WELCOME

Miracles still happen, and if you doubt that, you need to read this magazine from cover to cover!

Discover the marvelous way in which the Lord led John Dinzey to meet his beautiful wife Idalia in “The Family Man of God” (p. 6). Then read this month’s incredible testimony of how He healed Sarah Kimmes and led her to the truth she longed for—with her eyes shut! (p. 16).

If that’s not enough proof, consider the story of how the Lord gave favor to a prisoner in Honduras who had faithfully watched 3ABN Latino and shared what he learned with his fellow inmates, in “Twelve Lempiras” (p. 20).

You’ll be so inspired by God’s starry handiwork as you read Len Wenzel’s devotional, “His Ways Are Higher” (p. 44), that you may want to share your testimony on our new website (p. 46)! All this, your programs schedules, and so much more are wrapped up in this edition of 3ABN World.

“Do not remember the former things, nor consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing, now it shall spring forth; shall you not know it? I will even make a road in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.” ISAIAH 43:18, 19 (NKJV)

Dear Family,

As 2007 rapidly comes to a close, I’m reminded of God’s promise to do a “new thing.” Each year He does just that for us at 3ABN, and I am humbled as I look back at how He has strengthened my faith through each miracle.

I think of the great expansion periods, and I see the thousands of people who have given so unselfishly of their time and talents to God’s cause. Then I think of the precious souls who, even now, are accepting Jesus as their personal Savior. Each minute of each day is translated into salvation of souls.

All this fills me with gratitude, and I think of all of you who have faithfully blessed us with your prayers and financial support throughout the years. Truly the Lord has provided for every need, just as He promised so many years ago.

But although these miracles are considerable, they’re small when compared to what the Lord wants to do. I believe the “rivers in the desert” are symbolic of His grace flowing through the dry and parched spiritual landscape of this world, and I look forward to seeing that mighty river grow!

Paul says in Philippians 3:11–13, “One thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.” (NAS.) Today my goal is to do even more for Jesus. I hope that’s your goal, too.

YOUNG HARRIS, GEORGIA:

"I have been incarcerated for a year and a half. I was raised a Catholic and have studied world religions, metaphysics, and psychology. I took the Discovery Bible study course and received Seventh-day Adventist materials. I just finished reading Ten Commandments Twice Removed and it really helped me understand the true Sabbath. I believe I've found the faith that is true! I want to find a good Seventh-day Adventist church. I am 29 years old and have a beautiful two-year-old that I can't wait to get home to and teach her about everything I can."

CAMARILLO, CALIFORNIA:

"Watching 3ABN has led me to study my Bible more. The testimonies are so encouraging since our family has suffered so many tragedies in the last years. I have called several times, and your pastoral staff has prayed with me. Though we try to send a donation often, we are enclosing this additional gift that, though small, will help to continue spreading the gospel through 3ABN. God bless you. We pray for you daily. Thank you, God, for raising up 3ABN."

HOPKINS, MINNESOTA:

"Thank you for your excellent programs. They are so informative and have changed my life, as well as my wife's. We are interested in becoming Seventh-day Adventists and are currently planning to attend a local church. Thank you and God bless you."

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE:

"An inmate friend here at this prison asked me a few months ago to program my TV. At first I said no, but he kept asking and said God told him to do it. So I said okay. So we asked the guard and he said okay. He was programming it, and in came channel 34. It was 3ABN, and he asked me if I wanted that channel. I almost said no, because I already had some Christian channels. But I said yes, and thank God I did. Thanks to 3ABN I have salvation now, and I am going to the Seventh-day Adventist services here. I want to be baptized and have asked the Adventist pastor to baptize me. I thank God for me being here in prison, because I truly have found God, thanks to 3ABN!"

ASHHABAD, TURKMENISTAN [TO 3ABN RUSSIA]:

"I'm grateful to you for your Bible study courses that I very much enjoy. The topics are so exciting and the poems are just like honey for the soul! I got answers to my questions, which augmented my knowledge and strengthened my faith. Your interpretation of the Bible prophecies is truly amazing! Previously my arguments were not convincing enough for my children to come to God, but now, after reading these lessons, they are more likely to make a choice for Jesus."

BY E-MAIL:

"I was home this morning and tuned into your viewing. Just wanted to let you know how much I enjoy the 3ABN Today program with the guests talking about religious liberty and health. Both programs were excellent and kept me glued to their messages. It also took me to the Scriptures. Thank you for your excellent programming. I am a practicing member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS), but greatly embrace the Seventh-day Adventist religion and practices. Your message makes a difference in my life. Thanks again."

