FROM THE PRESIDENT

May He grant you out of the rich treasury of His glory to be strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the [Holy] Spirit... EPHESIANS 3:16 (AMP)

Dear Family,

Paul warned of Christians “having a form of godliness but denying its power” (2 Timothy 3:5). I want to make sure I never fall into this group. How about you?

We need frequent heart-checks, to determine what power we’re depending upon — our natural abilities, or God’s infinite might. God is the only source of true power. Scripture says apart from Christ, we can do nothing — but through Him, we can do all things. He strengthens us through His Holy Spirit.

We, at 3ABN, are aware of our absolute dependence upon God. We see His hand in everything. He enables our 200+ employees around the world to accomplish the work of many hundreds more. He blesses our finances miraculously — like when He multiplied the loaves and fishes. Opening doors of opportunity that no man can shut, God provides us with messengers to evangelize the world — by His power!

Evangelize with power! That’s our theme and focus for 2006. Our goal is to surrender to the Spirit’s control, allowing His power to magnify our efforts to reach a lost and dying world. Please pray we will be led by the Spirit, and that God will accomplish all He has purposed for 3ABN’s ministry.

May God richly bless you!

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

WELCOME

Ever wonder how someone becomes a television producer? Or what it’s like to be on the road for months at a time, working with a television production crew? This month we have some terrific stories for you, including one on our Kids Time Producer, Brenda Walsh, “Out Of My Comfort Zone” (p. 6), and another one from our Broadcast Audio Engineer, Joel Baker, “Truly Blessed” (p. 20). But that’s not all! You’ll be amazed at how God answered Ron Norris’ questions through a fuzzy TV, “A Pastor Finds His Way” (p. 16), and how an outdoor projection screen in New York City brought a man back to the Lord, “Separated Long Enough” (p. 12). All this, plus your listings, news from radio, Kids Korner, and more in this month’s 3ABN World magazine! Enjoy!

RATCLIFF, ARIZONA

"Early last year a sister in our church asked me if I would like a 3ABN satellite dish, and I told her 'yes.' Six months later she asked me again, and I said 'yes' again, but that I had no way of picking it up. She said she would ask her husband and another church member to deliver it and hook it up. In June of last year I found out that I had cancer, and went through surgery and chemotherapy. When they found this out, these two Christian brothers came and hooked up the dish. The couple that gave me the dish also had all the other equipment, and pay the monthly fee. God knew ahead of time just when and what I needed. I'm 70 years young and always considered myself healthy and full of energy. My part-time job is on hold until I'm fully recovered. I'm sending a dollar for every year 3ABN has been in operation. I will try to send some amount each month. Through watching 3ABN God helped me to see my need to not neglect personal Bible study and prayer, and I can still get the added blessings from 3ABN. I've had my life changed by 3ABN. Many times I've heard Danny say that God has many resources, especially in hard times. I've found that it's true, and we can know He stays with us as our constant friend and Savior."

PAVLOVO, RUSSIA

"I watch your programs with great pleasure. Thank you very much for the kindness and conciliation that your programs send to our homes. Your programs are like mother's arms in the world of nervousness and intolerance."

GARLAND, TEXAS

"In Mexico, my wife had been watching 3ABN at a government-owned clinic. She was working at trying to finish the last part of her social service so that she could become a doctor. Even though the cable was illegally hooked up, and she was watching stolen 3ABN at the clinic, we have all been blessed because of her exposure to the programming. (My wife wants me to make it clear that she had nothing to do with the acquisition of the stolen cable programming!) Also, the humble church that she attended there was frequented by people who watched 3ABN. Because of hardship, she had to come back to the United States with me, when my brother's girlfriend died on a vacation trip. His girlfriend had been watching Amazing Facts before she died, and as a result she wanted to become part of the faith. Your ministry has helped us during the last four months as we have watched it online because we do not have cable or satellite reception at our apartment. The only thing my brother has wanted to watch during his stay with us has been 3ABN. It has been one of the avenues that the Lord has used to help him. Your programs have helped us very much and we believe that it is doing miracles for many around the world. We are amazed at what 3ABN is doing, and we want to help you reach more people around the world. Please use these funds where you need them most."

