WELCOME

Have you noticed how people are desperate for something real? Have you heard them talk about how their life is in chaos? While everyone else concentrates on their problems, we're concentrating on the solution!

In this edition of 3ABN World you can read about our new evangelistic series in Chicago with C. A. Murray entitled, His Harvest is Ready (p. 6). You'll be fascinated and inspired by how God used a small signal booster to answer a woman's prayer as she suffered from a devastating disorder in, "Selisa and the Signal Booster" (p. 16). Steve Nelson's latest devotional will bring comfort to your heart (p. 22), and you'll find out how you can take part in our new revival series with Amazing Facts entitled, Here We Stand (p. 44).

After you enjoy the magazine, why not pass it along to someone else? It's a great way to share good news! And, as you know, God will bless your efforts abundantly!

Therefore, having obtained help from God, to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses said would come.

ACTS 26:22

Dear Family,

"If you don't stand for something, you'll fall for anything!" We may not generally think of applying that statement to the church, but in this day of corporate complacency it's time we do.

If we don't know why we believe what we believe—if we can't defend our faith when challenged—we're likely to fall for popularized false teachings. The Bible forewarns that these doctrines of demons will come, appealing to itching ears.

To stand for our faith, we must first understand our faith. For this reason, 3ABN and Amazing Facts are bringing you a series of Bible truths upon which the Adventist church was founded. Pastor Doug Batchelor will present the Here We Stand series during September 7–15. Don't miss his article in this issue, or any of the upcoming ten messages presented in his anointed teaching of the truth with simplicity and grace.

Twenty-two years ago, God called me to develop a television network that would reach the world with His undiluted truth. I knew that to "stand" in this mission I would need His help and strength. In many ways, it has been a difficult path. Still, God has never forsaken us. To this day, 3ABN stands witnessing to both small and great with a message that is not always popular, but that strives to be the undiluted truth.

Thank you for standing with 3ABN! Your love and prayer support are comforting. Your continued financial support keeps God's work at 3ABN going forward as we draw the line and say, "Here we stand!"

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

CHATTANOOGA, TENNESSEE:

"I watched 3ABN at home for over five years. Sometimes I was high, but I never went to bed without 3ABN on my TV. All through the night I'd wake up and scattered pieces of God's Word would penetrate my mind. I particularly enjoyed the song, 'Mending Broken People.' I was broken, and 3ABN mended me. I am currently incarcerated, but Jesus set me free from crack cocaine prior to my arrest. God continued to move in my life here in the county workhouse. I believe that God pre-ordained that I would be exposed to 3ABN, and I thank Him for this. I used to hear Cynthia Prime's sermons on God's grace, and I didn't fully understand what she was so happy about. But when Jesus set me free I felt the full extent of His grace! God surely loves me in that He placed these chains of circumstances that linked me to 3ABN."

HOPKINS, MINNESOTA:

"I enjoy your programming. It has been an inspiration to me. I am not a member of a church, so I feel that your network is feeding me spiritually, as well as my wife. I am looking for a Seventh-day Adventist church in my area to attend regularly. Please accept this one-time offering. Although I am unable, at this time, to make a pledge, as God leads and blesses me, I will try to send my offerings. I hope my tithe will soon go to one of your churches. I would like to have a church home."

VIA E-MAIL:

"I have to tell you how God brought me back to Jesus. Back in February I was feeling lonely and betrayed, and I asked God to give me just one true friend. I poured a cup of decaf raspberry tea and the tea bag came floating up in the shape of a perfect red heart. Next I opened a new container of yogurt, and where the lid had touched the surface, there was a perfect white heart shape. A few days later I was channel surfing and found 3ABN's In the Footsteps of Paul. I started watching other programs, and I believe more in Jesus now. Those hearts meant God was going to answer my prayer and give me one true friend—Jesus!"

AVENEL, NEW JERSEY:

"News! We have three more men here at this prison who have just recently finished baptismal classes and, Lord willing, will be baptized in a few weeks. Wishing you peace, prayer, and love in Christ."

