Those who are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still bear fruit in old age.
PSALM 92:13-14

Dear Family,

One of the great blessings I receive is to meet God's people and hear their testimonies. Recently we had an 80-year-old saint on 3ABN Today and she shared how she travels all over, teaching seminars on the good news of salvation. God uses her in a powerful way—proving that you're never too old to "bear fruit" in His kingdom!

We receive hundreds of letters each month from seniors all over the world. Some share incredible stories of their ministry activities, others lament how little they feel they are doing for God. Yet all of them mention how they always hold up 3ABN's ministry in prayer, and they are faithful in sending their small monthly donations.

Not everyone can serve on the frontline of God's mission field. Some serve as supporters behind the scenes. Who's to say which is more important? Paul said that people can't believe in Christ if He has not been preached, and how shall preachers preach unless they are sent? (Romans 10:14–15.)

God sends some workers to the frontline, while stationing many others to stand in the gap to intercede in prayer and provide funding. Both groups are equally fruitful and valuable to Him.

Your prayers and financial support are critical to 3ABN's mission! God knows, and so do we, that we couldn't do it without you. Thank you for being fruit-bearers, no matter what your age is!

May God richly bless you,

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

Have you been blessed?

Have you been blessed by 3ABN? Or have you come to know the Lord Jesus Christ by watching or listening? We'd love to know!

Your testimony can make a difference in our readers' lives, so why not sit down and drop us a line? You can write to us at: 3ABN World, PO Box 220, West Frankfort, IL 62896. E-mail us at: mail@3abn.org.

GRANTS PASS, OREGON:

"Please accept my meager, humble gift. I've recently lost my health and my income, but not my faith. The Lord and my church family will provide for me. I pray often for 3ABN as well as our own Adventist television station, KBLN. These two stations led me to the Lord last year. I was baptized on Sabbath, November 19, 2005. It is my prayer to fellowship with you all in heaven soon."

VIA E-MAIL:

"I live in Tunisia, North Africa, which is an Arab country, and I am a viewer since 2001. At first I was watching it to improve my English, and I could understand only about 20% of what you said. But now I understand about 90% of the language. Not only have the messages touched my heart, but the Holy Spirit is dwelling in my soul."

WINNIPEG, MANITOBA, CANADA:

"I got my satellite dish late last summer, and I am so pleased with your channel. I became a Seventh-day Adventist in 1978 and have been so blessed and happy. I now feel 'at home' keeping all of the Ten Commandments. God bless you as your program blesses us who enjoy 3ABN."

MUNSING, MICHIGAN:

"I am writing to thank you. I am an inmate incarcerated in Michigan. Since being incarcerated I have found the Lord as my personal saviour. I am only 20 years old and have been sinning all of that time. I never knew anything about Jesus or the Bible, and then one day I saw the book, The Ten Commandments Twice Removed. Since I began reading this book it started making me look at things in a different way."

VIA E-MAIL:

"A member of our church has two adult children—his daughter is a member, but his son is not. His son visited the church once or twice with skepticism. Yesterday he was in church for the first time with his wife and baby. He told us of a man who had one well-read, curled book and a survey. The man told him that he was directed to give him the small book. After the service, his wife told me that they had read every page and how it all made sense. She said that this man had only that one book, and that as far as they could see, their house was the only one he visited in their neighborhood. Sometimes a third party deliverer, directed by the Lord, makes all the difference. The faithfulness of His servant brought a family together."

GREEN BAY, WISCONSIN:

"Please accept the enclosed donation for The Ten Commandments Twice Removed project. I do not belong to your church, but you are right about the Seventh-day Sabbath, and I observe it."

VIA E-MAIL:

"Hi! I just want you to know that Kids Time is my most favorite 3ABN program, and we watch 3ABN a lot! I am a 55-year-old music teacher and grandma, but no matter how busy I am, Kids Time is always inspiring and encouraging. It's a great way to share Jesus with my friends! We like reruns, we like new stuff, we like it all. God bless you forever!"