ST. CATHERINE, JAMAICA

"I'm so excited that I've just completed all of the Bible Study Lessons from Kids Time. I am enjoying learning more about Jesus and the stories of the Bible... When I grow up I am going to become a pediatrician and preach to sick children that there is a medicine stronger than any medicine in the world — and that medicine is Jesus and the Bible. I can't wait to get the Kids Time Bible. It's going to be so much fun reading it."

GUATEMALA, GUATEMALA

"It gives me great pleasure to be able to extend my greetings to you. We have tuned in the 3ABN Latino channel through the cable signal, and it has been a blessing, since through your programs we have been able to clarify many doubts we had concerning the Word of God. We feel that He made us tune into this channel. May God continue to bless you so that you can continue to transmit to us the Word of God, faithful and true." ■

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

COMFORT ZONE

STORY

“People often wonder how my mom and dad raised five kids who are all not only ‘in the church,’ but working in ministry,” says Brenda Walsh, the producer for 3ABN’s Kids Time program. “But it’s no secret. They simply introduced us to Jesus as our personal Savior.” She goes on to say that she can’t remember even one day that did not start and end with family worship. “It didn’t matter how late we were to school or anywhere else, nothing was more important than our appointment with God!”

Those are happy memories for Brenda, and although her family struggled through some lean years, they always knew that God would provide.

Growing up in West Frankfort, Illinois, Brenda knew Danny Shelton and his family, and as she saw the Lord establish the ministry of Three Angels Broadcasting Network and heard Danny tell stories of how the Lord had placed him in a position to minister to others, she began to ask God to use her in a special way.

Several years ago she had decided to bake some cookies for her husband. When he arrived home from work and asked her if they were going to have a party, she realized that she had gone overboard and baked dozens of cookies in many varieties! She was so embarrassed at her absent-mindedness that she put them in bags and stashed them all in her freezer. Weeks later, after forgetting about the incident, something even stranger happened. She was looking for something in her freezer one Sabbath morning, and moved all of the cookies out of the way, leaving them out on the counter. After lunch, she walked into her pantry again and saw dozens and dozens of cookies on the counter — thawed, and ready to be eaten!

Realizing she couldn’t re-freeze them, she struck on the idea of finding a soup kitchen, and after a few calls, she arrived at a church where she found a lone woman in panic. Apparently she had been left alone to prepare a meal for a large number of homeless people, and the church group responsible for the food had forgotten to bring dessert!

“Well, I’ve got cookies!” Brenda quickly exclaimed, realizing that her “cookie madness” was really God’s answer to her prayer. The hungry crowd enjoyed lunch, but when they saw the homemade cookies, their eyes lit up! “I saw people stuffing cookies into their pockets, their bags, and even their purses!” she recounts, adding that she cried with joy as she drove home. “My ‘cookie story’ is probably the single most important event in my life,” Brenda says, “because it made me realize how much Jesus loves me, and that He had given me

During a recent speaking appointment in Belize City, Brenda toured several orphanages, like The King’s Children Home in Belmopan, where they watch their favorite program, Kids Time, on cable TV every day.

This is the Micheff family after church. As you can see, no one wanted their picture taken while Grandma's Sabbath lunch was waiting on the table!

a burning desire to serve Him — not just the way I wanted, but in the way He wanted — even if it was out of my comfort zone! I still pray the prayer every single day, ‘God, please use me in a special way today, and make me a blessing in somebody’s life.’” The details of Brenda’s “cookie story” intrigued us, and we sent out a crew to tape it on location.

Soon she was asked to produce a new children’s program for 3ABN, and although she had no experience as a television producer, she agreed, trusting God with the results. “Learning to be a producer was more challenging than I could have ever imagined,” she says. “I really felt the need to lean on Jesus! When we started taping Kids Time, we were in the old control room, which was up a long flight of stairs. I was constantly running up and down those stairs into the studio and back again — fixing something on the set, helping a child frozen from stage fright, or for any of a hundred other reasons. After a long day of taping, our director said, ‘Brenda, do you know how many times you climbed those stairs today?’ When I shook my head no, he laughed and said, ‘We counted 77 times!’”

