You've doubtless heard the question: "Why does a loving, all-powerful God allow so much tragedy and suffering in this world?" Ty Gibson found an answer that makes a lot of sense! Check out this month's cover story, "Seeing God Through New Eyes" (p. 6).

Then look through the eyes of a young man in Australia who feels that God picked him as a winner, or through the eyes of a lady in church looking at a "familiar stranger." Or through a mother's eyes as she prays with her son.

It's all in this month's edition of 3ABN World magazine! Why not share it with a friend?

STAY THE COURSE!

Recently I received a letter from a viewer who enclosed a $5,000 check for 3ABN's ministry. I felt impressed to call him, which I can't always do because of the sheer volume of letters. I thanked him for the gift, and he told me that he had decided to make this sacrifice because of what 3ABN has done in his life. For the first time he is a victorious Christian! Habits have been overcome, and he has new assurance in his relationship with Jesus Christ!

Some have told us we need to be more entertaining, while others think we should preach the so-called "name it and claim it gospel." Instead, we have held to solid Biblical teaching, encouraging our viewers and listeners to study the Bible and engage in a prayer life that brings spiritual growth! More and more we feel vindicated by this approach.

Even some mega churches have discovered that while their strategies may fill the pews, the result is not what they want! Recently one of them released a study which in essence says, "We were wrong in not emphasizing personal Bible study and doctrine." As one writer put it, "The mention of sin, salvation, and sanctification were taboo and replaced by Starbucks, strategy, and sensitivity." To their credit, this church is now taking measures to build stronger Christians.

Long before I came to 3ABN, the plan was to avoid sensationalism and all of the latest "techniques," while concentrating on teaching God's undiluted truth. 3ABN believed this would bring real spiritual growth, and they were right! We'll do our best to stay the course!

TO GOD BE THE GLORY, GREAT THINGS HE HAS DONE—AND IS DOING!

Keep on keeping on with Jesus,

Long before I came to 3ABN, the plan was to avoid sensationalism and all of the latest "techniques," while concentrating on teaching God's undiluted truth.

KOREA [VIA E-MAIL]

"I pray this message finds you well. I am in the Army, stationed in Korea, and I listen to 3ABN Radio Network via the Internet. I wish I could reach a station on the airwaves, but alas I have only go to where much of our world is today, but where Jesus boldly and fearlessly went. I have traveled some of the paths talked about on the program, and Christ has protected me from others. I know how vital these frank and real discussions can be to help give hope to people who feel that they have no hope. I would suggest that you do more programs like this, but I can't imagine anyone else as real and loving as Cheri, who could get across the way Christ loves each of us."

HUNTSVILLE, ALABAMA

"Thank you so much for your program on the Coronary Health Improvement Project (CHIP). I have just gone through a double bypass heart surgery, and I was feeling very low. You see, I have been a vegan for 14 years, and thought I had preserved my heart health. With a long history of diabetes, and a family history of heart disease, that diet change prolonged my life. I am very grateful to my Heavenly Father for His loving mercies to me. Thank you again for providing the spiritual, physical, and mental health information to a sick and dying world."

BROOKLYN, NEW YORK

"I don't have a satellite dish at home, but I started watching 3ABN sometime last June or July [at the home of a Seventh-day Adventist lady]. I thank God for giving her a long life. I am very thankful for this job, because I found out about the Sabbath. I've been a Christian since 1975, and I'm a member of the Pentecostal Church. But now I'm about to become a Seventh-day Adventist. In fact, today I'm starting to do my best to enter into the Sabbath at my house. Please pray for me and my family."

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

"I watch 3ABN 24/7. When you go off the air I pray that God will bring it back on quickly. If it doesn't come on within a week, I have my family call to see what's wrong. I am lost without you. You are my family. I count on you, along with many other guys here in this prison. We pray for you, and we enjoy each and every show. You bring me up when I'm down. You make a gloomy day bright. And when it seems like there's no hope left, there you are to bring back hope.... I can tell that you love me just by the way you speak to me through the TV. I have learned so much from all of you."

ASBEST, SVERDLOVSK OBLAST, RUSSIA [TO 3ABN RUSSIA]

"I thank the Lord, and all of the workers at your Bible Correspondence School. With the help of your programs and Christian literature, people are being saved, and you help them open their minds to perceive God. You bring people nearer to Him, and you help to avert them from a sinful life. Your Bible Study Guides teach us to love, to honor God, and to have the fear of the Lord. I don't have any questions yet because I know very little, but I am very thankful to you for the opportunity of this study. The books help me and my family to learn the truth about God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. They help us trust the Word, and to apply it to our own lives in ministry to Him. May God bless you and keep you under the shadow of His wings!"

