GALATIANS 6:6 (AMP)

Dear Family,

Considering all of God's miracles at 3ABN, there is no doubt this is a network of divine origin. This network is His. He increases our success, not in light of who we are, but in spite of us.

Many recognize 3ABN as one of the greatest weapons of warfare in the Lord's hands today. How He has used this network is astounding—what more He wants to do is staggering! Time is short. He is increasing our sense of urgency.

We praise the Lord for you who have been rich toward God through your offerings to 3ABN. The systematic giving of a few thousand people has been the backbone of our financial support.

Still, many more of you have enjoyed our programming, but haven't shared in supporting the work financially. Perhaps you felt a small monthly contribution would make little difference, or possibly you didn't recognize our need.

I would like to appeal directly to all who are receiving a blessing through 3ABN. Please, won't you consider sharing in our support? Our need is great—God is calling us to do a greater work! As the Holy Spirit impresses you, won't you consider becoming a monthly supporter of 3ABN?

We need you! Your monthly support is vital to the work He has called us to do. God is calling all of us as co-laborers to broadcast His message of redemption to a lost and dying world—before it's too late.

May God richly bless you,

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

Have you been blessed?

Have you been blessed by 3ABN? Or have you come to know the Lord Jesus Christ by watching or listening? We'd love to know!

Your testimony can make a difference in our readers' lives, so why not sit down and drop us a line? You can write to us at: 3ABN World, PO Box 220, West Frankfort, IL 62896. E-mail us at: mail@3abn.org.

MIRAMAR, FLORIDA:

"Please accept my gift to support the ministry. I have been blessed by it, and so has my mother, who watches your programs on the island of Dominica. She could not go to church for a few years because of a painful hip, but now she is attending once more, after following the exercise program on 3ABN. Thank you for that. May God bless you as you serve Him."

BOWLING GREEN, FLORIDA:

"I am in prison, serving a 22 year sentence. I believe in God with all my heart and soul... but when I read His Word I was given the wrong impression about it. Last week I came across a little booklet called, Does God Love Sinners Forever? It was written by Danny Shelton, and that little booklet opened my eyes. It proved to me just how much God loves us. I'm here with guys who have lots of questions I can't answer. Most of their questions are about death, or as some here would say, 'the hereafter.' No one knows where the booklet came from, but I thank God for it. Because of it, several of us now have a more solid foundation. If you wouldn't mind, please send more literature so the rest of the guys and I can grow stronger in the faith, waiting on the Lord. I don't have any money right now, but I will keep praying that God will continually bless you as you reach out to those that are lost. We need to hear from God through you."

PIOCHE, NEVADA:

"Thank you for the book, Ten Commandments Twice Removed. It taught me a lot about the Sabbath, and I am going to respect and follow the Ten Commandment Law of our God. I would enjoy as much information as you can send me on the Sabbath and how it relates to end-time events and Bible prophecies.

Also, do you know of a church that follows 3ABN's teachings in Las Vegas, Nevada? After I am paroled I would like to attend a church that teaches Bible truths, so I will be able to be used by God for the glory of Jesus Christ. It's my desire to help our Father, in these last days, to prepare others for the harvest."

Editor's note: To find a Seventh-day Adventist church, visit plusline.org or call us and ask to talk to our Pastoral Ministries Department.

MIDDLETON, NEW YORK:

"My name is Samuel, and I am 6 years old. I am sending you all my savings to help spread the gospel to the whole world. May God bless you." [Originally written in Spanish.]

VIA E-MAIL:

"I came to the U.S. from Ghana, West Africa, simply to find Jesus Christ. Although I was a Christian, I never had a personal relationship with Jesus. I embarked on a relentless pursuit for biblical truth and God's purpose for my life. I took several Bible courses, and joined many churches. However, I was still empty spiritually until I heard of 3ABN. I started viewing and listening to 3ABN's simple biblical teachings every day for almost a year. Needless to say, I came to understand without a doubt the love of God and the Lordship of Jesus Christ, who I have professed as my personal Lord and Savior. I have since taken another Bible course with Pastor Doug Batchelor's Amazing Facts Bible School... I now feel the calling of God into the ministry... Thanks to 3ABN—the gateway to biblical truth and teachings. I love your selfless ambition to win souls for the Kingdom of God."