Brenda is the first to tell you she couldn’t have done it alone. She has enlisted an army of volunteers who sacrifice their time and money to help. Many families travel thousands of miles at their own expense, using their family vacation time to be here. She also enlisted the help of her whole family. In fact, because of their involvement, her sisters, Cinda and Linda, soon took on the challenge of producing a program for even younger kids entitled, Tiny Tots for Jesus.

The response to the Kids Time program has been — well — overwhelming. “I have received literally thousands of letters from kids of all ages. I especially love the ones that tell me they have given their hearts to Jesus and are getting baptized. One letter from the Middle East reads, ‘Dear Miss Brenda, I love Kids Time. Could you please have Jesus on your show someday? He sounds so nice and kind, I’d really like to meet Him.’ Another letter from the Philippines reads, ‘Dear Miss Brenda, I want to give my heart to Jesus, but I don’t know how,’ and one from Africa says, ‘Dear Miss Brenda, please pray for my dad who got his leg shot off. I’m so scared he will die, because my mom says he’s got the infection, but I know if you pray for him, that he will live. Please don’t let my dad die, Miss Brenda.’ I get heartbreaking letters from children who have cancer, begging me to pray and ask Jesus to heal them. God has trusted me with His precious children, and I don’t take it lightly! I pray every step of the way.”

Although her upbringing was idyllic in many ways, Brenda saw more than her share of pain and despair at age 18 when she married a cruel and deceptive man. It wasn’t long before the physical and mental abuse started, and although she will bear the emotional and physical scars for the rest of her life, God’s grace and the love of her parents, siblings, and a new, loving husband have allowed her to make a full recovery. Now, many years later, she writes about her painful experience in a 3ABN book entitled, Battered to Blessed.

“I know beyond a shadow of a doubt why God had me write Battered to Blessed,” she says. “Not a day has gone by since the book came out that I haven’t heard from at least one person telling me how it brought them closer to God, or that it gave them the courage to leave an abusive relationship. I have at least a thousand letters! One lady was shot in the face by her husband while trying to run away. She will never again be able to taste, smell, talk, or walk in public without people staring at her. Another lady

A LITTLE ENCOURAGEMENT

Encouragement given to others has a way of coming back to bless you

by Nikki Anderson

I woke up one morning and began to go about my daily routine, which included turning on the radio to hear my favorite program. I started to walk away when I realized that the sound coming from my radio was not my favorite program at all! I checked the dial to see if I had it set on the right station.

“Oh, no! This can’t be happening!” I thought. “Why have they changed my favorite program?” I wondered, as I prepared for work. The new program wasn’t what I expected — or wanted for that matter — and it threw off my whole day.

I decided to call the radio station, so I looked up the number and dialed. As soon as someone answered, I let them know that I’d like my favorite program back! The person I spoke to was very polite, but informed me that apparently no one had been listening to that program so the station management changed to the new format, hoping for more listeners.

“Wait a minute!” I thought. “I was listening to that program. I thought it was a good format, and I liked it!” But I had to admit that I had never called to tell them that I was listening. I never told them that I thought it was a good format. I had never called to encourage them and tell them to keep up the good work...

Have you ever had that experience?

In this magazine you’ll read the stories about how some of our affiliate stations came into existence — the vision, the miracles, the hard work and sacrifices made by the wonderful, dedicated people who are not looking for glory for themselves, but to bring glory to God. People who have answered God’s calling to become ambassadors for Him where they could — right where God has planted them!

Has a story you heard on 3ABN Radio brought to mind an event in your life? Has a song spoken to your heart? Have you heard the gentle urgings of the Holy Spirit through a sermon, showing you the need for a little more heart work?

If you have, won’t you take just a few minutes now and then to let the dedicated people at your local 3ABN Radio affiliate station know how blessed you are to be able to hear God’s true gospel message in your community?

