FROM THE PRESIDENT

“If ye love me, keep my commandments.” JOHN 14:15

Dear Family,

May 5 and 6 are rapidly approaching and our anticipation is rising each day! The Ten Commandments Weekend in Washington D.C. is undoubtedly the largest production we have undertaken to date. We sense divine inspiration and guidance in this effort that will impact our world with the Good News of the saving grace of Jesus as He is portrayed through “God’s eternal moral law” that is found in the Ten Commandments.

Jesus Himself tells us that if we love Him, we will keep His commandments. We praise God to have this opportunity to bring all ten of them to the forefront in these closing moments of Earth’s history.

I would like to extend an invitation to each of you to be part of this worldwide event. Please open your hearts, homes, and churches on Friday night, May 5, from 7:00 p.m. to midnight, Eastern Time, and again Sabbath, May 6, from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Eastern Time, as 3ABN broadcasts LIVE a marathon of preachers and teachers covering each of the Ten Commandments.

During the past several weeks, as we prepared for this weekend, we found ourselves “stepping into the water,” knowing that if God didn’t intervene we would be in over our heads. His faithfulness meets us continually as each obstacle miraculously melts away.

We need your love, your prayers, and your financial support as never before. Thank you for making it possible for 3ABN to bring this Ten Commandments Weekend to the world, and may God richly bless you is our prayer.

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

OMAHA, NEBRASKA

"I came upon 3ABN's channel 61 here in Omaha when the credits were rolling. I saw 'Supreme Provider — Jesus Christ' and thought, 'Wow! What is this?' I had this old TV set up for a web connection, but now I only watch 3ABN. I was starving! I've yet to be satisfied, but the soul food is abundant, rich, and divine. I've received peace and have gotten very personal with the One and only Lord!"

NEW SOUTH WALES, AUSTRALIA

"A member of our church, who is seldom able to get to worship because of ill health, finds that 3ABN has been such a blessing to him. Our youngest son, who has met with some real adversity, while here in the home started watching the programs. 3ABN was used by the Lord to lift him out of his despair and on December 17th he was baptised. How we rejoice! I've enclosed my cheque to further His kingdom."

AMMAN, JORDAN

"I'm a Filipino working here in Jordan. I've been watching 3ABN for more than two years now. I'm becoming a Seventh-day Adventist by watching 3ABN. I'm waiting to be baptized because I don't know if there are any Seventh-day Adventist churches here in Jordan." [Editor's note: A new English-speaking Seventh-day Adventist church has just been established in Amman! We hope our friend will join them.]

VIA E-MAIL

"3ABN has totally changed my life and the lives of my children. We feast on all the programs via the Internet, and we are totally enjoying our walk with God. I was rebaptized in November of 2005, and my niece and daughter joined me to signify our decision to follow Jesus all the way!"

AUSTEN, GEORGIA

"All your programs are just awesome. I record many of them on VHS tapes to share with our three sons. Our youngest, age 52, came and listened to Doug Batchelor's '05 Revive. He had been a member of another church, but after hearing Pastor Doug's message, he made his decision to be rebaptized in the river as a Seventh-day Adventist. Just recently he became interested in our health message. Two years ago he had a heart attack and was found dead, but God brought him back to life. The doctors say it was a miracle. Praise the Lord!"

EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND

"I would like to thank 3ABN for the incredible sermons and powerful messages that are emanating from your station. Truly the Lord has sent His three angels and the Holy Spirit to help push these last messages throughout the earth.... Pray that this work may reach Scotland also."

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

"With all of the different teachings about the Bible, I was beginning to wonder which teaching was the truth. I began to get answers from watching 3ABN.

Then I saw a program on the true Sabbath, and I pondered how important it was to honor God's true day of worship. One day, when I was praying to Jesus about what I should do, He said to me, 'It would break my heart if you didn't honor my true Sabbath.' Well, the rest is history because within that year I joined the Seventh-day Adventist church. I learn so much from 3ABN."

