trademark infringement and dilution in violation of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114 and 15 U.S.C. § 1125(c).

3. Plaintiffs' Complaint also alleges that Defendants have, through these websites and other points of publication, engaged in a willful campaign of defamation designed and intended to damage Plaintiffs and to interfere with Plaintiffs advantageous economic relations with their donors and supporters.

4. The parties filed separate Rule 26(f) reports and Plaintiffs' initial case submissions included a proposed Protective Order to govern the production of documents and information in the case. The Court issued a Scheduling Order on July 24, 2007 that was silent as to a protective order governing pre-trial discovery.

5. Plaintiffs served interrogatories and requests for production on Defendants on August 20, 2007. Defendant Joy has not responded to those requests<sup>1</sup> and Defendant Pickle's responses are deficient. Plaintiffs are in the process of preparing a demand for supplementation to Pickle.

6. Defendant Pickle served written discovery (Requests for Production of Documents and Things) upon Plaintiff Three Angel Broadcasting by mail on November 29, 2007 and upon Defendant Danny Shelton by mail on December 7, 2007. A true and correct copy of Pickle's Discovery Requests are attached hereto as Exhibits A and B.

7. Defendant Pickle has caused four subpoenas to issue in this case. A true and correct copy of Pickle's subpoenas are attached hereto as Exhibits C, D, E and F.

<sup>1</sup> Defendant Joy's responses were stayed by his filing for Bankruptcy. However, the Bankruptcy Court lifted the stay with respect to the injunctive relief claimed in this litigation on November 21, 2007, making his responses due December 21, 2007.

- All contracts, agreements, tax returns, invoices, records of payments made or received, whether direct or indirect, or any other accounting records or documents arising from any accounting or tax form preparation services rendered to Danny Shelton, as defined herein.

Definitions:

- 3ABN means Three Angels Broadcasting Network, Inc., and all its related organizations or organizations which it controls, and their assumed names, whether past or present, whether for profit or non-profit, including but not limited to: Three Angels Broadcasting, Inc., Three Angel's Broadcasting School, Inc., Broadcast Communications Service, Inc., Three Angels TV & Radio Broadcasting Network (in Russia), Tres Anjos Broadcasting Network - LTDA (in Brazil), Association Three Angels Broadcasting Network (in Peru), 3ABN, 3ABN Philippines, Inc., Three Angels Enterprises, L.L.C., Crossbridge Music, Inc., 3ABN Books, 3ABN Music, or 3ABN Radio.
- Danny Shelton means Danny Lee Shelton, and any of his DBA's or organizations over which he has or has had control, including but not limited to D & L Publishing and DLS Publishing.
- Or is used in the inclusive sense (i.e. "and/or"). Thus, if a request seeks all documents relating to "A or B," You are to produce all documents relating to "A," all documents relating to "B," and all documents relating to "A and B."
- Document shall have the broadest possible meaning permitted under applicable law, and shall include any written, recorded or graphic material of any kind, including the originals and all non-identical copies, including those materials in electronic form, that is or has been in Your possession, control or custody or of which You have knowledge, including, but not limited to: documents, letters, correspondence, e-mail, memoranda, notes, invoices, bulletins, calendars, diaries, contracts, agreements, letters, telegrams, minutes, reports, studies, checks, statements, receipts, vouchers, invoices, summaries, pamphlets, blueprints, specifications, drawings, sketches, interoffice and intraoffice communications, stenographic or handwritten notes of any sort of conversation, telephone calls, meetings or other communications, agendas, computer printouts, graphical records or representations of any kind (including without limitation photographs, charts, graphs, microfiche, microfilm, videotapes, recordings, and motion

Instructions:

- Your attention is directed to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(b)(i) (and (c)), which requires that documents be produced for inspection "as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories of the request." In this connection, and for purposes of illustration, it is requested that all documents requested be produced in the file folders and cartons in which they have been maintained and stored, clipped, stapled or otherwise arranged in the same form and manner as they were found. If you choose to produce the documents requested corresponding with the categories in the request, it is requested that you identify the file folders, drawers or cartons in which the documents were originally maintained.
- Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(b)(ii) stipulates that electronically stored information must be produced "in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a form or forms that are reasonably usable."

