NEW BEGINNINGS

We are now well into 2008 and I have yet to share this year's theme with you. Last year's theme was "The Year of Victory!" I trust that it was a year of victory for you, too. A year when you turned your back on those things that hinder you in your Christian growth and pressed toward the mark. A year when you turned away from the "sin which so easily besets you" (Hebrews 12:1) and allowed the Lord Jesus Christ to give you the victory that you have longed for in your life.

So many of you have written and called to tell us how 3ABN has helped you in your victorious life in Christ. By spending more time watching Christ-centered programming, instead of the crime and violence on regular television, you have seen a change in your thinking process, and you have learned to abhor those things which you once loved! That is wonderful, because in addition to bringing the lost to Christ, we also purpose to bring you programming that will stimulate Christian growth.

Now the theme for 2008—"New Beginnings." Isaiah 43:19 says, "Behold, I will do a new thing." The Lord calls us, not to cling to an experience of the past (verse 18), but to have a new experience with Him. Our founder, Danny Shelton, shared the process he went through for this year's theme on a recent 3ABN Today Live. He told us that he first thought of 2008 as the year of "New Beginnings," but then he thought of "We Are Nearing Home," and even the theme of "Commitment" was suggested. But after someone else mentioned "New Beginnings," he went back to that choice.

Let's begin again with Jesus! And let's commit 3ABN to a "New Beginning," purposing in our heart to do all that we can to see the great three angels' messages of Revelation 14 go around the world with power!

"To God be the glory. Great things He hath done!"
(And is doing!)

Keep on keeping on with Jesus,

Jim Gilley is 3ABN's president.

mercy, and for the freedom I have found through learning the truth. God bless you all!"

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

"I was raised in church from birth, but when I became a teen, I stopped going to church. I believed in God, but that was about it. My life then spiraled out of control for several years in which I did things that were not in accordance with the will of God. Then one day this Christian channel came up on my TV. God brought 3ABN to me! Recently I was moved to the Nebraska State Penitentiary, where I am not allowed to have a TV in my dorm. I miss my 3ABN family very much."

EAST CARONDELET, ILLINOIS

"I had an accident last April, and I flipped end over end three times, but walked out of that van with just a small cut on my knuckle. The policeman said no one ever had a crash like that and walked away from it. I believe the enemy tried to kill me, but God saved me! In the last three years I have learned some truths from 3ABN that I never knew for the first 47 years of my life. I just want to say that 3ABN has literally changed my life."

JEBEL ALI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES

"Many thanks for your wonderful programs that allow ordinary people like me to have this great privilege of growing in strength in our Christian walk."

KINGSTON, JAMAICA

"Due to my living situation, I passed through many different types of churches. By the time I was 11 years old I had started questioning God's existence, and by age 14, I had stopped believing in Jesus. At age 18, I was agnostic, and I felt lost and cold at times—just really empty, you know? So I would resort to food. I overate to fill out the holes in my heart. Other problems were also there for me to face. I basically had no family, since my father was murdered, and my mother migrated when I was age 2. But something happened on December 22, 2007. I remember it was about 1:00 a.m. I had been watching 3ABN all night, and the person I spent Christmas with had been speaking to me about God, and how He worked in his life. I have no idea what happened. I felt spiritually cold, but suddenly I felt warmth. I had no meaning to life, but at that point it all changed. Then everywhere I heard people mentioning about Jesus knocking on the door to your heart, and I finally began to hear the faint knocks, which were more and more audible. From then until now I have watched 3ABN 24/7! The programmes are refreshing, and everything in my life seems bigger and better. Now I feel spiritually hungry! Literally hungry—like I need the Word of God! I feel anxious about warning others about the end time, for we are in it! All I wanna say is, God's richest blessings to all the workers of Three Angels Broadcasting Network, and may God help you to continue providing the truth about Him to all the world, so that those who are spiritually cold, like I was, will find comfort and peace in Him!"

VIA E-MAIL

"Just wanted to encourage folks that may not support 3ABN to do so. The Lord will bless you abundantly if you do. Claim God's promises. . . . Try it, you might like it. God's richest blessings to all."

