WELCOME

What an incredible month this is! May is when we celebrate the Ten Commandments Weekend in Chicago, along with our own 3ABN Spring Camp Meeting at our Worship Center. During Camp Meeting we'll be blessed with messages from Pastor Wintley Phipps, along with our friend, Pastor Kenneth Cox, whose life story is featured in "The Amazing Window Shade" (p. 6). Find out how the Jones family are "Making History in Mississippi" (p. 16), and how God honored Beth Skarritt's "Tenacious Faith" with a miracle (p. 20). Michael Babb's story (p. 10) of how he came to 3ABN is fascinating, too. So sit back, relax, and enjoy all these, plus a devotional, special features, and all your listings. It's all packed (tightly!) into this month's 3ABN World magazine. Enjoy!

For the Lord God will help Me; therefore I will not be disgraced; therefore I have set My face like a flint, and I know that I will not be ashamed.
ISAIAH 50:7 (NKJV)

Dear Family,

It has often been said that if we are not facing opposition, we're probably not doing anything effective for the kingdom of God. Our adversary, the devil, seems to oppose most viciously those who would do the greatest work for God.

If you are facing opposition—perhaps a backlash of criticism for following the truths of God—I want to give you a word of encouragement. Count yourself blessed—you're just receiving the "Jesus treatment."

Consider all that our Savior suffered at the hands of His enemies. He was resisted and falsely accused, despised and rejected, beaten and spit upon, disrobed and crucified. For all of our murmuring and complaining of the challenges and oppositions we meet, can any of us claim to have suffered as Him?

Even knowing what His end would be, what did Jesus do? He set His face like a flint, and with firm determination carried forth the mission of salvation. For the joy set before Him, He endured the cross (Hebrews 12:2)—knowing, in the end, He would not be disgraced or ashamed.

Christ commissioned us for the cause of spreading the Gospel. When we face trials and hindrances, we are to count it all joy (James 1:2). God uses these to test our faith and do a wonderful work within us. So, let us set our face like flint to continue onward and upward for the cause of Christ.

Please accept our heartfelt thanks for your continued support of God's ministry at 3ABN.

May God richly bless you,

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

Have you been blessed?

Have you been blessed by 3ABN? Or have you come to know the Lord Jesus Christ by watching or listening? We'd love to know!

VIA E-MAIL, FROM RUSSIA:

"Thank you very much for your work. What grace has been poured out on me today (though I'm at work). May God bless you in every way! I will earnestly recommend your website and its contents to all my friends. Thank you again."

GALLATIN, TENNESSEE:

"My mother loved 3ABN, and during the last four years of her life she was confined to a wheelchair and spent a large portion of each day watching your programs. She used to say, 'Don't wait until I'm dead to send me flowers. I won't know or enjoy them then.' When she died, it didn't seem right to have flowers sent to the funeral home—flowers she would not see or enjoy. Instead, a note was placed beside her in the casket that all who came to pay their respects could read. Part of that note said that a donation was being made to 3ABN in her memory in lieu of flowers, so that others could learn of the Jesus she loved."

ROGUE RIVER, OREGON:

"I have enjoyed your network for four years now. I've learned so much truth that I never knew before. Between you and KBLN (Better Life TV), you've made my old age bearable by keeping my mind and thoughts on Jesus. Without you I would have been lost."

GRAND CAYMAN ISLAND:

"We receive such a blessing by watching 3ABN every day, we hardly watch anything else, except for the news and sometimes an educational channel. My husband and I were both baptized in the Seventh-day Adventist church as a direct result of watching and learning more truth on 3ABN. May God bless you all."

CLINTON, MASSACHUSETTS:

"We moved to Clinton because this is one of only two towns here that have 3ABN on cable TV. We enjoy watching 3ABN very much. Keep up the good work. We pray for you."

PORT MORESBY, PAPUA NEW GUINEA:

"When Satan took over my life and left me for dead, I was renewed once again when 'by accident' I turned on the television and saw a pastor preaching the Word of God. Thank God for 3ABN and the truth, because now I am on the road to recovery. God has started to do new things in my life and I praise and give glory to His name!"

