WELCOME

As we come to the end of another year, we look back on the many miracles we've witnessed, and all we can say is, "Praise the Lord!"

We thought it would be fitting, then, to feature a cover story about a life that was miraculously saved. Cheri Peters is truly an inspiring woman, and as you get to know her you will see why every day is a day to rejoice! Get to know this 3ABN program host better, and we think you'll begin "Celebrating Life With Cheri" (p. 6).

Our testimony this month brings home the fact that we never know who's watching this network in our own neighborhood. Find out how Jeff and Charletta Doerr discovered 3ABN and began "Worshipping in Truth" (p. 16).

And finally, don't miss out on the holiday "Thumbprint Cookies" (p.22) from the Micheff Sisters! It's all right here in your 3ABN World!

Dear Family,

"Lift up the trumpet, and loud let it ring: Jesus is coming again!"

That was the theme song of radio pioneer, H. M. S. Richards, the first Seventh-day Adventist to use the airwaves to proclaim the three angels' messages of Revelation 14.

I believe the message that Jesus is coming again must always be at the forefront of our teaching and preaching! With 11 satellites, 3ABN is the most powerful tool we have to proclaim that Christ's return will be literal (Acts 1:11), visible (Revelation 1:7), audible (1 Thessalonians 4:16), and glorious (Matthew 16:27)!

Friends, the people of this world desperately need to prepare for this event! The Bible is clear: Those in Babylon (false religions teaching error) are being very directly called out (Revelation 18:4), and those who are honest at heart are responding. In addition, those who are already believers, and part of God's remnant church, vitally need continued study and spiritual growth.

We know that Satan would lull us to sleep, so we must continue to study, pray, and draw closer to Jesus. Watching 3ABN Television, or listening to 3ABN Radio, will help us to keep our eyes on Him, on His ministry, and on heavenly things.

As this year draws to a close, we're making plans to reach out to even greater numbers of hurting souls. Each day we follow God's leading and step out in faith, trusting Him with all our needs.

Will you help us with these goals? The Lord promises that as we give, we will receive back in "good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over." Luke 6:38. Thank you for your love, your faithful prayers, and financial support of this ministry. God has big plans for 3ABN, and together we can accomplish much for Jesus!

Jim Gilley is the president of 3ABN.

Have you been blessed?

Have you been blessed by 3ABN? Or have you come to know the Lord Jesus Christ by watching or listening? We'd love to know!

Your testimony can make a difference in our readers' lives, so why not sit down and drop us a line? You can write to us at: 3ABN World, PO Box 220, West Frankfort, IL 62896. E-mail us at: mail@3abn.org.

VICTORIA, AUSTRALIA:

"Please find enclosed a donation for the 3ABN ministry. I have found a great blessing in listening to the great messages from the Bible by our great preachers. It is also inspiring to see the multitude of people being brought to Jesus by 3ABN. Thank you."

LATVIA [SENT TO 3ABN RUSSIA]:

"It is so hard to describe how happy I felt when I received your books. Holding the parcel in my hands, I felt like I was anointed by God. I could neither say a word, nor stir—it seemed to me that I was standing in the presence of God. My breathtaking experience continued as I began studying your books. I learn all I can about God from your literature. Now I am reading, praying, and writing you to express my gratitude. That I got in touch with you is a big miracle of God. I have already given your address to my sisters and friend. They are all willing to study the Bible as well. May God bless abundantly all who are involved in this difficult work! Praise Him! May the Lord reward you..."

VIA E-MAIL:

"I thank you for the great work that is being done in the Caribbean through 3ABN. Many lives are being changed, and it is viewed in many households by people of all beliefs. I remember going to a supermarket and overhearing a lady speaking to her friend. She mentioned that she watched 3ABN daily and said that her eating habits had changed, and that she enjoys the different programs. God's continual blessing on all of you, as you continue the good work. May God's name be praised."

ZIMBABWE [BY E-MAIL]:

"I am happy to tell you that since watching 3ABN, I have become a Sabbath-keeper! I have been a Christian all of my life, and have been concerned and often wondered why that fourth commandment was overlooked. It really is so clear in the Scriptures. Thank you!"

