WELCOME

We're amazed at how God continues to bless 3ABN with so many dedicated volunteers and workers! This month you'll read about Leonard Westphal, our 3ABN Stewardship and Trust Services Director, and how God spared his life over and over as He prepared him for the work he is doing (p. 6). You'll be blessed by Delmus and Nadine's story of their search for truth in Europe, and how they "stumbled" across a channel that led them to Jesus Christ (p. 16)! If you enjoy pineapples, then do we have a dessert recipe for you! Idalia Dinzey shares a recipe for a Tropical Treat with us this month (p. 44). And last but not least, find out about the new children's program with Joyce Neal, called Grandma's House (p. 20) It's all in this month's 3ABN World magazine, along with all your TV and radio listings. "But ye shall receive power..."

ACTS 1:8

Dear Family,

I was encouraged as I shared 3ABN's 2006 theme, "Evangelize with Power," with the staff and volunteers at our annual day of prayer on January 3. God impressed those words upon my mind early that morning and they flooded my heart with great expectation. However, I never anticipated that my expectations would pale in comparison to what God had prepared for 3ABN. Three months ago, God commissioned 3ABN to spearhead an unprecedented evangelistic effort, unparalleled in Adventist history, the Ten Commandments Weekend program held in Washington, D.C.

I was privileged to watch as many believers gathered in unity on May 5 and 6 to affirm their belief that God's Commandments are still binding today. We came together from all over the world with a single agenda: to join forces with God, the One who gave us the Ten Commandments. These two days of broadcasting, along with the distribution of 5,000,000 (that's right — five million) of the Ten Commandments Twice Removed book, reached every inhabited continent. Our earnest prayer is that these people will be found among the faithful who are keeping all ten of the true Commandments of God at Christ's return.

I want to personally thank each of you who made this Ten Commandments Weekend such a success. It is YOUR love, YOUR prayers, and YOUR financial support that make it possible for 3ABN to "Evangelize with Power."

Danny Shelton is the president and founder of 3ABN.

Have you been blessed?

Have you been blessed by 3ABN? Or have you come to know the Lord Jesus Christ by watching or listening? We'd love to know!

Your testimony can make a difference in our readers' lives, so why not sit down and drop us a line? You can write to us at: 3ABN World, PO Box 220, West Frankfort, IL 62896. E-mail us at: mail@3abn.org.

NEW SOUTH WALES, AUSTRALIA:

"Our prayer is that God will use 3ABN to keep telling the world of His love and His soon return. We enjoy these programmes very much, and as my husband is no longer able to go to church, we never miss out on having a Sabbath Day's blessing. Enclosed is a cheque. If you have any newsletters we would appreciate a copy. We're glad to hear of the progress of God's Word. God bless you."

KINGSTON, JAMAICA:

"I just want to say that I am inspired by your ministry and all that you are doing across the world. It was by accident that I came across 3ABN while flipping through my cable channels, and since that time I have watched nothing else. I am a Christian and was baptized in 1985 into the Church of Christ. I am happy with this channel and watch your programmes from nightfall until bedtime. I have enclosed a little gift and ask that God will continue to bless your ministry."

DOUGLAS, TEXAS:

"I read your book, Mending Broken People, and was so impressed that I wanted to have a part in your ministry. My husband passed away two years ago. He was an accomplished musician and played a guitar which he purchased in 1964. A friend sold it for me, and because I'm faithful to my church in returning tithe, I am sending you a check for $100 as a second tithe. Please use it where it is most needed. I've pledged $25 a month for one year to your ministry. The other day I was notified that my income had been increased more than the amount of my pledge!"

BOWLING GREEN, FLORIDA:

"Thank you for helping me understand God's Word. I gave my life to the Lord Jesus when I first came to prison. This is definitely a wakeup call to me. I wish I had given my life to the Lord when I was free, but now, even though I'm locked up in prison, I can honestly say I've never felt as free as I do now! I went to the chapel the other night and saw a little booklet called Does God Love Sinners Forever? You cannot believe how much this little booklet has taught me! I mean, it really opened my eyes! So every time I go to church I look for another one of your helpful booklets."