LITTLE SUAMICO, WISCONSIN:

"I spent nine months volunteering in Waveland, Mississippi, because of a program you aired on 3ABN. I've never been so blessed, and my outlook on life has changed so much due to this experience. Thank you for getting me off the couch and into service for our King."

WILLAMSPORT, MASSACHUSETTS:

"I was raised in the Lutheran faith, and our practice was to attend church on Sunday and on holidays, with no religion the other days. I began searching, which took me through ups and downs. I don't know for sure, but some of the things I learned during my search stuck in my mind. Anxious and confused, I started flipping through the TV channels. To my surprise, 3ABN popped on. I watched in awe as several of my questions were answered in simple terms that I could relate to. The clearness of the Seventh-day Sabbath was from the Bible only. Thanks 3ABN. I now have a better understanding of the Bible."

INA, ILLINOIS:

"I am so blessed to have come in contact with your radio broadcast. I was raised in a fundamental, legalistic church. I knew for years, in my heart, that something was missing, and I finally turned my life completely over to Christ in jail. . . . Every day since, His Spirit has been doing great things. When I found your station, I knew that God had a purpose for this happening. The Spirit is telling me that you are genuine and have God's Spirit. I want to be a part of Christ's true church. I know Christ said, 'By their fruits ye shall know them.'"

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

THE AMAZING WINDOW SHADE

Born in Chicago, Illinois, Pastor Kenneth Cox was only 18 months old when he developed severe asthma. Doctors couldn't do much for him, so his parents open so I could get my breath back."

Later his parents moved their children to a small farm in Oklahoma where they had grown up, but everything changed when they received a visit from a man with a magazine—and an amazing window shade!

"A literature evangelist came through our little town passing out a magazine called These Times," Pastor Cox recalls. "We weren't home, so he went to our neighbors and left the magazine with them. Having no interest in it, Mrs. Morgan simply tucked it into a Sears & Roebuck catalog and forgot all about it.

"The next week my mother needed the catalog, so she borrowed it and, of course, resorted to unusual methods in their desperation. "It was so bad," he tells us, "that when I was a baby they would drive me around with the car windows found the magazine. There was an article in there about the seventh-day Sabbath, and although my parents were only nominal Christians, that article really sparked her interest."

"DAD AND I WERE PLOWING WHEN WE SAW MY MOTHER COMING ACROSS THE FIELD, MAGAZINE IN HAND. DAD STOPPED THE HORSES, READ THE ARTICLE, AND BECAME INTERESTED, TOO."

Back to her neighbor's house she went. "Where did you get this magazine?" she asked. Mrs. Morgan told her about the man who had dropped it off, and Mrs. Cox asked her to send him over if he ever came back.

"Dad and I were plowing that day when we saw Mother coming across the field, magazine in hand," Pastor Cox recalls. "Dad stopped the horses, read the article, and then he became interested, too."

Soon the whole family was having Bible studies, and that's when young Kenneth's curiosity was piqued.

"When the literature evangelist came to our house, he'd bring an old window shade that he'd roll out on the floor.

He was a tremendous artist, and he'd drawn and colored the most fascinating things on it! It contained all the prophecy timelines, as well as vivid, colorful pictures of the strange beasts mentioned in Daniel and Revelation. I'll tell you, it really grabbed my attention!"

It wasn't long before mother and son began attending church. "We lived in the country, two miles from Hartshorne," Pastor Cox explains. "The closest Seventh-day Adventist church was in McCallister, 17 miles away. Each Sabbath my mother and I would walk two miles to catch the streetcar into town.

"Unfortunately, our church was not very active. There were eight or ten of us young people, and we had nothing to do on Sabbath afternoons. Because I didn't know any better, I would ride the streetcar back to Hartshorne and spend all afternoon at the pool hall! But all that changed when a young couple showed up and started inviting us over to their house for lunch and Sabbath afternoon activities."

Things at home started to change, too. Kenneth and his mother were baptized, but his father didn't accept the Sabbath message. In fact, he became angrier each week. One day the minister decided to take a group of young people to visit Southwestern Junior College, a Seventh-day Adventist school in Keene, Texas, 230 miles away. "I really wanted to go to school there," Pastor Cox says, "but by now my father had become violently opposed to our religious beliefs. He wouldn't unleash his violence on my mother, but every week he would whip me for going to church."