CHEYENNE, WYOMING:

"It was with great joy that I discovered that 3ABN had been added to the DISH Network family of channels. I had become so discouraged by the lack of anything worth watching that I had begun thinking about not having TV in my home. God has verily blessed you and your ministry, and has blessed us here in Cheyenne way beyond measure!"

IONE, CALIFORNIA:

"Thank you for your programming. It does a lot to build me up in Christ. Because I watched you and believed, I am now a member of a Seventh-day Adventist church. Thank you."

SHILLONG, MEGHALAYA, INDIA:

"God has chosen you to be an instrument for the salvation of souls. In our town nearly 20 people were baptized because of the truths they have learned from 3ABN. Two weeks ago a man who had been listening to 3ABN for six months finally came to our church. He was given Bible studies, was baptized, and is now a Seventh-day Adventist. Last Sabbath he brought his family. We also have a pastor of another faith coming to our Sabbath service. There are visitors from week to week coming because of your programs. May God be with you."

VIA E-MAIL:

"Since Sky Angel stopped carrying 3ABN we missed watching your network... We had DISH Network, but didn't realize they were carrying 3ABN. I e-mailed DISH Network and asked them how many signatures they would need to carry 3ABN, and they responded that we already had it! We kept trying to get it, but it flashed on and off. Finally they sent someone out, and they informed us that because we were without 3ABN for so long, there would be no charge for the [service] call or the new dish, and to enjoy! What a blessing! Praise God!"

CITRUS HEIGHTS, CALIFORNIA:

"I thank God for 3ABN. You all have led me back to the church and the truth. Even though I am still struggling, Jesus has given me strength to be happy where I am."

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

Celebrating Life with CHERI

Cheri Peters is the founder of True Step Ministries, and works primarily with at-risk teens. Visit her website at truestep.org.

Perhaps the first thing you might notice about Cheri Peters is that she smiles and laughs a lot. But the next thing you're sure to notice, if you talk to her for more than a minute or two, is that she'll be talking about recovery, and she'll be talking about God! But what gives her the ability to talk to addicts, alcoholics, abuse victims, and damaged people of all ages? Why is she able to almost instantly gain their trust?

We sat down with Cheri to learn more about her, and the story she tells us is heartbreaking. In fact, the details are far too tragic to put in print. She tells us that as she was raised by two teenaged drug-addicted parents, she knew she was not wanted. Her mother constantly told her that she had wanted to leave her at the hospital, and had tried to self-abort six different times during her pregnancy.

"My mom was only 14 years old when she had me," she says, "and I was her second child. She was so depressed, and my father beat her and drank. My household was absolutely horrendous."

Cheri tells of the most horrific forms of physical, sexual, and emotional abuse she had to endure throughout her childhood, and how at age 13 she was pregnant, on drugs, and living on the streets of Los Angeles, California.

"I remember the first time I took drugs," she recalls. "I thought to myself, I can live like this, and I don't care if anyone likes me. Drugs were empowering—and I stayed so high that most of the time I had no idea what was happening to me." Homeless, addicted, and broken, Cheri did whatever she had to in order to survive. As her drug addiction worsened, she became involved in major drug deals. Then at 23 she found herself staring down the barrel of a gun, wishing the man would pull the trigger and end her miserable life. What surprised her, she says, is she felt a strange, peaceful feeling. "It was the only time in my whole life that I felt so at peace! I thought, In a few minutes I will be dead. My first suicide attempt was when I was eight, but I hadn't succeeded. But now I had a gun in my face, and he wasn't going to miss. I totally relaxed, and he went crazy. He screamed at me, 'Are you nuts? I'm gonna kill you!' And I thought, Just pull the trigger! But to my amazement, he left! I was stunned, and thought, I don't wanna be here.

"I was 23 years old, and I was burned out. I had teeth missing. I was strung out on heroin, and I had to find someone to stop me from killing myself, so I went back to my mom's house—which was so crazy!"

The experience did not go well, but as she got up to leave, her mother handed her an envelope. Later, in the drug house, Cheri devised a plan to end it all, and as she walked into her room she saw the envelope lying on her bed. Fearing it was one more put-down from her mother, she opened it slowly.

"At first I thought it was my story," Cheri says. But soon she realized it was her mother's story instead! In fact, it so closely paralleled her own, she could hardly believe it. Her mother had suffered all the same abuse at the same age Cheri had. "And at the top of the third page it said, 'The only way I survived any of this was that I took out all my anger and hate on my second child—and I ruined her life.'