OCALA, FLORIDA

"Your ministry has been a real blessing to our family. Your programs have inspired my children to take their Bibles out and study God's Word. Thank you!"

ALAMOSA, COLORADO

"3ABN has been spiritually uplifting for my husband and me. For the past 15 years it has offered us biblical truths and insights, along with hope and encouragement. I truly believe we couldn't have made it without you, because our lives have been full of tribulation." ■

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

The Ty Gibson Story

Ty Gibson's easygoing manner automatically puts everyone he speaks to at ease. His ready smile, his genuine caring for others, and his love for Jesus shine in his eyes. But anyone who knows him, or has heard much of his preaching, also knows that Ty is all about Sue—his wife of 26 years with whom he has been best friends since she was 13

“She has taught me the emotional side of God and theology,” he explains. “She’s a woman, and I’m all male. Experiencing her strong female love all these years has taught me to look for the love of God in the Bible, not just factual information.”

But as he tells us his story, we soon realize that things could have ended up very differently. “I was raised in Los Angeles, California, in a home where there was no Christianity or spiritual influence at all,” he begins. “Not only was it very secular, but my mom was trapped with a husband that was not my father. I don’t know my father,” he adds, “because they separated when I was a baby. But she was in a violent and abusive marriage for the first nine years of my life.”

“Later, she would work for 10 to 15 hours a day, raising four children on a waitress’s pay, and that was not easy,” he continues. “With no father in the picture, I quickly integrated with the streets of L.A. and all that goes along with that.”

Every day, Ty says, he saw things on the streets that bothered him. “I was a super sensitive kid, and I couldn’t watch any kind of pain without feeling it myself. I’d see how people treated drug addicts, I’d watch their acts of racism and violence, and it was all a problem for me, intellectually and emotionally. It affected me so much that I’d feel embarrassed, thinking, I’m a boy! Why am I emotionally distraught over these ‘normal’ things?”

“As a teen, sometimes I would run to my room, lock the door, and weep for hours! I had no idea why I was crying, but today I look back and recognize that it was an undefined angst against all the craziness and injustice in the world. I longed for something better, but I couldn’t see it anywhere.”

When he was 14, his mother moved them to Sacramento, California, and there he met a young girl named Sue. “The minute we started talking to each other, we became best friends,” he says,

“I had witnessed so much pain in my world that I figured God probably didn’t exist. If He did, I reasoned that either He was evil and powerful, or else He was good but impotent!”

and he was 14. She was the major influence that led him to his knees before the Lord, and has continued to be the most influential person in his life and ministry to this day.

Ty’s preaching is often thought to have a sensitive feel to it, with a strong emphasis on God’s love, and in response to this observation, Ty points to Sue.

“and we’ve been together ever since.”

“Sue was raised in a nominally Catholic home, and it wasn’t long before she invited me to her confirmation as Joan of Arc. This was a very strange experience for me because I had no reference for what I saw. My first impression of a priest was of a man in a dress! That’s what it looked like to me. And to make matters worse, he was speaking in Latin. I remember thinking, If that’s what God’s all about, I don’t want anything to do with Him!”

There was another struggle going on in his mind—the fun-

Ty and Sue Gibson became instant friends in their early teen years. Now Ty credits his wife of 26 years for teaching him to look for the love of God in the Bible, not just facts and information.

Between 20 and 30 million pieces of literature roll off the presses at Light Bearers Ministry in over 30 different languages each year. Nearly all of it is shipped and distributed in countries where the people are hungry for the gospel. And the best part? It's all free!

damental human struggle to understand a loving God.

“I had witnessed so much pain in my world that I figured God probably didn’t exist,” he says. “If He did, I reasoned that either He was evil and powerful, or else He was good but impotent! It was just easier to believe in the theory of survival of the fittest, which says we’re all just animals, clawing our way to the top, and hurting one another for the sake of self-preservation.”

Meanwhile, a violent upsurge in gang wars rocked Sacramento, and Ty found himself with a knife to his throat after watching someone stab his two best friends. Miraculously, his life was spared, and he turned in the license plate number of the stabber to the police, leading to his arrest. Fearing retaliation, his mother packed up the children and moved them as far away as possible—to Spokane, Washington.