MADISON, ALABAMA:

"I've been watching 3ABN off and on for about eight months and would like to say that I'm very impressed with every pastor that has been on your programs. I've been reading along and have seen that, word for word, the lessons that you preach are the real deal. So I'm sending you $100. Please send me anything you feel will help me take the next step, as I want to be with my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ."

VIA E-MAIL:

"I am writing to you from Cape Town, South Africa. We are happy and so thrilled that we can now get 3ABN on our small satellite dish. Thank you so much that you have made this possible! We are truly being blessed by your ministry of love. It is so great to be able to see something uplifting on the TV screen at present—and all because of you."

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

FINDING GOD IN A CAVE

One of the most fascinating stories we've heard has been that of Pastor Doug Batchelor, president and speaker for Amazing Facts in Sacramento, California, whose search for God ended literally in a cave! As he prepared for his series, The Most Amazing Prophecies, which will air this month on 3ABN, we asked him to share about his life and ministry.

As the teenage son of a millionaire father and a show business mother, Doug had everything money could buy—everything but happiness. He used drugs, fought at school, and entertained suicidal fantasies. “I wondered if my life would ever amount to anything,” he admits. Disgusted with himself and convinced that life held no purpose, Doug says he was determined to grab all the fun and excitement he could find, and before his search ended, a cave in the hills of Palm Springs, California, became his home. Sadly, although his father owned a yacht, a Learjet, and an airline, Doug would eventually scavenge for food in garbage bins.

The happiness he wanted eluded him until the day he began reading the dust-covered Bible a fellow “searcher” had left behind in his cave. What happened next can only be described as a miracle. As he turned the pages, God’s Word began to transform his mind.

“Even though I struggled with the King James Version’s outdated language, the stories captivated me,” Doug says. “It seemed that a divine presence was by my side, impressing me that this was truth.”

In addition to his evangelistic meetings, Pastor Doug Batchelor is a much sought-after speaker for camp meetings and other events. He also produces weekly television and radio programs that air on 3ABN.

As Doug struggled to make sense of the Bible, a hippie friend gave him a copy of The Great Controversy, by Ellen G. White. “I remember thinking, ‘Wow, whoever wrote this book speaks with authority,’” Doug recalls. “Scripture references were sprinkled generously throughout, and the narrative came alive.”

Convinced that the Seventh-day Sabbath was God’s holy day, Doug’s search for truth took him to a variety of churches. He decided to leave the cave, but had no idea where to go.

Then God in His mercy guided him to Covelo, California, after hitching a ride with a couple who dropped him off there. “That was a pivotal point in my life,” Doug says. “I was just hitchhiking and praying, and when I landed in town, I almost instantly met up with Seventh-day Adventists.”

One Sabbath he visited Pastor Joe Phillips’ church. Wearing a scroungy-looking shirt and overalls, he drove up on a motorcycle with a friend and was greeted warmly by the congregation. Soon after, Doug was baptized, and not long after, Pastor Phillips asked him to preach! Thus started a great ministry that has now taken him to nearly every continent in person as well as on satellite television and radio!

As he prepared for The Most Amazing Prophecies series (airing on 3ABN beginning Friday, September 15, at 7:00 p.m. Eastern Time), he graciously took time out of his busy schedule to answer a few questions.

3ABN World magazine (WM): Pastor Doug, what is your personal Bible study time like?

Doug Batchelor (DB): Well, when I wake up, the first thing I do is turn on my computer and I read my Bible. I have a program that helps me read through all of it in a year, and

I really enjoy the many powerful commentaries available on software. I follow that with a time of prayer on my knees, and after that I am back into my Bible study, preparing for my sermons. I also have an abundant supply of sermons on tapes and CDs in my car, and my radio is preset to three or four Christian stations. I also like to fall asleep every night listening to the Bible on CD. Isn't technology wonderful? I even have the entire Bible on my Palm Pilot.

WM: What is your favorite Bible verse?

DB: Jeremiah 29:11-13: "For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end. Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart."

WM: What is your favorite activity?

DB: [without hesitation] Preaching the Word!

WM: And the most difficult part of your work?

