WE'LL SPEND ALL

Dear 3ABN Partner,

We value your input! And although we can't please everyone, we will prayerfully consider all your suggestions before making changes. That's why we've recently sent you an in-depth survey, covering just about everything about our programming. We want to know which programs you find most valuable to your Christian growth, and which ones you feel are most effective in spreading the undiluted three angels' messages of Revelation 14. We're committed to concentrate our resources in those areas.

But there are many things that we do not want to change. We will not change our principles, which have been the hallmark of 3ABN's ministry. We will continue to spread the undiluted three angels' messages, and maintain our conservative position on Christian dress and standards. We will also continue our careful teaching of the fundamental beliefs of God's remnant church.

And there is yet another. We will continue to "walk by faith, not by sight." 2 Corinthians 5:7. When Danny Shelton started this ministry he was told over and over again, "It can't be done!" But he moved forward by faith, in what some must have thought to be a reckless manner. There are those now that tell us that we cannot continue to move forward, and they are correct! We can't, but God can! It is unthinkable that at this point of earth's history, when time is running so short, the Lord would have us cut back on reaching out to a lost and dying world! Yes, we must be very careful and responsible in our spending, and we are committed to not waste a single penny on things that are not necessary. But we will spend all we have on proclaiming the gospel!

We must unite together in this great purpose, never looking back, but always forward in faith! Thank you for your thoughtful suggestions, your faithful financial support, and especially your prayers for 3ABN.

*"To God be the glory, great things He hath done.
 And is still doing!"*

P.S. Take our survey online at 3abn.org/survey.

3ABN's president.

sites, I found you instead. God is wonderful because I did not find the profane sites, but God's own site. I hope to watch 3ABN all the time."

ABUJA, NIGERIA

"My wife and I were faithful and serving Christians, but what was being preached, promoted, and emphasized, in view of the Scriptures, made us draw back. We stayed at home for about a year, studying for ourselves. I got involved in retailing satellite equipment, and there was 3ABN! Among 30 Christian stations, this one stood out. The more we listened and compared Scripture, the more we were convinced. We found a Seventh-day Adventist church, and got baptized."

ST. LOUIS PARK, MINNESOTA

"I'm retired now and have very little income, but I feel so indebted to you for what I have learned by watching 3ABN. I'm very impressed by the uniform excellence of your speakers."

MULGRAVE, VICTORIA, AUSTRALIA

"Please find enclosed a cheque being a donation from a viewer to 3ABN. This viewer called in to our church early one Sabbath morning before Sabbath School and gave the donation in an envelope marked '3ABN'. He told us he intended to come to the church with his family when he sorted out his business affairs. We look forward to the further leadings of the Holy Spirit. I am a constant viewer of 3ABN, and know why people are being led to the worship of the true God."

NAMPA, IDAHO

"I need to tell you just how 3ABN has worked and informed me on the Sabbath. Now I am a member of the Nampa Seventh-day Adventist Church. It took five years of studying, but it is so worth it!"

YUMA, ARIZONA

"We just wanted to let you know that through 3ABN we have left our former church of fifty-plus years to join the Gila Mountain Seventh-day Adventist Church, here in the foothills. We are very happy there. Thank you so much for spreading the truth!"

GHIMBI, WOLLEGA, ETHIOPIA

"Warm Christian greetings to you. I heard of your live transmission of the three angels' messages [of Revelation 14]. I am so thankful to my God as I see such boldness as men proclaim His last warnings to a perishing world. I am very eager to study."

LATVIA [ADDRESSED TO OUR 3ABN RUSSIAN EVANGELISM CENTER]

"It is so hard to describe how happy I felt when I received your books. Holding the parcel in my hands, I felt like I was anointed by God. I could neither say a word, nor stir—it seemed to me that I was standing in the presence of God. My breathtaking experience continued as I began studying your books. All I can learn about God comes from your literature. That is why I always look forward to getting more of your books and Bible study courses. Now I am reading, praying, and writing you to express my gratitude. That I got in touch with you at all is a big miracle of God. I have already given your address to my sisters and friend. They are all willing to study the Bible as well. May God bless abundantly all who are involved in this difficult work.... Praise Him! May the Lord reward you for every thing you do."

GEORGETOWN, NEW SOUTH WALES, AUSTRALIA

"Shortly after my satellite dish was installed I was anointed because I was losing mobility and coordination. God used the health messages on 3ABN to direct, ... and today I'm much better. Back then I was looking at a nursing home in the near future because I couldn't care for myself. Today, I am almost walking independently! Enclosed is my thank offering to 3ABN and to God. Please use it for whatever you feel is most urgent."

