Well done, good and faithful servant; you were faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things.

MATTHEW 25:21

Dear Family,

In the parable of the talents (Matthew 25:14–30), Christ presents the principle that all believers are to work for the growth of His Kingdom—to do His business till He comes!

The master in the parable gave talents—worth probably about $1,000 apiece—to each servant in proportion to his personal ability. When the master returned, the servant who had received five talents had employed them to gain another five, and the servant who received two had gained two more. Both heard their master say, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

But the servant entrusted with one talent did nothing to put it into service for his master. Afraid to take a risk, he did no harm, but he did no good. Labeling him "wicked and lazy," the master stripped the talent from him to give to one who had proven to be a better steward.

The point of Christ's parable is that He equips us to do His will in spreading the gospel of His kingdom. He expects us to be good stewards, to be industrious with the talents He has entrusted to us.

Thank you for using your talents for God's glory, by helping 3ABN to advance the good news of Jesus Christ to the whole world! We greatly appreciate your continued prayers and financial support.

We say it often, but it bears repeating—we couldn't do this work without you, our partners in ministry. Your heartfelt prayers and sacrificial giving are just as important to the ministry of 3ABN as the Spirit-filled speakers who appear on air. Well done, good and faithful servant!

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS:

"My family and I are happy to support your station. We have grown so much in our walk with the Lord, and our spirit feeds on your teaching from God's Word. We've watched other stations and none compare to 3ABN. You are truly the apple of God's eye. You really made a difference to my husband and me, and our seven children. Thank you!"

BOISE, IDAHO:

"3ABN is the only station that's ever on my TV here in prison! You've had a huge part in my walk with Christ. I'd go to prison all over again in a flash to have the life in Jesus I now have. But I'm anxious to get out and share with loved ones, relatives, and friends what a beautiful Brother we have in Jesus, and how real He is, and His promises, too! May God continue to bless your fulfilling of His mission."

WINTER SPRING, FLORIDA:

"I just want to let you know how much I am enjoying your programs. I have been gaining much knowledge since I installed my satellite dish, and I'm getting a clearer understanding of God's words. My husband also enjoys the programs, as I try to help him understand more of God's love for us. Thank you so much for your loyalty and devotion to God's work."

PHILIPSBURG, ST. MAARTEN,

NETHERLAND ANTILLES:

"I want to say thanks for providing wonderful programs on TV. Only last Sabbath we had a baptism. She joined the church by watching 3ABN. I pray that God will keep you on the air."

MUNCY, PENNSYLVANIA:

"I just wanted you to know I have gained a lot from 3ABN over the past year. I am on a fixed income, and home-bound most of the time. But I'm working with the Lord to get myself in a bit better health so I can be baptized in the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Praise the Lord for 3ABN!"

KETCHICKAN, ALASKA:

"I left the Seventh-day Adventist Church some 50 years ago, but I have returned since watching 3ABN with a church elder. I am keeping the Sabbath once again. Thanks, and God bless."

IVANO-FRANKOVSK REGION, UKRAINE [WRITTEN TO 3ABN RUSSIA]:

"Thank you very much for your Bible study courses! I didn't dare hope you would mail them to me, since I live in Ukraine. Thank you for your programs. I hadn't even thought I would be able to find answers to my questions so easily. In earlier times, I thought I believed in God, but I had little true faith. I continued to live in sin. However, this year, when I started watching your program, I began to understand the Bible better. I've also learned how to achieve goals, and now I'm trying to overcome my fear. What's impossible for men is possible for God! If you read the Bible, pray, and invite Jesus Christ into your heart, He lives in you, heals you, and assists you in the most difficult circumstances."

MANCHESTER, JAMAICA:

"I live in a retirement home, but I make sure that every person that visits the home leaves with a book or a magazine. I watch 3ABN on cable and also extend the cable to the sitting area so residents and visitors can watch 3ABN 24/7. One resident of the home has accepted the Advent message, and was baptized in March of this year!"