FAIRFIELD, CALIFORNIA

"Thank you for broadcasting Christ's message 24 hours a day. I have been a Christian for a quite long time, but your broadcasting renews my heart, my soul, and my strength with the love of Jesus Christ. I had been only thinking of my church and myself, forgetting to spread the good news of Jesus Christ! 3ABN not only teaches me the importance of the Bible itself, but also the appropriate Christian lifestyle. This includes being totally alcohol-free and having a healthy vegetarian diet. How important it is to spread the gospel to the world without any infomercials. I pray for your good ministry to be continued forever and forever!" ■

A GATEKEEPER'S CALLING

MOLLIE STEENSON'S BUSY life as 3ABN's General Manager requires great stamina and inner strength. It also requires spiritual strength that comes from the Lord's guidance and reliance upon Him in all things. But how did Mollie come to know the Lord, and ters and brother and I attended church every Sunday. We belonged to a little Church of Christ with about 20 members in northern Alabama, that had electricity, but no indoor plumbing." A smile crosses her face, and she has a faraway look in her eyes.

"When I was around 9, I had a true experience with the Lord, but sadly, I didn't hold onto it. I was a good girl, and for the next 17 years I did right things, but I didn't have that close relationship with Jesus. I married my husband Hal, who was a Southern Baptist, and I became a Sunday School teacher. But I'll never forget the Monday morning when my friend Diane came by my desk.

"Mollie," she said, 'I got born again last night!'

"Oh Diane, you get "saved" every summer!' I said, and it was true. Every summer she would go to a revival and get religious.

how has she become the well-loved and respected general manager of Three Angels Broadcasting Network? We sat down with her recently to find out.

"My earliest memories of church are good ones. My mother saw to it that my sis-

"He said, '...The day will come when you won't be able to stand it any longer. When that day comes, there will be a place for you at 3ABN.'"

Along with her duties as general manager, Mollie is a frequent host on 3ABN Today.

But by the end of the week she was running the bars again!

"But Mollie, you don't understand,' she replied, 'I made Jesus Christ the Lord of my life!' I felt my heart leap as she explained her true conversion. I discovered what had been missing in my life. You see, I didn't smoke, I didn't drink, and I didn't cuss or run with wild men. I was a good wife and mother, but something was missing! I didn't have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. There, sitting in my office, the convicting power of God came into my life. I went into the ladies' room, and on that day, April 19, 1976, I got on my knees and asked Jesus to take control of my life! Seven months later, my husband Hal had an incredible conversion experience himself, and within two years we were in Lakeland, Florida, where he attended a Bible college."

In 1981, Hal and Mollie moved to southern Illinois and started a church in the basement of their house. Because of their gifted teaching and preaching, their church grew rapidly, becoming one of the largest in the area—complete with a Christian school and television ministry.

"That's when we met Danny Shelton," she says. "He did a lot of carpentry work for us as we built and furnished our new church."

Their friendship was instrumental when Danny was impressed to "build a television station that would reach the world." Hal's encouraging promise to donate his church's television equipment bolstered Danny's faith. It was proof that where God guides, He provides!

Through the early years of 3ABN's ministry, they remained close, and both ministries thrived. But in 1995, Mollie faced a major crisis in her life.

“I believe all of us here at 3ABN are called to be gatekeepers for the Lord.”

“It was devastating to watch the man I loved fall from the peak of success and be shunned by the very people we thought were our best friends,” she says. “We had been a team. For 14 years we had co-pastored the church we had established. Our church was our family, and when Hal was no longer able to carry out pastoral duties because of his addictive illness, the church people rejected and shunned him instead of helping him when he was down.

“For three months I continued in administration at the church and school that we built. It was during this time of trouble that Danny came to me and he said, ‘The day will come when they won’t want you in church anymore. The day will come when you won’t be able to stand it any longer. When that day comes, there will be a place for you at 3ABN.’”

Sadly, it wasn’t long before that prediction came true, and Mollie was asked to relinquish her responsibilities. She recalls her feelings that day: “When I walked away from my church,

I left behind my identity, my job, my place of worship, my church family, and so many of those whom I had called my best friends. Except for the Lord, my whole support system just fell right out from under me! In a matter of months, Hal and I were separated and later divorced. We had just built a beautiful new home, which I had to sell, too.”

Incredibly, she now faced changing jobs, changing churches, moving, a divorce, and on top of it all, a major health crisis herself. “But as I walked through these very difficult times, I was always acutely aware that God’s grace was surrounding me and enabling me to continue in His love.”

Mollie began working at 3ABN in September of 1995, at first answering correspondence and working in the mail room. After a year and a half, she was promoted to president’s assistant and office manager. “At the same time, I was offered an associate pastor position in a local church with a nice salary, but the Lord strongly impressed my heart that I needed to be at 3ABN,” she recalls.