HEDDON GRETA, NEW SOUTH

WALES, AUSTRALIA:

"Many thanks for your wonderful programs. When witnessing to tradesmen, people on buses and trains, I find it easy! I introduce them to 3ABN by telling them how wonderful it is: beautiful people, beautiful programs—so much better than commercial TV, which is very bad in Australia! They listen, and then I tell them that Jesus is coming soon, and I tell them how to get ready to meet Him. They all listen because the Holy Spirit is working on them, and through me. Praise God! My country is very secular, but Jesus has His ways and means of reaching them."

NAMPA, IDAHO:

"We are so thankful for 3ABN and the wonderful influence your programs have had in our world. Many people have joined our Nampa Seventh-day Adventist church through your ministry."

EUGENE, OREGON:

"I want you to know that I thank our wonderful Jesus for 3ABN. I watch it at least 15 hours a day! I have several chronic illnesses, so am bed-ridden quite a bit, and don't sleep well at night. I consider 3ABN to be my church, and have learned more about the Bible in the past four years than I did in 40 years of being a Lutheran, a Baptist, and a member of the Four Square Church. One of the things I like about 3ABN is that you minister to the whole person—no matter what the age—just like our wonderful Jesus!" ■

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

HIS HARVEST IS READY

by Shelley Quinn

Have you ever met someone who is constantly in motion? That describes C. A. Murray. He first rolled onto the scene as a guest speaker at 3ABN's 2004 Fall Camp Meeting. As the cameras followed the roller-skating pastor across the stage, it would be fair to assume someone might have thought, What kind of stunt is this? But, this dynamic and innovative communicator wasn't trying to be clever. In hopes of making an indelible impression, C. A. wore the skates to illustrate his message with a dramatic flair.

"Ministry is where you find it," he begins. "You must wear the clothes of other people—those you're trying to reach. I've led almost as many people to the Lord from a skating-rink ministry, as I have from a pulpit ministry!"

An ordained pastor of the Seventh-day Adventist Church—with degrees in religion, behavioral sciences, pastoral ministry, divinity, and humane letters—C. A. reached out to his New York community by teaching roller-skating for seven years. Everyone at the rink knew that when 9:00 p.m. arrived, the Christian music would be turned off and a 30-minute Bible study would begin. People responded, proving C. A.'s point—ministry is where you find it.

A native New Yorker, C. A. spent 31 years in ministry before moving to 3ABN in January 2005. He served as a Conference officer, senior pastor of a 2,000-member church, producer/host for a variety of Christian television and radio programs, and a widely traveled speaker. He had also written and published three books: Of Fallen Angels, I Will Fear No Evil, and They Shall Walk and Not Faint.

Pastor C. A. Murray's new series, His Harvest Is Ready, will be broadcast from the Central Hispanic Seventh-day Adventist Church in Chicago, Illinois. Don't miss it, beginning Friday, October 5, at 7:00 p.m. CDT.

But C. A. only thought he understood the definition of "busy." His arrival at 3ABN proved to offer the greatest challenge of his ministerial career. Starting as the director of corporate marketing, C. A. soon began producing the 3ABN Today program as well.

Though he moved out of marketing, his plate is now stacked higher than ever before. Currently he serves as 3ABN's production manager, responsible for three studios. He continues to produce the Today program, for which he is also an occasional host. He works with the New York truck, producing with Ruben Carr, and still travels and preaches by invitation or assignment from 3ABN.

"My work here has its challenges, but the blessings are tremendous," he says. "I have the knowledge that I am doing what God would have me to do, where He would have me to do it, and at the end of the day, I enjoy the results of our labor. When we complete a project, there is immediate feedback—feedback that affirms we work in the stream that changes lives, affecting people in a profound sense. It's really a dramatic affirmation that what you are doing counts!" With a broad smile of resignation, he adds, "Of course the main challenge of working at 3ABN is that in a self-supporting ministry this size, everyone is stretched to the maximum."

When asked about the Ten Commandments Weekend, the special network project that Shelley Quinn is 3ABN's Program Development Manager. She also hosts several programs, and has authored three books. Shelley and her husband J.D. are co-founders of Word Warrior Ministries.

“I WONDERED HOW THE LORD WOULD SAVE THESE MILLIONS OF PEOPLE. THEN I REALIZED THAT HE HAS NO HANDS BUT OURS.”

