WELCOME

Isn't it amazing how God leads and guides His children? This month you'll be inspired as you read how Jennifer LaMountain discovered God's plan for her life in "Her Gift to God" (p. 6). What a blessing she is to the thousands she sings to each year in person, and the potential millions she ministers to on 3ABN! Relive the excitement of the Ten Commandments Weekend (p. 11) and enjoy another wonderful account of how the Lord used a satellite dish to bring several families into His Kingdom in "The Dish Story" (p. 20). In fact, this is a good time to remind you that if you know of a wonderful conversion story where God has used 3ABN to change someone's life, we'd love to hear about it! Enjoy this month's 3ABN World magazine, and remember, subscriptions are free! Tell your friends. Tell the world!

He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.
 So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver.

2 CORINTHIANS 9:6–7 (NKJV)

Dear Family,

I receive incredible letters from folks who love being 3ABN partners. Some of the most cheerful givers in the world are eager to help this ministry.

A number of supporters donate their time during the year—especially at camp meetings. This year was no exception, and it always blesses my heart to meet 3ABN volunteers. They bring a heart full of cheer and spread their joy around. We couldn't do all that we do without them.

Our theme for May's 3ABN Camp Meeting was "Evangelize With Power." Following on the heels of our Ten Commandments Weekend, it struck me as I watched volunteers and staff working together that the real power in evangelism is unity in the Spirit.

Words can't express our appreciation for those who sow into God's ministry at 3ABN. Thank you for your prayers, your time, and your financial support. We really couldn't do this work without you!

Here's the Bible promise for cheerful givers: "God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work" (2 Corinthians 9:8, NKJV).

With a heart full of gratitude,

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

CUSHING, OKLAHOMA

"I have recently become a Seventh-day Adventist and I have been watching 3ABN. I really enjoy it and have learned so much by watching. You see, I am in prison, doing two life sentences. All I live for is for Christ, and I really love learning more about Him every day. I know that one day my wife and I will be set free from prison, and I know that we are both ready for that great day when Jesus comes back to take us home with Him forever."

SAMPAGUITA VILLAGE, PHILIPPINES

"I was born a Catholic, studied in Catholic schools, and was reared by my grandparents, who were active in our local Catholic church. I was not a stranger to 'things holy,' so to speak. I lived a normal teenage life, with normal teenage problems... but being the eldest in a brood of six, the problems grew harder and heavier to bear. Then came the year 2004 when I was hit by more emotional problems! It was as if all the forces on earth decided to dish it all out in one go! Then I found 3ABN. I was depressed and bored one afternoon. At first I was just staring at it, not really understanding a word. But as I tuned in every afternoon after work, I grew to appreciate it and absorb the messages. At the time my sister had no chance; I held onto the remote control as if it was my most prized possession. But she watched with me, and then, in turn, she relayed everything to her boyfriend. Soon we started asking what religion taught these truths. We found they were Seventh-day Adventists. Then I thought we didn't have that religion here, but God really loves us and we discovered one of many churches located in our neighboring village! My sister, her boyfriend, and I were all baptized in April 2005. God helped me to witness to my coworkers, and I was able to bring one to church. Now she is baptized, too! I hope and pray that 3ABN will continue blessing more people around the globe, just as you reached me here...!"

ROMFORD, ESSEX, ENGLAND

"We just want you all to know how truly blessed we are as we continue to enjoy your programmes daily. Friends who visit our home and have seen the broadcast have had their own dish installed. We pray daily for the work and all who are involved in taking the three angels' message [of Revelation 14] to the world."

PALM SPRINGS, CALIFORNIA

"I get 3ABN on my old-fashioned UHF TV antenna. I'm a Sabbath-keeper and a member of a Messianic church. I'm very interested in your prophecy programs. I'm only interested in Jesus Christ and His soon return. This is very important to me. Hope to see more of your 3ABN prophecy teachers. I'm in love with prophecy teaching."