Defendants.

Case No.: 07-40098-FDS

DEFENDANT ROBERT PICKLE’S MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF HIS OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFFS’ MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

INTRODUCTION

The Plaintiffs’ Motion for Protective Order is overly broad and burdensome, would seal that which legislation declares to be open to public inspection, prevents preparation of the Defendants’ defense, is contrary to the public interest, is contrary to Local Rule 7.2(e), is unconstitutional, and leaves the Defendants with no recourse in the public arena against the defamatory statements of the Plaintiffs. Additionally, this Court has already addressed multiple times the attempts of the opposition to impound this case.

FACTS

Contrary to the claims of Attorney Hayes in ¶ 4 of her Affidavit, no proposed Protective Order was ever filed with the Plaintiffs’ Rule 26(f) report. See Document #18 of the instant case.

No counsel for the Plaintiffs has ever personally conferred with Defendant Pickle in regards to the matter of donor names, donation information, financial statements, auditor’s reports, documents produced to the Federal Communications Commission or the Department of Justice, airtime rates, or Plaintiff Shelton's tax returns. And no requests were made to Defendant Pickle for a discovery conference concerning any of these documents or information. See Affidavit of Robert Pickle at ¶ 1 (hereinafter "Pickle Aff. at ¶ ___").

Contrary to the claims of Mollie Steenson in ¶ 11 of her Affidavit, the financial statements and auditor's reports of Plaintiff Three Angels Broadcasting Network, Inc. (3ABN) are required by law to be open for public inspection, and, along with Form AG990-IL, are filed annually with the Illinois Attorney General's office. See 225 ILCS 460 § 2(f), § 4(a), and the search results for "Three Angels" at <http://IllinoisAttorneyGeneral.gov/charities/search/>.

The Plaintiffs continually allege that donations have declined due to actions by the Defendants, and yet attempt to prevent the Defendants from verifying such a claim by seeking a prohibition against the discovery of any and all donation information.

Reported donations plummeted in 2003 but reached an all time high in 2006. See Pickle Aff. at ¶ 2. But what donations actually have been since 2003 is difficult to determine because 3ABN has been reporting gross sales revenue and shipping charges as "contributions" since 2004. See Pickle Aff. at ¶¶ 3-4.

The Plaintiffs' motion and proposed Protective Order is quite broad in its language, contrary to the instructions of this Court in the status conference of December 14, 2007. Since the proposed order allows the party seeking confidentiality to place under seal whatever it wishes, without further order of the Court, such language as "other trade secret information of the Plaintiffs," "otherwise confidential business or commercial information," and "all documents of a highly sensitive nature" may be expected to be broadly interpreted by the Plaintiffs. See Motion for a Protective Order at ¶¶ 1-2, and that motion's Exhibit A at ¶ 3. The language is such that unpublished documents received by the Defendants from various third-party sources prior to the reasons why donors have ceased giving since January 1, 2003, and c) verify that donors have ceased donating due to the actions of the Defendants rather than the actions of the Plaintiffs.

Otherwise, one of the basic elements of the instant case will not be able to be tried.

This is all the more pertinent given the facts that frequency of critical posts on the internet, predating Defendants' involvement by more than two years, are linkable to specific issues of the Plaintiffs' conduct. See Pickle Aff. at ¶ 15. It is likely that donors ceased donating prior to the involvement of the Defendants and for the very same issues being complained about in these posts.

IV. STATE AND FEDERAL LAW REQUIRES DISCLOSURE

Plaintiff 3ABN is a 501(c)(3) organization that solicits tax-deductible contributions from the general public. As such it is required to file IRS Form 990's with the Internal Revenue Service in accordance with 26 U.S.C. §6033, and its financial statements and auditor's reports are required by 225 ILCS 460 §2(f), §4(a) to be open to public inspection, and to be filed annually with the Illinois Attorney General's office. The financial statements and auditor's reports should therefore not be placed under seal.

