful Christian attitude and their deep love for Jesus. ■

This month I thought I would share with you a sampling of the wonderful e-mail messages we receive from listeners:

✉ "I was listening to Crossroads this morning for the first time and I couldn't believe through some pretty strong trials at work.... I just can't tell you how much hearing that meant to me, but God knows exactly how much it meant. The trials I have been going through have been so difficult I just wanted you to know that your little AM radio station (WBLC, 1360 AM, Lenoir City, TN) is really helping. Thank you and God bless."

—Terri, Knoxville, Tennessee

✉ "First time listening to 3ABN. Excellent Christian broadcasting which is open to all. You can listen without having to give your e-mail details, which gives you open access to Christian broadcasting on the 'Net. People should be able to hear the Word of the Lord without unnecessary hurdles."

—David, United Kingdom

✉ "First of all, I must thank you from the bottom of my heart for having such an amazing radio ministry. Every time I listen to 3ABN Radio I hear the exact message I need at that very moment. God bless you abundantly! I am currently listening to On the Road with Ty Gibson and his sermon on the 'Psychology of Beholding.' ... I listen to 3ABN on the Internet while I am at work. It is a really awesome way to keep me focused during the day. Thank you so much, and blessings again."

—Lydia, Atlanta, Georgia

✉ "Hi, I would like information on getting the health programs that I listen to on the radio. Are these health issues in a book I could purchase? I listen to 105.7 FM in Spencer, West Virginia. I usually hear the program at about 7:00 a.m., and it's usually a doctor talking about health issues and ways to help the body heal. I was really interested in the hydrotherapy. I wondered if this information is in any books that I can order? Thanks for your help."

—Carol, West Virginia

✉ "Hello to all of you at radio station. My name is Alexei. I have been listening to your channel for some time, especially Your Story Hour (I like the stories from Bible). Oh, sorry—I am Russian born and live in Iceland, and I catch your broadcasting on a radio (not 100% quality, yet it's okay). I can't say that I am so religious guy, but your channel made me think about religion and ... what we don't notice in our daily life. It has opened my eyes to many things. So I want to say thank you!"

FALLING ASLEEP

TO 3ABN LATINO

by John Dinzey

No one upon this earth can accurately measure the impact that 3ABN is making in the world. Daily reports come in by phone, e-mail, and regular mail about how lives are being transformed. I'm so glad that God gives us the privilege of knowing just a few of the countless lives that are being touched through this ministry. What an awesome God we serve!

Some folks are very brief and simply write, "I watch your programs every day," or, "I really enjoy your programs." Others share more details, helping us to see how the Holy Spirit is using our programs and music, and our speakers. I'm always touched by these marvelous testimonies of how they have made a decision to return to the Lord or how they have given their hearts to Him for the first time. And, of course, all of us are thrilled to hear of those who have made a decision to be baptized!

God is using 3ABN Television, 3ABN Radio, and 3ABN Latino networks in many ways to reach His children. Many have told us how 3ABN has helped to solidify them in the church, while others tell how 3ABN is helping to dispel the myth that the Seventh-day Adventists are a cult. Others tell us how God has used 3ABN to help them get through some of the most difficult times of their lives. Only in heaven will we get an accurate idea of the impact that 3ABN is making on this world. Throughout eternity we will hear stories that will motivate us to say, "Amen!" and, "Glory be to God in the highest!"

But while we may have to wait until heaven to get the full story, here's what I can tell you now—so please get yourself ready to say, "Amen!"

Recently a mother told me how her son had stopped going to church. He had started hanging around with the wrong crowd and was even saying some rebellious things at home. She told me he was arriving home late at night and had even started experimenting with cigarettes and other things. It seemed as if nothing the family said could reach him. His mother was very worried and began making heartfelt appeals. "Son, please come back to Jesus!" she would beg, but he refused and seemed to keep distancing himself from his family.