C. A. produced in May, he responds, “The whole event was such a blur of concentrated activity that you could only gain perspective afterward, as you stepped back to reflect. One of the things this year showed us, is that the Ten Commandments are on the minds of non-church people. Interfacing with the union workers at the theater, who admittedly were non-churched, we saw that God’s Law is current, necessary, and arresting. The topic might not have been on their lips, but at least it was on their minds—they proved to be more than casually interested. The world is ready for this kind of teaching. People are questioning, Where am I going? and, What does the future hold? 3ABN is one of the voices that is proclaiming this end-time message around the world.

“The Ten Commandments Weekend was a beginning, not an end,” he continues. “We didn’t want to just run into Chicago, whip up a foam, and let it die. We wanted our contact to be evangelistic and redemptive. We want to move them beyond a pricked conscience to a personal commitment. This idea for evangelism took on the form of a resolution as I met with our state, regional, and Union Conference church officers, Ken Denslow, Walter Wright, and Jerome Davis. They even pledged some financial resources for a concerted evangelistic effort in Chicago, and I am honored that Danny Shelton asked me to be the speaker for this upcoming series.”

3ABN will air this evangelistic outreach live each night except Mondays and Thursdays, October 5–20, from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. CST. The meeting site—which seats 1,000—will be the Central Hispanic Seventh-day Adventist Church at 2840 Logan Boulevard, in Chicago. The series title is, His Harvest is Ready.

Will C. A. be pulling out his roller skates again? No, but he will use other unique tactics to gain people’s attention. For his third presentation, “Adam’s Mother’s Birthday,” he will host a real birthday party, complete with cake and punch. And, oh, yes, he also mentioned that Adam’s mother would really be there!

Ken Denslow, president of the Illinois Conference of Seventh-day Adventists and 3ABN board member, is urging pastors in the Chicago area to stand unified for this evangelistic outreach. The series will end with a baptismal service, and a number of Chicago pastors have already committed to rearranging their church schedules in support of this event. In addition, many local churches are producing fliers and canvassing their neighborhoods.

When asked why he does everything he does in the service of the Lord, C. A. shared these comments: “I was walking in New York City one day, observing the sea of humanity. I wondered how the Lord would save these millions of people. Then I realized that He has no hands but ours. He desperately wants to reach all of these souls—precious to Him—and still He chooses to channel His efforts through humanity. Who

by Nikki Anderson

It's time again to share some of the praise reports we get through mail from our listeners. Some of these are e-mails and some are postal mail letters, but they all reflect the work the Holy Spirit is doing with the message that we and our affiliates are sharing with the world.

“Dear Friends, I have been listening to your broadcast on WHGW 100.3 FM in Morganton, North Carolina, and I do believe in your teachings. I have, in the past, been of Southern Baptist membership. While listening to your teachings and reading the Bible, I have determined that I need more information on the Seventh-day Adventist faith, which seems to be a very Bible-based belief. Could you send a copy of the Ten Commandments book and any other material that would be helpful. In Christ, thank you.”

John, North Carolina

“This morning as I was returning from taking my son to school, I heard a program (Faith Chapel, I think) about what teens wish their parents did and didn't do. It was great, but I didn't get the name of the pastor speaking and would love to get a copy of it to share with my husband and sons. Is there a way to do that? Thank you so much and have a great day!”

Beth, New York

After I found the program and sent her the information, Beth replied:

“Thank you so much for your quick reply. I listen to 100.7 from Cortland, New York. Pastor Richard O'Ffill's message really hit home as I have two sons, one 15 and one 12. I can't wait to be able to have the whole family listen to the program!”

“I publish a local newspaper once a month in the Liberty, North Carolina, area. I have enjoyed this new radio station 97.9 FM. I would like to put a story in my paper if you could get me in touch with the right person to publish the story. Thanks.”