AVENEL, NEW JERSEY:

"I wanted you to know that the 3ABN dish you've donated to our institution has paid off once more. Someone pointed a man my way who has been watching 3ABN for the past two years. Now he has become a regular at our Wednesday night Bible study program. He is scheduled to be baptized as a Seventh-day Adventist next summer. Praise God for all He is doing here at this prison."

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

GOD

LOVES A GOOD CHALLENGE

James Rafferty and his twin sister Siobahn were born on a Marine Corps base in California to an African American father and an Irish mother. They lived there for the first ten months of their life, but came back to the States and lived in Hawaii with our dad. My parents had separated when we were born, and now they wanted to see if things would work out. But a lot had happened during those years, and in six months we were back on the mainland.”

As his mother went through this heartbreak, things weren’t good at home. “We disconnected from church, God, and religion,” he says. “Those weren’t part of our life at all during our teenage years.”

Soon the heartache and problems at home led James to start drinking alcohol. “There was alcoholism in my family,” he says, “and I began to drink when I was only 14. By age 16 I was on my own. My mom sadly, their parents separated and the children went to England to live with their mother.

“We were raised in the Catholic faith,” James says. “Each day I said my ‘Hail Mary’s,’ attended Catholic school, and even became an altar boy. But when we were 11 years old we and sister went back to England, and I finished high school and got a job; but by the age of 21 my life was a mess. I began to drink a lot. I had blackouts, and spats of trouble with the law. It was then that I began to feel the Holy Spirit tugging at my heart, although I didn’t recognize Him at the time.

“My coworker Dan had just become a ‘born-again’ Christian, and he was always talking about Jesus, Jesus, Jesus,” James continues. “He made me extremely uncomfortable! It was okay to talk about Jesus in church, but not at work. Christianity was something you talked about with a priest, but you didn’t bring it up with your friends.”

But his life continued to worsen. “I was surrounded by friends, drugs, and alcohol, but I found myself saying, ‘There must be something more than this to life!’” James says. Remembering the simple prayer

Dan had taught him, he finally surrendered and asked God to take away the alcohol and the drugs. “Then I challenged God to make me a Christian!” he adds, “and God loves a good challenge!”

That evening he met a young lady at work who told him she was a Christian. “She told me she didn’t drink, smoke, or go to bars, and my response was, ‘I’m a Christian, too!’ I told

In addition to their work with Light Bearers Ministry in Jasper, Oregon, James and Siobahn Rafferty appear regularly on 3ABN. Their new series, based on the 28 fundamental beliefs of Seventh-day Adventists, is currently in pre-production.

Light Bearers Ministry's presses have printed over 520 million Bible tracts in over 30 languages. They have just moved to Jasper, Oregon.

her about my prayer.” For six weeks he attended her youth group gatherings at the Pentecostal church and didn’t drink or drug. “The fellowship with the other young people was immensely helpful,” he says, “and it set my foundation.”

In the meantime, Siobahn had come back from England, and began taking a Voice of Prophecy Bible study course. It wasn’t long before a Bible worker came by to study with her, but as she grew spiritually, Siobahn had become increasingly uncomfortable with her brother’s party lifestyle.

“But when I told her I had become a Christian, my sister came right over and began sharing what she was learning. One day she said, ‘You know, and his drum set. “Do you still listen to rock and roll?” she asked.

“Of course I do,” James responded, defensively, “and God doesn’t care what kind of music I listen to!”

Then one day she came for lunch and told him that she had decided to become a vegetarian.

“That did it! My mother had called me about Siobahn’s long letters because all she wrote about was Jesus. I didn’t think anything was wrong,” James says, “but my Mom was worried that she was in a cult or something. Now I was convinced she was in a cult, and decided the best way to get her out of it was to talk to her pastor.”