DB: I am a little hyperactive and have problems sitting still. I wish I didn't have to sit so long in committees and on airplanes. It's also tough to be away from Karen and the boys while traveling so frequently.

WM: How much do you travel in your ministry work?

DB: I'm away from my home church somewhere between 15 and 20 Sabbaths a year.

WM: What are the greatest dangers to the church today?

DB: Apathy, worldly pleasures, and materialism are stifling the voice of the Holy Spirit in our hearts. We are losing our love for souls, and it seems an ever increasing number believe that truth is relative.

WM: What are the simple steps to stay close to Jesus?

DB: Pray, read your Bible, and share your faith whether you feel like it or not. Eventually, you will feel like it! Moving water does not usually freeze.

WM: What do you do to unwind?

DB: I pick up my guitar and just start to sing through my book of songs I've collected.

WM: Tell us about The Most Amazing Prophecies series—how is it different?

DB: Probably the biggest difference between this series and previous meetings will be the prime-time special on the i Network (formerly PAX Network) on September 11 at 7:00 p.m. Eastern Time. Pastor Dwight Nelson and I will not only talk about the final events, but also promote the upcoming The Most Amazing Prophecies series. It should have a new energetic dynamic because of the university audience. It's a short, 10-program series, and we're doing it in concert with the university's Week of Prayer. It will also have the energy of two former NET speakers working together, so I'm looking forward to it.

WM: Thank you, Pastor Doug, for sharing your heart and your testimony with us. God bless you!

DB: It's my pleasure! ■

A PARTICULAR

MISSIONARY

by Nikki Anderson

Many children grow up hearing stories about missionaries in foreign lands. They learn about the wonderful miracles God does, the many baptisms being performed, and the countless good deeds those folks are accomplishing. Ideas of joining the missionary ranks form in those young minds and many fulfill those dreams as adults. But a large number of people are not able to do so for a variety of reasons, such as finances, family situations, physical limitations, or being led in another direction by the Holy Spirit.

I've talked with a number of people who did not get to be the missionary they expected to be when they grew up. While they were happy with the life God had given them, there was still that little child in them who wanted to be a missionary and know the joy of helping people. Then God told them to build a radio station. Some are full-power AM or FM stations, some are low-power FM stations, some are translators, and some are even micro transmitters which send the signal only a few hundred feet. However far the signal is going, each one of these people is positive that the message is going exactly where God wants it to go.

I consulted Webster's Dictionary for a definition of the word "mission" and found several meanings, among them are:

1. A course of sermons and services designed to increase the faith of Christians or to convert unbelievers.
2. A calling.

3. A definite task or errand, usually calling for performance in a combat area or enemy territory, assigned to an individual or unit.

4. A commission.

3ABN Radio provides the programming, the "course of sermons," used to increase faith and convert unbelievers. The station operators feel they were called, or commissioned, to the definite task of establishing a radio station in the midst of a combat zone—their own communities—which are certainly in enemy territory. They realize now that the "mission field" is not just in foreign countries. Instead, it's all around them! These individuals have also enlisted the help of fellow missionaries, forming strong units within God's army of followers.

Some of the ways Webster's Dictionary defines a "missionary" are:

1. A person sent out to convert others to his or her faith.
2. Many are members of the clergy, but an increasing number of men and women, called lay missionaries, are not ordained.
3. Missionaries strive to improve the quality of life among the people they serve.

Led by the Holy Spirit, these particular lay missionaries are definitely striving to improve the quality of life among their family, friends, and neighbors. They are seeing the conversions every day. And they are feeling the joy they once longed for because of the miracles, the baptisms, and the good deeds. The servants God chose to spread His gospel message over the air waves are missionaries at last! ■

by John Dinzey

We were so blessed to participate in the Ten Commandments Weekend last May, and the reports are still coming in! Spanish church members passed out hundreds of thousands of copies of the Spanish version of the Ten Commandments Twice Removed throughout North, Central, and South America.

Our Spanish uplink was originally to come from the Dominican Republic, and we had been in prayer for the Lord's leading and blessing throughout our planning. Our site was selected, the production company was hired, and local contacts had been made. They had shown great interest in working with us; however, there was this little uncertainty that would surface once in a while that kept us going back to the Lord in prayer.