Kevin, North Carolina

“Thank you, Pastor O'Ffill, for the program today with Don Keith from Moose Lake, Minnesota. It was fun and interesting. I listen on a brand new radio station. We have just started downlinking 3ABN Radio here in Kaikohe, New Zealand. I think there is a great need for programs like that one encouraging our seniors and retired people to stay positive and active. I am 47 and I just buried my Dad who was two days off 80 years old. He was a very active and devout Adventist but sadly he lost his health to multiple myeloma, a very debilitating form of bone cancer.... The thing that kept his spirits up after he could not get out of the house was 3ABN. Thank God for it. It truly is a global family which my Dad really felt he belonged to. It made such a difference to him and our mother before her death a year before. I cannot say enough how grateful I am. They both died full of hope in the resurrection and I hope we can pass on the same torch to our children and grandchildren.

“...God bless you sir. We are brand new to 3ABN and loving it. In the hope of Jesus.”

John, New Zealand

“Dear 3ABN staff: I have been fasting during this day, Thursday, April 26, asking God to bless all the activities you perform. I love all the hard work you do for reaching the world. Jesus is coming back soon. I wish I had gold or silver to help out, but what I have I give: time for praying for this cause.”

Joselina (e-mail)

It is so encouraging to hear from the listeners who are being blessed by the consistent message they hear in these programs. Thank you, Lord, for continuing to bless 3ABN Radio and all its affiliates! ■

WALTER'S LIFELINE

by John Dinzey

Only two weeks had gone by since his baptism, and Walter found himself in the war-torn mountains of Afghanistan. Separated from his 10-year-old son, one-year-old daughter, and loving wife, he knew there was a possibility that he would never hold them in his arms again. Since the other soldiers in his team were not Christians, there was no one he could talk to when he needed spiritual encouragement, and Walter feared he would grow weak in his faith and return to his old ways. Earnestly he poured his heart out to his heavenly Father, telling Him how alone he felt, and asking for courage to face the challenges ahead. Back in the United States, Sarah and her two children were praying for him, too, asking God to protect him and bring him home safely. Sarah's heart was relieved each time she got the occasional phone call or e-mail, letting her know he was still alive.

One day she heard that if Walter had access to the Internet, he could watch 3ABN Latino online. The very next time they spoke, she relayed the information to him, adding that this could be a way God was providing him the help he needed to maintain his faith. Although Walter and his unit were isolated from society in the mountains of Afghanistan, the U.S. Army provided them with Internet access to keep in touch with their families, and Walter couldn't wait to get back to his tent to try to find 3ABN Latino. Imagine his excitement when he saw the programs come in on his laptop! From that moment on, 3ABN Latino became his spiritual lifeline.

One day he e-mailed us to say thank you for the programming, which in this barren land had become like water to someone dying of thirst. But he was genuinely shocked when we responded, telling him that we were praying for him! Over and over he expressed what great encouragement this was to him.

Throughout his time in Afghanistan, Walter faithfully prayed for protection for his fellow soldiers. One day two jeeps from his unit were trapped in an ambush as bullets rained down on them from the mountain rocks. The attack lasted for half an hour until they were able to escape unharmed. Walter hadn't been on this mission, and when the soldiers returned, they could talk of nothing else as they related their story in wonder and amazement. One soldier said, "It was unbelievable! We were fired at for half an hour and not one bullet hit us! It was like we had a force field around us! Man, were we lucky!"

"It wasn't luck guys," Walter answered quickly. "Every time you go out I pray for you. It was God that saved you!"

Silence gripped the room, and soon his fellow soldiers admitted that it must have been God, since there was no other explanation for their miraculous survival.

Two weeks ago we had the privilege of meeting Walter and his family while we were speaking at a church near his home. He is back from the war and safe at home now, and we invited him to come up front to share his testimony in person. Tears filled his eyes as he said, "If 3ABN Latino hadn't been there I don't think I could have made it. This is God's ministry, and I'm so grateful for 3ABN Latino." Walter invited each of us to allow God to be a real Friend. "He truly does love us," he said. "He is real!"

Every day God is using 3ABN Latino to touch the lives of people just like Walter. In fact, this month God has opened the doors of mercy to thousands upon thousands who now can view our programming on 13 more cable companies! Praise the Lord! Please remember us in your prayers. ■

Hi Kids,

It's Fall time again in southern Illinois where I live, and the farmers and gardeners are gathering their crops. I'm thankful for the harvest time because it reminds me how much God loves us all. He provides good food for all of us, and for all the creatures He has created. The girl in the photo is my friend Rita Beth. I hope you enjoy working on the puzzle, and I hope you stop and thank the Lord for all the blessings He has given you today!