V. PUBLIC INTEREST

It logically follows that if the information in documents open to public inspection is incorrect, the public has a right to know what the correct information should be.

Inasmuch as the Form 990 asks 3ABN to report any section 4958 excess benefit transactions (see line 89b), the public has a right to know whether 3ABN failed to disclose such transactions, and what those transactions were. The public has a right to know whether their donations are inuring to the benefit of any private person.

That such transactions exist is a matter of public record. In 1998 Plaintiff Shelton purchased a house from 3ABN for $6,139 and sold it one week later for $135,000, but 3ABN's Form 990 denied that any section 4958 excess benefit transaction had taken place. See Pickle Aff. at ¶ 9.

The Plaintiffs have made specific, extremely public claims regarding the present lawsuit not being paid by regular donor funds. See Pickle Aff. at ¶ 8. There have also been allegations that 3ABN has not properly reported its expenses, including the actual figures attributable to corporate jet expenses. See Pickle Aff. at ¶ 10. The public has an interest in knowing whether or not their regular donations are paying for this lawsuit, and whether the manner in which their donations are being expended has been properly reported.

VI. DEFENDANTS' INTEREST IN DEFENDING THEIR REPUTATIONS

The Plaintiffs and their allies have engaged in a public campaign to malign and defame their critics, including the Defendants, and have repeatedly accused them of lying, and have declared them to be “enemies of the gospel.” See Pickle Aff. at ¶¶ 11–12. The Plaintiffs through their proposed Protective Order seek to prevent the Defendants from demonstrating in the public arena that they weren't lying after all, while allowing the Plaintiffs and their allies to continue to disparage the Defendants in globally televised broadcasts, internet postings, and email.

VII. INTEREST OF THIRD PARTIES

In some cases third parties may have an interest in some of the information produced in discovery. As one example, if Plaintiff Shelton really did perjure himself in his case with Linda Shelton in regards to his expected income, she has a right to know what the correct figures for his income should have been. See Pickle Aff. at ¶ 5. But the Plaintiffs seek to prevent any such disclosure.

VIII. FIRST AMENDMENT RIGHTS

The First Amendment reads:

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or

Mr. Larry Ewing, Director of Finance
P.O. Box 220

United States Postal Service Certified Mail United States Postal Service First Class Mail

Dear Larry,

I am writing to you with a very heavy heart, but after our recent conversation and my confirmation that the IRS investigation of 3ABN is of a criminal nature I feel I must sever the volunteer relationship I had with 3ABN. It has been just over a year since I was invited to attend 3ABN's 2007 Annual Day of Prayer. At that meeting, I heard a good deal of discussion and fervent prayer regarding "this new enemy". Since then, I have been shocked at some of the allegations that have been made public. I did not want to believe them, but after some of the practices I observed and conversations I was party to, now coupled with IRS Criminal Investigation Department involvement, I am compelled by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Code of Professional Conduct Section 102 to write this letter and document what I saw while at 3ABN. I am disappointed that in my attempt to do something for my Lord, I unknowingly walked into a situation involving alleged activities that violate IRS rules and regulations. My footprint can be found on many documents and general ledger entries at 3ABN and if called upon, I will make every attempt to tell the truth as I remember it.

As you know, I came to 3ABN after surviving a terrible auto accident and feeling like I needed to do something on behalf of my Lord and the posse of angels He must have sent that night to protect me. I came to you with no agenda, other than how I might be able to help the ministry with the talents, training and experience God has given me. I made a cash donation to 3ABN in April of 2005 and contacted you later that year to offer my volunteer services as an accountant. From January through mid-May of 2006 I traveled from Nashville to West Frankfort nearly every other week (until personal complications changed my availability) to assist in the Accounting Department with anything I could.