Nearly three weeks before the event, all the preparation work and all the planning came to a complete halt. We were not going to be able to uplink from Dominican Republic! What should we do?

A few options were considered, but we knew we had to go to the Lord in prayer. Should we try to broadcast from Puerto Rico? Was the Lord leading in this, or was it our frail human idea? I thought of a dear pastor, who was the interim leader of the Seventh-day Adventist church there at the time. Earnestly I prayed, "Lord, I will call Pastor Efren Pagán Irizarry in Puerto Rico. If it is Your will for us to broadcast from there, then bless me with favor in reaching him during this hour and give me a positive response today."

I dialed the number and was greeted—by voice mail! I left a message, and after I hung up I said, "Lord, this in Your hands. You know what is best for us." Within 15 minutes Pastor Irizarry called back. I presented our idea to him of broadcasting on the 3ABN Latino Network from Puerto Rico, along with an apology for bringing this project to him at such late notice. I realized that there would be hardly any time to organize this locally. Then he answered, "It will be an honor for Puerto Rico to collaborate with 3ABN on this event!"

I was very happy to hear that! "Praise the Lord!" I almost shouted. Indeed, He should be praised! God had put things in their place and given me confirmation that He was in control!

Unfortunately, we do not have the space to tell of the many things that God did to let us know that Puerto Rico was where He wanted us to be, but here are a few:

- When we picked our broadcast site, an audience of 800 was assured, since the entire congregation of the the Rio Piedra Seventh-day Adventist Church had been displaced due to a remodeling project!

- Before my conversation with Pastor Efren Irizarry, the churches in Puerto Rico had ordered 200,000 copies of the Ten Commandments Twice Removed in Spanish. I had not known that the local churches had plans to march down the streets in parades and distribute books door to door!

- The church headquarters had already planned to publish full-page ads about this special weekend.

- Two local Seventh-day Adventist radio stations had their own plans for live programs about the Ten Commandments to coincide with their rebroadcasting of several hours of our Spanish Ten Commandments Weekend.

We want to invite all our 3ABN Latino viewers to enjoy this incredible event again as we rebroadcast it during the month of September. ■

THE ADDICTION TO PRIDE

by Hal Steenson

For years, I observed one of the worst addictions affecting Christianity. This addiction is running rampant throughout every denomination, every independent and networked ministry on the earth. It is causing division, confusion, and isolation—even in the lives of the non-church-going believers.

ize around a noncompetitive addiction, but this addiction will not let you do this. What addiction is destroying the kingdom on a daily basis and spreading like wildfire? The addiction to pride.

Proverbs 16:18 clearly states, “Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.” It does not say that pride follows destruction. On the contrary, this addiction precedes your destruction and causes a haughty spirit, which precedes your fall.

In 1995, I received a devastating blow from the enemy; I lost all I had worked for during the past 15 years. There was nothing left to salvage from my ministry. Broken and humiliated (now would be a good time to remind you that humility and humiliation are not the same thing), I began to go into the withdrawals while coming off my pride high. These withdrawals weren’t the DTs; they’re called bitterness and resentment! Almost anyone who has ever experienced withdrawals will affirm they are sometimes harder on you than the addiction itself.

As I began to recover from my withdrawals, I asked the Lord why this had happened. His response was “Hal, why did this happen?” I would like to share two truths here. First, when God asks you a question, He’s not looking for information. Second, the person who is addicted is usually the last person to admit it. It was not easy for me to stand up in God’s “AA” meeting and say, “Sir, my name is Hal and I am addicted to pride.”