We praise God for the blessings He gives us every day. We thank fellow employees for their cooperation. We tell people at church when we’ve appreciated something they’ve done. Why not encourage your local radio station volunteers and staff? They live to hear that what they do has made a difference in your life! And when you bless them with encouragement, you’ll find that the blessing comes back to you, too! ■

SEPARATED LONG ENOUGH

by John Dinzey

Carlos* was on his way home. He made his way up the steps from the subway station. It was crowded, as usual — a typical work day in New York City; but, there was something new to see on his way home. A church was projecting a live evangelistic campaign outdoors on a large screen! Somehow Carlos found himself captivated by the simple, but heart-touching message of Pastor Alejandro Bullón. He wanted to hear more, but — it was over!

He considered for a moment the invitation given during the broadcast to hear the next day's message. He had heard only the last part, but he was so inspired by what he heard that the next day he decided to leave work early so he could hear the beginning of the message. When he made his way up the steps from the subway, he looked to see if the program was on, and was relieved to see that he had arrived early enough. It wasn't long before the program began, and that night he heard another wonderful message. His heart was touched, and he was happy to hear that there was yet another message scheduled for the next night. Should he again leave his job early to see it?

The next night Carlos was there. In the street, along with a few other bystanders, he listened to God speak to him through Pastor Bullón. On this night, like the others, the pastor gave an invitation for them to come forward and give their hearts to Jesus. Carlos heard him say something like, "You have been separated from the God that loves you long enough. Come forward and give your heart to Him." The members of the church were surprised when a man came in suddenly and made his way to the front of the church. When he got to the front, he kneeled, and with tears streaming down his face, he sobbed.

After the meeting was over, the members of the church came and hugged Carlos, welcoming him into the church, and asking him who he was. He told them that he had been watching the sermons outside for several days. He told them that he used to go to church years ago in his country, but that when he came to the United States, the hustle and bustle of life and the things of the world took him away from the Lord. The messages were like fresh water to someone dying of thirst. He had no peace without Jesus, and he wanted to experience that peace and joy again. At the end of that week Carlos was re-baptized.

This is one of the miracle stories that happened in the first Spanish Net meetings called La Red '99 (Net '99). This year we ask for your prayers and await the many miracle stories that are sure to come from La Red 2006! The speaker, once again, will be Pastor Alejandro Bullón. We praise the Lord that 3ABN has been given the opportunity to use our production and uplink trucks to broadcast this reaping series to be held in Atlanta, Georgia, April 15–22. Please help us spread this good news to your world! ■

Acts 17:26 (NKJV): "And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth..."

Hi Kids! I grew up on a farm, and I was always excited when spring time came. Do you know why? That's when the baby calves were born. We had two different breeds. The little black and white ones were Holsteins, and the red ones with white faces were called Herefords. They all had the biggest brown eyes you could ever imagine. They were so cute. It was fun to help my dad take care of them.

Love,
Tammy

Joel Baker took this picture of me with this hungry calf at the Ft. Worth Zoo. His tongue wrapped around anything that was loose, including my sweater!
The petting zoo had baby goats, sheep — even a baby armadillo! Baby animals are so cute! They remind me of how much Jesus loves me.

TESTIMONY

A PASTOR FINDS HIS WAY

by Berni Denslow

Ron Norris came from a long line of Bible-believing Christians; many of whom graduated from the same Bible college. He was given every opportunity to know the Lord, but instead, his life took a different turn. During his teen years he began to smoke, drink, and take drugs. His parents were worried, and tried to get him to change his ways, but to no avail. But this day was different. Ron had been arrested with drugs, and was awaiting his court date, and in the meantime he was determined to have as much fun as possible. Being worried, his mother asked him, “Ron, don’t you want to go to church with us this Sunday?”

“Yeah, sure,” he answered casually, so when Sunday rolled around she woke him up at 7:00 a.m., and to more or less appease her, he went to church even though he had had very little sleep the night before.

Ron’s life was about to change during that service. “I really had an experience with the Lord that morning,” he explains. “I asked Him to forgive me, and although I had been through 500 or more altar calls in my life, I knew this was the time, and gave my life to Jesus Christ.”