"For the first time, somebody had said something that sounded true. And I heard God say, 'Cheri, this was not about you at all. I love you, and I'll help you change your life.' At that moment I saw myself as I really was. I weighed 100 pounds, I was strung out, I had teeth missing, and nobody loved me, not even my parents. But God said, Celebrating Life in Recovery has quickly become one of the most viewed programs on 3ABN. Cheri's genuine and heartfelt approach to recovery brings hope to potential millions who watch her programs.

‘I have always loved you, and if you want Me to help you, I will help you.’

“I don’t know why I believed it, or got the courage to stand up and try to find somebody to let me do recovery at their house. I think the only reason I moved from that spot on the bed was because I thought, God doesn’t belong in this drug house! And I felt real protective of whatever experience I had just had.”

Cheri detoxed at the home of a Christian lady who lived six and a half hours away. “By the time I got there I was shaky, and irritable,” Cheri recalls, “and she answered the door and said, ‘You know what? I love you, and I’m glad you came.’”

“By then my skin was crawling, and I thought I was in hell, but she started teaching me about recovery. I was angry at her for flippantly saying, ‘I love you,’ so I told her every single horror story that had ever happened to me just to see if she would judge me. Later she told me that she had to constantly excuse herself and go into the other room where she knelt and asked God to give her love for this unlovely creature. She would say, ‘God, do not let me hurt this child,’ and then she would come out and ask me again to tell her what happened next. I talked to her for seven days straight, and I know God put me in the right place because I started trusting her.

“She started teaching me about the Bible, and about Mary Magdalene. I wept like a baby at the thought that Jesus would stand in front of a woman so guilty and say, ‘I have known you from your mother’s womb, and I know everything that’s happened to you. Don’t hurt yourself anymore.’ And I thought, How incredible is that?”

“She told me about the demoniac, and I laughed, because as she was telling me how ugly and filled with demons he was, beating up people, cutting on himself with stones, I thought, I dated that guy! And as she’s talking, in my mind I was thinking of every single abuser I had met, and I hoped that God would break all of his bones in a slow, torturous way! And even though the guy opens his mouth and curses Him out, Jesus hears his heartcry saying, I don’t want to be like this! And Jesus pulls the demons out and restored him to his right mind. I just cried, ‘I want to be restored to my right mind.’”

“From that point on, my healing began. God started moving me towards a place where I can tell someone that’s full of demons, that has been trashed since their very conception, that there’s a God that’s bigger than all that. That He can change all that, and that He can forgive and heal all that.

“As I prayed about giving my testimony for the first time, I felt God’s Spirit telling me, ‘Cheri, when you tell your story to someone else, it vindicates God. It’s all about God being big enough and being involved enough for lives to be changed.’ If we don’t tell our story, the world doesn’t believe that God can heal molested kids, suicidal people, depressed people, addicted people, or whatever category you wanna pick.

“I deal with people all the time now that are struggling with addictions and abuse of every sort. Somebody’s got to say out loud that there is an answer to all of this stuff—as heavy and as twisted as it is, God has the ability to untwist things.

“I go into prisons and people ask, ‘Aren’t you afraid?’ I’ll tell you what, I feel like those people are my family! I’m not afraid at all, and I can’t wait to tell them that God is bigger than all that, and that He will change their desires—which is huge! People have to hear it! They have to hear that the Holy Spirit has been given to us as a gift to strengthen and encourage us in recovery.”

Today Cheri Peters works with people all over the world through True Step Ministries, which she founded. She’s authored two bestselling books, Miracle From the Streets and God Is Crazy About You. When she’s not traveling, speaking, or working with at-risk teens, she enjoys her home in Idaho with her husband Brad, a teacher and musician. She also loves to spend time with her beautiful 18-year-old daughter Jaci.

Last year Cheri developed and began hosting a brand new program on 3ABN called Celebrating Life in Recovery. Now in its second season, it has quickly become one of the most watched programs on the network. It’s little wonder Cheri smiles so freely. In the words of Jesus, “Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.” John 8:36. ■

by Nikki Anderson

Some people are under the impression that 3ABN Radio is only a repeat of the audio portion of 3ABN Television programs. While we do take the very best from the television lineup for some of our programs, that's not all that 3ABN Radio has to offer. I thought I'd take this opportunity to give you an idea of just a few of the programs that our listeners enjoy.