Marching down to the Seventh-day Adventist church, he spoke with the pastor, who immediately sensed his worries and offered to study those topics with him. But as they studied, James began to understand new truth from the Bible! Now he was not only attending the Calvary Chapel with his friend Dan, and fellowshiping with his friend Linda’s Pentecostal youth group, but he began studying with the Bible worker from the Seventh-day Adventist church!

“I was hungry,” he says, “but my mother and friends were alarmed! My mother was sending me books on cults, my friend Linda warned me to not go to that church any more, Calvary Chapel had a seminar on cults, and Dan told me he was afraid I’d become an Adventist!

“I told him, ‘Dan, I’m only going to follow the Word of God.’”

James pauses for a moment. “I want people to know that the Word of God can overcome every influence—our motives, the influences of friends, churches, and theologians—if we simply open our hearts to follow what it teaches. I’m not a Seventh-day Adventist because I believe in Adventist doctrines. I believe and follow the Bible, therefore I’m a Seventh-day Adventist. The reason I’m an Adventist is because I follow what the Bible teaches. The reason I’m an Adventist is because this is the church that follows what the Bible teaches.”

James became a Christian in May of 1984. His sister was baptized in July of that year, and he was baptized in November.

Shortly after this, he met a young man named Ty Gibson, and they began studying the Bible together. They became close friends, and throughout the week they worked together doing outreach and Bible studies. Soon a small group of believers gathered for an informal camp meeting in Malo, Washington. From those humble beginnings, Ty and James became part of a nonprofit ministry they called Light Bearers, which officially incorporated in 1986. Beginning with a copier, and then a small press, God continued to bless their efforts and grow their ministry. To date they have printed over 520 million Bible tracts in over 30 languages that have been distributed around the world!

But how God brought his wife Risë into his life is another wonderful story!

James first met her while she was attending one of his Bible study courses in Malo. Risë had experienced a wonderful conversion and now she longed to know her Bible better. Disillusioned with her career path and the dating scene, Risë took a long walk into the woods one day, weeping and begging God to take charge of her life. That day she promised Him she would not date anyone and challenged Him to bring the right man into her life. And God loves a good challenge!

“I was impressed by James as a person,” she says. “Coming from southern California, life for me was all about making it, driving a BMW, living the high life. Now here I was in nowhere land, and here’s James, who totally bucked the system! Flannel shirt, baggy pants—he could care less what he looked like and was not at all preoccupied with himself. Instead, he was into what he was doing and had a passion for God!”

When she got home Risë found she had picked up someone else’s Bible inadvertently. There was no name in it, just “From: James Rafferty.” Hoping he’d know whose it was, Risë mailed it back to him with a short note, “But I never thought I’d hear from him,” she says.

Upon receiving the Bible, James wondered what to do. He knew whom the Bible belonged to and wanted to thank her for sending it back. But he thought she surely had a boyfriend and wondered whether he should be writing her at all. So he asked his friend Ty for help. What he didn’t know was that Ty had talked to Risë several times while she was in Malo and thought she would make a good wife for James. But since his previous attempts at match-making had ended in disaster, he told the Lord he’d keep this to himself—unless James mentioned her name!

Ty recognized God’s sign. He encouraged James to write to Risë and tell her that he had serious intentions. James resisted this straightforward approach, but finally he followed his friend’s suggestion. When Risë received his letter, she was amazed. “He wrote that he was interested in getting to know me to see if it was God’s will for us to get married! But what amazed me the most was that some of the phrases he wrote in his letter were exactly the same ones I’d used in my prayer!

“FLANNEL SHIRT, BAGGY PANTS— [JAMES] COULD CARE LESS WHAT HE LOOKED LIKE.... INSTEAD, HE WAS INTO WHAT HE WAS DOING AND HAD A PASSION FOR GOD!”

