Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Subdivisions (c), (d), and (e), as amended on December 1, 2006:

(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling of designated electronically stored information, books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection, copying, testing, or sampling may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to producing any or all of the designated materials or inspection of the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect, copy, test, or sample the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production, inspection, copying, testing, or sampling. Such an order to compel shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection, copying, testing, or sampling commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

- (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;
- (ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(iii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held;
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

- (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or
- (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or
- (iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) (A) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(B) If a subpoena does not specify the form or forms for producing electronically stored information, a person responding to a subpoena must produce the information in a form or forms in which the person ordinarily maintains it or in a form or forms that are reasonably usable.

(C) A person responding to a subpoena need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) A person responding to a subpoena need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or to quash, the person from whom discovery is sought must show that the information sought is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) (A) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(B) If information is produced in response to a subpoena that is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has and may not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved. A receiving party may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. If the receiving party disclosed the information before being notified, it must take reasonable steps to retrieve it. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) CONTEMPT. Failure of any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon that person may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued. An adequate cause for failure to obey exists when a subpoena purports to require a nonparty to attend or produce at a place not within the limits provided by clause (ii) of subparagraph (c)(3)(A).

Counselor Litzenburg:

On April 7, 2008, I received your response by mail to our subpoena of records held by Gray Hunter Stenn LLP pertaining to Plaintiffs 3ABN and Danny Shelton. I note the following points:

First, your response is dated April 3. Our subpoena was served on Gray Hunter Stenn, LLP on Monday, March 17. Any objection was due by Monday, March 31, 2008. It is therefore untimely, being well beyond the required 14-day time limit.

Second, your reference to Attorney Jerrie Hayes' information regarding the hearing of March 7 on motion for a protective order is irrelevant. I would trust that Ms. Hayes informed you of the Honorable Judge Saylor's order during the status conference of December 14, 2007. Ms. Hayes specifically requested that discovery be stayed until such a motion could be heard. Judge Saylor made it clear that there would be no such stay. Therefore, your unilateral declaration of a stay on discovery prior to a decision on the motion in question constitutes contempt of Judge Saylor's court.

Four days after Judge Saylor's clear order, Plaintiffs' counsel filed their motion for a protective order on December 18, 2007, specifically requesting oral arguments, and then never scheduled a hearing! Therefore, one must conclude that Plaintiffs' counsel's lackluster effort clearly seeks inappropriate delays based on the decision of the motion in question. It would appear their game plan is one of obstruction and delay rather than of good faith. You would be ill advised to participate in such a process.

Third, you disingenuously refer to assembling time and costs being high. Has Gray Hunter Stenn LLP removed the documents from the binders we were led to believe the bulk of the documents are held in, according to Mr. Lovejoy? And why would you give no guidance regarding the length of time or cost that assembling the documents might take? I am left to conclude that this objection is without substance.

Fourth, I take exception to your misquote of our subpoena, and I trust that was not intentional. You state that our subpoena defined 3ABN and Danny Shelton as including all their assumed names and organizations over which they exercised control, when it most certainly did not. Then, because of your erroneous citation, you falsely assert that the subpoena requires Gray Hunter Stenn LLP to "speculate" as to assumed names and entities. Nothing could be further from the truth.

April 9, 2008

The subpoena specifically seeks documents pertaining to only those assumed names and entities which Alan Lovejoy and/or Gray Hunter Stenn LLP "believe" or "know" are applicable. Since this firm has had a long history of working for the Plaintiffs, with Alan Lovejoy preparing tax forms pertaining to Danny Shelton, D & L Publishing, and DLS Publishing, and auditing financial statements that reference various 3ABN entities, it should be a breeze for him to identify what entities he needs to locate documents for, unless for some reason Mr Lovejoy is struck by a sudden case of amnesia.

Fifth, you refer to the need for a protective order. Why? The Plaintiffs' complaint against us claims that we have lied about their committing financial improprieties and specifically charges defamation per se. Repeatedly they have publicly claimed that their being audited annually is proof that there is nothing remiss going on. By seeking to prevent anyone from knowing what is in those documents, you are trying to prevent the exoneration of your client's clients. Would this make any sense? Particularly in the light of case law making it very clear that accountants do not have privilege in Federal courts in a case such as this one?

If your client believes that a protective order is necessary, you are free to file a motion to that effect in U.S. District Court in the District of Massachusetts. The burden is on you, not us, to file such a motion. Any such effort would be vigorously opposed, and in the meantime we are prepared to move to enforce this subpoena.

Since your objection is neither timely nor substantive, I need to know whether we are to inspect and copy the requested documents at the office of Gray Hunter Stenn LLP on April 17, or whether the documents will be delivered to us at Sam C. Mitchell and Associates instead. Which might it be?

Respectfully submitted,

Bob Pickle, pro se

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AND SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION

DECEMBER 31, 2001

11. SPLIT INTEREST AGREEMENTS

Three Angels Broadcasting Network, Inc. is the beneficiary of several irrevocable charitable remainder unitrust agreements under which the assets funding the trusts were transferred to the Organization. Under these agreements, the Organization is to pay certain amounts for specified periods of time to the donors. The assets received are recorded at fair market value in the financial statements. The liabilities under unitrust agreements are recorded at the present value of expected future cash flows to be paid to the donors. Discount rates range from 5.6% to 7.4% in calculating the present value of the liabilities under unitrust agreements. The present value calculations are based upon single or joint life expectancy as applicable.

The Organization is the beneficiary of several revocable trust agreements. Assets received under revocable trust agreements are recorded as assets and refundable advances at fair value when received. Contribution revenue for the assets received is recognized when the agreements become irrevocable or when the assets are distributed to the Organization for its unconditional use.

The Organization is the beneficiary of several charitable gift annuities under which the assets funding the agreements were transferred to the Organization. Under these agreements the Organization is to pay fixed amounts for specified periods of time to the donors. The assets received are recorded at fair market value in the financial statements. The annuity liabilities are recorded at the present value of expected future cash flows to be paid to the annuity beneficiaries. Various discount rates are used in calculating the present values of the annuity liabilities. Present value calculations on some annuities are based upon single life expectancy, while others are based upon double life expectancy.

12. CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVABLE

Contributions receivable represent December, 2001 contributions received in January, 2002.

13. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Organization's financial instruments, none of which are held for trading purposes, include cash, investments, accounts receivable, accounts payable and notes payable. The Organization estimates that the fair values of all financial instruments at December 31, 2001, other than investments which are recorded at fair value, do not differ materially from the aggregate carrying values of its financial instruments recorded in the accompanying statement of financial position. The estimates, however, are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that the Organization could realize in a current market exchange.

14. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Organization purchases a portion of their inventory from an entity that is owned by two Board members. Purchases from this entity totaled $75,000.00 for the year ending December 31, 2001.

15. PRIOR PERIOD ADJUSTMENTS

Subsequent to the issuance of the 2000 financial statements, it was determined that $75,879.59 of net assets previously classified as unrestricted should have been classified as temporarily restricted. As a result of this determination, a reclassification has been made for this amount as of January 1, 2001. This reclassification had no effect on net income.