STOUGHTON, WISCONSIN:

"I was just flipping through the TV channels one day when I came across 3ABN. I watched your programs for about six months, and then I started to visit a Seventh-day Adventist church. Only eternity will tell the wondrous story. The same message that I heard on 3ABN was being given in the Seventh-day Adventist church. Today I am a Seventh-day Adventist. As a new member in the Lord, I continue to watch 3ABN so I can follow the Bible studies. Thanks, and may God continue to bless you."

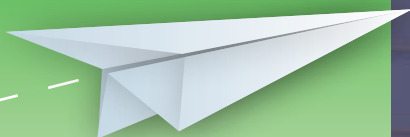

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

Grandma's Dreams

Come True

The story behind
Grandma's House

nown to kids all over the world simply as “Grandma” on the 3ABN series Grandma's House, Joyce Neal has always had an active imagination. “As a child growing up in Grants Pass, Oregon,

I would sometimes have to walk over the field to get milk from our neighbor,” she explains. “It would be early evening, and the shadows were growing long. So I'd keep myself calm by blocking out how things would be if I was writing a scene for TV or a play.” She laughs a bit and adds, “I think I've done that all my life—I'm always visualizing what it would be like to look at things from the outside.”

She talks of a happy childhood and admits she was always a bit of a tomboy! “Growing up with an older and younger brother may have something to do with that,” she chuckles. “Just this week my daughter told me that I was really too old to be climbing trees and building tree houses!” She recalls the time when she organized her very own Davy Crocket Fan Club! “It was the mid 1950s, we'd just gotten our first TV set, and I loved the Davy Crocket series. He was an early American pioneer, and he had adventures! I remember my mother gave us a can of grape juice and we went out to the garage, sang the Davy Crocket song, drank the juice, and played frontier games all afternoon. I never dreamed I'd be making a kids' television series myself someday.”

Grandma Neal's adventures fit right in with her passion for storytelling, too. “I remember an old neighbor lady who was quite eccentric and had an old wrecked bus out back behind her house. It had belonged to a singing group or something, and all the windows were busted out. What great fun we had, making up stories—our imaginations went wild!” Maybe that's why she's so determined to encourage and guide the natural inquisitiveness and imagination of children towards God.

“Imagination is important,” she says, “and some kids get hollered at for daydreaming. But I think there's hard work going on in there, and God is already helping them work out what they will turn out to be. If I can bring a loving God into their lives at this critical time, there's no telling what God can do with them!”

GRANDMA NEAL'S ministry with children was born out of the painful loss of her daughter, Shanna, who was tragically killed along with her childhood sweetheart when they were both in high school. Out of the following years of darkness Joyce found a loving Jesus who comforted her and gave her back her will to live. To honor Shanna's memory she started a nonprofit ministry called Grandma's House, a mentoring place where grandmas could watch their local neighborhood children blossom as they learned about Jesus. This was where we found her, and a few months later the idea for a 3ABN television series was born.

The Grandma's House kids stopped long enough for a picture at the end of the first season's taping. Look for some of them in our next season, along with some new grandkids. Joyce says her grandmother eyes allow her to see each child through God's perfect eyes of love.

"At first I was not at all sure that I could do it," she admits, "but boy, was the idea appealing! When we talked about showing old-fashioned things and the idea of grandmas as antique little girls, it was the perfect springboard. Being connected to God means that He really does know me intimately, and He gives me the most exciting, interesting, and absorbing work. Working with God is pure pleasure. I wish I'd known that as a child."

Grandma Neal is a definite adventurer! As you read this she will just be returning from a much-anticipated trip to India, where she will be grandma to 85 orphaned boys and girls. "Although the workers care very much for them, they probably don't get much individual one-on-one time with those who love them," she explains. "I'm taking four overstuffed suitcases full of craft supplies and all kinds of things for the kids to personalize whatever space they have. We're going to paint, sew curtains, and really connect in very small groups, so I can just love them." And of course, she has a hidden agenda, as well! "Oh, I can't wait to go to the tiger sanctuary that's nearby," she whispers. (And we're not surprised.)