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

"We get your station on channel 27 here, and I keep my TV on it 24/7... I watch every show and I re-watch shows over and over again. I go to bed with 3ABN on. Please don't laugh, but I feel safer when I know that all of you are on my TV. 3ABN is my family and I have learned so much by watching all of you... I believe what you say, because I can follow along in my Bible. You don't get up and yell and scream and jump around. You don't need to repeat yourselves over and over. I'm a 46-year-old man who has done very little right in my life. I went to church until I was 14 or 15, and then I stopped going. I thought I had better things to do... Many things went wrong in my life. I'm sure you've figured that out since I'm writing you from prison. I truly hate all that I have done, and that's why I'm so eager to learn all I can about my Creator and my precious Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. I want you to know that I believe and feel that I am a Seventh-day Adventist. Please pray for me. I'm going through a difficult time. Thank you for listening... God bless you and may He be with us always." ■

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

HER GIFT TO GOD

THE JENNIFER LAMOUNTAIN STORY

Jennifer squirmed as she watched her big sisters up front, singing and playing guitar for church. “I wanted to be with them so badly! I guess that’s why they finally let me join them at age 3. My dad has a recording of the very first time I sang — I think it was ‘He’s Got the Whole World In His Hands.’ I was so young I couldn’t even pronounce ‘World!’” Thus began the singing career of one of the sweetest voices and well-loved musical artists of recent memory. It has been said you can see straight through to Jennifer’s soul as the melodies and lyrics flow from her lips. Listeners are drawn to the source of her dynamic passion — the very heart of Jesus!

how others must have seen her. “I grew up on a farm in Tennessee and was a bit — unsophisticated,” she says, “I mean, I was a real country girl. I was always trying to ride our Shetland pony who had been around cows so long he thought he was one, and I had a paddling of ducklings that grew up thinkin’ I was their momma. They followed me everywhere, all four of them, and I was scared to death to lead them to the pond before I gave them a test run in a wheelbarrow full of water to see if they could swim! My mom says I was just ‘a poor little country girl who would sit by the hours and talk to the flowers!’ I’m not sure if I heard it at school, or if my mom tried to get me out of her hair by suggesting I talk to the flowers to help them grow.

Either way, I sat singing and talking to the tulip bulbs until they popped out of the ground in the spring!”

Her father and mother understood the importance of raising their children to love the Lord, so she attended Christian schools and thrived under the influence of godly parents and teachers. Jennifer started piano lessons with her grandmother, and when she was nine she began studying violin using the Suzuki method. Because the other students had started at a much younger age, she had to play catch-up. “My teacher, Betty Aldrich, knew that I’d have to memorize a lot of music, so she told me, ‘I want you to sit down and memorize a verse of Scripture every week. This will improve your memory.’ You know, she was right, and I used that technique throughout my entire teaching career!”

Jennifer continued taking violin lessons and studying other instruments in high school, but her real passion was singing. With her teacher’s encouragement, she auditioned for and won an attractive vocal scholarship to Southern Adventist University in Collegedale, Tennessee. It was there that she met Lynell LaMountain, her future husband. Although Jennifer honored her parents wish for her to go to a Christian university, she also studied and received a paralegal degree at another college, and made plans to attend law school. But soon her career plans changed. “I was fascinated by the process of education — how to tap into a child's mind through the power of music, enabling him to become all he could be!" Under the gentle guidance of Dr. Marvin Robertson, her great friend and mentor, she finally decided to pursue a career in Music Education. "One of the first pieces of advice he gave me was, 'Jennifer, you can be a jack-of-all-trades, but an expert in only one. So focus your life, choose what you're doing, and give it everything you've got.' I had to learn God's plan for my life, commit to it, and give it my all. I've spent my whole life trying to give God control, and even though I've been a willing servant, I'm not sure I've always been a submissive one," she says, looking back on those years.

Soon after graduation the LaMountains moved to Berrien Springs, Michigan, where Lynell attended the seminary at Andrews University. Within a few weeks she found herself teaching music at Andrews Academy. "That was interesting," she says. "I was 21 and teaching 18-year-olds — most of them taller than me, and some only two years younger!"

But how did she get from teaching to ministering in music? "I always sang for any pastor or speaker who asked. One of them happened to be Mark Finley. After he became Speaker/Director of It Is Written television ministry I was singing on worldwide TV. I began receiving invitations for concerts, even though I had no idea how to do one. I declined most offers due to my busy teaching schedule and the final months of my master's degree, research, and thesis. This was also the year my husband accepted a pastoral position in Jacksonville, Florida," she adds. "We had to live apart for almost a year, and each weekend we could be together was precious."

