WELCOME

Happy New Year! What a wonderful thing new beginnings can be. As we start a new year, we want you to know how much you mean to us. Without you, there would be no 3ABN! This month we thought you'd enjoy getting to know Janice Smith, the host of Janice's Attic. She shares her thoughts in "A Heart for Children" (p. 6). We'll also tell you why Nikki Anderson thinks she has "The Best Job at 3ABN" (p. 10). Discover how 3ABN helped bring a mother and daughter to the Lord in "Feeling at Home" (p. 16), and ponder Richard Piñero's devotional, "A Recipe for Hope" (p. 44). We think you'll be excited about our "New Children's Studio" (p. 20), as well as the testimonies from 3ABN Latino. We hope you catch the vision of reaching the world for Jesus in this month's 3ABN World magazine!

Those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.
ROMANS 5:17 (NKJV)

Dear Family,

I'm not exactly sure why folks get a boost of enthusiasm when the New Year rolls around, but it's quite noticeable in the way many walk and talk. It's as if one chapter has closed—the page has turned and the next blank page represents the beginning of a story yet to be written. Many people seem to have increased hope that the New Year will bring better things.

As Christians and participants in the New Covenant built on better promises and a better hope, enthusiasm should fill us every day! We have received an abundance of grace. We have received the gift of righteousness. God promises that we will reign in life through Christ. Now, that's something to get excited about!

Enthusiasm fills our hearts here at 3ABN. God keeps reminding us that the best is yet to come! He keeps opening doors for 3ABN to increase the borders of our territory. He keeps maintaining His cause for this network, reminding us that He is in charge, and He will see that His will is accomplished. We are counting on His promise that in Christ we can reign in life!

One thing I know for sure: Each new day brings increased opportunities to reach a lost and dying world. How blessed we are to have the privilege to do God's work and to have you working alongside us! Thank you for partnering with us to carry out the mission God has for His ministry at 3ABN.

May God richly bless you,

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

IOWA VIA E-MAIL:

"I have been neglectful in writing and sharing what a blessing 3ABN has been, and continues to be. Oh! How I love to study the Bible, and 3ABN provides that wonderful opportunity to me many times daily. Your ministry shows Christian love, your programs teach and reach out in humility and love. Although I am not a Sabbath-keeper and am struggling, I do not feel doomed to hell fire... May God bless you!"

QUEGON CITY, PHILIPPINES:

"Your programs are timely for this present time of hardship and turmoil that continually takes place around the globe. I am so blessed to be a part of the family of God. Truly, God continues to plant the truth of salvation despite the difficulties experienced by the dedicated workers of 3ABN. May God continue to bless and keep His soldiers strong in the faith."

SOCHI, RUSSIA (TO 3ABN RUSSIA):

"I thank God for the opportunity to watch your programs on the Channel CNL. I am 67 years old and the topic of healthy food is essential for me, especially taking into account that I suffered from diseases connected with exposure to radiation during the Chernobyl catastrophe. God, by His wonderful way, released me from all my sores, but it is written: 'Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.' I've kept to a diet for almost 19 years. That is why I ask you to send me your book, Keys to Health. May God bless, lead, and keep you!"

OTTAPALAM, KERALA, INDIA:

"We have 3ABN in our homes, and you're a blessing to us here in India. May God bless 3ABN."

GRANTS PASS, OREGON:

"Words cannot express the joy I felt as I worshipped with you at your last camp meeting. I love everything about 3ABN, with its excellent and insightful teachings, as always. Your new programs have so much spiritual and nourishing food. I've never heard such revelations in my entire life. Please keep the prophecy programs coming. I hunger for them, but most of all, I hunger for the absolute truth of the Word of God."

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI:

"It was with mixed emotions that I started watching 3ABN. However, your Christian programming proves to be a marvelous stepping stone. It was through 3ABN teachings that I changed the way I live, and now I am a witness to the power of conversion and baptism."