Love,

SELISA & THE SIGNAL BOOSTER

Just a few days before the deadline, and still no testimony story. A quick prayer to heaven, Lord, You know I need a story. Then a line from a simple letter catches my eye. “Your ministry changed our lives a short while back.” I wonder how their lives were changed? I put the letter aside, then pick it up again.

A quick search of the Internet and Selisa’s number pops up. I leave a message, and as I hang up, I think to myself, There’s something different about this letter. I wonder if she’ll call me back?

The next afternoon I receive her call and soon realize why the Lord impressed me with the letter. Selisa’s warm personality comes through the phone. I find out that she lives in the country and loves her dogs and cats. She tells me about her wonderful family, too. “My parents have always loved and provided for me,” she explains, “and they made sure my brother and I grew up with good morals, too. But in spite of all that, I grew up feeling very lonely, and somewhere deep inside of me I’d always longed to know the Lord better.”

As a young girl she used to go to church with her mother and grandma, “but after my mother began working in a hospital, she couldn’t take me most of the time.

“Later,” she explains, “I got my drivers license and began taking grandma to church again. We attended a local Baptist church each week, and I was the kid with all the questions!” Selisa laughs easily. “I was tuned into whatever the preacher would talk about, but if I didn’t understand, then it was questions, questions, questions!”

But all was not well with Selisa. “I always loved God,” she says, “but I never felt good enough to be saved. Somehow I thought I’d been too bad, and that He wouldn’t save me. To make matters worse, I didn’t know how to be saved!”

Then came the day she remembers well—February 22, 1981. “I’d gone to church

I’d been saved a long time ago because I talked about the Lord so much!”

Selisa’s fear of drowning kept her from being baptized for nearly a year, but when her grandmother said she reckoned that, as far as she knew, no one had ever drowned getting baptized, that did it. “I can’t tell you how good it felt,” she says. “But my problems didn’t all go away. I began experiencing severe depression, I was scared of driving, and I had a tremendous need to do everything just right. I also had scoliosis and had to wear a hard plastic back brace. And then there were the suicidal feelings. It was hard to live, and I couldn’t reach out to other people.”

Selisa’s fears grew worse when she began taking college courses towards a degree in counseling. “I began to have terrifying obsessive thoughts,” she says. “The more I tried not to think about them, the more they tortured me. I’d never been abused in any way, and I couldn’t figure out why I felt this way. I used to pray to God to just kill me and get it over with. But I’m really glad He didn’t answer that prayer!” she adds.

with my grandma, and on the way out she picked up a little pamphlet and gave it to me. It explained how to be saved, and told me that I didn’t have to be ‘good enough’ for salvation. I could surrender myself to Jesus just as I was, and He would come into my heart! I’d been tortured by fear all of my life and I suffered from depression, but when I said the sinner’s prayer I felt incredible! I remember running to tell my parents and brother that I’d been saved! They looked at me kinda weird and said they’d thought

“I began to have terrifying obsessive thoughts,” she says. “The more I tried not to think about them, the more they tortured me.”

Scott and Selisa are happy, active members of the Mt. Vernon Seventh-day Adventist Church in Illinois. Their love for Jesus fills their hearts, and it shows!

At age 24 she was married, but soon realized that this would not “fix” her, either. “That’s when I finally realized that I knew what was wrong, even though I didn’t want to admit it. Even worse, I wanted help, but didn’t know how to get it!”

What Selisa knew from her studies was that she had obsessive compulsive disorder (OCD), an illness that affects many millions of people. This anxiety disorder causes one to have recurrent and persistent thoughts, impulses, or imaginings that cause marked anxiety or distress. OCD sufferers often have compulsions which they find impossible to break. Repetitive behaviors, or mental acts—including washing, cleaning, checking, counting, repeating, arranging, touching, and hoarding—are often present. Some feel a tremendous need to have their possessions in an exact right position. Others save useless items such as gum wrappers, expired coupons, or junk mail.