Finally, with a degree in hand, Jennifer moved to Jacksonville to look for a teaching position, and what shouldn't have been difficult suddenly became impossible! "I just couldn't find a job," she says, "so with eight months of invitations, I decided to sing for a year. God literally removed all my options, and now I see that He spent that year breaking and shaping us. He used outside forces, heartaches, and the time Lynell and I spent apart to create a new dependence upon Him. Everything was stripped away," she adds. "I had nothing left but my husband and my God. That time of our lives prepared us for the travel and time apart demanded by music ministry. I was gone 250 days last year. It's not been easy, but God keeps showing us how we can do His work and have a strong relationship."

Music ministry was not an easy choice for Jennifer. "I fought it because I didn't believe I could make a living doing it," she says. "I thought I could dabble with it, but God removed every other opportunity and said, 'This is the way to walk.' It's all about making the decision God would have me make because He knows my strengths and my weaknesses. He knows how to accomplish His will in my life."

Her association with Morning Song Ministries began in 1996 during a rally where Steve Darmody heard her sing. Together they began to work on a musician's cooperative that today includes James Rainwater, Rudy Micelli, and Vonda Beerman as well. "Steve and his wife, Joni, have such a passion for sharing the things they've learned," Jennifer says. "They've invested life, time, and money in people like me. If it were not for their business sense, training, and mentoring, I would not have survived."

Morning Song's philosophy is that music is one of the greatest ways to break down barriers, and allow friendship evangelism to work. "I believe strongly in doing things of excellence — whatever we do, it is for God's glory and He deserves the best," Jennifer states. "Music, business, relationships, everything in our

U.S. states, as well as to Canada, Africa, Europe, Australia, South America, and Southeast Asia. She has appeared numerous times on 3ABN, as well as on the It Is Written and Windows of Hope telecasts, Family Reunion Concerts, The Miracle Network, Trinity Broadcasting Network, and Crossroads Television. And the Jennifer we know and love is every bit as genuine, gentle, and unassuming off-screen as she is on-screen.

“Traveling is lonely,” she says. “My friends at home are getting together and eating and sharing, and going to ball games with their kids — and I miss out. Yet I wouldn’t trade what I’m doing right now for anything in the world. I’m seeing God’s work on this earth, and He is drawing it to a close! It’s lives should be accomplished with quality. I want my life to be a testament of giving my best for God in all things.”

Over the past 10 years Jennifer has traveled to 40 been easy to take each step with the ministry, because the sacrifices are nothing compared to the blessings.”

Jennifer’s husband Lynell transitioned from pastoral ministry into full-time writing in 2005. “I want God to use my writing, coaching, and speaking as a spark to ignite people with a raging obsession for Christ,” Lynell says. Jennifer agrees: “We are able to spend more time together this way — it’s such a blessing.” In addition to the scripts, articles, and curriculum, Lynell writes for his non-profit clients, and he recently started a Christian motivational ministry called Life Ignited and a devotional called Daily Fire that people receive worldwide via e-mail (check it out online at www.lifeignited.com).

Jennifer ends by sharing a quotation one of her students gave her. “It’s framed and hangs in my home, and it reads like this: ‘Besides singing all together, you must sing well. You must practice and work so as to make your singing as perfect as you can. Your song is your gift to God, and you strive to make that gift as beautiful as it could possibly be.’” ■

TEN COMMANDMENTS WEEKEND

▲ Thousands of supporters around the world helped distribute 5 million copies of The Ten Commandments Twice Removed. In Washington, D.C., students from Heritage, Oklahoma, and Ouachita Hills Academies helped, too! “The excitement was infectious!” said Melissa Young, 3ABN’s volunteer coordinator. In all, over 200,000 copies were given out in Washington, D.C. and its suburbs.

▲ Young people delivered the Ten Commandments Twice Removed to doorsteps and anyone who would accept a book. This man was already reading it when two other young people approached him. Their smiles show their joy in working for the Lord!

▣ As workers adjust the lights on the stage, we began to see the reality of all the work that had been put into designing and creating the backdrop for the Ten Commandments Weekend. This was the longest, most ambitious, and most difficult program 3ABN has ever produced!