Then, in late 1997, Hal had a deep longing to get his life right with the Lord. “He had a real heart change,” Mollie says, “and I knew it was time for us to get back together.” After remarrying, Hal and Mollie felt the prompting of the Holy Spirit to study the Bible more deeply. As they listened to the teachings on 3ABN, their hearts were stirred.

“I took it slowly when studying the new truths presented by the Seventh-day Adventists,” Mollie says. “I was a truth seeker, and I remember praying ‘Oh Father, please bring me to the light! I know there are areas of misunderstanding in my life, and I know that there are areas of error.’ I think God honored my request for the truth by bringing me to 3ABN. I think He was drawing me out of darkness and into the light. I just had to know that God, not man, was bringing me into new truth.

“I began attending the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and it was very different from what I was accustomed to. But people loved me into this church. I remember missing the worship experience of my previous church, but there was a calmness and a reverence here that I hadn’t felt anywhere else. It took nearly three years to check everything out. I wanted to make the decision for all the right reasons. As I studied, it became more and more apparent what God desired for me.

“On December 25, 1999, my husband, my son, and I were baptized together and joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church,” Mollie says. “I’ve been teaching Sabbath School ever since I came into the church, and because I’ve had to study to present the material, I’ve learned so much about the truths of the Bible, as well as Sister White’s writings.”

When asked about her role as 3ABN’s general manager, Mollie shares a recent story that illustrates the great responsibilities God has placed on us as a ministry.

“I received an e-mail from a retired Seventh-day Adventist pastor, who had met another minister and his wife. He said that when he introduced himself as an Adventist pastor, the other man’s wife became excited and said, ‘Oh! 3ABN!’

“I realized that many people around the world think of 3ABN when they hear the word ‘Adventist,’ and this places a huge responsibility on each of us, calling us to a higher standard of excellence in every aspect, because ultimately God is holding us accountable!

“I take the role He has given me in this ministry very seriously, because I believe all of us here at 3ABN are called to be gatekeepers for the Lord. It is our duty to proclaim the

There is nothing I love more than praise reports! Here are some recent comments from our listeners:

“Hiya! I am pleased to tell you that my wife and I have just been baptized and become members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. My searching for truth started way back in 2004. Praise God!”

MIKE

“I really enjoy listening to 3ABN Radio at work on my computer. . . . Thank you for everything 3ABN does all over the world. God bless 3ABN!”

LINDA

“I was at a meeting a few weeks ago, and when I mentioned that we have the low-power radio station, a minister from another denomination stated, ‘It is the best station in town.’ We hear about others that are listening, too!”

LEON MAKOVICKA, OWNER
KRFL-LP, 107.9 FM
FULTON, MISSOURI

“I usually listen to 3ABN Radio on my computer while I am dressing, etc., in the mornings. . . . I am really blessed as I listen. Thanks.”

VIRGINIA

From an internal memo: “A listener heard the On The Road #370 program today on WDQN 95.9 FM in DuQuoin, Illinois, and wanted to order a copy of it. ‘What a wonderful message!’ she said. (The speaker is Jerry Arnold, and the title of his talk is, ‘How to Walk in the Spirit.’)”

“We truly appreciate being able to listen online. Thank you so much for your ministry. P.S. We just started listening last week. We love it!”

CYNDEE

“I listen over the Internet. I am glad to be able to get the TV, Radio, and the Latino programs! A couple in my church gave me a computer so I could get 3ABN. It is such a blessing. I enjoy the testimonies in the 3ABN World magazine each month. Thank you for your ministry.”

VALERIE

In a letter from a radio affiliate station in Australia: “We consider it a privilege to be able to broadcast 3ABN to our local population. We have already had two baptisms resulting from the radio, and we know that there are many who regularly listen to it.”

“We just recently baptized two people who came into the church because of the radio station.”

JIM HAMMER, STATION MANAGER
WNAR-LP, 100.3 FM
ARCADE, NEW YORK

From an internal memo: “Tina called from Erie, Pennsylvania, to say how much she liked the programming she heard on WXNM-LP 95.9 FM. She was especially impressed with the health message. She told me, ‘You Adventists have it right on with the health message, and right on with the Bible!’ She is a pharmacist and her husband is a physician.”

I hope you enjoyed reading these. From time to time I like to let you know that the hard work and dedication of our affiliates is really having an impact in their corners of the world.