BOISE, IDAHO

"I will never tire of hearing our Lord Jesus being lifted up in His glory on 3ABN. It is still my only church [here in prison], and you are in my prayers. I thank God for you daily. The Holy Spirit and 3ABN have been great teachers, and I believe I have a great start on the truth of our Lord." ■

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

GOING FORWARD

Many of 3ABN's workers have stories to tell about how they came to work at this ministry. In fact, we believe that every worker has been called here for a special purpose. And although Pastor John Lomacang works for the Thompsonville Seventh-day Adventist Church, he is still very much a part of the 3ABN family.

John's story has been published in the book, Abandoned, But Not Forgotten. In it he details and was deep into the entertainment world when God called him to a better life. After working with the Heritage Singers for several years, he felt a calling to the ministry, and soon he and his wife Angela were both thrilled to begin working with Pastor Doug Batchelor in California.

But what led John and Angela to come to our part of the world? We sat down with him, and this is what he had to say:

"It seems like just a few years ago my wife Angela and I stood in our kitchen in Fairfield, California, as we came to the realization that the Lord was preparing us for something big! When the call came to serve in St. Louis, Missouri, I turned down the invitation three times. But I remember well the evening we sat in a quaint Indian restaurant and Angie said something that caused me to reconsider the call to the Midwest.

"Remember we didn't want to go to Fairfield either, but after six and a half years we could see that God was in it,' she said. 'Are you now telling Him where you don't want to go? What if that's what He wants?'"

how he and his sister were left by their mother at their babysitter's home, and how God used this tragic experience to bring him into the ministry.

Talented, and eager to follow in his father's musical career, John began singing on talent shows,

"It seems like just a few years ago my wife Angela and I stood in our kitchen in Fairfield, California, coming to the realization that the Lord was preparing us for something big!"

3ABN plans to begin live broadcasts of the Thompsonville Seventh-day Adventist Church services later this year. "We want to open the doors of our local church," says Pastor John Lomacang.

John and Angie took the call to St. Louis, and he was hired to establish a television media ministry that church administrators hoped would be functioning by 2005. "But after exploring the details for nine months, we realized that desire and resources were not on the same page," John says. "When I realized that the media ministry vision was not going to happen, I prayed silently, Lord, You knew this was not going to happen. Why did you allow me to come to the Midwest? We were comfortable in Fairfield. Lord, what do You want us to do with the rest of our lives?"

John's disappointment was only temporary. "We discovered why St. Louis is called the Gateway City," he says. "The Lord was opening another gate for us to walk through, because two days later the phone rang. I'd had just a few opportunities to work with 3ABN, so Danny Shelton's opening comment caught me by surprise.

"John, are you sitting down?" he asked me. "I want to run something by you. We're going to start building a new Worship Center and production studio, and we were looking for someone to be the pastor of that congregation."

Danny then told him that he and the Illinois Conference president narrowed down their lists of possible candidates, and that he was on both lists.

"Are you interested?" Danny asked.

John's response came before he even thought to ask his wife.

"Sure I am. Eh . . . let me talk to my wife and we'll pray about it," he stammered. "I'll get back to you in a few days."

Angela was just as surprised as he was, but it wasn't long before she said, “Remember what we said about the Lord preparing us? Could this be it?” They prayed and packed—five years ago. John says that those years have not always been easy, but they have brought about a work of maturity.

“I’ve seen that going forward is all the Lord requires of us,” he says. “When the Lord called the children of Israel out of Egypt, He also committed Himself to leading them against all obstacles. Over the course of our ministry at 3ABN, we’ve seen the blessing of trusting the Lord, as well. We’ve faced the fierceness of the enemy that held God’s people in Egyptian bondage, and we’ve seen the serpents and scorpions in our wilderness journey. Yet God continues in His faithfulness, and His Word is still true, ‘Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us.’ Romans 8:37.”

He continues, “It’s been said that ‘Pain is inevitable; but suffering is optional.’ Believe me, that is very true. In a book that I recently read, John W. Gardner is quoted as saying, ‘We are all faced with a series of great opportunities brilliantly disguised as unsolvable problems.’* I also believe that, as an ordained minister with 21 years of ministry behind me, this is the hour to embrace that which will usher in the Second Coming of the Lord: ‘The work of God in this earth can never be finished until the men and women comprising our church membership rally to the work, and unite their efforts with those of ministers and church officers.’