“I knew that this letter took a lot of courage to write, and I realized he wasn’t asking me to

GOD'S WORD WILL NOT BE OVERPOWERED

by Nikki Anderson

The Erie Canal is a network of 57 locks along 363 miles of a waterway connecting Albany to Buffalo, New York. Its main purpose is to transport crops to a larger population. Erie, Pennsylvania, is not part of the Erie Canal network. It is, however, part of God's network. WXNM-LP, 95.9 FM, in Erie is one of many low-power FM radio stations "transporting" God's Word to those who would not otherwise hear it.

In June 2001, Pastor Tom Cusack agreed to let a representative of a radio network submit an application to the Federal Communications Commission for a low-power FM radio station. The pastor asked church member George Dickey to head up the project. George, a long-time ham radio operator, agreed, but on one condition: that the station air 3ABN Radio programming. The pastor approved, so Erie Christian Broadcasting was established.

Pastor Cusack announced to the Erie Seventh-day Adventist Church that the application had been filed and the cost for the station would be around $20,000. In September the pastor received a cashier's check for $20,000 from an anonymous donor, designated for the station. Thank you, Lord, and thank you, faithful servant!

George discovered that a 480,000-watt station from Canada was blanketing Erie on the same frequency. Being quite concerned that the Canadian station would greatly overpower their station, George consulted Attorney Don Martin, who advised getting on the air, then requesting another frequency.

Their permit was awarded in December 2003; then came the dreaded tower challenge! The owner of the first site they chose said he would not charge any fees, but later changed his mind and wanted $600 rent per month. The group filed a petition to change the antenna location, which took another 18 months to process, so the FCC extended their construction period to three years. They decided to put the tower at the church school, but local ordinances allowed only a 50-foot tower. No problem! George and five other church members installed a 17-foot tower on top of the 30-foot school roof, then added a 3-foot mast for the antenna—and no city permit or inspection was needed!

Over several months, the members did a lot of waiting and praying. George and his wife Cherie attended a 3ABN Radio training school, the tower was erected, equipment was purchased and installed, and WXNM-LP went on the air December 8, 2006. George is grateful to have church member Earl Borland to help with the programming at the station. Earl has wanted to get more involved with church projects and is happy to say that, "I've found something I can do!"

Wondering about that station from Canada? Well, it was feared that the LPFM station would be limited to a distance of a mile or two, but, in fact, the signal reaches out as much as ten miles in some directions. It actually covers a 15-mile section of I-90! God's message will not be overpowered and it will go where He wants it to go! A few residents have complained they can't hear their favorite rock station anymore. A disappointed reporter wrote a newspaper article about the LPFM station: "Rock vs. Rock of Ages." But the LPFM board has no plans to apply for a different frequency. George and the pastor figure that, "The people who are looking for their rock music just might tune in and hear something worthwhile, then keep listening!"

I asked George what they've learned about working for God in a faith ministry. This group feels the same as many others. George said, "God can do whatever He wants; we just have to get out of His way!" ■

George Dickey sits at the controls of WXNM-LP in Erie, Pennsylvania, a 3ABN Radio affiliate station.

Oops! Last month we inadvertently identified the location of the Gottfried family's radio station, WJOF-LP 97.9 FM, as being in Erie, Pennsylvania. Their station is, in fact, in Liberty, North Carolina. We regret the mistake.

SOMETHING'S COOKING!

IN CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA

by John Dinzey

As I write this article, I marvel at how God is opening doors for 3ABN Latino's ministry. I feel compelled to join David, the psalmist, in saying, "Praise Him interested in rebroadcasting our Spanish television programming! I just had to pause a moment and say, "Praise God!"

Consider the typical cable company—they have to advertise to get more customers. Some cable companies spend thousands of dollars, and others hundreds of thousands of dollars, on advertising so they can get into more homes. The more homes they can get their cable service into, the more money they make.

Strangely, even though I'm sure it's not their plan or goal, their efforts are providing a way for the gospel to get into more homes! God works in mysterious ways.