Instead of dissuading young Kenneth, the whippings only made him more determined. "I had to make a decision, so I left home and hitchhiked to Keene with only 11 cents in my pocket, and there I worked my way through school."

After graduating, he attended Union College in Lincoln, Nebraska, where he met and married his wife, Marilyn. Then they were off to Takoma Park, Maryland, where he attended the seminary, and little did he know the test of his faith he would endure.

"My wife had contracted rheumatic fever, and as I sat on her hospital bed I told her I thought I should quit the seminary and go to work to pay the hospital bills. 'Kenneth, why don't you take the Lord for what He says?' she asked. 'We've been faithful with our tithe. I believe we should step out in faith!'" Surprised by her courage, he still hesitated. "I told her I'd sell the car, and just keep going to school until the money ran out," he admits. "And that didn't take long! But then an amazing thing began to happen.

"Day after day I would go to the mailbox and find several envelopes with ten or fifteen dollars in them from friends who said they were impressed to send me money. They weren't huge amounts, but they paid for my living expenses and her medical bills. In fact, I finished school without owing the doctor or the hospital a single penny.

"We began working in Albuquerque, New Mexico, after graduation, and eight years later we moved to Maryland where I worked for the local church conference office. Then a friend told me about a new technology that allowed the use of multiple projectors and very large screens, and suddenly I had an idea! After spending three days at an audio-visual dealer's convention, I knew what I wanted to do.

"I sat down with the conference president and explained that I was quitting my job in order to work full-time in evangelism. But I told no one else about my plans," he adds. "I just prayed about it."

At that very time, the Lord impressed a church leader in

"BY NOW MY FATHER HAD BECOME VIOLENTLY OPPOSED TO OUR RELIGIOUS BELIEFS. HE WOULDN'T UNLEASH HIS VIOLENCE ON MY MOTHER, BUT EVERY WEEK HE WOULD WHIP ME FOR GOING TO CHURCH."

Oklahoma to call him to do full-time evangelism, and that's what he's been doing for the past 37 years!

FROM PORTLAND TO PODUNK WITH GOD

by Nikki Anderson

It's been said that to get to 3ABN you drive to nowhere and then make a left turn. That's what it must have seemed like for Mike Babb when he moved from the big city of Portland, Oregon, to the small town of Thompsonville in southern Illinois. Along with him came his wife, Valera, a registered nurse, and their four young children: Jonathan, then 12; Jason, 9; Dené, 6; and Denielle, 15 months old. Valera says, "Mike drove 26 hours straight to stay ahead of a snowstorm! We arrived December 21, and Mike started work on January 2, 2002."

Mike's a West Coast boy, born in California, then moved to the Portland area when he was 15 years old. He went to Laurelwood Academy, where he met Valera, and then they both attended Walla Walla College. Mike's studies were varied. "I studied electronics, graphics, and communications at Walla Walla. Then I went to a two-year college specifically for radio broadcasting."

While still in school he interned at a large Portland radio station for several months, then began full-time employment there in May 1985, and married Valera in June. During his 17 years at the Portland station, Mike worked in several departments, fine-tuning a multitude of skills. He says, "Those years of diversity helped to prepare me for coming to 3ABN Radio."

Speaking of coming to 3ABN, I asked Mike how that happened. He answered, "Africa." In June 2001, the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists sponsored a series called, "Africa For Christ" in Mwanza, Tanzania. They invited the Oregon Adventist Men's Chorus, of which Mike was a member, to sing for the meetings. (By the way, Mike also plays the 12-string guitar.) "That experience re-directed my focus from working for the church to working directly for God."

There, he visited with 3ABN engineer Ian Miller. Ian told Mike he should apply for a job at 3ABN Radio.

