PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 108th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 150

WASHINGTON, TUESDAY, JUNE 1, 2004

No. 74

House of Representatives

The House met at 2 p.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. UPTON).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
June 1, 2004.

I hereby appoint the Honorable FRED UPTON to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

J. DENNIS HASTERT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Reverend John Roller, Pastor Emeritus, St. Thomas Becket Parish, Mt. Prospect, Illinois, offered the following prayer:

God and Father of us all, You are the primary cause of our joy, the reason for our hope, and the source of our peace. We believe that in You we live and move and have our being.

Filled with confidence, we bring our needs before You, for You are a shepherd who leads us and a light who guides us. Moreover, You are our God who loves us, whose hand is so discernibly present in everything we are and do.

Loving Father, we may be very good at coming to You and asking. Help us to be just as prompt in thanking You for Your gifts, many of which we receive without asking or even being aware.

Once again, in this past weekend of remembrance, we have been made so keenly aware that Your hand has always been upon us. You have blessed us with citizenship in this powerful and potentially great Nation; the call to sit in deliberation as part of this notable Congress; and the awareness that we are all Your chosen sons and daughters.

Always we are the recipients of Your love which we will never fully comprehend.

For all of Your gifts, loving Father, we beg You to accept our humble and heartfelt gratitude.

Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Colorado (Mr. BEAUPREZ) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Mr. BEAUPREZ led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A message from the Senate by Mr. Monahan, one of its clerks, announced that the Senate insists upon its amendment to the bill (H.R. 3550) "An Act to authorize funds for Federal-aid highways, highway safety programs, and transit programs, and for other purposes," requests a conference with the House on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses thereon, and appoints Mr. INHOFE, Mr. WARNER, Mr. BOND, Mr. VOINOVICH, Mr. GRASSLEY, Mr. HATCH, Mr. NICKLES, Mr. LOTT, Mr. SHELBY, Mr. MCCAIN, Mr. MCCONNELL, Mr. JEFFORDS, Mr. REID, Mr. GRAHAM of Florida, Mr. LIEBERMAN, Mrs. BOXER, Mr. DASCHLE, Mr. HOLLINGS, Mr. SARBANES, Mr. BAUCUS, and Mr. CONRAD, to be the conferees on the part of the Senate.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 4 of rule I, Speaker Pro Tempore THORNBERRY signed the following enrolled bill on Monday, May 24, 2004:

S. 2092, to assist the participation of Taiwan in the World Health Organization.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE CLERK OF THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Clerk of the House of Representatives:

OFFICE OF THE CLERK,
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
Washington, DC, May 21, 2004.

Hon. J. DENNIS HASTERT,
The Speaker, House of Representatives,
Washington, DC.

DEAR MR. SPEAKER: Pursuant to the permission granted in Clause 2(h) of Rule II of the Rules of the U.S. House of Representatives, the Clerk received the following message from the Secretary of the Senate on April 21, 2004 at 1:16 p.m.:

That the Senate passed without amendment H. Con. Res. 409.

That the Senate passed without amendment H. Con. Res. 423.

With best wishes, I am
Sincerely,

JEFF TRANDAH,
Clerk of the House.

MEDICARE-APPROVED PRESCRIPTION DRUG DISCOUNT CARDS

(Mr. BEAUPREZ asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BEAUPREZ. Mr. Speaker, today is a good day for America's senior citizens, as the Medicare-approved prescription drug discount cards hit the streets across the country.

From this day forward, seniors will no longer have to pay full retail price for their life-saving drugs.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

NOMINATION OF F. DENNIS SAYLOR, IV

Mr. KENNEDY. Madam President, I welcome the action of the leadership in taking up the nomination of Dennis Saylor to the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts. I urge the Senate to confirm him.

Mr. Saylor has received impressive support from a broad spectrum of leaders of the bar. They are confident of his ability, his good judgment, and his fairness. I am confident he will be a distinguished member of the court.

Mr. Saylor has past experience in the executive branch. I am confident he understands the importance of the independence of the judicial branch.

He is currently a partner at the highly respected law firm of Goodwin Procter in Boston, where he joined as an associate after graduating from Harvard Law School in 1981. He later served as an assistant U.S. attorney in Boston. From 1990 to 1993, he served as the chief of staff of the Assistant Attorney General, Robert Mueller, in the criminal division of the Department of Justice, providing litigation and policy advice, and served as a liaison with Congress and outside organizations.

He returned to Goodwin Procter as a partner in the litigation department and currently specializes in white-collar criminal defense cases and other complex legal issues involving individuals and corporations.

His impressive background, legal expertise, and experience make him well qualified for this position and inspire confidence that he will be a judge in which Massachusetts will take pride.