ST. EUSTATIUS, NETHERLANDS ANTILLES

"May God continue to bless your ministry to the wider world, reaching us all the way here on this 8-square-mile little island of St. Eustatius. We are but a small population of about 3,400 people, but the Seventh-day Adventist church is the largest denomination on the island. Ever since 3ABN came to our island via our local cable TV network, your ministry has been quite a blessing for the general membership. The wider community of St. Eustatius who watch your programs come to a better understanding of God's plan for His children, are blessed, and so enhance their relationship with their Saviour, Jesus Christ." ■

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

DETERMINED TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Cynthia Prime always wanted to know God for real! “I didn’t have room in my life for a god that was merely a three-letter word,”

“I should have been just another murder statistic, but instead, my life was spared.”

she says, her eyes flashing with purpose, “I wanted to know that He was real!”

“I grew up with four brothers,” she begins, “and I was always a bit of a tomboy. I was always outspoken, too!” As a young girl, Cynthia dreamed of becoming a physician, and as soon as she finished school in Trinidad, she moved to New York City to study medicine. “Within the first year, I realized that if God wanted to save lives, He would have to get me out of medical school!” she says with a laugh. “Picture this: I’m on the night shift, an elderly lady with one leg is dying, and I’m in the bathroom crying instead of helping! It’s still a major production to get a blood test from me!” Since she also had a passion for writing, she switched majors to a degree in English.

It was then that Cynthia went through the first of several life-changing experiences. “I was working and going to college,” she says, “and one night I was on the subway train and fell asleep. Suddenly I woke up and realized that I was at the end of the line. I also realized that I had used my last token and didn’t have any money for another. The subway station was dark and deserted as I started towards the only exit. Then I saw a man, standing by the stairs, watching me, and I began to pray. The man crouched, and I knew my life was in peril. The only way out was up those stairs. Then suddenly I remember thinking, ‘Oh God, my long legs!’ I was about six feet from him when I took a flying leap up the stairs. He reeled around to catch me but missed, and as I turned a corner in the stairwell, I almost bumped into someone. I call her ‘Big Momma,’” Cynthia says with a grin. “She was a well-rounded, older black lady in a floral dress. She turned around and said, ‘Child, are you lost? Follow me.’”

“I followed her without a word. To this day I don’t know where she took me. We walked through dark alleyways in silence. Then, in the distance, I saw the sign for the Uptown Train. At the turnstile I opened my mouth to say something, and as if she knew my predicament, ‘Big Momma’ extended her open hand holding a subway token. I took the token and slipped through the turnstile. As I turned to thank her, she had vanished! I have no doubt that ‘Big Momma’ was my guardian angel! I should have been just another murder statistic, but instead, my life was spared. My life has never been the same. I knew then that God was real!”

Cynthia pursued a career in writing and singing, but says it

Whether in business, or in ministry, Cynthia Prime (center) never misses a chance to share the transforming power of Jesus Christ.

Cynthia's Seeds of Hope project for the AIDS orphans in Swaziland brought U.N. Ambassador Ephraim Hlophe and his wife Martha to the 3ABN Today program.

wasn't long before God got her attention again. "I was walking down a street in Queens, when a familiar voice called out my name. Picture this now, here I am in my big hair, my wild boots, and dressed to kill, and a friend of mine from Oakwood College called out to me. I was amazed that she recognized me, so I stopped and asked what she was doing. She told me that she was selling Christian magazines and witnessing to anyone who would listen, and I'll never forget her words: 'Cynthia, Jesus is coming very soon!' I remember dropping a couple of dollars and saying, 'It was good to see you, as I ran!'"

Two weeks later Cynthia attended her funeral. She was killed in a terrible accident on her way back home, and her body was burned in the car fire. "During that funeral I realized that she had something I needed," Cynthia says quietly. "Even though they couldn't open the casket, there was a certainty about it all — a certainty that she would be in heaven and spend eternity with Jesus. I needed that certainty in my life."

Later, Cynthia's husband, Phillip, landed a job as the perfumer for the Elizabeth Arden fragrance company. They moved to Indianapolis, Indiana, where she pursued a career in television journalism and public relations. "I was always searching," she recalls. "I always felt that somehow God would use my experience someday, but I didn't know how."

It wasn't long before she began speaking at Women's Ministry gatherings, and soon speaking invitations began to pour in. "I feel a need to encourage women everywhere to embrace God's vision for them, and to help others," she says, and as the Lord continued to open doors she decided to put her ministry over her career.