By the next year, Ron was enrolled in what is now the Pacific Life Bible College, affiliated with the Angelus Temple, a large Foursquare Pentecostal church in Los Angeles, California. There he met his wife, and soon after graduation, he accepted a job with The Church On the Way. Two years later he was appointed as one of 17 associate pastors, and continued to teach Sunday School, and was in charge of their Home Group Ministries. This is a huge church located near Hollywood where thousands attend, including many famous television and movie stars.

Ron’s long journey in search of truth brought him to the Little Rock Seventh-day Adventist Church, after watching 3ABN for two months. He tells us that his heart was overjoyed as he joined his new church family!

After four years of service, the Supervisor for the Southern California District contacted them to be pastors at the Santa Monica Foursquare Church, where they worked for the next ten years. Life looked good. The church was growing, and they were involved with many activities, including a new school and day care center. Ron’s wife was campaign manager for a Republican church member running for the United States Congress, and as you can imagine, with so many activities and a young family of three boys, it was a stressful time for both. Then, coming back from a 17-day tour of the Orient, Ron suddenly faced his wife’s announcement that she was in love with another man — one of their church members — and that she wanted a divorce!

Ron’s world was rocked to the core. “For the first month after she was gone, I really got in touch with the Lord,” he says, Berni Denslow and her husband, Al, travel extensively with our 3ABN production team as volunteers. She enjoys writing about people whose lives are changed through watching 3ABN.

When Deborah was baptized, she felt like she had been born into a new family. She says her sense of belonging has only grown since then.

“but then, one day I went out with some people from church, and I had a glass of wine.” That was the beginning of leaving the ministry, years of stumbling around, and even getting back into the drug scene — the life of his youth. He returned to Arkansas, where his parents lived, but God was not done with him. Oh, no! In the words of Psalm 106:1, “Praise the Lord! Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.”

For nine years Ron lived and worked in Arkansas, where he met Deborah, a fellow car salesperson. Two years later they married, and yet something was missing. From time to time they would visit different churches, yearning for a spiritual connection. “I kept trying to come home,” Ron says, but having been a pastor himself, he always seemed to spot the inconsistencies. “Every time I made a connection in church, I felt that they were preaching things that were not biblical,” he continues, “so I would go to another and another — trying to find a church where the doctrines made sense.”

For help, he turned to the Internet, trying to locate and learn from the Christian leaders he had respected in his childhood, but no matter where he looked, he found contradictions. There were many good things written about them, but also many bad things. And although he had been a grounded pastor for ten years, it now seemed like everyone had gone crazy!

Ron’s mental anguish deepened to the point where he left the house one day without a decent coat and began wandering through the streets of Little Rock, Arkansas. “I literally walked around for about three days, confessing my sins, and begging the Lord to forgive me,” he recounts. There were nights when he nearly froze to death sleeping in the park. He was plagued by thoughts that perhaps the “secret rapture” had occurred, and he had been left behind!

But God’s plan was about to unfold in an unexpected way. Ron had changed jobs from car sales to RV sales when a retinal detachment caused him to be off work for a month or so. When he returned, he was reassigned to liquidating inventory in an old building where he found an old TV set with very fuzzy reception. You guessed it! Soon Ron had tuned in a channel where he could get some sort of picture off and on — and he began watching 3ABN. It wasn’t long before he was “hooked” on 3ABN’s Christ-centered programming, and he watched for the better part of two months.

“The people were genuine, and they touched my heart,” he recalls. “Because of Danny Shelton’s testimony I was able to relate to him immediately. I could tell he was going through a tough time, and I was, too. I realized that the people who appeared on the programs were not ‘celebrities,’ they were real people from all over the world. They kept the Sabbath, and I thought, ‘Here are real people serving the Lord and doing something really radical — worshipping on the seventh day — the Sabbath!’ The Jews did that, and I respected them for living up to their convictions, but here were doctors, lawyers, and every kind of worker, keeping the Sabbath holy! The fact that the Seventh-day Adventist church had been around for over 140 years strengthened my faith. God had answered my question — yes, there are people that haven’t gone crazy! He brought me in contact with them on 3ABN, and watching it was like seeing the first signs of life for me!”