VIA E-MAIL:

"Hello dear friends in Christ! I enjoy your 3ABN Radio programs immensely and receive much pleasure and enjoyment from them. It is the first thing I hear in the morning and the last thing at night. Please continue the good work. I live in a small township east of Melbourne, Australia."

VOLGOGRAD REGION, RUSSIA [TO 3ABN RUSSIA]:

"I've learned so many things from the New Life Bible study courses. Having sensed that the 47 years of my life without knowing the truth and teaching it to my children were meaningless, I burst out weeping. I very much want to keep on studying your Bible courses."

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

THE FAMILY MAN OF GOD

by Hal Steenson

A true man of God will always put Him first in his life and always put his family next. He will be covered by God's commitment to His Word, and his family will be covered by his commitment to both. This truth is personified in John Dinzey.

He was born in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, as Yoneide "John" Dinzey, and was blessed with Seventh-day Adventist parents. His family left the Dominican Republic when he was 10 years old and moved to Chicago, Illinois. While attending a Sabbath service at the South Spanish Church in Chicago, the pastor, Hearley Roscher, made a plea for baptismal candidates. Johnny's heart began to race as the Holy Spirit started to draw the net of salvation, and he was definitely in that net. The pastor asked for all who would make this commitment to Christ to stand up. He shot up in response to the pastor's words, but more so, to the unction of the Lord. His drawing had been so strong on Johnny, that he felt that every one in the church must be standing; however, he was the only one—God had been speaking directly to John Dinzey.

At the tender age of 13, John took that step of faith, knowing it had been orchestrated by the Lord years ago. His first step was to start Bible studies, along with his brother who also wanted to make the same commitment to Christ. They studied diligently for two years before entering the baptismal pool. And when Johnny came up, he was "a new creature in Christ."

After his baptism, his mind raced back to when he was nine and while walking down the street one afternoon, a thought came to his mind that the Lord had something special for him to do. It was four years later, an elderly lady from his church came up to him, pointed her finger at him and said, "You're going to be a preacher, and before I die, I'm going to hear you preach!" He couldn't see how this could happen, since she was struggling with cancer. John seriously questioned what the lady had said when he heard she had apparently stopped breathing and was presumed dead. However, her family rushed her to the hospital where the doctors revived her, performed surgery, and removed the cancer. Years later, she was in the congregation as John stood in the pulpit and shared a personal dream about the coming of the Lord!

As the years went by, he continued to keep his heart and mind on the things of the Lord, staying totally dedicated to the family of God and his service to Jesus.

Johnny planned to go to Andrews University, but knew that it would take lots of money to go to college. So he decided to enlist in the Army to save up enough money to further his education for the ministry. However, God had other plans, and in 1989 the Holy Spirit led him to 3ABN, where he worked the night shift in master control. At that time in 3ABN's history, not only did Johnny play all the tapes, but he also took prayer calls and answered the callers' questions. This sparked a pastoral flame in Johnny's soul that today burns brighter than ever. He realized he was fulfilling the call of God on his life by being in the ministry at 3ABN.

Since his first job in master control, his desire to minister to God's family has allowed him to wear several hats. He soon became the manager of 3ABN's Pastoral Ministries, and has mentored several more in that department. In 2005 he was given the honor and responsibility of becoming the general manager of a hungry two-year-old "baby" named 3ABN Latino Network.

John's zeal for the family of God is obvious to 3ABN's worldwide audience; however, few have ever seen the other side of this gentle man—the side that is unyielding in his commitment to his own family. If you want a good example of a "good example," it's the Dinzey family: his wife Idalia, and his two sons: Samuel, age 11, and Caleb, who is 7. However, let's get back to the beginning.

Johnny was 29, unmarried, and asking the Lord if there was to be a godly woman in his life. He sincerely prayed for God's will in this matter, and told the Lord he would leave it up to Him. The next page in God's plan was to have him attend a church in Chicago, where he had close friends. While stepping out the side door to get a breath of fresh air in 20-degree weather (yeah, right), he saw her—a beautiful woman, approaching him. She was getting out of a van and carrying a large case. He immediately knew she was a visitor because he knew everyone in the church. Gentleman Johnny approached her and asked if he could carry her case into the auditorium. She graciously agreed.