After Mike returned home to Portland, several other people made the same suggestion as Ian. He kept dismissing them, thinking he didn't have the qualifications and, besides, he didn't want to uproot his family. Then he saw the ad for a radio engineer on 3ABN television and began to think God was seriously telling him something. Finally, he contacted 3ABN and there followed a series of phone calls and e-mails. Mike and Valera came for a visit in September and the rest, as they say, is history.

Smiling, as if I had no clue to the answer, I asked Mike what a typical day in the life of 3ABN Radio's engineer is like. He answered, "Typical? There is no such thing as typical! Every day is new: from projects concerning the network equipment, to calls from affiliates, to researching equipment and technology on the Internet, to maintenance of our own local radio station, WDQN-FM ... you name it!" (Also, fixing computer problems for the resident administrative assistant who really doesn't have a clue!) He even steps out of his comfort zone and does a wonderful job of teaching at our radio training schools. Sometimes it's overwhelming, since he is only one person, but he says, "The praise reports we receive from our local listeners are affirmations from God to keep going and to continue lifting Him up so He can draw all men to Him. Also, sharing the joy our affiliates experience from their own listeners' praise reports confirms that I'm where God wants me to be."

Mike sums it all up by saying, "If God calls you, listen. There is a definite spiritual blessing from working in ministry; just keep the focus on Him!" ■

A MARRIAGE MIRACLE

Things were not going well for Julio and Carmen, and they were in the process of divorce. There seemed to be no hope of reconciliation. But God was making another effort to bring them back together.

“THIS TIME I WANT TO PUT GOD IN THE CENTER OF OUR MARRIAGE,” JULIO SAID.

Julio had come to the house to pick up some of his things—another indication that their marriage was over. He knocked on the door and told Carmen what he had come to pick up. As he came in and began gathering his things, Carmen returned to watching 3ABN Latino, and God’s perfect timing went into effect.

While he was in the other room, the Spanish version of 3ABN’s Marriage in God’s Hands program began. Carmen watched in amazement. As Julio finished packing his things and approached her, she looked at him and said, “If you’re not in a hurry, would you be willing to watch the rest of this program with me?” To her amazement, he agreed and sat down.

They both watched in silence, and at the conclusion of the program, both Julio and Carmen realized that there was still a chance for things to work out for them.

“You know, we never really gave God a chance in our marriage,” Julio said, breaking the silence.

“Yes, I know,” Carmen answered softly. Then, with an honest heart she continued, “I’m willing to try again if you are, Julio.”

“This time I want to put God in the center of our marriage,” he said, as his eyes welled up with tears.

Carmen began to sob. It wasn’t long before they were hugging each other as the tears continued to flow. That very day they made a decision to place their marriage in God’s powerful hands, and it’s a decision they’ve never regretted.

Lucy called us from Central America. She said she was praising God for what she was seeing. She went on to tell us that she’s a member of a Pentecostal church, but that she really enjoys watching 3ABN Latino.

As we talked, she took me back to the beginning of her story. She shared that it was after reading 1 Corinthians 6:19 one day that the Lord impressed her like never before that her body was the temple of the Holy Spirit. She realized that she needed to start making some changes to improve her health, and because of God’s perfect timing, it was then that she discovered 3ABN Latino.

After watching our health programs, she realized that God was providing her the information she needed to start taking better care of her health. Today she continues to be an avid viewer of the network God used to help her on her way to better health.

Isn’t God marvelous? He continues to use 3ABN Latino to do what He began with 3ABN’s English channel—and that is to mend broken people!

We are continuing to hear the “Macedonian call.”* More cable companies have added 3ABN Latino to their lineup. I recently heard from an excited teenager whom God has used to bring 3ABN Latino to his corner of Nicaragua! 3ABN Latino has also been added to three more cable companies in Mexico, one in Honduras, and one in Colombia! The gospel continues to go forward with power. Thank you for your prayers on behalf of our network. Please continue to petition the Lord to open doors for more viewers to hear these lifesaving and life-changing messages. ■

*Acts 16:9, 10.

Hey Kids,

This month I wanted you to meet a very special friend of mine. Her name is Kayla. She's 7 years old, and she loves Jesus very much! I know this because she is loving and kind, and she loves to sing songs about Jesus.

How about you? Are you letting your light shine for Jesus every day?