When Ron and Deborah finally found the Little Rock Seventh-day Adventist Church, they felt right at home. “I like the diversity of people and races there,” he says. “When we first started going to church here I felt like we had arrived at a United Nations Christian Summit!” he adds with a smile.

Ron and Deborah were baptized on November 5, 2005, and that day his parents also joined by profession of faith. He tells us that his wife, Deborah, can hardly get through a church service without being moved to tears.

I’m moved to tears as well as I see how God is using 3ABN to reach souls yearning and searching for more Bible truth. Because of God’s grace and mercy, many people, just like Ron, are finding their way home! ■

TRULY BLESSED

by Joel Baker

It was August of 2002, and I was a new graduate. Fresh out of college and staring at life fully in the face, I felt somewhat lost. I had just completed my degree in media technology, after feeling called into media by the Lord two years earlier. I had left a landscaping business in Florida and attended Southern Adventist University in Collegedale, Tennessee. But here I was — a diploma in one hand and a notice to move out in the other. God has always been good at stretching my faith, and that day in August was no exception.

Two months earlier I had met the 3ABN road crew, and was able to sit in the production truck and even run a camera by the end of the weekend. I remember thinking what an adventure it would be to travel across the country, taping sermons and airing live events for the Lord.

I had talked to the director about a job, but as the months slipped by, I realized that although college can give you a diploma, what a production crew looks for is experience — and I had very little. The phone call I wanted so badly never came; however, the deadline for moving out did, and I found myself ready to spend the night in my pickup truck.

That's when the phone rang. It was 3ABN, and the road crew would be leaving in two days for the West Coast. Did I still want the job? I don't think I have ever seen the Lord's hand so clearly, and with a shout of joy, I jumped in my truck and drove to Illinois!

For the first two years on the road I was a cameraman. When a new crew member comes onboard they often fill one of six camera positions. I quickly learned that working on the road was unlike anything I'd ever done before. Where else do five guys get to travel around the country in three trucks, stopping at dozens — no, hundreds — of Taco Bells a year, and countless gas stations? But that was just the beginning.

I truly had no clue about all the work that goes on behind the scenes to prepare for just one program! It all starts a few days before the trucks even leave 3ABN's headquarters. Robert Stotz and the lighting guys make sure they have replacement bulbs and plenty of light fixtures. The audio guy (that's me) checks microphones and other recording gear, making sure everything gets packed on the trucks. Meanwhile our production truck driver checks the fluids and tire pressure on all the trucks (and he's got a lot of tires to look at).

When everything is ready to go, we pile in, and Will Worf normally leads the pack with our 40-foot production truck. Ted Prouty, our closeup camera operator and computer whiz, is next, driving the satellite uplink truck. I'm usually driving "The Big Yellow," a former Penske truck we use to haul all of our extra cargo, and last, but not least, Sam Voigt drives our 15-passenger van used to get us back and forth when we arrive on location. Between weigh stations and gas stops, we often have 3ABN viewers pull up alongside our trucks, smiling, waving, and honking their horns! It's a great feeling to be driving through the middle of Arizona and know you have a connection with someone in a passing car. Often, on some of the longer trips out west, we'll stop at places like Yosemite National Park or the Grand 3ABN's road crew travels thousands of miles each year to bring you Christ-centered programming from across the nation. They count on your prayers for safety and protection from Satan's interference in the broadcasts.

Joel Baker travels extensively with our road crew and works as a broadcast sound engineer. In his spare time he loves to jet-ski, ride his bicycle, and take great pictures!

The road crew takes a welcome break after driving hundreds of miles. It feels good to get out and stretch your legs (and arms)!

Canyon and shoot nature footage for a few days. It's a great chance to stretch our legs and enjoy what others normally do for a vacation!

Once we get to our destination, it's all hands on deck for the two-day set up. The cameramen assemble platforms for cameras while others level and park the trucks. "The Big Yellow" is pulled up, and we unload projectors, screens, speakers, sound boards, and sometimes even plants for the stage.