▣ As final stage preparations are made, volunteers began placing thousands of chairs on the main floor for those attending this momentous weekend. We praise God for the talents He has given our workers. Their mighty effort, combined with God's blessings, made it possible to produce this program with only 10 weeks' notice!

▣ We were blessed with inspiring messages from Shelley Quinn, along with Pastors Jay Gallimore, Stephen Bohr, Wintley Phipps, John Lomacang, John Dinzey, C. A. Murray, Doug Batchelor, Michael Oxentenko, T. Marshall Kelley, and Kenny Shelton.

▣ Our production team produced an incredible 17 hours of live programming, both in Washington, D.C., and in various locations across the U.S. and Puerto Rico. Here Rodney Laney directs his crew of nearly 20 people during a live broadcast in Washington, D.C.

▣ Pastor T. Marshall Kelly spoke on the importance of God's law of love, and how we must keep His law in our minds and in our hearts. Who can forget his touching sermon? Only God knows how many will be added to the Kingdom because of this man's dedication!

❑ An attentive crowd of thousands from the United States and abroad came together to hear God's Word. What a blessing it was to see them following along in their Bibles with each of our speakers — demonstrating, once again, that God's law of love is relevant today!

❑ Along with the inspired preaching, viewers and listeners all over the world were blessed by the music from talented artists such as the Coral Jovem de Washington (Washington Youth Choir) from Brazil.

❑ Danny Shelton hosted the Ten Commandment Weekend. Later he said, "I truly believe that we saw the prophecy of Revelation 18 unfolding before our eyes during this live event from Washington, D.C., heralding the three angels' messages [of Revelation 14] via eight satellites to every inhabited continent of planet earth!"

❑ Uplink trucks transmitted their signals from Sacramento, California; Brooklyn, New York; Palm Bay, Florida; and San Juan, Puerto Rico, during the weekend. This truck brought the signal from the Sacramento Central Church.

❑ One of our presenters, Pastor Doug Batchelor, said, "We saw people come to the meetings in Sacramento that had been watching 3ABN in their homes but had not darkened the doors of the church for years. There is something about God's law that has a special appeal in an age that is woefully lacking absolutes."

GOD KNOWS NO LIMITS

by Nikki Anderson

The city of Fulton is the Callaway County seat, situated in eastern Missouri. Early in its incorporation, the county became well known as the prime location for religious schools and institutions concerning education and health. That tradition is still but after a bit of discussion, he realized it might just be doable. After checking out some things with Attorney Don Martin and also with Radio Engineer Mel Freedman, he was very encouraged. Leon soon called us back to say his group would venture forth in faith and see where God would lead.

One of his major concerns was program content, and we assured him that only Seventh-day Adventist programming would be broadcast on 3ABN Radio! Another huge concern, of course, was money. The Fulton church had just taken on a large mortgage for a new church building, so attempting to build a radio station at the same time was beyond what most of the members could fathom. When the 20 or so members asked Leon, "Where is the money coming from?" He replied, "I don't know, but God has brought us this far. He is not about to let us go down now."

Then a providential meeting with an old acquaintance gave Leon and Judy Makovicka the opportunity to purchase a duplex building, which they decided to fix up and sell. They promised God to give the profits toward the radio station fund, and when it was sold, a large portion of the building expenses were covered.

Mike Mayfield, a local engineer for a large radio group, was readily available with advice, and he erected the tower and installed the equipment for the new station. KRFL-LP needed a 100-foot tower, and a permit from the city was miraculously granted during a time when the city council was redesigning their restrictions on towers over 65 feet tall. A lot went on during many meetings, and the Lord performed big miracles there!

The soil test indicated that it could not support the tower foundation, so the tower site had to be moved. Now they faced the task of cutting down about 100 trees which were 60–75 feet tall. Some were so big that three men could not reach around them, and it took them 18 months to finish the job!

This also called for a new survey of the property to be done, but while the cost of cutting the trees and moving the building greatly increased their expenses, it also increased the station's power from 83 to 94 watts. On most days the station, located six miles south of I-70,

THE DOOR OF MERCY

by John Dinzey

The tally is in. One thousand sites were registered for this year's Spanish "Net" Evangelism series entitled Jesús es la Esperanza ("Jesus is the Hope") with international evangelist Alejandro Bullón. This year's theme presented Jesus as the only hope for humanity, and each night's message came from the book of Obadiah.

