THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Dear 3ABN Partner,

Several years ago a couple of Evangelical Christians had an idea of holding a special Ten Commandments Sunday, when churches across America would emphasize the Ten Commandments in their services that day. 3ABN was invited to participate, and Danny Shelton saw a great opportunity to point people all over the world to God's often forgotten Law of Love, the Ten Commandments.

The results have been astounding. Over 6 million copies of the book Ten Commandments Twice Removed by Danny Shelton and Shelley Quinn have been distributed. Two Ten Commandments Weekends have been broadcast live around the world from Washington, D.C., and Chicago, Illinois, then re-aired numerous times. Over 30 pastors have started keeping the seventh-day Sabbath of the Bible—the day that God Himself instituted at Creation and again at Mt. Sinai, as a sign of ownership and a perpetual memorial of His Creation. They've discovered a new joy, and several have successfully changed their churches over to Sabbath-keeping congregations!

Because of the enormous popularity of both our Spring Camp Meeting and Ten Commandments Weekend, this year we decided to join them together into one magnificent event, with one of the finest lineups of speakers we've ever had. We'll be broadcasting this entire event live—even the seminars held during the day!

If you can be with us in person, you'll find an even greater blessing as you visit with our presenters and all of the 3ABN team. You'll see old friends, and make new ones!

But if you can't be here, be sure to mark May 28 on your calendar, and get a comfortable seat in front of your television, with your Bible, notebook, and pen close by. And whatever you do, pray for 3ABN and each of these presenters!

To God be the glory, great things He has done—and is doing!

Keep on keeping on with Jesus,

*Jim Gilley is

grams nearly every day. I also participate in the worship programs, and I am greatly blessed. I don't know what I would have done, if not for your channel and other Christian channels on the air."

VORKUTA, RUSSIA [SENT TO 3ABN RUSSIAN EVANGELISM CENTER]:

"My 6-year-old son and I enjoy viewing your program called Surprises from the Treasure Chest. It was quite recently that your program first aired on a local channel here in Vorkuta. What you are doing for our children is vital. May God bless you in your ministry and help you find many thankful young viewers. From the bottom of my heart I wish for little kids to come to God."

VIA E-MAIL:

"3ABN has been a tremendous blessing in my life. From the moment I started watching it, I began to learn things I never heard preached before. For the first time I learned where the three angels' messages were found in the Bible [Revelation 14:6–12], and their significance for the times we are living in. Ultimately, 3ABN played a big part in making the decision to go to Mission College of Evangelism, and now I am actively involved in winning souls for Christ."

ALLA, PORTUGAL:

"Thanks for your wonderful programs. As a woman, I learn lots of recipes that help me cook food for my family. We live in Portugal, and it is a God-blessed country in the sense that we have an opportunity to eat fresh vegetables and fruits all year round. I pass all the recipes I've heard of, viewed, and tested, on to my friends, sisters, and unbelievers. They love your food, too."

LEXINGTON, OKLAHOMA:

"I was raised in a Christian home, but went my own way. I have rededicated my life to Jesus while I've been locked up.... As I studied the Word for myself, I realized that a lot of the things that I was being taught at church really didn't line up with the Bible. We recently got cable and 3ABN, and I'm so thankful that somebody is teaching the truth. I'm now proud to be a Seventh-day Adventist."

LONDON, ENGLAND:

"I am 86 years of age. I was given the 3ABN satellite dish for my birthday from my church, and it has been a blessing. I cannot get to Wednesday night meetings, so 3ABN has been my church at those times. I am enjoying every moment as you are such a blessing to me. Thank God for your station. May the blessings of heaven be yours."

TAMPA, FLORIDA:

"Thank you so much for your ministry and the reaching out that you are doing. I became a Seventh-day Adventist in February of last year, and received a satellite dish. As I started watching your channel, I can't say enough how these broadcasts have enlightened my husband and me. The truth is eye-opening!"