Colossians 1:10–12 (NKJV) says: “That you may walk worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing Him, being fruitful in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God; strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power, for all patience and longsuffering with joy; giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light.”

We’d love to hear from more of you!

Cable Blackout!

Was it odd—or was it God?

by John Dinzey

I am writing this article from Fresnillo, in the state of Zacatecas, Mexico. It's the second day of an evangelistic campaign, and my heart is so full, I just have to tell you the wonderful things God has done!

We met David and Blanca in May of 2007. They drove about six hours to be a part of 3ABN they felt the Lord prompting them to support this ministry.

They called us a couple of months later, after their church agreed to invite us. They asked me to preach in their church in the evenings and tape testimonies and visit cable companies during the day. But the Lord had other plans.

Eventually, the whole church district got involved, and someone inquired about renting the local convention center. When asked what kind of event they were planning, they responded that their goal was to benefit the community and to preach the gospel. Much to their surprise, not only were the dates available, but the owner of the convention center told them that he would let them use the convention center free of charge!

The members of the Estación Seventh-day Adventist Church were elated! This was the first time they'd attempted to organize an event at the convention center. Their church could only seat three hundred people, but the convention center could seat several thousand!

"Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could tape this evangelistic series to air later on 3ABN Latino?" my wife Idalia asked.

"It certainly would," I answered, "but unfortunately, our 3ABN production staff is shooting another event, and I don't have a crew to send to Mexico."

Meanwhile, David and Blanca talked to their church to see if there was any interest in buying airtime on a local radio station to broadcast the meetings live. They agreed, even though it would be the first time any local Seventh-day Adventist church in Mexico had done that.

To their surprise, the radio station manager said, "I really appreciate what your church has done for our community, so I will offer you the chance to air this live event on our TV channel for the same price as airing it on our radio station. Which would you prefer, radio or TV?"

"Can you believe it?" David exclaimed. "God is so good! He's opened another door in our community of Fresnillo. They're willing to come in with their TV equipment and air this series for only $250 a night!"

As plans continued to develop, the local church pastor, Moises Zalazar, asked his members, "Why don't we organize a parade to promote this series in our community?"

This was another first, and amazingly, the city approved the parade! It was planned for the opening day of the evangelistic series, and there was plenty of excitement in the air as 50 or 60 cars, a bus, and a large truck were decorated with balloons and signs to announce the series. The local people came out in droves to see what was going on. It was incredible!

Last night about two hundred visitors came, in addition to all the local church members. But that's not all. Something interesting happened with the local cable company carrying our programs.

Two hours before our evangelistic series was to air, all the other cable channels were mysteriously knocked off-line. And they remained off-line until a few minutes before the evangelistic series ended for the night!

Based on what God has done thus far, we're anticipating that He's going to do great things during this evangelistic series! Please remember 3ABN Latino in your prayers as we continue to bring the gospel to millions of people that speak Spanish and Portuguese. ■

"I really appreciate what your church has done for our community, so I will offer you the chance to air this live event on our TV channel for the same price as airing it on our radio station."

Latino's Ten Commandment Weekend, broadcast live from our main site at Montemorelos University in Mexico. While there, they handed us an offering their church had gathered to help further the gospel. David, Blanca, and their family watch 3ABN Latino in their home with a satellite dish, and after much prayer, John Dinzey is the general manager for 3ABN Latino Network. He also works in Pastoral Ministries.

ABOUNDING WITH BLESSINGS

THE 80-YEAR-OLD SATELLITE DISH INSTALLER

A man in his 70s normally would be afraid of heights. But not Newton States. For many years he could be seen climbing ladders and installing satellite dishes onto rooftops throughout the northwestern United States.

“I installed over 50 dishes as far as Eugene, Oregon,” he says.

“Many years ago a friend who had been receiving 3ABN on a big satellite dish tried to pick it up on a small dish,” he explains. “The local satellite dish installer couldn’t seem to pull it in because the satellite was so low on the horizon. He told me it was hopeless because the mountains were in the way, but I just worked on it for a bit, and got a great signal. The guy was astounded! Later I got to thinkin’ about it, so I mounted a satellite dish onto a camera tripod I had, and now I just walk around with it until I get a signal.

“Apparently my phone number got around,” he continues, “because one day a lady called me from Jackson Hole, Wyoming, wondering if I could install her dish. That startled me, and I told her I hadn’t been out that far yet!

