Dear Mr. Pickle, Mr. Joy and Mr. Matthews:

First of all I want to commend you for seeking truth and your determination to see that justice and truth prevail in order to advance the work of the Lord. I write this letter with a heavy heart, and I am deeply troubled by some of the posts I am reading on BlackSDA.com and Save3ABN.com. It appears that there are Christians who find it difficult to accept the facts regarding the sexual abuse/molestation charges as documented. It takes great courage for victims to come forward and admit that they were molested and abused. When they do so, they need to be validated and supported for this courageous act. I would like to affirm Duane and the other victims for being bold enough to stand firm. I also want to state my appreciation to those of you who have publicly offered him support and refuse to be intimidated by threats and innuendos.

I have been counseling abused victims for over 20 years, and have seen first hand the devastating effects they experience as a result of their victimization. If there are victims out there who need to talk with someone, feel free to contact me at info@pollysplacenetwork.com.

Note the following statement which is worthy of repetition:

"I believe that there is a devil, and here's Satan's agenda. First, he doesn't want anyone having kids. Secondly, if they do conceive, he wants them killed.
If they're not killed through abortion, he wants them neglected or abused physically, emotionally, sexually...One way or another, the legions of hell want to destroy children because children become the future adults and leaders. If they (legions) can warp or wound a child, he or she becomes a warped or wounded adult who passes on this affliction to the next generation". -Terry Randall in TIME Magazine, October 21, 1991.

And so today we have individuals who are warped or wounded. They are either passing on or suffering from their affliction as a result of Satan's agenda.

Since its creation Satan has wanted power and control over this earth. Through subtle manipulation he deceived Eve into believing that she could have power and control over her life. He told her that if she ate of the forbidden fruit she would be as a god. "For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil" (Genesis 3:5). So she ate it and gave it to her husband, Adam. Of course he knew that he should not have eaten the fruit but ate it any way. He made the choice to disobey God. When confronted by God about disobeying His command, neither Adam nor Eve took responsibility for their actions.

"And the Lord God called unto Adam, and said unto him, where art thou? And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself. And He said, who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?" Genesis 3:9-11.

Adam and Eve were ashamed of their nakedness, so they hid themselves. Shame tends to bring blame, so when God asked Adam to explain his behavior, he blamed Eve. "And the man said, the woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat." (Genesis 9:12) When God asked Eve what she had done, she blamed the serpent. "And the woman said, the serpent beguiled me, and I did eat." (Genesis 9:13).

It appears that certain individuals are spending time shaming and blaming victims and the people who defend them. Therefore enemy is the one who is being glorified. Shouldn't they be spending time finding out what can be done to protect our children who will pass on our legacy? While we need to offer help and support for the abusers as well, if they are not willing to admit that they have a problem and get help, there is nothing more that we can do for them. "Ephraim is joined to idols, let him alone". Hosea 4:17. Whatever dysfunctional and destructive behavior we refuse to give up in order that we can present our bodies as living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to God (Romans 12:1) becomes our idol.

I woke up this morning feeling convicted that since I proclaim to head up a network that helps victims of abuse, I could no longer be silent and allow them to be put down and humiliated. These individuals are God's precious creatures, made in His image and hold a special place in His heart. People have asked me what I think about this whole situation with 3ABN. These are my convictions: It is not good enough for me to wait until there is resolution and then take a stand. It is not good enough to keep quiet and hope that things will work out. It is not good enough for me to rationalize that if an organization is doing so much good, the bad that it practices should be ignored. It is not good enough for me to believe that since I am a church leader I should be silent in order to protect the church's image, or my position. I don't recall reading anywhere that it is my mission or responsibility as a Christian or leader to protect the church. God is quite capable of protecting His church.

"Christ loves His church... But His love is not weakness. He will not serve with their sins or give them prosperity while they continue to follow a wrong course of action. Only by faithful repentance will their sins be forgiven; for God will not cover evil with the robe of His righteousness. He will honor faithful service. He will abundantly bless those who reveal to their fellowmen His justice, mercy, and love. Let those who are engaged in His service walk before Him in true humility, following faithfully in His footsteps cherishing the holy principles which will live through the eternal ages. Let them in word and action show that they obey the laws which are obeyed in heaven... God's love for His church is infinite. His care over His heritage is unceasing." - Ellen G. White, Sons and Daughters, p. 13-14

For those of you reading BlackSDA and Save 3ABN and are convicted that you should do or say something to denounce sin, but are afraid to be identified, I would like to remind you that "to him that knoweth to do good and doeth not to him it is sin" James 4:17.

For those of us who are leaders in the church, why are we so silent? So many have remarked that they know that Linda Shelton is innocent of the charges, yet only one conference allowed her to speak in one of its churches after her denunciation on an international network. We need to take a public stand and call for truth and justice. W are all involved in this situation, none of us will escape God's judgment, "Verily, I say unto you, inasmuch as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me, and these shall go away into everlasting punishment." Matthew 25: 45-46. If you were wrongfully accused, can you trust your church to treat you fairly, in a Christian and redemptive manner? What if your answer is no?

God is all powerful, all knowing, all present. He holds the world in His hands. He wants us to be His disciples and follow His Son's example in Luke 4:18 to, "preach the gospel to the poor, heal the broken hearted, preach deliverance to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind, and set a liberty them that are bruised." Regardless of criticism, condemnation, censure or lack of support we must do His will recognizing that He is the only One who can and will save us.

Being fearful and intimidated by individuals who seem to have power, control or wealth indicates that we have more confidence in them than in God. We have been advised, "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." Matthew 10:28.

"The greatest want of the world is the want of men, (women, Christians, church leaders, church members) –men ((women, Christians, church leaders, church members) who will not be bought or sold; men (women, Christians, church leaders, church members) who their innermost souls are true and honest; men (women, Christians, church leaders, church members) who do not fear to call sin by its right name; men (women, Christians, church leaders, church members) whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole; men (women, Christians, church leaders, church members) will stand for the right, though the heaven's fall." - Ellen G. White, Education, p. 57.

"Never was there greater need of faithful warnings and reproofs, and close, straight dealing, than at this very time. Satan has come down with great power, knowing that his time is short. He is flooding the world with pleasing fables, and the people of God love to have smooth things spoken to them. Sin and iniquity are not abhorred. I was shown that God's people must make more firm, determine efforts to press back the incoming darkness. The close work of the Spirit of God is needed now as never before. Stupidity must be shaken off. We must arouse from the lethargy that will prove our destruction unless we resist it. Satan has a powerful, controlling influence upon minds. Preachers and people are in danger of being found upon the side of the power of darkness. There is no such thing as a neutral position. We are all decidedly for the right or decidedly with the wrong... There are ever to be found those who will sympathize with those who are wrong...Those who have in the fear of God ventured out to faithfully meet error and sin, calling sin by its right name, have discharged a disagreeable duty with much suffering of feelings to themselves; but they get the sympathy of but few and suffer the neglect of many. The sympathizers are on the wrong side, and they carry out the purposes of Satan to defeat the design of God." Ellen G. White, Testimonies to the Church, Vol. 3, p. 327-328.

I have been one of those individuals who can identify with the previous statement. I have wanted quick resolution, and wonder why God is taking so long to act (or so it seems). I have been disappointed that more individuals are not willing to support ministry to hurting people. The following statement brings me comfort and reminds me that God indeed is in control. "It sometimes seems hard to wait patiently till God's time comes to vindicate the right. But I have been shown that if we become impatient we lose a rich reward. As faithful husbandmen in God's great field, we must sow with teas and be patient and hopeful. We must meet troubles and sorrows. Temptations and wearisome toil will afflict the soul, but we must patiently wait in faith to reap with joy. In the final victory God will have no use for those persons who are nowhere to be found in time of peril and danger, when the strength, courage, and influence of all are required to make a charge upon the enemy. Those who stand like faithful soldiers to battle against wrong, and to vindicate the right, warring against principalities and power, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places, will each receive the commendation from the Master: "Well done, good and faithful servant:...enter thou into the joy of he Lord." Testimonies, Vol. 3, p. 327. 21.

Gailon, Gregory and Bob, be encouraged. If what you are doing is wrong, God will discipline you, but if what you are doing is right, He will certainly vindicate you. To everyone reading this, it is my sincere prayer that "God will dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passes knowledge that you might be filled with all the fullness of God. Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, unto Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages....A-men. Ephesians 3:17.

Thank you ever so much. Your words are music to many ears.

I hope that our church and other churches will stand and call sin by its proper name.

We have thousands in the church pews around the world. They are not confined to just our church.

Jesus instructs us to love the sinner and hate the sin. This weekend I have been trying to do that. It is ever so difficult. But in my heart, God gave me the grace to see a side to this mess I had not seen for over a year.

Gailon, Pickle, Matthews plus all the victims and parents reporting to them, have faced lawsuits and threats. The mothers and fathers are victims also. Does the chain of hurt ever end?

Victims are never "all right" forever. The profound act of molestation leaves deep scars. Some have so many scares it is a miracle they are alive.

Thank you for taking a stand. I pray that more letters will follow. May our SDA church take finally take a stand provide help in this cancer within our midst. Someone wrote that "The desired result would be to remove the cancer and save the body (3ABN)." It is my prayer that this will be possible.

God bless

The greatest want of the world is the want of men-- men who will not be bought or sold, men who in their inmost souls are true and honest, men who do not fear to call sin by its right name, men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole, men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall. {Ed 57.3}

But such a character is not the result of accident; it is not due to special favors or endowments of Providence. A noble character is the result of self-discipline, of the subjection of the lower to the higher nature--the surrender of self for the service of love to God and man. {Ed 57.4}

Thank you Fran:

For the information of people who are not aquainted with Dr. Dunbar, she is head of Women's Ministries in the Upper Columbia Conference, and she, along with her husband, are co-pastors of a SDA Chruch in that same Conference.

While the details are not important at this time, Dr. Dunbar has had personal contat with both Linda Shelton, and others from 3-ABN. She has formed opinons on a number of the issues based upon those personal interactions, and she should not be assumed to have simply based her opinions on so-called gossip posted on the Internet.

She is a denominational official who has clearly come out on how she sees these issues. She has taken a stand. In 2006, she publicy called for SDAs to spend a Sabbath in prayer that God would lead, that truth would be discovered, and that Linda would be restored to the place in ministry that God wanted her to have.

Duane, if you would like to contact her, let me know, and I will facilitate such.

I add my thanks to Dr. Mabel Dunbar for coming forward with such a clear statment from one who is not only an authority on the abuse issues we are addressing, but also one who is closely connected with and employed by an official Adventist Conference entity.

I hope that this will be only the first of many officials in our Conference structure who will come forward and make their positions publicly known regarding the problems at 3abn. This would be a great encouragement to those who have been or are being victimized by the 3abn system. And it would also be a great help in giving "permission" to those pastors who are concerned about the way 3abn is adversely affecting their parishioners and the image of the SDA church and would like to take a more active role in warning their people to also step out and do so.

Thank you again, Dr. Dunbar.

Gailon, Gregory and Bob, be encouraged. If what you are doing is wrong, God will discipline you, but if what you are doing is right, He will certainly vindicate you. To everyone reading this, it is my sincere prayer that "God will dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passes knowledge that you might be filled with all the fullness of God. Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, unto Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages....A-men. Ephesians 3:17.

Thanks for coming forward with this. I appreciate your letter very much. Hope others in higher up positions will do the same now as well.

Along with others, I am thankful for Dr. Dunbar's integrity as demonstrated by her willingness to take a stand on such serious issues as surround 3ABN. And I thank her for allowing her statement to be posted here.

I was particularly impressed by the statement excerpted above, perhaps because I had had the same thought: "Being fearful and intimidated by individuals who seem to have power, control or wealth indicates that we have more confidence in them than in God."

Again, thank you, Dr. Dunbar!

Yes, Dr. Mable Dunbar is doing a marvelous job for abused women. It is unbelievable what an urgent need there is for the work she is doing, also among Christian people.

It is a work of faith. It is only faith in Jesus that can set us free from the oppression created by people who seem to be Christian, but use their power to intimidate and control others.

Dr. Dunbar,

Thanks for coming forward on this matter. It takes a lot of courage to put your name out there for taking a stand for truth and justice.

It is true that abusers can go many years appearing to be God-fearing and upright members of the church and society.

I too have worked with child molesters. The startling thing to me at first was what a nice bunch of men they appear to be. They are Bible carrying, soft spoken, kindly, clean cut, and of course deny the allegations against them. They claim that their accusers have made it all up. They just have a vendetta of some kind against them.

It is difficult to know how to protect our children today. After my experiences I am much more cautious and not as trusting of appearances.

Of course, the perpetrators need help as well. Something happened to them most likely when they were young that started this behavior, They are not happy folk either.

As with all sins we all our powerless to reform ourselves. Only God is the restorer. Although,Biblically, Jesus had pretty strong words for those who hurt children. We need to be proactive so we can give needed aid and counseling to those who have problems while young so this vicious cylce may be broken

You become much more aware of this issue when it invades those close to you. There is sorrow for both the child and the perpetrator who obviously is crying out for help.

Keep up the good work in helping folk with these serious problems.

Pastor Johann Thorvaldsson served the SDA church for over 50 years in various positions and countries, including the USA, Iceland, Denmark, Norway, the Faeroe Islands, Sierra Leone, and Nigeria. His last positions before retirement were in Union Conference administration in Norway and in Denmark. Upon retirement he accepted a position as Director of European Development for 3ABN, which he held until fired for his support of Linda in 2004. This letter was written in July 2004 to an unidentified recipient, for the purpose of posting on the Club Adventist Forum. It was posted there and copied to BSDA on July 29, 2004. For discussion of this letter, see the thread entitled, "The Latest on 3abn" which begins at http://www.blacksda.com/forums/index.php?showtopic=10074 3 posted July 29, 2004 09:33 Message What happened at 3ABN?

THE STORY OF LINDA SHELTON

By Johann Thorvaldsson

Former 3ABN liaison for Europe It is a fact that Linda Shelton has been fired - and Danny Shelton has told his version of events to the World audience. He warned us not to listen to rumors, so what are the facts of this heart-breaking experience? Unfortunately Linda Shelton has been judged and dismissed from the establishment she loved and helped build up - on the basis of rumors. Facts that have been twisted, embroidered and presented as real. This is quite a complicated matter. A few weeks ago I was in Southern Illinois, wanting to attend the camp meeting at 3ABN, together with a Norwegian medical doctor - the one Linda has been accused of committing spiritual adultery with. We went there in an attempt to clear up misunderstandings, all caused because my wife and I introduced this doctor to Danny and Linda Shelton. This doctor is also the head elder of the most flourishing conservative SDA church in Norway
- and has for several years been a financial supporter of 3ABN. Some of the problems were caused because the 3ABN archives had misspelled the name of this supporter, so Danny was convinced he was an impostor. Later Danny has named him a devil, a demon, or evil spirit, or bad counselor - like he did during the transmission to the whole world on Thursday evening at Camp Meeting. Also during that meeting we were requested to leave the premises of 3ABN, and if we ever showed up again at the meetings the police would be requested to remove us as trespassing private property - and this at meetings where all are invited. 4

What is our crime? While my wife, Irmgard, and I were staying at 3ABN in December 2003, this doctor came to visit us, both to check Irmgard's illness and to see the studios of the ministry he was supporting and was a great fan of. Linda came to see us, and later she brought her son along, who had problems with drugs and related things. Nathan had been reluctant to see any other doctor, but a lasting friendship between the doctor and this young man was kindled. Many of his patients are young athletes, so he is used to dealing with young people. The doctor invited Nathan to come and stay in Norway and receive treatments at his clinic for a month. Nathan brought his girlfriend along, and later Linda and Brenda Walsh spent 3 days there to check on things - and I had a visit with them too while they were there. At that time Nathan had merely been there for 10 days, and I did not recognize him when I saw him. He was a completely transformed person.

So after Linda returned to the States she'd call to find out how it was going with her son. Danny told me himself that he considered that if a married woman talks for more than 10 or 12 minutes with another man on the phone she'd be committing spiritual adultery - so these phone calls first branded Linda as an adulteress. And from there the ball has kept rolling with more and more accusations. Mark Finlay was willing to assist in coming to an understanding, but his offer was unacceptable to the 3ABN lawyer. Both the lawyer and the pastor urged me to stay out of this case and not support Linda. They claimed I'd soon be left out in the cold with no friends at all if I'd continue supporting Linda in her plight.

Can you imagine our Lord Jesus Christ telling me not to come to the aid of this frail woman because I'd be left out in the cold without friends?
I have never heard such a statement before coming from people who are supposed to be the spiritual leaders of this great ministry. Is it any wonder that the support of 3ABN is dwindling?

With such men at the helm who make it their business and main concern to condemn Linda, is it any wonder that Linda seeks the support of her close friends - and also calls the doctor who was so kind to her son?
Of course it might have avoided some misunderstandings and confusions if that doctor had been a woman. But what does the Apostle tell us? "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus." Those two people have been branded before the whole world as adulterers, and you name it. I never dreamt such atrocities could take place at my favorite ministry, 3ABN

Now the woes of Linda Shelton are not hers alone any more. I was fired too, because I supported Linda. Officially it was because I refused to obey orders from my superiors at 3ABN. But I am fortunate that I get my sustentation from the church where I started my ministry more than 50 years ago. Even though I love the ministry of 3ABN, I serve the God of heaven and the God of Truth. Derrell Mundall, the father of Danny Shelton's grandchildren, who has served 3ABN faithfully for many years, has also been fired. What is his crime? He was too close and he knows the truth, and shared his knowledge with others. He supports Linda.
He had no other employment when he was dismissed from 3ABN, so pray that he may soon find another fruitful ministry where he can use his talents. He chose truth instead of a steady employment, as so many other believers have done in the past. Before Derrell was fired he was told that he must remember it was Danny who received the vision from God to build this TV station. Therefore, he was told, he must regard the words of Danny Shelton as being the words of God. Long before Linda's dismissal, Dr. Kay Kuzma was assigned to help Linda manage after being fired. She was also supposed to interview staff members to find a good reason to fire her, so one wonders what really is behind this upheaval?

Danny mentioned a number of counselors who had helped the board come to the conclusion that she should be dismissed. You can ask Linda, but I don't think she ever talked to most of those counselors. In fact even before her dismissal she felt treated like a criminal when she approached the premises of 3ABN and was not permitted to enter without close supervision. The present general staff at 3ABN is probably not permitted to ask Linda any question. If anyone wants a contact to keep up their close friendship with Linda they have to write their note on a postcard, submit it to the leaders who will forward it to Linda. Such are the present premises of this woman whose ministry has meant so much to thousands of viewers, and who will not see her any more on the screen - as long as the present leadership has it their way.

Pray for 3ABN. Pray for justice. Pray for justice also for Linda.
Miracles still take place.
Christian regards

The Accused Other Man Evidence: Dr. Arild Abrahamsen
06/20/2006
Greetings from Norway;

My name is Dr. Arild Abrahamsen. I live in Svindal, Norway. I have been a medical doctor for more than 35 years. I am a member of the Moss SDA Church. I've been the Sabbath School Superintendent for 14 years and the head elder for 4 years, which position I am presently serving. I am the Norwegian doctor who has been slandered by Dr. Walt Thompson, chairman of the board of 3ABN, Danny Shelton, John Lomacang and others.

Since I have observed the situation and the slander only getting worse, I feel it best to share my experience. I share my personal experience, what I have seen and heard. Much of this information has been verified by other sources, which include emails, letters and the personal experiences of others. I share my experience not to attack any individual or organization, but to bring the truth of this situation to the surface.

I have been shocked to observe the events of the last two years. I have made no public statement until now. I had hoped things would resolve themselves.

I visited Johann and Irmgard Thorvaldsson at 3ABN the last week of 2003. The purpose of the trip was to see them and visit the ministry, which I personally had been supporting for some time. I had never been to 3ABN previously, nor had I met the Shelton's. During this visit I discovered from the Thorvaldsson's that Linda Shelton's son, Nathan, was in a dangerous state of health because of an addiction to drugs and working in coalmines. I offered to see him. This visit resulted in an invitation for Nathan to come to Norway for treatments. Nathan came to Norway around January 20, 2004 along with his friend, Dava Vice. Linda came for a 3-½ day visit to support her son, the first week of February together with Brenda Walsh. This was the last time I saw Linda until the weekend she was fired.

I had a chance to visit with Nathan regularly. I learned from my conversations with Nathan that the roots of his drug problems were the relationships with his father and stepfather. Specifically he told me that Danny had turned his back on him. I shared this information with his mother on the phone. She told me that Danny said he had no responsibility towards Nathan since he was a product of her first marriage, so she felt she had to do what she could to help her son. There was nothing unusual in the occasional phone reports I gave Nathan's mother while he was in Norway. After Nathan returned home, I asked Linda to keep me updated on Nathan's progress.

I was shocked to discover in early March of 2004 that Danny was threatening to get Linda fired from 3ABN because of some conversations on the phone. In fact, she was threatened immediately with divorce. By this time Nathan had started with drugs again and Linda was seeking advice. I was also shocked to discover that Brenda had started circulating untrue statements as well. (Was it because Danny had admitted to some emotional involvement with Brenda?) I talked to Danny one time on the phone and found him to be unreasonable, unbalanced and very difficult to communicate with. Johann Thorvaldsson, a retired pastor of the SDA Church of 50 years, also was in communication with Danny, both by phone and email. We talked together and shared the same opinion that Danny was acting completely irrational and unreasonable towards his wife. It appeared he was attempting to leave an email trail filled with untruths to verify a position at a later time. The decision was made to stop the communication by phone with Linda.

Some weeks went by. Johann and Irmgard were getting treatments at my clinic and staying in my home during the Easter week in April, so I discovered from them that the situation was not improving for Linda. She was being harassed, threatened, and unreasonable demands by her husband were repeatedly being made to confess things she had not done. By this time, she was also suspended from her job at 3ABN, an order that was issued and enforced by her husband with no Board action. Things were so bad in the home that she found it necessary to go to her daughter's home in Springfield, Illinois for safety and rest on several occasions. Derrell Mundall, who was traveling often for 3ABN, reports rumors of Linda's so-called "affair" were in SDA churches in April 2004, when Linda was still living with Danny. When he inquired about the source of the rumors, people always pointed to Danny Shelton.

I could see from my 35 years of experience as a physician that Danny was a psychopath. accusations were directed at me that I had done "mind control" over Linda. (Walt Thompson made the same accusations in his letters.) Linda was accused of sending "secret messages" to me over the television. Danny's emails and communications with Johann were completely crazy, and his reasoning often conflicted with his previous emails. Danny targeted Linda's few inner circle confidants and slandered her to the point that even they backed away from her at this critical time. (Linda's "friends" did not want to lose their television privileges.) Johann and I concluded this was a man who was determined to get rid of his wife. We also concluded that Linda was in danger.

Things eventually progressed from emotional and mental abuse to physical abuse. In the midst of all this harassment Linda asked Danny, 'Why are you treating me like this?' He answered, 'Because I want you to get out.'

Considering the urgency of the situation I allowed the conversations to resume. Linda knew, with her high profile status, that confiding with local people regarding these issues would be very bad for the ministry. I had given counsel to people in difficulty in the past and felt I could be helpful from a distance in this situation. I encouraged Linda to fight for her marriage and ministry many times. This she really did, but she often had to leave her home to find refuge at her daughter's apartment in Springfield, even in the middle of the night because of Danny's behavior. At times like these she was afraid of him. She always returned to her home after a couple of days seeking to try to mend the marriage, but Danny would not allow this.

During the spring of 2004 Danny called my pastor in Norway. Danny tried to get me kicked out as an elder and as a member of the church. My pastor told me about the conversation and he said, "He is mentally sick, he needs professional help."

I find it very disturbing that Walt Thompson defended and continues to defend Danny although he was a witness repeatedly to the emotional and mental abuse that was taking place. At one point he witnessed Danny "trashing" his wife for five hours. I also find it disturbing that John Lomacang, Linda's former pastor, claims to have counseled extensively with Danny and Linda when this was far from the truth. During the months of April and May of 2004, when most of the activity was ccurring in this situation, Linda NEVER saw John, who was supposed to be her pastor.

Coincidentally the handful of people supporting Danny and defending his actions has gained either power, position, airtime, homes, public endorsement or all of the above.

At one point I had a conversation with Walt Thompson, Chairman of the Board of 3ABN. He asked me to stop all communication with Linda. This had also been communicated to Johann and Irmgard Thorvaldsson and others. I told him that it was obviously Danny's plan to isolate Linda from everyone at a time when she needed help. To me it was the Christian thing to answer her phone calls and the only humane thing to do for someone who was in crisis.

Others did not come to Linda's aid because they did not want to lose whatever benefit they gained from 3ABN, whether it be a job, programming, promotions, etc. Walt was also the one who phoned Linda when she was suspended from the ministry by her husband. He instructed her that she must not come to the ministry (which she co-founded) without calling ahead of time because she must be supervised when at 3ABN. Danny broke into a locked bathroom to forcefully take her keys to 3ABN from her. Her hard drive of her computer was confiscated, her contact information taken and even her filing cabinets ravaged, all without any kind of Board action.

Linda was living in an impossible situation. Danny was "in her face" on a regular basis. At times he would say, "If you don't say you're a pathological liar, the marriage and 3ABN is over. If you don't say you're an adulterous woman the marriage and 3ABN is over for you. If you don't say you've given your heart to another man and that he is a demon the marriage and 3ABN is over..... etc." It even reached the point when he demanded her to say "Repeat after me." Johann and I received a couple emails, which said they were from Linda, but they were written by Danny. Linda saw her ministry being destroyed one day at a time. All of this was dehumanizing and terrifying to Linda, who was trying to hold things together. She very much realized what was at stake.

An "investigative committee" was put together by Walt Thompson to look into this situation. They were Walt Thompson, Bill Hulsey, Nick Miller and Kay Kuzma. Danny talked privately at length with each of these people. Linda did not. The committee as a whole never met with Linda at all. In one brief phone conversation with Kay Kuzma she told Linda, "The Board is not interested in you and Danny's personal problems. It is only interested in the fact that the President no longer wants his Vice-President." Johann Thorvaldsson testifies that he spoke with Kay the following day. She told him she was instructed to get Linda used to the idea of not being at 3ABN anymore and to try to get her involved in another ministry.

It's interesting that at the time Danny accused Linda for speaking on the phone to me, that he was in the practice of speaking regularly with Brenda, Linda's "friend." He also visited often with her in her 3ABN apartment in the night. A worker at 3ABN states that Brenda even went golfing with Danny behind Linda's back while she was working. As soon as Brenda saw where the tide was turning, she was no longer Linda's friend. She became an accuser as well.

About May 1, 2004 instructions were given to the production staff to wipe Linda's face off of the network by June 1, again with no Board action.

All CD's, videos, literature and photos of Linda were stripped out of the Call Center. She was sent a document a few days later specifying that she was advised to get 30 days of counseling by counselors of "their" choice. If she did not agree to this in writing within 24 hours, her employment could be gone. She requested time for an attorney to look at the document. This was refused. Mail was flooding into the network with Linda's name on it. They were all returned to sender. Her scheduled speaking appointments for women's ministries were sabotaged by those in leadership at 3ABN. Danny told those who worked for Linda that she was a pathological liar and to stay away from her. (He did not want them to hear the other side of the story.) At one point Linda told Walt that Dan was purposefully ruining her reputation and that she was not willing to be a martyr for 3ABN. Walt's response was "How else are we going to save the ministry?"

Rumors of Linda's so-called "affair" were flying throughout the churches and the General Conference in May of 2004, rumors which were begun by her husband. It was communicated to me that Linda was going to be fired at the Board meeting, which would occur in May, following the 3ABN camp meeting. Johann and I decided to go to the camp meeting and talk to the Board members and tell them the truth about the situation. When we walked into the 3ABN building we were surrounded by about 10 people. One person stood directly behind me for the entire service. Walt Thompson and Nick Miller (3ABN's attorney) asked us to leave. We stayed until nearly the end of the service. (At this camp meeting an announcement was made regarding Linda. There were tearful appeals by Danny, which raised a record-breaking amount of money for 3ABN. Danny also claims that an additional two million dollars was raised the year of their divorce.) When Johann and I went to the door, once again we were followed by a small crowd of people. I spoke to Mark Finley about the situation at length in the parking lot. John Lomacang tried to stop the conversation. He said 'It is not good for you to talk to him alone.' What was he afraid of? He was standing with me when Danny drove up and said that if I returned to camp meeting I would be arrested and thrown in jail. He had already talked to the Sheriff. I decided to not return, as it was Mark Finley's suggestion to avoid the possibility of disrupting the camp meeting for all of the people attending. Linda was staying in her daughter's apartment in Springfield, so we drove there on Saturday to stay in a hotel for the weekend. During this weekend we were followed by three private investigators all the time. What kind of actions was that, for a man that REALLY wanted to save his marriage?

It is my understanding that a one-sided conversation was illegally taped by Danny towards the end of May. With a mind set on framing his wife, her words have been misconstrued into saying what he wants people to think. She mentions a trip to Las Vegas. He explains to all that she is planning a rendezvous with "the doctor." In reality for weeks he has offered Linda larger and larger sums of money for her to go to Las Vegas and stay with her mother for six weeks to acquire residency, a requirement for couples that want a quick divorce. For weeks she refused. SHE NEVER WANTED A DIVORCE.

The events of the previous months eventually bring her to the place where she thinks this is maybe what she should do. She knew a separation was necessary. Danny takes her words from the phone call and adds his insinuations. He makes photo copies of her one sided conversation and distributes it. This is his main source of "proof" for his actions and re-marriage. They call it circumstantial evidence." To further cover their tracks Linda's accusers say that for her sake they don't want to tell "all she has done." They say this so people will accept their statements and imagine the worst. This is slander of the worst kind all coming from professed Christians.

Johann says he was fired from 3ABN for refusing to attest to something false Danny wanted him to put in writing about Linda. Derrell Mundall, Danny's ex-son-in-law, says he was given the option to resign or be fired because of his actions defending Linda. Others quit their jobs because they could not support the actions of the leaders. There is one thing many of these people have in common. Anyone who disagrees with Danny is slandered and discredited.

It's interesting that Danny's daughter recently was found to be pregnant out of wedlock. A quick wedding followed when Derrell, (her ex-husband & father of their four children), claims she had no grounds for re-marriage. It's also interesting that nobody asked Derrell about the issue of grounds at all when he was still a resident in Thompsonville. Also another married Shelton family member had a romantic encounter recently with a married employee of 3ABN. They were instructed to keep it quiet. They did. They all still work at 3ABN, and Melody is featured on the network. Is 3ABN all about standing for principle and values, or standing for those who happen to be in good graces with the President and the Shelton family ?

Another question that seems to be in the minds of many is "Why was Linda given $240,000 when all claim she was fired for a wrongdoing?" The only reason Linda signed this 3ABN contract was because she needed money to escape from a very irregular, abusive and impossible situation. Danny forced her to sign not only this contract, but another contract which sold him her half of their joint-owned home the same day.

Linda has suffered much emotional trauma and humiliation from all of this. She still has nightmares about these events. She did not feel ready to face the people of the SDA church for six months after all of this occurred. I encouraged her to begin again. She went for the first time around the end of November of 2004 in Springfield. The people welcomed her. She requested her membership to be transferred out of the Thompsonville church into the Springfield church in December of 2004. The Springfield pastor had previously worked at 3ABN and knew Linda. He did not believe the rumors and encouraged the church to put her to work. It was a healing time for her to teach Sabbath School and occasionally preach.

In June of 2005 things changed. Pastor Grady was transferred out of the Springfield church, though he wanted to stay, and a pastor from 3ABN was moved into the church. Within two weeks John Stanton met with Linda and told her she would be doing nothing on the platform. She told him that the church really needed the help and she hoped that if she was asked once in two months to teach a Sabbath School class that she would be able to do this. He told her that the orders had come from the conference level. (The Illinois conference President sits on 3ABN's Board and his parents work for 3ABN.) During our visit to the General Conference Session Johann and I visited with this pastor. He told us he thought Linda was a liar. I TOLD HIM THAT LINDA HAD NEVER BEEN UNFAITHFUL TO HER HUSBAND and that all the rumors from her husband were lies. But this man had TV interests to pursue and he was in close connection with Danny and John Lomacang.

The last week of October 2005, a letter came to Linda from John Lomacang, the pastor of the Thompsonville (3ABN) church. It stated that the church board had voted "to call a church business session to recommend to the church that you be placed under censure." Linda called John to ask him why. He said it was because she had abandoned her marriage and ministry, which led to her divorce. (This is what Danny refers to as "grounds" to re-marry.) Linda planned to address the church business meeting. She wrote to Danny requesting a release from the restrictions of the contract she signed so she could openly share her side of the story. Danny denied this request. Because of this she felt forced to drop her membership there and then join another SDA church. This decision was made after much counsel with several SDA's. It's interesting that this recommendation for censure came almost 18 months after the fact. (Which kind of practice is this? Special for USA?) It's also interesting that all of this occurred while Danny was trying to gather evidence against Linda so he could re-marry.

Danny Shelton and the leadership of 3ABN are responsible for using the ministry of 3ABN to bring character assassination to Linda and others. In Linda's case, television and radio announcements were made denouncing her character. There was an announcement on the front page of 3ABN's website for many months. About 180,000 letters about Linda were sent to the mailing list at 3ABN. Videos about her were made and distributed. Magazine articles were written and submitted. Mailings were made to church officials. Many calls were taken at 3ABN where slanderous remarks about Linda were given over the phone. Many letters containing completely false statements were sent to many individuals. Danny even made his personal email address available over 3ABN so people could write to him and obtain his side of the story. They did a thorough job of character assassination.

Now two years later the "trashing" continues. It is inexcusable, especially for a proclaimed Christian ministry.

In conclusion I want to clearly state that I have not committed adultery (emotional, physical, "spiritual"), and neither has Linda. The conversations we had were not unusual or inappropriate. Linda is the victim of domestic violence, only this has resulted in worldwide effects for our Church.

Linda has sought for help at the General Conference level. She has sought the aid of pastors. No one has an answer. She has tried repeatedly to meet with a committee from the Board of 3ABN. This request has not been granted. Still the bulk emails and letters flow from 3ABN slandering the innocent. This has been the most ungodly situation I have observed in my entire life. Any who find themselves not in good graces with Danny Shelton will find that their name is discredited and slandered in an attempt to destroy their influence. Linda has suffered the most with the loss of her job, her influence and reputation. But many others, including myself, have felt the heat coming from what is supposed to be a ministry representing Jesus Christ. This is an outrage. This is unacceptable. Accountability of leaders is a must. (Can bad fruits come from good trees?) As Christians, it is our duty to demand accountability and a high standard from leaders. I hope this testimony will fulfill the mission intended.

Respectfully,

Dr. Arild Abrahamsen

From Walter Thompson
Chairman, 3ABN board of Directors
Regarding Danny's marriage

Dear Family and Friends of 3ABN,

Two years ago 3ABN was challenged by the most difficult battle the ministry has ever faced. It was a battle that threatened the very existence of the ministry and the work of preaching the end time message of the Three Angel's to the world. It is only because of the grace and power of God Almighty, and the faithful support of you, the 3ABN family, that the ministry has survived to preach another day. Today, the ministry is stronger than it has ever been and its reach into the world even broader and more powerful for the cause of truth.

As is always the case when in the public eye, questions arise, stories abound, and rumors spread. We thank God that you have trusted the leadership and board of 3ABN during this time and have stayed with us in ministry. More recently some of you have heard that Danny has found one to comfort him in his loneliness and sorrow. You may have also heard rumors about an allegedly illegal divorce occurring without Biblical grounds. This letter is an attempt to fill you in with the facts.

As chairman of the board I have been in the midst of this long and drawn out ordeal from the beginning. I was there when we counseled with Linda over and over again. I was present during the pleas and prayers, seeking to get her to give up her relationship with the doctor. I have seen and heard the evidence upon which the board has taken the action that it has taken. I have been one that has plead with Linda to keep her marriage and her ministry and offered to provide counseling for them. I have known Danny and Linda almost from the beginning of the ministry and have been in their home many times. They had a good marriage. It was not until this third party got in the middle did things begin to fall apart. It is also true that Danny really did want to get back together again, but when it became obvious that couldn't happen, he correctly had to close the door on that part of his history lest it destroy him and the ministry.

The divorce was a mutually agreed thing, even the choice to get it from Guam where there would be no long wait. Linda had originally planned to move to Las Vegas long enough to become a resident there so as to get a divorce there. They then discovered the possibility of a divorce from Guam, checked it out and found it to be legal, and decided to go that route. Though I believe Guam has now stopped the program, the legality of a Guam divorce had previously been taken to the U.S. Supreme Court where it was ruled legitimate. As chairman of the board, I did not try to influence the decision, but I will say that had they not obtained a quick divorce, the ministry would have been placed at much greater risk since the situation was causing so much dysfunction with leadership and staff. I believe time has verified the correctness of what was done then, both by Danny and by the board for the ministry.

Linda's web site recently stated that she and Danny were not divorced. She wrote this after the judge made the decision in Danny's favor. She claims she did not know this when she wrote it. Her web site referred to an e mail I sent to Johann Thorvaldson a year earlier saying that I had never accused her of adultery. I believe that exchange with him was in response to an accusation by him that we had fired her because of adultery. I was merely saying that she was not fired for adultery, but because she had defied the board in not discontinuing a relationship that was threatening to destroy the ministry. (I might add that the doctor also told me he would not break off the relationship, even though I pled with him to do so.) That letter to Johann was correct, and it is true that I have never directly accused her of adultery. That does not mean that I believe Linda is innocent. If by adultery one must be caught in bed with another person, I cannot prove Linda has committed adultery. If, on the other hand, hard evidence indicates that Linda was involved in an unacceptable relationship with another man qualifies for adultery, then there is no question about Danny's moral right to marry again. As a board, we have chosen not to make the details of the evidence available to the public. I believe Satan is the accuser of the brethern. We have chosen to take the "high road" in this whole situation and say nothing more than we have been forced to say to try to quell rumors. We care about Linda and have tried not to do anything to hurt her more than she has already been hurt. I can tell you that I personally spent a great deal of time at 3ABN during those months when this was all happening. I spoke with Linda and Danny on numerous occasions. A sub committee of the board met and prayed with Danny and Linda and pled with Linda to call off the relationship. Danny and Linda spent an 8 hour session with a pair of Christian counselors (non-Adventist in an attempt to avoid bias) who had no doubts about the nature of Linda's conduct. We offered to provide Linda with the opportunity to go away for counseling with a counselor agreeable to both she and us. She did not respond to that offer or request. Finally, the full board met, reviewed Linda's letter of explanation, and voted unanimously to remove her from the ministry and her seat on the board. Other church leaders who have been privy to some of the evidence we have are in full agreement with our decision.

The relationship Linda had with the Norwegian Dr. was not a normal doctor-patient relationship as she claims. It is true. Linda was very concerned about her son Nathan. He was the vehicle through which the Dr. reached Linda. Our evidence leaves no question that this became much more than a doctor-patient relationship. We know that the long hours on the phone together were not about Nathan and have hard evidence to support this knowledge - nor were times spent together on both sides of the Atlantic. Furthermore, she refused to break it off, even after weeks of pleading with her to do so. We, the board believe the evidence we have clearly justifies the divorce and gives Danny the moral and legal right to remarry. Those in church leadership with whom we have shared some of this evidence agree with us. Out of concern for Linda we have been reluctant to make details public.

No, Danny is not to blame for what has happened here. On the contrary, he has bent over backwards trying to make things work and meeting her requests. Yet, she has never acknowledged that it was wrong for her to have another "friend".

The things I have stated here are accurate and correct. As far as the lady Danny has married is concerned, I can only say I believe his new wife is a very good person and will be a real asset to him as he carries on his heavy responsibilities. Just to clarify any rumor you may have heard, this relationship began long after the divorce. I was at 3ABN when this lady came from Florida looking for work. There was nothing going on before that time, and Danny definitely was not trying to "dump" Linda. I was with him during much of the time he agonized and mourned her loss. It is one thing to lose a loved one in death. It is much different to lose one to another lover - like cutting a dog's tail off one inch at a time! As to the matter of age difference, I will say that I do not believe that is any of my business. I find nothing in the Bible, and I don't remember any thing in the SOP indicating age differences for married couples. If it is legal, and morally correct, and if entered into with honesty, sincerity and earnest prayer for God's guidance, as I know happened here, it is not for me to criticize. In my own musings about this, I have concluded that it was no accident that brought Brandy to 3ABN. Either the devil was behind it, or God was. There is no question in my mind which one it was.

(Archo Dart was for many years a family and marriage counselor in the Adventist church. When in his 80's, he married one of my patients, who was then in her 50's. She loved and admired him till death many years later.)

I have had an interesting thought this week that I will share with you. It is this. God lost one of his closest companions when Lucifer went astray. More than that, myriads more angels left with him when he left heaven. Talk about grief or emotional pain. Experiences such as this with Linda, I think, help us to understand the pain of loss, and the reality of the war between God and Satan. Some have claimed it takes two to divorce. I don't think that is categorically true!
This has been a terrible injury that has hit 3abn and Danny, and yes, Linda too, but it is one that I believe God understands - and He continues to bless his servants.

We recognize that we live in a world at war, and are working with a ministry that the devil would like to see destroyed. The war is real, and as in any other war there are real casualties. War is never pleasant, and spiritual battles may be some of the worst. Our hearts still ache for those who have been wounded. Our prayers continue to ascend on their behalf.

Should acknowledgement of wrongdoing and penitence ever occur, we would be the first to forgive and forget. Unfortunately, that has not happened, and we must move on.

Some who have been aware of the growing relationship and the possibility of marriage have thought they should wait for a longer period of time before marrying. In discussions before the event, the 3ABN board reviewed the events of the past couple years and have agreed that there was no moral or legal reason precluding marriage. Realizing the heavy burdens resting on Danny and of his need for companionship, we, the board did not see any reason not to give our blessing to their union. We hope you, our 3ABN family, will agree too, and with us, welcome Brandy with open arms.

Should you have any questions that I might answer, please feel free to send them to me at 3ABN and I will do my best to try to answer them.

Sincerely in the precious name of Jesus,
Walter Thompson
Chairman, 3ABN Board of Directors
Walter Thompson MD

About two hours ago, Mr. Matthews posted the following in another adventist forum.

"1) I still have people coming to me and telling me that the satellite problems that 3-ABN has had are related to Linda.

Let me say again, Linda is not powerful enough to take 3-ABN off of the satellite. I accept as truth what 3-ABN, and others have said that the problems are problems with the satellite.

2) This week-end the story went out that Linda had married the Doctor. At one point it was published on the Internet. That story is 100% false. Linda has not remarried. She does not have any plans to remarry. She is not planning to marry that Doctor.

3) At the present, Linda is actively engaged in ministry. This last week, she was in Kansas, and she is available for booking in SDA Congregations throughout North America. If you would like to discuss the possibility of her presenting a program in your area, you may contact her at her website. www.lindashelton.org/

4) Linda is also developing in connection with others, a ministry to abused women. As I write this, plans are being made, in connection with an official organization of the SDA Church for Linda to produce a series of television programs on this subject. You will hear more about this as these plans develop.

5) While things seemingly are going well for Linda, I encourage you to remember her in your prayers. In the past public announcements of concerts that had been arranged with Linda has resulted in some attempting to have them cancelled. It is for that reason that I have not be specific in statement # 4.

6) Let me share something quite personal with you-all. At an earlier time in this sad sage, at a time when Linda was quite down on what was happening to her, she felt that the Lord was very close to her, and impressed her with a message. That message was the she had more to endure, but that the time would come when the Lord would restore her to her place in ministry. She has not understood this to mean that she would be restored to ministry at 3-ABN, a ministry that she, with Danny co-founded. But, she has understood this to mean that she would be restored to ministry, as God felt best. She believes that she is seeing this take place.

7) Remember her in prayer, as there are probably those who will attempt to prevent her from doing ministry.

8) God is in charge, and His purpose will be accomplished.

Of course that has NOTHING to do with it! This same thing happen with 10 of SkyAngels contracted satelites...10 ...7 were restored on their same frequency, and three had not--HOWEVER 3ABN was given an alternate Satelite frqeuncy so that the 10 Commandments Weekend Program would be aired....Please ask whoever it is to relax and let go of the "conspiracy theory"--it is not Christ-like at all...

I have posted it here as it may be of interest to you.