God’s Word says, “Let a man examine himself.” (1 Corinthians 11:28.) Pride was not just something I had—it had actually become a dysfunctional part of me. Therefore, in examining myself, I had no other choice but to examine pride itself. Here’s what I found:

The “P” in pride meant: Perceiving that I should have more than what I do. I’m going to refer to this as the “I deserve because I serve” attitude: “I should have more of everything because I’m doing the Lord’s work.” For some (prideful) reason we think that the more we do for God, the more God should do for us. I had not suffered yet “unto blood.” I had not done anything to deserve the blood of Christ that was shed for me on Calvary. If I opened blinded eyes, healed the sick, or even

FOR SOME (PRIDEFUL) REASON
WE THINK THAT THE MORE WE DO FOR GOD, THE MORE GOD SHOULD DO FOR US.

Hal Steenson pastored for many years before joining 3ABN’s pastoral ministries staff.

raised the dead, that would still not give me just cause to have an “I deserve because I serve” mentality.

The Apostle Paul said it so beautifully while boasting in humility, “But what things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ. Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ.” (Philippians 3: 7–8.) God had to knock this apostle off his prideful high horse, strike him blind, and humble him before Ananias to receive his sight once again. Here was a man who, after being rejected at Mars Hill, still had to have another pride adjustment. Finally, we read about the “rock fights” this apostle was in, and have you ever noticed he was the only one who didn’t have any rocks? Have you ever wondered why Paul didn’t have a pocketful of rocks? Ask yourself why Stephen didn’t cry out as the stones were being hurled at him, “Hey, wait a minute, I deserve because I serve!” Thank God for grace.

The “R” in pride meant: Reaching the lost has become secondary, and reaching for fame has become primary. I’m going to call this the “I want to be known” syndrome. It’s too easy to be caught up in this trap, and it’s almost impossible to escape once its addiction has ensnared us. I look back over the years at the many ministers and laymen who were “sold out” on reaching souls and making disciples, and who went by the wayside because of fame. These people burned with God’s flame, but somehow lost the “L” and their flame became fame.

The great commission does not call us become famous; it sends us to a lost and dying world. The only way this can happen is for the world to see Christ in us, not just see us. Colossians 3:1–3 has a directive about where our attention should be focused and how to help us overcome the “I want to be known” syndrome. It reads, “If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth. For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.”

It should be our desire to know Him and the power of His resurrection, rather than seek to be known. The Apostle Paul didn’t conquer Rome from an ivory tower, but he did conquer it; and he did it from his jail cell ministry!

The “I” in pride meant: Identifying more with the world than with Christ. One John 2:15–16 says, “Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world.” If we could just walk in this, we would be home free. However, it’s just not that easy. I’m going to call this the “If you’re smart, you’ll look the part” trap. This is where pride really becomes competitive with the rest of the body of Christ. We think we must have the biggest and best of everything in order to accomplish the great commission. How sad to think that God is impressed with our material things.

I remember when I first made

Jesus Christ Lord of my life; He was the last thing on my mind as I fell to sleep at night and the first thing on my lips when I woke up in the morning. All that changed, but I was smart because I looked the part.

This addiction to pride will slowly allow us to embrace the world and the things of the world. We will slowly swap love for lust, ministry for money, and godly power for more people. This competitive spirit will cause us to think that we aren’t successful unless we have plenty of people following us; unless we dress and confess how prosperous our ministry is; unless we have a website and our mailing list reaches thousands. We reach out and lay hold of worldly things, which we feel will make our ministry look even bigger and better.

Success doesn’t come from the world. Real success comes only by doing the will of the Father. God is not saying that having the largest church in our area is wrong, because the size of the ministry doesn't concern Him. What concerns Him is the heart of the ministry. The heart of any ministry will fall in one of two categories: It is either done in the flesh, or it's done in the spirit. When we are addicted to pride we don't want a man of God must present himself. I began to judge others by their actions—but I judged myself by my intentions. I wonder how many times I said, “Well, God knows my heart,” and used that as a loophole for my actions? I would lose my temper at the drop of a hat, and even use profanity, calling it “righteous indignation.” People should realize that I was the Top Dog Pastor in our area, and give me the elasticity to go to extremes! I've since learned that extremes are dysfunctional—and that made me dysfunctional.