“‘Oh no,’ she stammered, ‘I’m moving to Emmett!’ And then she told me that someone had said, ‘There’s only one man who has sense enough to put in one of these things,’ and that’s how she got my number!”

We checked and found out that’s 516 miles away from where he lives in Emmett, Idaho!

Although he spent 25 years as a hospital administrator, it was his knack for finding difficult satellite signals that started his second “career.”

Newton says he’s had many opportunities to witness about his faith, as well.

“That same lady told me that although she wasn’t ready to go to church, she and her whole family believed in the seventh-day Sabbath. So I told her to watch Doug Batchelor’s Sabbath School program, and I send her a Sabbath School lesson guide every quarter when a new one comes out. I figure God will do the rest.”

Another person he enjoys visiting is a lovely 90-year-old Nazarene lady in Nampa, Idaho.

“Anytime the wind blows hard, or the shrubs get too tall, she loses her signal and calls me,” he says. “But I don’t mind going up there, because the Christian fellowship is wonderful.”

He says that the Lord has given him favor with cable companies, too.

“I was asked to install a 3ABN dish in a retirement center in Boise,” he tells us. “It was a big job, so I talked to the local cable company and they agreed to let me hook into their distribution system for the entire facility! I really thought that was nice of them, and now every one of the residents can watch 3ABN.”

Lately, though, Newton has transitioned into another area of ministry.

“I write a weekly Bible study column for our local paper entitled, ‘The Bible Says,’” he explains. “They also asked me to write about current events, so every week I type my column on my computer, and take it down to the office pre-edited, spell-checked, and on a USB thumb drive. And this is funny,” he adds with a smile. “At a recent luncheon, the editor said that I was the only one who brought them articles in a modern manner!”

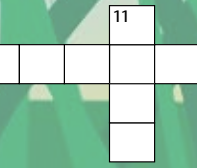

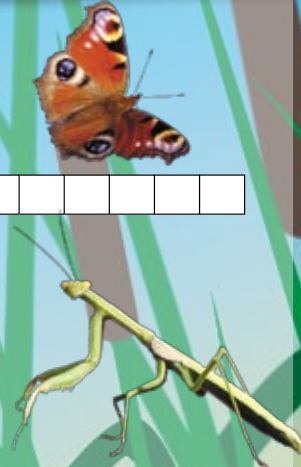

“I would love to see others pick up the idea and help install 3ABN dishes. It’s been a joy for me, but my sincere wish is for someone else to read this article and say, ‘I want to try that. I want to help install dishes.’ I’m sure that they will experience some of the same joy I’ve felt.”

Newton has found true happiness in faithfully working for the Lord. And as the Bible says, in Proverbs 28:20 (NKJV), “A faithful man will abound with blessings.” ■

Newton has installed over 50 satellite dishes across the northwestern United States. He uses his modified camera tripod to search for satellite signals in areas where professional installers have given up.

Hi Kids,

What bugs you? What bothers you? Sometimes things can get to us, and make us very unhappy. It's just another way Satan tries to get us down, or make us angry!

For the past five years I have been focusing on not letting little things bug me, by praying and holding my tongue—and it works! How about letting God work His perfect will in your life today?

I hope you enjoy the "bug" puzzle and picture!

A Power Story

“My power went out, and that’s the best thing that happened to me!”

We receive a lot of amazing stories of changed lives here at 3ABN. Many of them can be classified into categories. There are the “satellite dish got stuck on 3ABN” stories, the “cable got of our favorites are the “we lost our power and...” stories! Time after time our supporters tell us how their lives were out of control, and how a power outage changed their lives.

Shane Abrahamson knew desperation. His life of crime had landed him at odds with the law for many years. Failed relationships, and the loss of his family, drove him to God. But let him tell you his story.

“I was born in White Hall, Wisconsin, but grew up in the town of Independence, a few miles away,” he says. “Raised on a dairy farm, and the youngest of five siblings, we had a good life, for the most part. My dad had married and stayed on at his parents’ farm, and we all worked shut off and 3ABN was there,” stories, and the “I could watch 3ABN until I was baptized, then it disappeared” stories. But some there. But honestly, growing up as a farm boy, I couldn’t wait to get out of it!”

“I have sad memories of my dad sitting at the kitchen table with a can of beer in his hand, mocking us as we left for church by singing, ‘Tell your troubles to Jesus.’”