CHESTER, ARKANSAS:

"I just wanted to say how much my family appreciates all that you do for the work of Jesus. My husband and I are not Seventh-day Adventists, but have tried to keep God's Sabbath for about 40 years. Such a blessing! Thank you so much for your work and your love. We've enjoyed your network so much!"

HEYFIELD, VICTORIA, AUSTRALIA:

"We have been watching your programmes for the past 12 months and have found them all to be fantastic. It is commendable that you don't take all the credit for such great material, but constantly give God all the glory. It's one of the main differences we've noticed compared with other religious stations and programmes."

WESTVILLE, INDIANA:

"I've been studying during my 4.5 years in prison, and I am convinced of the truth. I am going home in February, but my family has severed ties with me since I told them of my new life in Christ... I'm anxious to go to services on the Sabbath and take the message out to others. Pray for me as I witness to those held captive."

MYERSVILLE, MARYLAND:

"We enjoy all the 3ABN programmes that we see. One of my friends says she would be so lonesome without 3ABN. She has been a widow for the last seven years, and it keeps her from having many lonely hours. A relative and his wife and two daughters became Seventh-day Adventists from listening to your programs. Now they tape programs and send them to her sister who lives in the Philippines." ■

Thank you for your comments, suggestions, prayers, and financial support as we seek to reach the world for Jesus Christ!

DEDICATED FOR MINISTRY

The sun was hot the day Leonard Westphal and his friend José scampered toward the creek. They had big plans! “We were building a cave-home of our very own — a place we could stash our treasures, and where our parents could never, ever find us!” he says, thinking back on those early days.

Digging into the soft, sandy soil along the creek bank, they and legs seemed paralyzed.”

Panic struck him. He could taste the dirt in his mouth as he tried to catch his breath, six feet of wet soil pressing the life out of his body. Then he passed out.

Miraculously, his friend had only been buried up to his neck. Trapped in the heavy dirt, José began to scream for help, and his mother heard him and came running from a quarter of a mile away! Later she said she “felt” him calling her, more than she heard him — as many mothers experience when their children are in terrible danger!

José told her that Leonard was buried, and she began frantically digging. Despite being buried for over 10 minutes, miraculously he revived! Approaching his house, Leonard’s mother rushed out to meet him. “What happened?” she demanded. As they explained, she clutched his muddy body close and kept repeating, “You will not kill my son, you will hollowed out a space big enough for them to fit completely inside, but as they pushed out the last of the dirt, tragedy struck! “Like a rush of a giant wave, everything went black,” he recalls. “I tried to scream, but no sound would come out of my mouth! I reached toward what had once been the opening of my cave, but my arms not kill my son!” Leonard was frightened by her words, but she explained, “I’m talking to the devil!” as she streaked his mud-covered face with her tears.

Leonard grew up in Brazil in a family of German ancestry who had joined the Seventh-day Adventist church many years before. While attending college he began selling Christian literature to pay for tuition. His ingenuity soon led him to a unique way of selling his books by making them available to the armed forces, police, and firefighter departments by arranging payroll deductions.

He met and married his wife, Marice, and just a few years later they came to the United States, where he learned English and got his college degree in theology. Then Leonard began working for the State Department as a translator, but despite the well-paying job, he knew his heart was in ministry. A short time later he enrolled in the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary in Berrien Springs, Michigan, where he worked on a dairy farm to help pay his bills.

Then Satan tried again to take his life. “I was coming home one night in the snow, and I felt my truck sliding out of control on a hill,” he recalls. “The next thing I knew I came to in the snow, with no shoes or shirt, wondering where my truck was!” Realizing his truck was the crumpled heap at the bottom of the creek bed, he limped back to the dairy and was rushed to the hospital. “I remember I kept saying that my angel had thrown me from the pickup, but the doctor, finding only a scratch on my back, replied, ‘Next time you have a chance, tell your angel to get a manicure — otherwise you would have come out without a scratch!’”

After graduating with a masters degree, Leonard and Marice began a long and fruitful ministry in various churches across the U.S. He also earned his doctor of ministry degree in pastoral care and psychology from Andover Newton Theological Seminary in Boston, Massachusetts.