MARION, ILLINOIS:

"Thank you for sending forth the truth. I have never heard the Word taught in such an uncompromising way. I have been online getting your program schedules and recording my favorites. Enclosed is my thanks for teaching the Word."

EUGENE, OREGON:

"I love you all, and thank you for the wonderful blessing you have been to me for the past three years. I have learned so much, and thank God He answered my prayer that I just wanted to know the truth! I am an invalid in a wheelchair, and can't get into the car, so I consider your ministry my church!"

MISSISSAUGA, ONTARIO, CANADA:

"I am the recipient of our dear God's marvelous and abundant blessings through your great ministry. I was sick, so I called 3ABN, and a pastor prayed with me on the phone. I thank the Lord with all my heart for my miraculous healing, and the Lord be glorified, honored, and praised, now and through eternity!" ■

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

BRIAN HAMILTON

FOCUSED ON THE VISION

Brian Hamilton had just two days under his belt as our new chief financial officer when he sat down to talk to us about what had brought him to Three Angels Broadcasting Network. His calm day Adventist education right through college and graduate school,” he says. “After school I got a job with Marathon Oil, but I was never comfortable in this secular environment. The way business was conducted—the social drinking and all that—was not me. So I quit that position, and we sold our home and invested that money to further my education.

“My heart was really in church work, and I had always wanted to be a pastor,” he says, candidly. “After completing a bachelor’s degree in business administration, I went on to earn a master’s in divinity from the seminary at Andrews University. I pastored for five years in the Michigan Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, where I was ordained. That experience really developed me in terms of understanding local church demeanor and kindness were immediately apparent, and as we talked to him, we quickly realized he has a pastor’s heart.

Born to missionary parents, Brian spent six years of his young life in Pakistan where his mother taught nursing and his father was a school principal. “I had a wonderful Seventh-dynamics, as well as the interaction between the church and the local conference organization. It also gave me skills in public speaking, which I’ve found to be a real blessing.”

After serving as a pastor, Brian began working as an associate treasurer for the Michigan Conference, later moving to Wisconsin where he held the secretary and treasurer’s position for nine years. He’s spent the last three years in treasury, and most recently as associate director of the human resources department for the Southern California Conference in Glendale, California.

But how did he hear about 3ABN?

“While we were living in Michigan, we met Danny Shelton,” he says. “I remember him singing at the Berrien Springs Village Church, where we were members. Then my wife and I began to hear about his plans to build a television station that would reach the world. We felt the Lord's hand was on this ministry from its inception. Since then, we've watched the miracles unfold, and it's been truly incredible!

were working in California, but missing the Midwest, where we had lived for many years. Larry wrote my name and number on a note, and it sat on his desk for over a year. I was unaware of all of this until I received a call from 3ABN's president, Jim Gilley, after Larry and his wife decided to move back to Canada.

"My wife Diane and I feel that 3ABN is an important tool, and the Lord is using it to touch the entire world with the three angels' messages. It reaches peo-

Brian spent six years in Pakistan, and has fond memories of both his Pakistani and American childhood friends, like David Reynolds (right photo).

"Our call here originated a year and a half ago, when my brother-in-law purchased some Ten Commandments Twice Removed books to distribute. Somehow he ended up speaking with Larry Ewing, 3ABN's CFO at the time, and for some reason, he mentioned my name. He told Larry that we were enthusiastic 3ABN supporters, and that we ple in their own homes, and in an unobtrusive way.

"I feel very privileged to be called to join this ministry," he continues. "It's humbling, exciting, and even a little scary to be part of something as dynamic as this. 3ABN has grown from very humble beginnings to a major media network, and as it grows, it's natural to experience growth pains, both in the financial and administration arenas. Having been administratively involved in three different church conferences, I hope to bring my experience in financial administration to help at 3ABN."

Brian is quick to praise his predecessor. "Larry Ewing has put together a nice team of people, and I'm delighted that 3ABN has excellent accounting software and practices in place. Larry's done a marvelous job, and although I've been here only a short while, I'm impressed!