BIRMINGHAM, UNITED KINGDOM:

"I was watching one of your programmes when a pastor made an appeal to send missionaries to India. I felt impressed by the Holy Spirit to make a sacrifice. Obeying the call, I went to the post office and mailed my letter. When I got home I found letters addressed to me. I opened one which was a birthday card, and what a surprise! I found a check for the same amount of money I had just sent... I knelt down and thanked God for His goodness. I pray daily for the 3ABN family."

VIA E-MAIL:

"It is because of the Holy Spirit, and your ministry, that our church is rejoicing today. Our newest member, a young man in his early twenties, decided to come to one of our services after he started watching 3ABN. Not only did he become a regular at our services, but also he took Bible lessons under the guidance of our pastor, which he completed, and publicly took his stand for the Lord on July 15 of last year. We are rejoicing and praising God for His goodness."

KAMO, WHANGAREI, NEW ### ZEALAND:

"We appreciate 3ABN Radio so much. My family and many others from 'down under' are regular listeners of your programs. What an important ministry you have. Just recently, a complete stranger called and requested more information about the beliefs of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. He stated that he was a regular listener of 3ABN Radio here and wanted to learn more. Thank you so much for your ministry."

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

A HEART FOR CHILDREN

Janice Smith takes a break from her busy day at the greenhouse. In a soft voice she wonders out loud why we would want to interview her. “I don’t think people understand how shy I really am,” she says. “Being interviewed for an article is so different then being in front of a camera.

“I was raised on the same little farm where my dad was raised when his family immigrated to Canada from England,” she says. “We were a very close-knit family, and my parent’s home in Victoria, British Columbia, was always open to help other people.”

As she tells us about her early years, Janice frequently refers to their family time. “I had a pretty rich childhood,” she says. “My parents had a boat and some property out on a small gulf island, and we often camped there during the summer. I also had an assortment of pets, which included cats, dogs, Bantam roosters, a ram, a Shetland pony, and a wild baby Angora goat named Trixie who would come into the house through the cat door, and do all manner of thing, making herself at home!”

Growing up in church, she says that she was often called on for special music. “I cringe, because we would take several songs and turn them into something—well, completely different! We thought they were masterpieces, but I suppose the audience didn’t wonder why the labels weren’t chasing us down!”

She tells us that the turning point in her walk with the Lord came when she spent a year in Japan as a student missionary. “That year I came into a very personal relationship with Jesus after reading the book, The Ministry of Healing, by Ellen White. I really felt convicted that I needed to know Jesus better, and that I needed to apply the principles of His Word to my daily lifestyle.”

Janice returned and began studying elementary education at Weimar College, a Christian school in the mountains overlooking Sacramento, California. Her teaching career took her to a remote part of British Columbia where she taught grades one through nine, and even though she was sure she wouldn’t find good husband material in such a remote place, it was there she met Byron Smith.

“We instantly connected, and we communicated so easily about the important things in life, like our spiritual values and our goals for service. Byron is my soul mate, and he truly is the best thing that ever happened to me.”

They married and chose to raise their family in northern British Columbia, in a wilderness setting. “We will never regret that choice,” Janice says. “We wanted a simple life, away from the distractions of suburbia.

“We prayed with our children and had family worships together,” she says, “but we felt strongly that they needed to dedicate those first minutes of the day for personal devotions. When our oldest daughter, Janna, was about three, I read some Bible stories onto a tape, along with some personalized prayers. The next morning I sat her down in a snug corner and let her listen to her little devotional tape. She loved it, and when I told my friends, they said, ‘I’m going to do that, too!’ Later they kept asking me for copies of my tapes, and that’s when I felt a calling to form Morning-Time Ministries and make the devotions professionally.

But how did Janice begin producing children’s programming? Not surprisingly, it had something to do with 3ABN!

“Dr. Walt Thompson (3ABN’s current chairman of the board) had long dreamt of creating a children’s television series for 3ABN,” she says, “and not long after I had been interviewed on 3ABN about our Morning-Time Devotion tapes, we were put in touch with him, and the Janice’s Attic series was born. We worked with 3ABN, Dr. Thompson, and the Adventist Media Center, and those days were fun!”