The vision for 3ABN’s Worship Center and production studio took some time to develop. “Seeing things the way they will become takes a greater amount of faith than seeing things as they are,” John continues. “Danny told me, ‘Our plans are to have a new studio built in the church building, and we’d like to eventually televise our church services.’ After almost two years we finally had the first broadcast on Memorial Day Weekend 2004. Our Worship Center had no carpet except for the stage, but the sanctuary was packed with close to 1,500 supporters whose pilgrimage led them to see what the Lord had done. Camp Meeting quickly gave way to having our worship services conducted weekly.”

John says that coming from the small Thompsonville Church down the road, which was barely 2,000 square feet, to the wonderfully appointed Worship Center, with 48,000 square feet, was quite an adjustment. “The sanctuary seemed huge,” he said,

“but the Lord blessed His congregation, and it grew quickly, and now it’s doubled in size. We enjoy a rich, diverse fellowship—growing pains included,” he adds with a chuckle. “The obstacles to ministry have come as man against mountain,” he continues. “While the mountain is difficult to climb, even the tallest mountain has a top. Even though there’s barely one tenth of a mile between 3ABN’s world headquarters and the church, at times the distance seemed farther. It was a blessing to have so many 3ABN staff members as church members also, but at other times that presented the greatest challenge to consistency.”

But what became of the dream of broadcasting weekly church services live over 3ABN’s television network?

“For the last four years we’ve prayed, grown, worked, and waited,” he says. “And like a Joshua and Caleb tag team, the Lord had another component to add to this ministry. Pastor Jim Gilley, and his wife Camille, joined the 3ABN family just last fall. In the capacity of president, the Lord sent one who would carry the same passion as did Danny Shelton for furthering the heavenly vision. This partnership of ministry has proved the Lord once again, ‘So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God, who makes things grow. The man who plants and the man who waters have one purpose, and each will be rewarded according to his own labor.’ 1 Corinthians 3:7–8 (NIV).”

3ABN and the Thompsonville Seventh-day Adventist Church are planning to begin a live broadcast of the Sabbath morning worship services later this year.

“While this is being done by other churches,” John adds, “we hope to add another dimension by presenting a church service in its entirety—children’s story, offering, sermon, and all. One great motivation is to open the doors of our local church, so that the Lord can send out laborers to bring in the harvest that surrounds us. The other is that we believe Jesus is coming soon, and we want to fully recommit ourselves to the call God placed on Danny Shelton’s heart 23 years ago: to preach the three angels’ messages of Revelation 14, and to counteract the counterfeit.

“I believe that this is the year the Lord will take us to another level, and I invite you to join us. Together we can become and do all that the Lord has prepared us for!” ■

CELEBRATING 5 Years!

ON AIR

by Nikki Anderson

Mark 16:15, “And He said to them, ‘Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.’”

Some of our low-power FM radio affiliates have recently achieved a milestone—they are the first ones to be on the air for five years! As of December 2007, the following stations celebrated their fifth anniversary:

- WAQA-LP, 94.5 FM
Morganton, Georgia
- WLMM-LP, 103.9 FM
Channahon, Illinois
- WQIN-LP, 102.9 FM
Quincy, Illinois
- WAWB-LP, 107.3 FM
West Branch, Michigan

Morganton, Georgia, home of a living nativity every December, is nestled in the beautiful Chattahoochee National Forest in northern Georgia.

The station was funded by an elderly lady who had grown up in Morganton, but had since moved away. She vowed as a child that she would do something for the community she loved. Although she has since passed away, WAQA-LP lives on, serving the community with the three angels’ messages 24/7. Praise the Lord!

The construction permit for the Channahon, Illinois, station initially had the antenna on a tower at the local police station, but that needed to be changed in a hurry! Now WLMM-LP is located just outside of historical Joliet, Illinois, and reaches into Joliet and a good portion of Interstate 55 as well as busy Route 53. The station is operated by a local church member who, by her own admission, is not very computer literate. Regardless of this, she is tenacious in her efforts to have this radio station deliver the gospel message with the best possible sound!

Quincy, Illinois, is located along the mighty Mississippi River, on the western border of the state. This radio project was spearheaded by two local women who have been fired up to reach their community for a long time. They tell me that most of their listeners comment on how much they enjoy the health programs they hear on WQIN-LP. In fact, one of the ladies told me that she just loves to visit her local Wal-Mart store, because many times she gets into a conversation with someone who listens to the radio station!