Crossroads On 3ABN Radio is a 60-minute interview program featuring a different host from remote studios each weekday: Tuesdays are hosted by Atonte Myers in California; Wednesdays by Pastor Richard O'Fill in Florida; Thursdays by Greg and Lesa Budd in Wisconsin; and Fridays by Cheri Peters in Idaho. With a vast array of interesting guests from across the United States, a variety of topics are discussed from many different perspectives. On Mondays our listeners are treated to a simulcast of Housecalls from 3ABN Television, featuring Pastors John Lomacang and John Stanton. Topics include the baptism of the Holy Spirit, abuse, grief, salvation, recovery, and many others.

The Bible In Living Sound is a series of 30-minute programs highlighting Bible stories from the Old Testament, along with the life and times of Jesus and the Apostle Paul's life and travels from the New Testament. These stories are treasured old favorites for some, but a new experience for others. With dramatic music and vivid explanations of stories and lessons from the Bible, this program is a favorite of young and old alike.

Women At the Well is a Bible study for women. With two female cohosts and one female guest on each program, listeners "eavesdrop" on an informal conversation between the three. This informative study is punctuated with laughter and the joy that can be found only when friends gather together to study God's Word. (And even the men like it!)

Freedom's Ring is hosted by attorney Alan Reinach. This 15-minute program highlights what is going on in the world of religious liberty. Alan usually has a guest with him to discuss, with great candor, the current headlines and events affecting church and state relationships.

Musical Meditations offers an hour of inspirational music, Bible questions, health tips, and much more, presented by Jay Christian, our 3ABN Radio production manager. Young and old alike respond to Jay's selections of songs and the interesting information he provides.

A NEW WAY TO LISTEN!

If you have a smartphone, a PDA, or a Blackberry, you may be able to listen to 3ABN radio on your cell phone! Check out our website for details, and while you're there, check to see if there are any 3ABN Radio affiliates near you.

CARING FOR COLOMBIA

by John Dinzey

There we were, waiting our turn to see the customs officer in Miami, Florida. The lines were long, but eventually it was our turn.

“Good afternoon!” we said. The customs officer had a pleasant look on his face as he greeted us back.

“So what country are you coming from?” he asked.

“Colombia,” I responded.

He looked at us with a sly smile, “What were you doing in Colombia?”

My answer seemed to take the customs officer by surprise. “We had meetings there with the church officials from the Seventh-day Adventist Church.”

“Well, that’s not what most people go there for,” he answered somewhat skeptically.

Unfortunately, Colombia is still considered one of the leading producers of cocaine in the world. This highly addictive drug has been linked to serious long-term medical complications including kidney failure, strokes, and heart attacks. Even before my wife Idalia and I went there, we heard comments such as, “You’re going where? That’s a dangerous place, so you should be careful! It’s the drug capital of the world, you know!”

But Colombia is also home to more than 44 million people that need the Lord Jesus Christ.

Our trip took us to Medellin, the second largest city in the country. It’s also known as the City of Eternal Spring, due to its comfortable climate, which is not too hot, and not too cold. It’s home to nearly 2.5 million people, and is surrounded by mountains which were quite impressive to look at—considering that southern Illinois, where we live, is rather flat!

I’m happy to report that God blessed our efforts in Medellin, and we had a very positive response from church officials. We were also able to bring four satellite receivers: two of which will be used by cable companies in Medellin, and the other two for cable companies in Bogotá, the capital, with a population of nearly seven million people. In fact, Colombia remains as the country that has the most 3ABN Latino cable coverage in the world! As I write this article, we have 120 cable companies there rebroadcasting God’s message of hope!

During our trip we met Jorge Luis Vega. He says he watches 3ABN Latino every day, and that it has been a tremendous blessing to him and his family. But the Lord has also used Jorge to bring 3ABN Latino to half the city of Medellin by using the audio portion of our television signal and rebroadcasting it on a local radio station!

“My dream is to reach the whole city of Medellin with this radio station,” he says emphatically. And we believe that this is one request that the Lord will answer soon, because Jorge wants to bring the everlasting gospel to his city.