Love,
Tammy

TESTIMONY

MAKING HISTORY IN MISSISSIPPI

by Berni Denslow

Patty was just out of high school when she married and moved from Mississippi to Texas. But, sadly, her marriage failed, leaving her with two small children. Later, she was sure she had found happiness once near the place she had grown up.

She was determined never to marry again, but four months later she was introduced to Jay Jones by some family members. Although he was 15 years younger, it didn't take him long to change her mind, and soon they were married. Now, 30 years later, Patty smiles as she tells me, "He's the best man in the world! He's a great father to my five children, and grandfather to our 17 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. We still find it amusing when people can't believe our age difference and tease us about whether I look younger or he looks older."

Life was good, and they both loved the Lord and attended their local church. But several again with a young soldier, but marital bliss seemed to elude her, and after 18 years of marriage and three more children, it too dissolved in a divorce.

Taking their youngest daughter, she returned to Mississippi,

"We didn't know whether the others were satisfied enough not to ask questions, or if they just didn't want to rock the boat."

years ago their pastor led the congregation in a study of the Bible and the book of Revelation. They began to question his teaching regarding the secret rapture, the Millennium, and a few other things, especially since they knew that the secret rapture theory has no biblical basis.

"As we began questioning these teachings, we noticed that it was rare for anyone to disagree with him. We didn't know whether the others were satisfied enough not to ask questions, or if they just didn't want to rock the boat."

Deciding they needed to look for another congregation, they visited three more churches of the same denomination in the next four months, finding them not much different from the one they had just left. Disillusioned, they decided to stay home, and a Dominion Sky Angel satellite dish system seemed the way to go. After it was installed, Jay began channel surfing as he looked for religious programming. One day he came across a program called House Calls.

"Hey Patty, come here!" he called. "You have to see these weird guys!"

Although more of a reader than a TV viewer, Patty obliged him and sat down to watch. They had no idea that God had led them to a channel called 3ABN, but so began a journey through God's Word that would change the direction of their lives forever.

"Pastor Leo Screven's seminar series came on, and that was it! We knew it was truth," exclaims Patty.

They were excited and began to download his seminar lessons, printing them out and sharing them with others. They gave a set to one of the deacons in their church. Patty says, "In this series, the Millennium (the 1,000 years after the Second Coming of Christ) was made so plain, we felt he needed to read it. But if he did, he never mentioned it."

Feeling compelled to worship with others that believed these Bible truths, they began looking for a Seventh-day Adventist church in earnest. They found and drove past two of them, one in a commercial area, and one in a residential setting. "Then," Patty recalls, "we did something rather secular. We flipped a coin, and it indicated the first church."

The following Saturday morning they dressed and were about to leave for the service when she said, "I don't want to go to that church, Jay. The area is just too commercial, so let's go to the other one."

(You know a woman has a right to change her mind!)

As they walked in, the greeters met them and made them feel welcome.

"Jay told them we were looking for a Seventh-day Adventist church, and the elder in charge, not wanting us to feel uncomfortable in a predominantly black church, mentioned that there was another church not far away which was predominantly white. But other members said, 'They are in the right place now!' and we stayed.

"Of course we enjoyed it, and came back the next week. Then our pastor's wife asked how we were being treated, and we told her that the church made us feel very welcome. Then it was my turn to ask her if anyone was unhappy because we were there, and of course that was not the case."

Pastor Caesar Monroe says, "It is a real blessing to have a white couple worship with us. This promises to be a breakthrough in terms of relationships, because in Mississippi, one doesn't find many whites attending a predominantly black church in a black neighborhood."

On the day they were baptized, with Jay and Patty together in the baptistery, Pastor Monroe said to them, "You know you are making history. You are the first white couple to be baptized into a predominantly black church in all of Mississippi."

So began a sweet fellowship with their new brothers and sisters in the Ephesus Seventh-day Adventist Church, where Jay and Patty now serve as deacon and deaconess. Their musical talents are put to good use, too, singing duets and solos as needed.

Patty notes that her church family was so supportive as she faced back surgery for the second time last June. "While I was in the hospital and during my recuperation, I received many visits, cards, and phone calls, and they meant so much to me."