I've spent hours talking to Linda - what continues to amaze me is her stillness, quietness, patient spirit. She could be saying and doing things to deliberately hurt or bash many who have betrayed and her her(and not just Danny) but she doesn't. She knows this isn't her battle. This is God's battle. She has a confidence and PEACE that can ONLY be a gift of the Spirit of God. I would only hope to be in this kind of christian spirit if I were in her shoes. God is working in her, and He will have His will done concerning her because she has stayed close to him, and is so committed to His will that she is not shaken. People could learn so much by her example if they could see. Their mouths would be shut like the lions mouths were. She has been a blessing to me, her witness of Jesus is nothing short of a miracle.

Yes, indeed. My first contacts with her were within only a few months of the divorce, and even then I was impressed by her attitude of confidence in the Lord and her forgiving spirit to all who had wronged her.

What most don't know is the burden she carried for Nathan during the last 5 or more years of her TV ministry when his drug addiction was so out of control it was endangering his very life. 3ABN watchers only saw a calm, serene Linda, holding her Bible, reading promises, and giving her little comments about them. Who could have guessed that she was reading those and clinging to them as a very literal life-line for herself while the concern for her son and the turmoil of her seemingly complete inability to do anything to help him raged within her, totally hidden from viewers.

Small wonder then, when she heard of a doctor who was having success in working with young people, including those with problems like her son's, that she grasped at the opportunity to get the two of them together.

Shame on those who are bearing false witness if that's what it is. You sound as if you are an official, iei approved spokesperson for Linda. If so, please just state for the record so I can take a closer interest in what you write.

Spokesperson or not I think it is a bit careless make definitive statements as to Linda's marital future. If Linda's turns around and marries the doctor that would not necessarily shed light on the problems she and Danny were having.

Danny divorced Linda and he bears full responsibility if she ends up in an adulterous marriage.

The person who made the statement (not Observer who merely copied it to BSDA) is in a sense, somewhat of an "approved spokesperson for Linda" since he is the moderator of the 3ABN forum on CA and checks things out with Linda as to their accuracy before saying them. 5

But I think the point is that, as Johann stated, both Linda and the doctor have plainly stated that they do not have intentions of marrying each other.

One thing confuses me in your statement above. about Danny bearing full responsibility "if she ends up in an adulterous marriage". Did you mean to say if she had --past tense-- married the doctor before Danny remarried? Since Danny has remarried now, how could Linda, who is still single, "end up" --future tense-- "in an adulterous marriage"?

Thanks in advance for clarifying your thought on this.

She is absolutely right according to what Jesus taught but most people overlook this. Divorce is NEVER recognized before the Creator because it is the death of a union. Even though you are divorced you are still married before the Creator. Jesus plainly said that if a man puts his wife away he causes her to commit adultery, unless he had divorced her because she had committed adultery. This passage has been erroneously interpreted to teach that the Creator approves of divorce if adultery occurred. All Christ was doing was clarifying who would be held responsible for the adultery. There is no such thing as acceptable divorce for biblical grounds. In other words, Danny bears responsibility for his adultery and for Linda's, should she remarry. 6

Do you believe that if Linda should remarry it would add to Danny's sins?

I can only expand on what Jesus is reported as saying. Since Danny put Linda away and it was not for marital infidelity her adultery will be his reponsibility. This is as plain as day. 6

This is true, as far as I am aware. The real issue is dollars and cents where the satellite provider was concerned. More money to be made with other programmers, not that 3ABN viewership had dropped - just more money elsewhere.

Truthfully, Johann, I don't know....move it yourself? Hire someone else to do so? Ignore it? Don't travel in that area to avoid the stink?

You are getting more and more interesting, Teresa - or amusing. Yes, someone saw that e-mail you are referring to and made the mistake, as you see it, of taking the wording at face value. That person had no idea the e-mail meant something else than what it said. Who could know that? As far as I know Linda had nothing to do with bringing this to BSDA, because she is never here! So you are making an argument that you know nothing about.

In passing I heard a spiritualistic medium speaking on the radio just as I am writing this. Demonic? Reminds me it was, according to Pastor John Lomacang, a demon that appeared at night to Brenda that started this whole thing back in 2004. It is amazing how many of you have followed the leading of that demon until this day! Back in 2004 I warned the leaders of 3ABN not to follow the leading of a demon, but I was told that the demon could be of a great benefit to 3ABN!

And it now even looks like we need a demon to interpret that e-mail you are referring to in order to understand the whole matter your way!

You couldn't be more wrong - but I think you know this deep down.

Solomon the wise said: "A man who digs a pit for others to fall into, will end up falling into it himself. And if a man rolls a stone on someone, the stone will roll back on him". Proverbs 26:27

Hi Teresa,

I am truly just trying to keep up here in a sincere search for the truth, and I think I have missed something somewhere. How has Eye Witness proven that Linda is involved here? This is an honest question.

Johann I have no idea what you are trying to say, other than, I guess you are hearing voices. If you need the voice to interpret the email then well I can't help you in that area either. The best way for you to read the email that Eye Witness has produced is maybe the same way I read it. Open minded. As far as Linda not being connected with all this, who are you trying to kid. There was a personal email sent to Linda that has been posted here. Now if she is never here, then there must be someone working very close to her, Gailon, Pickles and maybe even you, that she can use, to do her bashing. I could be mistaken but what other conclusion can be drawn? Got any ideas? Johann, Do you think Linda has been under any stress?

You know, sitting here thinking about the stress that you and the "family" have put Linda under the past almost 3 years, I've thought of something - IF she were going to do something because of it, it would not be so subtle as posting some email....and I think you said something about "I could be mistaken". REALLY? Did you really say that???? There are plenty of other "conclusions", but I think you have no real interest in the truth.I would rethink your assessment.

Uh Teresa, earlier today you were in LC talking about the people who were really trying to find out who you are. Well, I didn't have much time to read too many posts at work today, but since I have been home, I have read several posts where youare trying to that Sister is Linda, or somebody(not that it hasn't been said before). So now I think it is you(the latest team 3ABN) who has come to at least figure out if one of the pepole posting information is Linda, or acting as her agent. I don't think anyone would try to find who you are if you had not been trying to identify members here first.

> Danke Schon

Teresa, personally I believe you are Teresa Shelton, the writer of the email in question and as such know where all the bcc's went to with the obvious inclusion of "Eye Witness", but that is just my opinion. If you are trying to veil your identity with the inclusion of "Danke Schon" at the end of your post, suggesting that you are German, it doesn't fly for a number of reasons. One reason is that the word order mistakes or grammatical mistakes that would be typical in the posts of a native German speaking person are not there. In addition to that a German speaking person would not have written "Danke Schon" in the same manner that you have written it. The errors you have made in your posts are more indicative of a poorly educated American, rather than a foreigner whose mother tongue is not English.

Also, Teresa you keep ignoring my questions in another thread in regard to what you think I was implying Rick Shelton could write about his "father" if he choose to do so. Only someone in the Shelton family would have made the assumptions that you made in regard to what I had written, a friend of the Shelton family would have remained silent. That is a secret that you never should have so publicly alluded to in an open forum, if you were trying to keep your Shelton family identity a secret.

It appears that the Shelton family are closing ranks and trying to do all the damage control they can by attempting to draw our attention away from the main issues of what is being revealed about the Shelton brothers and like a magician trying to redirect our attention somewhere else, place the "blame" for the revelation on Linda. It appears that the Shelton's are trying to convince us that child molestation is not the crime, but that blowing the whistle on the alleged victimizer is the crime. Sorry, Danny, but I find such an attitude perverse coming from the midst of a self-professed Christian organization.

That person had no idea the e-mail meant something else than what it said. Who could know that? As far as I know Linda had nothing to do with bringing this to BSDA, because she is never here! So you are making an argument that you know nothing about.

Demonic? Reminds me it was, according to Pastor John Lomacang, a demon that appeared at night to Brenda that started this whole thing back in 2004. It is amazing how many of you have followed the leading of that demon until this day! Back in 2004 I warned the leaders of 3ABN not to follow the leading of a demon, but I was told that the demon could be of a great benefit to 3ABN!

Johann, I have heard references to this incident but have never heard the full story. Can you recount this demon story for me and others who do not know it?

Well, Teresa, let's take a look at the definition of this condition that you have invoked:

n.
1. Frozen precipitation in the form of white or translucent hexagonal ice crystals that fall in soft, white flakes.
2. A falling of snow; a snowstorm.
3. Something resembling snow, as:
a. The white specks on a television screen resulting from weak reception.
b. Slang Cocaine.
c. Slang Heroin.
v. snowed, snow·ing, snows
v.intr.
To fall as or in snow.
v.tr.
1. To cover, shut off, or close off with snow: We were snowed in.
2. Slang To overwhelm with insincere talk, especially with flattery.

Hmmmm....

Truth welcomes examination and doesn't need to defend itself, while deception hides in darkness and blames everyone else. Aunt B, 2007

(7) Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

Teresa, who is attempting to snow who?

I can understand how hard it must be to see a beloved family member in danger of being brought to justice for allegations that expose actions that are contrary to God's law. I can also understand how that beloved family member's accountability for the alleged indecent, abusive actions against children and young men would be minimized by his family due to the abuse that the beloved family member had suffered as a child. 7

I know that blood is thicker than water. But why make it thicker than the Living Water? By minimizing this brother's actions against his alleged victims, by attempting to cover up those alleged crimes by denial and intimidation, you are all in danger of experiencing a most deadly Drought! IMO 7

In the Save 3abn page/thread you will find where Gailon Joy posted a comment from Eye Witness' friends email. There are several posting from Eye Witness there. Eye Witness has stated that it was a personal email sent to Linda Shelton and it ended up on this forum. Sooo if the email ended up here, then either Linda is working closely with Gailon, Pickles and who knows who, or she is part of all this herself. Either way she is contributing to the Bashing. What is really sad is that I guess that she felt this personal email, which really wasn't anything, would be so proving to her/the case. Anyway that is where I am, but you will certainly want to read the documents and posts and see if you see it like I do.

Sorry, Mr. J. I haven't been around long enough to know one "camp" from another yet. I am still searching and reading and trying to catch up. I have some experience with 3ABN, and I truly believe in its ministry. However, my own time there raised some questions in my mind which is why I am here.

All I was trying to say to "Ms. Reiman" was that I empathize with "her" ability to express herself, especially if English is not her first language. Who knows - the English thing might just be a ploy. I believe that I am far behind on this unfolding story, so if my comments aren't appropriate, please accept my humble apologies. I am just snooping for the truth...

Sigh... many of my ancestors were German- speaking German/Prussian folk and I always got a kick over how they restructured their English sentences - "Up on the car you must get" for example, but I never picked up the language myself. My pitiful attempt at a translation of your statement comes up with "I think not that she speaks German...I understand this because of her faulty wording..." Am I even close?

Okay, you caught me! ☒

I've always enjoyed languages and have watched many subtitled German documentaries, so I guess I picked up a few words that way. What I think I do know is:

Ich = I nicht = not sie spricht deutsch = she speaks German werden = wording, I think

The rest I just guessed at. Guess you all could tell. ☒ rofl

Hey PB, I think you did pretty good!! My background is german, and you picked up more than I did - of course, I think I was not trying too hard either as the converstation was more fun in itself. But let this be a lesson to you all here, the people at BSDA are of the INTELLIGENT kind!! ☒

I think "werden" is a gramatically bent form of "to be". I couldnt tell you the correct grammar term for it though.

Johann, do you have any updates on how Linda is doing? Is she pleased with how the investigation is proceeding? How about the website?

Aw, thanks. I did hear German from time to time as a child but it didn't stick too well. One of my favorite stories about by great grandfather happened shortly after he moved his family out to California from North Dakota in the early part of the 20th century. He was driving his car into the garage when everyone inside the house heard him yelling (in German, of course) "Whoa! Whoa! Whoa!" followed by a huge crash as he drove through the back wall. He had only had the car for a little over a month and was still used to the team of horses that pulled the wagon on their farm, not the horses under the hood!

But now I have strayed ☒ ofl again.

I'm sure Johann can tell you some things with regard to Linda, but I can also tell you that she is doing very well! She is busy and doing things she has wanted to do for some time. She knows that life is not easy, but that God is good, and she trusts Him completely. Her faith has grown and it's a blessing to me. As for her personal website, she plans to update it soon. ☒

Liinda is still the remarkable woman she was for thousands of viewers around the world. She is more confident today that the time is approaching when not only her closest friends will believe she was wrongfully fired and dismissed as a wife and as a producer.

You will notice that even those of Danny's friends who appear here on the net are no longer attacking Linda the way they used to do, but they are merely trying to confuse things by stating that Danny and the Sheltons are not being treated as they "deserve"!

Hey, Sister, what's "the LC" where all of us German speakers can meet?

I do find it a little strange that a German speaker who has trouble with English would write "You've been snowed."

It took me a long time to understand English slang. I remmber being puzzled by "hot dogs" -- heisse Huende?? But maybe Teresa is much brighter than I.

Also, Teresa, wenn Du wuenscht, kannst Du gerne auf Deutsch schreiben. Einige von uns werden Dich gut verstehen, und wir koennen dann ueberzetzen.

People at 3ABN were wondering why Danny and Breda were spending so much time together... after she and Linda returned from Norway. So this had to be cleared.

Then one night at two in the mornig Brenda called Pastor John Lomacang, told him there was a demon in her house who had thrown down a basked. This made her so uncomfortable that she had to call the pastor to confess her sins.

She did not confess her own sins, but made, what I regard as false accusations against Linda, and these fictitious accusations started the whole affair. After John Lomacang had told me on the phone of this happenig, I called Dr. Walt Thompson and indicated that it would not be safe to let a demon direct such accusations against Linda, since I knew from my own experience that some of these accusations were utterly false.

But Walt insisted that the demon was to be trusted and that he could help 3ABN.

A private e-mail to Linda get's published and Linda had nothing to do with it? Bob e-mails questions to her and posts her replies, and she had nothing to do with it?

I guess we're all stupid again?!?

Somehow, www.lindashelton.org continually get's updated in sync with what is posted both here and on MSDAOL, and that has nothing to do with her either, and she knows nothing and contributes nothing, even though D. Mundall is a member here and on MSDAOl, and her website was registered by him, and he is the technical contact?!? rofl

I haven't noticed that. Who are you talking about when you say "Danny's friends"?

Just curious, for I was accused of that and have never even met him...

What on earth are you talking about? I just went to Linda's site, and it looks like it hasn't been updated since "Spring 2006"

> QUOTE

For what it's worth, the account of Brenda traveling with Linda and of Brenda having a frightening night encounter which caused her to call John Lomacang and "confess" Linda's "sins" sounds the same as when I first heard it more than two years ago. And that Brenda spent an uncommon amount of time with Dan appears to be common knowledge, seeing so many mentioned it. (Brenda seems hardly shy, having the gall to invite Dan to her birthday party without Linda, while Dan & Linda were still together.) 8

So what did youhear/read before this?

Ah, I get it! From my experience with you on the Maritime forum, I suppose you are right. Johann didn't use precisely the same words. And that apparently makes a very big difference to you.

But then, this isn't about being letter-perfect. We're more interested in accountability and transparency, even if that requires us to do think about what is said, rather than do a word-for-word comparison.

Hi Inga, LC is Live Chat. Sorry but I have to correct on something above. The birthday party was for Dan's birthday in May 2004, given by Brenda, but you were correct that Linda was not invited. But I guess since she was spending all that time alone, at night, in her apartment with Dan she was brazen enough to throw a birthday party for her "special friend" and not invite his wife. You would think that that would qualify as SPIRITUAL ADULTERY in Dan's book. Oh, sorry, I forgot that he writes the rules, he doesn't live by them.

Cindy, you told me you live with your mother. Does that mean that should you tell me more details of that later on, then you are merely spinning on to your original tale?

I may not have told in details of my phone conversations earlier. Am I therefore forbidden to give more details at a later date? Or is that merely just you, as you say? Does it chock you too much to learn how all of this happened?

Well, I didn't have much time to read too many posts at work today, but since I have been home, I have read several posts where youare trying to that Sister is Linda, or somebody(not that it hasn't been said before). So now I think it is you(the latest team 3ABN) who has come to at least figure out if one of the pepole posting information is Linda, or acting as her agent. I don't think anyone would try to find who you are if you had not been trying to identify members here first.

I have to say this is wrong.

As a member you can have whatever opinion your want, but as moderator,should it matter who did it first or who you agree with when it comes to correcting someone?

I know you are quick to say "bring in the next team", but unfortunately you only say that to those who ask questions and don't agree with all the Linda supporters. "Don't even try to figure out who Sister is, or you deserve to have people try to expose and identify you"? Why is it you can continually accuse others of who you think they are, and don't accept others doing this, unless they have your opinions, while finding fault with ONLY those who question who those you agree and sympathize with are?

Is saying this gonna get me in trouble?

Only if the rules are biased and don't belong equally to all, and you are above them.

Wow! I knew about the courteous demon who called several times and said "Please stop" showing your programs, but I didn't know of the one that threw down a basket at Brenda's apartment.

If Walt believes that this demon is to be trusted, I guess we'd better let him know that a demon over in Oregon told a former SDA pastor that "The Bottomless Pit" is in The Bermuda Triangle!

Interesting, in another thread Joe Smith and Eye Witness tell Calvin how he should run his forum and now you are telling Di how she should perform her duties as a moderator. Perhaps the three of you should get together and start your own online forum? Your rules, your way...

Uh No, Cindy saying this is not going to get you in "trouble". I really don't try too hard to figure out who anyone is. Fact is, as Admin, I don't have to, so much of what you addressed to Clay is pointless. The only thing I was saying to Teresa is that she was complaining about folks trying to find out who she was when she, like you, came on doing that same exact thing. Cindy you came asking for first hand evidence, when given it, you retreated into, "I don't know who you are because you use a screen name" Like they were just going to tell you who they are just to get your approval. Not!

But you are right, for the most part everybody' been tryin gto "guess who". I really don't care who everyone is individually. I just know when someone has been "sent" byt the "other side"(for lack of a better phrase). You all have the same agenda, come in, deny everything and then discredit the posters without responding to the posts. All you all have to do is answer with opposing evidence that discredits information already posted here. None of you have done that. Only tried to find our who everyone was, and discredit them, questioning folks christianity and Adventism(which isn't worth a hill of beans any), but it means a lot who put their trust in the church which claims to represent the same God. it is your lack of evidence which gives you away.

I have said before that I don't really care about vindicating Linda, but I really don't like the fact that th elikes of Danny is representing our church world wide. My first encounter with him was him sending a emial here filled with lies aobut how much he loved Linda and how much time they were spending together, etc. When his tired self was on his way to Guam for a quickie divorce. I really, really, hate being lied to especially when I haven't even asked you a question. So, I am holding Danny repsonsible for his actions, they really have nothing to do with Linda. So you can get off that kick, too. 9

Now, now youa re not in trouble, but at this point, you either need to post something to refute what you read here, because they are posting hard evidence, or just leave it alone.

Send in the next team, JK BTW, I only say the becuae Danny or a representative(with a screen name, but just be upfront) could just come here themselves, but they don't want to take the direct route. Thus, the line of supporter, many of who, oddly enough claiming to have no association with Danny other than a fan of 3ABN. However, as time goes on they seem to have information that "a faithful viewer" would not have. Plus, Danny started off lying to me, he has no trust here, I put nothing past him.
I have to say this is wrong.

As a member you can have whatever opinion your want, but as moderator,should it matter who did it first or who you agree with when it comes to correcting someone?

I know you are quick to say "bring in the next team", but unfortunately you only say that to those who ask questions and don't agree with all the Linda supporters. "Don't even try to figure out who Sister is, or you deserve to have people try to expose and identify you"? Why is it you can continually accuse others of who you think they are, and don't accept others doing this, unless they have your opinions, while finding fault with ONLY those who question who those people are?

Is saying this gonna get me in trouble?

Only if the rules are biased and don't belong equally to all, and you are above them.

I agree this whole identity game is tiresome and gone on far enough. I found it amusing at first but not anymore. So everybody STOP the accusing and implying the identity of someone no matter how subtle or boldly done. I am beginning to think that some of you have an agenda to seek the identity of other, I will ban you from BSDA if I continue to suspect you of this.

Everyone here can be as private or open with their identify as they want to be. My only requirement upon registration is that you identify your gender, THAT IS ALL and it will have to be good enough for everyone else too.

Now back to the topic at hand, what ever it was, but I know it was not this.

OOPs! That was a "senior moment" I'm afraid. Instead of "her birthday party" I should have written "her birthday party for Dan." In my book, the critical detail was that she invited Dan without Linda -- which was pretty brazen by any standards.

Thanks, Johann. ☒ You mean I get an 'A' for that? ☒ (I didn't check for the correct Umlaute, so had to use extra e's to help me out.) So Teresa can be assured that if she writes in her native German, at least a couple of us can translate, right? ☒

Johann might be helpful for you to read:

What constitutes the sin against the Holy Spirit???? It is willfully attributing to Satan the work of the Holy Spirit. For example, suppose that one is a witness of the special work of the Spirit of God. He has convincing evidence that the work is in harmony with the Scriptures, and the Spirit witnesses with his spirit that it is of God. Afterward, however, he falls under temptations; pride, self-sufficiency, or some other evil trait, controls him; and rejecting all the evidence of its divine character, he declares that that which he had before acknowledged to be the power of the Holy Spirit was the power of Satan. It is through the medium of His Spirit that God works upon the human heart; and when men willfully reject the Spirit and declare it to be from Satan, they cut off the channel by which God can communicate with them. . . .For a time, persons who have committed this sin may appear to be children of God; but when circumstances arise to develop character and show what manner of standing they are of, it will be found that they are on the enemy's ground standing under his black banner.5T634

Eye Witness,

I find it interesting that you assume that Johann, a pastor of 50 years' or so experience and a true eye witness of the events that precipitated Dan's reprehensible course, would not know what constitutes the sin against the Holy Spirit.

But I ask you to consider this:
What would you call the practice wilfully attributing to God the work of Satan or even one's own manipulations?

What do manufactured 'miracles' to support one's own agenda have to do with the subject?

Does the Holy Spirit convict persons who commit adultery?

If one commits adultery and shows no signs of remorse but parades his new relationship as a blessing from God, what evidence does that give in light of your quote?

Can one so blatantly trifle with God, His work and His law and still expect to maintain His blessings without repentance?

Is financial prosperity ultimate proof of God's blessings?

Can people be converted in spite of the messenger's apostasy? Or are conversions ultimate proof of the messenger's special standing with God?

Does the end justify the means?

Please answer these questiosn before launching any more missives/missiles agains posters here.

I suppose the answers to some of these depend upon those of whom you speak. We know that there are some people that don't abide by the same rules as others. I would like to hear his answers to these...

It would be a great help if you wold point out to me in which way you think this applies to what I was saying? What work of the Holy Spirit to you claim that I attributed to Satan?

If a Shelton family member were to believe that many of these allegations are true (as there are), they either shut their mouth, eyes, or both, or live in fear of being branded an outsider. Period. They would never be allowed to talk enough to convince anyone else.

Unfortunately that won't happen anytime soon. I know I have personally brought something to the attention of a Shelton & I had proof of it but was told because I personally didn't see it (my girls were both witnesses to it though) that it was just heresay & nothing was ever done about it. This person still was allowed to be up front in church, tell the childrens story, etc. & patted on the back so to speak. So as far as they are concerned they are above God's laws & it don't apply to them. The Shelton Gang just make me sick in what they do to others & are allowed to get by with it. It is high time they have to pay the price for what they do to others.

And it's absolutely NO different if you are married to one either(vrs an employee, etc.)...just ask Bear or Linda (among many others).

I hope that not being believed didn't cause your girls too much pain. That can be a hard thing to get over. Just keep reminding them that God knows the truth and that you are proud that they told you.

Both of my girls are older now but at that time they were like 15 & 17. They knew that it would likely be swept under the carpet when they told me all the things that went on. What a witness to our young people huh. Papertigers is one of my older daughters but she hasn't posted on here in a while & she used to work at 3ABN as well. My oldest worked there too & lets just say she came away with a very bitter taste in her mouth from it all. So they have have had their share of being around both Kenny & Danny Shelton. As long as you are on "their side" & go along with what they are doing or what they want you to do all is well but heaven forbid you go against them in the slightest way you don't stand a chance at all.

I have experienced the same attitude towards sin at high level at 3ABN. There is reluctance to expel sin from the camp unless it is of a personal benefit to the leadership.

How sad.

My brother in law was a big fan of DS, and had once been his academy dean. I guess in some ways I'm glad he passed away before all these events took place. I'm sure it would have saddened his heart to hear of the misdeeds at 3abn. But at the same time my BIL was a very wise person when it came to dealing with personal issues, I wonder what advice he might have given Danny.

Thinking our loud on a snowy frosty Michigan morning,

> What constitutes the sin against the Holy Spirit???? It is willfully attributing to Satan the work of the Holy Spirit. For example, suppose that one is a witness of the special work of the Spirit of God. He has convincing evidence that the work is in harmony with the Scriptures, and the Spirit witnesses with his spirit that it is of God. Afterward, however, he falls under temptations; pride, self-sufficiency, or some other evil trait, controls him; and rejecting all the evidence of its divine character, he declares that that which he had before acknowledged to be the power of the Holy Spirit was the power of Satan. It is through the medium of His Spirit that God works upon the human heart; and when men willfully reject the Spirit and declare it to be from Satan, they cut off the channel by which God can communicate with them. . . .For a time, persons who have committed this sin may appear to be children of God; but when circumstances arise to develop character and show what manner of standing they are of, it will be found that they are on the enemy's ground standing under his black banner.5T634

How right you are eye witness. Now, apply that to 3ABN and the working there, and you have summarised it beautifully. Spot on.

HOTY you must of very narrowly looked at the post to Johann about the sin against the Holy Spirit! Those were not my words, those words were pinned from the hand of SOP. Now the application may very well fit our 50 year pastor and if so then it would prove that we are not, "once saved always saved" my friend.
So you, I and Johann must always remember that we can be controlled by the adversary to bid his doing.

I was wondering how long it would take before the "if you disagree with our opinion, you're not going against us; you are going against EGW/SOP and, by extension, against God himself" card would be played...

Richard I am sure your brother in law would of encouraged DS and all the other workers at 3ABN to keep on keeping on with the work of spreading the Gospel. As we know a VERY WISE person would never come to this site and believe all this trash and move on, like its truth. Obviously this site has proven itself and its leaders to be FAKE when they don't meet deadlines, such as January exposure, Pickle's big statement and there is no Gag order and the gagged is quiet. The documents you find could have been put together by, well lets face it, now days a 10 year old. There are no records with any OFFICAL AUTHORITIES, only documents from a one, self made reporter, called Gailon Joy. Who is apparently a FELON! One post its Mollie, then Tommy, then Danny, then Shelly, then the pastoral staff, in their eyes every person at 3ABN is bad, and should be removed. Jellousy is what I call it. You know tearing others down so they can feel good about themselves. The screen on their computer may just one day become a mirror of themselves.

Why do you avoid the question I asked you in this connection?

I do not see the connection that you seem to imply. Can't you just tell me?

You know what, Ms. Eyewitness? I am fairly new to this board and have stopped myself from posting several times because I really had nothing substantive to say since I don't know enough about the situation, but this time you have hit a nerve!! First of all, I don't recall anyone setting any "deadlines" as you say. Perhaps a "plan", but as we all know, plans can change by the hour. If yours don't, then you must be a robot.

Second, I consider myself a fairly wise person. I only started reading BSDA a couple of weeks ago BECAUSE OF THINGS I WAS HEARING FROM 3ABN!! And I don't take everything written here as truth. But from what I have read thus far, there are some serious allegations coming to light here that involve 3ABN. And as a 3ABN supporter, I have a right to search out all I can with a fervent prayer for discernment. To me, documents and letters provide a great deal of evidence. They could be forged, as you say, but that would be fairly easy to dispute by simply asking the writers for another, notarized copy.

And I had to chuckle at your slam on Mr. Pickle. I don't know him at all, but your statement that "Pickle is in disguise, for the most part he is a cucumber" reminded me of grade school days. Thanks for the chuckle!

I understand the frustrations in both "camps" and I admire the fervor with which each defends their version of the truth. But let's take a step back here from the name calling and cheap shots at each other and focus on finding the real truth. Remember that there are three sides to every story - his, hers and the truth. Thus far I am fairly convinced that there is probably some aspect of truth to both sides of the Danny/Linda saga, but that is none of my business. I care about 3ABN and the damage these new allegations could do to the ministry. Let's remember that Dan Shelton and 3ABN are two completely separate entities. While there is no doubt in my mind that God used Dan Shelton to build 3ABN, that does not make them one and the same.

OK - I guess I'll get off my soapbox now. Thanks for listening, and may the Lord's will be done.

I doubt very much that you could convince DS of that.

I'm convinced you're from nowhere other than Southern Illinois as I have never seen anyone write "would of" instead of "would have." Perhaps you are even from 3ABN? ☒

Actually my BIL was involved with teens his entire adult life, primarily in disciplining them. I think he would have been one to send DS a letter pointing out his sins, and ask him to repent.

So you are pointing out the perceived faults of those on here while overlooking the child molestations, the adultery, the non-Biblical divorce etc of those at 3abn. Talk about blinders.

It would seem that if you can prove any of the allegations presented here as false you would. Instead you play the diversion game by going after the messenger instead of addressing the message. Typical of those that that can't disprove something.

Sorry... this is not court... and you are not the judge. And not very many sins of this world are taken to court to be proven. Scripture says... in the mouth of two or three witnesses... and it also says that God is the judge. And it also holds those who know of wrongdoing to report it. That is all that is happening here.... those who know are reporting. So don't go throwing this "presumed innocent" garbage around here.... we know too many who are reporting to buy that particular piece of smoked dead fish.

Yes, Richard, it's typical, indeed.

Eye witness, how about it?

There are several eye witnesses -- victims, that is -- who have told their experience, at tremendous cost to themselves.

You just want to dismiss these until they have gone through a court process. This is not how the court of heaven works!

Do you ever think of that?

We've been off-topic for a while. ofl

Let's get back to the topic of the Save3ABN.com web site. I think we can do something positive to help Gailon Joy out. And I think that's worthwhile, because that site is a good site to send someone who would be turned off by all the talk here but could draw his/her own conclusions, given documented facts.

Something missing so far on Gailon's site is a timeline of events that would be telling, without any other details given. There's a thread on the Maritime SDA forum where questions are asked and submissions taken to establish a timeline of events associated with 3ABN over the last several years and even earlier, if relevant to current events.

I thought someone here mentioned something regarding the following:
Date Brandy Elswick arrived at 3ABN.
Dates Brandy Elswick actually worked at 3ABN & where she worked.
Date Brandy Elswick moved into the house opposite Danny's house.
Even approximate dates would be helpful.

In juxtaposition with other dates, these dates might just tell their own story.

Also helpful would be just when Linda moved away from 3ABN, i.e. out of the trailer Danny "fixed" for her (bugged with electronic listening devices).

[quote name='Johann' date='Jan 18 2007, 10:58 AM' post='170953']
Liinda is still the remarkable woman she was for thousands of viewers around the world. She is more confident today that the time is approaching when not only her closest friends will believe she was wrongfully fired and dismissed as a wife and as a producer.

You will notice that even those of Danny's friends who appear here on the net are no longer attacking Linda the way they used to do, but they are merely trying to confuse things by stating that Danny and the Sheltons are not being treated as they "deserve"![/quote]

Well Johann, that ended all to quickly, didn't it? For that past few posts by eyewitness and bystander have done just that, "their" old tactics...only I think they truely do underestimate the people that read here - those people won't be TOLD what to believe any longer, as if they are watching a TV screen and believing every word they are fed without questioning and thinking for themselves (very dangerous to put your mind in someones "hands" like that!). All have to make up their own minds with the information they can collect from those that have been there, and done that. Since they can't seem to SHOW US THE PROOF, they use their words of hate and jealousy instead. Talk about "uplifting" and "encouraging"??? What do they have in their hands now?

Wwjd, I appreciate your answer to my question about 3ABN housing. I even apprecieate your defense of Brandy. Now I have another question. What do you know about the 3ABN demon? Can you tell us the date the incident with Brenda and the basket or luggage took place and why Brenda didn't think it just accidently fell off the shelf because it wasn't put away carefully? I also wondered why she didn't think a cut or tear could have been there when she put it up and she just hadn't noticed it.

Lurker, I am very interested in answers to this, as well. Hope we will get some.

Isa 58:6-7 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? (7) Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

I say let's get back to the topic of "What is happening with Linda?"

Some may remember what was published on the http://www.lindashelton.org website for the first 15 mos about her calling.

L.S. wrote "the Holy Spirit drew so near to my heart and said, "I'm not finished with you yet, you will work for Me." and "The Lord has laid on my heart to begin a production studio which will produce Christ-centered programs on a full-time basis. These programs can be shown on other networks and local Christian stations."

Those who remember this, may have questions like me.

I am wondering what happened to any donations? and how the production studio is coming along?

From September 17, 2004 - December 01, 2005 this is what was published on her website:

Q: What are your plans for the future?

A:... I really felt that my ministry was over. But one evening the Lord brought a song to my remembrance that I had not sung in at least 15 years. The song says, "Lord, please move me with compassion for the lost I pray; for the millions who are lost and cannot find their way. Melt my calloused heart with love no matter what the cost. Lord, please move me with compassion for the lost." As I softly sang the verses and choruses of this song, the Holy Spirit drew so near to my heart and said, "I'm not finished with you yet, you will work for Me." The Lord has confirmed this with other incidents as well. I told the Lord that especially under the circumstances, He would have to open the doors and "clean up the mess." He said he would do this.

As well as writing the newsletters and magazines at 3ABN, I was also in charge of the TV production studios since the very beginning of 3ABN. I formatted new programs and chose hosts and guests for the programs seen on 3ABN. Additionally, I was directly involved in the management of the 3 production studios and the Production Truck, which obtained programming on the road. Especially considering my experience is unique in the SDA Church, I feel that I need to use this experience for the Lord. The Lord has laid on my heart to begin a production studio which will produce Christ-centered programs on a full-time basis. These programs can be shown on other networks and local Christian stations. One thing I learned at 3ABN is that there is never too many Christian programs. There is a huge demand for high quality Christ-centered programs that bring God's message to the hearts of searching people

Already I have been approached by some who are willing to support this production studio. Although their funding is not available right now, their desire to help has encouraged me so much...and I'm ready to get started. It is estimated that the legal work to obtain a non-profit status in Illinois will cost approximately 5-6 thousand dollars. This is the first step. If the Lord is laying a burden on your heart to help with this stepping stone of faith, please send your donations to P.O. Box 2202, Carbondale, IL 62902. THANK YOU so much!!------------- end quote

On December 01, 2005 the webpage was changed with no explanation (that I am aware of). It now reads:

Q: What are you doing now and what are your plans for the future?

A: Ministry is what my life is about. I go where the Lord opens the doors in a speaking, singing and ministering.ministry.

It sounds like she's rather busy.

Considering all that I have read here from the 3ABN accusers about how she has been persecuted and blocked from engagements,and also considering those who may have sent donations to Linda, I would like to hear what those who know her and are in contact with her know about all this.

I suppose asking her yourself would be a good start. Her e-mail address should still be on her website.

Why don't you ask her?

The greatest want of the world is the want of men-- men who will not be bought or sold, men who in their inmost souls are true and honest, men who do not fear to call sin by its right name, men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole, men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall. {Ed 57.3}
But such a character is not the result of accident; it is not due to special favors or endowments of Providence. A noble character is the result of self-discipline, of the subjection of the lower to the higher nature--the surrender of self for the service of love to God and man. {Ed 57.4}

I agree! She is busy, and I think it's a great thing for her! I like seeing her excited about possibilities and the invitations she has received! I'm personally excited about some things coming up for her! There is nothing like God's timing!

As you can see it was Danny Shelton who sent me this letter from Brenda. I was wondering why? Was there a special reason why Danny needed this verification?

Dear Linda,

I am writing to you because I would like you to hear the truth about some misconceptions you may have regarding my marriage to Tim. I received a call from someone who spoke with you personally, and they said that you specifically told them that Tim and I are divorced and that Danny and I were having an affair.

Here is the truth:

1. Tim and I are happily married and we are definitely NOT divorced nor are we planning a divorce. We have a loving Christ centered home and we love each other very much. We believe that God brought us together and we plan to be together till death do us part or until Jesus comes....whichever come first.

2. Your ex-husband, Danny Shelton and I have never had an affair nor are we thinking about having an affair, not in the past, present or future! I would be willing to swear in a court of law, that I have NOT had an affair with Danny or anyone else. The only person Danny has ever talked about loving was you, and I don't believe that he has had an affair with anyone! I believe he was faithful to you the entire time you were married, both in a physical and spiritual sense.

3. As you know, Danny and I have known each other all our lives and he is like a brother to me. My mom and dad think of him as one of their sons. The ONLY man that I have romantic feelings for is my husband Tim.

I hope this sets the record straight. Now that you know the truth, I would appreciate it if you would refrain from spreading lies and rumors. Linda I love you very much and I cherish many warm and happy memories of our times spent together. We once shared a special friendship and it hurts me to think that you could even possibly think that I would be involved with your husband! Nothing could be farther from the truth! Someday I hope you will realize that I am not your enemy. I wish you only the best and I pray that someday soon when Jesus comes in the clouds of glory, that we will be neighbors together in heaven.

May God bless you,

Your sister in Christ,

Brenda

Johann,

Thank you for sharing this.

How do you feel about Brenda's statement? Is she telling the truth?

Truth welcomes examination and doesn't need to defend itself, while deception hides in darkness and blames everyone else. Aunt B, 2007

Isa 58:6-7 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? (7) Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

Truth has been a scarce commodity in most of all that has come from that camp, even from their pastor, who should be a boulder of truth to his flock. This is why I plead with them to seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all the other things shall be added in the wake of these troubles.

I believe if you will search BSDA pages you will find the answer to the question of where Brenda lived (and lives) with her husband, and where he was in relation to where she was when she was at 3abn. (And you'll also probably find a few other interesting story pieces here and there.)

Johann, Isn't it possible that DS fabricated this letter? or possibly instructed brenda to write it? somehow it just does't sound like the way brenda would phrase things.

Never mind the hours Danny spent with Brenda, the main thing is did Brenda talk to Danny for more than 10 minutes. How many minutes did Brenda talk to Danny? And since it bothered Danny's spouse that Brenda was talking to Danny just as Nathan's doctor talking to Linda bothered Linda's spouse, was Danny willing to stop talking to Brenda? Why should we believe Brenda's claim that she had no romantic feelings for Danny and that he was like a brother to her but we are not supposed to believe Linda's claim that she had no romantic feelings for the doctor and that he was a friend? And doesn't that kind of thing, talking, inevitably turn into a physical relationship as the counellors were supposed to have said?

Did they commit spiritual adultry? We all know that TALKING is a bad thing. Was their talking brought up at a board meeting? Did Walt write a letter to them about their talking?

It appeared to me that Brenda was fabricating quite a few things for Danny in connection with this whole affair. I know that Danny made Linda sign some documents that he had dictated and were sent to me to give a false impression of what was going on. One of these documents had to do with Spiritual Adultery. 6

She asked you: " How do you feel about Brenda's statement? Is she telling the truth?"

IOW: Are you trying to present to this forum that Danny Shelton and Brenda Walsh had an affair?

You constantly insinuate things and then when asked about it, you can't just come right out and answer the question, but always end up insinuating something else, or accusing someone else , or even the one who asked you the question, instead. (in this case it's the Pastor)What is up with you? "cogito eggo sum" I think therfore I am a waffle?

May I suggest to you that the reason the e-mail you quoted was sent to you was so that you could do the decent thing and talk to Linda and stop helping her to spread rumors and false accusations?

Obviously it did no good, here you still are doing the same.

Didn't the rumor that Brandi moved to Thompsonville immediatly following the divorce originate with you also?

These private emails that Linda is making public do little to vindicate her. To the casual observer of this very messy and public divorce, these letters raise more questions in this he said/she said drama. Linda comes across as the one who as not moved on after three years that is wearing old and tired for many people.

In reading these emails from Danny on save3abn, the one consistence thing throughout is Danny's concern and believe that his wife was spending far too much time on the phone with the Dr. For you insiders, you say this is all a smoke screen, a convenience excuse to rid of his wife, doesn't appear that way. So was Linda spending hours a day on the phone, and why? Was she being discreet or openly taunting her husband? When you know something is a hot button with your spouse to the point that it could jeopardize your marriage and your job, after warning by several people around you, why would you continue to do it?

I think Linda would have done better by taking the high road, moving on with her life, her ministry if that is what she wants to do. Let others bash around this story. Now she comes across as another bitter, revengeful ex-wife.

One question, Calvin, is whether Linda is the one who has made these emails public. That site has explicitly marked some of them as not coming from her.

You've asked some good questions: How long was she talking on the phone, and why?

John Lomacang, Walt, Hal, and Danny have all claimed that they can prove the length, frequency, and/or content of these phone calls, and yet they refuse to do so.

Still, the questions remain. I asked a BSDA'er yesterday (not in PM) why Linda didn't just stop if her husband wanted her to stop. She said that a mother will do anything for her child.

But one thing is clear: Danny had no grounds for divorce, and even Walt claims that a year after the crisis, he still had no evidence that Linda had committed adultery. 6

How long and how frequent were those phone calls, and what was the content of those conversations, and to whom were they all made? I'd like to know that myself.

it's seems easy to assume that the evidence they claim to have on Linda is probably very questionable as to proving their cause and also questionable in the legal means in which it was obtained.
--->and to Calvin<--- i'm not sure why you criticize Linda assessing she is carrying on after 3yrs. when the Danny hasn't shut up to this day. Also, the poor girl was coerced (sp) into a gag order or walk out empty handed. I seriously question whether this bashing of Linda by Danny is still continuing. Danny when on for 40 minutes last month on live 3abn about the lies being told about him, but made no mention of Linda,. No mention of Linda on 3abn website, no mention of Linda in 3abn World magazine (my sister-law is on the cover, BTW). The public does not see any Linda bashing, as least not anymore.... and please don't tell me Danny is spending time staying one step ahead of Linda making contacts to keep her from working, he has remarried and moved on, time for Lind to do the same.

Calvin, if you consider the date on at least the email posted here>>>>>Email You will find that it is well after the time Linda has signed the gag order, and once again only Danny's side. He has plenty of time and opportunity to "set the stage" as he pleases. He said showed concnern in this email. Once again this email is sent, when Linda cannot respond. I doubt she would authorize the release of such a one sided account. This is why you have to look beyond the surface. And once again, I owuld have to ask where Danny was for Linda to hae these huge amounts of time for the phone, trips, allt aht he claims? Nobody else is aksing that question,a nd nobody has yet to answer.

Calvin,

Are you saying that we should cease these discussions about Danny, Linda, Tommy, 3ABN, etc. and let them all get on with their lives?

IMO the letters DO NOT make Linda look bad... to me it shows that Danny was not handling his business.... for if he was Linda would not have been spending lots of time on the phone with a person trying to get help for her son or processing that information..... Had he Danny been the husband he should have been, he would have been that listening ear.... Then he had the nerve to get ticked cause his wife was spending time on the phone.....

He should have stepped up and been a man.... instead of parading around with his short self trying to be emperor of all he surveyed, he should have attempted to do all he could humanly do for his stepson.....

So for me it shows that Danny came up short...... then wanted to blame Linda......

To the casual observer of this very messy and public divorce, these letters raise more questions in this he said/she said drama. Linda comes across as the one who as not moved on after three years that is wearing old and tired for many people.
> In reading these emails from Danny on save3abn, the one consistence thing throughout is Danny's concern and believe that his wife was spending far too much time on the phone with the Dr. For you insiders, you say this is all a smoke screen, a convenience excuse to rid of his wife, doesn't appear that way. So was Linda spending hours a day on the phone, and why? Was she being discreet or openly taunting her husband? When you know something is a hot button with your spouse to the point that it could jeopardize your marriage and your job, after warning by several people around you, why would you continue to do it?
> I think Linda would have done better by taking the high road, moving on with her life, her ministry if that is what she wants to do. Let others bash around this story. Now she comes across as another bitter, revengeful ex-

> wife.

Calvin you nailed it. Not to mention, that these emails only confirm DS's statements all along.
1. He did not want to get a rid of a wife he dearly loved. Proven by the fact of his email to her of sept, months after the divorce where he calls her Doll, and tells her that it is still not too late for their marriage or her ministry at 3abn. If he was looking for a way to dump her why on earth would he still be offering reconciliation that long after the divorce?

2. The emails prove that he believed 100% that LS was being unfaithful with the Doc. The frustration, anger and hurt show through.