WAWB-LP is situated on Interstate 75 in beautiful central Michigan. They weren’t on the air very long before a letter was received from a prison inmate, and a prison ministry was born! We’ve been told that other inmates have written, saying their lives have been changed because of the programming. The station is operated by a man who is very computer savvy, and he has local technical help as well, so things run pretty smoothly most of the time. The Lord has directed people to the West Branch Seventh-day Adventist Church, and they’re excited to help with the station, and also record some local programming.

We thank God for these faithful servants. They have honored Him by answering the call of the Holy Spirit to reach out to their communities in their corner of the world—reaching out with the gospel message and offering it to their friends, families, neighbors, and strangers alike. ■

Nikki Anderson is the administrative assistant for 3ABN Radio.

GOD AT WORK

by John Dinzey

Lord, please bless this trip so that we may be a blessing to the people, I prayed silently on a recent trip to Mexico. And please open the doors so that we can get on the cable companies to reach even more people, I continued.

I was going to preach, and my wife Idalia was going to sing in a series of evangelistic meetings.

it is considered to be one of the richest silver mining areas in the world. But one of our most important goals, besides preaching the everlasting gospel, was to meet with the executives of the cable companies. We could only think of the thousands who needed to hear the good news!

As we walked to our connecting flight in Houston, Texas, I checked my voicemail messages. The first was from a pastor in Mexico asking if it was possible for 3ABN Latino to air an evangelistic series live from Cancun. Wow! Praise the Lord! It is an occasion of great joy when I hear that we can advance the preaching of the gospel, because people need the Lord!

The second caller stated, "Please call as soon as you can, because we have two cable companies that have agreed to put 3ABN Latino on their systems!" My wife overheard me saying, "Praise the Lord!"

"What happened?" she asked, and when I told her what they had said, she answered enthusiastically, "Amen! Praise the Lord!" We hadn't even set foot in Mexico, and already the Lord was showing us that He was at work in that great country!

One of the local church members, a faithful 3ABN Latino supporter, had already met with cable executives in Fresnillo, and left promotional materials and a DVD sampler with them. The meeting went well, and when asked if he'd had an opportunity to look at the DVD, the cable executive said yes. Then he added that he was impressed with the programming that 3ABN Latino offers.

But what he said next really amazed me. He told of how his company was planning to expand their cable coverage into six other cities. They would launch 3ABN in the first city in February 2008, with the possibility of another one in March. Then they would add 3ABN to the rollouts in each of the other four cities as opportunity permitted. As we left I couldn't help but say, "Praise the Lord!"

We praise Him because it is He "who does great things, and unsearchable, marvelous things without number." Job 5:9.

One of the leaders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Mexico told us that he received a call from a mayor saying that he enjoys watching 3ABN Latino. The pastor asked if he would like to receive literature to help him understand the topics better, and he eagerly accepted. Please pray for him, and that our combined efforts will bring glory to God!

Every day we spent in Mexico, God did something marvelous to reassure us that He is at work—along with His children on earth—to fulfill the words of His Son, Jesus, "And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come." Matthew 24:14.

Please remember 3ABN Latino in your prayers. ■

Coming in the month of July

We want to serve you better! Beginning with the month of July, the 3ABN Latino TV schedule will be available only as a separate mailing or at our website. This mailing will include information and news in Spanish that you won't want to miss. As a subscriber to 3ABN World magazine you will still be able to read the 3ABN Latino article in English as seen here, but to continue receive the 3ABN Latino TV schedule please send an e-mail to latino@3abn.org, or write to us at the following address: 3ABN Latino, P.O. Box 220, West Frankfort, IL 62896.

The city of Fresnillo, in the state of Zacatecas, Mexico, has a population of 190,000 people. With its baroque architecture, John Dinzey is the general manager for 3ABN Latino Network. He also works in Pastoral Ministries.

Hi Kids,
 I know you love all of God's creatures, and so do I. So I decided to learn a little more about our cold-loving friend, the walrus.
 The mother walrus is called a cow, the papas are called bulls, and the babies? You guessed it—they're called calves! Isn't that funny? They love to eat crabs, shrimp, and clams. They swim in the icy cold waters of Alaska and Siberia, and they can hold their breath underwater for half an hour. Brrrr! And get this, the male walrus can weigh up to 4,400 pounds! That's almost two-and-a-half tons!
 I've never met a walrus in person, so I'll just wait until I get to heaven to go deep-sea diving with my heavyweight friends! I hope you will join us!
 Love,
 Tammy

JOURNEY FROM THE PIT

Bill Gillaspay has a story to tell, although he prefers to call it a journey, or even an odyssey. “Actually, it’s the trip from the pit to a walk with my Savior,” he says, “and it began about 40 years ago.”