She formed Transforming Lives for Christ, a nonprofit organization she leads with her ministry partners, Linda Schultz and David Campbell. "After working with domestic violence shelters and raising funds for them for five years, I realized that I had to go further. People need to develop life skills for their life to change!"

One of her projects is called Divine Makeover, designed especially for young women. "In my generation, the statistics indicated that 50% of young women would embrace Christ," she says. "But if the trend continues, only 4–5% of the current generation of young women will embrace Christianity. Divine Makeover is a practical program designed to help women reinvent their life from the inside out through Jesus Christ — the Divine Makeover Artist!"

Another project addresses the terrible plight of AIDS orphans in the African country of Swaziland. "The statistics are staggering," Cynthia reports. "Currently, approximately 43% of the population suffers from HIV/AIDS. The AIDS orphans go naked in 60°F weather, and get one meal a week, so we started the Seeds of Hope Swaziland AIDS Orphan Relief

"I feel a need to encourage women everywhere to embrace God's vision for them, and to help others."

Project under the auspices of our organization to address this."

After being a guest on a 3ABN Today program, help began pouring in. This month Cynthia plans to travel to Swaziland where huge shipping containers have arrived full of food, clothing, medical supplies, Bibles, fabric, sewing machines, and seeds for 5,000 families. "I found out that God had a bigger vision than I did," she says. "He wants to meet their physical needs, to be sure, but He also has a vision for reclamation. We want to provide resources for the orphans, along with opportunities for education, for spiritual growth, and for worship. We want to do significant evangelism in that country, but first we must meet their felt needs like Jesus did.”

Cynthia recently completed a pilot program for a new 3ABN series tentatively entitled The Faith Factor. “I’m excited about this program,” she says. “It’s real life, real people, real challenges, and real faith at work. The program is not about faith and works, it’s about the impact that the faith factor has on any life.”

3ABN is excited to be working with Cynthia on another project called Women of Spiritual Praise. “This is an international conference for women to be inspired, encouraged, and equipped with tools to help those who are hurting,” she says. “It will be held from June 15 to 17 right here at the 3ABN Worship Center, and the list of keynote speakers is impressive.” It includes Dave Pelzer, best-selling author of the book, A Child Called It, who will address child abuse, and Fred Stoeker, author of Every Man’s Battle, along with his wife Brenda, speaking on pornography addiction. The 14 seminars will be led by wonderful presenters like Cheri Peters, Dr. Deborah Harris, Shelley Quinn, Heather-Dawn Small, Brenda Walsh, and many others. Topics will range from “Crisis Intervention” to “Anger Management,” and from “How to Minister Like Jesus” to “How to Pray With Power.” Music artists include Christine Wollman, Stephanie Dawn, and Jamie Thietten, and 3ABN will broadcast several of the meetings, but we’d love for you to experience the seminars and other activities firsthand. For more information, or to register for this event, visit womenofspiritualpraise.com or call 800-681-6361.

In addition to her busy speaking schedule, Cynthia has found the time to pen two new books, Dream or Die — Discover the Life You Long For, and Jesus, Supermodel. She also enjoys spending time with her husband and their three grown children; Judy, Cory, and AJ.

What inspired Cynthia Prime on this incredible journey? She experienced the power of a real God. And now she can’t help but tell others about Him! ■

We just praised the Lord when Channel 6 went on the air in Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea (PNG), earlier this year! Through the efforts of Ambassador Bien Tejano of the Philippines, and the gracious invitation of the former PNG Governor General, Sir Silas Atopare, we are now able to reach roughly one million viewers in that city and surrounding area! 3ABN’s channel 6 is only the second TV channel available in the entire country, but the construction was not without its challenges!

Moses Primo, 3ABN’s Director of Broadcasting, Operations and Engineering, tells us that shortly after obtaining the construction permit, he went there to test a site. Arriving atop Burns Peak, high above the capital city, he aimed a satellite dish over the ocean’s horizon and picked up a clear signal from the Thaicom-3 satellite. After thorough testing, he leased a piece of property and returned to purchase transmitting equipment.