3.The ongoing exchange of emails to Johann and the doc and LS does not point, at all, to a man who was looking for excuses to get rid of his wife. Quite the opposite. They prove that he was fighting tooth and nail to keep her and to get her out of this relationship.

4. The emails that warn her that she is being watched is completely opposite of someone wanting to "set up" their spouse. Had he wanted excuses to dump her, he would have never told her she was being watched. Anyone can see he was just desperately trying to get her away from the Doc.

5. The big hoopla here over the chocolate covered poop originated from her reference of the Doc being chocolate cake to her. Again, confirmed in the emails.

I feel like I am living in the twilight zone. While you all are going on about poop, the emails posted to go against Ds, actually exonerate him!!! No one would keep fighting like that for their wife if they didn't love her and only wanted to get rid of her. How could not see those emails as confirmation that DS was telling the truth all along?

again you are entitled to your opinion.... even when you are wrong..... and full of.... propaganda..... for the record... Calvin can read it and come to that conclusion, I disagree with his conclusion and have shared my opinion from what I have read in those letters.... you however Bystander are simply wrong...

Well Darryl, let me say that if we stopped the discussion on BSDA today, I would not miss it or complain. But it is not really about want I think is interesting to discussion. We rarely close topics here, but let them die a nature death for lack of interest, so the same will apply wit 3abn....and occasionally I will take off my administrator hat and chime in.

You should feel like you are in the twilight zone. Exonerate him? ARE YOU KIDDING? You appear to be mixed up. You can't save DS from his own words. He is who he is. But, no doubt you will continue, and my guess is 'it' will get worse before it get's better.

It is clear, however, that he has to come up with some kind of spin on these since they are out.... it is highly unlikely he will ever admit to any wrong he has done, so his only other option is to get even more creative to make it all look OK. I would expect nothing more or less from him. He's in pretty deep, and it's not hidden 'behind the scenes' any more. Nothing like the real deal!

Calvin,

I personally heard Danny in that 40 minutes on the Feb. 15, 2007, broadcast say that the "little group" was conspiring to put 3ABN under the control of Linda. There may have been other insinuations too, but that is one I remember.

Also on Dec. 31, Larry Ewing bashed Tommy's predecessor, which would have to be Linda.

Calvin,

I know that one positive result of allowing the 3abn topic to continue is that many more people will come to BSDA that might never have heard about it otherwise and that many of those people, like myself, will be here posting long after the topic is of any interest because of the friendships and all the rest BSDA has to offer.

I'm sorry, BS, but an email dated almost a year after Linda signs gag order and Danny himself has initiatea quickie Guam divorce, just aint' workin' for me. These are still Danny's words, which are contrary to his own actions. All day long actions speak louder than words. Those actions being:

1) A gag order to ensure Linda's silence - If she was indeed guilty why does she have to keep quiet while he tells everybody who will listen?
2) A-quickie Guam dvorce
3) The almost immediate appearqance and courtship with Brandi
4) The equally quicke wedding to Brandi before the ink was dry after winning the case when Linda contested the Guam divorce(It is Linda who looks more like someone wanting their marriage since she contested the divorce, BTJM)

Now, BS I keep telling you at least in my case it is Danny's actions which condemn him in my eyes. His actions are not the one of a man who dearly loved his wife or wanted his married. However, they are the actions of a man who wanted out, and "found" an "excuse". Twist a few facts, and Voila!! Once again,I amasking.....where was Danny when Linda had ALL this time to be on the phone, travel, etc. Where was Danny when she was seeing about he son? Why would she even need to reach outside of he marriage for support? It is these unanswered questions and Danny's actions that have brought me to the conclusions that I have now. Now, about Linda, I don't know. I gues when and if the time comes we will see about that. However, Whilst Danny has ensured that he would be the only one talking, then he is the only one to ask.

We would do well to learn from those that have been fooled by their version of truth. BS/DS and groupies are about fooling and distracting you into seeing things from the view they want seen - this has little to do with helping you to see truth - "their truth" has nothing to do with the facts of the matter - their goal appears to convince the gullable public to see things the most convenient way for them.

When I read Danny's letters to Linda, I am sorry but all I see is a man wanting to control his wife. I keep asking why is it that he makes absolutely no mention of Nathan in these e-mails? Why? Was he not concerned in the slightest bit? Sorry I see no trace of a man wanting his wife back because he loved her.

Well, you have to take into consideration that Danny and his supporters are maintaining that Linda is behind everything be said against him and 3ABN so far. They believe her to be the source of all if not most of the info getting out, or at least they want for it to look as if she is. So when he refers to a small group, he means a small group "encouraged" and "manipulated" by Linda.

I dont know that they actually believe Linda to be the source of the info...

they do, however, want the casual observer to believe that she is... whether she actually is or not...

I am not that sure they believe it either. I think they are playing a game with the comditions of the gag order. Making Danny look, once again, like the kind, gnereous long soffering, now ex-husband.

The Emails make me wonder if he was always like that during the marriage? And if he was.... wow.... My sympathies to the wives. I couldn't live like that - at least, not happily.

> The Emails make me wonder if he was always like that during the marriage? And if he was.... wow.... My sympathies to the wives. I couldn't live like that.

But still some people insist they know exactly how loving and kind Danny is without ever experiencing how it is to be his wife.

Yes, I got it from Linda, and yet I did not quite understand it until my wife explained it to me. She talked to Linda. They went on walks together, they went into the woods picking blueberries together.

I must admit that Irmgard ignored it when Linda said to her, "Don't tell Johann!" From Linda's experience no man would understand a number of the things she had to suffer. Those spinning around Danny as the center of the whole universe, understand nothing of what she suffered. 4

Then people like you see it immediately. There is something in a Divine relationship they may never have experienced.

I was reminded of this through a conversation I had with a member who is forced to associate with a distant church rather than their local church. Even though a couple of pastors have dealt with the problem and concluded that a female church member had done what was correct and in accordance with our church manual, certain males insist that she has lied. Why? It seems evident that this is because she is a woman, and in cases like this you must trust the man, even if this case does not deal with sexual morals. So the case is splitting a church.

I do not have this in writing, bur I recall clearly that at the beginning Danny maintained that people would believe he was telling the truth, and not Linda - because she is a woman. And he also maintained that this is why he would have no problem divorcing Linda. 6

Do you females on this board feel that males have a patent on truth?

Pickle, please.

Has she protested or complained that you are publishing them, or asked you to remove them???

Are you all working with her, and vice versa, or not?

Any way you cut it they came from Linda. They were private e-mails between the two of them. Watchbird already posted they were forwarded to her, and Johann has too. No one could have got them without her giving them to them. I say that because it's rather hard to believe those who are supporting her stole them from her,, especially as no one has claimed that to this day.

Anyway you look at it, it seems she was bringing a whole lot of people in between her and her husband behind his back. You don't see her doing it openly as no one elses name are in the headers...

That doesn't seem to me, to show a whole lot of concern or respect, to say the least..

Did Danny? It would be a lot different if we had an email from him espressing his displeasure but we, don't. We know why Linda is Silent, Why is he, He's been talking all this time.

Are you all working with her, and vice versa, or not?

She(Linda) is not the only one who had copies of these emails...remember there were two of them in the conversation, one, however, under s gag order..........You act as if they left Danny's possesion once he sent them....... Not to mention a fe bcc's along the way. You know the folks filling' you in really ought to do a better job ☒

I, too have questions.

Where was Danny's "stopwatch", I.E. the one he used to time Linda's phone calls, where as the concern when he was spending long hours in person, not on t he phone, with Brenda, at midnight and beyond, at the church? 8

Where was all his concern about what looks good and what doesn't look good all those years, late at night, when he was in Alyssa's bedroom? 11

(To say nothing of the 7 other women who have spoken out.)

I do notice that Danny's emails sound more "manipulating and taunting than sorrowful". Already his method is to try to "belittle" his so-called "competition". Danny refused for years to offer help to Nathan. What happened to the theme of "mending hearts and broken people"? He could have started at home. Any truly understanding Christian husband "who has done his homework" and who has given the occupants of his own home the 'feeding and the nurture" he should have, will continue to support his wife and her son, rather than casting them aside and creating a void for someone else to fill. His conscience was full of condemnation for him to ignore her needs and hurl huge stones at her. All this was done after he had already decided to get rid of her. Carefully planned and carried out. It came as a shock to Linda, who knew by now that Brenda, Mollie, and Kay had betrayed her. All this email stuff is window dressing after the fact designed to say, "See I did try to get her back". He has found out that he cannot un-ring a bell. 12 6

Linda absolutely has to clear her name. You cannot throw gasoline on a flower, light it, and then expect it to flourish again. Fortunately, her roots are deep in Jesus, so she will survive.

There have been other ministries where someone has had to be forgiven. And they have asked and have made a comeback. But Linda doesn't deserve the condemnation, the penalty, nor a plea bargain. She was / is not guilty as charged. Sure, it would be easier to let it go, but your name is never cleared, ever. Danny threw the fuel, lit the match, and burned her very bad. The very least he could do is to apologize for that much, guilty or not. He certainly does expect everyone to "forget" his weaknesses even without confessing or repenting. Has he done the right thing?

For Linda to "move on" and let it go, is to admit guilt. Personally, I would never do that myself, never!

Danny has NOT moved on. He is more scared right now, than he has ever been since the investigation into his first wife's death. And all this came about because he has thumbed his nose at all his viewers. All he cares about is Danny. He admits that Brandy has been "after hin for 17 years" and that flatters him. He expects Linda to ignore that as well. And just because some friendly Pharisees in the local conference have "OKed" his remarriage he assumes he's "home free". 6

Danny has a way of generating more questions every time he draws a breath.

Linda, better than anyone els,e knows that these emails are heartless attempts to manipulate her as he always has. Look at all the little catch phrases he still uses with her. Because they worked before, ... but now her eyes are opened.

Do you honestly believe that if all this were totally reversed that Danny would be ignoring the slander and defamation if it were hurled at him? Not on your life, he wouldn't. The reason he can no longer come up with any darts to hurl at Linda is because his quiver is empty. But it still quivers. He.got caught lying on every one of them.

Dannys bashing IS[b] continuing without adding anything new because he has not apologized for the bells he has already set to ringing across the world. So long as he permits his lies to continue to circulate he is continuing to attack Linda. He has set into motion a steam roller that continues to roll out of control. he set it into motion and he is doing nothing to control it's damage. Now he's concerned that it may roll around and come back on him, as wll he should. And it's still rolling towards Linda. I don't think she should ignore it.

Around the time Linda was fired I called 2ABN and suggested that they develop a program for people with drug problems. They did, but was to late for Nathan, and an insult for Linda. For them to ACT as if they had always cared about young people with drug issues ... what joke in timing.

Danny has not gotten on with his life as I see it. His life needs to ga way back and clean up things with God. DAnny seems to forget that there is a law of "cause and effect", and that for evey man, what he sows he reaps, God is not mocked.

Put yourself in Linda's shoes, feel the blisters? the pinching? the burns?

How can you go into a new ministry until you can hold your head above reproach???

While there are a few things in your post that I have not personally verified, I have to strongly commend you on a beautifully stated overview of the core problems in this 3abn saga!

Well done, brother!

Truth welcomes examination and doesn't need to defend itself, while deception hides in darkness and blames everyone else. Aunt B, 2007

Isa 58:6-7 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? I have been following all of this with a heart so full of saddness it seems like it just might break apart. We have a ministry that started out I believe with the right intentions, to take the end time message to the world so Jesus could return. It was started by human beings who wanted to carry out God's commision to take this gospel to all the world. Somehow, and maybe it is because Satan knows us so well he was able to use good people for his own decietful purpose. As I see it, Danny, from reading everyones posts both pro Linda and pro Danny wanted what Lucifer wanted in heaven, to be like the Most High. He lost site of his role in taking the gospel to the whole world and wanted to be God..

When that happened he decided he needed a new younger wife who wouldn't try to take his place in the spotlight. He needed to make sure that Linda would take the fall. I received one of those letters from 3abn telling us all how Linda had chosen another path. I felt really sorry for Danny.

I was directed to blacksda and my whole perspective changed. I now believe that Linda did take the fall. That she was pushed out of 3abn and also out of her marriage.

Be that as it may. I agree with Calvin that life goes on. Danny is now married to Brandi and you can't change that. I believe Danny did not have bible grounds to marry Brandi but it is done. All of this however is their own PRIVATE business. It is not our business!!!

When save 3abn first was put up it answered a lot of my questions. I think there is a real mess at 3abn. and what was posted pertained to 3abn. When the e-mails started being posted I was appalled. Who in there right mind would post such personal and private matters. It has no bearing on the ministry of 3abn. It doesn't matter if Linda is providing these e-mails or if Danny is providing them or if their friends are providing them. The fact that they are seeing the light of day tells me that the people who started 3abn have lost all sight of what this ministry was all about. When I saw the direction save 3abn was going with the personal e-mails I quit reading. I do not want to know what personal and private things were said between Danny and Linda and to their friends. This has nothing to do with the ministry of 3abn,except to say, are these the people we want to represent our church? It should matter not at all to us whether or not the property settlement is fair or if they are going to court over it. It should not matter to us if Linda feels cheated out of her ministry or if Danny feels it is rightfully HIS ministry.

What should concern us is that this ministry has been for 20 years the flagship of our church, even though it is an independent minisrty. We should be concerned about the direction this minsirty is taking. Is it still spreading the gospel as the Seventh-Day Adventist church sees it? Laurence brought up the thought about the three angeles messages. Can we as Adventitst's support this ministry as it now stands? Can our church support this ministry and it's leaders the way things are now? With all the talk of the financial situation and the way the contributions of the members in the pews is being handled and the constant begging for contributions. If what I have read here is true there is a lot of dishonesty in leaders of this ministry. There is cover up. If this is the flag ship of our church should there be even ONE non-adventist working at 3abn? Should our coference leaders be supporting this ministry?

I know they let Tommy retire so as to try to get us to forget about his actions. But this doesn't make his actions go away. I do wonder if anything can be done to bring this to the attentions of the authorities. Maybe Duane something is being done by you or the other victims, I don't know but I do know that all the spin doesn't make it a lie and it needs to be dealt with. Victims are still victims no matter what the age and to make out that it didn't happen is a lie.

If what is being siad is true, Linda was a part of the financial misdealings and also allowed Tommy to work at 3abn or if not allow is the wrong term, continued on in her position in spite of Tommy. I know people here say Danny was in total control and makes all the decisions. If that is so everyone still has the choice to vote with there feet. I for one cannot see how all these board members and John L. can continue to support Danny. I guess the need for fame outweighs what is right

I for one do not want to see 3abn brought down. I do believe it needs a good cleaning out Danny needs to step down as does Mollie and Hal and Shelly and also the whole board needs to go. It needs to start all over again with new people. Not with Linda, she is as much a part of the problem as Danny. I don't know how this can be done. Maybe the GC needs to buy 3abn.

I think both Danny and Linda need to think about moving on. Start new ministries if that is what God is calling them to do. If this keeps on, the mud slinging and rants and the lies and the spin I do believe 3abn will be brought down and it won't be pretty and it won't be nice and it will be messy and it will do so much harm to our church we may just look at it and ask was it worth sticking our head in the sand and refusing to see the handwriting on the wall? Hoping if we did nothing it would all go away. Wheather we like it or not people are reading save3abn in droves and it will have an effect. They are reading blacksda and the other sites and they are forming oppinons. Danny and Linda may not like the results but they will not change peoples minds.

I will not contribute to any ministry that Danny or Linda Shelton are connected with until there is some sign that there has been a confession and a true repentance and a conversion and returning to God. I will continue to pray that this will happen and that the Holy Spirit might still work a work in their hearts.

I, too have questions.

MMM I don't see any questions, just allegations and bashing

Where was Danny's "stopwatch", I.E. the one he used to time Linda's phone calls, where as the concern when he was spending long hours in person, not on t he phone, with Brenda, at midnight and beyond, at the church?

Accusing DS and Brenda Walsh

Where was all his concern about what looks good and what doesn't look good all those years, late at night, when he was in Alyssa's bedroom?

stating as fact that you know DS was in alyssa's bedroom

(To say nothing of the 7 other women who have spoken out.)

Accusing him of having something to do with 7 women who no one has ever heard about or identitified.

Danny refused for years to offer help to Nathan. All this was done after he had already decided to get rid of her

Ok more statements given as fact

Danny has NOT moved on. He is more scared right now, than he has ever been since the investigation into his first wife's death.

Accusing DS of Murder!!

He admits that Brandy has been "after hin for 17 years" and that flatters him.

Wow, all when he maintaines that he hasn't laid eyes on Brandi since she was a little girl with her family in his recording studio. Exactly opposite of your statement

Do you honestly believe that if all this were totally reversed that Danny would be ignoring the slander and defamation if it were hurled at him?

It is reversed, and he isn't ignoring it.

He.got caught lying on every one of them.

statement that he is a liar

So long as he permits his lies to continue to circulate he is continuing to attack Linda.

Liar again.

Around the time Linda was fired I called 2ABN and suggested that they develop a program for people with drug problems. They did, but was to late for Nathan, and an insult for Linda. For them to ACT as if they had always cared about young people with drug issues ... what joke in timing.

Linda was in charge of production and programming, not DS. It would have been up to her to do programs with drug issues.

Well, I must say ,your post is absolutely a beautiful example (actually it will be evidence) of what constitues slander/defamation of character and liable suits. The way that you stated these accusations as facts ,will make the charges brought against you fall into place as slick as water off of a ducks back. Thank you for making a job like this, so much, easier.

Trudy Blonde, you have expressed some thoughts that I was trying to express, but have did it better. I won't quote you whole post because it is so long. These letters where never intended to be made public. Now Linda has joined right in with the rest of us, in the mud slinging still after 3 years of the divorce. Granted she has every right to do so. But just because she can, the gag order has been lifted, does not mean she has too. BTW, Linda may not have given explicit authority to post the letters but I do believe she have implied authority, I believe she knows the letter are there.

When I showed some folks from my church the letters on save3abn, there question was, Why are these people airing their dirty laundry? It did nothing to exonerate Linda, as least that is the way they saw it. Look, most people are not going to wade through 16,,000+ post here or everything on save3abn to form an opinion.

Yeah Linda, I know you where wronged, stuff happens. Many people go through messy divorces
But it is 3 years later now, I say get over it.

There is one point you may not have considered.

The only way to look at the books of 3ABN is to involve the courts. The courts are involved in regard to the property settlement.

Book deals are an issue regarding the alleged corruption at 3ABN. Book deals have an impact on the property settlement.

Thus, the property settlement can be a way to discover and resolve some of the problems at 3ABN.

For all of those that believe DS used the doc as an excuse to "get rid" of Linda. For all those that don't believe she made numerous trips to norway when Nathan only went once. For all those that think the "dishrag" statement came from DS.

Paragraphs from email from DS to LS Feb o5

May says you are telling her things about me and Brandy. First of all you don't know, anything about what me and Brandy are or are not doing. And secondly, if I wanted to have a girlfriend now whether it would be a Brandy or a Jane Doe, it would be none of your business as you have now refused for over a year to let this Norwegian man go. You have refused all counsel that told you he must go, yet you and he still travel together and stay in each other's homes for up to two weeks at a time. I told you a long time ago that I can document all your travel schedule and I have. May says you told her that you have only been to Norway once and that was a year ago January. I told her that if she wasn't mistaken then you told her a big lie as I can document all your trips there. Surely she got that part of your conversation mixed up. I don't think you would think everyone is such simpleton's that we don't know the truth about your solo trips to Europe.

Anyway, we've been. divorced for nearly eight months and we all know that I have biblical grounds. If I want to date someone else I am free to do it. You dated this man for months while we were married. That is called sin, anyway you want to cut it.

You shouldn't worry anyway. Remember, you told me that the only thing I would ever get compared to you was "An old used dirty dish rag".

Bystander, I think you may be distorting the facts. Linda made only one trip to Norway prior to the divorce. Correct? And when she went and left, Nathan was already there and remained there.

Danny saying that Linda said that about a dishrag, that really doesn't prove anything, anymore than Linda saying she's innocent proves anything. But if you can quote an email from Linda saying something about a dishrag, that is pretty credible. Or if you can quote Danny saying that he had no proof of Linda committing adultery, that is pretty credible.

Look at the date of the email. We weren't talking about prior to the divorce. If they were strictly on a proffesional basis becase of Nathan then why did she make numerous visits (1 almost immediatly following the divorce) to Norway and why did they travel together and stay at each others home. C'mon, even you can't spin that into being appropriate behaviour.

Was he not concerned in the slightest bit? Sorry I see no trace of a man wanting his wife back because he loved her.

I totally agree. I think he wrote these emails just to torment and mock her and to cover himself seeing the fall-out that was coming. these are not the words of a loving, mature or Christian man. these are the words of a disturbed person. i am very worried about his mental health. i read a posting from a woman, don't remember where, but she said she had been interviewed by DS before she had knowledge of all this. she said if she had known then what she knows now, she never would have agreed to the interview. she made, IMO, a very astute observation. she said DS is a narcissis. he can never see or admit that he is wrong. he is an actor in his own life. it saddens me to think that this is most likely the case.

No, this is a one way email in which Danny is telling thinks as he sees them. We don't what Linda said or if she said anything in response. Danny a year later sticking to his sotry, that i don't buy in the first place, is not froof. Now show me where Linda acknoedges what he says to be true,a nd we got. proof.

And just one more point of clarification. I thought that ths "dish rag" comment was aimed at Linda. but not necessarily said by Danny, warning that she would not be replaced by an old dish rag, but a beauty queen, if she

Yes Di,

The unedited email of this date is posted at the Save3abn.com website.

What is interesting is that bystander has left out some of the, let's say, less tasteful aspects of this email.

Ahhhh! as always, the BS/WWJD so beautifuly represent the wonderful love of Jesus ala 3ABN. They so accurately represent what the true Shelton/3ABN love for you and Linda is. As they so lovingly seek to regain that lost sheep, as they so dilligently seek to find that lost coin, as they turn the other cheek, as they, say "father forgive them...".... are they Jesus to you? Do WWJD/BS make you want what they have? Are they the shining example of 3ABN/Jesus/Shelton love that you want? Do want want to be BS/WWJD? They are 3ABN/the Shelton family to you.

Do you see Christ's love and yearning for Linda in BS/WWJD? Do you see Jesus' love and yearning for you in BS/WWJD? Do you see "What Would Jesus Do" in them? If what WWJD represents is the real "JESUS" would you love and worship that Jesus?

BS/WWJD is the true and accurate 3ABN/Shelton family. They are the true 3ABN Jesus to the world.

Calvin, i think that you should remember that linda isn't the only issue here. in this thread, yes, but not in the whole rhelm of things. there are many issues and many wrongdoings and the guilty parties at 3abn have hidden behind the ministry. they won't show anything to prove their case. they say all of us who speak out are evil. (i have personal emails from walt thompson to prove that.) there are people at 3abn whose thinking is corrupt and they won't change so they have to be removed and replaced.
you tell linda to "get over it" as if she was involved in a petty quarrel; "a messy divorce". true, many people go through messy divorces but they don't get aired on a one-sided, worldwide television station! this has ruined the last 3yrs. of her life and it will follow her for a long time. it's important that she defend herself now that she finally can. how would you feel if you were muzzled and someone spent 3yrs. trying to destroy your life? she has a "scarlet letter" on her and it's vital that DS be forced to prove his accusations against her and if he can't, he needs to be punished for his lies. they have done a tremendous amount of damage to her as a person. i think DS knows he has no such proof and knows he's done things illegally and he knows as long as he keeps things hidden, linda suffers and he buys more time for himself. those 5 people mentioned earlier...they have made some huge mistakes and should not be running 3abn. if linda is found innocent, the world should be told. that's the bottom line.

mozart, why don't you post those emails from Dr. walt and let the rest of us see where he says those who "speak out" are evil. I sincerely doubt that is what he said. In reality he probably said those who are spreading lies and slander are evil. If you have not eyewitnessed said allegations but still state the allegation as fact and it hurts characters, ministries and God's work, then that would be a correct statement.

I wonder where Bystander has his information from, but I have met Nathan on more than one trip to Norway.

As I have indicated several times before, if your truth is as much of a spin as what I have heard from the 3ABN spiritual leader, pastor John Lomacang, then you are in a sad association. If I was you, I would not base my salvation on his words. Let Jesus be your example. He loves you and died for your sins. If you merely seek revenge you might get hurt yourself.

BS, would you please lay out the timeline for these "numerous" trips she took to norway?
I would appreicate that, thank you.

Mozart, I think you got it right!

From Medline Plus:

Narcissistic Personality Disorder is a condition characterized by an inflated sense of self-importance and an extreme preoccupation with one's self.

The cause of this disorder is unknown. Narcisstic personality disorder usually begins by early adulthood and is marked by disregard for the feelings of others, grandiosity, obsessive self-interest and the pursuit of primarily selfish goals.

A person with narcissistic disorder:

Reacts to criticism with feelings of rage, shame, or humiliation
Takes advantage of others to acheive own goals
Has feelings of self-importance
Exaggerates achievements and talents
Is preoccupied with fantasies of success, power, beauty, intelligence, or ideal love
Has unreasonable expectations of favorable treatment Requires constant attention and admiration
Lacks empathy

Complications: Relationship and family problems
Alcohol or other drug dependence

In reality he probably said those who are spreading lies and slander are evil. If you have not eyewitnessed said allegations but still state the allegation as fact and it hurts characters, ministries and God's work, then that would be a correct statement.

i did paraphrase what he said but i don't think i misinterpreted it. i will not post my personal emails, but for your edification, this is his exact quote, "Let me begin by saying that the things being posted on the Internet denigrating Danny and the administration and board of 3abn are evil. Nothing posted there is in any way representative of the God I know and serve." he said this to me without any knowledge at all of anything about me except that i thought danny should step down from 3abn to spare the ministry from having to suffer through this fiasco. so you interpret it your way, to yourself, please.

If they were strictly on a proffesional basis becase of Nathan then why did she make numerous visits (1 almost immediatly following the divorce) to Norway and why did they travel together and stay at each others home. C'mon, even you can't spin that into being appropriate behaviour.

Please explain the logic of this post-divorce mentality.

If the above statement by WWJD is true, then:

Danny got a divorce in 2004
Brandy got a divorce in 2004
Linda got a divorce in 2004

However, it's only Linda's post-divorce behavior that has Bystander saying that "you can't spin that into being appropriate behavior."

But, everything Danny and Brandy did after their own divorces that same year is appropriate behavior, by the same standard?

I guess I'm missing the logic here because it seems to me that if post-divorce behavior is indicative of something important, we must include the post-divorce behavior of all three parties, not just of Linda Shelton. Somebody here seems justified in applying a totally separate set of rules to Linda Shelton's post-divorce life than they apply to everyone else's life that existed in the same post-divorce situation. That makes no logical sense.

thank you for clarifying this skyhook. than i appreciate your research. so i guess it's spelled narcissist. my bad; i forgot the "t" what BS fails to be able to comprehend is that i, along with many, many others, truly care for danny and want him to be well. we want him to be healed. defending him is like defending an alcoholic. it doesn't help the alcoholic at all. from now on i think i will just ignore his (BS) post even when it concerns me. if anyone else wants to ask a question, however, i'd be happy to answer. it would be wise to remember the words of 2 Timothy 3: 1-9: "But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away! For of this sort are those who creep into households and make captives of gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lust, always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. Now as Jannes and Jambres resisted Moses, so do these also resist the truth; men of corrupt minds, disapproved concerning the faith; but they will progress no further, for their folly will be manifest to all, as theirs also was." 2 Timothy 3:14,15: "But as for you, continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus."

That is amazing. That describes Gailon Joy to a tee. Pickle would also fit several of those.

Indeed Pete is sharp. Does the BS/WWJD care to elaborate on the quantity of time that Linda spent on the phone with Dr. Abrahamsen during the months of March, April and May of 2004 as compared to the time that Danny spent in person and on the phone with Brenda Walsh during that same time period?

How about Brandy? Did Linda move across the street from Dr. Abrahamsen after the divorce, and live on property provided by 3ABN acrosss the street from someone she "was not" having a "thing" with? Did Linda live in IL and Dr. Abrahamsen thousands of miles away in Norway? While Danny lived across the street from Brandy for much of that time? In a house provided by 3ABN? LOL!!!!!!!!!!!!! Y'uns are funny.

Oh! What about the "evidence" of the trips to Europe... after the divorce? Where did that "evidence" come from? A travel agency owned by a friend/donor of Danny's? Is that legal? Well, if the "evidence" is "produced" I suppose that it will be tracked and we will find out.

And secondly, if I wanted to have a girlfriend now whether it would be a Brandy or a Jane Doe, it would be none of your business as you have now refused for over a year to let this Norwegian man go. You have refused all counsel that told you he must go, yet you and he still travel together and stay in each other's homes for up to two weeks at a time. I told you a long time ago that I can document all your travel schedule and I have. May says you told her that you have only been to Norway once and that was a year ago January. I told her that if she wasn't mistaken then you told her a big lie as I can document all your trips there. Surely she got that part of your conversation mixed up. I don't think you would think everyone is such simpleton's that we don't know the truth about your solo trips to Europe.

Okay, Bystander, I read the above and there is no proof, as usual. Show the evidence of the trips to Norway that took place while Linda was married to Danny. There was only one. The burden of proof is on your side now. You claim evidence, were are the receipts, ticket stubs, etc. All I see it a statement by Danny, no proof. Bring on the evidence so we call all see it. Or is this just another attempt by you to justify Danny's behavior?

I can verify what Sister is stating here is true, not because I was told, but because I was there. Irmgard and I were in constant contact with Dr. Arild Abrahamsen. It would have been impossible for Linda to visit him in Norway without us knowing, and he could not have gone to America without us knowing it either. He could not have been at his clinic in Norway and in America at the same time.

Danny Shelton did not think of this possibility when he and Brenda made up stories, and to impress board members and other gullible people they insist on having ticket stubs, phone cards, etc. 8

I must admit that within a few days my admiration of Danny Shelton dropped to zero when I discovered how he behaved when he got caught in a lie. If only he had tried to apologize or in other ways rectify his evil behaviour, we would never be discussing this here today.

God still loves a repentant sinner, but the haughty are an abomination.

BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Mr Joy's Creditability

Posted by: fallible humanbeing Mar 26 2007, 02:48 PM

> QUOTE(calvin @ Mar 26 2007, 10:00 AM)
> So let me rephrase my question. Where is the mainstream media story?

Maybe the story hasn't hit the main stream press because the so-called investigator of 3ABN only wants his fame to exist within the Adventist community. Why would he be concerned, well let's ask Bob Pickle and Greg Matthews who appear to be Gailon A. Joy's spokesmen - or at least they are closest to him in regards to the 3ABN story and because Mr. Joy doesn't post here so they are his spokesmen. Do the claims provided below which were made (HERE) have any basis in fact? If they do, it would seem that Mr. Joy has a past and reputation that would make most skeptical Americans very wary of anything he claimed to be "the truth." However, there doesn't seem to be much skepticism here about his "truth" which is used to support the local novella published here and the postings of "sister" so maybe America wouldn't be so skeptical of someone who was convicted of embezzelment and now has this litany of claims of against him to deal with.

The Internet reveals some interesting information. The following claims are made against Mr. Joy by an individual with obvious first hand information of the situation. Both quotes can be found http://www.atomorrow.com/discus/messages/1780/4084.html?1171910258:

>
> - . . . the probable writer of those words [Joy], but at least the founder of the web site [save3abn], cheated his last 5-6 landlords out of duly owed rent payments? by simply not paying, and forcing delaying tactics and threatening expensive legal proceedings? including to me[the author of the post, making it solid first hand information]
>
> - . . . including cheating a bank to obtain a limited documentation mortgage in an under-employed daughters name, then not paying and forcing a forclosure?
>
> - . . . living for free for the better part of a year?with a substantial loss to the lender? all while professing a sanctimonious belief in the churches mission to bring healing to the world???
>
> naw, this probably isn't the time and place...
> otoh, while I sympathize with Linda's situation, and she should be somehow made aware of the nature of this "support", I would not donate a dime thru this spiders web-site that I didn't expect to be misappropriated.

In another post the author of the above refers to a personal interaction he had with G. A. Joy:

> QUOTE
> .... he tried to pay his overdue rent one time with a check drawn on some EGW trust account which he said he controlled... for what purpose I never found out....

Now, additional questions that need to be raised in regards to this last quote are:

"Did he have any right to draw on that account?"

and

"Do the individuals he controlled these accounts for know he did this?"

What does this say about the integrity of his work, his "evidence", his motive for trying to take Danny and 3ABN down? If you were Linda wouldn't you be concerned about this man representing you? If his "evidence" is used to support the novella found here in this forum and the postings of sister - how accurate can they be?

My take:

Mr Joy is no small player in this saga. He has put himself in play with his website. Therefore, his creditability can be discussed here.

t speaks volumes that those so intent on discrediting Mr. Joy and others are zealously guarding their wn identities that no investigation of their acts beyond what is done under the mask they wear here an be undertaken.

HB,

ounds like to me the lawyers have said they do not have a case, so you are falling back to the next est attack line.

Aving said that Mr. Joy needs to come clean.

Aving said that, even if mr. Joy is the snake is being painted has, not sure how that makes the ictims of Tommy Shelton, into lairs or lessens the wrongfullness of letting him work around kids.

Yes, it is true that a gentleman posted what FHB refers to, a gentleman who in his profile claims to be a Chippendale dancer, which my understanding is a male stripper.

FHB, for the record, could you detail for us your efforts to get Gailon's side of the story before posting this?

Erik, it appears to me that the statement as posted is probably grossly inaccurate.

Bob,

Most likely it is highly wrong, but either way not sure why they would be bring it up unless the lawyers told them their case was crashing, or how it lets Tommy off the Hook.

Erik, you don't understand why FHB would bring it up? C'mon. This guy is trying to make a mockery out of 3abn and the people while also trying to destroy people's character in the process. You have to ask why that anyone would question his credentials or lack thereof, his financial status, his ethics? You find out these answers and then you also have a motive.
Erik we know what side you're on but surely you can be a little more even handed on something as obvious as this.

ow why would an investigation need to be done on FHB? He is not a public figure nor has he put imself in the limelight like Joy and Pickle. They are the ones who like to dig dirt, so there is bsolutely not one thing wrong with turning the tables and playing by their own rules.

ot so. Either it's been Danny's side of the story that has been posted, or Danny et. al. has been sked about the issue and been given an opportunity to repsond.

f you disagree, make a list of items and issues that fall into the description I just gave, and a list of tems and issues that don't fit my description, and then share both lists here.

o you have an answer to the question of the validity of the claims or not. As to the Chippendale ssue, have you ever heard of a joke?

ou can spin in the wind, you can try to divert, but the fact is that these questions need answering. ou have called Danny's integrity into question, Shelley's, Mollie's, Dr. Thompson's, etc. You have said ver and over again that these individuals are lying and that gives you ever reason and right to pursue he course you have. You have used Mr. Joy's site to publish your opinions. So, because you have hosen to side with Mr. Joy and because you have chosen to speak with him, while he says nothing ublically then can you answer these claims.

f these are true (and they may or may not be) then it speaks volumes about the entire "investigation" nd begs questions about the integrity of the information presented. And, because his "information" as been used to support and defend the novella here and the posts of sister and watchbird, then it alls into question the validity and veracity of those claims put forth by them.

f you can provide evidence that these claims are indeed not true then fine! It would seem that since ou love to hammer away at Danny for nor responding to your accusations and questions that you vould want to provide an example of how things should be done and you would addresses these and rovide either verification of their validity or evidence that they are false. I realize the claims are not gainst you, however you have placed yourself in the dugout with Mr. Joy and he has left you to be his pokesman here.

PDi,

Then you would have no problem with Mr. Joy (through Bob Pickle and Greg Matthews since they have operated as his spokesmen here) answering these questions.

Personal ethics would have a great bearing on whether one can take his "investigation" seriously. It has a bearing on whether one can feel comfortable with the idea that he might employ unscrupulous methods in "obtaining information" during his "investigation."

And again, one of the key factors is that since his "information" is cited as supporting the claims and accusations of sister, watchbird, et. al. it has a direct relationship to the validity of their words.

The fact is, if these claims are not true then this thread sinks into oblivion. But it only will if the claims can be refuted with substantial evidence to the contrary.

With all due respect Mr. B, while you might think save3abn.com only posts one side of the story, from what I've seen here at BSDA folks have been nearly standing on their heads asking, begging, cajoling, pleading, wishing, crying...for some plausible evidence, proof - whatever you legal beagles want to call it - of truth in the position taken by DS/3ABN.

Just a Snoopy perspective...

Vhile we are talking here. I know you are convinced that no law suit is coming your way, so...

Bob,

edit- to add clarification
You've all but killed Tommy Shelton with your accusations and claims about him and using him to harm his brother's ministry, and when I asked if you had talked to Tommy before publishing all this about him, and asked him his side?

You told me you didn't. (you never asked him one thing about what you had already judged him guilty of) because the focus of your investigation was really Danny.

Now you again demand of others what you don't do?

So far you've been Joy's spokesman, so why don't you ask him? He's your partner.

And this whole thing doesn't suprise me, I've heard about some of this elsewhere, before this.

Lets see, I enjoy first service Bob, always have. The sermon is the same, but the music in first service is something special Yes, I am on the books in Florida and if you have any evidence otherwise spit it out Bob! You have claimed in public and private that you have no idea who I am and yet you constantly bring up the fact that my home church is Florida Hospital Church insinuating that this is somehow false. My membership as been there for over decade. This makes many people wonder if your original questions about my IP address were merely a ruse and that you have been hunting my identity all along.

Now, to the topic. I need not prove anything here. I asked a question, just as you did some 40+ times to your incessent emails to Danny. You expected responses so that you could vindicate 3ABN and Danny and Tommy and anyone else that you could save. These claims were made publically on the Internet and knowing that you speak for Gailon, I came to the source for clarification.

HB you have made some excellent points here. As all on BSDA like to say, It would "appear" that hese allegations fit right into the same pattern as what my sources have told me about a judgement gainst Mr. Joy's automobile resulting in, repossession. It would "seem" there is a problem here.
lso either Mr. Joy is leading sister up the garden path or she is leading him, because information in er post are consistently not factual. She made a big deal that secretly JD quinn was made head of astoral. I called today. JD himself knew nothing about it, and according to DS's associates, neither oes he. Maybe Hoty is feeding them what he hears instead of what actually is happening.
hatever is going on, somebody is getting their wires crossed.

This is the third time I have heard these allegations. This is the first time someone has gone public with them.

There are many parallels to what has been done by the PicklJoy team. Now, if they are willing to stand up and do as they demand of all others then we may find out if these are true or false allegations and then be able to put things in perspective.

FHB,

This statement certainly causes me concern. If you honestly believe that the man you have quoted may or may not be telling the truth about this how is that any different then him calling himself a Chippendale dancer? Perhaps all of his statements are jokes. And then, can we even believe that his story about his pet schnauser, the Pie-Pirate, is the truth? Shaky ground here, IMO.

Is your purpose to find out the truth of these claims or simply to use them to raise doubt about Gailon Joy's credibility/character whether they are true or not?

What information has Gailon provided to support the "novella" here? How would that bring into question the validity of sister's and watchbird's posts? Are they really so intertwined and dependent on Gailon Arthur Joy's info that they have no credibility of their own?

I already answered that. I said that from what I can tell, those allegations are not true in the least.

Now since I already answered that and have now answered it again, and since this wasn't the first time I asked this, when was the last time you attended? Pickle this isn't about FHB! Get off of his back. His credibility is already established. And he's even truthful for your information. I am quite sure his past is clean as a whisle too!!

But I'd like to see the question answered: Did Joy lose his car? Was it really repossessed? Doesn't the man work for a living?

Answer these please! Stop trying to change the subject. It won't work here.

Who cares..

More pertinent is that he first of all lists "Realter" in his profile and wrote this:

".... he tried to pay his overdue rent one time with a check drawn on some EGW trust account which he said he controlled... for what purpose I never found out...."

[Bob] ~~the~~ attendance at church by those in this forum would be absolutely none of your business. On the other hand what Gailon does is your business since you are partners as Cindy stated and you speak for him and save3abn on this forum. 5
You said your answer is as far as you can tell these allegations are not true. Please explain "as far as you can tell." Isn't this the first you have heard of it. If so, how have you been able to "tell" anything about it?

This isnt about Gailon either; where was your zeal to keep the subject from being changed when fhb changed the subbject from 3abn to Gailon Joy?

Are you that blind to your own hypocrisy? Ray Charles could see this one...

Why is it so important Bob? Why do you care how currently I attended. Do you want sermon notes from Pastor Andy's last sermon? Are you interested in communion in a couple of weeks? Maybe you would like to come help out with the Shepherd's Hope Clinic this Wednesday - you're more than welcome as there are tasks for those without clinical experience. Or maybe you would like to come down and provide a meal for the families that take advantage of Interfaith Hospitality Network. Maybe you have a special skill you can come and share with Adventures or Pathfinders (one of the three levels) before the break for summer.

As this thread is about the claims against Mr. Joy and you don't seem to want to answer any of the questions then please don't waste space here and PM me and I will keep you up to date on what is happening at FHC.

I've been talking to Gailon, and he was curious when the last time your church had its books audited, Bystander. Care to comment?

As far as the allegations this John guy has raised, it appears that it may be difficult to deal with them without it being unnecessarily embarrassing to John. But Gailon is toying with finding some sort of way to address them. I have no idea what he will decide to do, but he's shared enough details that I can see that there is likely no truth at all in any of it.

Bear in mind that I said likely since I have no documents from either side of the question to back up either side's statements. And that problem puts FHB in a totally different league than http://www.Save3ABN.com/. FHB hasn't produced one single third party document or document by Gailon to support John's allegations. All we have is John's word, a single witness.

A number of valid points have been made, but when the rubber meets the road the facts are these:

None of these attempts at misdirection change the fact that there are victims who have come forward, and have given their testimony. The victims, some of you have either ignored or tried to marginalize.

The fact that you have shown little if any sympathy or empathy to the victims of molestation and slander speaks volumes about those trying to misdirect any and all who come to BSDA for answers.

The fact is that to many of you, who do not have the courage or the integrity to stand up and say "my name is _________ and I stand here on BSDA/online openly and speak of what I believe is the truth, have the nerve to question anyone elses credibility?

Oooh please, those of you hiding behind screen names have ZERO "credibility" yourselves. So please save that so called indignation for the less discerning. This ain't sabbath shool, we pay attention here...

Bob, I am lol! This thread has me really giggling!

My next comment is very true. It really did happen! However, understand that I was not an eyewitness!

Back when this mess began and I was receiving emails from everyewhere about Danny Shelton, one made me really laugh!

I got an email saying Danny Shelton was a male stripper wanna be ! He says he is a Seventh-day Adventist. I remember reading that the desired result was not achieved.

I can remember when I danced on top of tables! That was years ago, of coarse. I had to stop because every one started hitting on me. But, boy it was one of those fleeting, few, wild, and fun times when I was attached to the world!

Now, today, I could dance AND strip on top of a table and everyone would yell FIRE and run for their lives, leaving me to burn! Oh, to be young again!

This is the only reference I have ever heard of a Seventh-day Adventist being a male stripper (Chippendale dancer).

It struck me odd that this new information against Joy could just maybe be coming from...

More hypocrisy from the dannyclones... if it doesnt matter who it is, that posted the info about Gailon, or what that person does or has done... it doesn't matter that Gailon has posted info about DS/TS/WT/3abn et al... and thus no need for you and fhb and bystander to be trying so hard to assassinate his character...

Are you saying phone conversations are off limits to quote someone? surely not, because you and joy specialize in publishing anything that gets in your hands or that you are told in a phone conversation.

You keep harrassing FHB about his church attendance. Ok, again turn about is fair play. Are you an ordained minister? If not why? To you want to be? I have my reasons Bob so just answer the questions.

Well, Gailon doesn't seem to have a track record that you would want to bet on Bob. I did say in an earlier post (may or may not be true) because I am willing to give G.A. Joy the benefit of offering his side. The only time he has ever offered anything directly from him was when the issue of his embezzelment was raised and it seemed to be quite a bit of song and dance to try and techincally make his actions legitimate.

There are those who have already begun to dig deeper and the truth will reveal itself even if Gailon and you do not Bob. Be patient.

Exactly like all of those do that you have trashed over at your site. As I said Bob, you set that standard. No doubt you tried to talk to a few, but there are plenty more that you didn't. So on that subject, as eyewitness said "get on your high horse and say giddy up."