But with the move came major changes. Ty’s mother began attending a seminar by an Amazing Facts evangelist, and when she became a Seventh-day Adventist, she began having Bible studies at home with Ty’s girlfriend, Sue, who had moved to Spokane by then. This seemed to be too much for him. “I resisted the idea of God because of all the suffering in the world, but at the same time, the only two people in the world I loved and respected were going that way! Although my mother meant well, I was soon arguing with a youth pastor she sent my way. But eventually I shared my main hang-up with him: ‘If God is love and all powerful,’ I asked, ‘then why is there so much evil in the world?’

“To my amazement, he answered, ‘That’s the toughest question I’ve ever been asked, and it troubles me, too.’ His honesty caused me to feel some respect for him, and as he left, he challenged me to read the first chapter of the book Patriarchs and Prophets, entitled, ‘Why Was Sin Permitted?’”

Ty sat down to read. “It took me a long time,” he admits, “because I didn’t understand 80 to 90 percent of what I read that night. It was totally new language to me, but one basic thought came through loud and clear. I began to understand the nature of love.

“A simple equation came together in my mind: love requires freedom, and freedom creates risk. In order to exist, love must allow freedom. And free beings with the capacity for love can either use that freedom to love God and others, or to cause pain and suffering.

“For the first time I realized that an all-powerful, all-good God could exist, and yet have a world of evil and pain on His hands. Because God’s highest priority is love rendered in freedom, He’s chosen to hold His power in reserve. I realized that we humans have brought about the suffering in our world through a misuse of our freedom, and that God, while allowing our freedom, is completely opposed to all that causes pain. This concept convinced me of God’s existence and His intrinsic goodness!”

Ty’s mother and girlfriend were overjoyed! “We were only 17 at that time,” he says, “but Sue and I began tithing our time to study the Bible. We studied for two and a half hours each day for the next couple of years. I’d never read a single book all the way through before, and everything in the Bible was new.” He pauses for a moment, finding the right words. “It was like dumping a 1,000 piece puzzle out on the table. First I had to turn all the pieces over, then sort them by colors and patterns. Studying the Bible was like trying to put together that puzzle without the box cover picture!”

After much prayer, Ty and Sue were both baptized and joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and shortly afterward, they met a man who was to become Ty’s partner in ministry. “James Rafferty was baptized shortly after we were, and we became instant friends. We began going door-to-door, giving Bible studies and distributing literature. Some people began recording our small-group studies, sending them to relatives and friends, and before long we began receiving so many

On February 28 we'll celebrate the eighth anniversary of 3ABN Radio Network. There have been many changes during those years: Staff members have come and gone, equipment has been upgraded, and several new programs have been added to the schedule. Here are some comments from the staff about working at 3ABN Radio:

Jay Christian, Radio Production/Programming Manager (started August 1999):

"It's wonderful working here, and I praise God for bringing my family and me to this ministry. What a great blessing it is to hear how 3ABN Radio is impacting lives of so many people around the world every day."

Mike Babb, Radio Engineer (started January 2002):

"It's amazing to me how, in the relatively few years I've been here, the Lord has used me, and the others; not only increasing our knowledge but also nurturing us spiritually. God has not only expanded the network territory, but also my personal territory."

Angela Lomacang, Production Assistant (started January 2003):

"I get such a blessing listening to the programs I edit. Especially Crossroads, which I get to listen to twice: once to record, then again to edit. I've learned so much about health and taking care of ourselves. It's so rewarding to be here!"

Michael Settle, Production Assistant (started August 2005):

"When I came to 3ABN Radio Network, I was amazed that it took only a handful of people to send out this message. I thought it took more people, but that's the miracle of God, to me. It's a joy to work here! I talk to God so much more, and I've received many blessings in my personal life just by being in this ministry."

Pamela Clark, Part-time Clerical Assistant (started August 2006):

"I like being here! Working in the family atmosphere at 3ABN Radio is a blessing. I appreciate the opportunities to learn new skills, like scheduling and editing. I really enjoy being able to do those and other things to help lighten the load of the full-time staff members."

Nikki Anderson, Administrative Assistant (started September 2000):

"If you read the 3ABN World magazine regularly, you already know how I feel. I've got the best job at 3ABN!"