Beneath the idyllic life he seemed to live, there was a world of hurt and pain. “My father was a functional alcoholic,” Shane says. “We really didn’t know what to expect when he came home drunk. Sometimes he was happy, other times he was angry. It was totally unpredictable, so my mother had to be the rock—the one that held the family together. We could talk to her and rely on her. And since my dad was an agnostic, she had to be the spiritual leader, as well.

“She took us to the Lutheran church every Sunday, but I have sad memories of my dad sitting at the kitchen table with a can of beer in his hand, mocking us as we left for church by singing, ‘Tell your troubles to Jesus.’”

Shane then shares one of the most painful experiences he had with his dad—one that he found difficult to accept, and even more difficult to forgive him for.

“One day I was riding around crazy on my motorcycle, popping wheelies,” he begins. “I wasn’t wearing a helmet, and I fell off and hit my head on the driveway. I was bleeding badly, so my dad took me to the hospital, but he stopped at a tavern on the way to get a six-pack of beer. I was passed out in the back seat, when I suddenly came to with my friends tapping on the car window. I was bleeding badly, and really hurt, but when Dad finally came out he justified his behavior by saying, ‘Yeah, you guys drive me to drink!’ I hated him for that, and right there I determined I would never be like that. Unfortunately, though, I went down that same road.”

Shane’s life of crime took him to prison several times. But when he turned to the Bible for help, he tapped into a Power that changed his life.

Shane began having trouble during his senior year in high school. “A friend and I stole a car for a week, and when we finally got caught, I got away with a slap on the wrist,” he says. “All I had to do was write a letter of apology.”

But it wasn’t long before he was breaking into homes and getting into more trouble.

“All the girls liked the ‘bad boys,’” he chuckles, “and I certainly was one of them! My criminal record kept getting longer, and one day I broke into our local high school and took some TVs and VCRs. The amazing thing was that the police were convinced that it was a professional job, and that just fed my ego. But then they caught me, and I was sent to a sheltered home for a few days, and then to a foster home for several months. It so happened that I was only the second juvenile to be tried as an adult, and it made all the papers. But instead of being ashamed, I just thought that was great stuff.

“I was sentenced to a few months in the county jail, but it was so old and overcrowded that they postponed my sentence. In the meantime, I was working on a construction crew that was building their new jail, and one day I saw them bring in a huge amount of marijuana from a drug bust. I watched them put it into a garage and padlock the door, so I broke in and started stealing their pot! Eventually I got caught, and was convicted of burglary. They wanted to make an example of me—in fact they were talking 20 years in prison, but instead they gave me four years for burglary, and three years for possession with intent to deliver, and ran the sentences concurrently.

“I was incorrigible, though, because while I was in that old jail I actually escaped! I was using the phone in the kitchen when I saw the cook leaning into the oven. The back door was open, and I saw my chance and took off running. But I knew I couldn’t go home, and after several hours I decided I would turn myself in. I didn’t realize that if you escape from jail, the warden gets fined every day that you’re gone. So he was not happy, and I’ve never been back to that county again!”

Shane found himself in prison for 23 months this time, and he began to pray and read the Bible every day. But his heart still wasn’t changed, and when money got tight he resorted to his old ways. “I was still drinking and smoking pot, and with my eyes clouded by marijuana, I decided to break into another school. I had met two guys that had broken into this particular school while I was in prison, so I thought it would be an easy job. But they neglected to tell me that it had a silent alarm!”

Now, as a habitual offender, the sentence was more severe, but once again he was released after only 23 months.

“My parole officer refused to let me go home, so I went to a halfway house,” Shane says. “I started going to college, and got a bachelor’s degree in social work. I worked at several jobs, but finally ended up with a career in the flooring industry. That’s when I met my girlfriend, and soon she was pregnant with our daughter. I was still drinking and smoking pot when she was born, and we would take turns getting up to feed her and care for her.

“Then one morning I woke up feeling terrible because I was hung over. I couldn’t stop thinking of my dad, and how he had wasted his life. I kept hoping that the baby would go to sleep so I could take a nap. And then I felt so guilty! That was my bottom. I decided right then and there that I wouldn’t drink, although I didn’t give up the marijuana.”

Sadly, when Shane stopped drinking, his girlfriend started up with a vengeance. “She would throw things at me, and finally I walked out on her,” he says. “Then during the year and a half that I fought for joint custody, I crawled back into the bottle,” he admits.