THIS SUMMER Grandma Neal will be hard at work, taping new programs in Washington and southern Illinois. "We're planning all sorts of exciting programs, like an old steam engine ride, a trip to an antique radio museum, a trip to the beach, and a pirate cave! We'll do more with the tree house, and even have a sing-along around a campfire! I want the kids to get personally involved by sending me their artwork, pictures of themselves, and even videos from all over the world," she adds. "The more they see other kids involved, the more involved they'll want to become."

Grandma Neal mentions a letter she received from a little 4-year-old named Gage. "He calls himself 'John Wayne Gage' and told me that he'd love to see an episode about cowboys. So we'll be shooting some episodes in Oregon next year—at a cowboy ranch!" Of course, nearby are all sorts of wild things—like a ghost town, a fossil bed, and even white water rafting! (Oh boy!) But the programs will be tackling much more difficult requests, as well. Recently a 7-year-old wrote her asking about Armageddon, so Grandma Neal's planned a trip to an old Indian fort to bring the point home in a way a 7-year-old can understand.

"I know how fun it is to be useful to God," she says, "not only while we're in Sabbath School or church, but all the time! I want the kids to know it's really fun to work with God."

In between training her golden retriever puppy to be more than just a yellow streak across the screen in the new episodes, Grandma Neal shares that she still has one great passion. "My plate's so full," she admits, "but one of the things I really want to do is go parasailing. And—oh, yes—I want to ride in a glider!"

Where does Grandma Neal get all of her adventurous energy from? "I think I got it from my grandma," she says, laughing. "I remember playing baseball one day out in the cow pasture. I think most of us were striking out, and one of the boys said, 'Let your grandma bat! She can really slug 'em!' And sure enough, here comes grandma out to play with us. I'll never forget that picture—her socks rolled down to her ankles, her dress hiked up, and grandma running around the bases with us. It was great fun, and I loved her for it."

Well, we can see Grandma Neal doing that, too, can't you?

3ABN ON DISH NETWORK!

Note: If you are a DISH Network subscriber, and have only one satellite dish, you will need an additional dish installed to watch 3ABN. One of the dishes must be pointed at the 61.5° (East) or 129° (West) satellite. 3ABN is available on all new DISH Network installations.

As far as blessings go, it's hard to imagine something bigger than this! 3ABN has just been added to the basic tier of programming on EchoStar's DISH Network! With thankful hearts we watched as the Lord opened this incredible door of opportunity for us to reach millions come about as the result of many prayers, postcards, and stamps!

From the beginning, 3ABN has reached out to people through satellite technology. In the 1990s we were truly blessed when Robert Johnson, Sr., the founder and president of Dominion Sky Angel, added 3ABN to their satellite lineup. For many years viewers all across America could watch 3ABN on Sky Angel. But sadly, in May of 2006, Sky Angel informed 3ABN that there had been a satellite failure that made it impossible for them to continue carrying 3ABN and two other channels. But there's always a silver lining to every problem, and this seeming setback soon became an incredible opportunity!

WITH THANKFUL HEARTS WE WATCHED AS THE LORD OPENED THIS INCREDIBLE DOOR OF OPPORTUNITY FOR US TO REACH MILLIONS UPON MILLIONS OF PEOPLE....

upon millions of people who have never heard the gospel truths before. While it may seem that this just "happened," we can assure you that it has

After thousands of letters and postcards were written to DISH Network requesting they carry 3ABN, and after much prayer and negotiation, their parent company, EchoStar, has added 3ABN to its public interest channels. What this means is that each new subscriber to DISH Network has access to 3ABN, regardless of whether they purchase premium movie packages or not! It also means that millions more people can now watch 3ABN programming! Praise the Lord! (Please see important note at left.)