May God bless 3ABN Radio, our affiliates, and all of our listeners! ■

GOD'S DOOR OF Mercy

by John Dinzey

The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should per-broadcasting on one satellite, had one low-power UHF station in Salem, Illinois, retransmitting our signal, and were on one cable company in San Diego, California, from 2:00 to 6:00 a.m. In those days our main audience consisted of people who had a big satellite dish in their yard or on their roof. Our potential viewing audience was only a few hundred thousand at best.

Today, when we take into account our 3ABN television, 3ABN Radio, and 3ABN Latino networks, our potential audience soars to the hundreds of millions! But not only that—every week either thousands or millions more are added—and they begin receiving the blessing of watching or listening to the ish but that all should come to repentance.” 2 Peter 3:9 (NKJV). When I read this verse I marvel at God’s mercy. What a wonderful God. Even after six thousand years of sin in this world, His door of mercy is still open!

I’ve been working here at 3ABN for over 18 years now. When I first arrived, we were everlasting gospel through one of our networks.

But as marvelous as all this is, why is it all happening?

Perhaps part of the answer is that, “God is not willing that any should perish.”

How often have we heard: “I remember that night well. I was at my wit’s end. I was at home flipping through the channels when I found 3ABN. It was like God was talking to me personally when I watched your programs.” Other times we hear: “I was about to commit suicide when I found 3ABN. I had never seen that channel before. But there it was. I can’t remember the speaker’s name. But God used 3ABN to save my life.”

Here in our Pastoral Ministries Department we’ve heard these types of statements many times. But every time I hear them, they’re just as inspiring as the first time because I know that God is still at work, using our networks to bring someone to Jesus.

Consider the story of our friend Elizabeth, who lives in Mexico. Recently she wrote to us and said, “3ABN Latino Network has been, and is day by day, the balsam and comfort that my soul needs to calm my pain, sadness, and disillusionment. Your network has been a fortress for my faith, reaffirming God’s promises, and giving me courage and hope in His love. Clearly my difficulties are still not over, and the process continues, but I am holding on to the Lord’s hand and am experiencing continual ‘resurrections’ with the confidence that there is something bigger and better before me.”

Isn’t that an incredible testimony?

It’s also a joy to report that even more cable companies have agreed to add 3ABN Latino Network to their systems in Mexico, Colombia, and Venezuela. Just today we sent out new receiving equipment to Venezuela so that 3ABN Latino Network can be added to 18 more cities! God continues doing great and mighty things!

Finally, as I write this article, there are details of things in the works that I must reserve until our 3ABN Latino Network signal is on the air in those areas. But I can say that there is a good possibility for us to reach nearly one hundred million more people with our Christ-centered programming! Please join us in prayer for the meetings that will soon take place to determine this opportunity. I believe that time is short, and we should do what we can for those who have never met their loving Savior. Truly, God is not willing that any should perish. ■

“YOUR NETWORK HAS BEEN A FORTRESS FOR MY FAITH, REAFFIRMING GOD’S PROMISES, AND GIVING ME COURAGE AND HOPE IN HIS LOVE.”

John Dinzey is the general manager for 3ABN Latino Network. He also works in Pastoral Ministries.

GOD PICKS A WINNER

by Rosemary Malkiewicz

As part of our work for 3ABN in Australia and New Zealand, John and I attend camp meetings in different conferences. We enjoy having the opportunity to meet 3ABN viewers, and many have become family to us as we see them each year, while others who come to speak with us are new faces. But we are always surprised to find many who still don't have Christian satellite television in their home!

In September, as we attended the South Queensland Camp Meeting, John commented that we should have given away a satellite system at the 3ABN booth. However, it was too late, as the camp was about to end. As the North New South Wales Camp Meeting was starting in a few days, we decided to give the system away then. But by the time the camp began we had forgotten!

Part way through camp, John remembered, so we quickly set about organizing a simple competition that was advertised in the camp newsletter. All people needed to do was write their name and address on a piece of paper, along with the answer to the question, "What does 3ABN stand for?" Their entry would go into the draw on Thursday morning, but to receive the satellite equipment, the winner must be there in person.

Slowly, over the next couple of days, campers of all ages came to enter the draw. Some had never watched 3ABN before, while other 3ABN viewers wanted to win the equipment to give to a friend or family member. By the time Thursday morning came, we had a lot of entries in the bag, and people were waiting to see if they would win.