In conclusion, I bring you an update regarding our friend Walter from Cali, Colombia. You may remember we shared his story in a previous issue of 3ABN World. Before becoming a Christian, Walter was a gang leader who used drugs and terrorized his neighborhood. People were afraid of him, but God has a way of reaching those who we think are unreachable.

Walter found 3ABN Latino as he flipped from one channel to another, and began watching El Joven de Hoy (“Today’s Youth”), the Spanish adaptation of the English program Teen Pathways. That was the beginning of his new life, and soon he was baptized and became active in the Seventh-day Adventist church. Now I can tell you that Walter has decided to go to college to become a pastor. Wow! Praise the Lord. Only He can make such a wonderful change in a person’s life.

God truly cares about the great nation of Colombia. Behind the scenes He is doing great and mighty things to reach the millions of people who live there. Please join us in prayer as we ask the Lord to open even more opportunities to reach the people of that great nation. ■

John Dinzey is the general manager for 3ABN Latino Network. He also works in Pastoral Ministries.

Memory verse

"And when they were come into the house, [the wise men] saw the young Child with Mary His mother, and fell down, and worshipped Him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh." Matthew 2:11 (KJV)

Hi Kids,

This is the time of the year when people give gifts to their friends and family. But sometimes gifts come to us in unique and special ways. Sally, the little dog in the picture, was dumped off at my friend Kim's restaurant. It was so hungry, and it needed some medical attention. Kim took Sally home and gave her the love and care she needed, and now she lives in a beautiful, loving home with her own bed. She even has some doggie clothes! Why don't you stop and think of a gift that God has given you this holiday season.

Love,

Tammy

WORSHIPPING IN TRUTH

“Those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.” JOHN 4:24

Jeff and Charletta Doerr have always lived in and around the small village of Vergennes, Illinois, and their solid family values and work ethic have served them well as they raised their three children. Jeff has worked for many years for the Illinois Department of Transportation and for his family’s auction business, started by his father over 50 years ago. Jeff has owned it for the past 15 years, and conducts a vast variety of auctions, including real estate; on-sight auctions, consisting of antiques, estates, business liquidation; as well as a weekly consignment auction. (When asked what he does with his spare time, he says he likes to farm!)

Charletta, on the other hand, has enjoyed her days as a mother, and now a grandmother. She says her greatest delight is babysitting her two adorable grandchildren. This delightful couple has always attended church—Jeff was raised in the Methodist and Charletta in the Baptist faith—but when they married, they began attending both churches.

But throughout her life Charletta felt something was always stirring inside her. “It seemed like I always would come up with questions that the pastors couldn’t answer to my satisfaction,” she says. “It also seemed like the church services were changing quite a bit. Sermons were growing shorter and shorter, and there was more and more music, but I wasn’t comfortable with some of it because it seemed like it was so much like pop music.” But one thing bothered her more than anything else. “I began to notice that nobody brought their Bibles to church anymore,” she says, “and that upset me a lot!”

A few years ago they began remodeling their home, and as they added to the roofline, their satellite dish had to come down.

“That started me thinking,” Charletta says. “I was noticing the negative effects of satellite television on my children, and I really didn’t want them watching all that trash. Regular TV was bad enough, but it seemed like now we had more junk than ever! My kids were never allowed to watch horror movies or anything dealing with witchcraft. I think the Lord just kept laying things on my heart, and He directed me, because when the satellite dish came down, I saw my opportunity, and I put my foot down. I just knew I didn’t want this stuff in my house anymore!”

Jeff says that the children didn’t like losing all the extra channels much, but he supported his wife’s decision by putting up only a TV antenna for local stations. Little did they know how much this decision would affect their lives!

Jeff says, “I’m an early to bed and early to rise kind of guy, but Charletta would stay up later, and she was the one that found 3ABN on a local station. I remember she started talking about it when we took our walks in the evening. She was telling me about things in the book of Revelation, and all sorts of other crazy stuff, and I’d never heard any of it before. I actually got a little concerned about it, so I stayed up with her a few times to see it for myself.”

What Jeff and Charletta were hearing was the preaching of Pastor Lyle Albrecht, an evangelist whose program, Revelation Insights, has helped many thousands of people to better understand the prophecies of Daniel and Revelation.