Then, in the prime of their ministry, Leonard was called to work for the local church conference as the leader of their Trust Services department. At first he felt hurt. Had he not been a good minister? Why would they want him to stop preaching, and how could he endure an office job? Always a soul-winner, Leonard soon devised a way where he could preach and still perform his new duties. He began offering to preach in churches as a way of being introduced to those who may wish to talk to him about Trust Services. And true to his style, Leonard invariably would make an altar call which led many more precious souls to salvation.

His career took him to the Voice of Prophecy radio ministry’s Trust Services department, and he became close friends with their speaker, H.M.S. Richards, Jr. He was privileged to translate for him in Brazil as 30,000 people flocked to a stadium to hear the gospel preached.

Still riding high on the emotion of this event, Leonard returned to the U.S. to discover that Satan had stricken his beautiful wife with cancer. After months of prayer and medical care, he and his children gathered around her, hoping for a miracle of healing but watching her life ebb away. When she died Leonard’s faith was shaken. Numb with grief, he decided to visit a different church one Sabbath, and when the pastor called those with special prayer needs to come, he felt himself drawn to the front. “I fell down before the altar and listened to the prayers of the people,” he says. “I prayed for understanding, and somehow the words ‘Blessed Hope’ began to pierce my bedeviled mind. Death was not the end — not in God’s book. Death was but a prelude to eternity — a rest before the climb to glory!”

“The devil had come within a hairbreadth of claiming my soul,” he says, “but I again replayed my mother’s words, ‘You will not kill my son!’”

In 1993 Leonard met May Chung, a philanthropist and 3ABN board member who encouraged him to work with 3ABN in Trust Services. Three years later he decided to see 3ABN for himself, met Danny Shelton, and had the opportunity to talk to many of the staff. “The self-sacrificing employees and volunteers touched my heart and inspired me,” he says. Then he heard the unmistakable voice of God again. “‘This is God’s work,’ a voice from heaven told me, ‘You must join it.’” When he was offered a position he accepted it on the spot!

Leonard began developing 3ABN’s Stewardship and Trust Services department. Always the “people person,” he visited many hundreds of 3ABN supporters, carefully explaining the different options we could offer. The Lord then brought another lovely lady into his life. The more he talked to Rita, the more they knew that the Lord had brought them together, and they married in 1998.

“Rita and I feel so privileged to work for the Lord and for the saving of souls through this wonderful ministry,” he says. Through their efforts, many thousands of supporters have been able to share their resources through wills, revocable trusts, charitable remainder trusts, Unitrusts, and estate planning. And looking back over his 28-year career working with wills and trusts, Leonard believes that all the experiences of the past prepared him to work with 3ABN’s ministry today! ■

GOD GAVE THEM A MOUNTAIN!

by Nikki Anderson

Republic, Washington, is deep in the heart of logging country and surrounded, for the most part, by the Kettle Mountains. For many years it has received only one radio signal — a country music station 90 miles away.

The Republic Seventh-day Adventist Church board was alerted to the possibility of building a low-power FM (LPFM) radio station by Pastor Gary Evans in May, 2001, but they voted the idea down. But Dr. Bill Pellow, a local optometrist, and his wife Nancy felt impressed to take it on as a personal project, then invited others, such as Reed Heckly, Ardella Fleck, and Bob Charbonneau, to join them. They did all the preliminary work, created Ferry County Radio, Inc., and filed their application with the Federal Communications Commission.

As often happens with LPFM stations, they found that placing a 100-foot tower within city limits was not feasible. But after looking at about 10 other locations, the Lord made it possible for them to put their tower on a mountain peak, 1,000 feet above the town — a much better location than the original site! The new site was on private property, with a mine between it and the power source — 1,800 feet away — so getting power required negotiating approvals from four separate landowners. Approval from the Federal Aviation Administration and Canadian officials was then given in record time, and they were all starting to believe God must want a Christian radio station in Republic.

Since their community is not wealthy, money was a concern. The answer? Garage sales! Dan and Linda Hovanski managed several garage sales which netted approximately $12,000!