I hope you know how much I enjoyed being there. I grew very fond of each and every one in Accounting and even made some good friends outside the department. However, I am sure you recall that I had some serious concerns regarding the internal business control environment at 3ABN. When I made my first visit to your office in August of 2005 and again while I was volunteering during 2006, you told me that internal controls are not a priority with you and that you didn't want to be tripped up by them. With the background I have as a public accountant and internal auditor, these declarations made me cringe inside. But as a volunteer I did not feel it my place to insist otherwise, although I did share my concerns verbally with audit partner Alan Lovejoy from the Gray Hunter Stenn LLP CPA firm in April of 2006 while he was at 3ABN working on the 2005 financial statement audit (a copy of a brief email correspondence with Mr. Lovejoy is enclosed).

The following is a list of the concerns I recall from the days I spent at 3ABN:

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Internal business controls are a vital component of a healthy business (or ministry) and materially accurate financial statements. In my professional opinion, the situation 3ABN currently finds itself in is a direct result of a poorly controlled accounting environment and a lack of governance and oversight. I desperately wish it were not the case, but I believe you know me well enough to know that I call it as I see it. I am close to completing a Master of Science in Economic Crime Management, but I had no idea that my studies would correspond so closely with my volunteer work.

The North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists and Adventist Risk Management, Inc. have prepared a guidebook entitled "Trustees of the Lord's Finances" which provides an excellent summary of policies and procedures an organization should take to ensure appropriate internal business controls and provide adequate safeguards against misappropriation of assets. I saw no evidence to indicate this valuable resource had even been consulted. The following is taken directly from page 25 of the Quick Reference Guide bearing the same name:

No one wants to admit that theft and cover-up exist in a Christian environment. Yet insider theft occurs at all levels throughout our churches and schools. Without effective controls, such illegal and destructive practices will continue. In order for such events to occur, two elements must be present:

Opportunity is provided when:

- Too much trust is placed in key individuals.
- Too few people share duties and responsibilities.
- Cash is easily accessible.
- Fiduciary controls don't exist.
- Audits are performed too infrequently.

Motivation is provided when:

- A lack of standards or integrity exists within the organization.
- Employees or volunteers face personal financial challenges.
- Employees or volunteers rationalize that they're only "borrowing" or that the organization "owes" them something.
- Employees or volunteers believe that non-profit organizations refrain from prosecuting theft cases.

Given the current environment 3ABN now finds itself in, I strongly recommend the organization invest in a forensic accounting review of its financial records. Concurrently, 3ABN needs to implement a system of internal business controls immediately. These combined actions will serve to identify previous abuses if any do exist, as well as to create a controlled environment going forward that will substantially reduce the possibility of future abuses as well as to rebuild both public and IRS confidence in 3ABN. While I did not personally observe any specific incidences of fraud that I am aware of, the lack of internal business controls has created an accounting environment that is ripe for abuse. In addition, I believe serious consideration should be given to changing audit firms. I am not implying that Gray Hunter Stenn LLP is in any way at fault, but publicly traded companies are required to change audit firms periodically and this action would be in 3ABN's best interest as well, in my opinion. Finally, I believe 3ABN could benefit substantially by requesting the services of the General Conference Internal Audit Department. While a good external audit serves many purposes, the value of a regular internal audit cannot be understated. The audit techniques and objectives employed by each are substantially different, but I truly believe it would be beneficial for 3ABN to obtain the services of both types of audits in an effort to overcome the current financial management issues. An external audit is designed to test and opine on the reported financial statements of an organization while an internal audit is designed to test operational functions and internal business controls.

In closing, I want you to know that you and 3ABN are in my thoughts and prayers. I truly believe that the ministry of 3ABN can be a strong tool used by the Lord to bring the gospel to all far reaching corners of our condemned world. However, I am very disappointed with the current state of affairs and some of the 3ABN decisions that have been made public. Based on the concerns I have outlined herein, I believe I am entitled to request that my $25,000 cash donation be returned to me (a copy of my receipt is enclosed). I was impressed to send it to 3ABN as a small contribution to furthering the Lord's work but I am now not at all certain it was used to that end. I would also like to be reimbursed for the $100 I was asked to pay to Bea Johnston for utilities while I was volunteering at 3ABN. I will look for my check within 14 days of your receipt of this letter. When management is willing to implement the obviously necessary changes in the internal business control environment at 3ABN, I hope you will feel free to contact me if I can be of any assistance. Until then, best wishes to you Larry. I truly enjoyed working with you.

