I cannot speak for Gailon, but judging from what he has told me before he more that welcomes this opportunity for truth to prevail.

The battleground is now moving into the public legal arena, where evidence (proof), disclosure, etc. will be required.

Help me to understand this. If 3ABN takes Gailon to court for the rights to the 3ABN name and for slanderous accusations, how will that require full disclosure for 3abns books? I am making the assumption that is what you are talking about when you say proof will be required. I don't think proof is any problem when it comes to Gailons website but others have said they would welcome a lawsuit because everything at 3abn would have to be made public. Not true. This case would have nothing to do with anything like that. Now even if Gailon decided to counter sue on some point or other, there still would be no demands made on 3abn documents. Unless you are with the IRS or FBI you can't just step up to a judge and demand an investigations into an organizations records. The most Gailon could do is to file a complaint that he thinks the books need looking into. With no affiliations with any government offices, not having a law degree and having never even been to the 3abn facility, most likely the judge would throw his complaint out. Regardless, that case would have nothing whatsoever to do with this case and all this case requires is a look see at Gailons website.

Hmmm...you seem to be quite concerned about 3abn's books being scrutinized.