Their church supported them through Hurricane Katrina as well. There was much damage in the Hattiesburg area, but Patty remembers she sang, "Lord, Send Your Angels," as she paced the floor throughout the storm, going from window to window. "Jay told me that if I didn't stop I would be two or three inches shorter!"

Patty remembers the last phone call she received before the hurricane knocked out

"While I was in the hospital and during my recuperation, I received many visits, cards and phone calls, and they meant so much to me."

phone service for two months and electricity for three weeks. "It was my pastor calling—making sure that we were safe," she says. "We thanked God for getting us safely through that storm."

3ABN continues to be a part of their home with a new satellite dish system. They continue to record programs and share the everlasting gospel with their family and friends—and especially with their children. God be praised for using 3ABN once again! ■

TENACIOUS FAITH

HOW ONE WOMAN'S PERSISTENCE TURNED ON LIGHTS ACROSS ALBUQUERQUE

Beth Skarritt wouldn't give up on getting 3ABN into Albuquerque, New Mexico.

“RIGHT THEN AND THERE I DECIDED THAT AS LONG AS JESUS WAS WITH ME, WE COULD DO IT—TOGETHER.”

“I didn't have the foggiest idea what she was talking about,” admits Beth Skarritt of Albuquerque, New Mexico. “My friend had asked me if I was going to watch the Net '98 series with Pastor Dwight Nelson on 3ABN, and I had to ask what 3ABN was!”

Beth was surprised that she hadn't heard of this network before, and she wanted to watch it. But since she didn't have a satellite dish, she decided to pray for the Lord to impress someone to get 3ABN on cable in her city.

God's answer took her by surprise. “I prayed for nearly a year,” she says, “before I realized that He was placing that burden on me! I just woke up one morning and the light came on in my head—I was to do it myself! Right then and there I decided that as long as Jesus was with me, we could do it—together.”

Her first call was to Cox Cable, which served the city of Albuquerque. “They told me ‘No,’ but I told them that I'd keep calling until they put 3ABN on,” she says with a grin. “I told that young man that as long as the Lord was my partner, we would get this done.”

Taken aback, the cable representative informed Beth that they already had too many religious channels on their system.

“We have three Catholic channels alone!” he told her.

“Then that's two too many!” she quickly replied.

What the cable representative didn't know was that he was up against Beth's tenacious faith. Determined to get the job done, she immediately asked him the obvious question.

“What do I have to do to get you to put on 3ABN?” she asked.

“We prefer 1,000–2,000 signatures,” he said, “but we'll consider your petition if you have 300–500 requests.”

Immediately Beth began working with church members and other congregations, collecting signatures every week. But in the meantime, she didn't forget her new friend at the cable company. “I blessed him with a telephone call at least twice a week,” she adds with a laugh, “and we became pretty good friends.”

After collecting around 150 names, Beth made an appointment to see him. When she presented her list, he seemed disappointed.

“I TOLD HIM THAT THEY WOULD ACCEPT THE 150 AS IF THEY WERE 1,000, BECAUSE WE HAD BEEN THROUGH THIS BEFORE, AND THESE 150 NAMES WERE PRAYING, AND THAT THE 150 WERE MORE POWERFUL THAN HIS 1,000!”

“I believe I told you that we needed at least 500 signatures,” he said.

“No,” Beth replied calmly, “these will do because these people are all praying for this to happen—and when you get God’s people praying for something and the Lord is behind it, it’s going to happen!”

Surprised once more at her determined faith, the young man told her he’d never met anyone like her before, agreeing to do what he could to help her cause.

But Satan had other ideas. “The next thing I knew, he was being transferred to Washington. On top of that, Cox Cable was sold to Comcast Cable, and I had to start all over again!”

Undaunted, Beth began calling the marketing department at Comcast Cable. “They told me they weren’t putting on any new stations, so I told them how close we had come with the previous company.” Then the marketing representative said he’d never heard of 3ABN, and that he wouldn’t put an unknown station on his system. Beth took it all in stride. “I told him that we would just have to get him acquainted with 3ABN!”