Photos supplied by KETL-LP

Then God began to provide the bargains. They found a used tower on the Internet, which cost $3,000 (originally $40,000), and was located only four hours away. Bargain, yes, but it was too heavy to haul with the equipment they had available. Then one Sabbath, Mike Harper, a church member, asked, “How’s the radio station coming?” After hearing about the problem, Mike offered to haul it for only his expenses. Now they had a different problem, since Gold Hill had no road to the top! They called a logger who made roads through the mountains. He said, “I was just hired to make a lot of logging roads in that area. I’ll charge you for only the last little run to the top of the hill.”

Now they were faced with the cost of assembling and erecting the tower and burying 1,800 feet of cable, and the costs were prohibitive. Fall was fast approaching, along with bad weather for several months, and their deadline was June 21!

One day a retired public utility employee, Gordon McIntyre, stopped Bill on the street and asked him about rumors of a local radio station. Bill confirmed them and told Gordon of the current problem with the tower. “When I was in the army, my specialty was raising towers,” Gordon said. “I’d like to help, and I’ll volunteer my time!” Naturally, Gordon was immediately placed in charge of the power line and Building a tower for KETL-LP (100.5 FM) presented some major challenges, including lightning, snow storms, and impassable roads. But neither storms nor opposition could dampen their determination!

A SERVANT'S HEART

by Idalia Dinzey

I received a call from Sandy Lopez, a viewer and great supporter of 3ABN Latino from Puerto Rico — “The Island of Enchantment.”

“I would like to come to 3ABN Latino for a week with two other ladies from my church,” she said. “We want to volunteer in whatever way you need — stuffing envelopes, cleaning — whatever!”

“Well, praise the Lord, Sandy! Let me take your application right away!” I was so encouraged that they would come all the way from Puerto Rico to volunteer. As we studied the schedule, we noticed we would be recording one of our most popular programs, Cocinemos Juntos

(“Let’s Cook Together”), during that time, and wondered if they could help with the prep work? The program features friends and family cooking together, and after serious consideration and prayer, we were impressed to ask them to help host the programs, as well.

“Sandy,” I said, “We’d be thrilled to have you come, but you had better be ready, because there’s a lot of work to do!” She laughed and said they were just thrilled. I added, “The Lord is bringing you here just when we need every one of you. We’ll need help with washing dishes, chopping food, measuring and organizing the recipe ingredients — it’s not glamorous work, and you’ll be going up and down the stairs with trays of ingredients. Is that okay?”

“Of course it is,” she replied. “Oh, and one more thing,” I said. “We also need you all to take turns guest-hosting the cooking programs!”

“What? We’re willing to clean, chop food, wash dishes — anything. But hosting? That never crossed our minds!”

Her reply was confirmation that the Lord had brought them to us. Each of them had the heart of a servant.

And what a great job they did. Lucy Sosa, a God-fearing, loving grandmother, hosted most of the cooking programs. Sandy Lopez, a tremendous supporter of 3ABN Latino, and a grandmother who loves Jesus, hosted and cleaned some more! Angela Roldan, hosted one of the programs, but spent most of her time dubbing Cynthia Prime’s program From Rags to Riches into Spanish.

Over and over they said how amazed they were that 3ABN thrives solely on the financial support of its donors, and how this strengthened their faith. Returning to their church, they quickly put together a special presentation about their mission trip and took it to all the area churches! Others are now catching the vision, and already, over 35 satellite dish systems have been ordered and shipped!

Sandy and her friends have begun installing satellite dishes at their neighbor’s homes for a trial period of three months. If they decide they don’t want it, then the system moves to another home, but if they like 3ABN Latino’s programming, they can purchase the dish system for a special price.

I want to thank each of our volunteers. Thank you for your sacrifice, for denying yourself rest during your vacation to come and bless us at 3ABN. And may God bless as you work for Him! ■

LOST & FOUND

by Berni Denslow

Our 3ABN motor home was parked behind Pioneer Memorial Church on the campus of Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Michigan. I needed another testimony for 3ABN World magazine, and I just knew the

SEEMINGLY, CHRISTIANITY, EASTERN RELIGIONS, AND NEW AGE HAD ALL FAILED THEM. BUT GOD HAD NOT FORGOTTEN THEM.