But problems soon began in getting the equipment into the country. In fact, it seemed like the devil was desperately trying to discourage him!

After many delays, they were finally ready to build. “We drove up with the construction crew, but when we arrived, we found the site had been fenced in by a neighbor, and that guards had been posted,” Moses says. “After talking to the owners, and the Land Department, I found out that this piece of property was being disputed by five brothers!

“After much prayer, we finally found another piece of property which was owned by the government,” Moses continues. “We signed a 99-year lease with them, and, as always, the Lord blessed — it was much less expensive!”

But the problems on Burns Peak continued. The peak was very narrow, and crews had to excavate 20 feet to make a base wide enough to build the tower and building. There were problems with tower footings, electric power, and equipment failure. An antenna piece came up missing, and the transmitter exciter had to be sent back to the United States for repairs. It seemed like the “journey through the wilderness” would never end!

Moses was helped during this time by 3ABN Engineer Dan Peek, and 3ABN Australia’s John Malkiewicz. “By the time we got the transmitter and the antenna working, we discovered the satellite reception was being affected by terrestrial interference,” he says. “After much prayer I called the satellite engineers for Thai-com-3, and together we came to the conclusion that it was isotropic interference caused by the reflection of the sun off the Pacific Ocean!

“I prayed and thought about this for a long time. I checked before we started building. I had done my part. I prayed, ‘Lord, I know that You don’t want us to invest three-quarters of a million dollars and not reach the people here in PNG!’ I kept thinking that another satellite might bring the signal in clearer, and I felt this was an impression from the Lord. In fact,” Moses continues, “I made a pact with the Lord. If He would show me how to work around this problem, I would do everything I could to get on another satellite — one that would bring 3ABN to the as-yet unreached areas of the Pacific.”

Suddenly Moses thought of a possible solution. By “de-tuning” the satellite dish slightly, the signal was a bit weaker, but so was the interference! Soon the station was broadcasting with minimal interference in the mornings. “I believe the Lord put a burden on me,” Moses adds. “He gave me a solution for the PNG problem because I promised to work hard on getting 3ABN on a satellite that covers all the Pacific Rim islands.” We believe he’s right. Surely the Lord has great plans to reach all the world with the gospel!

“The station went on the air on a Tuesday night,” Moses says, “and I was astonished to go to church on Sabbath and find a new family of seven there because of watching the new station!”

The night before they left, Moses once again headed for the mountain. “We were going to get our tools and give the transmitter a final check, but at the base of the mountain we saw something that made us stop in our tracks. We were passing a shack where the family had taken their TV set from their living room and put it in the front window. Outside, sitting on the ground, I saw 17 people, young and old, watching and listening carefully as Pastor David Asscherick preached on 3ABN. What a sight that was!”

“I’m amazed at how quickly the Lord is working on their hearts,” he says. “I receive praise reports from PNG every week!”

3ABN has 14 construction permits to build repeater stations all across the country. We believe that the Lord will impress the hearts of those who can give, so that we can begin broadcasting to a new satellite over the Pacific Rim very soon! What an awesome beacon of light this new station is in the faraway land of Papua New Guinea! ■

Beautiful Port Moresby, the capital city of Papua New Guinea, has only two TV channels — and 3ABN is one of them! 3ABN plans to build 14 repeater stations across the country.

3ABN GROWS “DOWN UNDER”

by Rosemary Malkiewicz

When my husband John and I started receiving 3ABN in Australia four years ago it was available only on the Thaicom-3 satellite using a 2.3 meter (8 ft.) satellite dish! Although a strong signal was available all over Australia, it was much harder for people in the east of the country to receive it, since they were on the edge of the satellite’s “footprint” or coverage area. As we began to promote 3ABN, a growing number of people bought the equipment and had it installed. But the number was limited due to the equipment cost and the difficulty in finding a location for the large dish in their yards.

In March, 2004, 3ABN went onto the Optus-B3 satellite, allowing viewers in Australia and New Zealand to receive 3ABN on a smaller 850 cm (28 in.) solid dish. The number of 3ABN viewers has boomed since then!