John asked the oldest man there to draw out the winner, but when the name was read out, no one came forward. We waited a minute before drawing out another entry, but the same thing happened the second time—and the third! By the time the fourth entry was drawn, everyone was beginning to think this was going to take a long time. The name was read and there was silence again!

Suddenly, an 11-year-old boy who was standing at the front of our booth exclaimed, "That's me!" It had taken him a moment to realize that his name had been read out. He was excited and happy to have won the satellite system!

Nicholas Van Bezouwen and his family are not Seventh-day Adventists, but were attending their first Adventist camp meeting. He attended the Avondale Primary School in Cooranbong, along with his brother Joshua and sister Hannah. The boys go to Pathfinders at the nearby Hillview Seventh-day Adventist Church, after being invited by Pastor Leigh Rice. He invited the boys to join the Pathfinders youth group while doing a follow-up visitation after a health assessment program. Their dad Theo is now involved in helping at Pathfinders, too.

Nicholas' mum, Alison, told me her son was excited at the prospect of winning the satellite equipment, and had been pestering his family all morning about it. She said he made sure they were all at the 3ABN Booth in time for the draw.

"The boys read about the

competition to win the satellite equipment in the camp newsletter," she said. "They were very keen to enter, and all that night Nicholas talked about 3ABN and how he really wanted to view the messages. He was counting down the hours and minutes, and at the time of the draw, Nicholas was ready and waiting. After three draws and no response, Nicholas' name was drawn out. God is so good," she added. "It is truly a blessing that Nicholas won the satellite prize."

We believe Nicholas and his family were indeed chosen by God. And so did all those who attended the draw, but missed out on the prize. May God richly bless Nicholas and his family as they learn more from the Holy Word of God and come to understand the beautiful truth it contains, with help from 3ABN, the Pathfinders, and the church at Hillview. ■

Nicholas Van Bezouwen could hardly believe it when he won an Optus B3 satellite dish system during the North New South Wales Camp Meeting in Australia! As you can see, his smile says he's a winner!

Rock Salt Jewels

Jesus wants us to be shining jewels, attracting others to Him! Here's a great craft you can make that will sparkle and shine when you're done! Find out how to make Rock Salt Jewels by visiting our website: 3abn.org/kids.

Hi Kids,

Recently, I heard a sermon called "The Journey," where the pastor talked about what he did to prepare his vehicle for a trip. First he hand washed it, then he ran it through the car wash again. He also rubbed wax on it, and then buffed it out. Sometimes I feel like that car. It seems that we all have rough times that aren't fun. Sometimes things rub me the wrong way, and that can be painful! But in the end, we come out as shining jewels for Jesus, and our example can attract others to Him! Are you a jewel today? I know you are!

Love,

THE FAMILIAR STRANGER

by Barbara Lokken

She was a new face in our congregation, listening intently to every word, weighing each point, and in the end, looking satisfied by the sermon and its message. Sitting from afar, I wondered, Is anyone going to reach out to her and make her feel welcome? Our church family hugs and greets each other at the beginning of the service, a friendly gesture that is received member returning to the “fold”? And more importantly, Does she know Jesus, or was she just beginning to learn about our Savior?

On Sunday a “still small voice” whispered to my heart, Remember Jenny? Call her. Pick up the phone and call her!

warmly by some, and that sends shivers of shyness down the spines of others!

But I kept thinking, What brings this lady to our little church? Does she have Adventist roots? Is she a wayward

Each week she came and sat by herself at the edge of the pew, and each week we hugged and greeted each other at the beginning of the service, as was our custom. But in the end she sat alone on the pew, and left with a mere handshake at the door.

I didn't really know anything about her, where she came from, or what might have brought her to church. Somewhat awkwardly, we grew accustomed to saying hello to each other every week, but nothing beyond a surface greeting.

Then, one Sabbath, this “familiar stranger” in our midst wasn't there. I wondered about her for awhile, then got busy with my life and forgot about her. The next Sabbath came and went without her presence, and although I made a mental note she wasn't there, I still just went about my business.

On Sunday a “still small voice” whispered to my heart, Remember Jenny? Call her. Pick up the phone and call her! Let her know you've missed her. Invite her to your home, or out to dinner. The feeling that I should do something grew, as did my resistance against it! How silly to call her. I didn't even really know her. She might think it strange to receive a phone call from me! What if she doesn't want anyone to bother her? Will she even remember me?