Yes, how did Danny feel when you posted all those letters from Linda for all the public to see about intimate things from his marriage. Pickle--you have a lot of gall. Neither you nor Joy used Matt. 18 and yet you immediately say FHB should have. Better wake up man! A new day is dawning.....

Mr. J,

Can you refute the claims in the OP? If you are bothered by the fact that Gailon has put himself into the lime light I find that surprising.

You and I are only taking what is being put out there as the purported truth and asking questions and finding answers. You want Danny, et. al. to answer all questions - so then encourage those you place your lot with to do the same.

Whoever posted them could plainly see that those letters from Danny represented his side of the story. That's the point. Danny's side was that the marriage was over because Linda had hidden his gun. That's what he said on April 27, 2004. His words, not Linda's.

Now perhaps a case could be made for having to contact Linda before publishing that April 27, 2004, email, to get her side of the story first. But that would be ridiculous. If Danny says the marriage was over because she hid his gun, why would one need to ask Linda about it?

Or maybe someone did ask her about it.

Interesting. If Fallible and Bystander are still here, then they are anonymous users, so no one knows where they are at for sure.

Oh so you feel your sources have witnessed DS embezzling money? They have witnessed immoral behavior? They have witnessed him taking pennies from little old ladies and putting it in their pockets?

Let's turn your scenerio around Bob. Say you and your wife was cheating on you and refused to stop. You end up having to go through a bitter and miserable divorce. Later on I say that Bob Pickle is bouncing checks all over town. I say that Bob is picking up prostitutes. I say that Bob in his pretend job as treasurer of his church is lining his pockets with some offerings. Now, when people ask me how I know, I would answer an eyewitness told me. But, if the eyewitness happened to be the vengeful ex wife and/or some of her close friends, exactly how credible would those eyewittness accounts be?

Think Bob, you know I'm right.
On the other hand these allegations against Joy didn't come from any ex wife that we know about and we would have to ask ourselves why would some guy come out of nowhere to make false allegations against Joy when he has nothing whatsoever to gain?

speaking about bringing reproach on the church thru individuals actions, and the proverbial pot calling the kettle black, would it be of interest to know that the probable writer of those words, but at least the founder of the web site, cheated his last 5-6 landlords out of duly owed rent payments? by simply not paying, and forcing delaying tactics and threatening expensive legal proceedings? including to me? including other SDA's? including cheating a bank to obtain a limited documentation mortgage in an under-employed daughters name, then not paying and forcing a forclosure? living for free for the better part of a year?with a substantial loss to the lender? all while professing a sanctimonious belief in the churches mission to bring healing to the world???

otoh, while I sympathize with Linda's situation, and she should be somehow made aware of the nature of this "support", I would not donate a dime thru this spiders web-site that I didn't expect to be misappropriated.

Mr. Alfke is on Linda's side you know. But he seems to have had some personal distasteful experience with Joy. Something that would be pretty easy to validate I'm sure.

No, you're wrong, Bystander, and you know you are. Dryden's 2003 letter has nothing to do with a vengeful ex-wife. Walt's claim that Danny told him the allegations against Tommy were 30 years old and due to a feud with Dryden had nothing to do with a vengeful ex-wife. Danny and Tommy lying on the air on Dec. 31, 2006, had nothing to do with a vengeful ex-wife (Tommy said that if it weren't for the ferry, he could cope). Danny lying on the air on Feb. 15, 2007, about ASI being willing to hear any complaints and accusations had nothing to do with a vengeful ex-wife.

Sera,

There seems to be a problem with your posting functions as you just don't seem to be able to get them to quote things correctly. The post you quoted actually said:

> QUOTE

This sounds rather familiar. I think it was in an email or PM intended to intimitate me into being quite the last time I questioned your side of the fence.

[quote name=Pickle @ Mar 27 2007, 12:46 AM]But Gailon is toying with finding some sort of way to address them. I have no idea what he will decide to do, but he's shared enough details that I can see that there is likely no truth at all in any of it.[/qoute]

Well, Gailon doesn't seem to have a track record that you would want to bet on Bob. I did say in an earlier post (may or may not be true) because I am willing to give G.A. Joy the benefit of offering his side. The only time he has ever offered anything directly from him was when the issue of his embezzelment was raised and it seemed to be quite a bit of song and dance to try and techincally make his actions legitimate.

There are those who have already begun to dig deeper and the truth will reveal itself even if Gailon and you do not Bob. Be patient.

Yes of course Fran you must be correct. If DS which is obviously who you are insinuating was to go on a forum under an assumed name I am sure he would put a chippendale dancer in his profile. Yes, that would make total sense Fran. By gummies, you've solved another one.

Walt's claim that Danny told him the allegations against Tommy were 30 years old and due to a feud with Dryden had nothing to do with a vengeful ex-wife. Danny and Tommy lying on the air on Dec. 31, 2006, had nothing to do with a vengeful ex-wife (Tommy said that if it weren't for the ferry, he could cope). Danny lying on the air on Feb. 15, 2007, about ASI being willing to hear any complaints and accusations had nothing to do with a vengeful ex-wife.

m not talking about Danny here; I am talking about your standing around here pondering how it ould be if you were king of the forest and wondering if the wizard can give you some courage.

The fact that you wont even identify yourself says the claims of the OP are irrelevant. According to God's law there is no such thing as anonymous testimony and you cant bring a charge against someone else without identifying yourself... not to mention it takes 2 or 3 witnesses to establish a matter.

According to man's law, you made the charge, the burden of proof is on you to prove them beyond a reasonable doubt; if you are not willing or able to do that, I don't even have to be bothered to refute your claims.

You made the charge; you have the burden of proof...but your insistence on anonymity makes you less than credible.

In His service,
Mr. J

You misunderstood what I said. I wasn't talking about FHB's identity. I was talking about his persona. Look at the bottom of the page. He doesn't allow Fallible Human Being to appear at the bottom of the page when he is around. Bystander and Lee's names aren't appearing either.

That's their right to be an anonymous user if they want to be. It may be because they are afraid. It may be for strategy purposes. All I was doing was asking why, but acknowledging that they have a right to do that.

Pseudonyms vs. anonymous users. Two different issues.

On point one, give me solid examples to show that I don't. Since you haven't yet, we can only assume that you know that I definitely have at least one leg that works.

On point two, why is it so difficult for you to say that you currently and regularly attend the church you claim is your home church?

No, I think she was referring to the fact that a pastor wrote Danny referring to a male stripper, and Danny responded back. The implication is that Danny is the one being referred to. The allegation is that he was exposing himself.

Excellent question.

And more importantly, what evidence has he produced to support his claims? Or are his accusations as unsupported as Danny's against Linda?

Mr J,

And here you are wrong beyond any shadow of a doubt. I made no accusations, made no claims, I asked if those made by someone else were infact true. If these claims which have been made by others as well were true.

I did not accuse, only asked if they were true. The fire storm that ensued seems to be an indication that the concerns may have validity in fact. We will see as things flesh out over the next few weeks.

Or as unsupported as Linda's against Danny. Bob If you insist on obsessing about FHB's church attendance please start a new thread and I am sure we can all be entertained with the highlights of his church attendance over the years. We can then discuss the questions ask you about being ordained and why aren't you and all the other. But until you do lets focus on you and Joy.

Bob, since you are so obsessed with FHB's church attendance, please start a new thread and I am sure we can all be entertained from reading highlights of his church career. There would be the place for you to answer my questions about you being ordained or not and why. But, in the meantime this thread is on you and Gailon. Let's stick to it.

Posted by: Pickle Mar 26 2007, 11:42 PM

I will say that the only instance Gailon could think of that John could be referring to regarding landlords was something like this:

Gailon et. al. put $20,000 of improvements into a leased/rented property that they had an option to buy. It got sold out from under them, with the understanding that they would have free rent in exchange for the sweat equity they were losing. They then were demanded to pay rent anyway, which they rightfully refused.

Gailon can't figure out who all the other landlords might be. My guess, perhaps wrong, is that John may be referring to simultaneous owners of a single property, not 5 or 6 non-simultaneous owners of different properties.

The above is what Gailon told me last week when i came across this.

Which specific allegations are you speaking of? Linda isn't the one who wrote Dryden's 2003 letter. She isn't the one who said on the air that tommy had to retire early because a ferry was so stressful. She isn't the one who said on the air that ASI was going to hear any accusations and complaints. Really, there are so few allegations coming from Linda, for you to even say this suggests that you are trying to spin the situation.

Erik,

What do you base the above idea on? The attorneys feel there is no case? Don't we need to wait and see if any individuals are served before you come to that conclusion?

We all are sinners in need of God's cleansing blood. I am sure that Bob is busy tonight trying to accumulate a list of all the things I have done so that he can add them to whether or not I have been to church this month or not.

What will it take to satisfy you? Do you need to be privy to the evidence of 3ABN. Let's say you recieve an invitation tomorrow from someone offering to share with you the evidence that 3ABN has in regards to the issues. They will fly you there and let you become privy to it all - what then Erik? Let's expand that and say that someone who is privy to the evidence gains the privilage of presenting it here and they lay it out - how many will accept it? How many will claim it is manipulated, manufactured? How many will move on and let the subject rest? Would you if you had the evidence presented to you?

The sad fact is that the Linda camp (Joy, Pickle, Matthews, and of course Linda) have brought us to this point - court cases. [here is a warning Erik, this post will be attacked because I dare say that Linda has responsibility in the events that have occured over the past 20 years, much less the past 3]

The truth will be made evident. Pickle, et al can feel comfortable in the belief that they will not havce to bear legal responsibility for their words and actions - but we will see.

Erik do you really think that what has been done to DS and 3abn on the web is having his cake and eating it too? Hardly. As I have stated before, the board will decide what is to be done and when it is to be done. In the meantime their world hardly revolves around this. There is a ministry to be run and those involved are up to their eyeballs in work. So, even though there will be accountability for those involved in creating this mess, 3abn has a more than full, plate. They can't just drop everything and present their side any time they want to.
Furthermore, I noticed that you started your first post in this thread by saying it looks like or maybe the attorneys don't have a case and blah blah...By the time you had said it a couple of times..you are almost stating it as fact. Let's be clear that is something you just came up with on your own with nothing at all to back it up.
You will be surprised.

I can probably help answer some of the requested information seeing that I am a outsider and a monetary contributor to 3abn.

1. Danny is accused by his step daughter of inappropiate sexual contact.
2. Tommy is accused of inappropiate sexual contact with young males.
3. Danny is accused of living in adultry and divorcing his wife without Biblical reasons, at the same time saying he is mending broken people and spreading the undiluted 3 angels message.
4. Danny is accused of using money inappropiatly while at the same time requesting donars send more money.
5. The board at three abn is accused of showing that they do not have a clue as to how to manage Gods property and or show loving kindness to one of their own.
6. That is the case of Linda Danny was trying to get rid of Her for a younger lady (more implied than actually stated, tho I have seen no proof of the previous statement).

On the other hand the other side is saying.

1. Danny is being falsely accused by his step daughter
2. Linda gave up the ministry for another man, while her husband Danny faught valiantly to keep Her.
3. Tommy is being falsely accused of sexual contact with young males (Tho I have not seen anyone really refute this accusation).
4. That the board at three abn are really loving people who did the only thing they could possibly do given the circustances as they were.
5. Danny has never misused any of the money at 3abn.
6. That 3 abn is under attact falsley because of the wonderful end time message "sending the undiluted message around the world" to counter act the counterfeit.
7. Danny is the chosen one anoited as it were by God and that others are just jealous or angry.

This is not all but these are the main topics I get from looking at this forum.

Okay, you have concisely identified some of the issues . . . but what about the OP. Can you bring any light to that so we can know if there is concern to be had in regards to Linda's chosen spokesman?

I will ask you to make a comment on one of your claims. The last one, #7a (Danny being the chosen one . . .) in the list you identify as the "other side" . . . have you and others completely blown this out of context? Can you identify where this came from and provide the entire context in which it occured?

Alethia Said: "You've all but killed Tommy Shelton with your accusations and claims about him ..."

Please clarify who has made accusations against Tommy Shelton? If I recall correctly, that would be the victims, Right? This is a run down of my understanding.

1. It is Tommy's own documented admission and actions that have caused him much pain. Then bringing the subject to light was done in 2003. Gailon Joy, Bob Pickle and Greg Matthews were not organized and maybe had never heard of each others. Tommy Shelton's own actions are what have almost killed him, as you have stated, by reaping the rewards of HIS actions. He has been forgiven. After reading Carol's letter, I have a tendency to believe he is forgiven under God's law. However, God himself said we should obey the Laws of God and the Laws of the land, unless it conflicts with God's You cannot take care of one and forget the other.

2. This 2003 Documented report came to light because of VICTIMS comming forth. This was long before the investigationg team.

3. We have those VICTIMS because of Tommy Shelton's "ACTIONS!"

4. Danny Shelton has received bad press because he chose "NO ACTION" when these things came to his attention.

5. Because he took "NO ACTION", Danny Shelton is an accomplise of these actions against these VICTIMS.

6. These things finally came to light at BSDA, Maritime Online, and Save3ABN.com.

7. All of the sudden 3ABN is loosing support!

8. The blame was shifted by Dannyites with a threat of litigation against BSDA posters who have been talking for years now, yet, they are now to blame for hurting 3ABN Finances!

9. Now the family at BSDA and Maritime Online have begun to question your sanity! Surely you have no clue, right?

As I see it:

1. The victim have right to bring action against Tommy Shelton becase of HIS actions.

2. Because 3ABN was asked to become involved, but chose the "NO ACTION" plan, a case against 3ABN could come from the VICTIMS for that lack of action.

3. Tommy's actions have hurt 3ABN Financially. 3ABN could take action against Tommy Shelton for this lose of finances. Then further, Tommy Shelton could take action against 3ABN for not helping when he asked for help. Danny's help was NO help.

4. BSDA Posters have nothing to do with 3ABN. (except for a few.) Our freedom to discussion has been attacked. Do we have a right to take action against the Dannyites? What I see is pure and simple harrasement.

5. Tommy Shelton's actions made his actions public. He must deal with it. (This is easier said than done) It is very real and many times people choose to try to live outside of reality.

Now, Alethia;

These are my opinions and thoughts;

1 Are you taking your chill pills plus all other medication?
2. Do you have cataracts?
3. Have you had any recent head injuries?
4. Do you frequesntly get up and leave the room and forget why?
5. Are you sitting very close to your monitor?
6. Have you checked your blood Pressure and found it a bit too high?
7. Are you usually right, but frequently cab clearly see others as wrong?
8. Are you mentally sane, but have doubts about the other posters?
9. Do you get headaches from reading posts at BSDA?
10. Do you feel/know that you are right and everyone else is wrong?

It appears to me that you are able to manage output, but can not process input with accuracy. If you answered yes to any of the above questions, feel free to contact me at your earliest convience.

As I have stated before, the board will decide what is to be done and when it is to be done. In the meantime their world hardly revolves around this. There is a ministry to be run and those involved are up to their eyeballs in work. So, even though there will be accountability for those involved in creating this mess, 3abn has a more than full, plate. They can't just drop everything and present their side any time they want to.
> Furthermore, I noticed that you started your first post in this thread by saying it looks like or maybe the attorneys don't have a case and blah blah...By the time you had said it a couple of times..you are almost stating it as fact. Bystander,

Then why on earth would any of #an supporters drop them themselves to the others sides means, if they had a case?

I am unsure has anyone else about what the lawyers for 3abn are going to do, but to tell you the truth the actions of the Pro danny crowd sure make it look like the lawyers are saying they do not have a case. I f i am wrong then so be it. Time will Tell.

All i see if all these Charges are in fact not true against Mr. Joy then all your sides has done is give him any easy path to walk down if decides to sue for twisting his character to the seven winds.

And coming from people that are always decrying this happening to Danny and Tommy is to me a bit self serving.

Plus it changes little that we have three signed letters concerning Tommy actions sitting out on the table, all un refuted to this day.

HB,

Vhat would satisfy me. in simple words the truth no matter what it is. if i had that yes i would move n and defend the less guilty side.

vell that is a good question for a Great Start some simple straight forward answers to the very onfusing messages that danny and 3abn have put, before all this happen my total connection to 3 bn was that my church had given away some of the 3abn dishes, and then about a year after that or o at church the 3Abn watchers in my church said we need to pray for danny because of the tax stuff nd then the marriage went south because linda had an affair.

o image my shock when I was forward from a friend of mine, that linda was saying she never had an ffiar, and well thought this sounds like a guilty lady trying to get out of and then some people at hurch said that they had heard that 3abn was under attack on th internet so i did a little checking and ound a couple of forums, you and i both know what was on those forums. this being the main one. so came here and was fully ready to launch into this wicked people here that were hurting the work of od, BUT i decide to read the whole forum from the start and guess what it danny's words and actions nore then any one thing such did sit right with me, so i decide to watch what happened until was and till to this quite sure that Danny has been less then forthcoming with the whole truth, now i have not lways agreed with the methods that some of linda's supporters have used, but i certainly do not pprove of the methods that i see Danny's side using either.

f someone was willing to let me look at the proof, and it clearly showed Linda was wrong I would be he first to Defend Danny and 3abn, But I am basically a nobody in the this whole thing so I" ersonally doubt that that offer will come to me.

ut Like have tried to say more then once I am for the simple truth to be told the Good the bad and he ugly parts, i for one see all of those in the bible, so why would i not expect to see those in the eople of God in this modern times.

o Fhb, has to the degree of linda's guilt for that last 20 years, for some of what people are accusing anny and 3 abn yes she holds some of the blame, maybe more then what we know right now maybe ess time will tell. Do I think she is at least partly responsible for the break up of her marriage yes i o, do i think danny shares in that burden yes i do.

he actions of the last 3 years well FHB, lets just say that my guess if the whole truth is known some ay then yes sadly my guess is that linda may have blame to bear but, i know beyond a shadow of a oubt that Danny has some blame to bear to.

F had totally access to the whole truth, and saw that danny was blameless then i would defend him. ut based on the tax case ruling, and the worlds and actions of danny himself then i would say you re going need a big pile of proof.

By the way if you are offering a chance to see the proof then i accept your offer, just pm.

Well it is late and i am probablely making a fool out of my self, erik.

Fallible,

Please do not accuse me of one side or the other. In all honesty and from reading the post I find both parties at fault. I do not believe that Linda is entirely without fault. I for the life of me cannot understand why she would not just cut ties with the doctor or let someone else be the go between. And from the post I find Danny a bit cold in respect to his step son. Actually I believe the people on both sides have a little bit of the truth. I dont see anything in the accusations with the exception of the Tommy thing as being able to prosecute. I am troubled at the letter from the step daughter about Dannys actions. I am also troubled about the 100,000 dollars given to Linda by the doctor. [c[/color][color=#FF0000]But more than anything I am sadden about the lack of Love from the board and from the people on both sides. In a way I agree with Calvin on this and that is I wish that this would go away.

As for number seven I gathered that from the sermons that I heard with my own ears which seem to imply that Danny was the chosen of God like Moses. Or from the sermon that seem to apply that he was like John the Baptist.

Fallible do you love Linda? Do you love Danny? I can honestly say that I really was impressed with the both of them for some time. But this whole thing is so so sad and to me shows more than anything a lack of love. Even when a suggetst end is given the sides are soooo unloving that all they seem to be able to think about is their side saving face. Honestly I truely believe both have been under attack from satan and the individuals (board) in charge should have given them both time off from the ministry to work things out. But I can see the pride of the board, after all linda did not obey their orders. Let he who is without sin cast the first stone.

I for the life of me cannot understand why she would not just cut ties with the doctor or let someone else be the go between.

As far as I know, it was Linda's son, Nathan, who was hooked on drugs. I've been told, correctly or incorrectly, that one of the drugs involved was meth.

Now, if I had a son on meth, myself, I would not "cut ties with the doctor" to please the people who don't give a rip about my son.

One thing you will notice, is that Danny's defenders rarely, if ever, mention Nathan Moore. But if I were Nathan Moore, I might be a little upset with Dr. Walter Thompson, interfering with my doctor and my mother in this situation. Dr. Walter Thompson, chairman of the board of 3ABN, of all people, should know all about patient-doctor relationships, and should have butted out, in my opinion.

Now, when you get to the "I want to spend my life mending broken people" slogan spouted by Danny Shelton, it is my opinion that when the chips were down, neither Danny nor the 3ABN Board members were there for Linda Shelton.

However, as I said, you won't hear Danny Shelton and the 3ABN Board mention Nathan Moore very often, if at all, because methamphetamines do not fit the spin the 3ABN board members have been trying to supply, albeit, unsuccessfully, for the past three years.

In fact, the 3ABN Board and Danny Shelton do not remind me of the Seventh-day Adventists that I recall from my childhood in any way. I don't remember the Adventists back then being cold and heartless and hardened. Personally, I think 3ABN talks the talk, but does not walk the walk; As a result, I have decided that 3ABN belongs with a class of people whom I do not wish to have around.

Have you verified these claims? Or are you assuming the sensational nature of them will be sufficient to make Gailon back off and thus you are not concerned with whether they are in fact true and neither have nor intend to verify them.

If you have not, then you are making an allegation based on hearsay... which seems to be a common thread in the dispatches from your camp. None of you is ever an actual participant in any of the things you dredge up... you just heard it from a source you are declaring credible without independent verification on your part and without the necessary information required for others to either confirm or refute it.

Scripture has a term for such... several, in fact.

Why would he be concerned, well let's ask Bob Pickle and Greg Matthews who appear to be Gailon A. Joy's spokesmen - or at least they are closest to him in regards to the 3ABN story and because Mr. Joy doesn't post here so they are his spokesmen. Do the claims provided below which were made (HERE) have any basis in fact? If they do, it would seem that Mr. Joy has a past and reputation that would make most skeptical Americans very wary of anything he claimed to be "the truth." However, there doesn't seem to be much skepticism here about his "truth" which is used to support the local novella published here and the postings of "sister" so maybe America wouldn't be so skeptical of someone who was convicted of embezzelment and now has this litany of claims of against him to deal with.

O. K. You have asked me to respond:

I have followed as many of the links that I could find. I found the posting on "atomorrow" that you referenced above, by a John Alfke. A review of Mr. Alfke's bio clearly shows that he is haveing fun, and likely going beyond the truth with overstatements. Do we relly take seriously his question regarding the 72 virgins, and his claim to be a Chipendale dancer? I do not think so.

But, after all of this, I can not find any Internet link to the issues that he claims may be found on the Internet, and that you reference.

If you seriously want people to respond, you need to provide us withe the origonal Internet links. If you would do that, your request that we (I) respond would be a valid one. If you can give me the origonal Internet source, and/or the source (if that is applicable) for the Internet reference, I wll attempt to follow it down, and comment on it.

I can not be considered to make a valid comment on something that you do not provide a reference source for me to review. Right now your reference is probably third hand, or more, and comes by way of an individual who has contaminated his credibility with a comment (joking I suppose) regarding 72 virgins, and more.

Mr. J, I don't know if they carry crow at my local high end market but I do know they were selling some croc recently. (or was that gator back in January? I think they have a fresh stash in for next weekend).

Kevin, step away from the crows! (they happen to be my favorite birdies) No one should eat things that live longer than most humans, IMO

Now this is a much nicer way to distract and divert!

Shall we get back on topic or continue planning NW's party?

Well, I think if we discussed our opinions of Clay's question we would be back on topic. I was just getting worried since nobody else was heading us back to the topic so I figured I would go ahead and drop the shoe. Perhaps they are all sleeping in since the discussion went on so late last night. So, maybe we could still safely have some fun...

n any case Clay, wonder no more. FHB's OP had nothing to do with that letter, and I confess....

no not even.... what was interesting was the email that you provided that in essence gave the marching orders to do what you all have tried to do in this thread... i.e. spread Mr. Joy's life all over the internet..... that is what is interesting....

That is right Clay. I think the words of the anonymous emailer summed it up:

"stone throwing and character assasination"

What I agree with, though, is now that FHB brought this issue up it is important to follow it through to see what the truth turns out to be. If GAJ has taken advantage of folks and it has not been resolved, it may speak to a character problem. If the charges are baseless, where did they come from? That would speak to a character problem with the one making the original claims.

Ultimately, does that change the credibility of anything that is posted on save3abn or here? If so, what and why.

Practically everything you've posted judges the motives and intents of others and is based on opinions and hearsay; by your own admission you are not a witness... so measuring you by the measure you mete... you are "generally not good"...

Diane, respectfully you can't possibly know my motive and intent. And you don't know what I do, and that is that no one knew ahead of time what I was going to write about or post. No one knew ahead of time why I posted it, nor did I discuss it beforehand with anyone.

The e-mail was in response to what I had written because that individual had just read it, and knew nothing about it before then.

Why was the replies and responses to what Iposted expected?

Well when the same type of replies and arguments are given over and over, you expect it. That's it plain and simple.

Now for someone who keeps advising me to read what's written and accusing me of not being able to comprehend that, It may suprise you to know, I often have that same opinion of you on reading what you post to me, such as the above.

Please try for one moment to accept what I just explained, and then read what actually was written with that in mind.

""Great thread Cindy. Your OP was great and illicted the expected response . . . stone throwing, character assassination, etc.

Nobody offered anything to refute your point, in fact they never addressed your point at all, instead trying to turn it into a personal attack on your integrity and character (guess the rules are out the window already!) ""

I respectfully ask that the "things that make you go hmmm..." thread be reopened, and all these posts about the letter which was posted in it, be moved there.

I am not Gailon Joy and this topic is not about my credibility. It does not appear that the OP in the thread is being addressed either.

Thank you for listening.

No it is not about your credibility, but if you all are wanting to discredit Mr. Joy then may i suggest a different route that might just work better.

Have tommy shelton make a Statement that he did not in fact do the things that the Letters from the young men and boys, and mothers say that he did do.

Have danny write out in simple terms with clear proof that his ex wife was guilty of anything more then talking to much on the phone.

Those type of statements will discredit Mr. Joy so much faster then if he paid his rent or not. I mean to me it sounds like if true that mr. joy might color out side the lines a little bit, guess that is why Dannys appearing to color out side the lines is so easy for him to spot.

The email in question stated this:

> QUOTE
> "There is new material on Pickled's web site. It includes Danny's financial affidavit. Nothing for Linda is posted for comparison. More evidence of the unbalanced approach the man uses. I wonder how he would feel if his entire life were posted on the Internet for public review?"

We know that sav3abn is Mr. Joy's website, not Bob's.... So then everything stated by this person in this email is in reference to Mr. Joy and not Bob because it is Mr. Joy's website.... thus, the statement "I wonder how he would feel if his entire life were posted on the Internet for public review?" must refer to Mr. Joy and not Bob... since again the website belongs to Mr. Joy.....

Those who have read and understood... understand this....

Count on me!! And sometimes, it's nice just to be spontaneous! Best laid plans, don't ya know and all that! And don't leave me out of any of the meeting/parties that involve chocolate! Being the chocoholic that I am...I don't miss any party that involves some chocolate...and I guess if you share your stash, I can bring some out of mine too! I would hate to come empty handed!

As important chocolate is to me (and it is very important, bugs or no bugs - did I say that)I think it's the special on the menu and the company that would be the the most inviting! Hmm, grilled medusa? You know, I'm trying to do the vegetarian thing (again) but I can put that off a while longer...it would be worth it! But, I better tell Ya, I don't care for crow. It's yucky.
Had a small piece once...I wouldn't advise it.

P.S. I have some other friends that are just itching to join us, would that be all right with you and the others? I'm sure bear would like to come! He'll eat almost anything! I hate to leave anyone out of such a delightful party!

ey, Sonshineonme, you forgot about inviting me! I have an excellent stash of goodies to bring. How bout chocolate bunnies? Personally, I prefer the ears. A party sounds like an excellent idea. on't forget to invite Bystander, it would be nice to finally have a face to go along with his words. ow, Bystander, I am not trying to out you identity, but if you came you could take a group picture for he lawyers.

ey, did anyone invite Johann? Europeans ALWAYS bring a hostess gift when they visit. Do they have hocolate made in Iceland or do they depend upon the Swiss to supply their needs? Johann, what egie delights do you have in Iceland to share at the party? Make sure you bring your better half, she eeds to meet the nice folks at BSDA!

Actually, if you had followed the link that was posted you would have seen the post to which I was referring. it was the same one posted here, yesterday. Different screen name, same post, and it was one of your people.

Now, you are running off at the mouth wwjd, but I had to talk long and hard to get your group to even go into the arcade or post to another forum. In fact. BS, initially stated that he was only here to cmbat the false rumars, etc. He then chilled out in the arcade, and I think found he had some fun. As did Cindy and yourself. So it was you all in that condition, the rest of us have been posting to 3ABN and still continuing with our lives. Yes, it was sad, but I am optimistic that it is improving.........What do you think?

Mr. Joy put his life into play by placing himself in a self appointed limelight...i.e. trashing DS, 3abn and anyone connected to 3abn. This is not about a distraction period. This is about the fact that a man who has no credentials in any form or fashion has placed himself as judge and jury to a world wide ministry. By putting himself in that position we have every right to find out about his ethics, business practices and his claims to being an "innocent convicted embezzler."
If anyone on the street can pop up and decide to become a self appointed investigator of whatever place they choose, then put said allegations and lies on the internet, they should be ready for a search into their background. Especially when they had no credibility in the first place.

Jnana, I have two. One charcoal and one gas. SSOM, with this size party just considering those who are now invited i might need to rent one professional size (and I can have it here in an hour since i have a secret source to get it).

But yes, SSOM invite them all. I have a digital camera and printer handy. I will have HollybyGolly put the scrapbook together.

Did I mention name tags are not optional because party crashers are not allowed?

For now, I am going out to get the yard ready for y'all.

Oh yeah, Sister you can bring the bunnies but I have one of those nice chocolate fountains that hold about 10 pounds of melted chocolate at once. Anything people want to dip in it they are welcome to bring but I will be offering fruit.

I'm sure NW has thought of that.... we can arrange for haystacks for those that don't like grilled medusa. That would be the good-hostess thing to do, wouldn't it?

You make a great point. Much of what you say "DS did" is coming from Joy and his sources. If you choose to believe that he is a credible source , so be it. But if by investigating him, you find that he and his "source" who we know has ulterior motives, Isn't credible then what? Those here that are Linda's friends continue to spread what they have been told. My point being that if you trace many of the stories back and they really originated from just a certain few people, then you may find that DS and 3abn haven't "done" anything to deserve what they're getting.

As far as distraction goes it would seem that is what your side is doing now with all the chit chat over nothing.

Posted by: PeacefullyBewildered Mar 27 2007, 01:39 PM

SSOM,
With as fancy as this shindig is likely to become, I'll do the Martha Stewart thing and bring some Perrier and fruit juice to drink.

NW,
Name tags not an option... An inside source? Yikes, I smell another thread brewin' with those tidbits out now.

BTW, is there enough medusa to go around for a crowd this size? Oh, that's right, Di's bringing some chicken. If there's enough room on the rental grill, I could whip up some gluten kabobs....

wwjd,
I, for one, would like to see you post a list of those things that have originated from just a few certain people and then support it with proof that those few people aren't eyewitnesses and are, therefore, not credible.

Until you can do that, and not just attempt to discredit one of those people by someone's unverified posts on the internet, those people who claim to be eyewitnesses will retain their credibility.

So far, your words have not connected any dots here.

When the story came out that Mr. Joy was a convicted embezzler, I was one of the first to publicly state the facts in regard to his conviction. As those have been publicy stated, by me, and others, I am not going to review them again in this post.

I have been publicly requested to comment on these new alligations that are claimed to be available on the Internet. I have followed the links. All I can find is that a person who jokes about being a Chipendale dancer, and makes a joing comment about the 72 virgins also claims that the Internet support these new alligations.

If you can lead me to the origonal source, I will comment. But, I am not about to comment on something that is 3rd hand, or more down the line, and can only be traced to a purported Chipendale dancer.

Gregory,
I have two emails out to the fellow who posted these claims but have not heard back from him yet. I did notice when I was reading his profile yesterday that he had been logged in on the ATomorrow forum that very day so the guy is obviously still around.

I do, also, find it noteworthy that that the webmaster at save3abn.com emailed him 10 days ago and hasn't gotten a response either.

But if by investigating him, you find that he and his "source" who we know has ulterior motives, Isn't credible then what? Those here that are Linda's friends continue to spread what they have been told. My point being that if you trace many of the stories back and they really originated from just a certain few people, then you may find that DS and 3abn haven't "done" anything to deserve what they're getting.
> As far as distraction goes it would seem that is what your side is doing now with all the chit chat over nothing.

wwjd, I think you have me confused with someone else.... here is what I said Danny Shelton did... Danny Shelton came to BSDA and lied.... you can search the archives yourself for his first comment here... Danny Shelton did not treat his wife as a christian man should have when he chose to get a quick divorce, have her sign a statement limiting both how much money she got and what she could say.... Danny Shelton then proceeded to trash her reputation knowing she could not defend herself... 12

So all I have ever been concerned with from day one, and you can go back to the beginning, my position has not changed... it is simple... EVEN IF she did everything she has been accused of doing, Danny should not have treated her in the manner he did...

I don't want to hear the foolishness about she should have read what she signed, etc etc... as a christian man, he should not have done what he did.....

Now with the other stuff that has surfaced and been discussed and/or argued about, it reminds me of a punch line Flip Wilson had at the end of one of his jokes.... "yeah he did it and a whole bunch more....." It may never be proven, Danny will probably go on with his life, but its simple wwjd... I will believe Danny has done nothing when the majority of white people in the United States believe O.J. didn't commit murder.....

Greg,

You were included in the inquiry because you have spoken for Mr. Joy in the past. You have associated yourself with him as part of Linda's team in regards to the ASI situation. Granted you have said that you are not all of one mind on all issues, but that doesn't change the fact that you have generally hrown in together in regards to the issues involving 3ABN.

The link I provided in the OP takes you directly to the posts - not the profile. I am not sure why you ended up at the profile when the link doesn't take you there. But, for clarity, here are the posts that are used as reference:

> and I expect to receive threats for posting this!

t is obvious that this isn't second hand information, but first hand information. The author of the)osts indicates direct experience in regards to the claims. I have bolded the sections that indicate first ıand source.

\s to his profile, it is filled with tongue-in-cheek comments indicating a sense of humor. Does this nake his claims invalid, I don't see how. The OP included a link to the information above. If you don't vant to answer feel free to not do so.

\nd lest there be any uncertainty, I am not claiming that Gailon is guilty of the claims made above - ıs I did in my OP and another subsequent post I have asked for clarification on these issues. It is not ınreasonable to explore the source of information found on the JoyPickle site. The information there ıas been promulgated here and cited many times in many postings here. Is that a valid source of nformation? Can you answer that without understanding the motives of those involved? Can you trust hat information if those presenting it may have questionable approaches? As the poster at \Tomorrow points out, while he generally sides with Linda, he questions the website used to attack)anny and 3ABN because of the claims he makes in his post.

\lo one has questioned you Greg. While you are one of Linda's main proponents publically you have ıot established a web site and carried around the title "Investigator" as a way to give validity to your :laims or accusations. Gailon has placed himself in the center of all things 3ABN related. Can his word)e trusted as one considers whether or not to support 3ABN in any form - this is where this issue :omes into play.

3ailon has endeavored to create a perception that would lead people to withdraw support. This is ntentional. He claims his information is solid and the truth. But, does this information and the :mbezzlement issue raise concerns about the veracity of his "truth"? I would think for most rational hinking individuals it would raise questions about it.

)anny, Tommy, the 3ABN BoD, Mollie, Shelley, their husbands, John Lomacang, et. al. have made ;tatements that they claim to be true and yet each time they are held to a standard of review. Their vords are regularly called lies. Their personal lives have been laid open here in more than one thread. 3ailon has placed himself in this situation on the same plane as these people, the same plane as the 'epresentatives from ASI. That means his work is open for review and it must be reviewed the same ıs those at 3ABN are reviewed. If Mollie's words and action are going to be dissected, both her)ersonal and private ones, and decisions about 3ABN are going to made based on this - then for)alance to occur the same must be done with Mr. Joy and his site (and yes, we all know he owns the ;ite, but it is clear by reading and comparing writing styles that he isn't the one writing the content).

will grant you and others this, I may have rushed this topic to the boards. I could have emailed Mr. oy, (he can email me as he has my email address courtesy of Mr. Pickle.) However, because of 'erification from other sources that these claims need to be addressed I posted it. In hindsight I could ıave established a stronger position by seeking a response from Mr. Joy. I would expect that his 'esponse would have been much the same as the one Mr. Pickle began to present in an earlier post ınd sounded a lot like the weak, rationalizing defense given for the embezzlement question - but I ;hould have presented my findings to him before posting to see if he would respond.

Haystacks hawaiian style? I'll save my pineapple for the chocolate fountain! Hey, Bear, what about tamales? Yum,Yum,Yum. And Re, bring on the Black olives and guacamole to go with t! How about banana cake, I make a mean banana cake or blueberry muffins.

FHB,

I have to agree with you on the content of John Alfke's profile. I can't see where a wry sense of humor would undermine the credibility of his two posts.

While he does mention that he has personal experience with GAJ not paying rent, as you highlighted, it still leaves the majority of the claims unverified. If you have any connection to this man, I would ask you to encourage him to provide verification or, unfortunately, the whole thing begins to look like a ploy, or at the least a grudge statement.

Regarding your last paragraph, hank you, Sister, we'd love to attend. They make good chocolate in Iceland too, but not like the wiss. There are even vegie delights made here, but you can also get most of what is produced in urope, and some American.

have read these sad discussions on this thread, but I feel no burden to take part in them.

his morning I woke up from a strange dream. Seemed like Ida and I were just looking out through ur living room window and there we look straight down into a volcanic crater that is about 20 minutes rom our place. It is thousands of years old, and in the bottom is a deep lake. In my dream the water vas covered with thin ice, and as we were looking I see three persons, although I did not recognize hem I knew they were from 3ABN. Suddenly they realized they had lost, and one by one they walk ut on the thin ice. When they reach the middle of the lake the ice breaks and they plunge through he hole, one by one, and disappear into the depths. I felt we were so helpless because we were too ar away to help. AS the last one of the three disappears and I get ready to call 911, I woke up.

low I have been thinking: How much do I care for these people? Do I love them as brothers and isters? Do I want them to be saved? What will happen if we change our approach completely in an ttempt to save these people from eternal destruction?

might even tell my dream on the net? Tell them how much I care for them? Would anybody else are, or still treat them as hopeless liars?

t was a sad experience when I discovered that even Pastor John Lomacang twisted the truth around nd told the opposite. But I love him too and I want him to be saved. Be a pastor to your church and ead them in the path of God and His Son Jesus Christ that you may be saved! You have to be an xample to the others, or they feel they do not have to tell the truth.

have a couple of packs of Boca Burgers for those who don't eat meat. Will be bringing my delicious omemade potato salad and 36 pack of iced bottled water in a cooler. Will that do?

Am a chocoholic but found out recently I am allergic to Chocolate. So will bring my tasty homemade carob candy for those who are trying to quit...tastes much better than the store bought carob candy.

I have an engagement watch that hasen't worked in years that my first hubby gave to me before we were married. Would that work as a hostessgift? Hope so, I have been trying to get rid of it but no one seems to want it... dunno why.

HB:

have read your resposne to my question. I am frankly tired, and need to get to bed. So, I am not joing to make a long response now.

'our link did not take me to the profile. It took me to the posting by JA. While there, I clicked on his)rofile link to see what I could learn about him. His profile clearly reveals that he has an "interesting" ;ense of humor. Yes, I think that his 72 virgins, and Chipendale daancer are examples of his making a oke, and/or exergareted statements. It simply raises a question in my mind as to when he might ıave done the same (possibly to a lessor degree) in his main post.

\s I recall his post, he did not claim to be a personal witness to most of what he posted. Rather, as I 'emember it, he indicated that he had discovered the content of his post on the Internet. I would like o go back to the origional source--what he discovered on the Internet. It would be of value to me to ;ee if his version is exergerated from the origional. It would also be of value to me so see what is ıctually claimed on the Internet, and the basis of the claim.

have had fun many times by plugging names of people I knew into Internet search engines and ;eeing what I could find. The reality is that I would most often find "interesting" information which was ıbout someone with the same name, but not the person that I would have in mind. I have sometimes, n a spirit of fun, contacted my friend with a printout just to see what they said.

:oundational to my request for the origional Internet source is my desire to see of the person named n the allegations is actually the same Mr. Joy that I know.

;o, I ask again: Give me the origional Internet source. Let me check it out. It looks like what JA)osted is 2nd, 3rd, or some other hand account. I am not going to comment on something that is that ar down the distribution line. At least not tonight.

Greg,

I am not sure but I think I see where the misunderstanding is. The line in the OP about there being interesting things on the Internet were my words and not those of JA. I prefaced the bulletpointed list in the OP with a short personal comment. The sections in the quote boxes are the content from JA.

In those two posts he points to personal experience and seems to indicate that he knows a number of other individuals personally who have had similar experiences. JA's posts are my references to the issue. There are no other sites, that I am aware of, where these claims have been made.

I am tired as well and ready to call it a night. I hope this clears things up.

i PB,

Vhile I don't know or understand why it looks like a ploy or grudge statement to you, surely we can gree that J.A. appears to support Linda, to post under his own name, and to be a realtor.

am more interested in his personal claim that G.A. Joy tried to pay his overdue rent with a check rom a EGW trust fund he[Joy] was managing, then in his personal claim that Joy just didn't pay rent eriod. Reason being, and I know people don't like me mentioning it, but he's a convicted embezzler vho claims he did nothing wrong.

o me the attempt to pay rent with a EGW trust fund check is very questionable, and I would think hat an answer should be forthcoming, as in "no that never happened" or "yes it did, and here's why it vas ok.."

.A.'s secondary claim (to me) "Joy didn't pay rent , well, I like to give the benefit of the doubt, There nay be legit, or understandable reasons for that. Bad times, tragedies, emergencies and things can appen to us all. What I am saying is perhaps Joy couldn't pay. Again a short explanation houlld clear it up, if that's the case, and surely J.A. would be aware of these extenuating ircumstances, if Joy offered them as an excuse or reason at the time.

emailed Joy immediatly as soon as this was posted and Bob didn't appear to know how to answer, nd asked me to e-mail him instead. Joy hasn't replied to me at all. I think I saw where you claimed ou had emailed someone also- twice.

can't remember if you referred to Joy or Alfke? and frankly, I am too tired to go back and reread osts to find out.

o, have you recieved anything about this from either of them, or any other?

guess if it comes down to it, there are probably civil records regarding this, if it's true, and Alfke ould probably point us to them, or they could be checked out even wiithout him..

ut as Joy was so upfront (immediatly) about his position regarding the embezzling cases, when that urfaced, you would think he would be the same here.
gain,

ourse if it doesn't come out here, some day soon, all will be known, and that truly will be a great ay.

Good question, Bob. I am in receipt of some emails written to someone else about me that contain some very inflammatory statements. I've been waiting for the right time to bring them up.

If the authorship of the aforementioned email is the same as the emails I have, it definitely makes some pieces of the puzzle come together.

Coming from a EG White apologist that's rather suprising, but if that's true then you might want to review her will. It's on the estate website. It's been awhile since I read it myself, but I believe the only trust funds have to do with education of her grandchildren, and other worthy individuals.

Cindy has admitted that she is part of a coordinated effort to get to the "truth." It is apparent from the posts those who share her view and are assisting in this coordinated effort. It is also apparent that their "effort" has resulted in more confusion and truth-bending, and as she herself has noted, "one man's garbage is another man's treasure...." 5

I would submit that in my opinion this coordinated effort has produced more garbage than treasure, more truth bending than truth....

That being the case, can garbage producers change their vocation and become successful treasure collectors?

FHB:

Thank you for your response to me.

First, I would like to comment a little on proof:

Absolute proof, which is not a legal term, is a clear establishment of a fact. Legal documents are examples of such. As related to 3-ABN the legal documents relating to the divorce, and the separation agreement establish a set of legal facts that can not be controverted. Examples of such documents hat relate to 3-ABN include the divorce decree, and the Separation Agreement. The divorce decree establishes a specific date when Danny and Linda were divorced. That decree could, as it was, be challenged as invalid. The court ruled the decree was valid, and the decree establishes that set of acts. So does the Separation Agreement. The meaning of its parts may be debated in litigated. In a egal ruling of its meaning and application, the documents still stands as establishing a set of facts.

Of course there are levels of proof that are much less convincing. The lowest level might be said to be hat X is unsubstantiated.

n the legal arena they are generally three levels of proof.

Beyond reasonable doubt is the highest level of proof. This simply means that no reasonable doubt exists that something is a fact.