"We are very thankful to DISH Network for putting 3ABN into their lineup," says Danny Shelton, 3ABN President. "We live in a world filled with hurting people, and that's why Three Angels Broadcasting Network came into existence. I truly believe that this move will bless the lives of millions of DISH Network viewers."

Moses Primo, 3ABN's director of broadcasting and engineering, says, "I believe this is a great step in 3ABN's history, because all the Dominion Sky Angel viewers will once again be able to receive 3ABN on channel 9710. But in addition to these loyal viewers, DISH Network now opens a new horizon to add a brand new audience by making us available to all the subscribers to their basic package. I want to express my sincere gratitude to the DISH Network upper management that worked with me for a whole year to get us on DISH Network, without any discouragement."

All of us are eagerly anticipating the results of this wonderful opportunity. Surely there will be thousands of souls saved for God's kingdom as 3ABN is made available to even more viewers. Please pray for them as they begin to watch 3ABN for the first time.

Of course we can't miss this opportunity to thank each one of you who prayed for this day, and we want to especially thank those who took the time to write to DISH Network on our behalf! ■

AN OPERATION OF COOPERATION TO SPREAD THE GOSPEL FAR AND WIDE

by Nikki Anderson

I often have occasion to use the phrase “Operations Manager” when referring to people at our affiliate radio stations. It’s a common term in the media industry. Recently I heard a poem about cooperation, so the word cooperate stuck in my mind for several days. It brought to mind the people who operate our affiliate stations and how they cooperate with God.

As children, we are taught to cooperate with each other. The word cooperation was used as synonymous for good behavior. When I was a child in public school, we got a check mark on our report card indicating our willingness to cooperate with others. An “X” was given when there was a lack of willingness ... let’s not go there.

So, I looked in the dictionary to see if I could gain new insights about the words operate and cooperate and why they were bouncing around in my head. This is what I found.

OPERATE

1. to perform a function
2. to exert power or influence
3. to produce a desired result or effect
4. to follow a course of conduct

The people operating the radio stations have performed the function of building or purchasing a radio station when God called them to do so, providing the means for the Holy Spirit to reach people. Daily, the broadcast produces the desired result of giving listeners an opportunity to follow the course of conduct shown to them through the consistent message in 3ABN Radio programming.

COOPERATE

1. to act or work with another or others
2. to associate with another or others for mutual benefit
3. to work or labor with mutual efforts to promote the same objective or goal
4. to unite in producing an effect

As you can see, I discovered that to cooperate does not simply mean to get along well with others. There is a lot of action in those definitions: work, labor, promote, unite, and produce, which involve a lot of hard work!

The affiliates and their network of supporters do work hard to cooperate with God and operate the radio stations for the benefit of the listeners. They associate with 3ABN Radio personnel, other radio groups, and local agencies for the benefit of their communities. These dedicated operators are united with the Holy Spirit to promote the goal of reaching families and neighbors with the fundamental truths found in the Bible. The general consensus among these operators is that the radio stations belong to God and they are the instruments He chose to produce the desired effect. Amen!

I definitely give each one of them a check mark! ■

MEET THE TEAM

by John Dinzey

The Lord has brought a small but growing group of people to 3ABN Latino from all over the world, and I'm amazed at how much is accomplished with so few!

Pastor José Luis Medina, Jr., was born into a Puerto Rican family in Chicago and has been a tremendous help to us in Pastoral Ministries and live translations from English to Spanish. He also serves as a lay pastor in the nearby city of DuQuoin.

Pastor Richard Piñero and his wife Annette are both bilingual as well. Richard answers doctrinal questions and the prayer lines, while Annette organizes our 3ABN Latino broadcast schedule.

Irma Murray was born in Panama and now works as an assistant producer for many of our 3ABN Latino programs.