Lord would send me someone (He always does!).

As I walked up to the motor home, a young man stopped on the sidewalk. We smiled and greeted each other, but when I heard the words, "I'm here because of 3ABN," I immediately invited him inside for a chat.

Delmus Pinkston was only nine when his parents divorced. His mother sent him to a Salvation Army camp that summer and his tender heart was touched as he heard about Jesus. "I remember going forward for the altar call," he says, "and when my mother picked me up, I remember telling her that I was going to heaven!"

Sadly, his mother suffered a brain tumor and he watched as she battled serious mood swings and epileptic seizures. Delmus was only 19 when his mom despaired and took her own life. Devastated and alone, he joined the U.S. military, requesting to be stationed in Germany where he could be near his Swiss girlfriend, Nadine. During the next few years he began taking drugs and drinking to escape the pain of his loss. Then he married Nadine in Switzerland, where they set up their home, and the party continued for the next 15 years.

Their spiritual search led

Delmus to Hinduism, and eventually he began worshipping a Hindu swami from India who proclaimed himself a god, teaching a New Age idea where Mohammed, Jesus, and the Hindu gods were all equal.

Strange things began to happen. "From about 1997 until 2001 we were so involved in these practices that we felt demons attacking us in our dreams," he says. "One night I awoke and saw a ghost at the foot of my bed. My wife and I remembered that Christians claimed the name of Jesus to make demons flee, so we called on Him. The ghost disappeared and never came back again."

Nadine was raised Catholic, but she was also greatly influenced by Eastern beliefs. In fact, she had begun practicing Reiki, an ancient "healing" practice from Japan, that claims to use an unseen "life force energy" that flows through one's being from laying on of hands. But a dream changed all this.

Delmus had planned a three-week trip to India, and his daughter was inconsolable. "The week before I left, I had a disturbing dream which haunted me. My wife drove me to the train station the morning of departure, but the dream disturbed me so much that when we arrived, I changed my mind and went home with my wife."

Arriving back at the house, Nadine went to her daughter's bedroom, and found her sleeping. When she told her that her daddy had not left, she said, "I know, Mommy. God told me." Delmus says they were stunned. "Within two months we threw out everything: Hinduism, Reiki, New Age — all the books, posters, symbols — everything."

For two years Delmus and Nadine continued to search for answers. Seemingly, Christianity, Eastern religions, and New Age had all failed them. But God had not forgotten them.

A fan of American football,

Delmus and Nadine Pinkston smile as they are about to be baptized. God led them to discover 3ABN after years of searching for Him.

Berni Denslow and her husband, Al, travel extensively with our 3ABN production team as volunteers. She enjoys writing about people whose lives are changed through watching 3ABN.

Delmus and Nadine are enthusiastically involved in church planting, and their daughters Neomie (12) and Luana (10) love helping out in Sabbath School.

Delmus rented a satellite dish to watch Hot Bird, the most popular entertainment satellite network in Europe. “One day I was home sick and I turned the TV on and started surfing the channels,” he says. “I just ‘happened’ to watch a prophecy seminar by David Asscherick, so I got my Bible out, dusted it off, and opened it. But when I told my wife about the beasts of Revelation, she called me crazy!”

Delmus watched 3ABN only once and then forgot what channel he had been watching, but two months later he found it again. David Asscherick’s seminar had started over again, and this time he convinced Nadine to watch it with him. They watched every night, but it wasn’t until the very end that they found out that David was a Seventh-day Adventist.

Soon Delmus and Nadine were driving through the mountains to a German speaking church 1.5 hours away. They were baptized in May of 2003, and I’m sure there was rejoicing in heaven!

Then Satan tried to discourage them. Delmus worked at an international school as the director of student services, but now, since he no longer was his boss’s party friend, he began to feel persecuted. Delmus and Nadine began praying, “Lord, where do you want us to go? What do you want us to do?”

“During this time my wife had a strong feeling each time she watched 3ABN and saw Pastor Dwight Nelson preaching from the campus of Andrews University,” Delmus says. “She told me all the time, ‘We’re going to go there someday.’”