“I remember crying out to God, ‘Please help me! I don’t want to be like this!’ and ‘Dear God, I know You probably don’t even love me anymore...’” Then one day, in her despair, she got up off her knees and pulled out her Bible. “I know it’s not good to just open it and expect an answer to pop off the page, but that’s what I did. I read something about forgiveness, and that God promised to love me to the end, and that comforted me as I prayed for a counselor that could help me.” God answered that prayer, and with his help, Selisa managed to cope with the loss of her marriage. Her OCD was so crippling that she couldn’t work, but she refused to give up on going to church. Along the way she met Scott, who became her best friend. Together they attended an Assemblies of God the process, he took a small signal booster off his antenna and installed it on her TV, noting that now she could pick up a couple of new Christian stations. She had never heard of 3ABN, but now she was receiving it on two different channels, since she lives about 20 miles from two different 3ABN stations!

“One day I stumbled onto a program where Pastor Mark Finley was talking about hell,” she says. “That’s when I realized that God wasn’t a monster who took pleasure in torturing sinners forever and ever. I was so excited, I called Scott late at night to tell him! ‘I was right!’ I shouted, ‘God is a merciful God!’

Soon I learned about the Sabbath, too. When I heard it explained on 3ABN it all made sense—it wasn’t about a day, it was about a commandment. It was as if God were saying to me, ‘You wanted the truth? Here it is.’”

It wasn’t long before Selisa found the nearest Seventh-day Adventist church and spoke to Pastor Earl Simmons. This kind and godly man has led dozens of people to Christ by using 3ABN programming, and he immediately arranged a visit. He began bringing over a videotape from Amazing Facts each week for her to watch. Selisa invited Scott over, and they eagerly followed along with the Bible study guides.

“I learned more about the Bible in those few short months than I did in all my life!” she exclaims, “and that’s after 30 years of studying the Bible!”

Selisa has fond memories of the first time she attended a Seventh-day Adventist church. “It was small, but after I’d been there just once, I knew that I’d finally found where the Lord wanted me to be. Scott had been trying to quit smoking, and when Pastor Simmons gave him Dr. Weaver’s Stop Smoking tapes, he quit cold turkey. I was so happy and proud for him!”

They both joined the church, and have remained actively involved. “My friend Kathye was impressed to start a food pantry, and we help her by putting bags of groceries together. Once a month we provide between 40 and 50 bags of nutritious food to those who need it in our area, and they have become our friends. From time to time I get a chance to pray with them, and

Selisa was also asked to teach Sabbath School, and she did so willingly, although it was difficult for her. And just as God has promised, because she was willing to work for Him, He has given her even greater responsibilities.

“Our new pastor, Florin Liga, has five churches in his district, and he asked me recently to fill in for him with a message,” Selisa tells us. “I got up there and gave the message, and my friend Scott was there, too, offering the morning prayer.” She beams, and it’s easy to see that she’s been blessed by this experience, too!

What advice would she give to someone who is searching for truth? “I’d tell them to make sure that what they hear in church is biblical,” she says. “God will guide you into all truth if you search with all your heart. God will show it to you.

“I had the love of Jesus before I found 3ABN and the Seventh-day Adventist church,” she continues, “but what a shame it would have been to be kept in the dark by teachings that were not biblical. It has been such a relief to know the truth. It’s really made a difference in my life.” ■

“I realized that God wasn’t a monster who took pleasure in torturing sinners forever and ever. I was so excited, I called Scott late at night to tell him!”

church nearby, and although she wanted to believe, Selisa says she could never quite grasp their teachings on the secret rapture, eternal hell, and the seven years of tribulation. “I couldn’t fathom the idea that God would torture someone throughout eternity,” she says. “Even I wouldn’t do that! I also felt the Holy Spirit telling me, ‘Selisa, I’m not like that,’ so I prayed, ‘Lord, I want to know the truth!’”

Then God moved in a mighty way. Selisa’s brother was installing a satellite system, and in pain that wrenched his heart was almost more than he could bear. All of his hopes and dreams seemed to be slipping through his hands, and he realized that the world he knew, the one they had shared, was about to end.

He tried to press on, but by now he could barely see through his tear-strained eyes.

Why God? Why don't You care? Where are You when I need you most?

He wanted to give up, but something seemed to hold him back. He pulled over to the side of the road, knowing he couldn't go on. He could feel himself losing control, and every ounce of strength he could muster wouldn't be enough to keep him from going over the edge.