Preponderance of the evidence is the lowest standard of proof. It means that the evidence supports a certain decision by an amount greater than 50 per-cent. So, in theory, one might say that it is 51 % probable that X happened, and 49 % that it did not.

Clear and convincing is the standard that lies between preponderance of the evidence and beyond reasonable doubt.

As I relate to the issues raised in discussion regarding 3-ABN, I personally believe that the allegations range from unsubstantiated to much higher levels of proof. I have personally taken the position that Linda Shelton did not have a relationship with Dr. A that gave Danny Biblical grounds to divorce her. While I am aware that others disagree with that position, it is mine, and I have a high level of certainty that such is the case.

Frankly, I consider some comments that are made about Danny to be unsubstantiated.

have reviewed again the comments made by John Alfke that you have referenced. Here are the major ones, as I see them:

1) Mr. Joy cheated 5 - 6 landlords out of their justly due rent.
2) Mr. Alfke was one such person who was cheated.
3) Mr. Joy cheated a bank out of its deserved mortgage payments which resulted in a foreclosure and a financial loss to that lending institution.
4) Mr. Joy is claimed to have paid, or attempted to pay, his rent with a check drawn on an EG White trust account. Mr. Alfke claims to have personal knowledge of this.

Now, I will comment on those allegations:

4: The claimed payment of rent from an E G White trust account: The fundamental question here to me is: Is this believable?

I find it hard to believe that Mr. Joy would have anything to do with an E G White trust account. Those are generally handled by the E G White Estate. I do not find it easy to believe the EGW Estate would place Mr. Joy in charge of a trust account.

In addition, trust accounts are carefully audited. Mr. Joy would have known that if he were to do such if would be discovered. I do not believe that Mr. Joy is that stupid. So, I can only assume that either the allegation is wrong, or the Mr. Joy did have valid reason to do such.

1: The claim is made. But, there is clearly nothing in the post that documents, or even specifies the facts of the allegation. I note that the one who posted is uncertain as to whether 5 or 6 landlords were cheated. O. K. That is honesty. Thank you for that. But, it suggests that more facts should be discovered. Perhaps Mr. Alfke could provide us with sworn statements made by the 5 or 6 landlords. Such would increase the credibility of the allegation. Perhaps there are other legal records?

2: Mr. Alfke claims to be a victim of such. O. K. That claim is elevated in validity as it is claimed to be a 1st person account. However, it is a blanket claim. To be accepted, Mr. Alfke needs to provide more of the facts, and document what he says. For example, if he obtained a judgment against Mr. Joy that would clearly elevate the credibility of the allegation.

3: This one is a very broad statement. To say one cheated is to imply criminal conduct that could result in prosecution. Were criminal charges filed? Was there a conviction? If not, it may be that it, if it actually happened, was a case of a financial reverse that caused the lending institution to foreclose. NOTE: Such is not criminal. Are you going to say that every homeless person has committed a crime because they were unable to pay their mortgage? I find this one to be somewhat like the comments that Mr. Alfke made in his bio. He likes to state things (72 virgins, etc) in terms to get people's attention. He just may exaggerate

The defense attorney stood to begin his closing arguments. As he took a few, measured steps towards the jury box, he reflected on his case. It didn't look good for his client. The man had been caught leaning over the lifeless body of his wife, her blood on his arms and chest, the murder weapon in his hand and dozens of witnesses in the next room who had heard them fighting moments before.

Occasionally, as he quietly pled the circumstantial nature of the case against his client before those twelve men and women, he would pause and nervously, expectantly gaze at the courtroom door. Finally, just before he was about to sit down, a man strode through the door and handed the attorney a note. The attorney read it briefly, put it into his pocket and smiled.

"What would you say if I told you that my team has found the actual murderer of my client's wife? That this man was able to slip by the witnesses, unnoticed, viciously stab an innocent woman and then slip back out again? What would you say if I told you that my investigators have that man right outside this courtroom, ready to bring him in through those very doors?"

He flourishes his right arm in that direction and all heads turn to the doors to watch the real killer make his entrance. They wait, in hushed expectation, and wait, and wait. Finally, the clever defense attorney redirects the jury's attention back onto himself.

"Of course, there is no man waiting just outside the courtroom doors. The point is, you all looked. That shows you have reasonable doubt that my client is the actual murderer. You must, therefore, find him 'Not guilty'."

Is that what is happening here? Is this information, as yet simply unverified hearsay to this date, that was found posted on the Adventist Tomorrow forum being used as a diversion, turning attention away from the real issues? Is it an attempt to shift the guilt and focus away from some and onto others? I don't know. It would be nice if the man who made the posts would confirm or deny their credibility with some form of documentation, but he remains silent.

Is it just a convenient ploy?

BTW, the above story is a reworking of one my husband and I saw on a legal series that we follow. It's what came to my mind as this topic has unfolded.

The smell keeps the people with the bugs at a distance. Turn it around, and you see how some well seasoned "garlic" might keep the witnesses at a distance.

Cindy, My thoughts....If only the people here would have scrutinized all of the allegations against DS and 3abn, like they have Mr. Joys, we probably wouldn't have to be here right now. This is what makes this whole situation so ironic it's sad. It is a totally different set of rules they go by to judge those on their side than they use to judge 3abn. All one has to do is hint at an impropiety by DS or 3abn, and everyone here is all over it. Say something about someone on their side and you get attacked for even mentioning it.
You will notice pickle never answered about the car repossession. I saw a copy of that judgement today so it did happen or is going to happen. No matter how they argue it, there seems to be a pattern here.

That might end up being true NW, I certainly hope and pray for that. I think if we all have thee same goal in mind and pray for God's will to be done then it certainly will lead us all to the same point.

I've heard some argue that when Paul spoke of letting each be fully persuaded in their own mind, he was saying divisions and differences are ok.

I hold the opposite view, he was saying 'don't quibble and argue, stop finding fault with each other and sweatin the small stuff, each of you go find the truth for yourselves,

For if I find the truth and if you find the truth, and actually if each does that then obviously we will all discover the same truth. For truth is absolute, and not subjective as the modern world claims.

Anyway then as Paul said we can all be of one mind and of one accord, and really that will only happen if we "Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus"

Ok-- gettin off my soapbox now.

particularly liked the part where although you and Bystander have posted you use the same omputer, you somehow revealed a pattern you may not have wanted to, when you made the alleged slip"...

hat's ok, another part of their conspiracy is that only Bystander calls Bob "pickled" and that he wrote the e-mail I posted. I haven't bothered replying because it doesn't matter what I say, these people think they know more about me then I do, they already know what I do and think, and why I do it, before I do it...

Obviously this is the same kind of false assumptions that have led to such wild accusations here and on the save 3ABN website.

Isn't a bit hard to use the same computer and play in the arcade at the same time?? rofl

No it is not hard, who says there is only one computer?

I have posted here from my Mom''s computer, as has she, and then I have gone back to my own computer and played games in the arcade while she was in the arcade also playing games. Each with our own identities. --- >We live in the same house, and share the same DSL line.

I had hoped to disregard it to avoid further embarrassment to the accuser. But Fallible's libelous extractions have made it imperative that we waste our time doing a response. Unfortunately, the response will not serve any credibility purpose as purported by Fallible but rather will go far toward discrediting the fallible human being yet again. Next time have Fallible call me and save himself some pain and me some time.
> However, I will direct my response directly to the accuser and copy the circle in an e-mail response that will go far wider than just BSDA. The response will be as direct and specific as it was nearly ten years ago when I went directly to the realtor's office and answered his ludicrous demand. And it will unfortunately probably cause him as much embarrassment now as it did then!!!Believe me when I tell you, I have no problem answering the accuser!!! My only regret is that he did not pursue his claim and give me the opportunity to make his life a litigious pit and collaterally have prevented him from ever pulling the same on yet others.

I have made it a rule not to abuse the legal process by filing suit against another, even when abused or defrauded, but if one is foolish enough to bring a suit that abuses process against me, then I will defend VERY AGGRESSIVELY!!! If, in fact, one files an action and it is good law, I would simply stipulate or default and make appropriate restitution. It is the only fair way!!! I have done both in their proper forum.

I have spent the better part of my life helping virtually thousands of people through very difficult times, including divorces, legal issues, victims of fraud, bankruptcies and medical or financial setbacks. I have been gifted with sufficient life experience that we can usually help most people find a solution to the most difficult problems. Sometimes you get paid and sometimes you do not, but the satisfaction is in helping people rebuild their lives or receive restitution for the evils that beset them. Idealistic in some respects, but I can say that I have made an honest effort throughout my life to bring equilibrium to the battlefields of life for the clients that I have served.

It is the same equilibrium I will make every effort to bring to Shelton v Shelton, et siq and any other person trod upon or victimized by a unilateral or unfair system. This is a quality you clearly do not share but I find it incomprehensible that Christianity would have it any other way...but alas you and Fallible have decided to stand with the oppressors and desecrate the oracles of Honesty, Fair Play and Integrity in favor of supporting power, money and greed. You may do as you have chosen but as for me I will continue to make my life's work to bring equilibrium to the battlefield whenever appropriate and take on a few dragons whenever the Lord sees fit to allow a collision course on the path of this life. I WILL NOT STEP ASIDE for dragons!!!

I believe the simplest summation is that I have learned that no good turn goes unpunished. C'est la vie. That is the life of a Christian. Accept your lot and move forward. But never allow the dragons to go unchallenged!!! To do so is heresy!!! Much to my wife's chagrin, I have repeatedly put it all on the line. And I pray that I will continue to do so my entire life. God willing!!!

As we prepare for the legal challenge 3ABN continues to assert they will bring, we will continue to educate the stockholders in the pews in our continued effort to bring justice and mercy to its proper conclusion. It would be appropriate for you and Fallible to consider carefully which side stands for the Christian Standards the Remnant Church demands and take a stand for those standards rather than continuing to defend such a failed hypocrisy. To continue to pretend that 3ABN is the undiluted three angels' messages and is all about mending broken people is to be virtually blind to the overwhelming evidence that is far from a crescendo.

Where will you stand when all is revealed and you have ignored the honest truth? It is time to set pride aside and join in the call for the removal of the cancer that plagues 3ABN? Your defense does not change the truth!!! Your ludicrous arguments do not solve the problem that plagues 3ABN or prevent the Judgments of the Lord from being realized at 3ABN. God's providence continues to work against 3ABN and it officers and directors, despite their best efforts. At what point do you throw the Jonah overboard that he may have his day with the fish and that the ship may be saved?

At what point do you realize that the ministry is led by a man living in open sin improperly endorsed by its board and know that the Lord has Lifted his Favor from 3ABN as a result? How could this battle continue to build after three years if the Lord's hand was not guiding it? What commandments have been breached and what standards have been set aside to allow the ministry to continue to be led by a man living in open adultery?

At some point new leadership is a must!!! If the board does not take its role seriously, than a new governance will emerge as well. But the Lord will not stand by and allow this open and blatant sin to continue unpunished. You delude yourselves to believe otherwise!!!

I implore you to consider carefully your position and to recognize the truth, to call for confession, repentance and reform. This will go far to bringing this issue a step closer to resolution and allow 3ABN to get back to its mission, whatever that may be. And so be it!!!

vwjd,

"lets slip" is just as dramatic as was the "shocking allegations" about a car repossession. I just thought I would add some irony to the titilating morsel you and bystander were dangling out at us. Certainly you are familiar with my sense of humor by now. But if it is killing you, I guess I better work on my style.

Maybe...

So what does the letter say specifically about the allegations in the OP?

Nothing really, except nearly 10 years ago a realtor was making demands of Joy for rent which he calls ludicrous. And sometime in the future his response will be direct and specific, and humiliating [but not now...]

"The response will be as direct and specific as it was nearly ten years ago when I went directly to the realtors office and answered his ludicrous demand. Well, Cindy, joys email looks like a whole lot of do to about nothing. He rambled around for a while, patted himself on the back several times and did his usual MO with slamming 3abn but when the smoke cleared, I didn't see any specific answers.

He very clearly said he was working on an answer. And I have a feeling the answer may be more than just his words. If he goes about getting documents from previous landlords, that could take a little time.

But maybe it will be just his words. I don't know.

You have to admit, he said something more substantial than Danny et. al. has done when they get asked questions. And if Fallible called him now, he would get quite a few details, far more than I got today when I called Danny et. al.

You have to be kidding!!!! Surely you don't think that after your smear campaign that he would give you the time of day?
If he would talk to you, We all know that it wouldn't make a hill of beans what he actually said. You would manipulate and spin the words to make then into whatever you needed them to be.
Get real...of course he isn't going to have a conversation with you.

Posted by: Pickle Mar 28 2007, 08:05 PM

Why not? If I were him, I would, because I would hope I wouldn't have anything to hide.

But notice I didn't say I tried to talk to Danny.

And as far as I know, I haven't manipulated or spun anything he's said. If you beg to differ, as I've asked before, be specific rather than make vague accusations.

Posted by: Pickle Mar 28 2007, 08:26 PM

I just got a call from someone wondering why I said I called Danny et. al. and then said I didn't call Danny. To protect the identity of the one I called, I said Danny et. al., which I take to be a synonym for Danny and company, Danny's side, that sort of thing. So I called someone from Danny's camp, but not necessarily Danny himself.

And by the way, since Danny himself told me that he wasn't going to answer questions till after ASI was done with whatever they were going to do, and since ASI is now done, he shouldn't have any problem answering questions ... if he has nothing to hide.

The one I talked to today said he/she had nothing to hide, and then proceeded to say that he/she was going to hide the answers to my questions. I really, honestly, don't get it.

You expect something like this from certain politicians we've had recently, but not people in charge of Seventh-day Adventist ministries.

Bob,

can say with almost absolute certainty that no one today said "I am going to hide the answers to your questions, Bob" That is exactly why no one wants to talk to you.

Why you even think anybody at 3ABN would want to talk to you, or answer your questions is just unbelievable.

Literally you have them damned if they do, and damned if they don't.

Several tried to answer you in the beginning and then you twisted what they said every single ime,and claimed it was proof of guilt, so when they stopped answering, you claimed that is proof of heir guilt also, because they would answer if they weren't.

Please get a clue.

You have proven yourself to be a accuser of the brethren, regardless of what they say, or do not say.

Posted by: Lee Mar 28 2007, 09:07 PM

The bible teaches that we are to be 'discrete' or use "discretion." That means we don't blab everything we know. This doesn't mean a person is dishonest--it just means they are careful in what they say.

But obviously to you Pickle, it means a person is dishonest. Better read your Bible from cover to cover again. Look up the word "discretion" and see what it means.

Posted by: Pickle Mar 28 2007, 09:12 PM

The individual and I talked about discretion. We both see the necessity of being discrete. We could agree on that, as well as on other things.

And we weren't talking about blabbing everything they knew. We were talking about someone who claims they have nothing to hide choosing not to answer a few simple questions that would have been easy to answer if they didn't have anything to hide.

End of story.

I don't have to. YOu just proved yourself, again, why he won't talk to you. YOu insinuated you talked to DS and anyone just skimming through would perceive it as such. See? Manipulation of words to get people to believe what you want them to believe.

hmmm...
the above says to me that Danny et. al. = they they = Danny and his team so when Pickle says when I called Danny et.al. he means he called a member of Danny's team... it could have been Danny or it could have been someone else on his team... now, what is so difficult to understand about that?

Based on what I recall Gailon telling me yesterday about the car repossession issue:

- Gailon does not own the car in question.
- Gailon co-signed on a loan for a car.
- The owner paid the loan down to $1600.
- The owner had trouble paying off the rest.
- The lender wanted Gailon to pay up.
- Gailon suggested that they half the payments down to $160, and let the owner pay that each month.
- The lender refused.
- Gailon said, "Fine. Take it to court."
- The lender did.
- The court decided that the owner had to pay up, $160 a month.
- The owner has paid that amount, and the car has not been repossessed.

Okay, now if one looks through this thread, the ones who either claim to know about or have talked to sources about an automobile of Gailon's being repossessed are:

- Bystander
- WWJD
- Pickle
- Gailon

If we could insert a poll right here, since this thread is all about credibility, how would you rate the credibility of these individuals based on the information released thus far about the automobile issue?

More importantly, is Danny et. al. so devoid of information to exonerate themselves of the various allegations that they have to resort to discrediting the one(s) who just happen to have talked to the various witnesses? Even if Gailon has no credibility, how does that negate the testimony of all the witnesses?

P.S. I think the above story illustrates the type of thing Gailon was talking about regarding helping others less fortunate. I guess if I get in a jam like that, I'll know who to call if I can't figure out what to do.

here is either another chapter, or other developments since you were told the story. Since Gailon has epeatedly said that anyone who receives mail from him is welcome to post it on any board, here is vhat he has personally sent out to an undisclosed number of recipients.....

I am removing the names and addresses as have been requested by both BSDA admins and by many ndividuals themselves. I also removed the included text from the original question as sent to Gailon oy. Other than that I am making no change in either the text or the headers.)

imple enough. I co-signed a car loan for an associate who ran into some financial difficulty. he lender asked me to pay. We insisted that since the loan was nearly repaid that if they vould allow him to make 1/2 payments he could afford the monthly payments until he could jet back on his feet. They refused our offer and I said to go ahead and file suite as I knew judge would allow half payments. They did, we stipulated to a judgement and they then greed to a payment of one half the original monthly payment which the original borrower an easily afford. Unfortunately, the borrower was recently in a motor vehicle accident vhere he was struck hard in the rear end and pretty much totalled the vehicle.Therefore, he insurance carrier will now pay the entire balance off and we will have to find him a new ehicle. An unfortunate end to a good deal!!!

erhaps WWJD and the Sheltons would like to assist in the search for a new van for he nd the family? Maybe they could gift one from their donor base, not unlike they have lone for family in the past? Perhaps they would like to take up a collection to assist with is medical bills and other expenses until he finishes his insurance claim. After all, don't hey mend broken people? think of the good will and community service!!! But alas, I loubt they will offer the first ounce of assistance to a broken nobody. C'est la vie!!!

Unfortunately for WWJD and Danny, courts dont care emuch about how ve handled co-signed loans and unfair land dealers. They do care about the way 501-c-3 rganizations handle the money of the stockholders in the pews and the way they discriminate nd retaliate against employees. They also care a great deal about the way officers and directors arry on personal business deals that represent conflicts of interest and should be disclosed on he 990's.

This issue of the car seems very petty to me! Now it appears to me that the original issue at hand has been clouded with a lot of details that are ancillary at best and irrelevant at worst.

A lot of this talk is unproductive, in this and many other threads. It is possible that the truth of this matter many never be revealed on this earth, making a lot of these spats a colossial waste of time.

LT,

Petty pretty well pegs it! It seems that perhaps a little research was lacking as well.

On one hand you may be right about a lot of these spats being wastes of time. However, during the "heat" of these spats, one can sometimes learn a great deal about the tactics and motivations of some of the players, IMO.

agree, this thread says more about the creditability and tactics of Fallible Humanbeing and Co. than t does about Mr. Joy.

Let's just look at the juicy tidbit of the "car repossession" in hindsight now.

March 26, 2007, Bystander gets the ball rolling by saying:

Iarch 28, 2007, wwjd clearly states that he has seen the documentation:

;o, Gailon Arthur Joy has explained his version of the car repossession story. It appears to differ from vhat Bystander and wwjd have represented it to be. We have yet to see the judgement that wwjd :laims he saw on March 26th. Did wwjd read the judgement to prove to himself that the repossession did happen or is going to happen"? Or did he take someone's word for it?

vwjd, show us who is telling the truth in this situation. Post the copy of the judgement that you saw.)therwise, perhaps you owe some folks an apology.

again wonder what does it matter if Mr. Joy car was in fact repossessed, so the man fall in to some ıard money times, it happens to many folks.

3Ut how does that remove the simple fact that Tommy has dome things with at least 5-7 young men ınd has never really owned up to that.

)r how does it change the simple fact at this point Danny is living in sin with Brandi, It certainly looks hat way from here.

It matters if two of those trying to discredit Mr. Gailon Joy are misrepresenting the facts of this "car repossession" story in the very thread where other unproven and, at this point, inflamatory "hearsay" claims are being leveled to try to do the same. Did you read Mr. Joy's email that was posted here twice this morning? Regarding the repossession charge he stated:

> QUOTE
> Simple enough. I co-signed a car loan for an associate who ran into some financial difficulty. The lender asked me to pay. We insisted that since the loan was nearly repaid that if they would allow him to make 1/2 payments he could afford the monthly payments until he could get back on his feet. An unfortunate end to a good deal!!!

According to Mr. Joy, the vehicle that Mr. Joy co-signed for was not repossessed. The judge reduced the payments so the man could make the payments himself.

We are still waiting for a rebuttal of Gailon's statement by those two members who brought up the claim against him; Bystander and wwjd. I do agree with you that even if Gailon had had a car repossessed at some point in his life it wouldn't undermine the evidence he has brought up about the 3abn saga.

Perhaps it is the evidence such as the allegations against Tommy that have driven Bystander and wwjd to desperately try to undermine the credibility of Gailon Joy and Bob Pickle. Unfortunately, so far, the mud they are tossing is flying back into their own faces.

y point was just that i do not see how this whole thread makes the Pro danny side look any better.

saw that too! I saw it on Boston Legal. I get a lot of great laughs when I watch that rogram. Allen Shore is such a funny hoot !

ad thing was, the jury let a guilty person go free!

Posted by: princessdi Yesterday, 02:48 PM

I watch this show, also.. William Shatner and James Spader are just certifiable! They are just hilarious! I saw this episode also, if I am nto mistaken it was last week"s episode. The acused was actually a woman, her and Alan used to work together(with benefits). She had actually taken on some woman's identity,a nd Alan had tried looking ofr the woman. Anyway at the end they never found the woman becuase the defendent had killed her a year or so before when she tracked the defendant down to tell her she wanted her life back. Allan figured it all out and convince her to take the reduced sentence he was able to get for her(he had to tell the truth about the murder being an officer of the court, but he did n't tell about the identity theft and the murder of the orginal woman). One of the reasons he figured it out was because she didn't look at the door like very one else.

And the answer to your questions is yes....their whole point appearance here at BSDA is a diversion. They really can't disprove anything, so they shift blame, and try to discredit. However, the truth is the truth anyhow!

Di, Fran,

It is a great show. A favorite of mine and my husband. That show and that particular case were what leapt to my mind as I followed this topic.

He fooled the jury with his slick ploy, but that didn't change the truth!

That stint only works on TV...and I first saw that on an old episode of Matlock....where there was no body...and Matlock said, here is the victim alive, and gestured with all due drama toward the doors. No one came in...and he said the same thing...you have reasonable doubt.....

Look out your Thompsonville window and see a tornado approaching. You can hear a roar that sounds like a freight train. The telephone rings and a man who has lost a car in a repo situation, a man who has fallen behind in rent a few years ago, is telling you that there is a tornado and warning you should to get into the basement. You scoff and say "he lost a car and is behind on rent. Of course there is no tornado." How could someone who got behind on rent and lost a car tell the truth about anything? Mercillations! How could a person who has had a financial difficulty be anything but a liar? (Uh oh! That went back too far. Edited for pre-3ABN content)

If one holds Gailon as non-credible for having had any financial difficulties in the past, one must hold Danny even more non-credible for having had even larger financial difficulties in the past... as a number of people from the past WILL testify to. And as the BS knows, that testimony will be quite comprehensive in a number of areas.

Why is it when I go to dannyshelton.com or dannyshelton.org does it take me to Club Adventist?

True. It did the same for me!

Yes, I would also like an answer as to why it goes to CA.

Perhaps somebody can ask Stan of CA about that?

I did some checking on www.dannyshelton.org and www.dannyshelton.com, both sent me directly to Club Adventist, but I was denied access. I had someone who is a member there Log In and try both addresses. Members are not denied access, it takes them directly to an interview Danny Shelton made on Club Adventist in 2004. No big mystery, except that Stan would have to agree to this link to his website.

Check this out:

http://whois.domaintools.com/dannyshelton.org

It appears these domains are set up to take you to Club Adventist, the same way www.save3abn.org, although a separate domain registerd to Joy, is set up to take you to www.save3abn.com, whenever you type the url in or click on it...

As far as I know, you have to be a member of Club Adventist for access, I used to be, but no longer am.

Were these websites registered when all the discussion about 3ABN was still allowed on, and taking part mostly on Club Adventist?

Thank you sister, that explains it to me. What I find strange is that the site was opened when I first went, almost four hours ago (and I've never been a member there), but the access is denied now.

So does this mean Danny "owns" CA. It would explain a lot about that site. Was there ever any question about GJ being "owner" of save3ABN? I use "owns and owner", but I am sure it is the wrong term.

Google has the address listed to 1&1 Internet, INC.

http://press.1and1.com/index.php?MSID=&page=press&mode=displayDetail&id=44

DeVry University and Keller Graduate School of Management are also listed on the same road but not suite 300.

Stan definately owns Club Adventist, and this has been public knowledge for years. To my knowledge that has never been questioned.

To me it appears whoever reegistered the DS.org, and DS.com sites is trying to hide their identity. PB's findings seem to support that also. Hotel room addresses and such are used by those who do e-mail and newspaper scams also.

Anyway, this is just my opinion.

It looks like someone accusing 3ABN did it to hijack internet traffic when all the discussion was going on there rather then here, OR-- someone in stan's camp did it, when so much traffic was coming here, rather then there.

That's why I asked about the dates on the domain registrations...

Whichever, it doesn't seem kosher to me.

P.s.
It looks like Stan is in the house now and reading the thread...
maybe he can explain?

Posted by: sonshineonme Mar 26 2007, 03:31 PM

Ok, had to try too.
I put in www.dannyshelton.com or www.dannyshelton.org and both got this directly http://clubadventist.com/forum/ubbthreads.php/ubb/postlist/Board/177 and I was able to click on (naturally right near the top) thread Danny posted in 04.
I didn't have to sign in, and even if I would have to, I asked for my membership to be removed a few months back.
I think it's been hyjacked, but I would not say that Stan did not arrange for this. In this case, the best thing to do is ask Stan, see what he says. But, this is smelly to me. Looks bad too.

Posted by: princessdi Mar 26 2007, 03:31 PM

There may be a misunderstanding here. This was not a redirect from a search. The url in the address at the top of the page said dannyshelton.org and at the same time the page showing was Club Adventist and as I said it was wide open. The address didn't change to the Club Adventist address. You could get in and move around without logging in or registering. You could get there by typing dannyshelton.org in the address at the top of the browser and clicking on to the word go. Same for dannyshelton.com. You could get there from the picture on the whois page for either also.

Now access is denied and it takes you to the interview if you are a member and log in. It didn't do that before but they have changed it and the whois page says ubb error.

It appeared to me that these were all alternate addresses for the same site.

And it did not take me to Danny's interview. And would be surprised if this had anthing to do with being redirected when doing a search.

Posted by: PeacefullyBewildered Mar 26 2007, 03:48 PM

If you do a bit of Google work, 1&1 Internet and it's media spokesperson have been in the news from coast to coast regarding a blogger known as Spocko. 1&1 Internet severed its relationship with Spokco under the pressure of a copyright suit threatened by ABC/Disney's attorney's.

It is an ironically interesting read:
http://www.floridamediaproject.org/nytimes%20blog%20story.pdf

DS.org let me get right into CA, no problem, right at the 11/30/04 Danny post about how the Lord had convicted him over and over not to fight his own battles.

Could just be a publicity thing, could be something sinister. Don't know that we will actually ever know. It is what it is, I guess. Perhaps someone might want to call 1&1 Internet and see what the media spokesperson has to say about it. Just a thought.

The difference in what happens when different people try, such as you and sonshineonme might also have to do with what spyware and trojan blocking programs and search engines you use. Although relatively harmless, some redirrect you, and others don't allow that and so the URL in the address bar stays the same.

Maybe if bob could explain how the save 3ABN site does it with the .org and .com address, we could figure it out easier?

I did a Yahoo search and got this:

The redirect is in the index.htm at www.dannyshelton.com; the HTML source for that page reads as ollows:

```
<!DOCTYPE HTML PUBLIC "-//IETF//DTD HTML 2.0//EN">
<HTML><HEAD>
<TITLE>302 Found</TITLE> </HEAD><BODY>
<H1>Found</H1>
The document has moved <A HREF="http://clubadventist.com/forum/ubbthreads.php/ubb/postlist/Board/177">here</A>.<P>
</BODY></HTML>

www.dannyshelton.org is the same; the domains were registered privately so the actual person who set them up is anonymous... gee what a surprise.

ust because it points to Club Adventist does not mean that Stan necessarily was either aware of it or gave permission for it to be redirected there; you'll have to ask Stan.

n His service,
Mr. J

Yes, Sonshine, the more I read, the more I think you are right. A lot of the communications are from 2004, and there is some serious spin to the whole divorce and all. Interesting, seeing as by this time Linda could nto say a word. I mean, it just really would sit better to me if she could cooberate(sp) some of this, but it is high suspect because she still can't.

Interesting advertising scheme, if indeed that was what it was. Of course it depends on someone trying to log into Dannyshelton.org/com for it to work.

Interesting, seeing as by this time Linda could nto say a word. I mean, it just really would sit better to me if she could cooberate(sp) some of this, but it is high suspect because she still can't.

What do you mean she still can't? Why do you keep thinking and saying that?

Ask anyone of her defenders Di, there is no gag order in place, why do you think she wrote that letter on her website which was posted here?

-- not that she ever abided by it anyway, she got a website before the ink was dry on her agreement or divorce papers. published her questions and answers, talked about her "squished" experience and how she was trashed and fired, and even talked about the so called gag order... and published it...

And as the recent letters published on save3abn prove she was talking plenty to others as well...

AFAIC, the only time it was ever cited was as an excuse for why questions couldn't be answered or proof given for the things she, or her defenders claimed on her behalf..

Here is the archived record of what she said in part about her job, her marriage etc, while the so called gag order was allegedly still in place:

The asterix show the changes she made on the site,except for the most recent, but you can go to her site and see whats there now:

New interview coming to CA soon? Imagine the coincidence of having an internet billboard leading to a bulletin board/forum at such an opportune time! What are the odds! rofl Wonder if CA will keep the 3abn discussion open once the "interview" is done? Calvin, are you watching this?

s are many other months, if you look at all carefully. Updates are always archived. If there is no hange or reason to archive as in searches requested and done by webcrawlers, etc, and it's the same s before, then it isn't done.

Rosyroi,

Did you notice that I said archives must be subjective things? Did you also notice that I didn't mention anything about a conspiracy?

I have no independent knowledge about web archives. The first time I heard about such things was a little earlier today. It just seems that adding a notice on May 20, 2004 would be a change. At least I think it would qualify as a change.

http://web.archive.org/web/20040612111239/www.3abn.org/news/2004/sheltons-official-statement.html

I wonder who is responsible for adding archives. Would it be the webmaster? Like I said, it appears that perhaps archives are subjective.

PB, please don't be so prickly, did you notice I wasn't replying to you, and truthfully hadn't even seen your post yet ,as our posts are only minutes apart?

And your may 20 posted letter is here:
http://web.archive.org/web/20040612111239/www.3abn.org/news/2004/sheltons-official-statement.html

Webmasters can't take away from the archives, what is, just is. although they can trigger a webcrawler to capture pages that will add another copy to the archives. And any update is supposed to...

The archives are simply made up by the captrured of photoed copy of a website and it's pages made by the webcrawlers and such in the various search engines etc.

The guy who made the website with the archives database we are talking about simply designed a program to gather it all into one database. There is a rather informative article in wikipedia about it all, if interested. I forgot his name, but you should be able to find it by entering the wayback machine there.

Did I say anything about conspiracy Alethia? I don't appreciate being attacked. I have seen a lot of it lately and it tires me out. Why not just try to carry on a decent conversation instead of attacking? I have stood up to those trying to attack or discredit me. But never attacked those who attacked me.

I have made suggestions or made comments or agreed with someone but I try to do unto others as I would have them do unto me.

No problem then, and thank you.

Possibly the letter was written May 20 but not added to the website till it was updated at the beginning of June??

I do know the letter explaining why she wouldn't be back was done that way, it was sent out first to subscribers then added after that to the website, at least I think so, I'm gonna double check on that.

The above seems likely to me also, because I was under the impression that the first announcement came at the campmeeting at the very end of May?

Posted by: Stan Mar 26 2007, 10:03 PM

There several hundred domains posting to www.clubadventist.com. Some are the internet real estate that I own, some I have acquired for others, and some I bought just to keep safe.

I do own www.dannyshelton.com and he is aware of that. This will one day be transferred to him. I also own other leading Adventist names, and they are aware.

It was pointed out to this am, that some one said it was pointed out to the side, and they asked why.

A few months ago, when I was having sever server problems, I shut off 50 or so forums, but never reopened them after the transfer.

SOOOOOO I have reopened a lot of them, there was no conspiracy with whoever it was who stated this thread, and am rather surprised at some of the comments..

AND YES there is an interview coming up wth DS, and it will not be about LS, but about 3ABN.

I would like to do something again with LS, a lot of us miss her. She has not responded to my emails in the past.

Posted by: princessdi Mar 26 2007, 10:13 PM

You know I don't mind being wrong, if she can speak and has not, then to me, it is to her credit and she is truly the one who has' Move on". She doin' real good becuase a sista' would have told it to Oprah the first day I could! Be Patient, He aint' through with me yet!

She abided by it Ciny, or else you and I know Danny would have his $25,000.00 back already.

Let's not get carried away and forget who we are dealing with.

Well, it is apparent that not all unanswered emails go into Linda's spam folder. She did not reply to any of the three emails I sent her. Yet in her recent web site update I was a little taken aback to have a portion of one of my email quoted on her site -- without credit and without my permission. I don't particularly object, but I do not see it as a particularly shining example of Christian courtesy. Removing that quote now will not amend the situation, by the way.)

Of course I'm not nearly as uncritically admiring of Linda as many of her defenders here appear to be. Perhaps that's the reason I never received a reply.

always thought and still believe that what she had to go through was a personal blessing in disguise, considering the princess role she played at 3ABN. And I would think a lot more of Linda if she deigned o actually go to work side by side with some of the people to whom she wishes to minister -- you know, the folks who work at WalMart, McDonald's, Staples, or any number of retail outlets. Perhaps her pay-out was big enough so she doesn't need the money, but coming down to earth to work in a situation in which she is not a media star would put her back in touch with the "real world." (3ABN doesn't qualify as the "real world" in my view.)

As readers on this forum know, I have generally posted in defense of Linda because the accusations against her were utterly outrageous and over the top, not to mention petty and mean. It's extremely difficult to maintain one's spiritual equilibrium under such attacks, and I believe that Linda has done exceptionally well. I applaud her for that.

The bottom line is probably that Linda is not nearly as faultless as many would like to believe, nor is Danny as evil as the same folks would like to believer. The reverse is also likely true. (However, as regulars on this forum can probably tell, I believe the balance is in Linda's favor.)

I do not know if Stan has opened up the 3-ABN section in CA for disucssion, or if he has not, or if he has simply opened up a very limited announcement. I am aware that Danny Shelton is likely to have another interview on Club Adventist. But, I was not aware that such was coming soon. Or it would BE nice to have the rest of the story. Having seen the 3abn forum on CA before it was closed, and having looked at the 3abn forum that is presently visible on CA, I have some questions.

1) Is there another 3abn forum available to those given special permission to see it besides the one that is visible currently?

2) If not, what happened to the multitude of posts that was on the old 3abn forum?

3) Since the ones that are currently visible are only ones which speak favorably of 3abn, does that mean that only favorable posts will be posted on this forum in the future?

I am sure there is another section/thread that was closed..

The current 3abn forum there has been open for a long time.. it talks about 3ABN not about the personal lives of leadership/employees/xleaders/exemployees

Interesting and fair post Inga. Especially the paragraph highlighted. Her pay out from 3abn and DS was indeed, extremely large, to those of us that are your everyday blue collar workers. IMO it seemed things really heated up on these forums a few months before her payments ran out. Hardly coincidence. I do disagree with your statement that 3abn is not the real world. Even though I understand in what context you make the statement, the fact remains, it is very real for all of those that devote their time, resources and energy everday to make possible, the spreading of the gospel. I am sure that from those who clean the complex, to the operators, to the camera crews, to the directors and all the way up, those people know that they are definitely a part of the "real world" and their work and sacrifice is making a difference. No matter what is said about administration, the true reality is, those people work hard, deal with all kinds of difficulties, have huge decisions to make, have to deal with all kinds of people day in and day out, have to deal with tons of paperwork, finances, budgets, overseas projects....etc etc My point is, I guess, Is just because DS or CA murray or John L is in front of the camera once in a while, contrary to what some think, that is not a justifiable payoff for what these folks have to deal with. The only true payoff is they know they are a tool to win souls to the kingdom.
Thanks, Inga, for listening.

Posted by: princessdi Mar 27 2007, 01:43 PM

It is not a question if the pay out was large. It is large, but was it fair? Was it her fair share of a ministry she helped to build? That is the question, and answer is no, since 3ABN is worth tens of millions of dollars. So the pay out can be large without being fair. Once again, even if she is guilty of all Danny charges, it doesn't excuse him to cheat her out of her fair share os the buisness. Espeicially since he is the one still there claiming to be the leader in Christian living. He needs to lead ALl things. This is about Danny's own words and deeds, toward Linda and others.

I will respond to your questions:

1) There is no 3-ABN forum open for review and discussion on Club Adventist, other than the one that you can see.

2) The posts in the old discussion forum were stored in a place that Stan could access. I could not. I do not know if other Administrators had access to that section. Stan has done some software upgrades since that section was closed. He has also move to another servier. I do not know if those posts survived the move to another server.

3) As I understand the current policy at Club Adventist, in regard to 3-ABN, there is no intent to allow a free-ranging discussion of 3-ABN, such as CA once had. Therefore, in general, one might say that the favorable content of the posts presently made in the one open section on 3-ABN in Club Adventist, fairly represents what is going to be allowed in the future.

Stan, as you are likely to read my post, feel free to correct me if I have misunderstood.

That is the question, and answer is no, since 3ABN is worth tens of millions of dollars. So the pay out can be large without being fair. Once again, even if she is guilty of all Danny charges, it doesn't excuse him to cheat her out of her fair share os the buisness. Espeicially since he is the one still there claiming to be the leader in Christian living. He needs to lead ALl things. This is about Danny's own words and deeds, toward Linda and others.

My position as always been that it was fair, more than fair. They did not own her what they gave her, unless she had an employment contract. All any employers owns you is a honest days pay for a honest days work. Linda, was not an owner of 3abn, she was an employer and officer. The 3abn corporation is the owner. Would you really expect them to sell half the assets and give it to Linda? That would dissolve the business. A corporation structure safeguards against this happening. A corporation has a life of it's own, regardless who runs it. It is by design should any one person leave the business for whatever reason, the business/corporation will go on. Co-founder,/how the business started means anything.

While I do tend to agree with you on this point, I just wonder what DS's severance package will look like if he is asked to step down? I mean, the poor guy only has two bank accounts with a total of $1500 between them after all.

Will he, as president and co-founder, settle for what I have highlighted in your post above?

Show me the average Joe that gets 2 year severance for loosing a job for whatever reason. Not many. The other stuff is apples and oranges. Hopefully, Linda did half or close to that with their personal assets, that is what gets split up in a divorce. Danny does not own 3abn to give her much more nor is he obligated too.

I don't know why so many of you think Linda deserves so much anyway. I am sure 3abn is nothing like it is now when they started it together 25 years ago. The Adventist church with its endorsement of 3abn is responsible for it's success, so are the donors, and the volunteers, and the other independent ministries that broadcast on 3abn, the employees, the technical staff that put it on the air. But Linda deserves half the business? Hardly. Even when I did watch 3abn, I did not watch it to see them. It an't all about Linda and Danny.

After three years the Linda Shelton pity party is as tiresome as the stuff from the other side. Linda iit is three years already, forget about writing a book, and updating your website with your side, and posting personal letters between you and Danny. GO GET A JOB.

I am not advocating for or against her or the settlement she eceived. However, I know of someone - a very average joe, or susie - who negotiated over a years alary in a settlement agreement with a company simply because they were treated unfairly.

alvin, you are allowing the noise to obscure the simple but important fact that for someone whose ocation is Christian ministry, an unresolved allegation of overt sin makes one virtually unhireable in hat vocation. Her witness and credibility as a minister of the gospel is contingent upon her name and eputation...and as long as that allegation remains unrefuted (it's being denied is insufficient; xoneration is required) her ability to to work is severely impinged... if not completely blocked.

agree, since Danny owns none of 3ABN, Linda's half of none is none. She got a settlement as a ex-mployee which added up to just short of a 1/4 of a million dollars.

he Marital property is a separate issue, and being resolved right now, as they both originally divided ll in their divorce agrement, and she has sued him since then to try and recieve more.

he court will decide what is fair, and all this argument in the mean time, without knowing all, is idiculous to me.

Posted by: princessdi Mar 28 2007, 09:29 AM

Personally, I think she deserves it because for the very reason you don't. it IS a business. She and her husband built it together. It is not the same as either one of them being hired on as CEO or COB. They built it together. Plus, 3ABN is alternatively buisness and ministry when it is convenient.

Too often when claiming buisness, they leave their " ministry" to the side and go ruthless corporate. That is what they did here. It is a Donald Trump move. He admittedly divorced Marla when he did because the prenup said if he waited untilt he next year he would have to pay her $5mil as oppose to the $1mil he paid here. Donald has not even professed to be christian so we really expect that from him So what Danny and the board did might have been legally right---barely--but was it ethically correct, then there are those pesky chirstian values to consider. Then Danny and the rest of the board who are on TV get up and still promote themselves as leaders in not just Christian living, but Adventist Christian living. We also know that people at that level are allowed to " resign" with all their benefits and perks in tact.

I also agree with Kevin, while these allegations go un answered and unresolved, Linda is inhibited in her ability to make aliving for herself in her chosen profession.

Then I am going to ask all those who think this was fair one more time, to tell me what Danny would do if he was dismissed with $250,000.00, and would you think that was fair?

Aletheia~

I have wondered about something for several weeks now since reading the various opinions about the separation agreement Linda signed. I am curious if since Linda signed the agreement in June, 2004 a separation agreement has been prepared in the event Danny were to leave 3abn? Do you know know if that has happened?

No she is not an average Joe. Try this... growing up in that single parent home working to get out of the 'hood and you are accused by someone powerful of something heinous... something you did not do, but because of the person making the accusation, the inclination of people is to believe you guilty until you prove otherwise... dont you think that will have a seriously adverse effect on your succeeding?

One last thing for your consideration Calvin... if one is assessing what is fair and stating that what linda got was fair....does it not make sense to find out if now that 3abn confronted that issue they would provide for that situation if it happened again? IMO it was poor legal/business planning to start off with not to have settled that question and to not be prepared to do it if it happened again either means a stupid board or they are delusional despite good legal advice.... but that's just me....

Depends on if he discloses all his assets, and what those assets are worth. How much has he already made off of 3ABN that he wasn't supposed to? I don't know the answer, but it should be figured in.

Pickle, what kind of assets do you have? How much do you make? Actually: do you even work??? How successful has your business been? What is your business? Would you please disclose your financial statement? Have you been audited? Do you pay taxes? What is your current personal checking bank balance? What do you have in savings/cd's/investments? Please supply us with numbers so we can verify your information. Also include a copy of your federal tax information.

If you think it is fair to publish to the whole world what Danny has in his personal bank account and then insinuate that he is being dishonest--then I think you would be happy to supply us with the same information about yourself. Afterall, if the shoe fits.....

O.K. Let us take as fact your statement that a 2-year salary for a corporate executive is very fair. So, Exxon fires a VP, and gives that VP a 3-year salary, and there is a gag clause in the contract. You will note that the gag clause in the contract likely appllied to Exxon as a corporateion, its business practices, and trade secrets. Fair enough.

Would Exxon fire that VP because she and the President got divorced?

Would Exxon put a gag clause in the contract that prevented the VP from commenting adversely in regard to the specifics of the divorce? Would that be considered fair?

My point: The seperation agreement mixes up the litigimate business concerns of 3-ABN with personal issues. It elevates the personal aspects of the lives of Linda and Danny to the level of the 3-ABN corporation, and the business and the personal are confused and combined.

That is (was) not appropriate. Any litigimate gag order in the seperation agreement should have been severely limited to that of the interests of the corporation, and not the personal lives of Danny and Linda.

In regard to whether or not the money given to Linda was fair, that is a very complex question that may not be totally clear at this point in time.

It is claimed that 3-ABN is a ministry, and much more than either Danny or Linda. O.K. If that it true, one might have one answer.

It should also be noted that Judge Rowe ruled that 3-ABN was, at least in some aspects, a business. To the extent that such is true, then it just might be the another answer might be correct.

It has been stated that Linda was just an employee. I would not believe such a statement to be true about Danny. I think that he was much more than just an employee, and that he contributed much more that that of just an employee. So, also, I think the same of Linda. Both are (were) much more than just employees. So, perhaps both shoud be compensated much more than just an employee.

Yes I am serious. Linda's ministry was not beating people over the head with the Sabbath. She recorded Christian music and wrote devotional books. She could marketed this to the Christian community. Like Danny was all powerful to keep her out of Christian book stores.

Even Sonny and Cher had to call it quits with the show after a year or two!

I don't know Bob, I don't even think I want to see what will happened if somebody tried to pay out Danny for $250,000.00. Especially, is as you are saying it has been a "cash cow" for him, and definitely not the way he plays that "miracle" story to the max..........Naaawww, can't see it!

That is what I have been saying from the beginning. 3ABN acted on behalf of Danny with that separation order. It was more about keeping her quiet about the marriage/divorce then about company secrets. Now, I understand why they did it. The nature of their business being "ministry" they could not have her out there saying anything contrary to the story they were telling. IOW, her talking would have hurt the business, but it is phrased and considered that it would hurt the 3ABN, the ministry. Then we switch back to buisness mode and she is just an employee and we are giving you an extremely generous severance package. It is just that swtiching backa nd forth between corporation and ministry when convenient that is not right. As I said it was a Donald Trump move, not a move for Danny, leader in Adventist Christian living.

Lee, just take it down a notch or two. I am sure Bob will answer for himself, however, I don't think he meant that Danny needed to disclose his fianaces here. I presented a scenario and he was giving some factors in that scenario. That is it. All that you said in the post was totally unnecessary. That is why I always say to get a good understanding before posting. For this one even went back to look at why Bob posted what he did to make sure.

so agree with you, Observer. But I'm willing to go out on a limb and wonder just how many ophisticated businesses would even allow a husband/wife team at the executive level, for precisely his reason.

thanks, Observer and Pdi... you've just cleared up the confusion that's been bothering me ever since coming here and learning about this.

not only Sonny and Cher, but Ricky and Lucy Ricardo (I love Lucy) couldn't make it work either... then you add non-profit to it??

no wonder its such a convoluted mess...

then add to the mix at least three people supposedly telling Danny that his every thought, dream and idea was coming directly from God... supposedly that he could do no wrong... supposedly being called God's last day prophet...

wow, talk about being set up!!

I have read the contract many times, and also the claims above many times both from you and many others, and have yet to see how they are factual.

The contract is between 3ABN the entity and L.S. and is not between Linda and Danny. Itactually goes out of it's way to avoid your interpretation of it, as it doesn't even call Danny Shelton by name, or refer to her husband at all. She was only bound to "not make public statements critical of Three Angels, the board of directors, or any of its officers or employees" during that 2 year period.

IOW she could not during that time make public negative statements about D.S. in his role as President or a 3ABN board member. She was NEVER restricted of speaking of him outside those two positions, which meant she was free to speak of him as her husband and ex-husband.

The contract also clearly says:
"Nothing in the above shall prevent Mrs. Shelton from seeking a fair and equitable split of her marital property, which shall not include any property owned by Three Angels Broadcasting Network, in or out of court, in any separation or divorce proceeding. Any moneys received by Mrs. Shelton under this agreement shall be considered her separate and personal property, and not marital property"

Even if she signed under duress as people here keep claiming and had no choice; it also clearly allows arbitration in a fair and Christian manner, if she later has a problem with any of it. She never availed herself of this recourse...

Mr Matthews, Why don't you highlight the words in the contract which support and demonstrate your claims here:

1. a gag clause in the contract that prevented Linda from commenting adversely in regard to the specifics of the divorce
2. the separation agreement mixes up the ligitimate business concerns of 3-ABN with personal issues.
3. It elevates the personal aspects of the lives of Linda and Danny to the level of the 3-ABN corporation.
4. The business and personal lives are confused and combined.

I've provided it here for your convienience:

> ## Separation Agreement Between Three Angels Broadcasting Network, Inc. and Linda Shelton
>
> Three Angels Broadcasting Network, Inc. ("Three Angels") and Linda Shelton ("Mrs. Shelton"), hereby agree to the following terms and conditions:
>
> 1. Three Angels agrees to pay Linda Shelton, within seven days of the signing of this document by both parties, the sum of $45,000. Three Angels agrees to transfer to Linda the rights, including the masters, to the five musical CD projects that she has had a primary role in (two solo projects and three duet projects with Danny and Linda) and the eight musical songs on video from the I Think About Grace album.
>
> 2. Three Angels agrees to pay Linda Shelton, within seven days of the signing of this agreement by both parties, a further sum of $45,000.

3. Three Angels also agrees to pay Linda Shelton $75,000 for each of the years 2005 and 2006. This money will be paid out in 24 equal installments ($6,250.00) beginning the first Monday of January, 2005, and continuing to be paid on the first Monday of each month for the next 23 months, ending with the payment on the first Monday of December 2006. These payments shall continue to be made only insofar as Mrs. Shelton complies with the conditions specified below.

4. All the above payment amounts represent gross severance pay and settlement figures, and the actual amount given to Mrs. Shelton will be reduced by the amount that employers are required to withhold by law for state and federal income taxes and other mandatory withholdings.

5. Linda Shelton agrees that, in consideration for the $90,000 which she will receive in seven days from the time that both parties sign this agreement, she will not bring any lawsuit, legal action, or other claim against Three Angels Broadcasting Network, any of its officers or directors, or any of its employees, in any court, forum, tribunal or proceeding for damages, whether compensatory or punitive, compensation, or other relief.

6. Linda Shelton agrees that, in consideration for the $90,000 and for the monthly payments that will commence in January 2005, that she will not make public statements critical of Three Angels, the board of directors, or any of its officers or employees. Public statements include those made on the air, whether via radio or television, in print, whether in newspapers, magazines, books or other printed sources, or circulated on the internet in the form of e-mail or web-postings, or made at churches or other public meeting sites. She also agrees that she will not make statements in private for her friends, agents, or third parties to attribute to her in a public manner as described above. If her friends, agents or other third parties make public statements critical of Three Angels, Mrs. Shelton shall immediately, upon notification by Three Angels, cooperate with Three Angels and request in writing and by telephone, if reasonably possible, that public statements made by third parties discontinue. If she does not so cooperate, any such public statements by third parties will be considered to be those of Mrs. Shelton, will be viewed as violation of this section, and will result in the termination of the payments to her described in Section 3.

7. Any dispute that arises out of this contract or the relationship between Mrs. Shelton and Three Angels or any of its officers and directors, whether during the period of payment to Mrs. Shelton or afterwards, concerning its terms, application, or whether its standards have been met by the parties, shall be resolved through Christian arbitration, and shall not be taken up in any court system, whether judicial or administrative. Both parties hereby waive any legal recourse and agree that they will submit to binding arbitration, with no appeal, by a panel of three Seventh-day Adventist Christians. This panel will be chosen in the following manner: Each side shall choose one Adventist Elder or Pastor in the North American Division. Those two persons shall then choose one other person that they can mutually agree on to chair the panel to arbitrate the dispute. The panel will hear testimony from both sides, consider any necessary evidence, and render a written decision that will be binding on the parties, with no further appeal allowed.

:alvin, it is hard for me to understand why you are one of the few on here who get it. 3abn does not elond to LS or DS. It is a corporation. Danny cannot name the amount of money that she should eceive, because he doesn't receive it so how can he split it with her? He receives a salary, she eceived a salary, (a larger one than he) the end. What 3abn is worth is 3abn's no matter who runs it.
ll 3abn assets belong to 3abn, not Danny not Linda. Why can't anyone understand that? If DS tepped down he wouldn't get a portion of what 3abn is worth. He can't. It belongs to the corporation.
le would get whatever amount the 3abn board and any attorneys involved deemed to be a reasonable mount of severence for 25 years of service. s far as the allegation that she was fired because they got a divorce. That is ridiculous also. She was ired because she would not comply to the repeated requests of the board to "knock off" what she was loing. Why? For the sake of the ministry. She could not continue the path she was on and still be ifted up as a shining example for others to watch. Many here have decided she didn't do anything vrong. Well, after seeing, talking and hearing things that others here have not been privy to, the oard came to a different conclusion. How could they not, when she refused to stop doing what they sk her to stop doing. Then told her to stop doing. She was fired for open defiance against a board ction that they felt strongly she was guilty of. She refused or ignored the offers to "work with her", to elp her resolve the situation, and their willingness to reconcile the situation if she would do what she vas asked. She didn't. End of story.
o address the gag order I am so sick of hearing about , again, Calvin you are correct. That is tandard procedure for someone in her position. Most organizations are smart enough to know when omeone is fired or let go or a big blow up of some kind happens, there is a fairly big probablity that he one on the receiving end is going to run off and make all kinds of accusations and allegations gainst the company. Standard Procedure.
ly question would be what is the big deal anyway about signing it? She never adhered to it anyway so get over it.

As to the remarks Clay continues to make about 3abn keeping her from ministering. where is the proof? How many letters or emails does he have or anyone else for that matter where 3abn is telling people not to let her come? Where is all the documentation from 3abn to all of these churches? Certainly in this mess they would have surfaced sooner or later if there was such a campaign. Also to say this has kept her from making a living is crazy. Many of us do whatever jobs we can to put food on the table. It may not be your first choice but you do what you gotta do... Is LS any different? If she feels she isn't welcome to minister in adventist churches, go somewhere else. If she doesn't want to do that then get a regular job like normal people. I agree with you Clay and Inga. Go to walmart or stores at the mall to pay the bills, and save your ministering to side work like giving people bible studies or passing out tracts. Yes, by her own actions, the princess was dethroned. You reap what you sow, time to carry on.

Bob, cut out the same old stuff. You have put yourself in the limelight, Lee has not. If you and Joy want your 10 minutes of fame then get ready to be scrutinized in the same manner that you have scrutinized all the other players in this story. They have been cut down with slander, malice, half truths which are then lies, btw, character assassination, insinuation, manipulation of words and innuendo. Not to mention that you have dug around to find people that you have been told had an axe to grind for whatever reason, and have used whatever they have told you as gospel. Never questioning their motives or intent. That includes your main source.

Posted by: Pickle Mar 28 2007, 06:13 PM

WWJD,

Main source? Tommy? Clem #1? Clem #2? Clem #3? Danny? Dryden? Mom #1? Her son? Mom #2? Her son? Linda? Dunning? Mom never quoted? Walt Thompson?

I think probably I have relied more on Danny than any other person as far as sources go. Yes, he probably does have an ax to grind.

I don't run a 501©3, and don't have to answer to anyone regarding the taking in of donations since I don't do that. Apples and oranges.

And I'm still married to the lovely wife that pushed me down the aisle of the hospital chapel many years ago, the one who said, "For better or for worse," the one who thought, "We'll get the worst over first."

Apples and oranges. In fact, why don't we finish discussing the 3ABN thing and come up with a resolution before tackling me. Read the Bible from cover to cover. David when Nathan raised concerns against him didn't start picking Nathan apart. People that are men and women after God's own heart don't do that.

The wise accept rebuke gladly. It's fools who shut their ears and refuse to hear. That's what Scripture says. Right?

Let's talk about what Linda was doing. If you know more of what she was doing then this, you will need some evidence to supply. If you have no such evidence, then the following is what we know.

Linda Shelton was getting help for her son, Nathan Moore. Nathan was addicted to drugs. It was never the jurisdiction of the 3ABN Board of Directors to interfere with the relationship between Dr. Arild Abrahamsen, Nathan Moore, and Nathan's mother, Linda Shelton.

Let me repeat this: It was never the 3ABN Board's jurisdiction to decide, on their own, the contents of the doctor-patient relationship, the communications between those parties, or to decide where the lines would be drawn, or to even make a comment upon it, or to pass judgement on it. 13

The 3ABN Board of Directors likely stepped way beyond the boundaries of their positions as board members of a corporation, by interfering in this matter.

As I have said, previously, I believe that when the chips were down, the 3ABN Board and 3ABN management failed Linda and her son, Nathan.

This is all we "know" about what Linda was doing. If you know more, present the evidence, but don't issue vague statements about "knocking off what she was doing" unless you are prepared to support that statement with hard evidence. After three years, we've seen no evidence, because there is none. And Linda has demanded that it be made public. So there's no excuse to "protect Linda" by hiding that "defensible" evidence any longer.

This is what fair-minded Adventists would like to see: If there is evidence, present it. Having no evidence, 3ABN, as a Christian organization, should apologize and make restitution.

WWJD,

Could you elaborate on this? http://www.Save3ABN.com/ is suggesting that there never was an opportunity for the board to ask Linda to do or not do anything, since apparently the only board meeting to take up the issue was the very board meeting that fired her.

My apologies. I left a few details out that leave you in the dark.

She pushed me down the hospital chapel aisle in a reclining wheelchair. The cast on one of my legs was one of our guest registers. She then nursed me back to health over three months.

"For better or for worse." "We'll get the worse over first," she thought. At least I could still say, "I do," and all that family had come in from so many miles away.

I got someone who will stick by my side through the typical thick and thin of earth's trials. Blessed indeed.

It was odd, though, looking at other people's wedding albums afterwards and seeing everyone smiling. It was really odd. Took a long time to get used to that. Of course, I was smiling that day. But I was the exception. We did get one picture where she, me, and the preacher were all smiling.

How could they not, when she refused to stop doing what they ask her to stop doing. Then told her to stop doing. She was fired for open defiance against a board action that they felt strongly she was guilty of. She refused or ignored the offers to "work with her", to help her resolve the situation, and their willingness to reconcile the situation if she would do what she was asked. She didn't. End of story.

Many of us do whatever jobs we can to put food on the table. It may not be your first choice but you do what you gotta do... Is LS any different? If she feels she isn't welcome to minister in adventist churches, go somewhere else. If she doesn't want to do that then get a regular job like normal people. I agree with you Clay and Inga. Go to walmart or stores at the mall to pay the bills, and save your ministering to side work like giving people bible studies or passing out tracts. Yes, by her own actions, the princess was dethroned. You reap what you sow, time to carry on.

I brought this up before and nobody ever really answered:

L.S. wrote in Sept 2004: "the Holy Spirit drew so near to my heart and said, "I'm not finished with you yet, you will work for Me." and "The Lord has laid on my heart to begin a production studio which will produce Christ-centered programs on a full-time basis. These programs can be shown on other networks and local Christian stations."

From September 17, 2004 - December 01, 2005 [15 mos] this is what was published on her website:

Q: What are your plans for the future?

A:... I really felt that my ministry was over. But one evening the Lord brought a song to my remembrance that I had not sung in at least 15 years. The song says, "Lord, please move me with compassion for the lost I pray; for the millions who are lost and cannot find their way. Melt my calloused heart with love no matter what the cost. Lord, please move me with compassion for the lost." As I softly sang the verses and choruses of this song, the Holy Spirit drew so near to my heart and said, "I'm not finished with you yet, you will work for Me." The Lord has confirmed this with other incidents as well. I told the Lord that especially under the circumstances, He would have to open the doors and "clean up the mess." He said he would do this.

As well as writing the newsletters and magazines at 3ABN, I was also in charge of the TV production studios since the very beginning of 3ABN. I formatted new programs and chose hosts and guests for the programs seen on 3ABN. Additionally, I was directly involved in the management of the 3 production studios and the Production Truck, which obtained programming on the road. Especially considering my experience is unique in the SDA Church, I feel that I need to use this experience for the Lord. The Lord has laid on my heart to begin a production studio which will produce Christ-centered programs on a full-time basis. These programs can be shown on other networks and local Christian stations. One thing I learned at 3ABN is that there is never too many Christian programs. There is a huge demand for high quality Christ-centered programs that bring God's message to the hearts of searching people

Already I have been approached by some who are willing to support this production studio. Although their funding is not available right now, their desire to help has encouraged me so much...and I'm ready to get started. It is estimated that the legal work to obtain a non-profit status in Illinois will cost approximately 5-6 thousand dollars. This is the first step. If the Lord is laying a burden on your heart to help with this stepping stone of faith, please send your donations to P.O. Box 2202, Carbondale, IL 62902. THANK YOU so much!!------------- end quote

On December 01, 2005 the webpage was changed with no explanation (that I am aware of). It now reads:

Q: What are you doing now and what are your plans for the future?

A: Ministry is what my life is about. I go where the Lord opens the doors in a speaking, singing and ministering.ministry.

It sounds like she's rather busy, internet searches show her appearances and engagements.

She is apparently able to buy a home, pay her bills, eat and still travel all over including to Europe, all without a job...

Considering all that I have read here from the 3ABN accusers about how she has been persecuted and blocked from engagements,and also considering those who may have sent donations to Linda,
It would be nice to hear their explanation of what happened to any donations during that 15 mos, and why she gave up on and changed plans after claiming the Lord had told her this is what she was to do.

How did 3ABN block her from that? And if the Lord did call her to do that, then who could stop her, or stand in her way???

Sorry, no. I believe that bob would have been one of those moneychangers that Jesus through out of the temple.

QUOTE(wwjd @ Mar 28 2007, 07:48 PM)

Calvin, it is hard for me to understand why you are one of the few on here who get it. 3abn does not belong to LS or DS. It is a corporation. Danny cannot name the amount of money that she should receive, because he doesn't receive it so how can he split it with her? He receives a salary, she received a salary, (a larger one than he) the end. What 3abn is worth is 3abn's no matter who runs it. All 3abn assets belong to 3abn, not Danny not Linda. Why can't anyone understand that? If DS stepped down he wouldn't get a portion of what 3abn is worth. He can't. It belongs to the corporation. He would get whatever amount the 3abn board and any attorneys involved deemed to be a reasonable amount of severence for 25 years of service.

As far as the allegation that she was fired because they got a divorce. That is ridiculous also. She was fired because she would not comply to the repeated requests of the board to "knock off" what she was doing. Why? For the sake of the ministry. She could not continue the path she was on and still be lifted up as a shining example for others to watch. Many here have decided she didn't do anything wrong. Well, after seeing, talking and hearing things that others here have not been privy to, the board came to a different conclusion. How could they not, when she refused to stop doing what they ask her to stop doing. Then told her to stop doing. She was fired for open defiance against a board action that they felt strongly she was guilty of. She refused or ignored the offers to "work with her", to help her resolve the situation, and their willingness to reconcile the situation if she would do what she was asked. She didn't. End of story.

To address the gag order I am so sick of hearing about , again, Calvin you are correct. That is standard procedure for someone in her position. wwjd, Were you at the May, 2004 3abn campmeeting? I heard Danny using the term "demons" when refering to Johann and the Dr. being in the audience. Was that brutal?

However, it wasn't necessarily large in comparison to their combined perks before the divorce, not to mention the .. ummh ... "side benefits" Danny gets from books, free labor, jet set lifestyle, etc. Since the evidence indicates that Danny treats 3ABN as his personal business, using it for his benefit when he so desires, he should have ensured that Linda was compensated for being co-founder of the ministry.

My remark regarding 3ABN not being the "real world" was in regard to Linda's position at 3ABN. She played the role of a media star, which is not "the real world."

> QUOTE
> Even though I understand in what context you make the statement, the fact remains, it is very real for all of those that devote their time, resources and energy everday to make possible, the spreading of the gospel. I am sure that from those who clean the complex, to the operators, to the camera crews, to the directors and all the way up, those people know that they are definitely a part of the "real world" and their work and sacrifice is making a difference.

I understand that. I'm sure that most of the people working at 3ABN are truly dedicated folks. Their sacrificial pay is in stark contrast to the perks certain of the administrative staff enjoy. It seems to me that if sacrifice is the order of the day, leaders should lead the way. I don't see that happening at 3ABN.

> QUOTE

> No matter what is said about administration, the true reality is, those people work hard, deal with all kinds of difficulties, have huge decisions to make, have to deal with all kinds of people day in and day out, have to deal with tons of paperwork, finances, budgets, overseas projects....etc etc
> My point is, I guess, Is just because DS or CA murray or John L is in front of the camera once in a while, contrary to what some think, that is not a justifiable payoff for what these folks have to deal with. The only true payoff is they know they are a tool to win souls to the kingdom.

That would be true for those on sacrifical wages, which is not the case for certain administrators who would likely make less and have fewer perks if they worked for the organized church.

I have had road blocks thrown and me all my life. I grew up in single parent home, poor, ghetto environment, slow learner, Enron lost all retirement. Yet with God's help, I manage to find a way to succeed. Sorry I ain't feeling it for Linda.

Calvin, I admire your attitude regarding your personal life. I do think it's a bit of a gender thing. It also depends on one's friends. If friends continue to emphasize the unfairness of it all, it's difficult to "get over it." If friends encourage exploring different avenues, that provides a whole different atmosphere.

Having said that, we must recognize that few are pushed from such heights to such depths as Linda was. Losing husband, job and reputation (which prevented her from using her experience in ministry) all at one blow surely must be crushing beyond measure. A divorce usually takes a minimum of two years to process for a person to return to near-normal. (It's technically a "mourning" period.) Loss of a job to the degree that one is forced to seek employment in a totally different field would take a similar period of adjustment. And who can say what it takes to deal with the reputation trashing that Linda received?

If Linda has healed to the extent she's ready to move on with her life now, she's doing as well as can be expected, under the circumstances.

One's reputation is very important to the average person...the way in which Danny S. has tarnished his wife's reputation has been unChristianlike at best. Let us assume, for the sake of argument, that Linda had an illicit affair. What would have been the proper way to handle it? The way that Danny has been carrying on, I submit, is NOT the proper way to do so.

Someone, somewhere in this forum, mentioned the example of Joseph. When he discovered Mary was pregnant, and that he could not possibly be the father, because he had not yet slept with her, did he embark on a campaign to smear Mary's name? No, he didn't. The Bible says he sought to put her away QUIETLY, until an angel of the Lord informed him that Mary was to bear the Christ child. See Matthew 1:19. This is yet another point that many here are missing.....

Linda has not been on a "free" vacation...and even if, for the sake of argument, everyone here agrees that she has, she has been personally attacked by a man whom she was once married to, and ridiculed by many as a result. That is the "persecution" that you question. She has been emotionally wounded, and most will agree that those wounds take much longer to heal than the physical. Regardless of her wrongdoing, criminals have been treated better than that!

Yes, what is available is to chat about the current ministry of 3ABN.

Yes, well at least maybe, when we went to the new server somehow all the forums were doubled, nd we had to delete every other one, a couple of the forums had both deleted by accident, i have not hecked to see if 'THAT' forum survived... I know some others did not, and it was my fault. Seems to ne natter matters forum bit it by error..

For the most part that would be true. The recent disparaging remarks about Danny, Linda, aToday, nd a few others were removed...

My comments where harsh, and I apologize. I am not unsympathetic to Linda's trials and lost of ncome and reputation. I have never gone through a divorce but I think I can relate to some of the pain and hurt that goes along with that.

Even on Thanksgiving morning, watch out for those low boy trailers parked across country roads before sunup, especially the ones that block your shoulder, without flares or flags. Even when you only have a mile of pavement left to go.

Good thing it was a lowboy. If it had been higher, the car might have made it under all the way, at east the bottom part of the car.

I really liked that Beetle, but I've never gotten another one.

I was and I didn't hear him say that, but if he did can you blame him? Him and his wife have just split, then in walks the man he believes his having a relationship with his wife and has already told him not to show up at campmeeting. Any man who does something like that should expect shock and suspicion. Any normal person would think "they can't be here for any other reason than to make trouble." And, if he was there to make trouble and distract while services were going on, yes he could be thought of as a demon. A demon because he is seeing your wife and a demon for having the audacity to show his face in a public spiritual meeting where the husband is up front, live on tv trying to speak.

PB where was your indignation when I and Aletheia were called demons and satan not once, but several times on this very board. And that, was just for voiceing our opinions. No where near what the doc was doing. Apply the same measuring stick pb.

Haven't I heard this explanation almost verbatum already somewhere else??

Let me explain again, since you missed it last time. Both Arild and I had received invitations to come to the Camp Meeting in 2004. I first saw the email from Danny warning me not to attend when I returned to Norway. But you seem to know a lot more about me than I do. Who gives you that knowledge?

no not most... let's be clear... Re' referred to just a few of the those who defend Danny as demons... not most... a few.... one or two, three at the most... unless you are suggesting that only 3 people are defending him....

Just one point of clarification, BS. Now was Danny involved in the 'incident" you viewed from afar, or was he on the stage? I ask because I can see if you were trying to read the lips of those in the "incident" that you might miss what was being said from the podium.

Bystander,
Where was my indignation? It was probably in the same place it was when you called watchbird the serpent of Eden, in two different posts - just sitting back and waiting for Clay or Di to take care of it.

When someone lives in the spiritual realm, as Danny claims to, certainly he would be able to stand back and realize that even if his wife was doing everything he feared she was, those two men out in the audience were not demons but souls that Jesus died for, just like every other sinful one of us.

If it would make you feel any better, I would be glad to do what I do with my grandkids when one calls the other a name:

You would come into my sitting room, tears streaming down your face and say "Grandma, PrincessDrRe called me a demon!" I would give you a big hug and then ask you "Are you a demon? You know, just because DrRe calls you a demon, it doesn't make you one. Right?" And then you would smile, dry your eyes and say "Yes, Grandma."

Danny knew all along that Linda had not had an affair with the Doctor or anyone else. How? He fabricated the whole story out of thin air. Danny did his best to make it appear other than it was, but his house built of fictional cards is beginning to crumble. Bystander, I am sure you had a ringside seat to the entire spectacle. Once the truth about Danny comes out in a court of law, alot of people's eyes will be opened. So, come on Danny, bring on the lawsuits, everyone is waiting.

BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ New Letters At Save3abn

Posted by: erik Feb 6 2007, 11:44 AM

To all the Danny is innocent crowd,

Just read the letters from the second mom, Judy Woods, Sherry Avery, i have just one question how long is your side going to pretend that not one thing happen or it was all over 30 years ago. HOw long are you going to party to the cover of sin which always leads to more sin.

just wondering?

Erik W.

I agree Erik I just read the letter early this morning. Amazing they will spin this one too I'm sure. Just sad that these boys(at the time) & their families have to go thru this.

☒ hug.gif I'm sure it does & sorry you have to go thru this all again. Hang in there.

Posted by: Noahswife Feb 6 2007, 01:27 PM

I have just read everything added in the past two days at Save3abn.com. The letters from the participants in the TS situation speak for themselves.

The emails showing the development of the process ASI was to have used are very interesting. I am very glad they have been made available. It seems fairly clear to me that there was never going to be a chance of full transparency even though the procedures for conducting the proceedings were getting closer to what I would consider a fair hearing (or within the legal concept of "due process").

Can someone tell me if there are more email coming or if this is it and the next response was ASI issuing the statement that they were withdrawing?

Can someone tell me if the person referred to as having resigned is the attorney that was discussed on another thread or is that inappropriate speculation on my part?

And I have asked before but not received an answer, has Mr. Joy ever been a licensed attorney even if he is not now?

I am dismayed once again that there seems to be a presumption that lawyers in the process only hinder truth finding and that praying for discernment makes it more likely a truthful and fair decision will be reached.

Harold Lance is a trial attorney. He is not Nick Miller.

Mr. Joy has never been a licensed attorney. He has worked in area of litigation.

have learned over and over here and other places on the www that taking the time to be exact saves a lot of problems.

just tried to go to the Save3ABN website but they must be uploading or something as it did not come up.

was referring to something in one of the emails where (and I can't tell you who since I could not get back to it) someone points out to ASI/HL that other issues must be considered because someone who had brought something possibly unethical to the attention of DS eventually resigned due to manufactured evidence against him/her. Since questions have been asked and speculation raised that Nick Miller did not resign merely because he had better things to do with his time, I wondered if that was the person that was essentially forced to resign if I read the email correctly.

Sorry for any confusion I caused and I should have trusted my instinct to quote the exact paragraph rom the email I was referring to.

ust checked and the site is still down.

No, to my knowledge and lots of others that know him personally, he has never been a licensed attorney, a licensed investigator nor is he any kind of an official reporter.

The section I was referring to said the following:

Another person of note, a former prominent 3ABNer who is not pro-Linda, has informed me in writing that Danny threatened him/her to back off regarding financial, operational, and personal concerns, and when he/she didn't, that Danny ordered the fraudulent manufacturing of evidence against him/her, which thus produced a damaging allegation against him/her, and led to his/her resignation, without the board investigating whether his/her claim of such deceit was legitimate, even when it was brought to their attention. I wish I could say that that case was ancient history, but it was definitely not.

It can be found at this link:

http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-smokescreen-scheme-round-two-bob-pickle.htm

I see they have posted a fax received from someone on 3ABN in the recent past and that is probably why the site was unavailable.

I need to explain this comment. In no way did I mean that the letter shouldn't have been posted. It just makes me think of events years ago.

Posted by: Snoopy Feb 7 2007, 03:49 PM

I was reading Uriah Smith's Daniel and the Revelation this morning when I came upon this quotation in the chapter on Revelation 1 describing the beginning of John's vision - I just wanted to share it for all of you who are so directly affected by all of this - Duane, Linda, Barbara, Derrell and so many more - I don't know any of you but my prayer for you is that you will feel His hand:

> Overcome by the presence of this august Being, and perhaps under a keen sense of all human unworthiness, John fell at His feet as dead, but a comforting hand is laid upon him, and a voice of sweet assurance tells him not to fear. It is equally the privilege of Christians today to feel the same hand laid upon them to strengthen and comfort them in hours of trial and affliction, and to hear the same voice saying to them, "Fear not."

In the same chapter, this sentence seemed to be flashing in neon:

> But when man thinks he has buried the truth in eternal oblivion, the Lord gives it a resurrection in tenfold glory and power .

Posted by: princessdi Feb 7 2007, 03:49 PM

You know, the more letters and information I read, the more upset I get. The realization of how I and many others have been manipulated and duped for so many years is gut wrenching. Then I get on here and see how so many are more than willing to cast doubt on written testimonies, question the motives and sexual orientation of victims, make ludicrous allegations and do it all behind the shield of a screen name. I don't know how some of you can sleep at night.

I can tell you this. The truth is coming out. People are waking up. Almost every day someone talks to me who has read the information on this site and others, and they're not buying the lies any more. It all comes down to credibility. Who is willing to put their name on what they say, and who isn't? It speaks volumes to the general public. 14

To those of you who want to hide in secrecy and continue to smear signed testimonies, you may continue to do so if you want, but I think you're in for a big shock in the very near future.

I'm sure that it is frustrating for you Duane, but keep looking ahead. Like you said, the information is getting out. People are screaming for intervention, and eventually it must be addressed. 14

Hang in there Duane, keep your eyes focused on the Creator. He will give you the peace you deserve and need. As you see more and more letters like those that cause you anguish just realize that this a desperate bid by Satan to quell the truth.

Thanks Duane, for your continued affirmation of the good that this site is accomplishing. Please know that those of us who used to post a lot, but now do so only occasionally, are not silent because we have been swayed by the attacks by the Dannyworshipers. We are still here. We are still strong in our convictions that we are learning the truth from those like yourself and are just in a holding pattern now, while others "wake up" as you express it, and the wheels of justice grind in their own slow but sure, God-driven way.

We do appreciate your continued speaking up... but you know... you don't have to subject yourself to the repetitious attacks by your tormenters. You can put them on "ignore" so you simply do not see their attacks. When new persons come on... no matter what side they take, you will still see those and be able to contribute to their education. But don't put yourself through more than what God asks you too of the flogging your enemies would love to lay on you!

Blessings on you......and all the other victims, both those who have already come forward, and those who are still only gaining courage to do so. And God bless us all that we may continue to stand firm in opposing evil, wherever it may be found.... even in a prominent church ministry......

I second this statement wholeheartedly. Thank you, WB!

I know you have Duane's interest at heart when you suggest that he avoid the floggings but, as a victim myself, I know it is part of the process of healing to be able to see those attacks and confront them. In my opinion it helps one regain power and builds muscle.

Doctor,

Johann says that if you believe my wife needs support because of lies being told or whatever, you will come across the ocean and save her. I would be most happy for you to come and have a meeting with my board and conference President and explain to them....

"If you choose to come anyway, you will place us in a position where we will have to have you removed from the premises."

Danny Shelton

Dear Johann,

It has come to my attention that you and Dr. Abrahamsen are planning to attend the 3ABN Camp Meeting this week. Please be made aware that you aren't welcome here at this time and under these circumstances. If you choose to come anyway, you will place us in a position where we will have to have you removed from the premises.

If you would like to discuss this with me, please call me at Danny Shelton

3ut of course, Danny will not be the one at fault in the eyes of the dannyscribes. Let's see how long it akes for them to start trashing the Dr. for allowing the emails to be posted.

'm sure it will be Linda's fault also, somehow.

he doc was invited to tell his story to the board on Sunday. He was not welcome at the campmeeting n the meantime. What is hard to understand about that? The end of the story. Well, except after iaving the chance to tell his side, he didn't show....Oh just to be clear, the "premises" refers to the amp meeting location, not the board room.

"My House is a House of Prayer for ALL people" Is 3ABN campmeeting Danny's house or God's. If you consider it God's house, then you will see the problem. If you consider it Danny's then.........need I say more? Also, just on the real level. After being told you weren't welcom at church service, but to be "grilled" by the board the next day...........I dont' think I would have walked into that trap either. If Danny was on the up and up, he would have welcomed the Dr., praying together for God's will to be done.

