

28

Bob Pickle
 (1000+ Member
 (MSDAOL))
 12/06/06 11:35
 AM

 3ABN Live, August 10, 2006

During the first hour of the August 10, 2006, 3ABN Live broadcast:

Originally Posted By: John Lomacang

"The Israelites had to acknowledge that God had chosen Moses to lead them. I want to stop and say that, we may not always agree with who God chooses, but when God chooses someone, disagreeing with that one can bring on us adversity, discouragement, and the loss of our vision."

About 5 min. and 30 sec. later:

Originally Posted By: John Lomacang

"Moses was the instrument that God used, as Danny Shelton is the instrument that God uses here at 3ABN. Moses was not the deliverer. Danny's not the deliverer. He's simply the chosen servant of God."

[John Lomacang on 3ABN Today Live, 1st hour, replayed at 3pm CDT, Sunday, August 13, 2006]

On September 1, John told me that he did not mean that it was wrong to disagree with Danny, and didn't think people should take his words that way.

During the second hour, following an introduction that describes John the Baptist in a way that sounds like Danny:

Originally Posted By: Shelley Quinn

"As a faithful witness for God, he spoke out against a couple who had entered into a sinful relationship. Now the woman entangled in this situation became offended. She was embittered, and she felt scorned. And you know, there's something about her, that she was unconcerned about her relationship in the eyes of the Lord. Her worry revolved more around the possibility of losing her prominent position. So what did she do? She devised a plan to eliminate this one who had exposed her, and she enlisted the help of her young daughter. Now prompted by her mother, this daughter became entangled in the web of deceit, and she set out to set her mother's position and save it by destroying this man of God. What we see here is that the scheme was to go forward and go straight for the throat and have his head served up on a platter. Does this story sound familiar to you? To whom am I referring? John the Baptist, of course."

About 6 min. and 20 sec. later:

Originally Posted By: Shelley Quinn

"Now how could such a holy, Spirit-filled man, who was hand-picked by God, and called to such an important ministry, fall victim to such vile persecution? Why would God allow it?"

[Shelley Quinn on 3ABN Today Live, 2nd hour, replayed at 4pm CDT, Sunday, August 13, 2006]

	Previous to this broadcast, Linda's daughter had issued a signed, private, and confidential statement alleging sexual assault on the part of Danny.
Bob Pickle (1000+ Member (MSDAOL)) 12/06/06 11:38 AM	 Re: 3ABN Live, August 10, 2006 From the Glenn Dryden document collection we provide the following excerpt, with bold added: ----- Original Message ----- Subject: Re: Three quick questions Date: Mon, 4 Dec 2006 07:59:59 -0500 From: Glenn Dryden Tommy vaguely alluded to the allegations in Illinois at times in his preaching when invited by our founding pastors to minister at the Community Church of God in the late 1980s. He did so by speaking not of the allegations but of the "persecution" he and his family suffered as a consequence. He was successful in drawing sympathy thereby as he spoke of hardship suffered by he and his family. ... Pastor Glenn Dryden
Bob Pickle (1000+ Member (MSDAOL)) 12/06/06 11:40 AM	 Re: 3ABN Live, August 10, 2006 The fact that both Tommy and Danny have tried to explain away the allegations against them of sexual misconduct as being persecution should be looked upon as an intriguing and extremely unfortunate similarity, but not as proof of guilt.