If the IRS is so concerned that major misdeeds have been done, why is the "investigation" on hiatus? Interesting that the investigator is out on maternity leave and they haven't put anyone else in charge. Doesn't seem to be very high on their priority list now does it?

Yes, I'm sure that's it. All 140 people at 3abn made up negative remarks about Linda totally on purpose, hoping that somehow, each individual's remarks would get to Danny and their jobs would be safe. 🙄

Sorry, I was there when Linda was. I mixed with the workers, especially production. I heard and saw first hand what they thought of her, her ideas, and her treatment of anyone under her. This was way before the split.

How come other people that I'm told the staff talked about haven't been given the same treatment?

Was it a boy or a girl?

I noticed that that Congressman from out west whose family business got raided by the FBI last April wasn't indicted until recently. Therefore, how much time would need to go by before we can breathe easier?

I forgot to ask you, FHB, why did Attorney Hayes tell Magistrate Judge Hillman on Friday during our hearing that there was no IRS criminal investigation going on if you know so much about it as to know that the investigator is out on maternity leave?