The Federal district supreme court in Massachusetts is one of the most efficient and effective district courts in the country, and its judges are highly regarded and respected. It dispenses justice fairly and takes seriously its role as part of an independent branch of our government. I am sure Mr. Saylor will contribute to the distinguished work of this court. I urge the Senate to approve his nomination.

Madam President, I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The journal clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. LEVIN. Madam President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

NOMINATION OF F. DENNIS SAYLOR IV TO BE U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will now go into executive session and proceed to the nomination of F. Dennis Saylor IV, of Massachusetts, which the clerk will report.

The journal clerk read the nomination of F. Dennis Saylor IV, of Massachusetts, to be U.S. District Judge for the District of Massachusetts.

Mr. HATCH. Mr. President, I am pleased to speak in support of F. Dennis Saylor, nominated to the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

Mr. Saylor is a highly regarded litigator with a history of public service. Upon graduating from Harvard Law School, Mr. Saylor joined the law firm of Goodwin Procter where he worked for several years before joining the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts.

He left his Assistant U.S. Attorney position in 1990 to serve as the Special Counsel and Chief of Staff to the Assistant Attorney General here in Washington, D.C. In 1993, Mr. Saylor re-joined Goodwin Procter as a partner where he remains to this day.

This highly respected attorney has focused much of his professional career on criminal matters, however—as his record illustrates—he has distinguished himself on the civil side as well.

Mr. Saylor will bring 20 years of legal experience and sharp acumen to the Federal bench. I urge my colleagues to join me in supporting his nomination.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, today, we vote to confirm another district court nominee of President Bush, Frank Dennis Saylor, IV, to the U.S. District Court for the District of Massachusetts. Mr. Saylor is a partner at the firm of Procter Goodwin. He is supported by both of his home-State Senators, who deserve much credit for his confirmation today.

Today's confirmation will make the 77th judge confirmed this Congress and the 177th judicial nominee named by this President to be confirmed by the Senate. We confirmed 100 in the 17 months that Democrats led the Senate. We are now confirming the 77th in the other 24 months that have transpired during this most divisive presidency.

With 77 judicial confirmations this Congress, the Senate has confirmed more Federal judges than were confirmed during the entire 2 years of 1995 and 1996, when Republicans controlled the Senate and President Clinton was in the White House. It also exceeds the two-year total for the last 2 years of the Clinton administration in 1999 and 2000, when Republicans controlled the Senate. So, we have exceeded the totals for the last two Congresses leading up to presidential elections.

With 177 total confirmations for President Bush in 3½ years, the Senate has confirmed more lifetime judicial appointees of this President than were allowed to be confirmed in President Clinton's entire term from 1997 through 2000. We have already surpassed the number of judicial confirmations during President Reagan's entire term from 1981 through 1984, and he is acknowledged to have appointed more Federal judges than any other President in our history.

Democratic support for the confirmation of Mr. Saylor, an active Republican who was championed by Republican Governor Mitt Romney for the bench, is yet another example of our extraordinary cooperation. Mr. Saylor's Republican credentials are not in doubt—he was even on some short lists for Bush Administration Executive Branch positions. We take into account his experience and his career as a litigator who has served as both a Federal prosecutor and a defender of those accused of crimes.

I congratulate Mr. Saylor, his wife, Catherine Adams Fiske, who is an attorney with the Environment and Natural Resources Division of the Department of Justice, and their family on his confirmation today.

While this confirmation is another demonstration of good faith and cooperation by Democratic Senators, we, again, see partisan Republicans seeking confrontation. Last week, the President used his recess appointment powers to place Republicans on what should be bipartisan boards and commissions. A good example is the U.S. Parole Commission. While Isaac Fullwood's nomination is being bottled up by Republicans, the President proceeds to recess appoint Deborah Spagnoli. In addition, the President has yet to follow through on Democratic recommendations to long-standing vacancies on the U.S. Sentencing Commission. This week Republicans on the Judiciary Committee will end the short-lived cooperation on judicial nominations and force votes and hearings on controversial nominees, apparently in response to pressure from the right wing of the Republican Party. Republicans are insisting that the Committee break with tradition and proceed on judicial nominees opposed by home-state Senators.

Thus, while this nomination marks historic progress in Democratic Senators' cooperation with the White House, partisan Republicans refuse to take yes for an answer and insist on ignoring the progress that we have made. We have treated President Bush's judicial nominees far more fairly than Republicans treated President Clinton's. Still, no good deed we do goes unpunished.

Mr. LEVIN. Madam President, I ask for the yeas and nays.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there a sufficient second?

There appears to be a sufficient second.

The question is, Will the Senate advise and consent to the nomination of F. Dennis Saylor IV, of Massachusetts, to be U.S. District Judge for the District of Massachusetts. On this question, the yeas and nays have been ordered, and the clerk will call the roll.

The legislative clerk called the roll.

Mr. MCCONNELL. I announce that the Senator from Kentucky (Mr.