Once again 3ABN Latino was privileged to produce and air this series, and we praise the Lord for the powerful production tools He has given us to bring the gospel to millions of people. I am happy to say that our production crew rose to the challenge and did an outstanding job. I'm so thankful for each crew member who travels thousands of miles to churches, camp meetings, and special events, broadcasting the good news of salvation.

A few times a year we are blessed to see large numbers of people making decisions for the Lord, and this event was one of them. As the series progressed we saw the Holy Spirit work in a marvelous way through Pastor Bullón. The first four nights he made an altar call for people to come forward to accept Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, and each night between 15 and 30 people came forward, many with tears streaming down their faces. Then, during the last four nights, he began to make altar calls for decisions for baptism. Each night was intensely interesting and emotional as people made their way to the front of the church. I remember the first time that invitation was made. Before the altar call Pastor Bullón told a heart-touching story about a man that was ruining his life with alcohol, and how he had given his heart to Jesus. Then, to the surprise of all who were attending, that same man was baptized right there, on the air. Immediately following the baptism, Pastor Bullón made an invitation for people to come forward during an appeal song. As the young lady sang, he bowed his head in silent prayer, and people began to come forward. When he opened his eyes he saw eight people standing in front of him. Praise the Lord! But then he said, "Isn't it wonderful that these eight people have come forward? But, can we have at least 12 more people come who are willing to be baptized?"

When he said that, I looked at the other producer sitting next to me in the production truck. "Twelve more people, and just a few more minutes in the program?" I said, somewhat skeptically. I sat there transfixed when suddenly, one by one, they began to walk down the aisle! Twelve more people came forward — and more kept coming! Some fought back tears as they came forward, and one man kept beating his chest saying, "I am a sinner, I am evil, I am a sinner!" as tears of conviction and repentance streamed down his face.

This is what evangelism is all about. This is why we do what we do here at 3ABN Latino — it's all about people making decisions to give their hearts to Jesus. Praise God that the door of mercy is still open to all.

This was a wonderful experience, and 3ABN Latino was part of it! E-mails came in from 76 countries with praise for the blessings they received during this series. Because of 3ABN Latino's vast reach, this Spanish series had the potential of reaching more people than all the previous Spanish "Net" series! Not only were people tuning in at 1,000 registered sites, they were also watching on the Internet around the world and listening to it through radio stations in South America which were rebroadcasting our 3ABN Latino signal. Add to that the millions of potential viewers who receive our signal on more than 300 cable companies throughout the United States, Mexico, the Caribbean, and Central and South America, and you'll not wonder why we say, "To God be the glory, great things He hath done!" ■

TESTIMONY

THE DISH STORY

by Berni Denslow

When our road crew was broadcasting the Berrien Springs rally in Michigan recently, I was excited to pick up a “dish story” from Pioneer Memorial Church secretary, Sue Rappette. Ever wonder how a satellite dish could make a difference for eternity? Read on for “the rest of the story”!

David Rawls grew up in a Nazarene home in Louisiana, and met his wife Marlene when he worked as a pipeline welder around Ironwood, Michigan; but when the subject of marriage came up, David hit a snag. Although he had not been to church in many years, he knew he could not become a Catholic, and Marlene knew nothing about the Nazarene religion; so they decided to study the Bible together and find a church that taught only doctrines that were found in the Holy Scriptures.

Being raised in the Catholic tradition, Marlene understood the Bible to be a book of stories which may or may not be true. On the other hand, David grew up learning Bible verses — even whole chapters — and could recite all the books of the Bible by the time he was 8 years old!

“When I was dating David, we would go to the bars,” Marlene says, “and while we danced he would tell me Bible stories. I remember thinking, ‘I can hardly believe that this man thinks all this is true!’”

Their friends noticed them talking and would ask them, “What are you two talking about?” but Marlene admits she was too embarrassed to tell them she was listening to Bible stories.

One day she caught sight of a colorful Bible Story book while she sat in her dentist’s waiting room. She took home one of the interest cards and later ordered a set of the Bible Story books. Soon a book salesman showed up at her home and offered her a free Bible if she would like to take a series of Bible studies.

After completing the studies, she felt overwhelmed with joy as she received her very first Bible. Then she located a Seventh-day Adventist church in Ironwood and began worshipping with them.