That's what I was thinking, too...seems like if they were so concerned for the doc's soul then campmeeting would be the best place for him to be, right?

No, it was the ethical thing to do at the time. Here You have a man that you suspicion is having an affair with the vp of 3abn walks into a meeting that had already started and would be live, not having a clue if he was going to stand up and make a speech or raise some kind of ruckous or what? Based on the fact that he had stated he was coming to "make his views" known, who knew what he might do in front of an auditorium full of people? Especially with Johann accompanying him. I have since heard how emotional Johann can be, therefore the caution, when they showed up. Anyway,it is my understanding they weren't ask to leave until seen with flyers.
This argument is waste of time. Any large ministry in those circumstances would have handled it the same way.

Danny is the one who made a scene on world wide TV. Very poorly handled. I stood in front of the TV with my mouth open and I didn't even know at that time what it was all about. It was shameful.

No, he didn't make a "scene" at all, I also saw it. He feels his wife has left him for someone else and that "someone else" walks in just as the meeting is starting and going on the air. I doubt if you or any of us could have handled it as well as he did. I probably would have just walked off of live TV. After all how could you concentrate and focus with that happening. Put yourself in that position.

Walking off live TV and maybe having a little song service while it was could be handled discretly behing the scenes would have been a much better solution then standing up there calling them demons for the world to hear. For a moment I thought we were at a "deliverence" meeting.

His wife "left him" because he asked her not to be around for camp meeting?

Maybe it is time that Danny have a thorough mental evaluation.

Posted by: princessdi Mar 7 2007, 11:38 PM

You were supposed to be in Service, praise and worship to God. This is exactly what I was saying. Danny conducted himself as if it was a "meeting". If he remember where he was and Who the Meeting" was supposed to be about, he would not have to worry about who stepped in the door. At that point very few in that rrom and definitely not the rank and file and viewing audience knew anything, until under his own power Danny tried to "handle" things.

There is no condition on that text, It says, "a house of prayer for ALL people" not for ALL people you feel comfortable with, you don't have a problem with, just your supporters...."for ALL people". And if Danny is calling himself a leader in chritian living he ought to conduct himself like it!

There is an old song many of our newer members may not have heard. The title is called "Jesus Can Work It Out". One of the phrases the soloist says is, "While you're tryin' to figure it out, He already worked it out!" Taht think might have been worked out had Danny not taken things into his own hands. I will tell you all this. the more I hear about that weekenf and that meeting, I believed the Holy Spirit impressed the Dr. not to walk into that meeting. Those conducting that meeting were not working within the Will of God. Say what you want. but refusing someone access to God's House is a serious thing, and He doesn't take it lightly, and it speaks volumes of the one who restricts access of another.

Quite gullible?

I have explained before how it happened that I had a few copies of a written statement, and that the only one I gave a copy to was Joe O'Brien and this happened on our way out. This shows me that your witnesses are not the most reliable, but somehow you trust them. Is your paycheck dependent on it?

That is a very good point, and a very serious one. I think that's exactly what needs to take place. It will probably come to that. At least I hope so. The more you read of his "way" of treating others, very passive agressive and controlling, abusing power and hurting others with his authority or abuse, there is definitely a problem. 17

You were not the only one who heard that. His trouble is that once he had talked about demons he had to prove to the wold he was right, regardless of how Linda had to suffer for it.

I wonder if things are clear enough in your mind to participate?

If the "premises" referred to were only the camp meeting location, why was it impossible to have our Friday afternoon meeting in the board room. Walt and Nick discussed that possibility for a moment, but they quickly came to the conclusion that the meeting could not be held any closer than in West Frankfort, since Danny had forbidden us to come to Thompsonville.

Are you getting your information from a reliable witness?

Maybe Danny "feels" Linda left him because Danny ordered Linda out of Southern Illinois for 30 days while he scrubbed Linda's name off the network?

Did Danny share his feelings of abandonment with everyone who would listen?

Somethink like this, perhaps?

Oh where has my Linda gone.
Oh where has my Linda gone.
Where could she be?
Where could she be?

Dear Linda,

We are offering you a 30 day leave of absence with pay and full benefits - to begin at the time of receipt of this letter. During this time the following conditions must be met....

You will arrange to leave Southern Illinois at 3ABN expense for the duration...

At the end of 30 days we will reassess the situation and make further recommendations as indicated...

The issues in this proposal are not negotiable.

Sincerely,

This is really brazen IMO, especially given the fact that she had NOT committed Adultery, IMO.

Shame on you Walt and Danny!

I believe this was Danny and Walt's way of "flexing their muscles" and "showing Linda just who the real boss was", IMO.

I also believe (IMO) they expected her to bow and submit to the "anointed one"!

So Linda was away from Southern Illinois by the orders of Danny Shelton through his Chairman of the Board. And yet he had the audacity of telling the world audience that Linda had left him, and there on he spot he requested Mark Finley come forward and pray for her return. Then Mark Finley must have sensed Linda was innocent of the accusations.

Then Danny should have recused himself from the 3ABN board meeting/decision and excused himself rom the live broadcast of that campmeeting. Danny is the one who put it out. A lot of us didn't have a clue. In addition, Danny's mouth has turned this issue around to where people are now thinking that it was a setup. I guess if he sent his wife away, if I were him, I wouldn't want my "inaccurate" description of the alleged marital infidelity exposed globally either.

Exactly! This one act shows the blatant hypocrisy that makes this whole saga just stink worse than a pig farm! Danny says he believes in God and God has "called" him to do this work, but in this "difficult" situation he doesn't trust that God can work it out. Instead he takes it upon himself to refuse someone access to God's house.

We went there in an attempt to clear up misunderstandings, all caused because my wife and I introduced this doctor to Danny and Linda Shelton. This doctor is also the head elder of the most flourishing conservative SDA church in Norway - and has for several years been a financial supporter of 3ABN. Some of the problems were caused because the 3ABN archives had misspelled the name of this supporter, so Danny was convinced he was an impostor. Later Danny has named him a devil, a demon, or evil spirit, or bad counselor - like he did during the transmission to the whole world on Thursday evening at Camp Meeting. Also during that meeting we were requested to leave the premises of 3ABN, and if we ever showed up again at the meetings the police would be requested to remove us as trespassing private property - and this at meetings where all are invited.......

hat circumstances and what time is being spoken of? and why would Johann claim they were invited hen he was plainly warned not to come under those circumstances, and at that time, and told eforehand what would happen if he chose to do so anyway??

Even so, it was not till after, being asked to leave and refusing, after assualting Walt Thompson, and after handing out his papers, that they were warned to leave again, or the police would be called.

It is also clear that the context of the letter where the Doctor was invited to come to a board meeting was not in reference to a public meeting at Campmeeting, but was in reference to a private board meeting, and in reference to Matt 18, (which Linda, the Dr and Johann) apparently didn't want to follow) It says:

1. Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

2.But if he will not hear [thee, then] take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

3.And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell [it] unto the church:

4 but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

I was thinking about our conversation on the phone when you said you were not emotionally or otherwise involved with my wife, that you had not crossed any professional or Christan lines. Well all of that has been proven a lie. She has confessed everything all the lies, all the phone calls, some for over FOUR HOURS AND NINE MINUTES at a time. At other times you talked to my wife, March 15, for example for 59 minutes, then another conversation for 75 minutes, then another for 13 minutes, plus that same day you called her from your phone at least once that I know of and talked between 30 minutes and an hour. All in one day! And you maintain that were did not cross a line with her. The eye of flesh got in the way. She's young ,beautiful, and intelligent, and a television personality. You used her son to get to her. The devil decieved you both.

Sabbath March 13th, when she was at Brendas house you talked for 4 hrs and nine minutes according to ATT prepaid phone card records! And you still have the nerve to lie about your involvement with my wife? Those dozens of recorded phone conversations were not about her son or the high and lofty spiritual things that you both lied about but now at least is admitted by my wife. During those conversations you tried to get her to say she was afraid of me. Now I know why.

...[removed by Pickle and Joy] Brenda told me that you wanted her to promise that if I ever abused her, that she would let you know. ...[removed by Pickle and Joy]

You had planted those seeds in her, as she has never even mentioned the word abuse until the last few weeks, when she would contend that she was now being mentally abused. ...[removed by Pickle and Joy]

...[removed by Pickle and Joy]

I expect a confession and apology on your part or am praying about contacting your Division, Union, and local conferences, to inform them as what you almost accomplished.

...[removed by Pickle and Joy]
Please ask God to forgive you and then apologize to me as the bible would have you to do.

I'm using Matt. 18 to resolve this. I first went to you by phone, and then by email. ...[removed by Pickle and Joy]

You can't ignore me. I first contacted you, to no avail, next I contacted pastor John, to no resolve and if you don't answer me now then according to the bible I should contact the church.

So if you pretend that you didn't get this email, the next you hear from me could be your local church.

You can contact me with a written apology if you choose to resolve it this way at

Doctor,

Johann says that if you believe my wife needs support because of lies being told or whatever, you will come across the ocean and save her. I would be most happy for you to come and have a meeting with my board and conference President and explain to them ...[removed by Pickle and Joy]

2....[removed by Pickle and Joy] She has told me how you think I'm out to lunch and that I'm physcotic and all of these things.

5. I want to hear you justify the dozens of hours you have talked to her on the phone, some conversations of up to 4 hours and 9 minutes, according to the phone records. Please convince us they were about Nathan. The problem is, my wife admitted to the neutral marriage counselors, that she chose, that you and she talked negative about me on a number of occasions, and that you have convinced her I'm out to lunch.

...[removed by Pickle and Joy] her negative counselors told her to drop all relationship with you because you could bring no good into her life, only destruction.

6. You must think I'm stupid, I have a record of every phone call between you and she up to this day. Even though she started using phone cards, which you probably suggested, I still can monitor every number and for how long the conversation is. I also can monitor every phone call that has come in to you and all those going out. She knows this now I just told her yesterday. I was waiting to give you doctor, as they say in America, "enough rope to hang yourself". and you've done just

'ou all keep pretending her marriage and her job at 3ABN are one and the same, there are verlapping issues, but they were, and are not the same.

)ne, Danny was talking about her returning to him her husband and not asking her to return from her eave of absence from her job. She was supposed to be off reflecting, seeking God's help and getting ouncelling (other mutually acceptable ones if the reccomended councellors were not acceptable to her) so she could return, to both her husband and her job...

(THINK PLEASE. why did WT send the email to Alyssa,at her house, on 5/04/04 after already sending a registered letter in an attempt to get hold of Linda, if she was living with her husband???)

Two: It is obvious to anyone with common sense that the board asked Linda to come to the board meeting, and so obviously she was free to do so, and not banned from it. The chairman of the board clearly states they will review and reassess the situation after the leave of absence, what on earth do you people think the board met for, if not to do that???

I don't understand why you didn't quote the whole letter. Here are both the letter to her and the one to Johann about all this, for the members who haven't read them.

> Dear Linda,
>
> A committee representing the 3ABN board of directors has been selected and has met for the purpose of evaluating the present problem at 3ABN relating to your relationship to Danny and to the ministry of 3ABN - and seeking a resolution acceptable to all parties involved. This letter is intended to represent the will of the board.

Let me begin by expressing our gratitude to you for the part you have played at 3ABN for the past nearly twenty years. You have been an important part of the ministry from the beginning – a fact appreciated by us all. Accordingly, this letter is not written with the intent to destroy your home or your part in the ministry, but rather to rehabilitate and restore.

In accordance with this intent, we are offering the following proposal to you. We believe it has the potential of accomplishing the desired objectives, i.e., to save both your home and a place for you in this ministry. It would do so without making the details of this matter known to the full board or others.

Nor is this letter expressing an opinion regarding the nature of your relationship with Dr. Abrahamson. Whether or not this relationship has been immoral or not is not the issue of this document. The facts are that the relationship and your refusal to discontinue it in spite of repeated requests by Danny and our requests, has damaged both your family and 3ABN – a reality we must deal with in wisdom, love and compassion – but deal with, we must.

We are offering you a 30 day leave of absence with pay and full benefits - to begin at the time of receipt of this letter. During this time the following conditions must be met.

You will be relieved of all duties at 3ABN and will not appear at 3ABN other than to obtain items from your immediate office upon personal request from me. You will arrange to leave Southern Illinois at 3ABN expense for the duration. Both you and 3ABN need time to cool off.

You will agree in writing to cease all communication with Dr. Abrahamson, whether direct or indirect, whether by e-mail, telephone, letter or any other, or through Johann or any other third party. We are designating a period of 30 days, but with the intent this must be a life-long decision.

During this time you will not discuss the issues related to your relationship with 3ABN with anyone other than your immediate family, your professional counselors or representatives or members of the board of directors.

Since this time is recommended as a time for reflection and serious rehabilitation we are requesting that you arrange to receive professional help relating to the issues at hand. We are recommending Ron and Nancy Rocky to you. They have agreed to open their home to you and to give you personal help in dealing with the issues at the center of the present problems. It will be private and protected from the public eye such that neither your image nor reputation ought be damaged. Should you choose different professional help, it must be acceptable to this committee.

At the end of 30 days we will reassess the situation and make further recommendations as indicated.

The issues in this proposal are not negotiable. Should they be unacceptable to you – we hope sincerely they will be acceptable – we will proceed promptly with further investigation of the facts regarding the matter at hand. In that case we will need a list of witnesses you would like us to hear. We will offer Danny the same opportunity. Once we have had opportunity to hear the evidence, we will be in a better position to make recommendations to the full board based upon that evidence. Based on the facts we already know, however, we think pursuing such a course would make any future role for you at 3ABN unlikely.

That is why, Linda, we are pleading with you to accept this proposal for healing and restoration. This is God's ministry. He has chosen you to be a part of it. We want you to continue to be a part of it. But in order for that to happen really important things must change.

Sincerely,

> Walter Thompson MD
> Chairman of the Board of Directors, 3ABN

> She has been offered a proposal whereby this may happen. Only she can decide what she will do with it, but all of us at 3ABN want her to choose right. All are desirous of helping her - NONE trying to hurt her.

> In fact, if she were to desire to bring her case to a neutral party of the Church - and accept the publicity such an event would generate - I would welcome it. When all is said and done, it is my intent that no one will be able to honestly say we have not done everything possible to save her and her place of service.
> As you can confirm, I have not expressed any judgments about Dr. Abrahamson other than to say that he is in the wrong for continuing a relationship, even a doctor-patient relationship, that is destroying the very thing he is trying to save. Having said that, a continuation of communication between Europe and Linda will place the board in a place where we must deal with an insubordinate member of the organization. She has been asked on numerous occasions to discontinue the relationship, first by her husband who is also her superior in ministry, by her pastor, by her board chairman, and now by the committee of the board created to seek resolution. Likewise, both you > and Dr. Abrahamson have defied our requests to cease communication with Linda. While I can forgive this action on the mistaken belief that it is helping Linda, there comes a point when defiance must be dealt with lest it destroy the whole organization. If you are so concerned about Linda, and I believe you are, you will encourage her to get help here and break off the relationship there. Certainly there are people in America that can do give her the help she needs.

>
> Thank you for helping me to meet with Dr. Abrahamson by phone. We had a good discussion that gave me opportunity to hear his side of the story, a thing I appreciate.
>
> While we are going through this challenging time, please confine ALL further discussion about this matter to me or if unreachable, Bill Hulsey or Nick Miller (other members of the committee). In my mind this matter must not continue to spread - for the sake of Linda, 3ABN, and the world church and cause of God.

The e-mail invited Johann is dated April 21, 2004, at 8:21 AM. You can find it right here:

http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-meet-the-board-1.htm

The e-mail " disinviting " Johann is dated May 27, 2004 at 4:57 PM. The campmeeting in Thompsonville started that same evening, May 27, 2004 .

This "plain" warning "beforehand" was sent about two hours before the campmeeting started.

Some will likely say this was a carefully-crafted setup by Danny Shelton: Invite some Scandinavians to the United States on April 21; and then throw them out when they arrive on May 27; and make a big spectacle of it to showcase Danny as a victim.

Aletheia, I know you posted quite a bit ahead of this post. To me, your statements don't fit practical reality, such as:

> You all keep pretending her marriage and her job at 3ABN are one and the same, there are overlapping issues, but they were, and are not the same.

I believe they are one and the same: If you stab your Vice President, Linda Shelton, in the back, your wife, Linda Shelton, might not cook you a very nice dinner that evening.

When people are interviewed, the first thing they are asked is what they do for a living. What a person does for a living becomes part of their identity and part of who they are. You don't steal that identity from your wife at work, and expect all will be well at home. It just doesn't work that way and I don't think Walt and Danny were working to that end.

Aletheia,

You state over and over you are looking for truth and answers.

Why do you fail to ask WWJD, Bystander and Lee to respond to questions posed by posters on this board when WWJD, Bystander and Lee fail to answer?

Maybe the posters should quote you in the future:

"Your answer tells me you are dissembling, and avoiding the question... Is there a problem with you answering in a honest and straight to the point manner?" Aletheia

> You were supposed to be in Service, praise and worship to God. This is exactly what I was saying. Danny conducted himself as if it was a "meeting". If he remember where he was and Who the Meeting" was supposed to be about, he would not have to worry about who stepped in the door. At that point very few in that rrom and definitely not the rank and file and viewing audience knew anything, until under his own power Danny tried to "handle" things.

Although I believe reasonable minds would find this an excellent statement concerning what reasonable christians would do, would those who project what THEY would do under similar circumstances only see a threat and behave as DS behaved?

http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-meet-the-board-1.htm

The email you cite is to the Doctor, NOT Johann, and has nothing to do with campmeeting....

Johann was invited by the Chairman of the board on May 4th:
"Accordingly, I would be pleased if you would submit to me in writing a comprehensive account of the allegations you have about the way 3ABN has treated Linda. I would like this to be comprehensive with whatever documentation you can provide so that we may assess it accurately."

This "plain" warning "beforehand" was sent about two hours before the campmeeting started.

SO?? what was it in response to? (Do you know?)

And What does that have to do with Johann writing this several weeks later:
QUOTE:

Under the law, and this differs somewhat from the common understanding of the terms, "assualt" is considered to be a verbal threat. "Battery" is considered to be a physical act. In the common understanding, "assualt" may be a physical act, as in the following sentence: The 7th Inf. Div. launched an assault on the enemy position. So, Aletheia is unclear as to whether Johann physically assaulted Dr. Thompson, or if Johann simply may have said something verbally that Aletheia did not like.

I do not know what she meant.

To be more precise, you are trying to deny the plain facts as they show up in those letters.

You are also ignoring the fact that at the time of this campmeeting, Johann Thorvaldsson was the current and official 3ABN Director of European Advancement... a position he held until later dismissed by Danny Shelton AFTER Johann refused to testify to the "truth" of Danny's lie about Linda's association with Dr Arild Abrahamson. 9

Dr Abrahamson was an enthusiastic supporter and a generous contributor for years before this. It is impossible to even imagine that either of them would interpret their invitations to meet with the board as including any prohibition as to attending the campmeeting that was being held just previous to the board meeting.

And not until the actual day of the campmeeting was there a letter sent telling them they would not be welcome. Did they even check email before going to the campground?

But thank you for bringing the letters here so we can read for ourselves without even having to go to the save3abn website. That gives them more exposure and helps balance ... and expose .... the way that you habitually twist facts and spin interpretations. Oldtimers just smile and note how consistent you are. Newbies can be glad for such a quick and easy demonstration of how you "work".

Carry on........ ☒ TVsnack. ....

How could you make that statement, when the facts show in this situation that when the marriage when her job went with it? Why would you not see that? Like I said you really need to sstop posting. i think they count on the fact that you understand aboslutely nothing about this situation.

Can we have a show of hands of those who are in agreement? Shall we start a poll?

My 2 cents.

I already used my hand to use initiate that little "ignore" function. But I have my other hand and it's going up now.

Gailon tells me that while Linda was walking with Elder Thorvaldsson and Dr. Abrahamsen in a park or some such place around the time of the May 2004 camp meeting, that Danny called Linda to tell her how nice the dress was that she was wearing. Any truth in this, that the P.I.'s were transmitting pictures like that? 4

Would this constitute a form of harassment that would be a violation of the http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-employee-handbook-not-followed.htm? If so, what recourse was there for Linda to report Danny Shelton for harassment?

I will not repeat what the others have clearly expressed.

However, let me add that I placed a link to two letters, not one. The second letter clearly puts it into the context of two Scandinavians where it says "you and Dr. Abrahamsen."

I chose to be inclusive of both gentlemen based on that second letter further down on that same page. Perhaps, you missed the second letter on that page by not scrolling down far enough.

Once again, please note that the second letter mentions both gentlemen:

Dear Johann,

It has come to my attention that you and Dr. Abrahamsen are planning to attend the 3ABN Camp Meeting this week....

What email address was this "plain" warning email sent to? Was it to Johann's email address? Was Johann in Norway to receive it 2 hours before campmeeting started?

nyone with common sense would see that Linda was not being asked to come to the board meeting o be held right after campmeeting, May 30, 2004. The leave of absence couldn't have started before ay 5th at the earliest which would put the end of the 30 days in early June. At the end of the 30 days he was to meet with the "Committee" WT referred to made up of WT, Nick Miller and Bill Hulsey, not he whole Board.

As annoying as the obfuscation can get by those few who practice it and as irritating as the pathetic attempts at spin-doctoring have become, I still maintain that it is a good thing that each one of that group is freely allowed to continue to post here. Who knows, some day even they may remove their blinders.

While I don't know what happend to that e-mail. However, if it went to Norway, it arrived 3 minutes before midnight.

04:57:00 p.m. Thursday May 27, 2004 in US/Central converts to 11:57:00 p.m. Thursday May 27, 2004 in Europe/Oslo

Besides a calendar, does Danny needs one of those watches with the two time zones on it, like the one heard he found in Linda's locked car? I think the Norwegians should have bought two of those watches on their way to that campmeeting, instead of just one.

'es, as you highlighted in the portion of the letter that you pasted above, at the end of the 30 days he committee was to meet again and weigh all of the evidence they had collected from both parties ınd then they would be in a position to make their recommendations to the full board. This would have taken place well after the May 30, 2004 board meeting that you suggested. Thank you again, Aletheia, for your pointing out the inconsistencies between what Walt Thompson said and what he actually did.

Look at the calendar Aletheia.... do the math.... or count the little square boxes...... Notice... They did not wait 30 days. They acted BEFORE the time specified was up.

And she was NOT permitted to come in person before the board... she was NOT asked for a list of witnesses.... neither were the two who had come from Norway to give their witness permitted to appear before the board.....

As I said... thank you for you help in pointing these things out in the documentation. Perhaps we have been too hard on you. Perhaps you are not, after all, working for Danny. Perhaps you are merely using a pretense of support for "his side" as a cloak for actually working against him.....

Hmmmmm..... ☒ .... have to cogitate on that one a bit more..... ☒

These several emails that have been published completely exonerate DS and WT of any wrong doing, unfairness or anything else they have been accused of. All they do is point out that DS clearly loved his wife and was upset and hurt, but still trying to follow the course of Matt 18. Walt T. could not have shown any more of a kind, christian, and sensative nature to all concerned. His emails speak with love for Linda and he always addresses both the Doc and Johann in a respectful way. The way he handled his part of this terrible situation, strengthens my feelings of respect for him as a true christian and a man of integrity. Can we say the same for them in their responses?

After reading through, I don't know how anyone could come to any conclusion other than, LS had her opportunity time and again to make things right both at 3abn and her marriage, and she chose not to. Both Doc and Johann were given opportunities (at the right time and place) and at least the Doc didn't take it. Johann would have addressed the board also and he didn't.
All were dealt with in a Christ like spirit as far as possible but finally enough is enough and even then, they were dealt with fairly.
In one of DS emails to the Doc he says Linda is young beautiful and intelligent.......Yes that sounds like someone who never bragged on her and built her up and didn't love her.....Right
These emails are very simple & forthright as to what happened and those of you that want to find wrong in them, just want to find it and want to argue.

Is there something about this, you don't understand, PB?

Linda didn't reply according to WT, nor did she do anything asked, do you think, maybe, that gave them a clue, to proceed and take it to the full board?

ou cannot read... so let's keep it simple.... PROVE that Linda committed adultery.... show us the vidence.... don't spin, don't distract, prove that Linda committed adultery....

f you are unwilling to do that, then explain why you and others like you stood by while Linda was hrown under the bus..... even if she did everything she was accused of, she should not have been reated as she was..... so explain one or the other.....

lay, Linda was not fired for committing adultery. So that isn't the issue here,

This is the quote by Aletheia that I was responding to. When she says that Linda didn't reply per WT one must wonder when it was that she went to Kansas to meet with the non-SDA counselors. Was this in May or June? Did the committee go directly to the board on May 30th since Linda didn't reply? That would be interesting to know but I'm not willing to speculate if "maybe, that gave them a clue, to proceed and take it to the full board". I'll do some searching and see if I can find the answer from first-hand information.

In the mean time, these are a few conclusions that I drew from the emails and from information in Aletheia's posts:

1. It was the committee Linda was to respond to.
2. I do not find anything anywhere that shows that the board asked Linda to come to the board meeting at the end of campmeeting.
3. Perhaps the board met for the usual things that the board met for on a quarterly basis?

3ABN staff was ordered to use the 30-day period to expunge Linda's name from the network. She was, n effect, erased. Therefore, if it were me they were erasing, I surely would not see it as a proposal for healing and restoration." You don't heal and restore a person by ordering every employee in he entire corporation use those 30 days to erase the person's name.

My opinion is that this statement of 30 days for "healing and restoration" was meant to deceive. Therefore, I have a difficult time locating Walt Thompson's "kind, christian, and sensative nature to all concerned." Yes, I believe Walt Thompson and Company seemingy offered Linda help, but I also believe that, behind the scenes, they were working to erase Linda, entirely.

Kay Kuzma was part of the four-member "fact-finding" committee established by "kind, christian, and sensitive" Walt Thompson. Kay was recommending books on Spiritual Adultery.

Kay was not dealing with Linda's marriage; Kay was dealing with Linda's employment. So, what's the point of Kay recommending books with the word "adultery" in them if it is irrelevant to Linda's employment?

Once again Cindy there are some questions you have yet to answer... are you?

Here are my two.....

Can you prove Linda committed adultery?

Why did you allow her to be thrown under the bus?

Now there was another question asked by nw, are you gonna answer that one also?

PB this is the first time of have seen an admission by Linda or your side that she & DS went to professional counselors. That has been denied on this board over and over again. Our side has been called liars by saying she did. If I had time I would go back to your previous posts to see if you were on that wagon train of "poor Linda DS lied about going to counselors." Either way, it is of the utmost importance that you have admitted it now since that has been one thing on this board that has been argued to the point of being ridiculous.
So, what do you know? They did go to professional non SDA counselors. Non SDA so there wouldn't be any bias involved, I'm sure. This way the counselors would most likely, not be aware of who DS or LS were as far as TV and the Adventist world go. PB, you stated Kansas. I didn't even know what state it was when.....mmm wonder who your "first hand" information is? And, if you have access to that kind of first hand info, what's with the story you have given all along that you came here neutral and searching for truth. If you have access to "first hand info" from your side, doesn't sound like you were so peacefully bewildered after all.

Uh Cindy, I have never heard anything about her job performance in regards to her being fired. She was fired from her job cuz she was also fired from her marriage by Danny. It all hinged on her "relationship" with the Dr. That has always been the reason. You know another. Shoot! Bring it!

Bystander... you are skipping around two questions... here they are again....

PROVE that Linda committed adultery.... show us the evidence.... don't spin, don't distract, prove that Linda committed adultery....

If you are unwilling to do that, then explain why you and others like you stood by while Linda was thrown under the bus..... even if she did everything she was accused of, she should not have been treated as she was..... so explain one or the other.....

and when your tag-team partner tags in this evening.... tell him to start with those two simple questions.....

These several emails that have been published completely exonerate DS and WT of any wrong doing, unfairness or anything else they have been accused of. All they do is point out that DS clearly loved his wife and was upset and hurt, but still trying to follow the course of Matt 18. Walt T. could not have shown any more of a kind, christian, and sensative nature to all concerned. His emails speak with love for Linda and he always addresses both the Doc and Johann in a respectful way. The way he handled his part of this terrible situation, strengthens my feelings of respect for him as a true christian and a man of integrity. Can we say the same for them in their responses? After reading through, I don't know how anyone could come to any conclusion other than, LS had her opportunity time and again to make things right both at 3abn and her marriage, and she chose not to. Both Doc and Johann were given opportunities (at the right time and place) and at least the Doc didn't take it. Johann would have addressed the board also and he didn't.
All were dealt with in a Christ like spirit as far as possible but finally enough is enough and even then, they were dealt with fairly.
In one of DS emails to the Doc he says Linda is young beautiful and intelligent.......Yes that sounds like someone who never bragged on her and built her up and didn't love her.....Right
These emails are very simple & forthright as to what happened and those of you that want to find wrong in them, just want to find it and want to argue.[/quote]

I disagree with you take on this. To support my position, I will quote a letter that Alethea posted earlier. As she posted it, I assume that it is a valid e-mail.

I am going to insert my comments into the following quotation. I will identify them by placing a "GM:" before my inserted comments. In addition, I will place my initials at the end of my comment.

In the interests of fairness, I will comment as I see it. That is to say that some of my comments will be positive, and some will be negative.

Dear Linda,

This is a copy of the letter that has been sent by FEDEX to you. While you may not understand now, someday you will realize that we are truly desirous of returning you to your home and ministry because we care about you. I plan to go to 3ABN tomorrow and will be available to talk with you if you have questions needing clarification.

Walt

GM: O.K. I am willing to acknowledge that Dr. Thompson, and the 3-ABN Board did care about Linda, and that their preference would have been to have Linda return to her position at 3-ABN. Some may challenge this posiiton. They may cite other material to support that idea. But, in my comments here, I am only dealing with this message. I am saying that this is a good beginning for a letter of this type--GM.

May, 4, 2004

Walter Thompson MD
Chairman of 3ABN Board of Directors
174 Foxborough Place
Burr Ridge, IL 60527

Linda Shelton
Three Angel's Broadcasting Network
PO Box 220
West Frankfort, IL 62896

Dear Linda,

A committee representing the 3ABN board of directors has been selected and has met for the purpose of evaluating the present problem at 3ABN relating to your relationship to Danny and to the ministry of 3ABN - and seeking a resolution acceptable to all parties involved. This letter is intended to represent the will of the board.

GM: I wonder, did this committee have any input from Danny Shelton? It almost seems impossible for them to have met for such a purpose without input from him. If so, did they have any input from Linda? If they did not take input from Linda, in the same manner that they recieved input from Danny, there is a problem. Yes, Danny, as President, was entitled to give them input, and I do not fault them for taking such. But, Linda, as Vice-President was just as entitled to give them input. If they failed to notify her of this meeting, and if they failed to take her input to the same extent that they took it from Danny, there is a problem of bias, or unfair advantage, or more--GM.

Let me begin by expressing our gratitude to you for the part you have played at 3ABN for the past nearly twenty years. You have been an important part of the ministry from the beginning - a fact appreciated by us all. Accordingly, this letter is not written with the intent to destroy your home or your part in the ministry, but rather to rehabilitate and restore.

GM: O.K. I can accept this, as I said in my first comment--GM.

In accordance with this intent, we are offering the following proposal to you. We believe it has the potential of accomplishing the desired objectives, i.e., to save both your home and a place for you in this ministry. It would do so without making the details of this matter known to the full board or others.

GM: O.K. As the issue is that of marriage, should not this same proposal be offered to Danny as well as Llinda. Remember, at this point, the Board had not recieved any response from Linda. They had not previously asked her for information. Now, in recognition of a problem, they had an obligation to treat Danny in the same manner as they treated Linda. In fairness, they should have required the same of Danny that they required of Linda--GM.

Nor is this letter expressing an opinion regarding the nature of your relationship with Dr. Abrahamson. Whether or not this relationship has been immoral or not is not the issue of this document. The facts are that the relationship and your refusal to discontinue it in spite of repeated requests by Danny and our requests, has damaged both your family and 3ABN - a reality we must deal with in wisdom, love and compassion - but deal with, we must.

GM: Oh, now we have it. Linda is required to . . . without hearing from her. Folks, at this point the Board is closing off the posibility, before hearing from Linda, that the relationship that she had with Dr. A. was appropriate. They have essentially told her to chose between Danny and Nathon, and supposedly without ever giving her the opportunity to present to them the position that she was in, and the choice that they were forcing her to make. That is pure and simple, unfair--GM.

We are offering you a 30 day leave of absence with pay and full benefits - to begin at the time of receipt of this letter. During this time the following conditions must be met.

GM: O. K. in fairness, do the same for Danny--GM.

You will be relieved of all duties at 3ABN and will not appear at 3ABN other than to obtain items from your immediate office upon personal request from me. You will arrange to leave Southern Illinois at 3ABN expense for the duration. Both you and 3ABN need time to cool off.

GM: Unresonable. Did not treat Danny the same. No proof that such was necessary. No attempt to give Linda a chance to challenge, or otherwise show that it was not necessary--GM.

You will agree in writing to cease all communication with Dr. Abrahamson, whether direct or indirect, whether by e-mail, telephone, letter or any other, or through Johann or any other third party. We are designating a period of 30 days, but with the intent this must be a life-long decision.

GM: Premature. It clearly shows that a decison had already been made in regard to her relationshilp with Dr. A. In fairness, they should have given Linda a chance to defend her relationship with Dr. A. This was simply unreasonable, with not chance for Linda to defend against it--GM.

During this time you will not discuss the issues related to your relationship with 3ABN with anyone other than your immediate family, your professional counselors or representatives or members of the board of directors.

GM: Unreasonable. This shows that the Board has placed Danny's and 3-ABNs interests above that of Linda. It shows a bias. It was not fair to Linda. They had to right to restrict her communication to "professional counselors" which is subject to intrepretation--GM.

Since this time is recommended as a time for reflection and serious rehabilitation we are requesting that you arrange to receive professional help relating to the issues at hand. We are recommending Ron and Nancy Rocky to you. They have agreed to open their home to you and to give you personal help in dealing with the issues at the center of the present problems. It will be private and protected from the public eye such that neither your image nor reputation ought be damaged. Should you choose different professional help, it must be acceptable to this committee.

GM: Should not the same have been said to Danny--GM?

At the end of 30 days we will reassess the situation and make further recommendations as indicated.

The issues in this proposal are not negotiable. Should they be unacceptable to you - we hope sincerely they will be acceptable - we will proceed promptly with further investigation of the facts regarding the matter at hand. In that case we will need a list of witnesses you would like us to hear. We will offer Danny the same opportunity. Once we have had opportunity to hear the evidence, we will be in a better position to make recommendations to the full board based upon that evidence. Based on the facts we already know, however, we think pursuing such a course would make any future role for you at 3ABN unlikely.

GM: Folks, all issues should have been open to input from Linda, and discussion. The Board made a biased decision without input from Linda. It clearly did not start out with Danny and Llinda on > the same level. It did not treat Danny and Linda the same. I clearly placed Linda at an disadvantage. Most reasonable people would have rejected the Board's offer and biased and unfair them--GM.

Pete;

You beat me to the point about Linda being banned for 30 days. It seems some can't/won't add 2 + 2 and get 4.

IMO, I see this as a total setup from day one. I believe it was a power struggle that Danny had to win no matter what the cost! Now it will cost him more than he thought; he will probably loose 3ABN. Yes, preplanned and executed according to their (Danny & Walt's) plan.

Danny however, miscalculated Linda's response 100%. Therefore, Plan "B":

1. Destroy her, put her in welfare housing;
2. Make her leave penniless; (Remember, in the beginning she was to get zero)
3. Tell the world she is a harlot;
4. Convince her friends she is a devil;
5. Destroy the Dr too;
6. Discredit Johann, a true man of God;
7. Glorify Danny as the "anointed one" who is = to god;
8. Lift Danny up as the victim;
9. Cry on the air;
8. Beg for sympathy as in "Woe is me, I am undone";
9. Hit the "bystanders" to send ALL their money to the "anointed one" to make his "pain" bearable;
10. Tell lies about everything because the devoted "asleep" will listen and bless Danny with more money;
11. Finally, good riddance to bad rubbish!
12. Linda is gone and "pushed under the bus".

Was this in May or June? Did the committee go directly to the board on May 30th since Linda didn't reply? That would be interesting to know but I'm not willing to speculate if "maybe, that gave them a clue, to proceed and take it to the full board". I'll do some searching and see if I can find the answer from first-hand information.

(Cue Phyllis Diller laugh)
It must be a lean newsday if a post from me about LS and DS going to counseling in Kansas is to be considered Breaking News! This reaction on your part took me aback as I have tried quite carefully to pay attention to details on this forum. You make some pretty shakey claims in your statement. First of all, my post doesn't come as an admission by Linda or "your side". I don't know Linda personally. I personally have a friend who knows Linda personally but I have never personally spoken to or been emailed by Linda. And furthermore, my own personal friend who knows Linda personally has never mentioned to me anything about counseling that LS and DS went to in Kansas so there is no possible way for you to tag my comment as an admission by Linda.
While a great-grandfather of mine did come out West from St. Louis by wagon train, I have never ridden on one real or hypothetical. But, since you piqued my curiosity as to this whole matter, I did a simple search and these are just part of the posts that deal with the subject of Linda and Danny going to Kansas for "counseling":
sonshineonme discusses Kansas:
http://www.blacksda.com/forums/index.php?showtopic=9131&st=30&p=138813&#entry138813
Panama_Pete discusses Kansas:
http://www.blacksda.com/forums/index.php?showtopic=11914&st=75&p=165855&#entry165855
Johann discusses Kansas:
http://www.blacksda.com/forums/index.php?showtopic=11914&st=75&p=165898&#entry165898
http://www.blacksda.com/forums/index.php?showtopic=12434&st=30&p=176406&#entry176406

So, all of the above links clearly show that there has been no denial of the fact that LS and DS went to Kansas to meet with non-SDA counselors. I just don't see where you get the details from your post about you being called liars for saying that she did. Perhaps you need to get your facts straight before publishing your Breaking News item?

>
> So, what do you know? They did go to professional non SDA counselors. Non SDA so there wouldn't be any bias involved, I'm sure. This way the counselors would most likely, not be aware of who DS or LS were as far as TV and the Adventist world go. PB, you stated Kansas. I didn't even know what state it was when.....mmm wonder who your "first hand" information is? And, if you have access to that kind of first hand info, what's with the story you have given all along that you came here neutral and searching for truth. If you have access to "first hand info" from your side, doesn't sound like you were so neutral after all.
> This post has been edited by Bystander: Today, 01:32 PM

Well, dear Bystander, I would have to ask you why you didn't know that the state was Kansas? Did your sources forget to give you that info? Did you not read the very posts you invoked in your first few sentences of your post,"since that has been one thing on this board that has been argued to the point of being ridiculous"?
Who is my "first hand" information? Many of the members of this forum, you included.
(Cue Phyllis Diller to stop the laughing)
You are right about one thing though. I wasn't really neutral when I came here. I loved the ministry of 3abn and really thought I could do my part to disprove the claims that my friend who personally knows Linda was making. When I came here the truth was I pretty much felt that Linda had probably strayed and that Danny was probably telling the truth about the matter. But I came here, willing to give other folks the chance to tell their testimonies and willing to find the truth of the matter.
So now, Bystander, I am still filled with the Peace that passes understanding. As for the bewildered part of my username, I am bewildered that those who claim to be representing God's character to the whole world have shown themselves, time and again, to be less than truthful and of such unChristianlike behavior as to actually try to cover up horrific abuse and try to intimidate precious souls into silence who have been abused by one of their own.

Vhat Don't You Understand? It is the responsibility of 3abn ONLY to make known that evidence. And Vhen They Do, It will not be on a CHAT room. How hard is that for any of you to understand? There re Legalities involved. Unlike Joy or Pickle, the reality is, I nor anyone else, can just step up and take ver. he only reason that I can see for directly ignoring my post, is that you think I am DS. Get over it. ou are not addressing DS. Can I prove anything. No. Again, 3abn can. I don't have the right. And ecause I know that they can, there was no "bus accident." End of Story.
have answered questions to the best of my ability, What have you done?
an You prove her innocence?
an you prove what was said to each other in their own home?
an you prove that all the phone bills, gifts, and other evidence were lies?
an you prove that she wasn't given every chance to restore her marriage and her job?
an you tell me ANYTHING at all that you DIDN'T read and draw conclusions from, on this forum?

Can you tell me that you witnessed ANY of the events that have been discussed?
Can you tell me that you have talked directly with ANY of the people involved?
If not, you have unbelievable audacity to DEMAND anything from the 3abn defenders. Same goes for the rest of you that answer no to these questions.

I'm certain you would characterize your job here, and the jobs of wwjd, Lee and Aletheia, to be to provide support for Danny's side of all of these issues. Am I correct? If I am, wouldn't it be a good place to show all of the lurkers, members, and those seeking truth in the matter what that "evidence" is so that they, those who have not chosen sides as yet, can come to the appropriate conclusion?

You must know that many folks are Googling for information since Danny has been so outspoken on the Live programs. Wouldn't it be prudent for them to get the full story instead of seeing only one side posting the evidence for their side?

Of course, if there really isn't any compelling "evidence" that could be posted to clearly show that Linda was following a sinful course, I suppose you all could just go on twisting statements, muddying the waters and attempting to divert the minds of those seeking truth. Wonder which course would be the most productive?

Posted by: princessdi Mar 8 2007, 04:09 PM

Well then, you, cindy, Lee, wwjd, and the rest need to stop posting until said proof is produced. There is no reason for you to continue, because we will not believe you with out the proof, and you have no proof, you say, thus far. You have wasted massive amounts of our time and yours. Come back when you have something.

so you cannot answer those two simple questions.... you cannot prove that she committed adultery, and you stood by while she was trashed and thrown under the bus.....

thank you for showing us what you are.... God help anyone who needs help from you....

Have you gotten completely simple minded? I answered your questions. I am not in a position to expose the evidence. They are. And they have it. Therefore, there is no ridiculous Bus analogy.

I answered. You did not answer any of mine. I have yet to see you answer these kinds of questions. Try it, just once, just see if you can answer with plain and simple responses. No answering a question with a question, no smart remarks. Just answer the list of questions. How hard is it? they are YES and NO answers. Put on your thinking cap and just attempt it, just ONE time.....If you refuse to answer such simple questions, that says it all, and will show to all, that you are just an "extra" in the drama and are here to memorize and repeat some of the "stars" in your camp.

have never seen him do anything but ridicule those he disagrees with, demand answers from those ıe insults and namecalls, and never have any of his own when it comes to theses 3ABN discussions.

3TW, if my memory serves correctly re your post to PB, it was mostly Clay, (and I think Princess)rRe) who were claiming that Linda never got professional counseling, and accusing Danny and 3ABN)f lying, and demanding proof and receipts from you... PB might have been too bewildered to supply hem with her links...

)on't have to; this is America...where one is innocent until proven guilty.

'ou are saying she's guilty... so the burden of proof is on you. Folk who said Tommy was guilty came ›ut with evidence to support their claims If you are unwilling or unable to produce evidence to support 'our claim, that is your prerogative... but you will be weighed in the balanced and found wanting.

'he bottom line is your behavior is not consistent with that of someone who has the truth on his side. 'our unwillingness to support your claims with verifiable evidence only further entrenches that ›erception and a number of people have said the tipping point for them was your (plural) conduct and :onversation and continued recalcitrance when asked to verify what you state...

PB, are you deliberatly lying? I have said how many times, that I have never met Danny? I came here searching for the truth and asking questions, the answers led me to where I am now.

I'm quite sure it suits your purpose to try and make the readers here see all the people you disagree with, as you portray them, simply being blindly loyal and defending someone in a biased manner, but it's simply not true.

I am no prophet, but this I know. When the facts are made known by 3ABN, unless you are without a conscience, you are going to be a very embarassed and sad woman.

Why not just stop making the absolute statements and judgments which you yourself cannot prove, and practice building the patience of the saints, until that happens?

This forum is a good place to practice that. Turning the other cheek also...

Posted by: princessdi Mar 8 2007, 04:42 PM

Wrong again.........please stop posting............You have no new information....you are not authorized to give proof of that which you expsouse.....you should all just stop wasting our time.

Now, I would suggest to you all that, as members of the BSDA Family, that you go and enjoy the other forums discussions, Live Chat, and even the game arcade, but we know that is not your purpose. When and if all is said and done in the sad, sad tale, you will leave us. Mainly because I have observed nothing Christ-like about your motives, your words or actions. Just do us a favor and go.

I would just like to make one exception to this statement. That is Bytander. Even though we have disagreed, I have personally been impressed with a certain amount of "respect", that may have come from home training and is buried deep. I think under other circumstances, we might have been able to sit down and have a great conversation.

Aletheia,

You continue to ignore my other question, so I will ask you a different one based on this statement.

So what are your conclusions based on your searching and asking questions? I am interested to know where you are now.

1. Do you believe linda committed adultery?

Simple yes or no is sufficient.

PrincessDi:

Real friends, sistas and sisters stick together. PB.

Too bad Linda was apparently not given the same support by those she has worked with at 3abn and considered her friends (at least that is how I have interpreted much that has been written and Danny DID tell her that she needed to get new friends, did he not?).

No, I am not lying. I know that you claim not to have met Danny. Nevertheless, you have made it quite clear that you believe what he says and you continue to post information that you say supports that.

My purpose is, and always has been, to find the verified truth in this matter. No matter how many times you claim otherwise or try to charge me with trying to characterize you, Lee, wwjd and Bystander in any unkind light it just won't stick. I have been completely transparent in my posting and questioning. That I usually can't get straight and to the point answers from the four of you is not my doing. Yes, I disagree with the way you and the others have tried to obfuscate the truth but I have always defended your right to post your opinions, as diversionary as they can be at times.

Do you know these "facts" that 3abn is holding? Are you certain or are you taking the word of someone else that they even exist.

If you have actually seen this "evidence" for yourself, does it:

1. Prove that Linda deserved to be removed from her position as Vice President and co-founder of 3abn?
2. Prove that Tommy Shelton did not abuse his position of power as a pastor and sexually abuse boys and young men over a possible period of decades?
3. Prove that Tommy has actually asked for forgiveness from all of his alleged victims and made restitution to help them get on with the rest of their lives?
4. Prove that Danny Shelton did not attempt to cover up the abuse of boys and young men by minimization and intimidation and possibly by outright lies?

What? Huh?

If by turning the other cheek you mean averting my eyes while you, Lee, wwjd and Bystander try to distort the truth by misquoting it and trying to divert attention from it, then that's a cheek I'm not willing to turn.

Ok?!! That he did! ...and to leave him alone, go on with her life....if she watch out she will be rreplaced and all......talking about old dish rags and things.......where I come from that was a cue for a heathen like me to take my earrings off! After 20 years, too! LOL!!! Now if that don't sound like somebody who is through..........and that crew is trying to convince somebody he Dany was soooo in luv! Please!!! Ooops!

.......make note to self.....no more Madea movies for at least a week! LOL!!!

Seriously, though sounds as if God has blessed her with a few good friends.

I was posting to Bystander in regards to his conversation with PB, and telling him who I remembered arguing with him about Counseling, which was mostly Clay, and Inga too now that I think of it. PB can't tell anyone what I remember, nor can you.

Please show me where in all of this that PrincessDrRe claims that Linda never got professional counseling. Glenetta mentioned that there were receipts from the couple in Kansas.

Don't know if anyone noticed, but this was a beautifully crafted letter by WT and team -- corporate greed all wrapped up in the pretentious loving blanket of pity for LS. You notice his #1 concern is what's best for the organization, his #2 concern is tenderness and caring for LS, although he strongly indicates the facts show she's guilty ("but we'll listen anyway"), just for the appearance of fairness. Only in religious circles are you treated guilty and sentenced before the trial. I've been around some of these kind of organizations and the way administration feels it their divine duty to extend their tentacles into the privacy of other peoples lives.

> Dear Linda,

A committee representing the 3ABN board of directors has been selected and has met for the purpose of evaluating the present problem at 3ABN relating to your relationship to Danny and to the ministry of 3ABN - and seeking a resolution acceptable to all parties involved. This letter is intended to represent the will of the board.

Let me begin by expressing our gratitude to you for the part you have played at 3ABN for the past nearly twenty years. You have been an important part of the ministry from the beginning – a fact appreciated by us all. Accordingly, this letter is not written with the intent to destroy your home or your part in the ministry, but rather to rehabilitate and restore.

In accordance with this intent, we are offering the following proposal to you. We believe it has the potential of accomplishing the desired objectives, i.e., to save both your home and a place for you in this ministry. It would do so without making the details of this matter known to the full board or others.

Nor is this letter expressing an opinion regarding the nature of your relationship with Dr. Abrahamson. Whether or not this relationship has been immoral or not is not the issue of this document. The facts are that the relationship and your refusal to discontinue it in spite of repeated requests by Danny and our requests, has damaged both your family and 3ABN – a reality we must deal with in wisdom, love and compassion – but deal with, we must.

We are offering you a 30 day leave of absence with pay and full benefits - to begin at the time of receipt of this letter. During this time the following conditions must be met.

You will be relieved of all duties at 3ABN and will not appear at 3ABN other than to obtain items from your immediate office upon personal request from me. You will arrange to leave Southern Illinois at 3ABN expense for the duration. Both you and 3ABN need time to cool off.

You will agree in writing to cease all communication with Dr. Abrahamson, whether direct or indirect, whether by e-mail, telephone, letter or any other, or through Johann or any other third party. We are designating a period of 30 days, but with the intent this must be a life-long decision.

During this time you will not discuss the issues related to your relationship with 3ABN with anyone other than your immediate family, your professional counselors or representatives or members of the board of directors.

Since this time is recommended as a time for reflection and serious rehabilitation we are requesting that you arrange to receive professional help relating to the issues at hand. We are recommending Ron and Nancy Rocky to you. They have agreed to open their home to you and to give you personal help in dealing with the issues at the center of the present problems. It will be private and protected from the public eye such that neither your image nor reputation ought be damaged. Should you choose different professional help, it must be acceptable to this committee.

At the end of 30 days we will reassess the situation and make further recommendations as indicated.