Ismael Teron is originally from Puerto Rico as well, and is a talented video editor and voice-over artist. His wife Teresa hails from Ecuador and works primarily as a production coordinator for 3ABN.

Carmen and Cesar Carmona are originally from Venezuela, and now serve as volunteers at 3ABN Latino part time, blessing us by answering hundreds of Spanish calls from different countries around the world each month.

Fred and Idalia Toro are both originally from Puerto Rico, but since they retired and moved here from Chicago they have been kept very busy with translation, transportation, and taking Spanish calls. Fred graciously volunteered to translate the book, Ten Commandments Twice Removed, into Spanish.

We also receive help from Hernando Cruz, a 3ABN television engineer from Colombia whose primary responsibilities include equipment maintenance for both 3ABN television networks. Although he's incredibly busy, Hernando always squeezes in time to help us with cable company contracts.

Maritza Oquendo has a

Dominican Republic heritage and serves as an assistant in our English programming department. She also tapes announcements and programs in Spanish, making her an important and very appreciated part of the team.

My wife, Idalia Dinzey, wears many hats, too. She's from Puerto Rico as well, and helps schedule the programs and music for the 3ABN Latino Today program, in addition to being a wonderful administrative assistant.

And, of course, I can't forget Moses Primo, Sr., 3ABN's director of broadcasting and engineering. Together with his son, Moses, Jr., he has shown true dedication to more than 200 million people in the world who speak Portuguese. Originally from Brazil, they have produced and directed many hours of programming, along with their other duties at our English network!

And finally, I can say that it's been my pleasure to work for the Lord with this dedicated team as general manager of 3ABN's Latino Network and Pastoral Ministries Department.

As you can see, these few employees and volunteers have been holding the torch high, bringing the light of salvation to a dark and dying world, and moving forward while we wait for the soon return of our Savior, Jesus Christ!

I'm humbled to see how the Lord continues to bless our efforts to reach the Spanish- and Portuguese-speaking world through 3ABN Latino. Please remember us in your prayers. ■

I love sea creatures of all kinds. Some of my favorites are dolphins, seals, and crabs! Sometimes I think about what it will be like in heaven, swimming with all the beautiful fish, and seeing the beautiful underwater scenes. But most importantly, we'll be with Jesus, the one who created us all, along with all the beauty of nature.

The Romani Family: Charley & Sarai, with their children: Jordan (standing L), Josiah (standing R), Benjamin (seated L), and Aaron (seated center). They currently live near Roseburg, Oregon.

Charley Romani lay in bed one Saturday morning, flipping through the few channels he could pick up with his “rabbit ears” antenna. He was accustomed to his old satellite dish offering 150 channels, but now, living in a friend’s converted garage, he had very little from which to choose. The selections of over-the-air channels in Roseburg, Oregon, were limited, but one of them caught his attention. Suddenly he felt God speaking directly to him as he watched channel 47, a 3ABN affiliate station owned by Better Life Television. What he heard that morning made him sit up in bed, fully awake!

“Charley and I both came from traumatic childhoods,” his wife, Sarai, says. “We were so broken when we met that neither of us felt we could ever love again. But something strange happened. God impressed both of us strongly that we were to love each other, and we felt that He wanted us together.” They married, and although Sarai was told she couldn’t have children, her prayers were answered, and they were blessed with four wonderful boys.

But the next 14 years of marriage had turned into a nightmare. Despite their love of God and their search for truth, their brokenness had led them to damage each other—and their family.

“All was not as it should have been, and I knew that in my heart,” Sarai says. “There was something very big missing; and finally, the only way I thought I could find it was to throw everything out—all my preconceived ideas and everything I thought I knew—and ask God to start over. And that meant that Charley had to go.”