First she asked him to look at the list of signatures on file from the previous company. When he said those files had been destroyed, she brought him a copy. Just as before, he insisted that she give him 1,000 signatures, or his superiors would not even consider it.

“I told him that they would accept the 150 as if they were 1,000, because we had been through this before, and these 150 names were praying, and that the 150 were more powerful than his 1,000!”

Beth told him she’d been working on this project for several years, and then, in characteristic determination she added, “It does not upset me when you say ‘no’ to me. It just makes me more determined.”

That seemed to change his mind. Soon he asked how he could contact 3ABN, and Beth put him in touch with our marketing staff.

But Satan wasn’t going to give up without a battle. “After 3ABN signed a contract with Comcast,” she recalls, “it seemed like everything went wrong. No matter what we did, nothing worked. But I never doubted.”

A whole year passed after the contract was signed. Beth still couldn’t watch 3ABN on cable, but she checked nearly every day. Then one Sabbath morning in August 2003 she turned on her television. Overjoyed by what she saw, she immediately called the 3ABN marketing representative and told him the news.

She heard him shout “Praise the Lord!” at the top of his lungs, and he immediately called 3ABN’s president, Danny Shelton—who just happened to be in Albuquerque attending the ASI Convention.

While Beth watched the live ASI coverage that afternoon, she saw Danny announce that 3ABN had just been added to Comcast Cable in Albuquerque that very day. What a victory this was for the Lord, and what an answer to prayer for Beth and her 150 prayer warriors!

After helping to get 3ABN on cable in Albuquerque, Beth began to pray for a new TV channel for those who don’t have cable. Today channel 38 broadcasts 3ABN’s Christ-centered programming 24 hours a day in her city, and Beth is looking for a new way to put her faith to work!

She adds, “I want to tell anyone who wants to get 3ABN on their local cable system that they cannot fail if God is the Mastermind.” ■

BROTHER TURLEY AND SISTER PEARL

by Annette Palazola Christian

For His sake: I am but one,
but I am one
I cannot do everything, but I can do something
What I can do, I ought to do
What I ought to do,
by the grace of God I will do
Lord, what will you have me do?
—Helen Keller

Some days we compare our gifts with those of others and decide we really don't have much to offer. Someone else is always better, richer, prettier, smarter—you name it. It is then that we shove our gifts into the corner, hiding them under shame, intimidation, and fear of comparison, rejection, or failure. I've often felt this way. There will always be someone who can offer something better, but no one can give my gifts except me. I may offer only a cup of cold water, but Jesus turns it into fine wine. I learned early from Brother Turley and Sister Pearl.

Brother Turley was a charming elderly black man, an ex-boxer whose worst beatings came from the heavy boot of life. He had an accordion that he couldn't play well, but he played it anyway. He couldn't sing, either, but he sang anyway, his heart full of joy, offering his praise right out loud. There were others more talented but unwilling or apathetic. Brother Turley's spirit was so sweet and willing that no one held his musical deficiencies against him. He touched lives, for as he sang water, Jesus made it wine.

I met Sister Pearl at a tent revival when I was six. Her teeth, gums, and breath left a lot to be desired. Years later she got dentures, when she stopped giving her money away long enough to everyone she felt was in need. Every week after church, men and women, young and old, teenagers and babies alike, received a thorough kissing from Sister Pearl. It gained her the secret nickname of Sister Kissy Face among some of the children.

Sister Pearl believed in keeping pure in body, mind, and spirit. If you didn't do the same for yours she was ready to help you with a passage from the Good Book and a piping hot dish of vegeburger. At church she sang the loudest, and if things didn't suit her she thought nothing of changing the order of service right from her seat in the congregation.

Sister Pearl adored children. It appeared she had never learned to think as an adult. She was childlike in her ideas, and doubly so in her sincerity. People wondered if she was "for real," but twenty years is a long time to pretend. Tiny children loved her. Teens thought her ridiculous. Adults tolerated her. But no one wanted to hurt her. It was impossible not to love her, and God surely must have. She deserved it.