The next time he saw her that day was in Sabbath School. There he found out her name was Idalia Dejesus. In the divine worship service he also found out that she could sing like an angel. This is where his preprogrammed, ministerial mind went into overdrive. She was beautiful, she was single, and she could sing! What more could a minister ask for? If he married her, he would always have someone to sing during his closing appeals. However, he watched her as she drove away after the service and thought he would never see her again. Resigned to that fact, he headed toward his friend's home for lunch, not realizing this was a divine appointment.

John and Idalia Dinzey cohost many of the 3ABN Hoy programs on 3ABN Latino. Together with pastors José Medina (far left) and Richard Piñero (left center), they have worked tirelessly to nurture and develop this network, which now reaches millions of Spanish and Portuguese speaking viewers around the world.

He walked to his friend's front door, rang the bell, and watched as that beautiful, single songstress, Idalia Dejesus, opened the door. At first he was stunned, thinking he was at the wrong house. Nonetheless, he was right where God wanted him to be—at the right place, and at the right time. Idalia informed him she was having lunch with her friends and invited him into the house. There he saw his friend's brother, Freddie Toro, in the living room. He had no idea that Freddie was Idalia's stepfather! The rest is history.

John Dinzey's love for his wife and children is paramount; he doesn't just talk the talk, he walks the walk. Recently, he was asked at eleven o'clock on a Friday morning if he could fill in for a Sabbath service in Kokomo, Indiana, seven hours away. Johnny and Idalia had promised to take their children to "Gymnastics Extreme Bounce for Kids" that Friday afternoon, and he was determined not to let them down. Instead, they kept their promise, and then drove to Kokomo, arriving well after midnight. Johnny and Idalia unloaded the sleeping boys and got quiet before the Lord, preparing for the Sabbath message. The next day she sang in the Sabbath service, and his boys shared in the afternoon service by singing a special song. Then Samuel, their eldest, preached a short sermon. They also stayed that afternoon and ministered to the pastor and his wife.

Johnny was given the opportunity to use his entire family to minister to God's family. That's only one of the many reasons Johnny Dinzey is known as "the family man of God" at 3ABN. ■

GOD'S JOB PLACEMENT

Her talents multiplied when she used them for God

Everyone knows that pastors' wives are extremely busy women, and Angela Lomacang is no exception. With her loving, sweet spirit, warm heart, and gift of hospitality, she fulfills her duties as a pastor's wife. She is also a very talented and capable production assistant at 3ABN Radio Network.

Born in England, Angela is of Jamaican heritage, as well as the youngest of eight children. Her family came to New York City when she was seven years old after her father died. There she met John Lomacang at the young age of 16 and married him in 1983. Four years later John became a Seventh-day Adventist pastor.

John and Angela have had a diverse life, living in various places around the country. In 1984 John began singing with the Heritage Singers, and Angela worked for them as their on-the-road bookkeeper. Later, when John started giving his own concerts, she would sometimes help with the audio board. But that's as far as her technical skills ran.

They moved to Illinois in 2003 when John took a position as pastor of the Thompsonville Seventh-day Adventist Church. Angela wanted to work, but there were no jobs that interested her at 3ABN's production facilities. "Besides," she says, "it was so hectic over there!" 3ABN Radio needed another production assistant, so Angela started training in January 2004. (She says she likes the quiet over here!)

At first she was nervous, because she'd never done this kind of work before. Even running the sound board for John's concerts was no advantage. Angela says, "I prayed every day to learn how to record the programs and do the editing! The Lord took me and guided me, because when John used to edit his music at home he would ask me to watch what he was doing, and I was so bored I couldn't sit still for five minutes! I just wasn't interested." Ironically, when she came to work at 3ABN Radio Network, that was the very same type of work she learned to do—but she says she loves doing it here. In fact, her husband is amazed at some of her work. She smiles and shakes her head saying, "God sure has a sense of humor!"

When I asked her what she thought was the best thing about coming to work at 3ABN Radio Network, she responded very quickly. "The highlight of everything is Crossroads on 3ABN Radio. I am so blessed by the programs, and when I'm editing them I get a blessing all over again."

Today Angela does many other things as well, such as editing audio books, helping produce programs, and even recording promos for air. She is multi-talented and can multi-task, sometimes keeping track of recordings in two other studios while she's working on a project at her own computer.

I ask her to describe a typical day, and she laughs. "There is no such thing as a typical day here!" she says.