“My wife and I were separated at the time, and I was really discouraged and depressed,” Charley recalls. “Sarai had really closed the door this time, and there was no hope for our marriage. We had tried everything we could. We had been involved in many denominations, from Catholic to charismatic churches. I had even moved my family across the country to join a ‘prophetic’ movement! But I saw too much hypocrisy and confusion—and they always wanted money. I saw pastors living in lavish homes, wearing expensive jewelry, and taking exotic vacations. But I didn’t see anyone getting the emotional help they needed. I kept asking myself, ‘Where is the heart of God in this?’”

“We were so broken when we met that neither of us felt we could ever love again.”

In stark contrast, what Charley saw on his TV that morning amazed him. “It was the Ten Commandments Weekend,” he says, “and I saw incredible humility and reverence for God’s Word when the preachers would speak. Their message was precise and clear, and they spoke with authority, like Jesus did. I remember seeing David Asscherick kneel before the Lord before he spoke,” he continues, “and I thought to myself, ‘I’ve never seen a pastor on his knees praying with that kind of reverence before the Lord!’ I’d boys with me, and in five minutes we were out the door.”

Just before this, Charley and Sarai had met Lisa Marie Buster, a Seventh-day Adventist music artist who had mentioned she belonged to the TurningPoint church in Roseburg. Impressed by her peace and her music, Charley had looked up her church. He knew where he would go that morning!

“The message that morning was just what I needed, and when an altar call was made, I went forward,” he says.

Soon he was on the phone to his wife. “Sarai, you’ve got to buy some ‘rabbit ears’ for your TV,” he told her excitedly. “You won’t believe what’s on! It’s what you’ve been looking for all your life!”

Soon they were both watching 3ABN. “We had searched the entire country, trying to find a church that lived what the Bible preached,” Sarai says, “and when I began watching the Ten Commandments Weekend, the first truth I found was the Seventh-day Sabbath. I was raised an Orthodox Jew, but now I discovered that it hadn’t been given just to the Jews—God instituted it during the Creation week!

also never heard any pastor teach on all ten of God’s commandments. Sure, they might preach against adultery, but never on all ten of them.”

Charley says he finally realized the preachers were Seventh-day Adventists. “I knew very little of Seventh-day Adventists, but if that was what they were teaching in their churches, I was going right now! I had two of my “Sarai, you’ve got to buy some ‘rabbit ears’ for your TV,” he told her excitedly. “You won’t believe what’s on! It’s what you’ve been looking for all your life!”

“As I continued to watch Better Life Television and 3ABN, the second truth I discovered was that the book of Revelation could be understood by studying history! Then, on the subject of hell, the Bible clearly shows that it’s an event, not a place! From then on I was hooked. I stayed up nearly three days in a row watching 3ABN! I just couldn’t believe it. God was answering all those nagging questions I had wondered about for so long!”

But it wasn’t long before their faith was severely tested. Their business, a successful barbecue restaurant, had a lot of catering contracts on the weekends. Not feeling right about breaking the fourth commandment, they struggled with the decision to close on Friday night and all day Sabbath. As soon as they did, their business actually picked up—for two weeks. “I think God encouraged us during that time, letting us know that He would provide,” Sarai says. But then they began to lose money. Bills piled up as Charley tried desperately to get other catering companies to take over his weekend commitments. Several employees had to be laid off, and people were complaining bitterly about the store hours. But the worst was still to come.

“I had learned that pork was an unclean meat,” he recalls, “and I immediately stopped eating it. I didn’t even want to touch it, and the smell bothered me. I remember having a hard time serving it to the pastors in my community, and it bothered me that they were smiling as they took their plate of pork ribs! Didn’t they know what the Bible said about pork? I shared my concerns with Sarai, and she said, ‘Is serving pork loving your neighbor as yourself?’ Her words caught me off guard,” Charley admits. “I spoke with the pastors at my church, and called 3ABN’s prayer line almost weekly for prayer and counsel.”