As a young man, in the prime of his life, Bill was on top of it all. As vice president of his corporation, he made an excellent salary, and his future was bright. He was also an active and trusted

Bill pauses for a moment, and then adds, “You’ll notice, there are a lot of Y’s in what I just said. A lot of pride, and a lot of self, but no mention of the Lord, or the Holy Spirit. I was doing it all myself, and I can tell you from experience that it doesn’t work that way. Slowly my faith disappeared, because I had always shied away from making that final surrender to the Lord. I had no anchor for my soul, so I turned from God and walked away.”

One Friday night, Bill sat idly pushing buttons on his remote control.

“I didn’t have anything else to do,” he says, “but as my finger pushed the button to bring up the next station, I heard a voice saying, ‘Stop!’”

He describes it as a resounding voice of authority. “It startled me enough that I even looked around to see if someone had entered my house without me knowing it!” he says.

“There was nobody there, but I stopped anyway, because I recognized that Voice. A Voice that is like no other—that warns member of his local Seventh-day Adventist church, and took his turn in the pulpit.

“I was proud of the positions of trust I held,” he says, “and I had people coming and going at my beck and call. With one word I could raise an employee to greater heights, or terminate his employment and bring sorrow to his eyes.”

“I could feel the presence of the Holy Spirit and angels gathered in my trailer,” he says. “I knew I was not alone.”

of danger, and guides you in the pathway you should go. When you hear that Voice, you tremble and obey!”

Turning back to the screen, Bill saw that the station was KBLN, a Better Life Broadcasting Network station, and an affiliate of 3ABN.

“Who’s that, I thought to myself. I’ve never heard of them before. But as I watched, I began to notice that the preacher’s words sounded familiar. As I watched one program after another, I felt a stirring deep inside me—a longing for something I’d been missing for years! I felt the need, and the Holy Spirit did the rest.”

Before the evening was over, Bill tells us that he was on his knees, answering the call made by the evangelist on his TV, and pleading for God’s forgiveness.

But it was a restless night for Bill, and when he awoke on Saturday morning, his mind was racing.

“I contemplated going to church,” he says. “There was time, and I didn’t have anything else to do. But no, I wasn’t ready. So I turned on the TV, and watched as Pastor Doug Batchelor taught the Sabbath School lesson. I drank in the familiar texts as he read them, my eyes tearing up as I heard the message. I ate my bacon and eggs, drank my coffee, and had another cigarette. Then I began Bill Gillaspay experienced a major transformation in his life and says that his health has steadily increased from applying the principles he’s learned from 3ABN programming.

“I had ignored and pushed Him aside for years, and now I realized that if I hadn’t listened that night, I might never have heard His ‘still, small voice’ in my conscience again.”

to make plans. There was a lot of cleaning up to do, lots of things I needed to be rid of. I began to remember what it was like to be a Seventh-day Adventist, but then doubts crept in as to whether God would ever take me back. Right then, a preacher I’d never heard of before was preaching about the prodigal son! His name was Pastor Shawn Boonstra, and as he made his appeal, again I answered it. It was a wonderful weekend.”

The following day Bill drove to Medford in search of literature and found the Adventist Book Center. “I had a house full of books, but they weren’t the ones I wanted,” he says. “I wanted good books, written by an author I knew and trusted. So I picked up The Conflict of the Ages series and a copy of Steps to Christ by Ellen White, along with some pamphlets on the Sabbath, the state of the dead, and the secret rapture. I didn’t intend on arguing my beliefs, but if others asked, I wanted to be able to tell them the story of salvation, and how Christ died for our sins. I wanted to give them something to read as well.”

On Monday, Bill called his doctor for an appointment, telling him he needed help to quit smoking. His doctor asked what had brought this on so quickly, and Bill told him he believed his body was the Lord’s temple, and he didn’t want to continue polluting His living quarters. Outside the office, Bill was so nervous that he lit another cigarette on the way to the store to get his nicotine patches!

The week went by quickly. “I didn’t want to go anywhere because I might miss something vital on TV,” Bill says. “I had plenty of time to think of what had happened. I knew whose Voice I had heard! I had ignored and pushed Him aside for years, and now I realized that if I hadn’t listened that night, I might never have heard His ‘still, small voice’ in my conscience again. It scared me to think how close I may have come to grieving away the Holy Spirit!”