Sometimes funny things happened, too! One of her sets was the “Jungle Forest” where branches and clumps of grass had been brought into the studio to make it look like a forest. It was spring, and everything was coming to life. During the week she taped, the hot studio lights seemed to bring unexpected things to life, too! One day Janice sat on her stump taping a nature segment, when all of a sudden she jumped up, shaking her skirt vigorously. “Ooo, ooo, ooo!” she said, as she danced around the set. The crew was clueless, and the director stopped the tape. Finally, she was able to explain that something was crawling up her legs! It turned out that the stump they used was infested with termites, and the little creatures had suddenly decided spring had come and it was time to find a new home!

When asked what she thinks is important in Christian children’s programming, Janice has strong convictions. “Byron and I were convicted that we needed to use very high standards in everything we present to children. We believe the things children see and hear need to be based in reality and truth. We must use truth to teach truth. Jesus told stories from real life situations—He didn’t make characters out of inanimate objects. People have the mistaken idea that if something isn’t funny and goofy, then children won’t listen. For many years I led out in the ASI* Youth programming. This covered everyone from toddlers to 18-year-olds. My experience is that the higher we set our standards, the more we captured the young people’s attention.

“When we talk down to children, we are defacing the gospel! Look at the early church, and the Waldenses,” she continues. “Their children didn’t have someone dancing around them with puppets to keep their attention! We’re in a serious time in earth’s closing moments.

“WE BELIEVE THE THINGS CHILDREN SEE AND HEAR NEED TO BE BASED IN REALITY AND TRUTH. WE MUST USE TRUTH TO TEACH TRUTH.”

We can’t afford to use anything but the best methods to teach children. I’m a strong believer that “something better” is the watchword of education, the law of all true living.”

Thirteen episodes of Janice’s Attic were completed before Janice and Byron decided to move to Arizona. Those programs have aired continuously on 3ABN and on many other networks over the years.

“When we found property in a secluded desert valley and built our greenhouse we were so

THE BEST AT 3ABN JOB

Nikki Anderson doesn't hesitate when she's asked why she came to 3ABN.

"God brought me here for what 3ABN could do for me, rather than what I could do for them," she says, smiling. (And if the truth be known, most of us feel the same way about ourselves.)

Born in Fargo, North Dakota, and raised in northern Illinois, Nikki says she's been called a helper all her life. Once, on a first visit to a new church, she got up and began washing dishes after the fellowship meal. "The pastor came by and saw me, then yelled, 'Hey Norma, we've got another Martha!'" (See the story of Mary and Martha in Luke 10:38-42.)

Nikki has always worked in the helping professions, and now she answers dozens of phone calls and e-mails, while working on databases, contractual agreements, promos, and producing Women at the Well. She also finds time to write spots for the network, do some announcing, and write this column for 3ABN World magazine! And did we mention tours for visitors, music review, and scheduling the commercial breaks?

"When I moved from Utah back to Illinois I decided to come down and see what 3ABN was all about," she says. "I had friends who were going to tape there, and I hadn't seen them in a while, so I came down for a tour. But when we were about to leave, my friends asked for a work application—for me! I had no intention of applying here, but went ahead and filled it out anyway. Then, as I was walking out the door, they called me back in for a typing test, and one month later I was working in the engineering department."

A few weeks later, 3ABN's radio manager, Theresa Boote, called Nikki to see if she'd come work in radio. Nikki jumped at the chance. "If you can put two redheads under one roof and never have any disagreements, you have a rare gift," she says, "and that's what it was—it was a gift from God to be able to work with Theresa.

"It was also 'baptism by fire,'" she chuckles. "I had to get familiar with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) rules and regulations. Then I spent a lot of time calling churches to let them know their filing period was coming up.

"But getting to know the people was wonderful," she adds. "The people God impressed to start radio stations have all become dear friends. They'd call to share a disappointment, and also to share miracles! They'd call when their equipment came in, and they'd call all excited when their station went on the air!