That “voice” kept gnawing at my mind. Okay! I'll do it! Nervously, I picked up the phone.

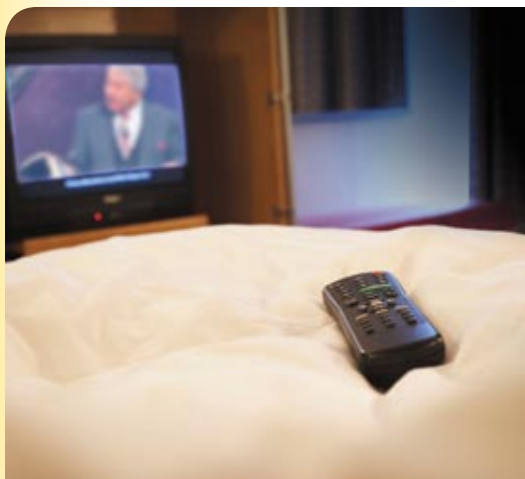

“Hello Jenny? It's Barbara, from church. I've missed you lately. How have you been?”

I was surprised at the friendly voice on the other end. Yes, she remembered who I was. And yes, she would be glad to meet for dinner.

Thank you, Lord, for leading me by Your still small voice. I am so glad I listened to You as You bid me to reach out to this stranger.

Barbara Lokken (R) almost missed her opportunity to extend the hand of friendship when Jenny Roal began attending her church after watching 3ABN. But under the influence of the Holy Spirit, she reached out, and their friendship has flourished!

ing for truth. After searching the Internet about the Sabbath, she had learned about William Miller and the early history of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Then God had led her to our little church as she searched for more truth. For four hours we talked non-stop about God and the wonderful truths in His Word.

She told me about her childhood, and the religious influence she received from both sets of grandparents, one Catholic, the other Protestant. She had attended church in her teens, and well remembered a growing interest in prophecy when her Sunday School class studied Revelation. She had continued reading the Bible, but, as is often the case, the cares of the world took over in her adult life. Then the difficulties came, but in the midst of her chaos, the Holy Spirit worked on her heart to draw her back to the Bible, and she began to read it again.

On a particularly sleepless night, fraught with worry, Jenny got up and turned on the TV. She began flipping through the stations, and settled on one she had never heard of before. Pastor Lyle Albrecht was preaching on 3ABN, and he piqued her interest. She wasn't exactly sure what was happening but she knew she had to listen to him again, so each morning she began getting up at 4:00 a.m. to listen to him. Soon she discovered other preachers like Kenneth Cox, Mark Finley, and Doug Bachelor, and each of them seemed to give the same consistent message. Their preaching made sense as she compared it to the Bible and to her earlier history readings. Their consistent message impressed her, as did their heartfelt desire for people to know Jesus and understand His Word.

She continued watching 3ABN for two years, until one day she decided it was time to find people who believed like she did. She went to the phone book and looked up the Seventh-day Adventist Church, first attending one in the suburbs, then trying another, which happened to be our Pathways Church.

So this was Jenny's story. Here was a woman whom God had led to discover truth on her own. And although she lived only three blocks from our church, there was no way we would go to her—so God brought her to us, and eventually opened my heart to reach out to her.

God and Jenny taught me a life-altering lesson: Don't be afraid to reach out to the stranger within your midst, for God may have led them to His truth, and is trusting you and me to reach out to them in friendship—accepting them, befriending them, and sharing Jesus with them—ultimately leading them to a deeper love for the Savior, God's kingdom, and eternity!

Jenny took her stand for the Lord last spring. She was baptized, and is currently a member of our Pathways Church. She is an active member, and has recently taken the responsibility of our Discover Bible School correspondence course. She's also working to establish a church website where others can learn about Jesus and the wonderful Bible truths she holds so dear.

"The most valuable lessons I've learned from my journey have been to read the Bible with an open mind, and to learn to accept people where they are, letting the Holy Spirit lead," Jenny says. "My biggest struggle now is one that comes to all of us, and that is to give my will over to God and choose to follow Him day by day," she adds.

Thank You, Lord, for leading Jenny and thank You, Lord, for working on my heart and leading me to reach out to her! ■

On a particularly sleepless night, fraught with worry, Jenny got up and turned on the TV. She began flipping through the stations, and settled on one she had never heard of before.

She agreed to meet for dinner, and we had a delightful time together. We talked for hours, and I could feel the bonds of friendship beginning to take root.