Next, Bill began making calls. “I talked to people on the phone, telling them what had taken place, and asking forgiveness for the wrongs I had done in the past. I also told them about the changes in my life, and was amazed at how easy it was to tell others about the Bible.

“The next Sabbath finally dawned. I turned on my TV and watched Pastor Doug Batchelor teach Sabbath School as I had my breakfast, my coffee, and a cigarette.

“Now is the time, I thought. It’s 10:30. Time to go. Maybe I’ll be too early. After all, it’s only ten minutes away, if that. My Bible and one of my old notebooks were on the counter next to the door. Check in the mirror. Do I look alright for church? Okay, let’s go. Be careful to do the speed limit; you don’t want to get a ticket this morning, of all mornings!”

With his Bible in hand, Bill approached the church door and was met by smiles and cheery voices.

“Happy Sabbath! Happy Sabbath,” cried the greeters. A little lady he’d never met gave him a hug and welcomed him to their church, handing him a church bulletin.

“It was like coming home after being gone on a long trip,” Bill says. “I heard a good sermon, and they asked if I would stay for the potluck lunch. I would’ve loved to, but I just couldn’t, because I wanted a cigarette more than I wanted food! So I climbed back into my car and went home, chastising myself all the way as I puffed on that cigarette. I sat down with the Sabbath School lessons they had given me and began reading them. Then I looked at the bulletin and saw the schedule for the Wednesday night prayer meeting. Do I dare go?”

Wednesday came, and Bill picked up his Bible and his new copy of Patriarchs and Prophets he’d just purchased. He’d been reading it as part of his morning devotions, and thought if he was early, he might have time to read. But when he got there, the door was open, and a few people were already sitting at the tables. They welcomed him with a handshake, a smile, and even a hug. After some singing, they began sharing prayer requests.

“I shared a little about myself,” he says, “then asked them to pray that I be rid of some of my habits, like smoking. I think I must have smelled to high heaven!”

But Bill was about to have the shock of his life when he discovered that they were studying from the book Patriarchs and Prophets!

“Coincidence you say? There had been too many coincidences! We kneel before God’s throne, ask for His forgiveness and the guidance from the Holy Spirit. And then call what happens coincidence? I call it miracles!

Today Bill volunteers as a sound engineer for the Shady Point Seventh-day Adventist Church in Eagle Point, Oregon.

"My choice is to serve Him," he says, "to place Him first in my life."

There are miracles all around us if we just open our eyes and see."

Next, Bill set about cleaning his house. "My spiritual house was first," he says. "I attended every meeting for the next week, and told my prayer meeting group about my progress with family and friends. But as I returned home I felt dirty and disgusted with myself. Here I was, picking up the Holy Word of God, delving into the depths of His Truth, and taking breaks to have a smoke! That just did not make sense. I realized that I was at a point where if I didn't make a greater effort on my part, the Holy Spirit couldn't do the work I needed! Forty years of resisting Him were staring me in the face, and I was at the same point I was when I turned on Him before. It was time to make my choice.

"That evening I sat and talked to the Lord, telling Him that I wanted to surrender all the way. I laid my very soul at the foot of the cross, and asked if He would accept my offering of a repentant and contrite heart. The knock on the door of my heart was so immediate, that if I hadn't already had a heart attack and known the difference, I might have thought I was having another! It was so strong it almost put me on the floor. It frightened me, and at the same time it filled me with joy. Needless to say, I opened the door—because when the Lord knocks that hard, open the door, let Him in, and do as He says!"

Bill was flooded with the assurance that Jesus was his Friend, and that he was no longer alone. He could have this constant Companion for as long as he desired, and he knew that he could approach the throne of God with confidence!

"I was impressed that if I took my dirty smoking habit to God, He would take it away. Once more I was before the cross, pleading with my Savior. I lay my desire for nicotine on the altar, dear Lord. Please take it now, so that it is no longer a burden to my life.

"I arose in faith, put the medicine away, and took off the nicotine patch. I had no desire to smoke. I was no longer a slave to nicotine. But I still had the physical habit and the mental habit. I would walk out the door and pat my pocket. I would get behind the wheel and reach for the lighter that wasn't there. But I had no desire. It was gone. I haven't had a cigarette since that night. Now, will you please try and convince me there are no miracles being done by the Holy Spirit today? No, don't even try."