Many viewers in Australia would like to have 3ABN as a local television channel in their areas, but although this is a wonderful idea, it is not possible at this time. Presently there are no provisions in the laws of Australia to rebroadcast a foreign satellite television channel, but we continue to monitor the situation with the relevant federal government authorities on 3ABN’s behalf. If God opens the door, 3ABN Australia will move forward as God directs to make this dream a reality!

Despite this situation in Australia, there is a local television station in Palmerston North, New Zealand, which airs 3ABN programs for a few hours each day! Meanwhile, some individual people and churches are reaching out into their communities through 3ABN Radio as well. It’s easier to set up a 3ABN Radio affiliate in New Zealand than it is in Australia, where the laws are more strict.

We urge all our viewers in Australia and New Zealand to do what they can to encourage the people they know to have 3ABN installed in their homes. Please join us in spreading the gospel in this way, and find out how you can become involved in the 3ABN Dish Initiative by visiting our 3ABN Australia website at 3abnaustralia.org.au, or by writing to 3ABN Australia, Inc., PO Box 644, Donnybrook, WA, 6239, Australia, for more information.

We’d also like to hear from you if you’re interested in the possibility of setting up a 3ABN Radio affiliate station in Australia or New Zealand, since there are still a few areas open! And if God impresses you to financially support 3ABN’s work “down under” on Optus-B3, please contact us at the address above for details on how to donate in your area. God bless you as you help spread the gospel to all the world! ■

FAITH TO MOVE MOUNTAINS

by Nikki Anderson

"Discover Fairmont, the Famous Friendly City..." That's how one Internet site begins its description of Fairmont, West Virginia. Fairmont is tucked away among rolling hills and is obviously known for being full of friendly folks. At the heart of this fair city are some very friendly folks who built a Low Power FM radio station: WBWG-LP, 99.1 FM, whose call letters stand for "We Broadcast the Word of God."

A church member, Gary Knoll, read an article about the window of opportunity to apply for a radio station license in 3ABN literature. God impressed him to talk to fellow church members. Then Gary, Tom Howes, and JoAnn Hughes stepped out in faith and took one small step at a time. They received a construction permit, but when they started digging, a huge rock was right where the antenna coordinates were located. The rock was too big to be moved, but Gary knew a cement contractor who helped by laying a special floor for the station on top of the rock. The cement truck got stuck, so the cement had to be hauled in wheelbarrows to the site — up a 200 foot hill! Then a power utility truck slid right over the hill and had to be towed.

When they got to the equipment stage, the wrong equipment was shipped to them and had to be returned, which caused delays. Then the new equipment was faulty and had to be replaced. More delays! All the while, it seemed like there was always some kind of deadline to meet, which was stressful.

Praise reports and miracles? There were plenty of those, too! They praise God that no one was hurt while working on the station. The AC/heating unit was donated. A local engineer loaned them equipment until theirs arrived, and Gary, JoAnn, and Bonnie Moats were able to get away for a few days to come to 3ABN Radio for some training.

Gary's persistence and devotion to God were proven by his many trips to the top of the tower at WBWG-LP. The day they sent us a picture of their antenna, and the day we received it, Gary called for technical help. Looking at the picture, Mike, our engineer, quickly figured out that there was something hanging on the antenna! (God love him!)

The group also set a goal to mail out The Forgotten Commandment book to every address within their county. In each booklet they placed a Discover Bible Study card. Approximately 20,000 booklets have been mailed out to date. They have received more than 250 requests for Bible studies (so far) from those mailings. The U.S. Post Office has even designated them as a bulk mailing institution.

There is a lot more to be said about this Christ-centered group, but I'll leave you with words of wisdom from JoAnn: "If you don't have faith in God, do not start a Christian radio station!"

(Isn't that the truth... Amen!) ■

Gary Knoll (L), Tom Howes, and JoAnn Hughes have seen the positive results of WBWG-LP's influence in their community. God has blessed their faith and expanded their territory!

ANOTHER CHANCE TO SERVE

by John Dinzey

Natividad Oquendo was in the hospital with her son, Joel, and daughter, Maritza, waiting for some good news about her husband Daniel, but the doctor had not given her much to hope for. Now the nurse approached her with a sad look, "I'm sorry," she said. "We've done all that we could, but you and your children should take the time to say goodbye to your husband." Natividad and the children made their way to the room to face something no one is ever truly ready for.