"I've told them all that they are an inspiration to us, both in their persistence and tenaciousness for God!" Nikki says. "There's a lady in New York that felt impressed to start a radio station. At first, her church turned her down, but the Lord wouldn't leave her alone. So she did her homework, won the support of her church board, and then called me asking, 'What do I do now?'" Nikki pauses. "She's waited five years, and her station just went on the air!

"God's changed my life as I've worked with them," she adds. "He's grown and matured me and given me words to encourage them. Our radio staff is such a cohesive team. Getting to know my radio family, hearing their trials, and sharing their victories—that's an enormous gift. I must have the best job at 3ABN!" ■

THE FUTURE IS BRIGHT!

by John Dinzey

The year 2006 is over and once again we can say, “To God be the glory, great things He hath done!” During the past year God blessed 3ABN Latino in a mighty way, by using us as an instrument to save lives, to bring hope, to transform hearts, and bring people out of darkness and into His marvelous light.

At the beginning of the year, we made a commitment to increase the variety of our program lineup. Now, looking back, we can say, “Thanks to the Lord, mission accomplished!” In addition to adding programs to our existing series, we were able to produce eight new series for the network! On a daily basis we receive encouraging comments from people that say how the programs are a blessing to them, and we receive testimonies of changed lives as the result of watching our programs.

From time to time we also receive constructive criticism and suggestions, both of which have encouraged us to continue to do our best for the benefit of our viewers, and more importantly, for the honor and glory of our Lord.

In 2006 we had the opportunity to collaborate with the Hispanic church leaders of North America during the series Jesús es la Esperanza (“Jesus is the Hope”). The evidence suggests that this was the most-watched Spanish evangelistic series in the history of the Seventh-day Adventist Church! Our 3ABN production and uplink trucks were used to produce and broadcast this live event from Atlanta, Georgia, with international evangelist Pastor Alejandro Bullón. We witnessed the powerful outpouring of the Holy Spirit as people came forward for baptism with tears streaming down their faces! Praise God—thousands of lives were changed!

In February we aired the first-ever live Portuguese Rally from Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, under the leadership of Moses Primo. We were blessed by the testimonies, music, and the powerful preaching during that event.

History was also made in July as we produced the very first Portuguese evangelistic series in the history of the Seventh-day Adventist Church to be broadcast live from North America. Our production and uplink trucks came to the campus of Atlantic Union College, in South Lancaster, Massachusetts, to broadcast these meetings. God used Pastor Luis Gonçalves to bring the great message of salvation in Jesus to potential millions through our 3ABN Latino Network—reaching people in North, Central, and South America, as well as in Europe! We witnessed hundreds of people making decisions to be baptized. Praise the Lord!

Two years ago we marveled at how God blessed 3ABN

Latino with tremendous growth. It was our prayer that this growth would continue last year, and it did! What a mighty God we serve. He is preparing the world for a great harvest. We are now on more than 370 cable companies throughout the Americas, with a potential of reaching millions of people for Jesus Christ. We’ve even entered into two new countries where we were not previously on cable—Panama and Bolivia!

I invite you to join with us in prayer so this miraculous growth will continue in 2007. Please pray for the Lord to continue to use 3ABN Latino to help the Spanish and Portuguese speaking people of the world to prepare for the soon return of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. ■

FEELING AT HOME

by Pam Slaughter

Brenda Lewis's life was empty. "I had issues and I was searching for something, and I didn't know what it was," she says. "Then one day as I was aimlessly channel surfing, a voice from the television offered some comfort and assurance—something I had always longed for. It was new and refreshing, and I needed to know what this was all about!"

For two weeks Brenda received 3ABN at her home. She learned about the Sabbath and about God's love for her. She kept the TV on day and night, hoping she could grasp new tidbits of information that would help her and her family. Then as quickly as she had received 3ABN, it was gone. She struggled to try to find this wonderful television station again, but to no avail. But what she didn't quite realize is that during those two weeks the Holy Spirit had changed something inside her forever.