Angela loves working at 3ABN Radio Network, and we love having her here. (We just let her moonlight as the pastor's wife!) ■

FOUR DAYS LATER

by Idalia Dinzey

I received a call from Guatemala this morning. The caller was just thrilled that her son could help her get in contact with someone—anyone—at 3ABN Latino. As I listened to her happy voice I felt such love and appreciation from her, and I was so very thankful for her words of encouragement. She called asking for a free offer we made on 3ABN Latino—a Spanish copy of The Ministry of Healing by Ellen White.

“How are you watching us?” I asked.

“I’m watching you on cable TV,” she answered.

“Which cable company would that be?” I asked again.

Her name is Teresa, and she told me that there were many other Adventists enjoying our programming, too. Her voice was so full of joy! I wish you could have heard it. When I asked her if anyone had come to Christ through watching 3ABN Latino, she told me that there have been several people who have been coming to her church because of watching our programs!

“One of the people was a young wife and mother of two,” she added. “She used to visit our church when she was young, but she’d never made her decision to follow Christ. Then she got married and had two girls, and as she tried to be a better mom and wife, she began watching 3ABN Latino.” Then Teresa told me an interesting story of how this woman had wanted to go to church the following Sabbath. “She told her husband, ‘I want us all to worship at the local Seventh-day Adventist church this week!’”

As Teresa unfolded the story, I found out that on Monday the little family was watching 3ABN Latino when one of our pastors made an invitation to give their life to Jesus. “No matter where you’re watching,” the preacher had said, “I invite you to come close to your TV screen because I’m going to pray for you. If you need Jesus, come forward now.”

Feeling the Holy Spirit’s call, this young woman stepped up to her TV set and knelt for that special prayer, along with her husband and their two daughters. Right there they surrendered their lives to Jesus Christ!

But there’s a sad part to this story. Teresa told me that this young lady never made it to church that Sabbath. “Sadly, that Friday this young mother and wife was killed,” she continued.

Oh, what a bittersweet story! Killed—but yet saved in time! I marveled at God’s perfect timing and merciful love towards us. The Bible says, “The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy.” John 10:10. Lord, my heart wells up with tears! And yet there is joy!

Why? Because this family accepted the Lord as their Savior. And because her heart was completely surrendered to God!

Do we know when our last day will be? Who does?

Are the decisions we make today putting our eternal life at risk?

I beg you to take some time to re-evaluate your life, as I have mine. Have you gotten caught up in being “lukewarm” instead of being “hot” or “cold”? (Read Revelation 3:14–21.)

When Jesus was on the cross, one of the men hanging next to him (known only as “the thief on the cross”) said to Jesus, “Remember me.” How I want to be remembered by Jesus! I never want Him to forsake me.

Have you been with Jesus today? Have you asked Him to remember you?

I thank God for the anointing of the Holy Spirit on 3ABN Latino’s programming. The Bible says, “By their fruits you will know them” (Matthew 7:20), and I know that many of those “fruits” walk into churches every week after watching or listening to one of 3ABN’s networks. Thank you for your financial support of 3ABN Latino. You make it possible for souls to be saved, both here, in Guatemala, and beyond! ■

TESTIMONY

WITH MY EYES SHUT

She could only listen . . .

Sarah Kimmes lay on the couch, trying not to move a muscle. For 14 years, on and off (mostly on), she had been suffering from what is perhaps the worst pain known to mankind—a disorder called trigeminal neuralgia (TN). It is so painful that its nickname is “the suicide disease.” Presumed to be caused by a blood vessel pressing on the trigeminal nerve in the head as it exits the skull, TN causes intense, stabbing, electric shock-like pain in any number of facial areas. Although it’s relatively rare, it is estimated that a total of one million suffer with this ailment around the world.*

“I first started experiencing pain in 1992 after my mother died,” Sarah tells us. “I was under a lot of stress while taking care of her during her last years. In addition I was homeschooling two young children, and working at a hospital. Then my father became ill with cancer, and I took care of him until he died.

“Throughout the years the pain varied somewhat in intensity, but most of the time it felt like I was being stabbed in the face with a sharpened cattle prod and 400 volts! It’s really impossible to describe.”

Her last seven-month bout of pain was “horrible and unrelenting. Sometimes it would go on for two or three hours at a time, several times a day. The stabs would come 30 seconds or so and last between 5–10 seconds at a time.”