One day Rosa (not her real name) was in the living room watching 3ABN Latino when her son came in and sat down on the couch. When Rosa noticed that an "altar call" was being made in the youth program she was watching, she turned to look at her son to see what impact, if any, it was having on him. His eyes were closed, and Rosa feared that he had fallen asleep—missing this wonderful program! Then Rosa noticed that her son would fall asleep during a heart-touching program on 3ABN Latino more and more frequently.

Finally, she could hold back no longer and had another heart-to-heart talk with her son, asking him to return to the Lord. To her indescribable joy, he decided to return to the Lord and come back to church! She later found out that he only pretended to fall asleep on the couch, but that the messages on 3ABN Latino were actually helping him make a decision to return to the Lord. Please join me in saying, "Amen!"

The Lord continues to open doors for 3ABN Latino to get on more cable systems, and this month we praise the Lord for the doors that have opened recently in Colombia, Mexico, and Honduras. Thank you for remembering 3ABN Latino in your prayers. ■

Psalm 50:11 (NIV): "I know every bird in the mountains, and the creatures of the field are mine."

Hey Kids, I was driving through our little town of Thompsonville, Illinois, and I was surprised to see a mother duck with her paddling of ducklings (I counted 20 of them)! They were in single-file crossing the highway towards the school. They ended up in front of the door that said, "All visitors and parents are to report to the office," and that's where they decided to take a rest. Are they too cute or what? I knew you would enjoy seeing this picture!

TESTIMONY

TOGETHER AGAIN —WITH 3ABN

by Berni Denslow

The year was 1942. Dwight Coder was 20 and had just met 17-year-old Barbara, a junior in high school. Their friends had introduced them, and they all began “hanging out” together. The more they talked, the more a farrier who had shod her grandfather’s horses. And then there was the fact that Dwight’s sister and Barbara’s aunt were best friends in high school and had grown up together in the same church!

Things were going well, and Dwight and Barbara had been dating a couple of months when he realized that he was going to be drafted into the military. In order to have the choice of which branch of military service he wished to be in, Dwight joined the Navy and was sent overseas.

Imagine the heartbreak Barbara felt as she found herself saying goodbye to her new boyfriend. It seemed like all the young men were being drafted, and a sense of insecurity hung over all the young people as they said goodbye, never knowing whether they would see each other again.

they realized that their relatives all knew each other. Dwight knew Barbara’s grandparents, as well as her aunts and uncles. His dad was a blacksmith and

After responding to an appeal on 3ABN, Dwight Coder joined the family of believers at the Shelbyville, Indiana, Seventh-day Adventist Church through baptism.

“We didn’t know if we would live or die from one day to the next,” Barbara says. “Every block of a neighborhood had an air warden appointed to scan the skies for enemy bombers. After the bombing of Pearl Harbor we didn’t know if or where Japan would attack us next! Our lives were very much affected by the war with blackouts, and we all huddled around the radio for the latest reports about the war.”

And then there were the ration stamps needed in order to purchase such things as sugar, shoes, tires, and gas. It seemed like everyone’s shoes were patched on the bottom to make them last longer. So it was during those difficult times after Barbara and Dwight said goodbye.

Even though they corresponded a couple of times, it seemed like they were not destined to be together. The letters had stopped coming—until the day Barbara received a letter telling her that he was dating an Irish girl, whom he later married. By then, Barbara had also decided not to wait and Berni Denslow and her husband, Al, travel extensively with our 3ABN production team as volunteers. She enjoys writing about people whose lives are changed through watching 3ABN.

began dating the young man who would become her husband for 55 years. A year and a half after he died, Barbara married one of her husband's army buddies. Sadly, her happiness was short-lived. Soon after their marriage they discovered that he had cancer of the esophagus, and he died after just three years of marriage.

Another year and a half went by, and one day Dwight's sister and a friend of Barbara's invited them both out to dinner. Dwight's wife had died three years before, and even though 63 years had passed, the attraction was still there! Three months later they were married on October 13, 2005. "I believe God had His hand over us, getting us back together again," Dwight says.