They read how Bible characters had cast lots, so they wrote down their job options on eight pieces of paper and left the decision up to God. They put the choices in a hat, praying that God would reveal His will by having them both draw the same option.

Delmus drew first. Andrews University. He put it back in the hat. Trembling, his wife put her hand in the hat. As she pulled it out, she exclaimed, “Andrews University!” He placed a call to the human resources department at Andrews, but they had no position for Delmus at that time.

Delmus’ grandfather had died and the family wanted to come to the U.S. for his memorial service. When they learned the cost of airline tickets they were sure they couldn’t afford to make the trip. They called their family and said they were not coming, but the Lord had other plans. Nadine is not an Internet genius, but something told her to look online for tickets. She found a website that had tickets discounted $1,800, so she called and asked the agent, “Is this offer still available?” The lady said, “I think it is all sold out,” but Nadine asked her to please check again. She came back to say, “You are fortunate, there are just four tickets left.” When Nadine told Delmus that she had found tickets for half the normal price, they were convinced that the Lord wanted them to make the trip and would have a place for them at Andrews.

After arriving in the U.S. he again called the university and spoke with human resources. Disappointed to be told again there was no position for him, he was about to hang up when he heard, “Wait, there’s a lady in my office looking for someone for her department!” A week later Delmus had a job interview, and today he works as the undergraduate admissions coordinator for the university!

Delmus, Nadine, 12-year-old Neomie, and 10-year-old Luana are happy and active in Sabbath School at their church. Delmus and Nadine are also involved in church planting, helping to start up a new church. Their lives have been totally changed since the day Delmus found 3ABN while surfing TV channels. Sickness had forced him to stay home, and I don’t know if Delmus found any American football that day, but I do know that his search led him to find something infinitely more satisfying — a new life in Jesus Christ for him and his family! ■

There's plenty of love to go around at Grandma's House. The neighborhood children in Chehalis, Washington, helped us tape a new children's series.

Grandma's House

Where can you go after school and be met at the door by the smell of freshly baked bread or cookies? Who teaches you neat things, takes you on adventures, and always loves you no matter what? There's only one place to go for all that — Grandma's House!

Joyce Neal, president and founder of Grandma's House in Chehalis, Washington, is busy, but never too busy to answer a question, or look at your newest bug! We're on location shooting episodes of a new 3ABN series named after the mentoring place she founded in 2001. Her labor of love has blossomed into a vibrant, growing ministry that takes up nearly all her time these days. "What would I do without Jesus? He's my strong tower and I'm so happy to hide in Him. He shields and protects me from all of life's stressors and dilemmas. I call Him, 'Captain, My Captain.' It's a term of endearment between just us two that only He and I understand." The first "must" of the day comes early, though. Tigger gets "kitty cream" for breakfast and a good scratching. "Otherwise he won't leave me alone for my quiet time," she laughs.

Joyce and her flurry of smiling grandmas make sure the day is full of games, crafts, practical life lessons, and stories about Jesus. As we tour Grandma's House, we can't help but notice the pictures of Jesus with children strategically placed on every wall. "I just want my grandkids to see Jesus everywhere they look," she explains. "Grace always comes first! That initiates the response God longs to see in all of us. Thus relationship comes first, then rules follow softly behind ... at a respectful distance!" she adds. "I am neither preacher, nor teacher. My goal is to meet them right where they are, without trying to correct them, but gaining their trust, respect, and love. I just live my life honestly and openly before them. I am only a witness of what Jesus has done for me personally. No scolding — only encouragement."

We learned about Joyce's ministry several years ago as we taped an interview about how she began her ministry. She shared with us the pain of losing her daughter Shanna, and how, by God's grace, she overcame

"I kept asking myself, 'What do I know how to do?' The only answer I kept hearing was, 'I know how to be a Grandma!' So I ran with it!"

answer I kept hearing was, 'I know how to be a Grandma!' So I ran with it!" Joyce smiles as she pets the purring fur ball curled up in her lap.