“It was July 6, 2006, and I felt hollow inside. I believed in God, but I wasn't praying or reading the Bible anymore. I suddenly remembered an old Bible that once belonged to my ex-girlfriend's previous boyfriend. He had gotten it while he was in jail. I picked it up off the bookshelf and knocked the dust off it. Then, I noticed that a certain section in the middle looked darker than the other pages, and when I opened it up, I found that it was the book of Job.

Where are you taking me, Lord? I prayed silently. I've screwed up everything! I have no power to fight anymore. Please do with me what You will.

Satan didn't want to lose one of his captives, and thinking he might frighten Shane back into his realm, he devised a diabolical deception and sent it his way. In the wee hours of the night, he awoke out of a dead sleep and found himself face to face with an apparition at the foot of his bed.

"I saw a demon standing over me," Shane says, "and although he didn't say anything, I knew by the snarl on his face and his glowing white eyes that he wished me harm. It took my breath away, and I suddenly reached over to the nightstand and clicked on the light. As soon as it came on, the demon vanished. I looked at the clock; it said 3:00 a.m.

"I was so afraid I called a Christian friend of mine, who prayed with me until I was finally able to go back to sleep. But instead of being discouraged, the next day I looked up a Christian book store and bought an Archeological Study Bible and a Strong's Concordance!" he says.

Shane also began watching Christian television in an effort to grow spiritually, but before long he became skeptical of some of the preachers' motives. "I felt like they were always trying to sell me something," he says, "and then it all came to a head when I happened to watch a 60 Minutes program which exposed several of the preachers I'd seen! I felt let down, and decided not to watch them anymore." And that's when God sent him a storm that changed his life.

"One day my power was knocked out by a storm, and when it came back on, I had to reprogram my TV channels," he says. "Suddenly, I discovered a new station called 3ABN, and I watched as they talked about the Sabbath. What they were saying made sense to me, but what really amazed me was how men had changed the Bible—including the Ten Commandments, written by the finger of God—to suit their customs and their way of thinking. I had never realized that!"

Eight months later, in February of 2007, Shane received a flier in the mail. It was advertising a new series called Adventures in Prophecy with Evangelist Rick Swaningson, and it was being held in the Madison Community Seventh-day Adventist Church.

"I jumped in my van and drove to the church that night. When I walked in the door I told them, 'I got your flier in the mail,' and they were all surprised to hear that. Apparently there had been a problem with the postal service, and all the fliers had been delayed. I was told that only two of us had gotten fliers, and I just thought to myself, Satan might have delayed everyone else's, but he couldn't stop me from getting mine!

"I remember the feeling I had that night. It was like walking into a room and having 100 instant friends," he says. "They didn't care who I was or what I looked like. They just loved me unconditionally, and I knew that I was in the right place."

Later, after talking with the church pastor, Abraham Swamidass, Shane indicated that he wanted to be baptized. After reviewing the doctrinal beliefs, he was buried in the baptismal waters and came out a new creature in Christ!

Today, Shane takes turns volunteering to run the sound system. He also comes once a week to help clean the church. "God has done so much for me," he explains. "I like taking care of His house."

Shane's life took an exciting new turn. "I had never tithed before," he says, "but when I started, God truly opened up the storehouses of heaven. Winter is a notoriously slow time for the flooring industry, and several carpet stores have recently gone out of business around here. But I'm still working!

"One day I was praying as I was working, and I thought about the fact that I'm on my knees all day long," Shane says. "I think that's really neat. I thank God for the opportunity to serve Him all day long." ■

Roberto Giordana • Camino, Verdad, y Vida

The HOURGLASS LIFE

by Hal Steenson

“Whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.”
JAMES 4:14 (NKJV)

Priorities. Interesting word, but what does it mean? There was a time in my life when confusion over its meaning caused me to have most of my priorities out of order. However, I was unaware of these shortcomings, until I started seeing my life swirling around as if it were in a whirlpool. I spiritually swam myself to safety and began to reevaluate my fate. When I asked myself how this had happened, I remembered something I had heard as a new Christian—a statement that instilled a warped impression of what the ministry really is.

I remembered hearing a boastful young pastor declare that he was so committed to the ministry that he had accepted a speaking engagement on his honeymoon night. At the time I thought, He must be a dedicated man of God! But now I realize that he was missing God by a country mile because his priorities were out of order.