“Our preachers would tell us, ‘Don’t worry about Revelation. Don’t study that!’” Charletta says. “But what I was hearing and seeing on 3ABN got my attention. I noticed that the pre-ping on Sundays. “I had no clue that Saturday was the true day of worship, and it was such a shock when I realized that. The evangelists on 3ABN showed me text after text in the Bible—it was impossible to deny that God wanted me to worship on Sabbath—the seventh day of the week. The Ten Commandments were plainly telling me that! Now I felt that every time I heard a Bible text in church, it seemed to be taken out of context. All my life I just figured that since I wasn’t educated in theology, the Bible was something I couldn’t really understand. But now I did understand it, and I felt so uncomfortable sitting there I finally told Jeff that I couldn’t keep going to church on the wrong day of the week.”

“It was definitely upsetting,” Jeff admits. “I was trying to be understanding, but the first few times I went to church by myself I was upset and frustrated. Here I was in the church we’d attended for all these years, and now it’s not good enough for her? But the Lord gives us things in a time when we can handle it. I had more of an open mind than I did six months before. The Bible explains itself, if we read it through. The more Charletta and I studied this subject, the clearer it became that we should worship the Lord on the Sabbath, just like Jesus did.

“After several months of this, I finally got on the computer and e-mailed 3ABN asking for a list of Seventh-day Adventist churches in our area. I got back a nice note from Grace Yost in the Pastoral Ministries Department, inviting me to come to her church in Thompsonville.”

After trying some churches that were closer, Jeff and Charletta began attending the Thompsonville Seventh-day Adventist Church. The first thing they say they noticed was that the sermons were very different from the ones they were accustomed to. “We’d listen and then we’d drive home, and the whole time we’d be discussing what we’d heard during the worship service,” Jeff says.

“And what I noticed was that they all had their Bibles and read along with the pastor,” Charletta adds. “I also noticed that they were modest in their dress, and that they kept the Sabbath holy. We had been in the habit of going out to restaurants to eat after the Sunday service, but now we noticed that Seventh-day Adventists chose not to do this.”

Although their family was initially disapproving of their newfound beliefs, they have seen how Jeff and Charletta’s lives have changed. One of the more difficult things for them to accept, though, was the closing of the family auction business on Sabbath. Jeff says that although Saturdays were not the busiest days for auctions, it was always considered a good workday. “But since I’ve closed on Sabbath, it’s never hurt our business,” he adds. “In fact, it’s stronger than ever!”

“We study the Bible more than ever now, and we want to change according to the Bible,” Charletta adds.

“The Bible is our manual for senters were dressed very conservatively and appropriately, and that they didn’t wear diamonds and jewelry. They even had modest hairstyles. Most of the evangelists we’d come across on TV over the years left a bad taste in our mouths, but this was a totally different atmosphere. They made the Bible super simple, and it all fit together. The more I was learning, the more I wanted to learn, so I got my Bible, and I’d sit there with my highlighter, looking up the texts.”

Finally, after six months or so, Charletta began to feel increasingly uncomfortable worship-

A GENERATION OF YOUTH FOR CHRIST

Once again 3ABN is happy to bring you coverage from the 2007 GYC conference to be held in Minneapolis, Minnesota. From its humble beginnings, this grass roots organization of young adults has sought to experience revival and reformation, and to work hand in hand with the Seventh-day Adventist Church in taking the three angels' messages of Revelation 14 to the world in this generation.

Formerly known as the General Youth Conference, Generation of Youth for Christ adopted a new name this year that reflects its mission more closely. The heartbeat of GYC is contained in their goals, which include, among others, a deep respect for Scripture, a quest for biblical holiness, a vibrant worship experience, and a passion for lost souls. They also strive for humility and cordiality as they seek to clarify, articulate, and defend the biblical teachings of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

One of the most remarkable things we've seen over the years is the deep longing to serve the Lord that is awakened in each young adult who attends. Jon Kim, a part-time youth pastor from Chicago, Illinois, recalls something he heard at a recent conference. "A speaker said, 'Serving God is the most noble thing we can do with our lives.' I graduated as a graphic designer, but it just doesn't appeal to me anymore. I don't want to wait until I'm old and dissatisfied with my life to realize it's too late," he adds, noting that he now finds his work as a youth pastor incredibly fulfilling.