We met Joyce and her husband Stu again at a 3ABN Rally and were impressed that she would make a wonderful host for a new children's program. After her initial shock she began writing down her ideas — a dog wash that would tie into her Friday night worship ushering in the Sabbath. A treasure hunt in a creek full of marvelous things, and how each of us is like buried treasure, even though we may feel ugly and useless on the outside. A recipe for Voc-tandana (you'll have to watch that program to find out what it is!), and a bicycle ride on a bicycle built for two.... Would these program ideas work for us? Are you kidding?!

After two wonderful weeks of taping, we returned home with a curious feeling that something inside of each of us had changed. Here was an adult we could relate to, and so could her grandchildren. "I never use baby-talk with them," Joyce explains. "It stunts their minds, and they don't like it!"

Grandma's House will begin airing in July, and Grandma Neal can't wait! "I'm so anxious to hear from my kids all over the world," she says with a longing look. "I hope these programs will give a little tug on the heart-strings of each person who watches, but I especially long to embrace the ones who are damaged in some way, physically, emotionally, or just plain heart-sick. A special hug awaits every child who feels unlovable — those who are always chosen last, those who don't have enough, those with dirty faces, bad language, or hopeless surroundings. I want to lift 'this little light of mine' high beside the truly golden door."

Joyce and Stu can't imagine life without Grandma's House.

Joyce Neal and her team can't wait to hear from their grandchildren all over the world. Grandma's House begins in July.

"We would be bored rather silly if we didn't have this to do," she says, chuckling. It's obvious that God has given her enough love for every grandchild in the world, and brought her to 3ABN for a special purpose! So tune into Grandma's House, and see what all the fun is about! ■

Marriage
In God's Hands

No matter where you find your marriage, it will be strengthened if you apply the simple, yet powerful principles presented by Tom and Alane Waters. Listen as they discuss the most common mistakes couples make, as they illustrate from their own marriage and extensive experience in marriage counseling. Best of all, every principle you hear is found in the Word of God!

Tropical Treat

Un Postre Tropical

Growing up in Guayama, Pozuelo, Puerto Rico, I was never far away from fresh piñas, or pineapples, because they grew in my back yard! Not only are they the international symbol of hospitality, but they are so good for you as well! In fact, just the smell of the pineapple makes my mouth water! Here's a recipe I've worked up to share in cooking schools, and it's always a hit! Try this delicious Tropical Treat next time you're making a healthy dessert!

Pineapple Cream Pie

Pineapple cream filling

- 1 C soymilk
- 1½ Tbsp coconut milk (optional)
- ¾ C raw cashews, rinsed
- ⅓ C cornstarch
- 2 tsp vanilla
- 15-oz can crushed pineapple with juice
- ⅔ C maple syrup
- ½ tsp salt

Blend soy and coconut milks with the cashews until creamy. Add remaining ingredients and continue to blend. Pour into saucepan and cook until thick and creamy, stirring constantly with whisk. Pour into crust and chill. Top this dessert with your favorite garnish.

Pie crust

- 1½ C unsweetened coconut, shredded and toasted
- 1½ C pecan, ground
- ½ C walnuts, chopped
- ½ C maple syrup

Combine all the ingredients and mix well. Place mixture in your pie pan and distribute evenly with a fork, and press to cover all the bottom.

Citric glaze

- ½ C pineapple juice concentrate, frozen (100% juice)
- ¼ C orange juice concentrate, frozen (100% juice)
- ¼ C water
- 3 Tbsp cornstarch

Mix all ingredients in small sauce pan. Stir constantly until you reach a creamy consistency. (Optional: Sweeten to taste.) Let chill and serve over your pineapple cream pie.

Tarta de Crema de Piña

Crema de piña

- 1 T. leche de soya
- 1½ Cdas. leche de coco
- ¾ T. marañón, crudo, lavado
- ⅓ T. almidón
- 2 cdtas. vainilla
- 1 lata de 15 onzas de piña triturada con su jugo
- ⅓ T. jarabe de arce (maple syrup)
- ½ cdtas. sal

Licue el marañón con las leches hasta lograr una consistencia cremosa. Agregue el resto de los ingredientes y continúe licuando. Vierta en una cacerola pequeña y cocine hasta que la mezcla espese y esté cremosa. Use una batidora de mano y bata constantemente la mezcla mientras espesa. Luego vierta la crema de piña sobre la corteza. Cubra este postre con su aderezo favorito.