"I want to do my part to help fulfill God's vision for this ministry," he says. "I want to see 3ABN continue forward with a spirit of sacrifice. We must also be willing to step out in faith, because this has always been a faith ministry. As we have done that, the Lord has always rewarded us. We need to keep focused on our vision to spread the undiluted three angels' message of Revelation 14 in all its facets, to all the world.

"Counteracting the counterfeit—that's the vision God gave Danny Shelton. Satan has a counterfeit for everything, but God wants people to know the truth, and not be deluded by the counterfeit."

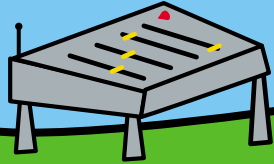

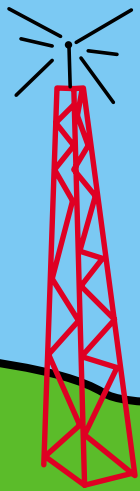

When we asked him about the move from southern California to southern Illinois, he smiles. "Coming from Los Angeles, it's wonderful to have a little open space," he says. "We do have to watch for deer now, but we don't have to worry about traffic jams. Our friends in California jokingly ask us how we can trust air we can't see," he says with a chuckle, "and they worry about our safety when it comes to raccoon and opossum stampedes. One friend said he was worried that we weren't going to have enough meditation time, because we didn't have any rush hour traffic!"

Brian and Diane have two grown sons, a lovely daughter-in-law, and two adorable grandchildren. "We love being closer to the grandchildren, who live in Rockford, Illinois."

If he finds any spare time, Brian says he enjoys woodworking, home remodeling, and especially reading material that helps him come to know God better. "Diane loves her grandkids more than anything, but also enjoys her flower beds and quilting," he says.

We are blessed to have this couple with us, and look forward to their contribution to God's ministry. Won't you pray for them as they start their new life here at 3ABN? We believe that God has called them to this ministry for such a time as this. ■

by Nikki Anderson

Early in 2005, Pastor John Lomacang and his wife Angela visited the Fairfield, California, Seventh-day Adventist church for a homecoming event. When Michael Settle and his wife, Jan Yankee, heard they would be there, they decided to attend the celebration and visit old friends. Michael felt impressed by the Holy Spirit to write a note asking Angela if she knew of any teaching jobs available anywhere. At church, Angela told Jan that the Thompsonville Christian School on 3ABN's campus was in need of a kindergarten teacher, and encouraged her to apply for the position.

Although Jan had reservations about moving so far east—leaving her family and going to a colder climate—she did apply, and they both came here for her interview. The board offered her the job, she accepted, and the kids love her!

When Michael and Jan arrived in Thompsonville, they stayed with their friends, Dick and Ellie Hutchinson, whom they knew from the Fairfield church. The Hutchinsons had moved here earlier as volunteers. Soon Michael and Jan bought a house, and while the church was helping them move, Jay Christian, our 3ABN Radio production manager, asked Michael to come to his office to talk about the possibility of working for 3ABN Radio. Martha Weber, one of our production assistants, was leaving to attend college full time, and we were faced with being short-handed. God's timing!

Michael's experience is in accounting and tax preparation, with audio and radio on the side. But his heart is in his music. He plays the piano by ear and sings bass or baritone—depending on whether he's singing alone or with a group. He's been a member of several quartets over the years—all with no formal music training.

"I get my musical ability from my mom," Michael laughs, and adds, "She sings and plays the piano and the organ, and my dad plays the tape recorder!"

Michael Settle has learned to wear many hats, as most of us at 3ABN Radio do. He's one of the people responsible for producing and recording our interview program, Crossroads on 3ABN Radio. He also serves as one of the recording engineers for those who come to do promos for 3ABN Radio. He also edits and prepares all the programs we receive from outside sources, as well as making the 3ABN television newsbreaks radio-friendly. Using his distinctive voice, he not only does voice-over (announcer) work for the network, but also for the Thompsonville Seventh-day Adventist Church on our flagship radio station, WDQN 95.9 FM.