I read somewhere that dysfunctional people are mostly unaware of their disability. My son, Jeremy, told me one day, “Dad, your light is on, but you don't you see it, do you?” He went on to say that when you turn on a light, the light isn't aware that it's on, but everyone in the room is aware that it's burning brightly. By that time my light switch was stuck in the “on” position, and there was no turning it off. That's why I refer to this as, “Your light is on and everybody knows it but you.”

When our light of defense is on, we can't understand 1 John

3:20–21: “For if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence toward God.” I knew what this scripture meant. If my heart was saying what I was doing was wrong, then God was saying the same thing. Moreover, if my heart wasn't condemning me, then neither was God. However, there is a big difference between listening to our head and listening to our heart. At this phase of the addiction to pride, we stop listening to our heart, and all we hear is our head—and the head is saying, “Nobody knows your light is on, and you're doing great!”

The “E” in pride meant: Everything in this ministry should revolve around me. I had become a law unto myself, and with my strong personality and hardheadedness, no one dared to oppose me! This is none other than the “King Me” mentality, and what we don't realize is that there is always something or someone that can and will dethrone us!

In this facet of the addiction to pride, all of our ministry team and workers stop being ministers with us and become “employees only.” Even when someone has overextended him or herself and has given all for the ministry, the general expression is, “that's what they get paid to do.”

In the early years of ministry, my wife Mollie and I shed a lot of “blood” to accomplish what God desired for our ministry, and this “King Me” mentality was making sure everyone else bled also. I didn't care if I caused everyone around me to be uncomfortable and on edge; I made sure that they wouldn't do anything without me—their “King.”

People who knew me before success and loved me, tried to warn me, “You're not the same person you used to be, Hal,” but the addiction to pride would not let me see how drastically I had changed. “It has to be them,” I thought. “Surely, it's not me!” If I'd only known how the “King” would fall, how many people I would wound, and how many people would be overjoyed when I fell, maybe I would have changed.

But probably not. You see, I was addicted to pride. ■ to know which one it is—as long as it's working! “Pastor” Moses had three million followers in the desert, and Jesus had twelve. Neither one had to “look the part,” they just did the will of the Father.

The “D” in pride meant: Defending my actions, rather than defending the faith. Defending my actions started out slowly for me, but picked up speed at a blinding rate. My actions soon became worldly, and not in line with the way

THE POWER OF HIS LOVE

by Phyllis Andrew

Most creationists don't believe in a Big Bang theory, but I do. God said, "Let there be light," and bang, it happened!

All He had to do was speak the word. Now that was power! He spoke all creation into being, except mankind. Instead He stooped down to pick up some dirt that was ready to bring forth grass, flowers, or trees. However, He used it to make a different kind of life. His hands began to mold and form this new creature that was meant to have an intimate relationship with Him. Like a new Father, He examined His child from head to toe to make sure all was perfect. Then, bending low, He wrapped His arms around His child and breathed the breath of life to make a living soul. Now that was love!

John 1:1 says, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." Then the Word of God became flesh. He, too, had power when He spoke. His words could bring peace to the stormy waters and to the hearts of the fearful disciples, new life to Lazarus, healing to the centurion's servant, and hope to the thief on the cross. Yet, divine willpower would keep Jesus silent when on trial for His life.

How proudly Mary used her hands to wrap her newborn Son in swaddling clothes! Could she know that other hands would lovingly wrap Him in the swaddling clothes of death? Could she imagine His hands breaking bread to feed the 5,000 and mankind breaking the Bread of Life? Could she see Him giving the kiss of life and Judas giving the kiss of death? Could she hear Him speaking words of forgiveness and Peter speaking the words of denial? Could she watch as the tree He had created was turned into a cross? Could she feel the pain as the hands that healed the sick were cruelly nailed to that cross?

Imagine the Creator being put to death by His creation. Imagine the agony and despair of His followers as they watched Him die. Imagine the joy and rejoicing as God said, "Let there be Light," and Jesus came forth from the tomb! Now that is power; that is love! ■

TESTIMONY

GOD USED THE RADIO

by Berni Denslow

I was excited to find a testimony this month about a couple who found 3ABN Radio in Minnesota. What a wonderful story it is, but let Peter Gentry tell it to you in his own words:

“One October day about three years ago, I was sitting in minutes to myself to unwind from dealing with all the problems that come up in a day’s work. As I searched, I came to a station called 3ABN Radio, but I didn’t spend much time there, since I didn’t like what I was hearing. But as I continued to turn the dial, I came back to it again, and this time the word ‘Revelation’ caught my ear, so I began listening.