Daniel looked at his wife and children. He knew he did not have much time to live. In his weak condition he said, "Natividad, I don't want to die!" Those words broke her heart, and in an effort to comfort him she replied, "Don't worry, Dear, we are going to pray. Just pray in your mind with us."

The three of them stood there holding each other's hands. Daniel had separated himself from the Lord for several years, and Natividad knew that God was her only hope. As she began praying, the beep from the heart monitor became steady. She knew what that meant! Her daughter, Maritza, recalls, "I wanted to look at the monitor to see if there was a straight line on the screen. I wanted desperately to see if my father was still breathing, but I was too scared!"

As the alarm kept sounding, Natividad began praying with greater urgency. "Lord, you know that my husband hasn't lived the best life. Oh Lord, You know how hard it is going to be for me to handle things by myself. Please, Lord, if You can just give my husband another chance — if there is some work You have for him to do, anything Lord, anything that he can do to serve You — give him another chance. In Jesus name, amen."

Natividad Oquendo's prayer of faith saved her husband Daniel's life. Today they both work diligently to bring the gospel message to the Dominican Republic through 3ABN Latino.

When Natividad said "amen" something happened. The heart monitor beep sounded louder than before. Two nurses rushed in with the doctor. "You'll have to leave the room right away," the doctor said.

As they quickly left, the medical staff began checking on Daniel. The little family waited anxiously outside, still praying together. Finally, after what seemed like an eternity, the doctor walked up to them with the news that Daniel was doing better. The doctor and nurses were simply amazed — the Lord had performed a miracle!

Daniel continued to recover, and although he did not immediately follow the Lord with all of his heart, his family did not give up. They started a Bible study group in their home and helped him make his way back to Jesus. Nearly a year later, he was rebaptized.

Then Daniel became acquainted with 3ABN, and as he watched what God was doing through this ministry, he longed to do something to help spread the gospel. He moved from New Jersey to a town in the Dominican Republic, where he began broadcasting through a small television transmitter in his home. The response was overwhelming. People were hungry for the gospel! For two years Daniel and his family continued their TV ministry from their home, airing as many Spanish

Memory verse

Isaiah 11:6 (NKJV): "The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them."

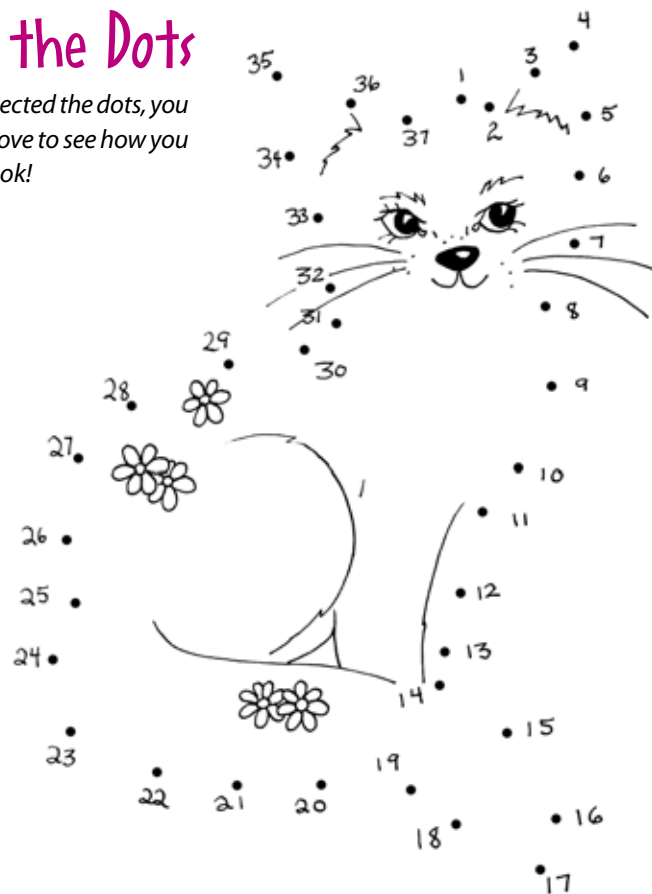

Hi Kids! I have an interesting story to tell you. It's about some kittens and a pigeon. When I was a kid someone gave us a baby pigeon. We kept it in the same box as the kittens. The kittens didn't know that birds and cats don't mix, so the pigeon played and ate with the kittens as they grew up together. It was a very interesting sight to see. It makes me think of how heaven will be. The lambs will lay down with the lion. Won't that be neat?