Looking back on it, the seventh-day Sabbath message was the truth that bound Brenda's heart to this new knowledge. "I was always intrigued with the fact that all of the other commandments started with a 'Thou shalt not,' and the fourth commandment started with the word

"THE SABBATH HAS SOMETHING ABOUT IT WE ARE ALWAYS TO REMEMBER AND RE-EXPERIENCE EVERY WEEK. GOD DIDN'T HAVE TO REST ON THE SEVENTH DAY; HE MADE THE SABBATH SO WE COULD,"

'Remember,'" she says. "I looked up the word 'remember' in the dictionary, and it said 'to keep in one's mind and to recall the knowledge, and to keep it in our heart.'" She was astonished. "The Sabbath has something about it that we are always to remember and re-experience every week. God didn't have to rest on the seventh day; He made the Sabbath so we could," she says.

It wasn't long before Brenda began attending a Seventh-day Adventist church in the Salt Lake City area, and started learning more about what she had been hoping and praying for. A new friend from the church gave her a set of Doug Batchelor's Net '99 videotapes, but she still longed for her family to experience God's great love. "This had been something I always wanted to include them in; I wanted it to be something that we could all do together," she said. But Satan did not wish to let go of her life, and family turmoil soon had her drifting away from her church family.

But Brenda never gave up on the God she had grown to know and wanted to know more about. She kept close to her Lord, and never gave up waiting and praying for that "one day" she could return.

Meanwhile, Brittany, her 16-year-old daughter, was growing up fast. Sadly, she was an alcoholic by age twelve, and by fourteen she had turned to hard drugs. She says she had an incessant need to dull that familiar pang of anguish she felt, and the longing for leaped at the opportunity to give her the Net '99 series she had received as a gift from her friend long ago.

"I had been going from one church to another since that time," Brenda says, "but I could never get that feeling, you know, like I was home. When I gave Brittany my tapes, she began to watch them and ask me questions. It was then that I knew we had to find the right church. Doug Batchelor made us realize that all churches are not the same."

Brenda finally realized that returning to her church family could be a reality, and the excitement of sharing God with her daughter was beyond all she could have hoped for. In her spiritual hunger, Brittany grasped the Sabbath truth immediately. "I knew that we had to find a church that followed this message," she says.

And she did just that. Brittany located the West Jordan Seventh-day Adventist Church and asked Pastor Dick Bullock for Bible studies. As she grew stronger in the Lord, she was released from her drug and alcohol addictions. "I take it one day at a time," she says. "I just stay close to God, and He does the rest."

Since that time, Brittany has gone on a mission trip to Bolivia and was recently baptized. Her mother has also been freed from a long-term smoking addiction. She says she had quit many times before, but had neglected to pray for strength. But when she asked God to take this habit from her, and after living smoke-free for six months, she was baptized one weekend before her daughter.

"We feel like we are finally home," Brittany says. "The road was long, but we are here now. We can take the testimony of our past trials and witness to others about what we've been through. I believe that God allows trials in our lives to give us His grace, and the power to defeat Satan's assaults. Through the peace of Christ I am content now. I have security in the knowledge of God's love for me, and most of all, I have hope." Brittany pauses for a moment, then adds, "Without my experience, I would have never acknowledged my need for a Savior. God brought 3ABN to my mom for just two weeks all those years ago so I could be saved. Now we have things to talk about with each other, and share with those who don't know Him.

"As we have committed our lives to God, He has committed Himself to us. This has been,

"GOD BROUGHT 3ABN TO MY MOM FOR JUST TWO WEEKS ALL THOSE YEARS AGO SO I COULD BE SAVED."

and is, an awesome experience!" she adds. "I want to ask for your prayers for the rest of our family to experience our Savior, and come to the foot of the cross."

By the way, to this day Brenda still can't get 3ABN's signal at her home! ■

something she couldn't even describe.