When Barbara was 10, a neighbor invited her and her two younger brothers to Sabbath School, and they loved it. The boys took their copy of Our Little Friend (a children's magazine) home for Mama to read to them. Barbara says this little paper was instrumental in her family becoming Seventh-day Adventists. Although her father was convinced of the truth in the teachings of the church, for some reason he resisted baptism with the rest of his family. Then one day, years later, they stopped in Bowling Green, Kentucky, on their way to Florida, and dropped in for a visit with Pastor H. R. Veach. To the surprise of the entire family, her father then asked Pastor Veach to baptize him! The pastor decided there was no time like the present and said, "Let's all go down to the river. You ladies sing while I do the baptism." Barbara says she was so grateful for this, since only one year later, her father unexpectedly passed away at the young age of 49.

Dwight had been a Christian man, too, and although he was not a Seventh-day Adventist, he was happy to watch 3ABN with his bride, who has been a long time viewer. When the '05 Revive series with Doug Batchelor began on 3ABN, Dwight was intrigued by what he heard and wanted to know more. He became a regular viewer of all the speakers on 3ABN, and later, when Shawn Boonstra made an appeal to follow Jesus, Dwight stood to his feet in their living room to indicate that he wanted to be baptized.

What a happy day it was just this past June, when Pastor Fred Troxel lowered Dwight into the baptismal waters in Shelbyville, Indiana. With his sins forgiven, and a new life in Christ, Dwight emerged knowing he had made the most important decision of his life. "My church family loved him into our church," Barbara says. "It's like a large family, and I know he felt right at home."

"MY CHURCH FAMILY LOVED HIM INTO OUR CHURCH," BARBARA SAYS. "IT'S LIKE A LARGE FAMILY, AND I KNOW HE FELT RIGHT AT HOME."

What a joy it was to have Barbara and Dwight at our 3ABN Spring Camp Meeting recently. Like so many others, this lovely couple even came a few days early to volunteer. Even now, 3ABN continues to make a difference in their lives. "You don't know how it keeps our spirits up all week long to watch 3ABN," Barbara says. Well, yes, we do, Barbara. Yes, we do. ■

THE BIBLE ON Music

by Jennifer LaMountain

How should we use music in church and in our daily life? God could have inspired a writer to include in our Scriptures an authoritative order of service, including the songs to be sung, the instruments to be played, and the appropriate style to use. Just think of what churches would save on printed bulletins!

Instead, perhaps the most striking observation of biblical worship is its wealth of variety and few restrictions on form. Listen to the vast wardrobe from which biblical worship is clothed!

• Variety of Instruments: harps, stringed instruments, horns, trumpets, loud-sounding cymbals, lyres, timbrels, tambourines, gittith, pipes.

• Variety of Volumes and Sounds: loud, like the sound of many waters, like the sound of thunder, like the sound of harpists, voices accompanied by instruments, shouting, loud instruments, a joyful noise.

• Variety of Worshipers: appointed singers and musicians, trained by a skillful instructor, organized by a chain of command, duets, all the people of the land led by singers and instruments, everything that hath breath.

• Variety of Manner: leaping, making merry, clapping, dancing, lifting hands in the sanctuary, appointed to worship (not spontaneous), guarded spontaneity, by all the people, directed by leaders.

• Variety of Location: in the great congregation in the house of the Lord, on the walls of Jerusalem, in the guest room of a house, coming down from a mountain, around the walls of a city, in God's mighty expanse, in His sanctuary, in bed, in jail.

• Variety of Focus: directed to the nations, directed to one another, directed to a troubled king, directed to pagan kings, directed to all the earth, directed to God.

• Variety of Content: teaching or delineating truth, with much content or with light reflections on one truth; prayer, petition, praise, personal testimony, exhortation, a profession of personal uprightness, using repetition.

• Variety of Occasions: the dedication of a wall, going before an army, accompanying offerings, at a feast, the anointing of a king, during a new moon, during a full moon, in a

• Variety of Times of Day: morning, evening, night, "from the rising of the sun to its setting."