Totally incapacitated, Sarah was spending much of her time on the couch, waiting for the next stab of pain. She says there were many times she would scream out in pain, but it just made it worse.

“By this time I had lost 30 pounds,” she tells us, “because it was too painful to eat. In fact, as I lay on the couch flipping through the TV channels, I mostly listened, because eye movement hurt me horribly. Then one day I landed on channel 14 out of Minneapolis, Minnesota. It was 3ABN—and although I was not a Christian at the time, I stopped to listen to it.” She laughs momentarily and adds, “Actually, I was truly a captive audience. Since the music on the TV commercials was so loud, I needed something pretty subdued, and the soothing voices on 3ABN kept me coming back again and again. When the pain would hit, my thoughts turned to Jesus, and I’d think, ‘Please send Satan away,

Lord. He’s trying to bring me into fear.’

“I listened as they quoted the Scriptures on 3ABN,” she says. “I listened very carefully.”

During the next four months, Sarah lay on the couch, and the Holy Spirit worked on her heart! “I was raised a Methodist,” she says, “but in my mid-twenties I changed over to the Unity Church, which teaches New Thought, positive thinking, and many other things. In fact, for 20 years I believed that divinity exists in everyone. I felt I was a little piece of God, and that I could change the course of my life by my thinking. But it took only four months for me to be convicted that what I was hearing now was the truth. In four short months I understood all of the 28 fundamental beliefs of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. I received a Holy Spirit education on a 3ABN scholarship!” she adds with a smile.

“Things I’d learned so long ago started coming back to me, and I realized all over again that truths from 3ABN presenters like Jac Colon, Lyle Albrecht, Doug Batchelor, John Carter, and Brian McMahon.

Then another miracle happened—one that Sarah could hardly have dared to hope for. As she watched 3ABN’s 2006 Ten Commandments weekend, she felt it was the crowning touch to all the truth that she had been reminded of and learned anew. She felt compelled to reach out to Jesus for healing, like the woman in the Bible who touched the hem of His garment and was healed. Sarah says that, in addition to reducing the pain greatly, the Lord led her to the right health practitioners who helped her through nutritional changes and massage therapy until she reached a pain-free state. “Since I made my decision for Jesus Christ I’ve been totally free of pain 98 percent of the time!” she says, beaming.

“It was June 2006, and I knew I wanted to be baptized, so I found The Edge Christian Worship Center—a Seventh-day Adventist church in the Minneapolis suburb of Brooklyn Park, and was baptized. I’ve been pain-free for a little over a year—a lot longer than at any time during my illness. The only pain I’ve felt since then is when I neglect to keep my connection open with God. He truly healed me, but if I get too distracted by the world, I get what I call a ‘warning shot,’ and I have such an aversion to pain by now that it takes very little to get my attention. I come running back to His side quickly, and today I can honestly say that this is the best ‘worst thing’ that ever happened to me in my life!” She also tells us that if the pain were to come back, she would praise God, pray for endurance, and believe that there was a bigger purpose for it. “I may not understand this until I’m on the other side of Glory,” she says, “but the bottom line is not only my salvation—it’s also about bringing honor and glory to God!”

Throughout this experience, Sarah says her husband has been very supportive. “He was raised Roman Catholic, but kinda moved away from it all and never became a regular churchgoer. But,” she adds, “I believe that he had a conversion early on in life, because when I share my beliefs with him I find out he believes the same things I do! It’s really nice on Sabbath because we come together and reason—just like the Bible says. And he watches 3ABN with me a lot.

“My children are young adults and are out of the home now. Both my son and daughter have been exploring Bible truths more since my conversion. Regardless of what they decide, my prayer is the same each day, ‘Lord, let every person see Jesus in my face when they look at me today.’”

As an interesting aside, we originally called Sarah because of her intriguing “Thank You” card, where she said that 3ABN had played an important part in her conversion and baptism. Feeling impressed, we called her. And when we did, she told us, “I had been praying for a couple of months now for the Lord to give me a way to witness to others—and then you called me!”

Now isn’t God just like that?

We like the way Sarah summarized her experience: “God literally led me into truth with my eyes shut!” ■

“Today I can honestly say that this is the best ‘worst thing’ that ever happened to me in my life!”