Michael has played music for 3ABN television production use, and sometimes helps with brainstorming, regarding music for programs and promos on 3ABN Radio. He's also active in local churches, singing and playing the piano for special music. Whew!

Michael just smiles and says, "I thank God we're here. We're having a great time!"

Praise the Lord for letting Michael "settle" at 3ABN Radio. A radio staff member and a teacher at the same time. . . Now that's two for one! ■

The MACEDONIAN Cry

by John Dinzey

“A man of Macedonia stood and pleaded with him, saying, ‘Come over to Macedonia and help us...’ Immediately we sought to go to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.” Acts 16:9, 10.

After Paul received this message, he knew that it was time to go to Macedonia to preach the gospel. But even today, you may be surprised to hear that a similar call is coming from an unexpected place.

A couple of months ago we visited a prison in Mexico, and my first impression was how crowded it was! I was disturbed by the thought that this prison was full of men who have tried everything to fill the void in their lives—voids that can never be satisfied by the things of this world. It reminded me once again that people need the Lord!

We were there to see Geovani Roman López, who was deceived into driving a stolen car, and then arrested and charged with vehicular theft. For three long months he’d been awaiting his trial, but there was something different about him. You see, Geovani is a Christian, and we could tell in a moment that he didn’t belong there.

Tears filled his eyes as he told us how hard it was being in jail, separated from his wife and baby. “But I don’t ask the Lord why this has happened to me anymore,” he said. “I just ask Him to please show me the reason I’m here.”

Next he told us how God has been using him to help others, and how they’ve come to talk to him, adding, “I am so grateful that God can use me, even here in prison.”

Geovani confided that the day before, the prisoners in his building nearly united in a riot, determined to overpower the guards and escape. There was anger and excitement in the air, but as he began to earnestly pray for God to calm everyone down, unexplainably, he heard them comment, “I’m going back to my cell.”

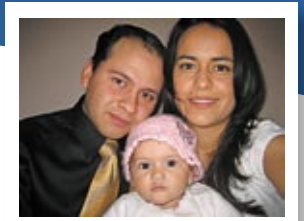

Geovani was sure that God stopped them from hurting the guards and each other. It was a dangerous situation, and the potential for bloodshed and murder was very real. He explained the great need to bring the gospel to the inmates. “Unless we reach them while they are there, the majority of them will return to a life of crime.”

Since then I’ve received the good news that Geovani was released, and is now reunited with his family.

But the burden of reaching those inmates has not left me. I believe that people need the Lord!

Last year we were presented with an opportunity to make 3ABN Latino available in all the prisons in Mexico. Although a few obstacles still stand in the way, we believe that God’s will is for these prisoners to be set free from sin, saved through the blood of Jesus Christ!

From the prisons of this world comes the Macedonian cry, “Come and help us,” and we want to respond to their desperate cry. Please remember us in your prayers. ■

Geovani Roman López and his wife Angelica and daughter Angie were recently reunited by God’s grace.

A BEACON OF HOPE IN KENYA

The tragedy in Kenya grabbed headlines around the world as looters set fire to billions of dollars of property during the recent post-election violence. But even as hundreds of thousands were driven from their homes and jobs, God was ing place in Kenya these days, what an opportunity this is to reach out with the three angels' messages—which are the love letters from Jesus Christ to our world in these last days," says 3ABN President, Jim Gilley, as he expressed his concern for the people of that country.

“With all the changes taking place in Kenya these days, what an opportunity this is to reach out with the three angels’ messages,” says 3ABN President, Jim Gilley.

making sure that a ray of hope would break through the smoke and despair.

After many years of planning and prayer, 3ABN's first radio station on the African continent began broadcasting to millions of listeners from the city of Kisii, in western Kenya.

“With all the changes tak-

“I truly believe the timing of the Kisii radio station going on the air was providential,” adds 3ABN General Manager, Mollie Steenson. “It humbles all of us to see God use this ministry to bring His healing truths to a nation in turmoil.”