"I really can't tell you what I was looking for," she admits, "but I knew that there had to be more to life." Her experience with drugs, and the people she occupied her time with, graduated into a full-blown methamphetamine addiction. She sank lower and lower, and at the tender age of 21, she had hit "rock bottom." Desperate, Brittany called her mother and pleaded for help. Immediately Brenda started praying that God would work a miracle in her daughter's life, and her heart

New Children's Studio

As the new year begins, the future is bright for children's programming. We praise the Lord for all those who have worked so hard to produce the programs we already air, but all of us agree that we need more! That's why construction is underway for a new television studio and control room at our 3ABN Worship Center.

Perhaps one of the biggest challenges 3ABN has faced has been the development of quality, Christ-centered children's programming that will appeal to audiences of all ages. But as God has impressed us to build a children's television channel, the work is going forward.

We began working on the 3ABN Worship Center several years ago with a vision to provide a larger facility than the Bos Auditorium for special events. With your help we were able to build a large, functional room that seats nearly 1,500 people. Each week hundreds of God's people gather there for worship services on Sabbath, as they attend the Thompsonville Seventh-day Adventist Church. But that's not all it's used for. The Worship Center features Sabbath School classrooms, changing rooms and green-rooms for guests who come for special concerts and programs, offices for the church staff, and a large display area for booths

As God has impressed us to build a children's television channel, the work is going forward.

during 3ABN Camp Meetings and special events.

But in this huge 42,000 square foot building, a new studio is being built. Designed specifically for children's programming, we recently put in place the lighting grid and dimmers for the dozens of lights that will soon be installed.

Moses Primo, our Director of Broadcast Operations and Engineering, says that much of the infrastructure is now in place. "It took a while to be able to finish the infrastructure of the building before we tackled the control room," he says. "It's a big project to finish a building that size, but I believe that this is a very good project because it will allow 3ABN to dramatically increase the number of

We know that many readers will want to support this special aspect of 3ABN's ministry. If the Holy Spirit impresses you, just earmark your tax-deductible love gifts to Children's Studio, 3ABN, PO Box 220, West Frankfort, IL 62896. Thank you, and may God richly bless you!

fresh television programs for broadcast."

He points out that the new control room will be outfitted to allow us to tape and air programs that are produced both in the studio and in the main auditorium. "We're combining the two facilities and wiring them to the same control room because it's a more efficient way to produce programs, not to mention that it dramatically reduces the cost for equipment," he explains.

Although the total cost for building and equipping this new studio comes out at around $700,000, Moses points out that nearly $200,000 worth of equipment has already been purchased, and some additional funds have been pledged. "We're on the last step," he adds, "and I'm confident that the Lord will provide, because there's a great need for programs that will reach hearts of all ages for Jesus."

When asked what type of equipment is still needed, Moses gave us his short list: cameras, a jib (boom camera), camera control units, video switcher, a character generator for name supers, video and audio routers, a graphics computer, a teleprompter computer, audio board, microphones, light fixtures, and a green screen, along with video monitors and speakers. And can you imagine what his "long list" looks like?

What a thrill to see another studio under construction—dedicated to bringing Jesus' love to the children of the world! ■

(P = programas em Português.) ★ = programas nuevos. ♻ = repite.

CON MI ESPÍRITU • La promesa del Espíritu Santo no se limita a ninguna edad ni raza. Cristo declaró que la influencia divina de su Espíritu estaría con sus seguidores hasta el fin. 3ABN Latino se complace en ofrecerles una nueva serie titulada Con Mi Espíritu, la cual iniciara el mes de Enero 2007 con el Pastor Eradio Alonso. El Pastor Alonso compartirá sus estudios en relación al Espíritu Santo, trayendo a mente como el Espíritu Santo, en el corazón del creyente, lo hace completo en Cristo. "Y yo rogaré al Padre, y os dará otro consolador, para que este con vosotros para siempre." Juan 14:16. Con Mi Espíritu es un excelente programa para iniciar el año.