THE “BUT WHY?” QUESTION

by Berni Denslow

Rose Sanzone had questions — lots of questions. Even as a young child, she pestered people with a constant question, “But why?” She asked this so frequently that it became her nickname!

Growing up in an Italian-American Catholic family, she remembers watching the movie, The Ten Commandments, when she was in the first grade. She also remembers asking her mother, “But why are Moses’ Ten Commandments different than ours?” Her mom didn’t have the answer, and Rose says that’s when she began questioning church doctrines.

Another important moment in her life came just before her mother passed away. “I was 13 years old and I remember seeing my mother reading a King James Version Bible which a Baptist friend had given her,” she recounts. “My mother made a statement which I’ve never forgotten. She said, ‘RoseMarie, learn your history and learn it well — for the past shall tell the future!’” Those words stuck with her because Rose always loved history — especially ancient history, although she admits that for many years she never really read the Bible.

As she was growing up, another question plagued her. “If God is so loving,” she would ask, “then why does He burn people in hell forever and ever?”

In her search for answers, Rose began attending many different services, including Mormon, Baptist, Lutheran, and Methodist churches. She says she soon became discouraged and quit attending church altogether.

Then Rose enlisted in the Air Force, and after four years, she started attending college

Rose Sanzone met us recently at a 3ABN Rally. She was excited to tell us about how the Lord had changed her life through watching 3ABN.

in Idaho. “I must have had ten Seventh-day Adventist friends over the next 20 years,” she says. “I think it was Divine intervention that kept them from sharing the Sabbath with me, since I would not have readily accepted it at that time,” she adds. “It’s funny, but I never asked the ‘But why?’ question about the Fourth Commandment.”

In God’s timing, Rose and her father moved to Jacksonville, Florida, and while settling into their new home, she plugged in their TV and pressed the scan button to search out the available channels. When it came to channel 65, her TV stopped, but the picture was so snowy she just eliminated it.

But God had other plans.

“Our part of Florida is known for its many electrical storms, which cause loss of power,” she told me. “It seemed like each time we had a storm, I had to reprogram the TV!”

One day her patience wore thin as she hit the wrong button on her remote control, and her TV started scanning all 100-plus channels. But when it stopped, you guessed it — it stopped on 3ABN’s station: channel 65 (now channel 50), and the picture came in as clear as a bell! What Rose saw was a cooking program with Curtis and Paula Eakins. This caught her eye, as she had been a vegan

GOD'S MOST

Resilient CREATURE

by Nikki Anderson

Recently, I was talking with a friend and the conversation turned to life experiences. He used an adjective to describe me that I had never heard before: resilient. At first I just thought it was a nice compliment, but a few days later that word was still bouncing around in my head, so I decided to investigate in the dictionary. I'd like to share with you some things I discovered.

Resilience — 1. The act of leaping back.

Well, at my age, the thought of “leaping” anywhere didn't seem to apply (or appeal) to me, so I quickly moved on.

Resilience — 2. The ability to bounce or spring back into shape or position after being pressed or stretched.

I could certainly identify with being pressed, often having been pressed flat by a spouse's unkind word or deed. And stretched? From stretching my body for childbirth, to stretching my time, to stretching the budget for one more meal. But, bouncing back into shape after all that? Yes!

God keeps giving me the strength to bounce back even after many years of being pressed flat. As for being stretched out of shape, well, even an old rubber band gets to keep being useful! I don't have the same shape I once did, and I always have demands on me and on my time, but God keeps me pliable so I don't break.

Resilience — 3. The ability to recover strength, spirit, and good humor.

God gave women resilient strength no other creature can claim. Strength to raise our children, to endure the heartaches of this world, and to share ourselves with a hurting sister whose name we may not even know.