Bill related his victory to his prayer group, and they praised the Lord for answering their prayers. "I return daily to that holy place, to the One who has promised to love me and guide me from within. As I surrender, taking my ego and pride to the foot of the cross of Jesus, He replaces them with His treasures and gifts."

Next, he tackled his addiction to caffeine. "I'd been drinking a minimum of 12 cups of coffee a day, and when I ran out of coffee I would switch to iced tea," he says. "If I went for too long without it, I'd develop a wicked headache from the withdrawal."

Once more, Bill took his addiction to the Lord. And once more he was freed without any withdrawals! "I've done nothing except choose to believe and have faith that those prayers would be answered or honored."

Bill says that his health has steadily increased, and that his ability to read and understand his Bible is improving daily. "I've asked that my memory be helped, too," he says. "I'm not as young as I once was. In fact, I'd found that I was already living in the 'hereafter,' because I'd walk into a room and ask myself, What am I here after?

"I've been told, 'Ask and you will receive.' John 16:24. I go forward with the assurance that if I cram it in, when the time comes, I will recall it. God told me so, and I believe Him."

Bill demonstrated his new love for Jesus by being baptized on June 3, 2006, and we praise God for giving us a small part to play in his conversion story. We also praise Him for our affiliate partner, Better Life Broadcasting Network, whose station reached Bill that day.

"My choice is to serve Him, to place Him first in my life," he says. "Though I lose everything in this world—friends or family, all my worldly possessions—I will follow in the footsteps of the One who gave His life for me. It's worth any sacrifice, for someday I will sit at His feet, look Him full in the face, and thank Him for all that He did for me. Can I do any less for Him?" ■

A SPOKE

Have you noticed the most beautiful people on earth? They live happy, fulfilling lives, and accomplish much. In fact, their personalities are so attractive that everybody loves to be near them. But they may not be the ones you're thinking of.

You see, they're hardly ever famous outside their neighborhoods, and most have very few material possessions. Their homes are unusually modest, and most of them don't work anymore.

These beautiful ones touch everyone's life with a kind word, making time to listen, as well. And, not surprisingly, they're keen to share of their meager means, too.

You probably know some of them. All of us do, actually. They're the little grandma who lives down the street in that li'l ol' house, or the sweet elderly gentleman you see whose dog is walking him early in the morning! They're unassuming and gentle—the meek ones. But when they die, you'll be hard-pressed to find a funeral anywhere with a bigger attendance! And they're rich because they recognize their great need. Jesus said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." Matthew 5:3.

The Greek word ptochos translates as "poor," but a quick trip to the Bible concordance paints quite a picture! Words like beggary, alms, destitute of honor, lowly, afflicted, helpless, powerless, and needy come up. Not a pretty picture. These are those who know that they are "wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked." Revelation 3:17.

So what makes them so attractive? Why does serenity radiate warmly from them, when most of them have lost their youthful or physical beauty? Some of them squandered their youth, or fell prey to addictions. And every one of them have faced major hardships. But the answer is simple. When they realized and accepted their great need, when they had nothing to offer the Lord except their humble and contrite heart, He picked them up from the scrapheap of life and gave them a beautiful new heart. Their humility was need God's grace! They trust Him, rejoicing in His blessings. They also spend every waking hour humbly working for Him, never complaining or blaming—no matter how trying the conditions.

IN THE WHEEL

their entrance fee into God's new kingdom, and now they quietly go about their Father's business every day!

It's as if life is a giant wagon wheel, and each of us a spoke. Some of us think way too highly of ourselves, blowing up into prideful balloons and secretly floating above our fellow men on a mixture of pity and arrogance. We're the "bump" on the wheel, because our spoke is too big. When our turn comes to bear the weight of life, we upset everyone else's life around us!

Others of us are the "flat spot" on the wheel. We despise ourselves, thinking we're the worst human beings to walk the earth, and burying our God-given talents under our fear of failure. What happens when our turn comes around? We upset everyone again as the wheel skids to a stop on a flat spot!

But what of the humble people? They're right-sized, because they know how desperately they

Andrew Murray, a prolific South African writer and pastor who lived in the 1800s once wrote: "Humility is perfect quietness of heart. It is for me to have no trouble; never to be fretted or vexed or irritated or sore or disappointed. It is to expect nothing, to wonder at nothing that is done to me, to feel nothing done against me. It is to be at rest when nobody praises me and when I am blamed or despised. It is to have a blessed home in the Lord where I can go in and shut the door and kneel to my Father in secret and be at peace as in a deep sea of calmness when all around is trouble."