Finally, at the urgings of the Holy Spirit and 3ABN’s Pastor Richard Piñero, Charley broke down. “I cried on the telephone that day, and then I threw out nearly $500 worth of pork. My employees thought I was crazy. ‘He’s lost it now,’ they said, but once I made the decision, I felt relieved. I knew I’d opened up a real controversy with my customers and employees, though. I knew how much they loved their pork!”

A newspaper article gave an accurate account of what was going on. It described Charley and Sarai’s new beliefs, and their reasons for closing on Saturday and taking pork off the menu. But no one was prepared for the fiery backlash! Angry letters and e-mails were sent to the newspaper. Charley was accused of being a bad businessman, and a world of misunderstanding suddenly showed up in the rants posted on the newspaper’s website.

Under growing pressure, Charley and Sarai clung to God’s promises, even as their problems multiplied. Their electricity at home was turned off, and they were three months behind on the lease payments for their business. Even though it had been up for sale for months, no one had shown interest in buying it. During that time, though, their church family rallied around them, and God impressed many Christians to support them financially as best they could.

But finally it looked like they were going to lose everything. That night they knelt next to their bed and Sarai read the story of the widow whose sons were about to be taken into slavery by her creditors in the time of the prophet Elisha. (2 Kings 4:1–7.) Earnestly Sarai pleaded for her own miracle until she heard the voice of God speaking to her heart saying, “Tomorrow I will show Myself faithful to you.” When she shared this with Charley, they knelt together in agreement. Soon Charley heard the Lord speaking to his heart as well. Their business would be sold the next day.

“You will not believe this. Are you sitting down?” It was Charley’s realtor on the phone the next morning. “We don’t have just one offer,” she continued, “we have three offers coming in today, and they’re beginning to bid up the price!”

“I was sitting at my computer and I looked up to heaven and wept,” Charley says. “I felt like a thousand pounds had been lifted off my chest and were melting away.” An hour and a half later, a couple walked into his restaurant and offered to write a check on the spot. “Then I knew it was for real,” he says.

His barbecue business was sold, allowing Charley to pay back his investors and catch up on all his overdue bills. There was even some left over to keep his family going until he finds another job.

“We want to work for the Lord,” Charley says, “even though we don’t have any idea what He wants us to do yet.”

“God honors those who honor Him,” Sarai adds. “We honored Him the best we knew how, and God has created a whole new life for us. We just celebrated our 15th wedding anniversary, and God has healed our marriage in an incredible way. I finally found God’s place of rest for my soul. I’d never had that before, but now I’m at peace in my marriage, with my kids, my finances, and with my eternal destiny.”

“We honored Him the best we knew how, and God has created a whole new life for us.”

“I’m eternally grateful for Better Life Television and 3ABN, because without them we’d still be lost,” Charley says. “God used television to bring us the truth we had searched for all our lives. Today I can get the dose of truth I need for each day, and it’s even improved my health. By showing me a better diet, I’ve lost twenty pounds!”

He pauses for a moment, then a hint of a smile creeps across his face. “They say you learn everything you need for life in kindergarten,” he chuckles. “Well, I guess all I ever needed was ‘rabbit ears,’ and I learned that when I was a kid!” ■

by Jay Christian

Ever since Little Jonny could remember, he loved airplanes. He built models of every kind from kits of plastic or balsa wood. But they all had one thing in common: After he finished them they just sat on a shelf or hung from his bedroom ceiling. Then when he was ten years old he discovered small ready-made plastic airplanes with real engines; and they could fly! Two thin strings went through the main wing to someone holding a U-shaped handle. Through those strings the airplane could be controlled as it flew in a circle around the “pilot.”

Little Jonny got one, a model of a P-40 Flying Tiger that was flown in World War II. Filled with anticipation, he took the plane to the Little League field where other kids flew their airplanes.

Many airplanes were flying in circles above the heads of experienced fliers. Some were even flying acrobatics or were in “dog fights.” He selected his spot, set the plane down and ran the control strings out taut. He knelt down, put gas in the small gas tank, and connected the spring starter. Rrrrrrrrrr . . . the engine immediately sprang to life.