Abigail Koo experienced a life-changing conversion during the 2003 GYC conference. When she returned to Indiana University, she lost all her so-called social friends. But God blessed her with new responsibilities and friends as she became president of campus ministries at the university. "Today, I know who I am and where I'm going. I know that we don't wrestle against flesh and blood. I've struggled through some difficult trials, so I feel I can empathize with the students. I believe that if God could change my life, He can change theirs, too."

GYC hopes to instill a deep sense of God's call for their life, and tries to provide them with effective approaches for communicating this understanding to others. They also teach them practical methods for witnessing, and introduce them to other dedicated young adults and youth-oriented ministries.

Each year their numbers have grown dramatically. But nothing is more impressive than the sight of thousands of young people taking to the streets to share the gospel with those who live in the host cities!

This year's theme, "Be," succinctly expresses the desire to "Be transformed by the renewing of your mind." Romans 12:2. Although registration is closed by now, we encourage you to watch this year's GYC conference on 3ABN. And if you're a young adult, consider attending next year's conference to be held from December 16–21 in San Jose, California.

"We've never been so close to the Second Coming," says Miguel Serrano. "The Bible prophesies that young people will dream dreams and see visions, according to Joel 2:28. GYC is helping us to see the vision and fulfill the dream." ■

by the Micheff Sisters

The Micheff Sisters appear regularly on 3ABN Today and are also the food editors for Vibrant Life magazine. Special thanks to Vibrant Life magazine for permission to reprint this recipe. Visit them online at vibrantlife.com.

The holiday season for us is filled with many warm and wonderful childhood memories, from the carols we would sing to the smells coming from the oven! Mom and Dad taught us early on that the joy was in the giving, and not in the getting!

We would make homemade cinnamon rolls, fruit breads, and cookies to pass out to neighbors and friends. Mom always let us help with the baking, and we took turns pouring in the ingredients, stirring, mixing—and yes, we all loved licking the bowl! It was fun putting the goodies on paper plates and decorating our little presents with ribbons and bows.

Our family especially loved the visits to the homes where the needs were the greatest. How exciting it was when we would deliver our homemade treasures! Seeing the heartfelt appreciation was so thrilling, we couldn't wait to make more cookies and do it all again!

We'd like to share our special recipe for "Thumbprint Cookies," and we suggest you make a double batch and experience the blessing of sharing with others—not just for the holidays, but all year long!

SPREAD A LITTLE HOLIDAY CHEER!

THUMBPRINT COOKIES

INGREDIENTS

- 1 c. Florida Crystals
- ½ c. soy margarine
- ½ c. Better Than Milk powder (vanilla flavored)
- 1 t. Rumford Baking Powder
- ½ c. water
- 2 c. white whole wheat flour
- ½ t. almond or vanilla extract
- fruit jam or jelly

INSTRUCTIONS

Mix all ingredients together and drop by tablespoon onto a cookie sheet. Bake at 350°F for 8–10 minutes or until lightly golden. While still warm, press lightly in the center of each cookie with your thumb or a spoon and fill the center with your favorite fruit jam.

Yields: 16 cookies.

We suggest using a variety of fruit jams such as apricot, blueberry, raspberry, blackberry, etc. The multiple colors make an attractive display on your serving platter. You might want to make a double batch though, as they tend to disappear quickly! They also store very well in the freezer. Enjoy!

Batallas de Fe • Diariamente enfrentamos batallas internas que pueden llegar en la forma de amigos, colegas, seres queridos, familiares, finanzas, televisión, radio, libros, revistas, etc. Nuestras mentes están expuestas a mensajes que batallan en contra del Espíritu Santo. Teorías de la Nueva Era que denuncian a Cristo están en todas partes. 3ABN Latino con su serie contemporánea y relevante Batallas de Fe, desea abrir nuestros ojos a los engaños de Satanás, y nos da las herramientas necesarias para ganar la victoria en nuestro caminar con Dios. César y Carmen Carmona, los cuales han sido rescatados del Espiritismo y ocultismo, traen vislumbres a este programa de suma importancia para nuestros tiempos.

César y Carmen Carmona • Batallas de Fe

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

by J. D. Quinn

The smell of spring was in the air, fresh and green, as morning dawned on the Quinn Farm in Texas. Baa, baa, baa, a ewe bleated for her newborn lamb. Baa, baa, the baby responded. The constant cry of communication, multiplied by hundreds of pairs of sheep, filled the air with a near-deafening sound during lambing season.