Jenny had been studying the Bible and searching on her own. She found 3ABN's channel 14 in Minneapolis quite by "accident," while channel surfing, and had been watching it for months with an open heart. This lady—a stranger in our midst—was earnestly search-

I can remember my childhood as though it was yesterday. My family had the largest vegetable garden in our entire neighborhood, and I loved it! I have good memories of the first time I helped my mother plant potatoes in that rich black Canadian soil. It was so much fun. I was especially filled with joy when fall came and I reaped my first harvest. The potatoes were so large, with a nice white flesh. I guess it was there, in that dirt, that potatoes became a much-loved food for me.

Mama was a wonderful cook, and she taught me many of her favorite recipes. One of my most beloved was Scalloped Potatoes. Even after all these years, I can smell her kitchen in my mind as I drift back in time, and I can still see Mama serving that entrée, along with homemade buns, a fresh salad, some young green peas (from her garden of course), lemon juice pickles, and a delicious homemade sugarless apple pie. Those thoughts excite my taste buds as I remember that marvelous meal.

Recently I shared this recipe at a cooking class, and everyone loved it. I have added this recipe to my personal menu when entertaining friends and family who are not used to a vegetarian diet. It's always amazing to hear the culinary compliments. It's simple to create, and always delicious. It can also be served with veggie burgers and, of course, with lots of love. Bon appétit! ■

Scalloped Potatoes

- ¾ cup cashews
- 4 cups water (divided)
- 4 tsp chicken-style seasoning
- 1 tsp salt
- 1 Tbsp + 1 tsp cornstarch
- 5-8 medium potatoes, peeled and thinly sliced
- 1 onion, finely chopped

Blend the cashews in only 1 cup of water, along with the chicken-style seasoning, salt, and cornstarch. Blend until very, very smooth (this is the secret to a nice sauce). Add 3 more cups of water and mix. Set aside this sauce until the potatoes and onions are cut. Wash, peel, and thinly slice potatoes. Chop onion into fine pieces. Spray a small dish with cooking spray and assemble ingredients by adding a layer of sauce, half of the potato slices, then half of the onions. Repeat these layers with the rest of the potatoes and the rest of the onions, and finish with sauce on top. Be sure the potatoes and onions are completely covered by sauce. Cover and bake at 350° F for 1½ hours, or until cooked through.

NEW PROGRAM THIS MONTH! You won't want to miss this one! Books of the Book is a new program designed to give viewers an in-depth look at the various books of the Bible.

With insightful commentary, and their love of God's Word, Ty Gibson and James Rafferty were the logical choices to cohost the first book of this series, and we think you're going to love it!

Our first series deals with the book of Hebrews. Written to the Jewish Christians who still didn't understand that Jesus had fulfilled the sacrificial laws, and that sacrificing animals was no longer necessary, the Apostle Paul drew on his in-depth knowledge of the Old Testament to bring a better understanding and appreciation of the ministry of Christ in heaven. You'll be amazed how this book sheds light on Christian growth today!

You won't want to miss a single episode. It all starts on Tuesday, February 5, at 2:30 p.m. CST, right here on 3ABN!

RESPUESTAS BÍBLICAS • Uno de los programas transmitidos a través de 3ABN Latino que ha probado ser de bendición especial para nuestros televidentes es Respuestas Bíblicas. Este programa que dura una hora es en realidad un estudio bíblico el cual examina la verdad bíblica referente a una variedad de doctrinas. Cada punto es probado por la palabra de Dios de manera clara y práctica. Aún más popular es la sección en la cual el pastor Piñero y un pastor invitado contestan las preguntas enviadas por nuestros televidentes. Respuestas Bíblicas es muy especial porque allí encontramos respuestas a las preguntas con las que luchamos diariamente. Les animamos a sintonizar este programa tan inspirador. Es más, envíenos sus preguntas por correo electrónico e invite a sus amigos a hacer lo mismo: rb@3abnlatino.org. # A Child's Prayer

by Idalia Dinzey

Do your children consider prayer? Do they know it's real? Have they been engaged in a special prayer circle where certain requests have been made, and the Lord has answered "yes" or "no"?

Sometimes we underestimate the spirituality of our children since, after all, they're just kids. I didn't realize how real prayer was to our oldest son, Samuel, at the tender age of four.