Christ was my sacrifice and my Savior. I also learned what the Bible really teaches about what happens to us after we die. That was a big thing to me,” she adds, “since I had friends at my former church who talked often about visits from the dead. I used to watch Sylvia Browne, who claims to be a spiritual teacher and psychic, as she appeared on television talk shows, acting as a spirit medium and communicating with the spirits of the dead.” Sarah pauses for a moment. “Thank you, Lord, for saving me—for drawing me out of all that,” she says quietly to herself. She continues, telling us that she learned many Bible

TWELVE LEMPIRAS

Despite their need, they gave all they had

Working in 3ABN's Pastoral Ministries Department, Richard Piñero has taken his share of unusual calls, but as he answered the phone, he had no idea what the Lord had been up to in the faraway land of Honduras.

"May I speak to Pastor Piñero?" the caller asked.

"You're speaking to him," Richard answered.

"Siervo de Dios! Dios te bendiga! I am calling you from Santa Rosa de Copán in Honduras," he said, adding that he was an avid 3ABN Latino viewer.

His name was Dr. José Efraín Galves, but what caught Richard's attention was the fact that he said he was calling from a penitentiary. "God has given us grace with the warden, and he has allowed me to use the telephone," he said.

Suddenly he had Richard's full attention. "You're calling from a penitentiary?"

"Yes, that's correct."

"And you have 3ABN Latino on cable there?"

"No, we pick it up through a cable wire that I connected to my TV antenna."

Richard soon found out that Dr. Galves had been watching 3ABN Latino on his small TV, and had been taking notes from all the sermons. Then he would preach to his inmate congregation of 225 men! "I wonder if you can send me some material on discipleship," Dr. Galves asked next. "We have such a need to help these men understand how to be Christians."

Richard promised to do what he could, but what he heard next touched his heart.

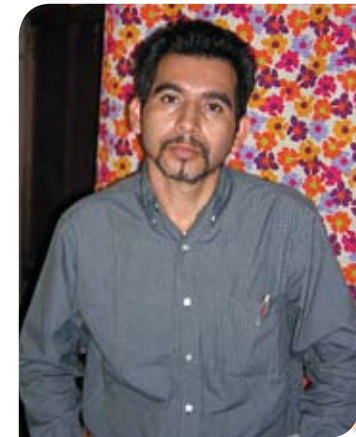

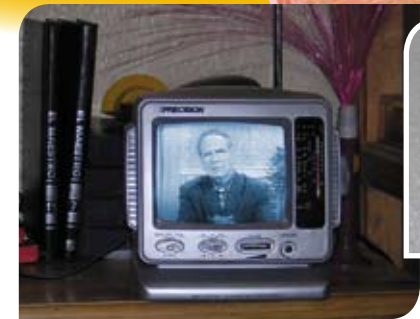

"The reason I'm calling you is that we have tried to find a Seventh-day Adventist church where we can send our offerings."

Richard was floored. "Here's a man who somehow picks up 3ABN Latino programming and forms a congregation of 225 men. Their needs were extraordinary, but they had managed to collect an offering, and were wondering where they could send it."

For the next several weeks Richard tried his best to contact someone at the local church mission. "Apparently there was no one at the office, since it was the Holy Week season, a time when most of the country goes on vacation. Then one day I called one of the many numbers I had for their mission headquarters, and a woman answered. After telling her who I was, I asked to speak to the evangelism director. She told me that he was not in that day, adding that the mission president, Pastor Xavier Mejía, was there, if I cared to speak to him."

Richard was elated, and explained what had happened. While he was on the phone, Pastor Mejía called Wilfredo Cruz, the district pastor, on his cell phone. "Pastor, have you ever been to the penitentiary in your district?" he asked.

"Well, yes," came a somewhat hesitant reply. "As a matter of fact, I'm here right now, waiting to go into the women's side to give a Bible study."

Richard couldn't wait to call him directly and give him the news. "I told him about the 225 man congregation, and how they wanted to become a part of the Seventh-day Adventist church," Richard says.

Pastor Cruz became strangely silent, and then told him that he had been asking the Lord for an opportunity to do something big for Him! Truly that prayer was being answered!

A few weeks went by, and Richard called again to see what had been happening. Pastor Cruz told him, “When I walked in I was moved to tears. First, because of the conditions tells us. “But what really touched me was that in spite of their great need, they’d been taking up a collection for a long time, using the money to buy the bare necessities to share among all the men. And when he called they’d collected 11 or 12 lempiras (approximately 60¢) and they wanted to donate it to the church!”