As for recovering spirit, a woman's spirit is bolstered every day by God's Holy Spirit. That voice within that helps us recover from the pain of harsh words spoken to our children also encourages us to keep getting up when we've stumbled and fallen.

Regarding good humor, well, that's the best of all. God gave us the ability to laugh at so many things — including ourselves. When everything seems to be going wrong, women think it's perfectly normal to want to “re-group” by laughing with each other over a bowl of ice cream. Who but God's daughters can cry in pain during childbirth, then laugh with joy through their tears? We can even laugh with God. What a great gift He gave us!

Resilience. I give this word to you. Remember it. Believe it. You are truly God's most resilient creature. ■ vegetarian most of her life, never liking the taste of animal products. She began enjoying 3ABN a couple of hours each day until gradually it was the only channel she watched!

“At this point I was watching a total of seven evangelists on 3ABN,” she says. “It was like watching the Jeopardy game show. Because of my deep interest in ancient history, I knew the answers almost before the questions were asked!”

Soon she decided to contact a local Seventh-day Adventist church, but after not having much success with her phone book, she called 3ABN and asked our Pastoral Ministries department to give her the names of all the local pastors in Jacksonville! Finally she reached Pastor Mike Miller of the Jacksonville First Seventh-day Adventist church, and he began giving her and her father Bible studies.

Now the Holy Spirit was really working on her heart. “One day I was watching Pastor Shawn Boonstra of It Is Written, and he was preaching a Revelation series,” she recalls. “When he made an appeal I remember responding to it by standing in front of my TV and giving my life to Jesus! But then I wondered, ‘What do I do now?’”

She didn’t have long to wonder. The next afternoon Pastor Miller came over as usual to give them their last Bible study. Much to his surprise Rose blurted out, “I have to be baptized this Saturday!”

On November 16, 2002, Rose buried her old life in the baptismal waters, and her father joined the Seventh-day Adventist church by profession of faith. How happy they felt that day! Rose finally found the answers to the “But why?” questions she had asked all her life, and in spite of her multiple sclerosis, which has caused her to become legally blind, Rose is happy and active in sharing her love for Jesus!

Rose’s story reminds me of the text in the Bible which says, “Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened.” (Matthew 7:7, 8 NKJV.) 3ABN exists so people everywhere can find answers to their “But why?” questions. Got any? ■ programs as they could get their hands on. They also began taping sermons and local programs, but since they did not have enough, in the evenings they would air 3ABN’s English programming.

Then Daniel heard the good news — 3ABN Latino had been launched. How his family rejoiced and praised the Lord! Daniel shut down his TV channel and began concentrating his efforts on getting 3ABN Latino on cable. With the Lord’s blessing, not only did he do this, but he also was instrumental in helping several pastors in his area catch the vision for television evangelism. Today 3ABN Latino is available on cable in nearly every city on the north side of the Dominican Republic! Because of Daniel’s desire to do something for the Lord, hundreds of thousands are being blessed, and lives are being changed! The Lord is looking for people who are willing to be used by Him — like Daniel and Natividad. Will you allow Him to use you, too? ■

Giving

In addition to regular gifts to 3ABN’s ministry, many of you have also helped us grow by arranging both immediate and deferred gifts of your assets.

Did you know that the best instrument for highly appreciated property such as real estate, stocks, and bonds is a Charitable Remainder Unitrust? With it you can avoid capital gains taxes on donated assets, receive attractive rates of interest, avoid probate expenses on donated assets, receive a large charitable deduction, and negotiate to receive either a fixed annual payout or a variable income.

Call our Stewardship and Trusts Services to find out how you can help 3ABN’s worldwide ministry through Charitable Gift Annuities and Deferred Charitable Gift Annuities as well. And as always, thank you for your prayers and support!

Video of the Month

This month we have a wonderful two-hour presentation with Don Mackintosh and his guests, Drs. Neil Nedley, John Chung, and Philip Mills. Together they explore the opportunities we enjoy from the health principles written down over a century ago by Ellen White, and the blessing of sharing those with others! This informative program can be yours on DVD or videocassette for a suggested donation of $20.00 (U.S.) postpaid. Call us during regular business hours to reserve your copy!