I remember that beautiful, inspirational, and memorable moment. My son ran into the house, calling out hysterically, "Mami! Mami! There's a bull on the street!"

"There is?" I asked, not terribly concerned. "Where? Is it big?"

"Yes, Mami, come and see!"

I dropped what I was doing and walked to the glass patio door. There stood a white bull, right in the middle of the street, and it had horns!

"Oh my," I exclaimed. "It's our neighbor's bull, but I just don't know which neighbor it belongs to!"

"Mami, can we pray for the bull not to come near our house and hurt us?" Samuel pleaded.

"Of course, son," I replied, "let's kneel right here and pray."

I realized what a special moment it was when Samuel and I knelt down and prayed. His tender little voice touched my heart as he lifted his supplication to the Lord.

"Dear Jesus, thank You for this day. Please protect us, and let the bull go home and not hurt us. We love You, Lord, in Jesus' name, Amen."

I followed his prayer with mine, "Dear Jesus, we're afraid of this bull, but we know that we have You, and You will take care of us. So please be with us, and thank You for answering our prayers. Amen."

We got up off the floor and hugged each other. I picked him up and walked to the white rocking chair. I held him close and rocked him back and forth on that old chair, reassuring him that everything was going to be just fine because Jesus is in control.

Just a few minutes later we got up and went back to the door. To my surprise, the bull was gone! Looking through the windows of just about every room, we checked the backyard, and up and down the road. But it was obvious that the bull had been guided home by Jesus!

"Mami can we pray for the bull not to come near our house and hurt us?" Samuel pleaded.

Oh, what joy we shared!

I can still hear my son's voice in my mind: "Mami, Mami, Jesus took the bull away!"

Have you prayed with your kids lately? Have you faced a frightening experience? Are your children aware of it?

You will not regret dropping what you are doing to be there for your child, and I would love for you to be blessed, as I was as I saw Samuel's faith grow.

The Bible says, "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature ..." (Luke 2:52). Encourage your child to grow in Him, too! ■ invitations to preach and teach that we were scheduled full time! We began printing study guides to go along with our seminars using an Apple Macintosh computer and a copy machine!"

Soon they recognized the power of literature, since it remained in the hands of those who attended long after they went home. With much prayer and youthful faith, they converted a garlic-drying shed into a small print shop, and promptly added a second press within three months! As they followed God's leading, the response was overwhelming. "It could be compared to the response of starving children, begging for more once they were given a bit of food," Ty says. "It became obvious that a full scale publishing facility would have to be built, and God impressed a man to donate the entire amount needed!"

By 1992 the new building was completed, and God began to impress His people to support the newly formed Light Bearers Ministry. Soon the presses were turning out millions of pieces, and through the years, they've maintained a simple formula: Target a needy country ready to receive gospel publications, fill a shipping container with 3-4 million pieces of literature, and send it on a 30 to 45 day journey across the sea.

Light Bearers now prints 20-30 million pieces of literature each year in over 30 languages! "We've published about half a billion publications since we started, in the form of Bible studies, magazines, and health and doctrinal tracts, and the best part is that it's very inexpensive to produce because we print in such volume! We send them to Africa, South and Central America, and Eastern European countries, and from the beginning our financial formula has been to charge nothing! If we were to put a price on the literature, it would place it out of reach of those who need it the most. So the Holy Spirit impresses people to support Light Bearers Ministry with a steady supply of financial resources."

Ty told us about his personal Bible study time. "Not a day goes by that I'm not reading," he says. "I'm constantly moving through the Bible in preparation for my next teaching event, and what I recommend is to move through it with a word study format, using tools like Strong's Concordance, and Bible study software, since it's important to discover the meanings of key words in each text. In Ephesians 2:8-10, for example, some key words would be 'saved,' 'grace,' 'faith,' and 'workmanship.' The Greek word for 'workmanship' is poiema, which means that God is composing us as a poem or lyric. When you go back and read it that way, it really comes alive."

When asked what brings him the greatest joy, he answers, "When I'm teaching, and I see the lights come on in someone's eyes as they realize God's genuine love for them! When people who are bowed down with guilt and condemnation feel that God cares for them for the first time—that's when I feel gratitude off the charts!"

Ty Gibson and James Rafferty have blessed us by hosting a new series that focuses on the book of Hebrews. It's called, Books of the Book and will begin airing on 3ABN television this month. Tune in, and see a picture of our loving God through new eyes! ■