Recently, I had the privilege of taking several satellite receivers to cable companies in Santo Domingo, the capital of the Dominican Republic. What a joy it was to see them sign contracts in order to put 3ABN Latino on their cable systems. One cable manager in particular said, "You know, I don't watch much television, but I watch your channel quite often. You have fine programs, and even though I really don't spend much time watching TV, when I do watch, it's either 3ABN Latino or the Discovery Channel."

Amazing! He can watch any channel he wants, but we are in his top two favorites! Praise the Lord! Please pray that this man and his family give their hearts to the Lord.

You know, when someone's ready to cook something, they prepare the utensils. Then ingredients are gathered, and the peeling, cutting, and mixing takes place. The ingredients are poured into a pot or baking dish, and soon the wonderful aroma of food pervades the air. Of course, when that aroma reaches those who are waiting, they know that soon they'll be enjoying that dish!

In the same way, concerning the spreading of the gospel through 3ABN Latino, I can tell you that things are in the process of cooking! We can already smell the aroma, and soon we'll be able to report some of the great and mighty things that the Lord is doing to help us spread the gospel more quickly. These miracles will be reported one by one, but each of them will mean that hundred of thousands—and in some cases millions—will have the opportunity to watch life-changing programs of 3ABN Latino!

But we don't have to wait. Since last month, I'm thrilled to report that hundreds of thousands of new viewers can now watch 3ABN Latino because it has been added to two more cable companies in Colombia, one in Costa Rica, two in Honduras, and twelve in Mexico!

In closing, I have to repeat myself: "Praise Him for His mighty acts: praise Him according to His excellent greatness." (Psalm 150:2.) I urge you to pray for those who, for the first time, can watch 3ABN and 3ABN Latino in their homes. Pray that the Holy Spirit will draw them to the life-changing programming this ministry offers! ■ for His mighty acts: praise Him according to His excellent greatness." (Psalm 150:2.)

EACH OF THESE MIRACLES WILL MEAN THAT HUNDRED OF THOUSANDS—AND IN SOME CASES MILLIONS—WILL HAVE THE OPPORTUNITY TO WATCH LIFE-CHANGING PROGRAMS OF 3ABN LATINO!

It's incredible! Just moments before I sat down to write this, I received a phone call from Honduras—another radio station

TESTIMONY

BETTY'S SONG

Betty Lloyd sat on the couch, quietly waiting for her chance to change the channels. But it didn't look like there would be any channel-changing very soon. Her oldest son Freddy wondering about this new station and about her son's interest in it. Freddy had run a mission in Tennessee for several years and chose not to have cable in his home. One day he had stumbled upon 3ABN's affiliate station* while channel surfing, and now here it was again—on cable—and in his mother's living room in North Carolina!

As they watched 3ABN together, Betty and Freddy found themselves drawn to this channel. It seemed like so many of their questions were coming up and being answered. Betty listened intently as her son told her that he had actually attended a Seventh-day Adventist church in Knoxville for quite awhile after hearing about the Sabbath on 3ABN.

"I had searched for Bible

had the remote control in his hands, and he had a strange look on his face.

"I can't believe you can actually get 3ABN on cable here in Murphy!" he kept saying over and over. "It's the same TV station that I had in Knoxville!"

As she continued to watch and listen, Betty found herself

"TODAY I KNOW MY GOD IS SO LOVING. HE'S NOT THAT ANGRY GOD OF HELLFIRE AND DAMNATION I USED TO BELIEVE IN."

Betty Lloyd's old life was buried in the waters of Lake Chatuge in May 2005, as Pastor Richard Perkins baptized her.

truth for a long time," she says. "I had visited many different churches with my children. But this was different! I was learning about things I'd never heard before."

Life has not been easy for Betty. "I grew up in Murphy," she tells us, "and my father was a Baptist deacon. I left home at an early age, and stayed away for 25 years, mostly as a waitress and a cook.