“My wife Sandra and I were members of an evangelical church, although I can’t say I was a very active one. Because of my church’s teachings, I heartily disagreed with what I was hearing—especially about the seventh-day Sabbath and what happens when you die. Somehow, though, I kept turning to that station, and actually started studying my Bible to prove those preachers wrong!

“A curious thing began to happen. I became more and more concerned as I dug deeper into the Bible because I found that I was learning things I had never heard before. By this time I had quit attending my evangelical church altogether, and my pastor became worried. He sent me a kind letter asking if he had done or said something to offend me. He even asked me to come by and see him, which I did.

“During our conversation I told him about 3ABN and my Bible study about the Sabbath. My pastor actually admitted that Saturday is the Sabbath, but added, ‘We keep Sunday in honor of the resurrection of Jesus.’ This really bothered me, and I didn’t go back to my church.”

Meanwhile, Sandra had become very concerned about her husband’s drinking, and when she attended an evangelical church-sponsored women’s retreat that September, she specifically requested special prayer for him, asking that the Lord impress Peter to be more involved in their church.

“God answered my prayer request in a very different way than I expected,” she says. “The very next month Peter began listening to 3ABN Radio and studying his Bible, but this wasn’t what I had in mind!”

Sandra wasn’t too interested in listening to 3ABN Radio with Peter, but was grateful when he quit drinking a year later. Then in March 2004, she attended another one-day women’s retreat, which turned out to be right next door to the Seventh-day Adventist church where Peter and their two daughters were going to worship that day. As God would have it, that afternoon Sandra finished up at about the same time that the church service began next door, so she came in and joined them in the pew.

“I was pleasantly surprised to find how much I liked the service,” she says. “I found Peter and Sandra Gentry enjoy worshiping with their new church family, along with their daughters Monica and Emily.

Berni Denslow and her husband, Al, travel extensively with our 3ABN production team as volunteers. She enjoys writing about people whose lives are changed through watching 3ABN.

my truck in my yard as usual, with a bottle in one hand and my other hand on the radio dial, looking up and down the frequencies for something to relax by. When I would return home from work as a prison corrections officer I reasoned that I just needed a drink and a few

the people to be very friendly. However, I didn't give in easily." At first Sandra continued attending her church on Sunday and the Seventh-day Adventist church on Saturday. She began to believe what she was hearing from the pulpit on Sabbath and also from 3ABN changed so much, including our health habits."

Now Peter finds himself talking about Jesus more and more. He's also found that many of the prison inmates enjoy 3ABN Radio as well on WMLA-LP (99.7 FM), which is clearly heard, since the radio station is only two miles away! The Gentry family is now very active in the Christ Our Righteousness Seventh-day Adventist Church, in Moose Lake, Minnesota.

Their two daughters, Monica (10) and Emily (7), are now interested in the Bible, too! Monica has a spiritual hunger which has drawn her over and over to ask, "Why can't I be baptized, too?" While her parents felt she was too young to understand a decision such as this, they eventually became convinced otherwise, and just a few weeks ago she demonstrated her decision to follow Jesus by her baptism.

And so we come to the conclusion—no, maybe I should say the beginning of another story of a family on their way to the kingdom! God bless the Gentry family as they join us on this marvelous journey to Heaven. ■

Radio. She knew she had to make a decision, and that she couldn't continue to "straddle the fence." She realized she needed to accept or reject the Sabbath teachings of the Bible. But once she took her stand, she didn't find it hard to change churches, and soon she had a new church family.

Peter and Sandra were baptized in the chilly waters of Close Lake, Minnesota, on September 17, 2005. "What a refreshing feeling we had as we came out of the baptismal waters into our new life," Peter says. "Our lives in general have