Pastor Eradio Alonso, Con Mi Espíritu

a Recipe for

by Richard Piñero

Happy? New Year!? This time of the year brings with it a stir of emotions. As we look back at the time that has expired and meditate upon the things (yes, even Christians) face the “holiday blues” more so during this time of the year than at any other. That’s why I invite you to consider what I like to call “A Recipe for Hope.” Our reference will be Esther 4:10–16 and 5:1–3. So get your Bibles and join me.

This account portrays Esther’s anxiety as she faces a life or death situation before the king. She is perplexed as she recognizes that she hasn’t spent time with the king during the last 30 days.

we would’ve, could’ve, and should’ve done, many feel anxious and even without hope. It’s no secret that many of us,

This to her could have meant that she had lost favor in his sight. Realizing that the time of reckoning had come, she prepared to face her fate. A most fitting picture of God’s end-time church, wouldn’t you say? With this in mind, let us consider Esther’s (or better yet, God’s) “Recipe for Hope.”

Once Esther prepared for her encounter, she boldly stepped into faith (Esther 5:1, 2), entrusting the outcome to the only One who can ensure it.

Resist the temptation of contemplating the negative things of the past.

If Esther had based her course of action on the fact that she had not been summoned before the king for the past 30 days, the outcome would have been entirely different. Ponder upon the positive experiences where you can identify the Lord’s favor on your behalf (Proverbs 23:7). He loves us despite our shortcomings, and promises to receive every sincere heart (John 6:37) and to freely forgive (Micah 7:18, 19).

Occupy your time in preparing rather than regretting.

Often, too much time is spent brooding over lost opportunities. Let us pour our hearts out before the Lord and allow Him to renew and cleanse us from our shortcomings (2 Chronicles 7:14–15). Esther acted out her belief, not necessarily what the situations surrounding her could have led her to believe. She prepared herself for victory. She did not prepare for defeat because she entrusted her care to the Lord (Esther 4:16).

Place your confidence on the One who has vowed to see you through.

He has promised, through His grace, to complete the work He started in you (Philippians 1:6). Then let us act upon it (Hebrews 4:16). Once Esther prepared for her encounter, she boldly stepped into faith (Esther 5:1, 2), entrusting the outcome to the only One who can ensure it. We must do the same (Hebrews 11:6; 4:15, 16).

Therefore let us put aside all fear or doubt of the past, seek the One who promises never to “leave us nor forsake us,” and get ourselves ready to meet our King. For we have more evidence to believe that we shall receive favor in His sight than what we can ever imagine (Ephesians 6:1–3). Happy New Year!

thankful for the opportunity to start a family business in which all of us, including our kids, could work together. Byron and I believed they should be

I am always open to how the Lord guides in my life. I could see the possibility of programs with my girls as hosts,” she adds. “Perhaps I could produce it—I think it would be a lot of fun. We really enjoy doing things like that together.”

And, by what we know about her children, we think she’s right! From an early age they have been involved in evangelism and working with other children. Recently, during last year’s 3ABN Fall Camp Meeting, Janice’s three daughters led out in the junior division and did a fine job!

For now, Janice and Byron are content in working for the Lord through their business, Sunizona Family Farms, a two-acre specialty greenhouse which sells 50 varieties of heirloom tomatoes and micro-greens to exclusive restaurants across the country. They’ve recently expanded their family farm, adding a wood pellet manufacturing business. Their oldest daughter, Janna, just turned 21, and has already spent a year with LifeStyleTV in Scandinavia, working in all aspects of television production. She’s now working in media at Fountain-view Academy in Canada. Kymbreelee is 19 and worked last year as an assistant elementary school teacher. She is currently working in her family’s business with sales and marketing, and loves to share Jesus with her customers. In fact, Kymbreelee, Aimee, and Janice regularly sing to their customers! Charles is 18 and working hard to earn his pilot’s license, so he can be a missionary pilot. Aimee is 15 and still in school, but she enjoys working with her family and does a lot of accounting for the business.

The entire Smith family is an inspiration to all who know them, and we praise God for their dedication to His cause. And who knows, maybe someday Janice will produce more programs. And if so, we hope she’ll share them with us!