Sister Pearl was always first to help anyone she believed was in need, whether they were or not. She just couldn't resist pouring out her loving heart. Her gifts didn't seem like much, but the hungry were fed, broken hearts were restored, the needy were clothed, pain was soothed, children were loved, teens were encouraged, and more. She offered what seemed like water—plain, simple, refreshing—and Jesus turned it into wine.

Might you have a little gift you've been hiding? It's time to bring it out. You'll know what it is. The Holy Spirit will tell you in your heart. Go ahead, little child, hold up that gift you think is clumsily wrapped before Jesus. He sees beauty and strength in it. Hearts will be warmed, lives enriched when the glory of Jesus' love covers that present. Little is much when God is in it, and Jesus will turn your water into wine. ■ and Pam Rhodes, and many more have all given unselfishly of their time and talents, and thousands of souls have been added to God’s kingdom!

But life has not been without heartaches. “Many years ago, my wife Marilyn wanted another baby,” Pastor Cox says. “Because her rheumatic fever had caused damage to the mitral valve in her heart, we weighed the risks carefully with our doctor, before deciding to have one.”

Sadly, during childbirth, both mother and child took a turn for the worse. Their baby lived only two days, and they had to perform open heart surgery to save Marilyn’s life. “She lived for another ten years before having more problems,” Pastor Cox adds, “but during the course of her second open heart surgery she died.” Devastated and alone, Pastor Cox turned to his God for help, and instead of letting discouragement stop him, he focused on His mighty power to change lives.

Today his memory is filled to capacity with miracle stories, and he struggles to pick just one to share.

“Two years ago I saw God change the course of a typhoon,” he says confidently. “We were set up to have meetings in Guam and, after many problems, we were finally set to start on a Sunday night.

“But a huge problem loomed on the horizon: Weather forecasters warned that a monster storm, packing winds of 160 miles per hour, was headed directly towards us! The mayor declared a curfew for Sunday night, but as God’s people prayed, the forecast kept changing. Sabbath morning came, and we were praying,” he says, “and then came the weather forecast: ‘We don’t understand this, but the typhoon has taken a totally different course. It’s going to miss us completely!’

“Sunday night we had a fantastic turn out,” Pastor Cox continues, “and we didn’t have any wind or rain. But as the meetings continued, I found myself increasingly short of breath.”

After an examination, his doctor gave him the bad news. “You have congestive heart failure, and you need to get on the next plane back to the mainland!”

Pastor Cox was determined. “Doctor,” he said, “you have only one responsibility—and that’s to keep me alive throughout these meetings!” And he did.

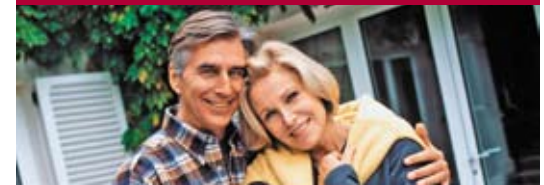

“We baptized 300 people, and the Lord truly blessed!” he adds.

Back in California, Pastor Cox was told that his heart had gone into arterial fibrillation. But that didn’t stop his preaching. “I just concluded a series last Saturday night in Ventura, California,” he says with a grin.

What keeps Evangelist Kenneth Cox going at 73 years of age? His love for Jesus, and his burden for souls. We are proud to have him as a 3ABN evangelist, and several of his series have already aired on 3ABN’s networks.

Isn’t it incredible what God can accomplish with a willing servant, and an old window shade? ■

3ABN STEWARDSHIP AND TRUST SERVICES

In addition to regular gifts to 3ABN’s ministry, many of you have also helped us grow by arranging both immediate and deferred gifts of your assets.

Did you know that the best instrument for highly appreciated property such as real estate, stocks, and bonds is a Charitable Remainder Unitrust? With it you can avoid capital gains taxes on donated assets, receive attractive rates of interest, avoid probate expenses on donated assets, receive a large charitable deduction, and negotiate to receive either a fixed annual payout or a variable income.

Call our Stewardship and Trusts Services to find out how you can help 3ABN’s worldwide ministry through Charitable Gift Annuities and Deferred Charitable Gift Annuities as well. And as always, thank you for your prayers and support!