Seeing their great need for the most basic necessities, Pastor Cruz was moved with compassion during his first visit. “Each week these men are only given enough toilet paper for three days,” he said, “and although I didn’t have nearly enough money to buy toilet paper for all 225 men, I vowed that I would do it.”

It didn’t take him long, either. In fact, his church members gave generously, and all the money needed was in hand by the close of that day.

Another great need was for Bible study guides, and the Seventh-day Adventist mission immediately committed to supply La Fe de Jesús Bible study guides to the inmates. With these in hand, Pastor Cruz was able to go in and give his first Bible study. Today he gives studies to 200 men, with the help of Dr. Galves and his leaders, and currently over 60 men are preparing for baptism! Clearly the Lord’s hand has been leading within the prison walls.

As he got to know Dr. Galves better, Richard found out that this surgeon and his family had been kidnapped by guerrillas. Amazingly, after murdering his wife and children, the guerrillas let him go. Wracked with grief, he tried to start a new life, and eventually married again, only to be accused of illegally smuggling people into the country. He had been arrested, tried, and sent to prison for 25 years!

Then one day Richard received another phone call. It was Dr. Galves, and he was in tears.

“José, are you okay?”

“No, I’m not. I just got word last night that I lost my 12-year-old son.” He told Richard about the vehicle accident that had taken the boy’s life as he was coming home from a church gathering. Richard was able to offer him comfort and hope from the Bible with the words of 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18, and in an incredible show of support, the inmate leaders of the prison church fasted and prayed for their friend for three days. When Richard spoke to him next, Dr. Galves told him that he had felt the uplifting power of prayer, and that he knew the Lord would fulfill His beautiful promise.

But God delights to turn sorrow into joy, and sometime later he called again, saying that all the charges against him had been dropped! But he noted that he would have to pay approximately 35,000 lempiras (approximately US$1,900) in fines to regain his freedom.

they live in and their degree of need. They are truly forgotten by society. I was also moved by the commitment that José and his leaders have to the cause.” He mentioned how he showed him the TV set where he would watch 3ABN Latino. As he watched, sometimes the TV shut off and he would strike it to get it to work again.

Although we hear stories like this often, we’re always humbled and amazed at how God uses 3ABN Latino Network! “I knew it had to be the Lord,” Richard CAMINO VERDAD Y VIDA - "Déjame Contarte una Historia" es la frase invitadora del Pastor Roberto Giordana que marca la apertura de su nuevo programa Camino, Verdad y Vida. Son historias que captan la mente y el espíritu con lecciones, principios y esperanza en un mundo lleno de confusión e incertidumbre. En Juan 14:6 Jesús mismo nos dice que Él es el camino y la verdad que nos lleva a nuestro Padre celestial quien nos ofrece vida eterna. Si está en búsqueda de verdades espirituales que los dirija a Cristo, este programa es para Usted. 3ABN Latino ha dedicado este espacio tan especial. Camino Verdad y Vida llegará muy pronto a sus hogares. No se lo pierda! Será ricamente bendecido!

Roberto Giordana - Camino, Verdad y Vida

HIS WAYS ARE HIGHER

by Len Wenzel

Len Wenzel is 3ABN's senior video editor. He shares his enthusiasm for the starry skies through his Destination Heaven Ministries. Check out his website, destinationheavenministries.com.

About 40 years ago, on a clear, starry night, I had my first opportunity to look through a telescope. My good friend, “Geno,” a long time work associate, invited me over one warm summer evening to look at a few objects in the night sky. I wasn’t sure what to expect because, after all, it was just a little telescope and everything out there to see was at least hundreds of thousands of miles away. He suggested our first target would be Saturn. Sure, we could see that all right, but with that little scope? I mean, Saturn is millions of miles away, not just thousands!

Amazingly, though, I remember it as if it were yesterday. As I bent down to look through the little eyepiece of his small telescope I was completely blown away. I couldn’t believe it. I could actually see the rings around Saturn! Immediately I vowed to get a telescope, and I kept that promise. However, it wasn’t exactly fulfilled the next day. For whatever reason, 40 years would pass before I purchased my first scope, and one of my lifelong regrets is that I failed to take advantage of so many beautiful starry nights.

In spite of my delay, however, I have had many opportunities to share my Saturn experience with others through my own scope. Each person voices the same thought I had over 40 years ago: “I can’t believe I can see the rings around Saturn!”