• Variety of Postures: standing, going before an army, lifting hands, bowing down, kneeling.

• Variety of Moods: joy, solemn sound on the harp, chanting a lament.

Get the point? God's Word is filled with so much variety when it comes to musical style, purpose, and manner. It makes sense that our creative Lord has asked His creatures to exercise great creativity in worship. He created a beautiful universe with endless variety—even each human being is unique, unlike any other. He longs to hear our unique praise—however creative and individual it may be—as long as it is the genuine outpouring of our heart. In all things, in all seasons, and in all ways praise your Maker, Redeemer, and Friend. It will please Him greatly!

Jennifer LaMountain is a music educator and vocal coach with a M.A. degree in Music Education and Child Development. As an international Christian recording artist and performer, she continues to share her love for music and its ability to shape the heart and mind for God. # Yummy Granola

by Barbara Nolen

I have the pleasure of handling all the mail that comes to 3ABN and directing it to the right department. What a thrill it is to see that 3ABN is reaching people all over the world! When my sister, Joyce, and her husband, Ron, came here about a month ago to do some volunteer work, they brought a batch of the most wonderful granola to share with me. I loved it, and I think you will too!

Barbara Nolen has the privilege of opening the mail from 3ABN viewers and listeners. In addition to being a wonderful cook, she grows some of the most beautiful flowers in town!

Yummy Granola

- 14 c. quick oats
- 2½ c. sliced almonds
- 3 c. dried cranberries
- 3 c. coconut
- 2 c. wheat germ
- 1 c. Florida Crystals sugar
- 2 c. water
- 1 c. canola oil
- 2 Tbsp. vanilla
- 1 Tbsp. maple flavoring

Mix dry ingredients together. Whisk wet ingredients and add to the dry until mixture is moist. Spread in two 9 × 13 inch pans. Bake at 200°F for 8 hours, stirring every two hours. Let cool before serving with your favorite soy or other nondairy milk.

For more delicious (and nutritious) recipes, log on to www.3abn.org and click on the “Recipes” button in the navigation bar. Check back often as recipes change frequently.

DESCUBRIENDO LOS MISTERIOS DEL GÉNESIS • ¿Han tenido la oportunidad de disfrutar de los temas interesantes que el Pastor Esteban Bohr ha estado presentando? Si no los han visto todavía, marquen en su itinerario los domingos y sábados a las 8:00 p.m. como días de estudio bíblico. Aparten estas dos horitas cada semana para que estudien las profecías bíblicas junto al pastor Bohr durante su serie, Descubriendo los Misterios del Génesis, las cuales les proveerán una perspectiva diferente y refrescante, a medida que él extrae las verdades bíblicas de las historias del Génesis.

Esteban Bohr

LIFE'S SONG

by Christina Michelle Wilson

"Ouch!" I exclaimed with a sigh, "That's one painful sounding chord; it also must be my one hundred and tenth mistake."

My latest piano book had some beautiful songs in it, but my blunders had a way of disguising their beauty very effectively.

Maybe I missed a flat. I checked the notes and tried once more.

"Michelle, are you sure that's right?" Mom's voice wafted in from the kitchen. "It sounds a little off to me."

"I'm not sure; the note sounds all wrong, but, according to the sheet music, it's correct. Could it be the book's error instead of mine for a change?" I replied, somewhat frustrated, and scrutinized the page again.

Deciding to try for a less aggravating chord, I began experimenting.

Ah, so much better! I thought as I settled on the perfect chord. This piece should sound immensely better now without that error.

Much to my surprise, however, the next chord sounded completely out of place. "Whatever could be wrong?"

I asked aloud. "That one was equally unpleasant."

As I looked back at the first "inaccurate" chord, a thought occurred to me. "I wonder if..."