Excited, Little Jonny ran to the control handle and tilted his hand back so it would take off. Up it flew, over the top of his head in a long arc. Then down it went. He heard a thud! as the plane crashed, bouncing as it hit the ground. It was made of a strong and flexible plastic so it survived unscathed. The mishap did not go unnoticed by the other fliers; a few laughed and gathered to watch the next attempt. Now Little Jonny had an audience!

Rrrrrrrr . . . up it shot again, over the top of his head in a long arc; then, thud! Little Jonny’s audience offered their assessment: “Ha, ha, ha! Jonny can’t fly his airplane. Ha, ha, ha.”

Embarrassed, he tried again. The result was the same. Thud! went the airplane and “Ha, ha, ha!” cried the now even larger crowd. “Stupid airplane,” Little Jonny thought, “and I’m worthless for not being able to fly it!” He picked up his airplane and with stooped shoulders, trudged home to a cacophony of laughter. He set it down and never tried to fly it again.

Now Little Jonny was just Jon as he was fully grown and in the army stationed in Korea. As he walked across the base softball field he heard Rrrrrrrrrr at the diamond. One of his fellow soldiers was flying—or attempting to fly—a model airplane! Rrrrrrrrrr . . . thud! “That brings back memories,” Jon said. Only this guy wasn’t giving up. A crowd gathered and laughed. The soldier didn’t seem to notice, he just tried again and again! With practice he became an accomplished flier. The laughter faded and then stopped.

Impressed, Jon thought, “I wonder if I should try again.” He bought an airplane and, after nine years, the result was the same: Rrrrrrrrrr . . . thud! Then laughter. Inspired by the other soldier who didn’t give up, Jon attempted it again, and it stayed in the air a little longer. Undaunted, again and again Jon tried, until he could fly the plane. The laughter faded; he had succeeded!

As he bent down to refuel the plane, Jon realized that too often we allow other people’s opinions of us to shape our self-worth. If others think we can do something well, we believe we have value. If not, then we feel we have no value. John 3:16 tells us that Jesus gave His life so we could live with Him forever! Jesus showed we have value to Him and His opinion is the only one that counts. Jon gave the propeller a quick flip. The small engine roared to life, and with new confidence he guided the small model airplane heavenward. ■

MAGIC, GHOSTS, & THE BIBLE

Steve Wohlberg's special focus on Harry Potter airs July 21

Over 325 million Harry Potter books in 64 languages have been sold during the last 10 years, and on July 21 the last installment, Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows, is expected to become the fastest-selling book of all time. But what's holding so many spellbound?

"Simply put, witchcraft is a search for power," says Pastor Steve Wohlberg, and that's exactly what he addresses in his new 13-part Battles of Faith series, "Magic, Ghosts, and the Bible."

"There are two dangers that are like parallel train tracks," he explains. "The first track is Hollywood's obsession to make witchcraft look cool. The other track is real witchcraft," he continues, "and many young people are turning to Wicca, incantations, and spells on high school and college campuses, looking for a way to access the power of the universe to do their will. In contrast, Christianity is about submitting to God's power to do His will."

The Harry Potter novels and films are part of a deceptive trend sweeping the globe, desensitizing young and old to the incredible dangers of sorcery.

Pastor Wohlberg points to Pharaoh's magicians before the Exodus, and Simon the sorcerer in Samaria, as examples of how Satan uses witchcraft and the occult to confuse people and prevent true revival. "As our final exodus from Planet Earth draws near," he adds, "God is working worldwide to lead us to repentance, revival, and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit."

Don't miss this incredible series about Hollywood, witchcraft, spiritism, and the cross, which includes a special program on July 21 outlining the dangers of Harry Potter. Consider the facts, and your eyes will be opened, too! ■