In 1 Corinthians 15:41 God describes some of His other celestial creations: “There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.” Stars like Arcturus, and star clusters like the Pleiades, are mentioned by name in the book of Job.

God asks Job in 38:31 if he can “bind the Pleiades.” I’m not sure if Job knew the significance of that statement at the time. But now, thousands of years later, we understand what God meant. Scientists now believe that the Universe, as we know it, is constantly expanding. But oddly enough, the Pleiades star cluster is bound together by an unseen Hand, puzzling the best scientific minds and confirming God’s power.

Scripture also alludes several times to Orion. Within the Orion constellation lies M42—the great Orion Nebula—the most photographed area of the night sky. If you live in North America, walk outside on an early winter evening at about 9:00 p.m. and look to the southeast. With just your naked eye, the wispy clouds of the majestic Orion Nebula will be visible. However, thanks to some very large telescopes such as Keck in Hawaii, EOS array in Chile, Kitt Peak in Arizona, and the Hubble Space Telescope, some of the most spectacular close-up evidences of God’s handiwork have been revealed in greater detail.

Next time you look at the starry heavens, whether you’re camping, hiking, or just spending time alone after a challenging day, remember the words of Isaiah 55:9, “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.”

No matter what difficulties I experience, I meditate on the words of Isaiah and draw strength and hope from the fact that nothing is too big for God to handle. I place my family, my job, my finances, and my future on God’s to-do list. And once I’ve done that, I trust Him to take care of it.

God’s ways are higher than ours, and His love for us is greater than we can imagine! After all, He sent His Son to die for us so that we might have life. He also sent the Holy Spirit, which we call upon right now, to help us find a way to overcome all our trials, temptations, and concerns. When doubts creep in, I read the guidance given in Matthew 6:25–34 about worry.

What an awesome God we serve. He provides every opportunity and leading for us to gain a victory here, and to spend eternity with Him among those marvelous stars! ■

GOD'S FILTER

PHILIPPIANS 4:8

In Philippians 4:8 Paul gives us a wonderful filter for what we should allow into our minds. Can you imagine what life would be like if we filtered everything we hear or see through God's filter? "Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things." (NKJV.) Our Creator knows that our happiness is so much greater if we center our thoughts on His works.

God has also given each of us the high honor of acting as coworkers with Jesus Christ in saving souls. Here at 3ABN we remind ourselves constantly that we are just an instrument in the hands of the Master, that we each have the great honor and privilege to reach hundreds of millions of people. But so do you, since each of 3ABN's networks are supported solely by our viewers and listeners.

We want you to see the results of your prayers and sacrificial giving! That's why we've launched a brand new website called savedthru3abn.org. It's packed full of testimonies, letters, and e-mails from 3ABN viewers and listeners who have been saved by Jesus Christ through watching 3ABN! And it's all good news!

One look, and you'll join us in rejoicing: "Great and marvelous are Your works, Lord God Almighty!" Revelation 15:3 (NKJV).

Is it time to change your filter? ■

Although he had no money, he was confident that the Lord's hand was in this new development, and two weeks later he called to say his fines had been dropped! Today he's patiently waiting for the final paperwork to be completed, and the words of John 8:32 have come true for him, "And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

But that's not the end of the story. Because of his testimony, four new church groups have begun in Guatemala and Honduras, and the prison warden has given permission for them to build a church building within the prison compound!

"It amazes me that God would look down on what society has considered outcasts," Richard Piñero says, "and that He would use 3ABN Latino Network in such an extraordinary way. It makes me wonder, Who am I to not go the extra mile? I have not gone through half of what they've been through." Adapting the famous words of an American president, we call upon God's army in this way: "Ask not what God can do for you, but what you can do for God." ■

3ABN STEWARDSHIP AND TRUST SERVICES

HERE ARE FIVE GOOD REASONS to develop a Charitable Gift Annuity with 3ABN:

1. Your gift provides you with a fixed income for life and helps 3ABN evangelize the world!
2. You may fund a Gift Annuity for as little as $5,000 per individual or $10,000 per couple, provided you are 55 or older.
3. You receive an immediate tax deduction, and much of the interest is tax free.
4. To gain a higher rate with greater income, you may develop a Deferred Gift Annuity with a future payout, provided you are 45 or older.
5. You may fund a Charitable Gift Annuity for another person and claim the tax deduction yourself.

A Gift Annuity is unique in that while the gift is irrevocable, the investment may earn you more than your initial gift—depending on your age.
