Hi Johann & Irmgard,

I just want to wish you a very happy Sabbath. My love & prayers are with you.

Dan brought a book home today which is entitled "Why Some Christians commit Adultery." I read the first couple of chapters which speak of what they term as "spiritual adultery." Apparently, this is something which satan uses to bring leaders and Christians down. This is speaking about relationships between well-meaning brothers and sisters in Christ. They have wonderful spiritually, uplifting conversations but as the relationships progress satan gets involved and it heads a wrong direction. Unfortunately, as I was reading the chapters I could see myself in them. My relationship with the doctor began as what appeared to be a good thing, but obviously the fruit of this relationship has brought about nothing but bad fruit. Had this relationship really been built on the Lord it would have brought about good fruit instead of all the heartache and hurt that has resulted...and who knows if more time was put into the relationship, perhaps it could have resulted in physical adultery...which would have been devastating.

I've complained to you about my irate husband...and he admits that he has not done everything right. But in his heart he was desperately trying to save me from making a terrible mistake. And I see his heart in this now. We are, with God's help trying to put the marriage back together, as well as the ministry. Please pray for us.

It's my prayer that peace and prosperity will come back to 3ABN as a result of our desire to recommit ourselves to the Lord. God bless you!