There was always plenty to be done on our farm, and it was my morning duty to check the flock. A ewe might need assistance in bringing her newborn into the world, another might need a cut or sore treated. I relish and remember it all as though it were yesterday, because those were some of the most enjoyable experiences of my life.

These pleasant memories resurfaced the other day when I spoke to Richard. He had wandered away from his church congregation, and now he felt alone and outside the fold. “Will Jesus take me back?” he wondered.

I opened my Bible and began describing the love of our Good Shepherd. “What do you think? If a man owns a hundred sheep, and one of them wanders away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off? And if he finds it, I tell you the truth, he is happier about that one sheep than about the ninety-nine that did not wander off. In the same way your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should be lost.” Matthew 18:12–14, NIV.

I paused for a moment, then asked, “Do you see how much Jesus loves you, Richard?”

Silence followed, broken by his weeping. Oh, thank You, Holy Spirit, I thought, Thank you for doing that which only You can do—touching the very core of our being!

As a young shepherd on the farm, I spent many hours searching for ewes and their lambs. Preferring privacy before and after giving birth, the mamas would run off and hide, not realizing their separation from the flock put them and their offspring in danger of being attacked by wild dogs and coyotes. But our family had a special call we used to get our livestock’s attention. They associated this call with food and safety, so when I called within their range of hearing, they would usually answer. But it wasn’t always a happy ending. Some ewes died giving birth. In their time of need they had hidden from their shepherd. I still sought after them, and I would retrieve their young and bring them into the fold. But it was difficult to get another ewe to suckle an orphaned lamb, and often I would bottle feed as many as twenty lambs or more! Now I was not only their shepherd, I was their adoptive parent as well.

“Richard, Jesus said, ‘I am the good Shepherd; and I know My sheep, and am known by My own.... My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.’” John 10:14, 27, NKJV. He wants you to read your Bible and listen for His voice of guidance.

“He never leaves us or forsakes us, and He passionately pursues us. He protects us, He adopts us, He feeds us, and He cares for us.”

My story consoled Richard greatly, and I was thankful that God had used me as a shepherd. My farm today is different—it’s spiritual, not physical. I thank Jesus for the experience I had as a youth dealing with real sheep and their lambs, because I know what it’s like to physically carry a lamb back to camp. I know what it’s like to nurture and mend their wounds. And I know what it’s like to aid the lost and dying, bringing them comfort and peace.

“Now may the God of peace who brought up our Lord Jesus from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you complete in every good work to do His will, working in you what is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever.” Hebrews 13:20–21, NKJV. ■ life,” Jeff interjects. “Like with everything we buy, we get an owner’s manual. God is our Creator, and He gave us His Word to live by. It scares me that so many people in church never even open their Bibles!”

Charletta then explains herself this way, “I’m a big fan of puzzles. I love to put them of our cameras! As potential millions of viewers around the world watched, they took their stand for Jesus and for the truth they had discovered in the Bible. They asked Him to forgive their sins, and they joined the body of Christ.

“Since then, a lot of people have come up to us and said, ‘I saw you baptized on 3ABN,’” Jeff comments, noting that he believes there are thousands of his neighbors who secretly watch 3ABN. “I guess our baptism was more of a witness than we thought! I think there are many who are afraid to stand out from the crowd, because it’s difficult to leave the church you were raised in or have such strong ties to. We live for Jesus and we walk closely with our Lord.”

Charletta sums it up well when she says, “I hope and pray that somehow many will be fortunate enough to come across 3ABN, get out their Bibles, and see for themselves what the truth really is.” ■ keep the Sabbath, attitude, and temptation. They are presented by Pastor Richard O’Ffill in a 15-minute program, with his kind and loving approach to dealing with these and other important subjects.

There are several programs that are too old for 3ABN Television to air, but whose messages are timeless. Using only the audio portion from those “old programs,” they become “new programs” to our listening audience. Occasionally someone will tell us they enjoy some programs even more when hearing them on the radio.

The radio staff and our affiliates pray that our listeners continue to be blessed by the gospel message heard each day on 3ABN Radio Network. ■