Enoch Mogusu, a faithful 3ABN supporter, reflected the excitement of those who had worked so hard to get this FM station on the air: “For the last five days we have been busy moving from territory to territory in the four corners of this part of the world, testing the signal,” he wrote. “We are delighted to report that millions of people are receiving 3ABN Radio as far as 200 kilometers [125 miles] away from the transmission center. We praise the Lord for this great blessing for the people of Kenya as they recover from the post-election violence.”

Enoch says their call desk received hundreds of phone calls from as far away as the northern part of Tanzania, and much of the Lake Victoria basin.

He also shared the excitement of the church leaders who had been praying for this project. “Praise God, what a delight,” said Pastor Geoffrey Mbwana, the president of the East Central African Division of Seventh-day Adventists. “Please pass my personal greetings to all listeners, and a big congratulations to all who made this possible.”

Manyange Omanwa, Kisii FM site technician, keeps a watchful eye on the brand new transmitter.

3ABN's new Kisii FM radio station is being heard up to 125 miles away!

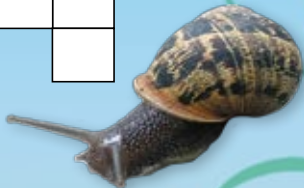

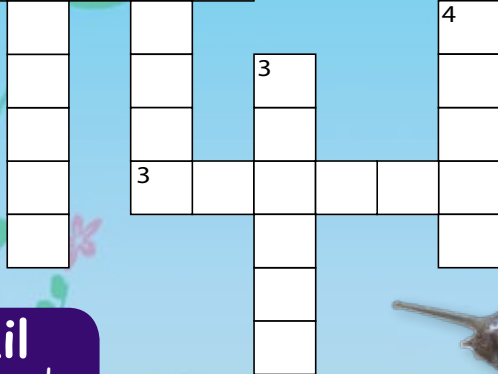

Another church leader, Pastor Lameck Anyona of the Nyamira Conference, said, “This is a miracle that we shall live to remember! We are very much delighted, and we thank God for all. For sure, God is great!”

Others who worked on this project were thankful, too. “Praise God, and may many

Hi Kids,

I decided to draw some cute snails to share with you. Then I did a little research on our little "slow slider" friends.

Did you know that snails can live just about anywhere? From deserts to ditches, from oceans to marshes — you can find them in the woods, and even in your own garden!

The largest land snail lives in Africa, and the largest of all snails lives in the ocean near Australia. That one can weigh up to 40 pounds!

They slide along on their one muscular foot, and they make their path smoother by adding a layer of slime to the surface!

Maybe you have one in your fish tank. Either way, what you have just read will help you a lot in working out this month's puzzle!

SUPREME PROVIDER

by Pastor Heber A. Bacolod

The soft sounds of splashing water accompanied the songs of praise in the Bacolod, Philippines Central Seventh-day Adventist Church a few months ago. Pastor Orlando Deocades was baptizing Mrs. Maria Theresa de Asis, and after the baptism, she happily shared her testimony with 3ABN World readers.

Maria Theresa grew up in a devout Catholic family, but as a college student she attended where she stayed for the next 18 years.

Maria Theresa retired last year as a branch operating officer in Metro Bank, one of the largest banks in the Philippines. She and her husband have four children, and because her husband's job required him to be out of town most of the time, he tried to spend as much quality time with them as possible when he returned.