Corteza para la tarta

- 1½ T. coco rallado, sin azúcar, tostado
- 1½ T. de pecan (nuez), molido
- ½ T. de walnut (nuez), picado
- ½ T. jarabe de arce (maple syrup)

Combine todos los ingredientes y mézclelos bien. Vierta la mezcla sobre el molde y distribúelos en forma pareja presionando bien con un tenedor hasta cubrir el fondo.

Esmalte cítrico

- ½ T. jugo de piña, congelado, concentrado (100%)
- ¼ T. jugo de china (naranja), congelado, concentrado (100%)
- ¼ T. agua
- 3 Cdas. almidón, maizena

Mezcle los ingredientes en una olla pequeña y bata constantemente hasta lograr una consistencia cremosa. Endulsar al gusto o sirva como salsa amarga. Enfríe y sirva sobre su tarta de piña.

Gordon McIntyre, Bill Pellow, and Reed Heckley celebrate the completed tower for KETL-LP (100.5 FM) in Republic, Washington.

the tower project, and the Lord continued to bless. They found cable on eBay for one-third the retail price, and Gordon arranged for the tower to be erected for one-tenth of the anticipated cost! Snow typically starts falling there by the end of October, but God held it off until November 23 — one day after they completed the power line, the tower, and the transmitter building up on the mountain!

Bill Pellow and Reed Heckly started searching the Internet for equipment. Bill's son, James, helped them find equipment and they saved about $8,000. This included a studio/transmitter microwave link, since the road is impassable many months out of the year. Jerry Goldsborough donated a large storage shed, and Bob Charbonneau finished the walls and floor inside to make the studio, which is located next to the church.

The antenna still needed to be installed, but bad weather continued late into the Spring. They tried to get up the mountain several times, but were driven back by lightning, heavy rain, and strong winds. Finally, the forecast called for a partially clear day on Wednesday, June 15, but all the volunteers were working! Bill had called Ty Gibson of Light Bearers Ministry, and asked him for sermons to broadcast, just in case the studio/transmitter link was not ready in time. Ty not only offered sermons, he said he would climb the tower with James Pellow and help install the antenna. He even brought James Rafferty and some Light Bearers employees along to help! As soon as the antenna was connected, the rain started again!

On Friday, June 17, they attempted their first broadcast using Ty Gibson's sermons. Bill and James heard the signal coming through the truck radio. Bill said the two of them whooped and shouted, slapping each other on the back for joy as they drove down the mountain listening to the radio station. Meanwhile, their wives, Nancy and Julie, had gone to get some extra cable. On their way back, about 20 miles away, Nancy tuned the radio to their frequency, "Just in case." When they heard Ty Gibson's voice, Bill says, "They both started crying. Women are different!"

While they plan to produce some local programming, for now the group is happy airing 3ABN Radio programming 24 hours a day on KETL-LP (100.5 FM). We praise God for this dedicated group of people who contributed so much to the building of this radio station. If even one had not stepped out in faith to play their part in God's plan, they would not have succeeded. And once the station was on the air, there was still $500 left in the bank. As Bill puts it, "God must love 3ABN Radio!" Yes, Bill, He really does! ■

Investing In Eternity

HERE ARE FIVE GOOD reasons to develop a Charitable Gift Annuity with 3ABN:

1. Your gift provides you with a fixed income for life and helps 3ABN evangelize the world!
2. You may fund a Gift Annuity for as little as $5,000 per individual or $10,000 per couple, provided you are 55 or older.
3. You receive an immediate tax deduction, and much of the interest is tax free.
4. To gain a higher rate with greater income, you may develop a Deferred Gift Annuity with a future payout, provided you are 45 or older.
5. You may fund a Charitable Gift Annuity for another person and claim the tax deduction yourself.

A Gift Annuity is unique in that while the gift is irrevocable, the investment may earn you more than your initial gift — depending on your age.
