

Dunning (“Dunning”), T.D., Greg Houseworth, D.C., and Alex Walker. Duane and Dunning are now ordained ministers.

4. I have also personally spoken with at least four parents who claim that their children were victimized by Tommy Shelton: Vicki Barnard (mother of D.C.), Charlotte Hopper (mother of Greg Houseworth), B.H. (mother of J.H.), and R.D., father of T.D.

5. I have also personally spoken with A.L., a good friend of Carol Shelton (“Carol”), Tommy Shelton’s wife, who confirmed earlier reports we had received that Tommy Shelton had molested his adopted son, R.S. A.L. stated that she told Carol, “Tommy could molest your grandchildren,” to which A.L. stated that Carol replied, “Don’t think I haven’t thought of that.” A.L. described the depression she has experienced as a result of thinking of the lives of boys she allowed to be injured by her support of Tommy Shelton despite all the allegations.

6. Attached hereto as Exhibits D–E are the original statements we received from Charlotte Hopper and Duane Clem. Copies of these originals can be found in Doc. 81-2 pp. 26–28, 33–35.

7. Attached hereto as Exhibit F is the statement we received from Alex Walker (“Walker”), brother of Tommy Shelton’s son-in-law. Walker first contacted us on June 5, 2007.

8. Of the alleged victims mentioned herein, all but Duane claim to have been under 18 at the time the alleged sexual misconduct occurred.

9. Attached hereto as Exhibit G is the Notice of Docket Activity for Appellate Judge Bruce M. Selya’s order concerning the Remnant documents being part of the record on appeal.

FURTHER DEPONENT TESTIFIES NOT.