By the second day the trucks are "drooling" cables, and the church lobby looks more like a garage sale than a reception area! Many poor members have walked into their church halfway through a set up, and just stared at the carnage! Lights hang from the ceiling, while a jib crane arches across the pews. Cables run down the aisles and new sound boards and speakers fill the corners. We always assure them it will look very different when we go on the air.

As the countdown continues, the van is busy making airport runs, picking up more camera operators and floor directors. Danny Shelton arrives, along with the other platform participants. Last minute changes are made to the program, and guests are wired for sound. By the time we go "live," the church looks neat and clean, and with a prayer over the intercom, the road crew starts another broadcast.

I wish I could say that they all run smoothly, but that's not always the case. The devil does his best to keep us off the air, and sometimes, although the viewers at home may be unaware of any problems, we fight multiple battles in the trucks.

I can remember broadcasts when we've had to switch over to generator power halfway through the program, when computers have crashed, mics have suddenly stopped working, and switchers have become, well, possessed!

But some of our wildest adventures have been "off the clock." During one trip through Oregon we made a stop in Grants Pass, and while we unloaded our luggage off the trucks at our hotel, a man decided he needed my unattended suitcase more than I did. It wasn't long before I realized that all I had for my two-month trip were the clothes on my back and a few items I had (thankfully) packed in another truck. But God is good, and the generosity of the Grant's Pass Church was overwhelming when they found out about my "runaway" bag.

Another time, in Los Angeles, one of our camera operators walked out onto the roof of the hotel through an open door, talking on his cell phone. While Sam enjoyed the view and his conversation, someone called the police, and it wasn't long before a female officer had him pinned up against the wall — at gun point! After a few minutes, they realized he wasn't a terrorist, apologized, and let him go.

I thank the Lord often for leading me into such a wonderful life of adventure and service. Since coming here I have been given the opportunity to engineer the broadcast audio in the production truck. I have learned how important it is to trust the Lord when it comes to planning for life, because He knows exactly where we fit best. 3ABN's truck crew is on the front lines, bridging the gap between the preacher and those at home, and I am thankful for the four men that I work with, whom the Lord has called and used to help spread His word on the technical level.

Shortly after covering a convention one year, one of our crew discovered a magnet someone had stuck to the front of our production truck. I remember thinking how well it summed up the 3ABN road crew's experience. It simply says, "Truly Blessed." ■

Joel Baker's dream was to travel and work for the Lord. We believe that Joel exemplifies the Bible promise, "Delight yourself also in the Lord, and He shall give you the desires of your heart." Psalm 37:4.

P CAPELA DE FÉ • 3ABN Latino tem o prazer de lhe apresentar sermões que elevam e inspiram. Para aqueles que não podem ir à igreja, esta é uma oportunidade de trazer lindas mensagens até a sua casa. Capela de Fé tem como objetivo lhe auxiliar na caminhada ao Céu e ao mesmo tempo, criar uma oportunidade para que você compartilhe o pão da vida com outros. Não perca o lançamento dessa nova série em Abril. Se você conhece algum pastor e gostaria de recomendá-lo para este programa. Por favor, escreva para latino@3abn.org.

Grow Where You're Planted

by Earley Simon

Soon enough I fell into complaining and started asking God, “Why would You place me in a position where I can never be content?”

Have you ever felt unsatisfied with your work? Have you perhaps thought you should have chosen a totally different career? Have you ever thought God intended it that way?

When I started working at 3ABN, I was placed in the programming department. I studied broadcasting and have always been interested in the art of making videos.

Needless to say, I felt out of place.

Soon enough I fell into complaining and started asking

God, “Why would You place me in a position where I can never be content?”

I prayed for a chance to be transferred to production; in fact, I pleaded and pleaded to no avail. So finally I said, “OK, Lord, if this is what You have for me, fine. I’ll suffer the rest of my days.”

Guess what happened? The very next day something came up, and I felt that if God gave me this small window of opportunity, I would take it! I spoke with the managers of each department, and can you believe it? My dream came true! Wow, was I ever happy!