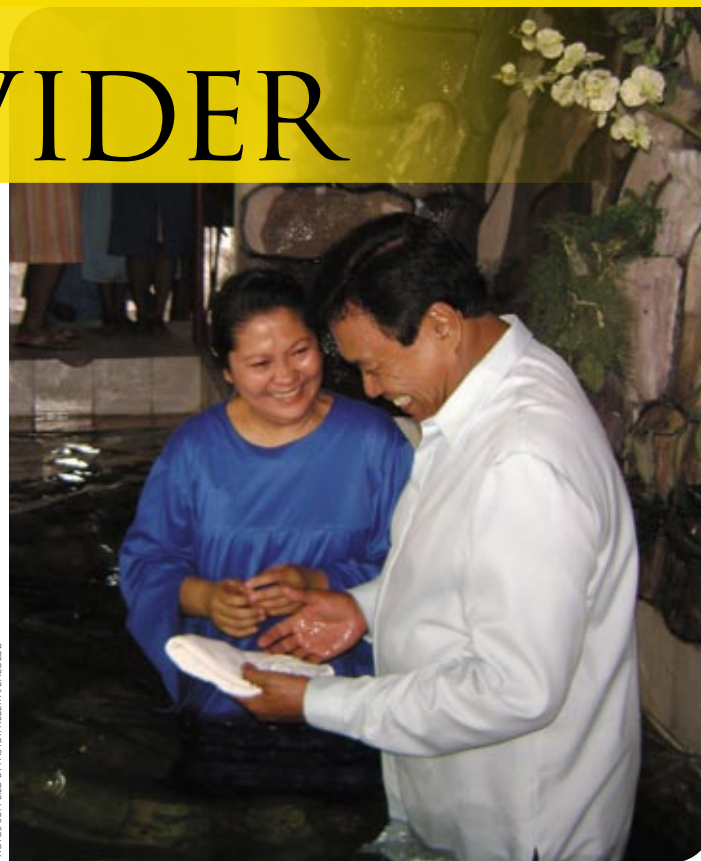

"When he was home, he would spend his time playing basketball, or bowling," she says. "I busied myself with church work, and got involved by ushering, women's ministries, evangelism, and attending crusades. But my secular job required eight hours of work on weekdays, and left no time for my children," she adds. With her promotions came higher responsibilities, and little by little, she withdrew from church ministry.

"I seldom had time for fellowship," she says, "and I was no longer consistent with my prayer life. I felt I was on a roller coaster ride, with so many problems at the office, and at home. I had a difficult time dealing with my children, and I had no one to the Evangelical, Baptist, and Mormon churches, before making a decision for baptism in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. But that was not the end of her journey. She drifted away from her Mormon beliefs, and later returned to Catholicism. Then, after marrying and having a family, she became a born-again Christian, joining the Lord's Lamp Stand Church,

"I said to myself, Wow! This is the only program on TV that acknowledges the name of Jesus Christ as the Supreme Provider!" talk to. I felt so helpless. I would cry my heart out to the Lord at night, seeking His face," she continues. "I would beg Him to restore to me the joy of salvation, to help me discover my gift, and to lead me to the ministry where He wanted me to serve. I desperately needed to be restored back to His fold!"

Depressed, and torn by her emotions, Maria Theresa felt she was the most miserable person in the world. On weekends her children would go out with their friends while she stayed home alone watching television. That's when she discovered 3ABN!

"What caught my attention was the end of a program," she says. "I happened to glance at the credits, and the first one read, 'Supreme Provider—Jesus Christ.' I said to myself, Wow! This is the only program on TV that acknowledges the name of Jesus Christ as the Supreme Provider! And from then on, every time I watched TV, it was 3ABN."

As the days went by, Maria Theresa started spending quality time again, seeking God through prayer and His Word. She eagerly opened her Bible everyday, and began to personally attend to the needs of her family. She also noticed she became more efficient in her work at the office.

“By watching 3ABN I found out so many things—doctrines, especially from the Old Testament, and teachings that were never taught in my church,” she says. “The Adventists were very warm and sincere, and before long I requested Bible studies. I still kept attending my old church, as well, and one day the Lord led me to share what I’d been learning with two of my best friends. Sadly, instead of welcoming the message, they warned me to stop viewing 3ABN, saying I was being misled by their teaching! Then they blamed me for not informing our pastor of this.

“I felt stunned by their reaction! I was bothered for days, and it robbed me of sleep. One night a terrible mental anguish came upon me. I felt powerful forces tugging me from both sides. Later, I realized this happened as two groups interceded for me: one made up of my friends at my former church, and the other my Adventist friends.”