"I raised my two sons and two daughters in Knoxville," she says, "but after several bad car wrecks, I ended up with three herniated disks and severe arthritis in my back and neck.

I've been homebound now for several years and became disabled at 58 years of age. When my mother passed away in 1991 I decided to come back to Murphy, where I'd grown up. Most of my children moved out here with me, but one of my sons stayed behind."

She pauses for a moment, trying to find the right words. "I'm sad to say that I lived a very self-centered life," she confides. "I would have given anything if I had found the Lord while my kids were growing up. But... they're learning, and since I've found God, it's all different."

Bottom: Jeff Lloyd's joy in Jesus shines from his face after he is baptized by Pastor B.J. Bowles.

Betty says she's soaked up the Christ-centered programming like a sponge.

"I remember them talking about what happens after a person dies, and that they remain in the grave, sort of asleep in Jesus. They told me that God's saints await the resurrection at His Second Coming.

"At the time of my mother's death everybody kept saying, 'Oh, she's in heaven now, and she's watchin' us all down here.' But I kept thinking to myself, 'If she's seein' us down here, she's not gonna be very happy!'"

Betty pauses for a moment to consider how she feels about this today.

"I have such a peace of mind about it, now that I know what the Bible says about death. I've never felt this peaceful before!"

Betty says she's learned a lot about healthy living since then, too.

"I grew up eatin' pork. In fact, my father raised ten kids and would kill two hogs a year. Pork was a major part of our diet! But when Freddy pointed out in the Bible where the Lord told us not to eat pigs because they're unhealthy, I said, 'Shoot, I've been eatin' that!' And I never ate any pork again!"

It wasn't long before Betty found her way to the Murphy, Tennessee, Seventh-day Adventist Church. Coincidentally, the pastor was just starting to hold a series of evangelistic meetings!

Betty was ecstatic. "My son Jeff and I were both baptized in May of 2005 in Lake Chatuge," she says. "Everything they preached about was so easy to understand, because we had heard it all before on 3ABN!"

Despite her health problems, she's been on fire for the Lord ever since, eagerly buying 100 copies of Amazing Facts' Final Events DVD and passing them out to everyone she knows.

"The Lord even provided for that, too," she adds. "I'm on disability, and sometimes it's difficult to make ends meet, but I knew that I had to step out in faith. Then I got a check in the mail from Social Security. They said they owed this money to me from a long time ago, and it came just when I needed it to pay for the DVDs!"

There have been a lot of changes along the way. "I sent off and got several of the recipes I saw on 3ABN," she says, "and I've changed my diet. In fact, I feel better than ever." Her view of God has changed as well. "Today I know my God is so loving. He's not that angry God of hellfire and damnation I used to believe in. My family thinks I'm crazy sometimes and tells me they just don't think I ought to get into all that 'deep stuff.'"

"EVERYTHING THEY PREACHED ABOUT WAS SO EASY TO UNDERSTAND, BECAUSE WE HAD HEARD IT ALL BEFORE ON 3ABN!"

But it's the way she relates to others that Betty says has changed the most. "I'm much more understanding and compassionate today," she notes. "Satan stills tries to keep throwing things in my face, but I've made up a little song for when he tries to discourage me that says, 'Get behind me, Satan!'"

Well, Betty, that's a song God loves to hear! ■

ISSUES & ANSWERS

What do you say when someone comes to you with a perplexing question of a spiritual nature? When praying isn't enough, or their own wisdom fails, where should they turn? The guests on Issues & Answers have turned to the Bible for guidance, and now they share those difficult questions and the direction they received from their study of God's Word.

REFRESHING THE WEARY

“I WILL REFRESH THE WEARY AND SATISFY THE FAINT.”

JEREMIAH 31:25

by Roi Ewing

As I walked into my office the other day, I caught myself saying, “I can’t believe this!”

“This” was the growing mountain of work threatening to spill off my desk. When was the last time I could see the brown, wood-grain finish of my desktop? What’s going on?