David was also taking Bible studies from Amazing Facts, and they both agreed that the Seventh-day Adventist Church was where God was leading them. What a happy weekend it was as David celebrated his birthday on Friday; they were both baptized on Sabbath, and married on Sunday in June of 1971!

Shortly after this they moved 180 miles to Escanaba, Michigan, and found themselves in a new city and in a new church, where they were the youngest couple. Their families and friends were not overjoyed by their choice of religion, and in spite of their newfound happiness in Jesus, they began to feel very alone. Marlene took her loneliness to the Lord, asking Him, “Please send us some friends.”

Knowing that helping others is always a cure for loneliness, and remembering her experience with the literature evangelist who had presented her with her first Bible, Marlene decided this would be a great way to find people who were interested in the Bible. Soon she was studying with Sue Rappette, and shortly after that Sue was baptized. Marlene was elated! God had sent her a sister-in-the-faith as an answer to her prayer. She says, “I was never as excited about anybody’s baptism as I was about Sue’s,” and her joy only grew when a year later Sue's husband was baptized, too.

Years passed and both families relocated a number of times until the Rappettes settled in Berrien Springs, Michigan, and the Rawls family in Sturgeon Bay, Wisconsin.

And now our satellite dish story begins. David says, "We had been studying with a man named John McDonald, and on numerous occasions he came to our home to watch special events on 3ABN. He would often mention how nice prised to see Leroy there, and later they both stayed overnight in Joe's home.

As they talked of how the Lord was blessing their lives, Leroy asked, "Do you know anyone who needs a 3ABN satellite dish? We no longer need ours since there is a downlink in Berrien Springs where we live."

"I need one," David said, raising his hand.

"Don't you already have one?" Leroy asked,

"Well, yes," David replied, "but I've been studying the Bible with a man who was recently baptized in our church, and he really needs one. He loves 3ABN's programming."

"Well," Leroy said, "you can have the dish, but you will have to come pick it up."

David was delighted. "I assured him that the sun would not set on my head the next day before I was in Berrien Springs to get the dish."

David made the short trip to John McDonald's home to deliver the satellite dish. John was so excited as he could now watch 3ABN in his own home and record programs on DVD and VHS to pass out to anyone who would listen or show interest.

The McDonald family then moved about 10 miles away to a new home, and it wasn't long before their closest neighbors, Andy and Caroline Anderson, decided to visit them with a gift of home-grown sweet corn. What a divine appointment that turned out to be, because by the time they left they had several 3ABN programs on DVD to watch. Soon a great friendship developed, and they readily accepted John's invitation to come watch Pastor Doug Batchelor's '05 Revive series on 3ABN, hardly missing a single night!

Meanwhile, a small group began meeting at David's home for Bible study. One night John asked, "Do you suppose we have more room at the table? I would like to invite some dairy farmer friends who have been watching 3ABN at our home to study with us." Soon Andy and Carolyn were part of the group, and they found that they had a lot in common with the group, since the majority of them had been raised in the Catholic faith.

"Our church in Sturgeon Bay is very small," David says, "If we have 20, it's a large crowd!" But one Sabbath John decided to invite Andy and Caroline to the Green Bay church to experience worship in a larger congregation. There they found an Amazing Facts evangelistic series just getting underway. Andy and Carolyn began attending regularly, and when a call was made to surrender their lives to Jesus, the Andersons responded to the invitation and were baptized — just a few months ago. Not surprisingly, now they have a dish of their own.

"John and I were so inspired by what has happened, that we asked the Sturgeon Bay church board if we might begin a dish project in our area, and it was it would be if he could watch 3ABN in his own home, so we asked the Lord what He would have us do."

One day David had an appointment with his dentist, Joe Kim, who happens to be Leroy and Sue Rappette's son-in-law. When he walked into the waiting room, he was sur-

CUERPO Y ESPÍRITU - AERÓBICOS es un programa de ejercicios variados los cuales han sido adaptados para toda la familia. Usted aprenderá acerca de la importancia del sano vivir y de cómo lograr mantener una salud óptima. Se nos recuerda lo que Dios dice en 1 Corintios 6:19, "¿O ignoráis que vuestro cuerpo es templo del Espíritu Santo, el cual está en vosotros, el cual tenéis de Dios, y que no sois vuestros?" Unámonos a Dick Nuñez y sus invitados durante esta jornada hacia la salud total en Cristo Jesús.