Sincerely,

Lynette Rhodes, CPA, CFE

If the IRS is so concerned that major misdeeds have been done, why is the "investigation" on hiatus? Interesting that the investigator is out on maternity leave and they haven't put anyone else in charge. Doesn't seem to be very high on their priority list now does it?

Yes, I'm sure that's it. All 140 people at 3abn made up negative remarks about Linda totally on purpose, hoping that somehow, each individual's remarks would get to Danny and their jobs would be safe. ☹

Sorry, I was there when Linda was. I mixed with the workers, especially production. I heard and saw first hand what they thought of her, her ideas, and her treatment of anyone under her. This was way before the split.

How come other people that I'm told the staff talked about haven't been given the same treatment?

Was it a boy or a girl?

I noticed that that Congressman from out west whose family business got raided by the FBI last April wasn't indicted until recently. Therefore, how much time would need to go by before we can breathe easier?

I forgot to ask you, FHB, why did Attorney Hayes tell Magistrate Judge Hillman on Friday during our hearing that there was no IRS criminal investigation going on if you know so much about it as to know that the investigator is out on maternity leave?

Ms. Shelton

I tried to call you to explain the horse deductions. I just remembered that Lewis just gave us a donation of $20,000 last year. It did not mention horses. That is much better than all the other rig a ma role.

I have no idea if that's even close to spelling that word, but it seemed to fit.

So, I have left a message that he has not returned yet. Hopefully, you will just get a tax donation report from his ministry showing that you gave $20,000 to his ministry. That's the way he chose to do it.

I should get one too. I guess he's counting it the same as a cash donation.

ps. I think he's willing to give us a $10,000 donation for 2005 ($5,000 @), if we donate our black 3 yr. old stud. I can't really use him to breed any more of our horses or they will all be the same blood line.

If this is ok with you please let me know in writing and I'll try to make it happen. He's hurt his foot really bad by kicking in his stall. I hope it heals ok.

Steven Lewis says he is overnighting me two cash donation receipts. One for you for $20,000 and one for me for $20,000. I'll overnight it to you if you want or you can give it to your accountant when you want.

If you want me to overnight it to you, then please let me know.

DS

This is a great blessing to us for him to consider this a cash donation.

Linda, can we talk about why you don't want a cash receipt. It's nothing that we are doing wrong. If I understand it, he has the option of writing the receipt the way that's best for him. It's definitely better for us, or at least quicker and easier for us to get a cash receipt. An appraisal can take time and cost money. We also have no guarantee what they will appraise for. I'm willing to do what you want, but it could take from a couple of weeks to a couple of months to try to get an appraisal. I'd like to call you in a few minutes and talk about it. OK?

I do not want the $20,000 cash receipt. I think if we gave horses, we need to claim that we gave horses and give the appraisals and proper documentation.

The horse buyer laughed his sockes off. He was offering an average of $250.00 per yearling for the two black and white homozygous's. He offered $600 for our big 3 yr old Drum N Up Spots filly. and $500 for a nice two year old black and white Little Spook filly. He offered $350 for our baby paint sort of buckskin colored homo baby.

I sent him home quickly.

I have another horse buyer coming, maybe, this week. He probably won't offer much more.

If you want me to give some of them away for those kind of prices I will, but I thought I would try a couple other options first.

Donating worked out great to SIU but they don't even want any either.

Please pay up on our bet. You know and I know and God knows, I won that bet. You don't spend nearly 5 weeks with a man traveling everywhere together to watch TV. Please keep your promise and pay up. Cash will be fine.