Then I thought about my coworkers saying similar things. They meet themselves coming and going. When someone inquires about their work, they describe it using sayings like, “going a mile a minute” or, “always in high gear.” As I picked up the pace of being more productive in the Lord’s vineyard, I noticed that I, too, was pushing the envelope. Faster and faster, busier and busier, I sometimes forget how to slow down because

I’m so focused on the task in front of me. That was when I recalled Jeremiah 31:25, “I will refresh the weary and satisfy the faint.”

What a beautiful promise. Yes, even Your laborers can have tunnel vision seeing only what is before them. I also remembered a scripture that I often share with callers seeking prayer. “Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.” (Matthew 11:28.)

I found myself remembering that Jesus Himself was weary at times and needed rest. Often when weary and thirsting for human fellowship He would escape to the peaceful household of Lazarus. Here He found a warm welcome, true friendship, and interested listeners.

Understanding that even

Jesus tired, I turned it over to Him. Jesus invites us to make Him our strength, our support, our shadowing rock in a fatigued land. “You know that I’m weary Lord, but not of You. I think I am trying to do things in my own power instead of letting You work through me.”

I don’t remember exactly how long it was before I received a telephone call from my dear friend Marge. She and her husband were impressed to call and invite my entire family to spend a week with them at their timeshare in Florida. Tears welled up as I thought of how Jesus doesn’t miss a thing. He, too, knew I needed to recharge my batteries.

After discussing it with my family and checking our schedules, we first thanked Jesus for being sensitive to my needs, and then I called Marge to accept. What an awesome God—friends, family, all together for a week in Florida.

An entire week in Florida—I knew Jesus had set all this up especially for me. Everything was perfect. The weather was beautiful as I inhaled the fresh ocean air, spent time basking in the sunshine, and walked miles on the warm, clean sand. The best part was the spiritual food we received as a family. Pastor Bill refreshed us daily with a constant supply of God’s transforming words. As with any vacation, it was over too soon. Nevertheless, memories are forever, and I am still moved when I think of how God takes care of His children.

I came back refreshed, eager to return to God’s harvest fields. I had missed it—missed the everyday busyness of helping to mend broken people by pointing them to Jesus. Before long, I noticed my desk was cleaned off. ■

She responded that she was not looking for a relationship, but that she was earnestly seeking God's will for her life.

Risë says she's enjoyed homeschooling her children and keeps a busy schedule researching and writing on health topics. Somehow she even finds time to record Health News for 3ABN!

Light Bearers Ministry has just moved their headquarters to Jasper, Oregon, where they have better access to personnel and supplies. "Our focus is to get more literature out the door and faster," James says, adding that they have just received a huge order for literature from Africa. "We want to get more of these tracts on our website so individuals can download them and print them anywhere in the world."

God clearly has important work for this couple to do, but life continues to bring on challenges. Several years ago James was struck with cancer, but by God's grace, good doctors, a healthy lifestyle, and the support and prayers of God's people around the world, he has made a complete recovery!

We also began to fast on Thursdays, spending the time we would normally be eating for prayer and searching the Bible. Then we'd write what we had been impressed to read, and it was incredible to realize that many times God had led us to the same Bible texts!"

James and Risë were married, and now have two beautiful children, Jeiel, 14, and Kierra, 9. Although his travel schedule is demanding, they spend qual-

Investing In Eternity

HERE ARE FIVE GOOD reasons to develop a Charitable Gift Annuity with 3ABN:

1. Your gift provides you with a fixed income for life and helps 3ABN evangelize the world!
2. You may fund a Gift Annuity for as little as $5,000 per individual or $10,000 per couple, provided you are 55 or older.
3. You receive an immediate tax deduction, and much of the interest is tax free.
4. To gain a higher rate with greater income, you may develop a Deferred Gift Annuity with a future payout, provided you are 45 or older.
5. You may fund a Charitable Gift Annuity for another person and claim the tax deduction yourself.

A Gift Annuity is unique in that while the gift is irrevocable, the investment may earn you more than your initial gift—depending on your age.