Cuerpo y Espíritu - Aeróbicos

—Pr. Richard Piñero, Departamento Pastoral/Mercadeo

Memory verse

Psalm 104:24 (NIV): "How many are your works, O Lord! In wisdom you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures."

Hey Kids, recently we were in Atlanta, Georgia, for a live TV broadcast, and during the week we had a few hours off. My friends Amy and Robert decided to go to the zoo with me, and what a wonderful time we had! The most interesting animal we saw was this kangaroo and the baby joey in her pouch! Right after I took his picture, the joey got shy and snuggled down into his mamma's pouch, leaving only his little feet sticking out! Didn't God have a wonderful sense of humor when He created the animals?

Amy, Robert, and I enjoyed the petting zoo the best because we could actually pet the animals!

Love,

to church, started listening to KRFL-LP in her car to and from work,” he says. “The message she heard renewed her spiritual life so much that she feels stronger than ever and is happily attending church.”

The group decided to have a booth at the county fair in 2005. A lay evangelist, Charles Pitford, was at the booth when a home-health nurse stopped by. She told him KRFL-LP is the only station she listens to and she even has her patients tune in when she visits them.

The people in this area also get involved in other projects and planned to hand out 2,500 free copies of Ten Commandments Twice Removed. It rained the Sabbath afternoon they planned to hand out the books, but Carol Schaefer encouraged the volunteers saying, “If the hunters can be out on a day like this, we can go out to do the Lord’s work!” So, off they went, 30–35 adults and children ... rain and all!

One big lesson Leon has learned about God is, “We tend to limit God. But He takes things farther and makes them larger than we could ever think!” ■ covers between 40 and 50 miles through the heart of Missouri! (Not bad for a station that was originally supposed to have a range of 3.5–7 miles!)

The tower itself brought other problems. The manufacturer sent the wrong pattern for setting the bolts in the concrete, so the bottom section of the tower had to have new legs and plates made to fit the bolt pattern. Deadlines for deliveries were repeatedly missed, but everything finally came the same day the crane arrived to erect the tower. (God’s perfect timing!)

Leon and his team say they have received many praise reports since their station went on the air August 19, 2004. “One woman, who was discouraged and ready to quit going soon approved,” David says. “Now if someone wants a dish, we purchase it for them. Each recipient is asked to make a comfortable monthly donation to the fund, so other people might also have a dish. It is a church project, and all members are invited to support this most worthy endeavor.”

It’s simply wonderful how God used a donated 3ABN satellite dish to draw Andy and Caroline to His family, but I know the “dish story” is not finished, yet. All over the world, the Lord continues to impress His children to do the same, and the satellite dishes are moving around, searching out more souls for the Kingdom! ■

Editor’s note: This idea is very similar to the “Dish Initiative” that has been in place in Australia, New Zealand, and around the United States for some time. It’s amazing that the Lord has impressed people in different parts of the world to do this, without the knowledge that it is being done elsewhere.

Video of the Month

What a blessing the Ten Commandments Weekend was to so many around the world, and this month we want to offer you a chance to get two hours of inspired preaching from that special event! Our Video of the Month features the sermons of Pastors Jay Gallimore and T. Marshall Kelly, and their messages are perfect for sharing, too! They’re available right now on DVD or VHS for a suggested donation of $20.00 (U.S.), and that includes postage! Call us at 1-800-752-3226 and order your copy today!

Giving

In addition to regular gifts to 3ABN’s ministry, many of you have also helped us grow by arranging both immediate and deferred gifts of your assets.

Did you know that the best instrument for highly appreciated property such as real estate, stocks, and bonds is a Charitable Remainder Unitrust? With it you can avoid capital gains taxes on donated assets, receive attractive rates of interest, avoid probate expenses on donated assets, receive a large charitable deduction, and negotiate to receive either a fixed annual payout or a variable income.

Call our Stewardship and Trusts Services to find out how you can help 3ABN’s worldwide ministry through Charitable Gift Annuities and Deferred Charitable Gift Annuities as well. And as always, thank you for your prayers and support!