I replayed the offending chord and added the next one, which had previously been so out of place, and—wonder of wonders—they became totally and completely harmonious! The notes had been right all along; I had played them correctly, and the sheet music certainly wasn't a misprint. The problem was simply that I had stopped too quickly in an effort to fix a predicament that didn't even need fixing! If I had continued by adding the next note, the harmony would have been obvious.

Sometimes we do the same with life; as soon as a "sour note" comes our way, we begin to wonder if perhaps our life's "sheet music" has a misprint. We wonder if God might have made a mistake this time; after all, a slip-up is bound to happen sometime, isn't it?

What is often overlooked is that it may not be a slip-up at all. Not on God's part, nor on ours. The "chord" is correct. The only mistake is when we get caught up in trying to fix or understand the inharmonious chord. We think we can replace it with another, only to find, as life's song continues, that the following events will require the harsh chord in order to be in harmony.

Unfortunately, we do the same when a dissonant note sounds in someone else's life. Instead of waiting to see what chord God may bring into play next, we try to find all the other chords that would be better suited to their song. So often Christians will try to fix another's erroneous note that the Master knows is no error at all! Only the future will reveal the harmony that He has in mind.

Certainly, we will make mistakes; life's song is much too complex for even the most advanced. But before we label every sour note as inaccurate, and try to replace it with our own, let's ask the Composer; He may say to keep playing. The next notes in life's song might harmonize with the offending ones perfectly! ■

Christina Michelle Wilson loves to play the piano and sing. A gifted writer, she has already had several articles published in magazines, and looks forward to writing as a career!

ASI COVERAGE ON 3ABN

Don't miss 3ABN's live coverage of the Adventist-laymen's Services and Industries Convention from Dallas, Texas, beginning Wednesday, August 2, at 7:00 p.m. CST

August is always exciting at 3ABN because it's the month we broadcast live coverage of the Adventist-layman's Services and Industries (ASI) International Convention! ASI has been a driving force in training and inspiring lay people—young and old—to share Jesus Christ in the marketplace.

This year's theme is "Tell the World—Tell Them Now!" The convention will feature inspirational music and dynamic speakers including Mark Finley, a General Conference vice president; Alan Parker of Amazing Facts; David Asscherick, Director of ARISE Institute; Henry Feyerabend, the former director-speaker of It Is Written, Canada; and Jan Paulsen and Mike Ryan, president and vice-president of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

This year's ASI Convention will be held at the Gaylord Texan Resort and Convention Center near Dallas, Texas.

3ABN is proud to once again provide extensive live broadcast coverage over its English television network through the generous and faithful support of its viewers and listeners. We're looking forward to hearing the miracles and exciting stories of what God is doing as He empowers His people to share the good news with the world, so tune in beginning Wednesday, August 2, at 7:00 p.m. CST, for ASI live! ■

3ABN will be airing extensive television coverage on our English network, beginning August 2 at 7:00 p.m. CST.

Investing In Eternity

HERE ARE FIVE GOOD reasons to develop a Charitable Gift Annuity with 3ABN:

1. Your gift provides you with a fixed income for life and helps 3ABN evangelize the world!
  2. You may fund a Gift Annuity for as little as $5,000 per individual or $10,000 per couple, provided you are 55 or older.
  3. You receive an immediate tax deduction, and much of the interest is tax free.
  4. To gain a higher rate with greater income, you may develop a Deferred Gift Annuity with a future payout, provided you are 45 or older.
  5. You may fund a Charitable Gift Annuity for another person and claim the tax deduction yourself.
- A Gift Annuity is unique in that while the gift is irrevocable, the investment may earn you more than your initial gift — depending on your age.

Video of the Month

Our Video of the Month addresses the questions raised by the book and recent movie entitled, The Da Vinci Code, and exposes the dangerous ideas contained in these works of fiction. "Unlocking the Da Vinci Code" is a fascinating 2-hour program with Pastor Jim Gilley, and this video can be yours on DVD or VHS tape for a suggested donation of only $20 (U.S.) postpaid. Call us during regular business hours at 800-752-3226 and order your copy today!