For many years I esteemed my pastoral ministry and church above everything else in my life, sometimes even above God. I had unknowingly established a doomed lifestyle because I had placed the ministry above the mission. I now know that this will never work, or produce fruit for God’s Kingdom. I had put the “I’ve got to’s” above the “God’s want to’s” in my life. I positioned the local church and my ministry above God, above my wife and my children, and above my personal time with the Lord.

As I began to peel away the layers of my mixed-up life, I saw that I was out of sync, rather than everyone else. Before the scales of deception fell from my eyes, all I saw were people that appeared uncommitted to God by not being committed to the church. I was unable to see that the cause of Christ and a commitment to the local church were two different facets of ministry.

The sand was sifting through the opening of my life’s hourglass rapidly, and I had to do something fast—so I prayed. I prayed for the Lord to put things in proper order for me.

First, God had to become Number One in my life. I humbled myself and asked Him to give me the chance to change before all the sand was drained from my life’s hourglass. I felt ashamed as the Father revealed all the wasted days, and wasted ways, that led to nowhere, but I was grateful He’d given me the opportunity to change.

It wasn’t easy to let go of my self-motivated and performance-oriented lifestyle; nevertheless, when I surrendered to Him, the Holy Spirit started directing my every move. God the Father, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit became my pivotal point—everything else had to revolve around Them.

Next after God, came my wife. If I was going to accomplish what God purposed for my life, then my wife Mollie had to be by my side, standing with me as one. I must never elevate or esteem anyone or anything above her—not our children, not our grandchildren, and certainly not my job. Bringing up the rear was my job, which I had foolishly put first most of my life.

Since then, my purpose has become focused. First, I’m to be a loving, caring, and committed husband; remembering that God sees us as one. I’m to be a godly example, and a caring father and a good provider for my family.

Last, I’m to be a caretaker of all the Father has so graciously entrusted with me. Yes, I’m still watching the sand sift through the hourglass of my life, but that’s become the least of my concerns. I’m now living and loving life to its fullest, while remaining very aware that when my hourglass of this life runs out of sand, I will not be able to turn it over again.

I think I’ll go tell Mollie how much I love her and then I’ll call the kids tonight. ■

A DOUBLE-DOSE OF BLESSINGS

SPRING CAMP MEETING & TEN COMMANDMENTS WEEKEND

Many of you have enjoyed 3ABN's Spring and Fall Camp Meetings, and many of you have been blessed by our Ten Commandments Weekends, too! This year we've combined these two exciting events into one big one, and we can hardly wait to have you with us!

Our television coverage of 3ABN's Spring Camp Meeting begins on Wednesday, May 28, at 7:00 p.m. CST, with Pastor Jim Gilley and Danny Shelton as they host a live, two-hour program full of music and testimonies to start things off!

Thursday we will be broadcasting all of our seminars, beginning at 9:00 a.m., and throughout the day. But the main highlight will be our "Bible Answers Live" program at 8:00 p.m., when our audience asks Bible questions of our panel of guests.

We'll be broadcasting all of our seminars on Friday as well, beginning at 9:00 a.m., and that evening we'll feature a wonderful hour of inspirational music!

At 7:00 p.m. Pastor Jim Gilley will share how God's covenant of mercy still stands firm today, and then at 8:00 p.m. we'll begin focusing on each of the Ten Commandments individually.

Here are just a few of our weekend speakers: Pastors David Asscherick, Stephen Bohr, Kenneth Cox, Jay Gallimore, Frank Gonzalez, C.A. Murray, Ed Reid, David Shin, and Mike Tucker, along with Shelley Quinn and many more. Our live programming continues all day Saturday, from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. CST.

We hope you can be with us for our Spring Camp Meeting and Ten Commandments Weekend! We believe that it will be a tremendous time of refreshing and spiritual growth.

So tell your friends, and make plans to be here for this event! You're sure to get a blessing if you do. ■ gospel of Jesus Christ, to protect the purity of the end-time truths God has entrusted to our church, and to make sure Satan doesn't sneak his distortions into our broadcasts. In the Bible, the Korahites 'were in charge of the work of the service, gatekeepers of the tabernacle. Their fathers had been keepers of the entrance to the camp of the Lord.' 1 Chronicles 9:19 (NKJV). In the same way, I believe that we are called to be gatekeepers of God's ministry through 3ABN."

► "A Gatekeeper's Calling," from p. 9

In conclusion, Mollie reads one of her favorite texts from the book of Psalms: "For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness." Psalm 84:10 (NKJV). ■