He still can't remember exactly what happened, but somehow, at that darkest moment, when it seemed that nothing could change the course that was destroying his life, Someone was reaching out to keep him from losing everything.

As he cried out, God's heart ached for him. For "not a sigh is breathed, not a pain felt, not a grief pierces the soul, but the throb vibrates to the Father's heart." (Ellen White, The Desire of Ages, page 365.)

Today he can look back to that moment and see how his Savior was by his side, holding him in His arms of love, and keeping him by His grace.

How is it for you? Are you going through a difficult time in your walk with the Lord? Do you feel His presence by your side?

If you are passing "through the waters," He says, "I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you. When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, nor shall the flame scorch you." Isaiah 43:2.

by Pastor Doug Batchelor

King David and his army were engaged in a losing battle with their old foe, the Philistines. Yet even as the disheartened Hebrew army began a retreat, their king stood his ground, unwilling to give up even an inch of God's holy land to a pagan people. He was joined by his most faithful soldier, Eleazar, whose name means "God helps."

Side by side, the two made their stand on a high piece of ground in the midst of a barley field, surrounded by a sea of enemy forces. Miraculously, it was the Philistines that were brought down and turned back. It was a display of incredible courage and loyalty that should never be forgotten. (If you don't remember it, you can find it in 1 Chronicles 11:12-14.)

So why am I recalling this battle now? Because I believe God's people are in a similar desperate battle raging today.

No, our enemy isn't an ancient army, but rather an insidious pagan secularism that has crept into our churches and is bent on weakening and destroying God's people from within.

This is a common pattern in history. Over time, every spiritual reformation seems to lose its fervor. A church movement may start with the first love of Ephesus, but it eventually ends up as lukewarm as Laodicea. I fear the Seventh-day Adventist Church is repeating that history.

I believe a big reason for this is the widespread biblical ignorance, worldliness, and lack of spiritual depth that pervades our church. I am gravely concerned about this prevalent spiritual anemia, which is largely due to the average believer spending far more personal time with the TV and other secular entertainment than with the Bible and witnessing. It seems that now the Philistines are winning the battle.

That's why it's time for God's people to take a stand! Just as David and Eleazar defended that humble field of barley, we must protect the high ground of scriptural truth and principles that our enemy seeks to conquer and divide. As Eleazar stood by his king, we must stand with the Son of David.

But sadly, Christians who are willing to stand their ground for unpopular biblical truth are becoming a very small minority. Some are abandoning the fight because they are intimidated by the enemy. What can we do about it?

Doug Batchelor's new series, Here We Stand, will air on 3ABN beginning September 7, at 7:00 p.m. EDT.

It's not too late to register your church or download site at 07revive.org.

One answer is to seek revival. Many have told me they feel unprepared to defend their faith when challenged, but it is not enough just to know what we believe. In a world that threatens to undermine every doctrine of the church, we must also know why we believe it.

So today we must seek truth and ingrain it deeper into our hearts through earnest devotion and prayer. When we do this, we can succeed at redrawing the lines of distinction between God's kingdom and the world. Otherwise, we are going to end up like other churches and lose our identity and zeal through compromise with the world.

I hope that you will seek true revival with Amazing Facts and 3ABN for our upcoming Here We Stand revival program. I believe it will be a mighty trumpet call to the church to inspire the troops to cancel our retreat, to turn and "resist the devil," and once again take a stand for truth.

For nine nights, September 7–15, I will address directly the foundational teachings that make our church so unique. I won't camouflage them in evangelical language. Rather, together we will boldly honor last-day teachings like the Sabbath, Second Coming, and sanctuary—using them to teach the gospel to seekers and encourage revival among God's people. I promise it will help to strengthen your confidence and reinforce your faith, so I hope you will encourage your fellow church members to participate.

It is too late in time for God's people to act like they are ashamed of unpopular Bible truths. Indeed, in the battle with the Philistines, Eleazar fought so long and tenaciously that he could not release his vise-like grip on his sword. I hope that we will keep a vise-like grip on God's holy Word—that double-edged sword—and vanquish the enemy of Christ.

Please join each night, and invite your friends! ■