The following day, she talked to her pastor, asking him why they worshipped on Sunday, when the Bible clearly states they must keep the Sabbath. “I think we’re disobeying God’s law!” she said, to which he responded, “We are now in New Testament times, and are no longer under the law, but under grace. The command to keep the Sabbath holy applied only to the Jews because they were slaves,” he continued. “They were required to rest from their work on the seventh-day Sabbath ment, and teachings that were never taught in my church,” she says.

Soon Maria Theresa contacted the local 3ABN Bacolod offices, which gave her several books written by Seventh-day Adventist pioneer Ellen White.

“The things I’d never understood before became clearer because of those books,” she says, “and then I began attending the Sabbath worship services.”

I was speaking during the Sabbath Worship Service last year at the Bacolod Central Seventh-day Adventist Church when Maria Theresa attended her so that they could focus on what God had done for them. But as Christians we keep Sunday holy because we’re celebrating the Lord’s resurrection.”

He quoted several Bible verses to support his claim, and then moved on to her other questions. “But deep in my heart, I already had the answer,” she says.

The next Sunday, her pastor urged his congregation to attend their midweek prayer meetings, and then used his time to emphasize their belief in the “once saved, always saved” theory, along with his reasons for not observing the seventh-day Sabbath. But nothing matched the in-depth knowledge about the Bible she felt she was getting through 3ABN.

Finally, she sent a text message to her pastor. “Brother Ricky, I choose to obey the commandments of God and to have the faith of Jesus.”

“What do you mean?” he replied.

“I’ve decided to join the Seventh-day Adventist Church,” she messaged back. “I’ve never learned as much as I have in this church. Please discover it for yourself through 3ABN. They are not a cult. They’re a church that teaches the whole counsel of God, and they’re bringing the gospel to the whole world in these last days.

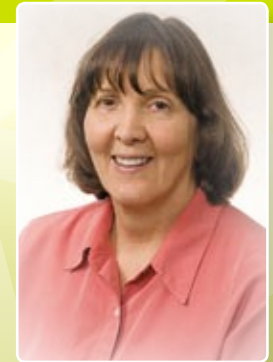

“My last words to him were, ‘The truth will set us free!’ And it did set me free!”

Maria Theresa came to us in a marvelous way through 3ABN. Today, she is a faithful member of our church, and she’s actively involved in sharing her newfound faith, especially with her husband and children. We are praying that her family will soon join the family of God. ■

Nutritious Green Breakfast Shake

“This highly nutritious shake is based on mostly raw, unprocessed foods, selected for freedom from genetic manipulation and overproduction, and for a wide range of mineral and vitamin content,” says Cindy. “My husband and I have this for breakfast almost every morning, and it takes less than ten minutes to make.”

Cindy Clark is our 3ABN engineering secretary. Her husband Frank works in 3ABN's computer department.

For those of you who would like a quick and nutritious breakfast shake, here's a great recipe from Cindy Clark, our Engineering Department secretary.

Green Breakfast Shake

- 1¼ cup (½ can) pineapple chunks in pineapple juice (no sugar added)
- ¾ cup raw sunflower seeds
- ¼ cup ground flaxseed
- 2 T. cold-pressed flaxseed oil
- 1 T. lecithin
- ½ cup parsley
- ½ cup spinach
- 1 cup apple or pineapple juice
- 1 banana

Optional: Mix and match the following for taste and variety: almonds (for a more chewy, spooned shake), mint leaves, apples, cherries, strawberries, blueberries.

Blend all ingredients, cold where possible, at high speed. This makes it highly digestible and releases the chlorophyll in the greens. Makes 2–4 servings, depending on your appetite.