Jesus' kingdom begins in our hearts, and when His love permeates our life it must overflow, touching the lives of each person around us!

Have you looked in the mirror lately? Wanna become one of those beautiful people?

You can, you know... ■

SYMEON

AND THE PILLAR SAINTS

by Norman Ewing

No monk embraced separation from the world with such fashion and fervor as Symeon the Stylite. Living in Syria four centuries after the death of Christ, Symeon epitomizes the lonely life of monasticism in its most extreme form. The words of Jesus in the Beatitudes deeply moved the heart of the youthful Symeon, and both his desire to separate from the world, and his interest in sharing the pain of Christ, found their place as he embraced the life of a monk.

At the heart of his life was fasting, prayer, and suffering. He would fast for up to 40 days in an effort to emulate the sufferings of Christ. Then to separate further from the world, Symeon began living atop a pillar. For the rest of his life he lived on pillars, moving onto progressively taller ones. Even hundreds of years after his death, Symeon's cult-like following of Stylites, or pillar saints, continued to separate from the world in this way.

Art: Scott Ellis

While many Christians today will find the idea of living atop a pillar absurd, we still grapple with the same issues as Symeon did, all those years ago. For example, how does a Christian stay true in a world filled with sin? While intellectually many of us realize that even in the world we are not to be of the world, still we often let the world overwhelm us. Because our lives are so busy, we unconsciously shift our focus from heaven to the busyness of life in an effort just to survive the day.

During His time on earth, Christ recognized the pull of the world. In John 16:33 He tells us that although we will face trials, we can rejoice, because He has overcome the world. We don't have to let the busyness of life get to us. If Jesus has overcome the world, in Him we also can overcome this sin-filled world.

First, we need to focus our minds on Christ, and have Him fill us with His peace. In Isaiah 26:3, God promises that He will give us His perfect peace, if we stay our minds on Him. Through daily prayer and Bible study we can keep our minds filled with the grace and truth of Jesus Christ. As our relationship grows, God will show us what we need to do to simplify our life, and discard that which is not important.

Second, we need to share with others what God has done for us. Our purpose in life is not to squat atop a pillar for years on end, nor is it merely existence. Our purpose in life is to glorify God, and touch others for Christ. Share your testimony with your neighbor; "visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction." James 1:27. By focusing not on ourselves but on others, we are less likely to complain about our lives and less likely to be swallowed up by the cares of this world.

Third, we need to remind ourselves that we are only strangers here, as heaven is our home. With Abraham, we will look "for a city ... whose builder and maker is God." Hebrews 11:10. If we keep the reality of heaven in our minds, the world cannot overcome us. Thinking about heaven many times a day will keep us from the materialism of life, from being of the world.

The Christian world vision is not about living in a barren desert, in a mountain ravine, or atop a pillar in Syria. Rather, the Christian life is about keeping our mind stayed on Christ, touching others for Him, and recognizing that this life is limited, but heaven is eternal.

Remember Christ's words: "Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." John 16:33. ■

"10 for $20" DVDs!

Have you ever wished you had multiple copies of a program to pass out to your friends, or even to total strangers? If you have, then you're going to love this idea!

Now you can order 10 DVDs of any one of our programs for only $20 postpaid! That's right—that's only $2 per DVD, and we'll even pay the postage in the United States.

You can choose almost any program we air—a sermon by Pastor David Asscherick about the Sabbath, or a fascinating health program on Wonderfully Made.

You can even order 10 copies of your favorite Kids' Time episode—you decide what program you want!

Some of you will want to give these DVDs out to people you know, and others will want to leave them in places where they'd normally leave a Bible tract. DVDs are small and light, and you can keep your supply in your purse or your car. Just keep them handy for that "golden opportunity!"

And think about it. Who can resist watching a DVD?

Many people in today's media-driven society would watch one before they'd ever pick up a book!

Here are the details:

All 10 DVDs must be of the very same program, but of course you may order 10 DVDs of one program, and 10 of another—no limit.

This offer applies to most of our programs, although a few, which are produced by other ministries, cannot be copied.

Our offer includes postage for the United States only. International pricing will be higher, so please check with us by e-mail (mailroom@3abn.org) or by phone during regular business hours at 618-627-4651.

Keep an eye out for all those "special" programs, and then give us a call. It's a great way to tell others the good news! ■