Every morning I would be ready and excited to go to work. At the end of the day I was not tired, in fact I was ready for more. After a few weeks, I was sure this was what God had in store for me. However, a still small voice kept telling me that I was not flourishing where God had planted me. Through a series of events God started placing this thought in my mind: “We are as trees planted in the garden of the Lord; and He comes to us seeking the fruit He has a right to expect.”* I felt saddened by not growing where He had planted me. The whole point of coming to 3ABN was to serve Him! In an attempt to banish this thought once and for all, I prayed, “Dear Lord, if Your will for me is to work in programming, then send me back, and I won’t complain.

There is no need to tell you the rest of the story. Amazing things happened, and I felt as if I had been spit right out of the whale and into Nineveh! What a merciful God we serve. God is now showing me why He placed me in the programming department in the first place. He is also teaching me that a content spirit is as good as medicine — that it can even heal situations and difficulties. Through gratitude, contentment, and faith in Him, my work has become very enjoyable and fulfilling. Seek and praise God in every situation, and watch what He can do in your life! ■ called me from London to tell me that she had been watching 3ABN for two years, but had not made a commitment to totally surrender to Jesus. She had just finished reading my book and wanted me to know that she had made her decision to be baptized! She told me, 'I want God to use me like He uses you. I want to love Jesus like you do!' All the tears, all the pain, all the suffering — it's all worth it if even one person is in heaven because I was willing to tell my story!"

Brenda and her sisters (known by their maiden names as the Micheff Sisters) have been frequent guests on the 3ABN Today program, and have recently published their second cookbook entitled, Cooking Entrées With the Micheff Sisters, through Pacific Press. They also write a regular health and food column in Vibrant Life magazine, which includes a dozen new recipes in each issue.

Recently Danny Shelton called Brenda and Dr. Kay Kuzma to come to the Gulf Coast to help with relief efforts and to record the stories of those who had lost everything.

"I have never seen such devastation," she says. "It's nearly indescribable. I interviewed over 100 people, and I cried buckets. I prayed with every single person I interviewed, and no one refused my offer of prayer — not even the ones that didn't believe in God! I can't tell you what that did for me!" Their brand new 3ABN book entitled, Between Hell and High Water, will be available this month.

Brenda is also a favorite speaker at women's retreats, camp meetings, and Christian gatherings, both in the United States and abroad, and when she finds time, she's recording new gospel CD's with her sisters, and donating the proceeds towards 3ABN children's programming.

"Working with 3ABN has been such a blessing," Brenda adds. "I can see miracles and answers to prayer on a daily basis, and I just say 'Thank You, Jesus, for allowing me the privilege of serving You!' I don't want to miss even one opportunity to witness for Him — whether it's standing in line at the grocery store, talking with the man at the gas station, or speaking on television! If you're too shy to let Jesus shine through you, then I say, pray for holy boldness, and God will surely give it to you!"

One thing is for sure. If you ever meet Brenda Walsh, you'll find the same ready smile and joy for Jesus as you'll see on television. Her untiring efforts are a wonderful witness to the loving Savior she serves. ■

Children have fun in the garden while "Nature Dan" teaches them about God's second book of nature. Kids love taping Garden Time since it's a chance to play in the dirt — and their moms and dads don't mind!

Video of the Month

Our video of the month is a wonderful two-hour presentation with international evangelist and author, Kenneth Cox. You're sure to be blessed as he takes you through the fascinating book of Daniel, from beginning to end! Your copy is waiting on DVD or videocassette for only $20 (U.S.) postpaid! Just call us during regular business hours at (618) 627-4651.

Giving

In addition to regular gifts to 3ABN's ministry, many of you have also helped us grow by arranging both immediate and deferred gifts of your assets.

Did you know that the best instrument for highly appreciated property such as real estate, stocks, and bonds is a Charitable Remainder Unitrust? With it you can avoid capital gains taxes on donated assets, receive attractive rates of interest, avoid probate expenses on donated assets, receive a large charitable deduction, and negotiate to receive either a fixed annual payout or a variable income.

Call our Stewardship and Trusts Services to find out how you can help 3ABN's worldwide ministry through Charitable Gift Annuities and Deferred Charitable Gift Annuities as well. And as always, thank you for your prayers and support!