Tips: Ingredient amounts can be varied for desired taste and consistency. Liquid volume can be changed to range from a spooned shake to a quick drink. Fresh greens are great, but frozen ones are a lot easier to use. Fresh parsley in bulk can be washed, dried, and frozen for easy use, as well. Flaxseed must be ground fresh in a coffee grinder just before use. I even keep the cans of pineapple in the refrigerator to keep them cold. Make only what you will consume immediately as it will not keep beyond 24 hours at the most.

Remember: It's important to have a substantial breakfast!

Would you give your last few dollars?

The Least of These

by Steve Nelson

I can't count the number of times I've seen the sign. It always seems to be there at the most inopportune time, looming unavoidably like a skyscraper in front of me.

"Will Work For FOOD."

There have been times, I must confess, when my heart was divided. As I looked at the person, I would start analyzing their situation, motives, and what they might have done to put themselves in this predicament. When I did this, I missed the most important part—their need.

"Inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did it to Me." Matthew 25:40.

It was during one of these times that God spoke to my heart. What if it were you?

I tried to picture what it would be like living hand-to-mouth. No home, no security, one day dissolving into the next, as the years of my life passed on aimlessly into eternity. At that moment, I resolved to do what I could to help, without judging the motives of the one in need.

Through these chosen opportunities God allows me to be His love in action. Think about it for a moment. The King of the universe wants you and me to be part of His plan to bring help and hope to someone who may never know the comforts we enjoy every day!

This situation can reveal the motives of our hearts. Most of us have more than we need, but when it comes to giving our last few dollars, we hold back like we will never earn another one again. We're afraid that if we give, we will be the one in need!

Our Father in Heaven knows all our needs. He blesses us so we, in turn, can bless others. Then He waits to see if our hearts will respond to His plea to help the helpless.

The next time you see someone in need, ask God to let you see them through His eyes. When we do this, we stop questioning why they are there, and begin to see the real need. As we lift their burdens, others will see Him.

We can never out-give the One who gave everything for us. ■ dren for His glory with 3ABN Radio Kisii!" added their regional geologist, Haron Onsomu.

Characteristically, this project was not an easy one. "Once again, God amazes me with His perfect timing," said Moses Primo, 3ABN Director of Broadcasting and Engineering. "The license for this radio station was granted a year ago," he says, "and although God provided for the construction of the transmitter building and tower through the labor of local volunteers, we didn't have the funds for the transmitter and antenna, which are the very heart of any radio station. But after an appeal to our faithful viewers and listeners during a behind-the-scenes program, we began to see a tremendous response. It was amazing, because we received all the funds we needed in just a few weeks!"

Moses added that if we had lost this permit, we would have lost the confidence of the government of Kenya to grant us future television and radio licenses in other cities around the country. "I praise God for providing faithful viewers and listeners that have caught the vision of spreading the good news," he adds.

Enoch summed up his e-mail with, "Praises! Praises! Praises! Blessings!"

Can you tell they're excited? We are, too! Soon the numbers of heaven will be swelling with the precious souls who have been redeemed by the blood of Christ since being introduced to Him through this new station!

Thank you for your support of 3ABN's ministry. You're the reason this station is brightly beaming the good news to Kenya and beyond! ■

More Good Stuff

As our 3ABN surveys came in, it was obvious that you wanted more of everything in 3ABN World magazine. Of course, we didn't need much of a nudge, and after a good brainstorming session, we think we've come up with some wonderful ideas of how to put much more into our magazine pages.

Beginning next month, you'll find a lot more of the "good stuff," because we're working on some new things, including regular columns on our Bible-based heritage, miracle stories of how God has brought 3ABN into existence, and in-depth Bible studies. We're also adding more features on health, music, and how God has called His workers to this ministry.

We're excited about these changes, and we hope you will enjoy them, too. We're always open to new ideas, so don't hesitate to drop us a line and tell us what you would like to see in your 3ABN World magazine! ■

"What Is This You Have in Your Hand?"

As Acynthia, from John Day, Oregon, thought of what more she could do to help the gospel reach the world, she remembered her prized camera equipment. Through her generous donation, we were able to put $512 to work winning souls for Jesus!