The issues in this proposal are not negotiable. Should they be unacceptable to you – we hope sincerely they will be acceptable – we will proceed promptly with further investigation of the facts regarding the matter at hand. In that case we will need a list of witnesses you would like us to hear. We will offer Danny the same opportunity. Once we have had opportunity to hear the evidence, we will be in a better position to make recommendations to the full board based upon that evidence. Based on the facts we already know, however, we think pursuing such a course would make any future role for you at 3ABN unlikely.

That is why, Linda, we are pleading with you to accept this proposal for healing and restoration. This is God's ministry. He has chosen you to be a part of it. We want you to continue to be a part of it. But in order for that to happen really important things must change.

Sincerely,

> Walter Thompson MD
> Chairman of the Board of Directors, 3ABN
> Committee members include Nicholas P. Miller, Bill Hulsey and Kay Kuzma (by invitation)
>

Now, somebody please correct me if I am wrong, but the below post by Glenetta says that Linda refused to come back..............Werent' these out of state counselling sessions done during the time 3ABN was paying for Linda to be out of So. IL?

> inga I have read through the post. I read Danny and Linda counseled with licensed, trained counselors, whom were out of the state, 2 of them to be exact and then I don't know if I heard it or read it that it totalled a 8 hour period of time. Then because I want to know truth I can tell you 3ABN can verify this all with receipts from the counselors. And by the way it was Linda who refused to go back. Maybe the pregnancy test was already used, and the rabbit died. What a horriable thought!!! I just would never have thought it of her. Why drag Elder Finley into the mess, let him alone so he can reach souls for Christ.

Okay, so there's proof Linda committed adultery (you say).

Since questions have been asked and speculation raised that Nick Miller did not resign merely because he had better things to do with his time, I wondered if that was the person that was essentially forced to resign if I read the email correctly.

This is what I'm afraid of, for Linda. Given enough time and the right software, a determined person with a computer can make anything. Even "proof."

he three of us went for a stroll in the Abraham Lincoln Park at Springfield. Arild and I had planned on vorshiping with the 3ABN family that day, but that was not to be because of Danny's threats. Around ioon we drove from Marion to Springfield and there we had contact with Linda and went to the park.

hortly after that Linda received a phone call from Danny where he told her he had a picture of us and ommented on the dress she was wearing, apparently as a proof to let us know that it was a real icture of her. We never saw that picture. Could it be that Danny had just received a description of her ress via phone from the PI? Were they checking with Danny to make sure they were chasing the right eople?

According to a new letter posted at http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-demise-of-marriage-buy-out-the-house.htm, by May 16, 2004 Danny was talking about buying Linda's half of the house, and Linda thinks he was doing that already in April.

When did Danny give up trying to make things work, and decided instead that they were definitely going to split up?

Posted by: Jvat Mar 11 2007, 11:37 AM

What saddens me about all of this and it comes out clearly thru the letters, is that Danny really seemed to be unconcerned about the plight of Nathan. The least that he could have done was appear to be interested in the young man's recovery. All I see in the letters from both Walt and Danny are just issues of control and jumping to judgement. So pathetic. Surely does not reflect too well on either of them. There is no way that he has shown categorically that his wife was not actually involved in discussing issues about her son with the doctor. All I see are accusations that in fact inappropriate talks were taking place, with no apparent proof! What a shame!

Posted by: Pickle Mar 11 2007, 11:47 AM

And it looks like from http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-demise-of-marriage-pile-of-what-

02.htm that Danny acknowledges that Linda was innocent at least through the end of March 2004, even when she was planning the alleged vacation to Florida in February with Brenda Walsh.

That web page also refers to another email of September 8, 2004. Wonder when that one will be online?

Posted by: daylily Mar 11 2007, 03:38 PM

If Danny actually did write those two latest emails just posted today, Mar 11, he has got be nuts! That has to be the most infantile writing I have EVER seen from a supposed adult and a Christian one at that.

We must understand how essential it is to diminish the references to Nathan for Danny's camp. Strangely, but it seems like they think that if they do not manage to obscure his involvement they will have a greater problem convincing the world that Linda was all wrong.

I have noted that when some member in a family has a drug problem, everyone is affected. Mom, Dad and any relatives can't think of anything else. It is so disturbing that nothing else matters. And a person thinking romantically about a doctor when her son is on drugs?? Forget that! If Danny wasn't caring, that is a very dysfunctional home.

And I noticed this lack of care from Danny's side clearly already three months before Dr. Arild Abrahamsen arrived at 3ABN. Like both pastor John Lomacang and Dr. Walt Thompson said very early, was that Dr. Abrahamsen arrived so conveniently for Danny to make him his scapegoat to get rid of Linda. Both of these men have probably conveniently forgotten now that they ever said such a thing. But neither I nor Arild Abrahamsen have forgotten their words.

As one who has taken some professional training in treating people with substance abuse (No, I am not an expert in that field.) I can tell you that such treatment is most effective when all close family members are involved in the treatment program. It is a major hinderance to that treatment for a (step)parent to not be involved. Such will place a significant additional burden on the other (step) parent who is cooperating with the treatment program.

I have a question about the email and letter Walt Thompson sent to Linda on May 4, 2004, the full text of which can be seen by the link below.

http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-demise-of-marriage-may-ultimatum.htm

I have just re-read all of the posts made on this thread since the posting of the May 4th ultimatum to Linda over on save3abn.com. Aside from Aletheia's post #80 on page 6, http://www.blacksda.com/forums/index.php?s=&showtopic=12418&view=findpost&p=183814 , where she says:

> QUOTE
>
> Linda didn't reply according to WT, nor did she do anything asked, do you think, maybe, that gave them a clue, to proceed and take it to the full board?

I haven't found anywhere else in this thread where it is stated whether or not the 30-day leave of absence was granted to Linda.

There has been lots of discussion here and verification by both sides that she went to the counselling in Kansas with Danny. Was this as as a result of the ultimatum? Panama_Pete brought up that the employees were told to erase all traces of Linda from 3abn during that 30-day period while Linda was to be reflecting and hopefully changing her course so that her marriage and position could be restored.

Bystander, wwjd, Lee, since you have access to Danny who was actually there during this period and would, therefore, be a first-hand witness, could you please find out for me if Linda's 30-day leave of absence was granted?

Thank you,

PB

It seems self-evident that the 30 day leave of absence with its implied possibility of meaning that Linda could be restored to 3abn did not happen. From clues in other emails however, it is quite likely that there in actuality was no implied posibility of her returning to 3abn... and by this time Danny was telling her verbally that he wanted her to leave him as well. And yes, I know that is opposite to what he was saying to others at the time.... but he was not consistent in his emails to various people an this matter... sometimes contradicting himself in the same email.... or in an email sent a few hours after another.

But primarily I want to comment here on the sentence and question that I bolded above. The counseling session in Kansas was one in which both Danny and Linda were present. If you will read the letter from Walt Thompson carefully you will note that he specified the specific counselor to which Linda was to go for these 30 days, Ron and Nancy Rocky, and this was to be a "live in" relationship, not merely a series of counseling sessions. 30 days incommunicado with anyone other than the Rocky's and her "immediate family". One has to wonder what would have happened to Linda had she chosen to accept this offer.

One also has to wonder what the Rocky's knew before they agreed to "open their home to her". They are, after all, reputable counselors who give seminars in Adventist churches. It would, I would think, be of interest to know exactly what they were told and what plans they had for that 30 day period.

Notice also that she was free to choose another counselor only if they approved of her choice.

Notice also the life-time comment in one part of the ultimatum.

And do understand that besides the ultimatums that appear in this letter, there were others that were conveyed elsewhere. Read this one carefully and do not neglect reading "between the lines". Perhaps someone will share some of the other requirements that accompanied this.

As for Aletheia's comment.... notice the part that she omitted when she quoted from Thompson's letter.... including promises that he did not keep.

VB, hanks for your clarification about Ron and Nancy Rocky.

oes anyone know when the counselling session in Kansas took place? Was it April, May, or?

ystander, wwjd, Lee, an you add any information about the counselling session in Kansas? Glenetta said there were eceipts for this time (her comments were posted by Aletheia). Also, I still would like to know if Linda's 0-day leave of absence was granted. It seems to me, from all I have read, that she was not in the abn area during this time.

Correction to the above. It is Ron and Nancy Rockey, who are the counselors of which I spoke above. am assuming that they are the same as the ones mentioned in Walt Thompson's letter, and that he only mispelled their names. But of course I cannot prove that.

can, however, give the website for Ron and Nancy Rockey's ministry.... http://www.yourlri.com/home.htm .... in case anyone wants to check them out.

btw.... Their ministry was formerly called "It's Fixable", and the website was http://www.itsfixable.com/. That url still works but goes to their new ministry page given above.

Since the Rockeys are in Pennsylvania, right?, they wouldn't be the ones in Kansas.

PB,

Danny and Linda were flying back from seeing the Nazarene counselors on April 15, based on an email from Danny.

Bob,

Thanks for the info. It helps in completing the picture.

WB,

Googled the Rockeys with the misspelling and found that, even in conference publications, the lack of he "e" is pretty standard. It makes it hard to find their actually info. Sad.

I have been rereading this thread and I noticed some things that I am sure most of you noticed before but was new ideas to me.

Panama Pete posted an item from save3abn, (page number 2 post #25) giving us the two letters from Danny. One dated April 21, 2004 to invite the two men to visit with the board (there was no reference available in save3abn to where the meeting will be held or when, if it is available please let me know) The on May 27, 4:57pm the two men were NOT welcome to the 3ABN campgrounds, that if they did come they will be escorted off the campmeeting premises.

(during this time Linda's name and face was erased as if she did not exist. New book written by Kay Kusma, Danny offering to buy Linda's half of the house)

http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-meet-the-board-1.htm[/url]

Next Panama Pete posted another item from save3abn (page number 3, post #44) giving us a letter Walt Thompson wrote to Linda, written May4, 2004 FEDEX effective immediately, 30 days leave of absence to be out of Southern Ill during the whole time, non negotiable.

http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-demi...y-ultimatum.htm

Now for the reason for my posting this.
This looks to me as if Danny had several reasons for getting Linda out of town and keeping the Dr and Johann away from campmeeting.
1. Linda would be not around campmeeting to tell her side of the story to the folk who come to campmeeting.
2. Danny has the oportunity to give his heartfelt "come back to me Linda" even though he said go away and stay away.
3. Great opportunity for folk to give give give because Danny is hurting since his wife is NOT by his side.
4. the Dr and Johann would not be at campmeeting to tell Linda's side of the story.
5. Danny might had an idea the Dr and Johann would be there so he could tell his DEVIL story again, another good give give give, poor anointed one.

Just my opinion.

The Rockeys are wonderful people. It's probably pretty good that Linda didn't go there...Danny would have regretted it.

Hey, looks like the September 8, 2004 email is up at http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-demise-of-marriage-pile-of-what-04.htm.

Danny/Bystander/WWJD/Lee/FHB, got some questions.

1. What do you personally thing of Danny repeatedly calling Dr. Abrahamsen a chocolate-covered pile of horse dung/manure/_____? Do you think he should apologize for that?

2. When was Danny first showing signs of interest in Brandi? He claims that he wasn't interested in anyone else on September 8, 2004. When is the first indication that he had changed his mind on that one?

It would, I would think, be of interest to know exactly what they were told and what plans they had for that 30 day period.

So, I guess all Lindanites will act as if their previous posts that DS and Walt and JL were all lying about LS having any counseling, just...don't exist. If I had the time I would find them all and post them. Now because watchbird says she did and even gives the names of the counselors, lets forget that several of you were wrong in your accusations. Ever think about how many other things you've been wrong about?

List all the examples you can find of their being wrong. It's fine with me. And post documents to back up what you say.

But do note that an error like what you are alleging, if such an error really was made, does not compare to child molestation or unbiblical divorce or any of the other serious issues that have been raised.

Bystander,

We had that on March 8th. Nobody was saying that LS and DS didn't have counselling out of state.

Here is a link to my post on the matter. It turns out that Aletheia was asking about comments made by PrincessDrRe but the ones I had searched out were for PrincessDi.

http://www.blacksda.com/forums/index.php?showtopic=12418&st=105&p=183892&#entry183892

Read around my post and you will find all of the information.

Of course, you can do your own search if you think you can find example where the "Lndanites" said DS, Walt and JL were lying about counselling.

Thanks, Bob, but Bystander didn't hit where I was standing.... just another evidence of his poor reading/interpretation/application ability. There is a vast difference in speaking of Linda not having counseling in the true meaning of the word, and saying that she and Danny traveled to speak with a pair of counselors.... ones to whom Danny gave a large donation for their ministry.... ones that held to he concepts of the dominant husband/submissive in all things wife which holds even when a wife is abused.... and true counseling. But that difference would be lost on such a person as Bystander and he other Dannyclones who are posting here.

As for his saying that I gave the names of the counselors.... that merely demonstrates his inability to read... or his ability to read errantly.... since the only names I mentioned were those of Ron and Nancy Rockey.... and these were the ones who were assigned to Linda .... or that Linda was assigned o for 30 days.... but to whom she never went.

As for being occasionally wrong.... I am not infallible, and I have occasionally made a mistake in something I have posted. When that has been pointed out to me, I did not try to cover it up, but I researched the supposed error, and in cases where I discovered something I had written needed changing I acknowledged it and revised it.

And as for his continued attacks on you.... don't let his continual harassement wear you down.... those of us who know you are not fazed by it..... and those newbies who don't know you or the harassing group, very quickly figure out who stands for right and truth.

Carry on.........☒ TVsnack. .... we are with you.

Looks like what's new today at http://www.Save3ABN.com/ is http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-demise-of-marriage-no-proof.htm in which Danny admits that as of July 17, 2004, he had no proof that Linda had given him biblical grounds for divorce.

Also new is http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-demise-of-marriage-pile-of-what-05.htm exchange between Danny and Linda, in which Linda says that Danny never admits to making a mistake, and he then proceeds to prove her right. It's another one of his "pile of" emails.

I have yet to see a challenge regarding the validity of the email exchanges. Are we to assume that "both sides" accept the emails themselves as legitimate?

A person would have hoped that after so many years as a leader of a ministry, one would have outgrown repetitive references to excrement.....

Well nice job, PB, that's exactly what they intend. You are only reading what they reveal, to give the slant they are presenting. Do you think they are into presenting Danny fairly? Or did you think they weren't representing Linda?

Look at the letters impartially and take note of how much has been edited out.

Then ask yourself, if they are so into making all known, why are they doing that?

What did Linda say that Danny was replying to? What did Danny say that they don't want you to know?

Or you can just stick to your opinions and keep confirming them. And never consider who's really been trashing who, and who they got those letters from.

Your choice.

Posted by: princessdi Mar 14 2007, 02:13 PM

They are not obligated to "give" Danny's side, especially since they have asked him and he has refused to answer. From the email from Bob, we see that long before save3abn.com he was emailing DS, WT continually asking them for answers. If I am not mistaken, some accused him of "harrassing them, he was so persistent. Now, as far as I know, I would think that Bob would have also posted those responses, as he did with what response he received. Danny wants his "side" out there, put it out there. I know, I know......in due time..........But know in ithe meantime nobody knows his side so ther is only one "side" to see.

Just for the record, what do the people on Linda's side want to happen at this point? I cannot imagine that these personal emails were ever intended to be put out in public. I believe they are private, meant to be between a husband and wife, even after the divorce.

Maybe if these thins were not being put out for the world to see 3ABN could move on and so could Linda. Both sides have done enough trashing. Maybe they could call a truce?

YI, I looked at them impartially the very first time I went through them. I only find things edited out n Danny's emails. Two of them I was willing to give the benefit of the doubt that whoever was editing lid so for a valid reason. The last edit, (Insult about Linda's mother deleted) I don't have any problem vith at all.

would like to know why those other 411 words were edited out. Do you have access to an unedited opy of Dan's email of Friday, September 24, 2004 11:33 PM ? I don't see anything deleted from inda's emails. Are you certain those 411 words are something "they" don't want me to know. If you ave a copy, I would love to have you post it here or PM it to me so that I could find out if the nessage of Dan's email would be seen in a more positive light if the 411 words had been left in.

irst of all, it would be better to call the other side the aggrieved, or some such thing, since some of he aggrieved cannot be called "Linda's side." So I think a good starter would be for Danny's side to dmit that it isn't all about Linda.

econdly, what terms do you propose for a truce? I think at this point we need a surrender that ncludes Danny et. al. being willing to consider making restitution to all the aggrieved. That includes oss of wages due to wrongful termination, and things like that. One non-Lindaite told me he/she vasn't looking for much at all, but that was one of the things they wanted.

hirdly, for the good of 3ABN it needs a thorough house cleaning. Now that could mean simply epentance, confession, and restitution on the part of some, and it could mean reassignment on the art of others.

Fourthly, I think we're going to need a full disclosure of Danny's assets, whether they be here in the States or offshore. It needs to be made clear to everyone that he isn't trying to gip his ex out of her due, that he hasn't been gipping 3ABN, and that there isn't anything laying around that needs to be returned to 3ABN. And that includes the book royalties that could jeopardize 3ABN's tax-exempt status.

Get the powers that be to agree to these four things, and I'll chat with Gailon and try to talk him into it.

Posted by: Uncle Sam Mar 14 2007, 04:12 PM

I seriously doubt that these terms would ever be agreed to by Danny or anyone at 3ABN. So does this mean this thing just keeps going?

Is Linda doing any ministering? It seems to me in clearing her name she may do more damage by posting these type of emails that we see on save3ABN. If they were her personal emails she had to give them to someone, because I am sure Danny didn't share them. It seems like she is stooping to Danny's level by making this public. Unless she comes clean on everything she has and the people that know just come clean with what they know.

How much longer before we know "everything"? Or do we have to wait for it to go to court?

Uncle Sam,

It is unfortunate that it has had to come to the point of posting emails as documentation. If those who had taken a wrong course had set pride aside and made things right before now, it would not have come to it. 18

Too often, things are swept under the proverbial rug and that allows unrepented sins to claim more victims. I think "Anonymous 1" over on save3abn.com (an SDA man who has "served our church in a number of ways") said it very well when he said:

"For the sake of mending broken people, especially the children, I sincerely hope and pray that every Christian will seek his or her responsibility before God regarding this situation!"

http://www.save3abn.com/letters-of-support-anonymous-1-1.htm

His statement referred not only to the situation at 3abn but the propensity of our church and other religious organizations to sweep this kind of behavior under the rug.

What I personally think we are doing here on the 3abn forum is bringing wrong out into the light of day as we are charged to do by scripture and SOP, so that it can be dealt with properly instead of hidden

Posted by: Pickle Mar 14 2007, 04:20 PM

Uncle Sam, you got to be kidding. Neither Danny nor the powers that be are willing to do the right and Christian and honorable thing? The place can't be that far gone, can it?

Is Linda the one providing all the emails? Is she the one posting them? If not, do your statements about her indicate that you have an extreme case of denial? "She may do more damage by posting these ...." "She is stooping to Danny's level ...." How can you say such things? Have you never met the lady, never talked to her once? 14

Let's start with point 1: Repeat after me, Uncle Sam: "This is not all about Linda. There are those who are not part of her 'side' who honestly feel aggrieved."

After you bring yourself to say that, we'll move on to discuss #2.

Working from the conclusion that many have come to by various forms of documentation and personal testimony, if Danny isn't willing to recant the things he has said about Linda that destroyed her reputation starting back in 2004 and continuing on over all these years , somebody has to help her rebuild it. If it takes showing the world the truth through these personal items, is that wrong? After all, these very things would be used in a court of law. 5

And this is only, as Bob points out, a small part of the whole problem.

Great point Di. As long as the other side isn't nor has it been "out there" how can anyone come to the staunch conclusions that they have come to. One can never come to an intelligent conclusion when only one side has been presented.

Sam, you seem to be one of the few that are able to see things from both sides. All we have heard is how Linda just wants to minister and has kept her mouth shut through all of this. As you pointed out where are all these emails been coming from. The ones between The doc and DS, the doc or LS submitted. All of those between DS and Ls, of course, LS submitted. If LS was as trashed by 3abn as several claim, the "evidence" of a 3rd party relationship would have been made public when it all first happened. My opinion. they made a big mistake by not making it public in the beginning. If they had, all of us would not be here at the present time. Sure DS is human. He might have made a few subtle references in the beginning. Out of hurt, anger, humiliation, who wouldn't. But Trashing her? No way do a few remarks (if they were even made) fit into the category of trashing. As I said, If they wanted to truly "trash" her, they could have a long time ago.
On the other side LS has made some brudal accusations toward Ds and several others. Just because she accomplished her "trashing" through others, doesn't make it any less incriminating. She used those tactics then and she continues to use them now. She does have talent. She makes other people her gophers and makes them feel happy to do it. That is how we have heard the same old song and dance that she has taken the high road, she has kept silent, she is forgiving of those that have wronged her. When, in fact, she has done just the opposite. Maybe those of you who never actually knew her, should be forgiven for your Lindanite attitudes. After all, the "real" person" was almost beyond comprehension.

Your question is valid, and multi-faceted. But, I will respond:

1) The first part of your question deals solely with Linda, and that may be the easy one:

Linda deeply wishes that this mess would soon get over, and she could move on with her life, and ministry.

Linda believes that others continue to prevent her from doing that.

Linda has decided that a priority for her is to clear her name. She feels that everything about her has been so deeply trashed that she now has nothing to lose. In other words, let everything come out into the open and into the public eye. She may be shown to be imperfect, but Linda believes than she is at a point where she can not be trashed any lower, and therefore she has nothing to lose. She is willing to have fulll public disclosure, and is willing to accept the consequences of individuals making up their own mind in regard to her overall guilt.

2) The second aspect of your question is the hard one. It is clearly multi-faceted. It involves a number of individuals, as well as 3-ABN itself. There is no one clear answer that can be given to this issue. What may be appropriate of one individual may not be appropriate for another.

Speaking for myself, and in giving a personal opinion, I will say that certain of the issues involving 3-ABN, and specific individuals can only be resolved by the civil authorities. While it is possible that this may include criminal trials, I do not intend to imply that criminal trials will take place, or that all issues can be resolved in that manner. I include in this mix the possibility that civil litigation may resolve some issues, and in truth may be the only way to resolve some, or all, issues.

Let me be clear: I am not stating that criminal conduct has occured that can be prosecuted. I do not know. I am stating that civil litigation may be what is needed to resolve certain issues.

But, to respond in another way to your question: I believe that those of us who support Linda, are united in a belief that there are some management changes that need to be made in the corporate structure of 3-ABN. I am not willing to say at this time the extent of what I believe to be the needed management changes. As you would probably suspect, most people probably would want the President, and the Board Chairperson to be changed. I am not willing to take a position at this time on the extent of the needed management changes.

I believe that there are people who have worked at 3-ABN who should be retained. I believe that there are people who have worked at 3-ABN who have supported the position of the President, and the Board Chair who should be retained. I will not make my decision on the basis of their support of, or lack of support of Danny and the position that he has taken. In other words, I would not advocate a wholesale firing of all of the employees. I think that would be counter-productive.

If the time comes, and it may not, that I think the civil (or whatever) processes have clearly identified the people who should be removed, I will publicy call for their removal, based upon clear and authorative information. But, that time has not come. I will therefore not do so. And, I simply have not made up my mind at this point in time.

Dem folks don't want to see this....the exact same folks won't say the same thing if they find out their children were molested by Tommy. Same folks won't say the same thing if they find out that Danny covered up the molestation of their children.

We are quick to sacrifice others...but have yet to put our child up on the alter.

You know, it should not take all of that, though. We should truly be "a village" where the safety and welfare of children are concerned. Folks talking about being christian. WWJD if He was confronted with this situaion.

Jnana, Bystander is very representative of the Sheltons and 3ABN-behind the scenes. The attitude, christianity and demeanor of BS is that of the REAL 3ABN. Go back over the BS posts and you will see 3ABN as those who have experienced it know it. Many have wondered how they could possibly describe it and gave up, knowing that it could only be experienced. We are grateful that BS is out there demonstrating what we can't even find the words to describe. BS is the true reflection of Christ as shown by 3ABN. The Christian love that BS shows for all of you and for Linda is the love of Jesus as shown by 3ABN. What you see in BS is the Seventh-day Adventist Church shown by 3ABN to the world. What you see reflected in BS is what the donors are giving to when they donate to 3ABN. the BS that you see here on BSDA is truly reflective of 3ABN and the Sheltons. We are very grateful to BS for doing the thankless task that he/she is doing here!

As you pointed out where are all these emails been coming from. The ones between The doc and DS, the doc or LS submitted. All of those between DS and Ls, of course, LS submitted. If LS was as trashed by 3abn as several claim, the "evidence" of a 3rd party relationship would have been made public when it > all first happened. My opinion. they made a big mistake by not making it public in the beginning. If they had, all of us would not be here at the present time. Sure DS is human. He might have made a few subtle references in the beginning. Out of hurt, anger, humiliation, who wouldn't. But Trashing her? No way do a few remarks (if they were even made) fit into the category of trashing. As I said, If they wanted to truly "trash" her, they could have a long time ago.

> On the other side LS has made some brudal accusations toward Ds and several others. Just because she accomplished her "trashing" through others, doesn't make it any less incriminating. She used those tactics then and she continues to use them now. She does have talent. She makes other people her gophers and makes them feel happy to do it. That is how we have heard the same old song and dance that she has taken the high road, she has kept silent, she is forgiving of those that have wronged her. When, in fact, she has done just the opposite. Maybe those of you who never actually knew her, should be forgiven for your Lindanite attitudes. After all, the "real" person" was almost beyond comprehension.

Bystander is someone I personally have come to love as one of the brethren, and over and over i have been impressed by his integrity and his concern for all. Granted you may see it differently, for it is not always easy to appear in the best light when you are in a minority as on this forum and under constant criticism and attack. But regardless of your opinion of him, can't you try and respond like someone who has natural affection? I often find your posted thoughts and insults far from the spirit of Christ, and just generally offensive.

In regards to your question Fran, take your definition of trashing which you have all used in regards to what Danny said on the air etc.. about Linda, or what you thought was about Linda, then apply that definition of trashing to what has been said on www.save3ABN.com and on this forum about Danny and all his family and so many at 3ABN, ASI and any and all who are associated with him, and then you'll have your answer.

Then, try, in a impartial and unnbiased manner, to compare all, using that same standard and definition. The difference is HUGE.

Next consider how many have made the claim here repeatedly, that EVEN IF Linda is guilty of all that is said about her, it doesn't justify how she was trashed, and ask yourself, EVEN IF Danny is guilty of all that is said about him does it justify how he is being trashed?

Those who can't use the same standards to judge both situations fit the definition of hypocricy, and being partial in judgment, (unrighteous judges)

And No, I am not naming names here, it's unnecessary. People know what they do and write here, as do the readers. They can stop or continue this behavior. Their choice.

I was talking to my spouse about this mess earlier. A different perspective, if Danny divorced Linda without biblical grounds, what happened after the divorce? Did Linda have an affair with the Dr? All I have heard is she was free to do what she wanted after the divorce. If she did than Danny was free to marry again. Now if she didn't than that is a problem for Danny. But let's say she didn't, what is he to do now? What if he thought she did, but now it is proven that she didn't? Should he divorce Brandi?

Also, it is said that all of this is bigger than Linda, and that she is just a small part of this. If they had not gotten divorced would all of this been posted on the web for the world to see?

\nd how exactly does this address your trying to paint Duane Clem and others as being willingly :omplicit in Tommy's acting out his sexual proclivities? Your attempts to say he is not a sexual)redator despite the evidence? You have treated his victims worse than you boohoo about how you eel Danny has been treated...

Your questions have some validity, and I will respond to them.

1) As a SDA minister, and a former congregational pastor, I, as have most SDA ministers, have struggled with the problems that we face in dealing with the imperfect humans in our congregations. We struggle with issues such as: "a)" How do we relate to people who have fallen short of the standard, have sinned, and yet show the redemptive love of the gospel? "b)" How do we proclaim the Christian standards that God expects us to uphold. Steming from those struggles, I have come to some personal decisions. They are my own, and probably reflect a more liberal perspective than some people reading these posts.

2) Once a new marriage has taken place, following a divorce, that is a marriage in the eyes of God, and God expects people to work to preserve it. Any sin that may have been committed is in the past. The may need to be repented of, but it is in the past. I as a pastor will work to preserve that new marriage. God does not expect that a marriage be broken up due to the fact of a prior sin. A new family has been established. The preservation of families is vital to God and our humanity. God does not tear families apart.

3) God accepts that new marriage. God, to my thinking, does not charge the participants in that marriage with adultery based upon the present marriage. Any adultery that may have occured happend prior to this new marriage. Or, perhaps, the establishment of this new marriage constituted sin. But, if that is true, its continunation does not constitute adultery. Any prior sin, or any sin committed in the establishement of this new marriage should be repented of. But, that does not require the this new family be torn apart.

4) In the case where one of the parties to this new marriage, is not a SDA, and has become one, any sins that this person may have committed prior to the marriage, or prior to the baptism shoud not be held to his/her account. The sacrament of baptism, and the death of Christ on the cross, errased those sins and this person should be welcomed and a new member of the faith and not charged with what may have been prior sins.

5) Wheather or not one had a Biblical basis to divorce and remarry depends upon the facts at the time of the remarriage. In other words, Whether "A" had a Biblical basis to Marry "C" depends on the facts regarding "B" at the time that A married C. If B engages in sexual immorality following A's marriage to C, that does not give A the Biblical grounds for a marriage that has already taken place. Once that new marriage has taken place, the actions of B are no longer a concern of A. B's actions may be of concern to the Church, but not to A. The divorce and remarriage is a ceaseation of the relationship between A and B.

6) Even when it is evident that sin (adultery) has been committed, and when action should be taken, it is up to the congregation to decide upon that action, and that action may not be required to be drastic. It may be redemptive.

Folks, I am more liberal than some. The above may be a more liberal position than some here hold. But, it is a postion that I have come to as a congregational pastor.

NOTE: I do not address here the issue of what to do in regard to the employment of a person in ministry who has marital problems. This issue is complex. In some cases I would have to say that such a person should be removed from a ministry position. But, I do not discuss that here.

NOTE: I am clearly considered to be one of "Linda's Team." My public position has been and remains: Linda has never given Danny any type of Biblical grounds for him to divorce her. I do not claim that she is perfect. She, as I have stated, may have burned his toast several mornings. But her imperfections do not rise to any kind of a conservative set of Biblical grounds for a divorce and remarriage.

And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the [other] end of he earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the round."

ev 19:17 -21 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the wls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the reat God; That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, nd the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all [men, both] free and bond, both small and great.

And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which [sword] proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

Well considering it's my understanding she didn't even move to 3ABNville till November, it seems highly unlikely that he could have showed signs of interest, or have even started to develop any kind of relationship till after that time... but thanks once again Bob for demonstrating the new levels you'll sink to since becoming an accuser of the brethren.

Let me also say. I looked at the letters you are publishing and was appalled. Then I thought of how I'd feel if my personal and private diary, or my letters to my husband whether loving or angry were published to the world, and came to the conclusion that no matter who it it involves, that is just not right. That golden rule can answer so many questions.

It's an invasion of privacy, it's humiliating and no Christian should do such to another, the ends do not justify the means.

I know you think your rebuking sin, and calling for repentence, BUT there is a right and a wrong way to do all things, Bob.

Lev 19:15 Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.
16 Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the LORD.
17 Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him.
18 Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.

John 15:12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.
Rev 3:19 As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.
Luk 17:3 Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

Lee,

I thought you wanted to discuss things like Christian men and women? Why then are you accusing people again of lying without getting specific as to the lies you are talking about? You're coming across as knowing that it isn't all lies, but calling it lies anyway.

Or are you calling it a lie that people have accused Linda of fornication based on the finding of the pregnancy test, when people can't get pregnant over the telephone, and people don't need pregnancy tests to tell them they are 15 weeks pregnant?

If neither party had freedom to remarry after the divorce, that doesn't mean Danny can tell Linda where she can go and who she can talk to after the divorce. So she had freedom to travel wherever she wanted to, yes, but that's a different issue than either having freedom to remarry.

I think Gregory has made some good points. I think I agree with #2 and #3. Jesus said that whoever marries another commits adultery. He didn't say that whoever remains married commits adultery. So the act of getting married is adultery, but remaining true to one's new vows is not. And this agrees with counsel in the SoP not to break up second marriages that were entered into without biblical grounds.

I would disagree slightly with his #5. If a couple divorce without biblical grounds, then one doesn't have to wait until one remarries before administering church discipline. The proper course is to get a legal separation, not a divorce, unless the jurisdiction one lives in has no such provision.

Both Danny and Linda should be treated as innocent until proven guilty regarding alleged affairs before or after their divorce.

If Danny cannot prove that Linda had an affair, he should be disciplined. And that could be true even if he did not get remarried.

Regarding your last question, if it were not for Dryden's letter to Thompson about the Tommy Shelton child molestation allegations, and Riva's reply, I would not be involved, and neither would Gailon. As far as the pastor who got me to start asking questions goes, if it had not been for Melody showing too soon after her wedding, and Danny saying something like, "My you're getting fat," on the air, he would not have called me repeatedly and asked questions over a period of many months.

IF THAT WAS THE CASE, then bottom line? In the eyes of God they were both still married, and both needed to live, even though apart and in separite domiciles, as if they were.

But I'd like to raise another question. It was a uncontested divorce (meaning both agreed to it and signed), and since Danny and Linda both knew what the biblical grounds for divorce was, and what Christ said about it, and she also knew that Danny was divorcing her for adultery, why did she agree to it???

IF she was innocent, isn't that a lie?

AFAIC- God comes first.

Also as the letters Pickle and Joy are publishing prove, Linda was moved out prior to the divorce. They also prove that even after the divorce--- when Danny was saying he wanted reconciliation, and was telling her he loved her, and concerned about both her and her ministry---she would have none of it...

I have to wonder why Linda didn't contest the divorce either. I may be wrong but I don't think the divorce papers say she had an affair.

I am not surprised that Danny's emails have different tones to them. When you are going through something like this your emotions are all over the place. I am disappointed that regardless who was right or wrong, I don't believe such personal letters should be posted for all to see.

If Danny and Walt were to step down, what would that accomplish? People would still believe what they want about Linda. Did Danny cover for TS? Maybe. He is gone at least from employment. That was not enough for some. If he did something illegal, than take him to court. 3ABN cannot have him put in jail or make him confess. You are giving them to much power in this situation. If they let him work with children and he was a risk, that is wrong, but what can they do at this point? So, if Danny were to step down would that be enough? I doubt it.

Sometimes life isn't fair. You cannot make someone sorry, or make them do the right thing. Jesus says when people are like that shake the dust off of your shoes and move on. Maybe if Linda would lay low instead of helping stir the pot, than she could move on and have a ministry.....If there are illegal things going on contact a lawyer. If she did not get her fair share have her attorney handle it through the court system. I cannot see how any of this is helping her cause.

He has personally known Linda and Danny for 20 years. Bystander would be the first to say he is not perfect--but I tell you, I would rather read his posts any day than many on this forum who are unreasonable, rude and unChristlike.

Lee, Bystander has stooped to the level of undeserved mud slinging against many of the members here, in an attempt to vindicate Danny Shelton and continually "trash" Linda or anyone else who appears to support her. He has addressed many of us in the most unChrist-like way possible. Others here also have long term personal knowledge of both Danny and Linda, but when their knowledge is in conflict to Bystanders, his response is to go on the defensive in the most vile way possible, character assassination, rather than providing evidence for his conclusions. Are these the actions of "a Christian through and through"?

As the Apostle James so wisely observed in James 3: 11, 12: "Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not to be so. Does a spring send forth fresh water and bitter from the same opening? Can a fig tree, my brethren, bear olives, or a grape vine bear figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh." If you are truly Bystander's friend, perhaps you might consider approaching him in the same way that Nathan approached David with his sin. Were any of the others posting here to approach Bystander with the same vile accusations that he has slung toward them, I am sure he would question their relationship with the Lord.

You are either in extreme denial or out of touch regarding what is going on. She could disappear from the scene and nothing much would change.

If Danny wants to allow people to call him the Lord's anointed, then he at least has to reflect the character of the true Lord's Anointed, Jesus Christ. That means no lies, confession and apologies and restitution where needed, no blackballing, etc. 9

And he absolutely has to disclose all his assets in his ongoing civil case. If he doesn't, he just demonstrates that all his pretensions are a sham and a lie.

Are you talking about the ongoing marital settlement case? Or another one? If it is the settlement case then I wonder what you know about the fact that it almost got dismissed recently? It seems as if someone lied under oath. But then you probably already know about that Bob, right, since you are a mainstay in the war room?

I do not pretend that Danny is innocent of all he has been accused of, neither do I believe he is guilty of it all. I do believe a lot of this would die down if Linda was taken out of the equation. That is what started all of this and it has snowballed from there.

Uncle Sam, I wish this were true, but I think it was just a matter of time. It was inevitable, DS can't run the world the way he does and not have it come back to him. Things were getting worse, Linda became a victom, she was out in the public eye, they didn't feel right about it when it was happening, something was just not right...people are not stupid. That is what got it WAY out there, and if you follow all that has transpired since, trashing of her, along with others who stood up for her, you see that Dan made this a snowball once he got it going.

I believe if he had not done to Linda what he did, there would probably have been another way that DS would have hurt himself openly...it was just a matter of time.

Of course, JMO, but I feel it's supported by his character in general.
I also think that God was not in the dark or not involved in this matter coming out. He does not sit by and just watch...I still maintain, He used, as well as other things, what has happened by way of Linda.

By their fruits, you SHALL know them. Just a matter of time sometimes.

Nope. Don't know a thing about anyone lying under oath. And I'm not sure you know anything about that either if you only have Danny's word for it and no documents to back it up.

But one thing I do know is that the Financial Affidavit Danny signed on July 13, 2006, and filed at the Franklin County Circuit Court, lists but two bank accounts, both at Mid-Country Bank. The checking account is said to have $1500, and the savings account $1000.

Now is that really all his assets, or is he trying to gip his ex? If that is really all his assets, why doesn't he want to tell anyone about the royalties he received for the 4.5 million Ten Commandments books that were distributed free that spring?

I just find it difficult to believe that he has only two bank accounts, and only $2500 in those two bank accounts, when there were 4.5 million books distributed, and some sources close to the situation have thought that he may have pocketed hundreds of thousands of dollars in royalties from those books.

Hawk,

Sadly, this very type of attitude does appear to have turned many in the community of Thompsonville, just outside the doors of 3abn, quite sour towards the ministry. 3abn should representing and reflecting the character of Jesus to these folks, showing them all what joy there can be there can be in Christian fellowship and looking upon them as the precious souls that our Redeemer bled and died for. Instead, we have Bystander showing just exactly what he thinks of those neigbors outside the doors:

> Richard, don't twist my words. First of all 3abn didn't say it, I did. Second of all, I too, grew up in a farming community and have nothing against farmers. I do have something against a town of 600 people that try to push religious entities out by trying to tax what shouldn't be taxed, by referring to SDA's as weirdo's and oh, did I mention, they don't like other races there. They didn't have any ethnic variety until 3abn. The ministry has brought in african americans, spanish, puerto rican, and the community doesn't like it. There is still a KKK in the county. Now that is disgusting.

And those sentiments are only the tip of the iceberg. Just ask Duane or Roger Clem.

Unchecked, this attitude will stretch far beyond the city limits of Thompsonville. I must agree with you, Hawk, that Bystander is providing a huge service by freely stating his opinion here for all to see.

.ee,

t is my understanding that 3abn bought the Books from the company that printed them, is that true.

'es or no.

ıext royalties would have have been paid (if they where) by the printing company.

 have heard various numbers about the number of books that were given out 2-3 million, my little :hurch gave out about 100 it self.

ıo the books claims to have tow author's danny being one of them.

3o the question is did danny and the author get paid to right the book, again that is yes or no ɪuestion.

f they got paid it was either a flat amount for the Book, or it was a royalty.

ːither way if they got paid then i belief that would need to disclosed in the divorce hearing.

ɪas to the amount they got paid that is any ones guess, but even if you took .10 cents a book that vould on the low end 200,000(.10X2,000,000 books.) and then if you split that two ways would be ı00,000 each. and you know what i do even have a problem with getting paid to write the book that is air.

ɔut you would still need to disclose that in the divorce case.

ıope that helps.

'up... thin air. The thin air that carries donor money to 3abn. And I don't think "royalties" is quite the ight word. It's just a simple matter of producing and selling them for "slightly" more than the cost of ɔroducing. 3abn buys them from Danny.... then turns around and either sells them or gives them ıway.

Lee,

We have someone high up claiming that Danny hid his profits on the book from his own board members, and that the probable profits he made could jeopardize 3ABN's tax exemption.

1 and

Then we have Danny personally telling me that he might disclose how much profit he made after the settlement, which is a clear indication that he made a killing, and that he is trying to gip his ex.

urker you might be confused. the horse issue that has been brought up here is ancient history. 15 to 18 years ago. Danny and Linda have had their own personal horses off and on for years for pleasure. I m sure that they have bred one to another, at times, and later sold the offspring, like most people do hat mess with horses. But it was hardly "big business." In fact, from my knowledge of friends who do he same, they tell me that mostly pleasure ownership will find you in the red because of all the feed, ay, vet bills etc etc. versus selling a baby once in awhile.

> Lurker you might be confused. the horse issue that has been brought up here is ancient history. 15 to 18 years ago. Danny and Linda have had their own personal horses off and on for years for pleasure. I am sure that they have bred one to another, at times, and later sold the offspring, like most people do that mess with horses. But it was hardly "big business." In fact, from my knowledge of friends who do the same, they tell me that mostly pleasure ownership will find you in the red because of all the feed, hay, vet bills etc etc. versus selling a baby once in awhile.

Here is why I mentioned the horses. Bystander made this statement.

[quote name='Bystander' date='Feb 6 2007, 02:45 PM' post='#34']
As far as marital property, there seems to be a big misunderstanding here as usual. She already got more than her share, in my opinion. Danny bought our her share of the house and contents then, I believe if memory serves me, ended up giving her a good portion of the contents that he had already paid her for. To my knowledge she either took what she wanted or if she didn't, she was paid for that item. Unless something in the last 6 months has changed, that I don't know about, the only thing that was NOT settled was over some horses that they owned. It is my opinion that, that is what most of the lititgation has been about. Again, I say, unless something has changed that I don't know about. [\quote]

It doesn't matter what was spent on them or whether they made a profit. What would matter is their current value and whether assets are being hidden or misstated. I didn't even mention the mares or any geldings. Also saddles, tack etc.

Hmmm... Whereas you can attack Danny, Tommy, the 3ABN board , and defend Linda, why?

Eric, Sera, do you personally know Danny, Linda or Tommy, or anybody else involved in these 3BN issues??

the royalties issue is actually a no brainer. Donors paid for them to be printed, those ordering them paid for postage I believe, and there were no profits. The books given out at the ralley were free. Nothing from nothing equals nothing...

Even if what Bob is claiming was true, that Danny hid a huge amount of profits from his board... and did not list it in his personal taxes??
Did his co-author do likewise???

Who paid the alleged huge amount of royalties out to them???

Are you all claiming they hid it and did not report it to the IRS either?

Come on now, Let's all use our God given brains.

Ah yes... that line that I bolded.... that would be a very good idea. There are many clues here on BSDA as to what happens in the production of the books that are printed and either sold by 3abn or given away. Find them.... and you will at least know what is being alleged. If you don't know that yet, then it is only one more proof that you do not read to learn what is being said before you jump in with your opinons and "questions".

I believe you will find that "royalties" has a specific meaning that may not be applicable.... but then, one would not dare speak of "profit" in a "non-profit organization".... so....

What I keep wondering is whether there may sometime be something that causes you to go outside your little circle of Dannydefenders in your search for answers to your questions.... which are, in this case at least, a very excellent set of questions, and ones that really do need answers.

Aletheia,

No I do not personal know either Linda or Danny, or tommy.

Meet Linda and and Danny once.

I have never claimed to have inside information, Unlike some of the Pro-Danny crowd.

But I can read the first hand accounts of what has happened and that makes me really question the 3abn crowd.

Let give just one small out of the way issue, the Barbara Kerr Cooking Program Master Video's.

I personally can think of no reason under the sun that 3abn would have for not turning those over to Mrs. Kerr I mean if the True and only Goal of 3abn is spreading the gospel, and christian lifestyle then why not let her have them.

Is it fair for outsider to look that and ask question, well yes i believe it is, from the tone of your posts, i guess you think it would be better to just trust those in charge.

Erik, I could not agree more about the videos. Barbara has indicated she can not even get an answer to her questions about them. She has said that she has international requests for her her cooking shows. I believe she has indicated she received only a financial pittance for all her years of working on the shows.

Observer said it very well that 3abn could use some good PR right now. Why in the world would they not donate them or even negotiate in good faith a fair price if they felt they should receive some compensation for tapes they are never going to use again themselves?

Also Erik, Aletheia does not seem to understand the difference between attacking a poster and asking her to consider whether she lives up to her own words that she uses against other posters.

I agree with both of you that the fact they will not give Barbara her tapes are very significant to our overall understanding of the whole picture.

But.... .... once we put that alongside other pieces of the picture, then I don't see how you can wonder why they would not assent to her request. What would she do with them if she has them? Wouldn't she be putting them on the air somewhere? And wasn't Linda involved in all of the programming, so if they went on the air Linda would also be on the air along with her?

.... Surely you have heard enough by now to realize that it was not enough for Danny 4 to completely delete her from 3abn and from his personal life.... but he is impelled to make sure that she doesn't reappear somewhere else as well...... even on someone else's programming.... (check out Mabel Dunbar's letter which is pinned at the top as well as Barbara Kerr's and other letters which tell of churches being instructed to refuse to allow her to present either song or sermon at their churches). So it would be unthinkable for him to give the tapes to Barbara Kerr, thus giving Linda not only air time somewhere, but air time of things that were originally done on a 3abn set!

Will Barbara ever get her videos..... .... not so long as Linda remains on the blacklist and the House of Shelton remains under it's present leadership!

Posted by: Pickle Mar 18 2007, 11:59 AM

Anyone know what Walt Thompson has to say about http://danny-shelton-demise-of-marriage-walt-admits-no-evidence.htm ago that he had never had evidence that Linda committed adultery?

I think the question that page asks is a good one: If Linda was fired for having a doctor-patient 6 relationship that was not adulterous, why hasn't Walt Thompson called for the firing of Danny for a) having a girlfriend prior to Walt's March 2005 claim, and b) Danny's marrying her a year later?

watchbird,

I was just trying out to Aletheia, that maybe there things which both sides admit are truth, that makes it very hard to believe that Danny Shelton is with out Guilt, on the other hand some of Linda's actions so far have left me wondering why she did what she did.

In either case, there is no reason under the sun that has been shown why Barbara Kerr should be not allowed to have her tapes ,and rebroadcast them any way she thinks she should, i mean come folks, is linda such a dangerous woman that having her on cooking class on a network in china is some how going to hurt the ministry of 3abn hat is just beyond my small brain ability to understand.

\letheia,

you are right that I posted off topic,

Aletheia please advise me on the post i have ignored, if do not respond to the post either i did not have time and forget to go back or my question was answered.

Aletheia, I did not mean to accuse of any thing it is just that you seem to be of the option that, that we should Give the powers to be all the room they want and to trust that Danny is not greatly harming the SDA church.

Well i am not inclined to trust the powers that be on this topic,because even if everything here is false the way danny has respond to it is hurting the church's public image.

Aletheia do you remember after waco, all the stuff about the SDA church being some how connected to the eents there, the church was able to deny that there was no connection.

IN the case 3abn we will not be able to say that with much success.

Erik

p.s yes i know i went off topic again, sorry.

So how did the donor money make its way to the printer Aletheia since you know there were no profits? Are you saying the printer was the only one paid for their services in connection with the book except for the shipping costs?

Are you saying they weren't? Then you need to prove that yourself. Sorry. You don't get to make accusations as if they are absolute truth, and then claim anyone who disagrees with you has to run out and offer proof it's untrue or your opinion stands.

It was all very public, if you have evidence of any profits, or money going elsewhere, other then to the printers, then "put up, or please be quiet"

"this is from 3ABN's website:
"This event will also mark a massive distribution of the book The Ten Commandments Twice Removed by Danny Shelton and Shelley Quinn. Through special donations, thousands of books will be made available free of charge (except for shipping costs) to churches and individuals who are willing to pass them out to the public. Hundreds have already expressed interest in passing out thousands of these books already, and we expect many more to get involved in the near future. To get involved with our book distribution, or if you'd like to help in the cost of printing the books, just call us at (800) 752-3226 during regular business hours."

letheia,

think the shame of it happened before most of us we reading and posting about.

he truth is Satan successfully pulled apart a marriage, that is to the most basic botton line truth.

ow he did that is what most of us discuss here.

Sadly, not everything here is about danny"s and linda's marriage.

If tha tis all that was here i would have been long gone.

With the knowledge until i heard differently that 3abn would not get a drop of my money.

But the tax case ruling, and the stuff about Tommy has greatly changed my personally willingness to look the other way.

Certainly I know, otherwise I wouldn't say anything. As I said it was all very upfront and public.

And BTW, it was 3ABN's operators, and mail room etc who were taking the orders and such... Not Danny...

The publisher is "non- profit", and the books were sold for distribution at cost.

> (PRWEB) May 3, 2006 -- When Dwight Hall set a target to print 2 million books in 2006, little did he know that orders for nearly 5 million books would flood in during the first 3 months of the year. That's exactly what happened, however, when Remnant Publications, a non-profit Christian printing and publishing company, agreed to publish "Ten Commandments Twice Removed" this spring.
>
> The drive behind the book is the "National Ten Commandments Day" being promoted by Christians around the world. The Ten Commandments Day is a Christian response to what many see as the undermining of the underlying culture that has made America great.
>
> "Ten Commandments Twice Removed", a new release by Danny Shelton and Shelly Quinn, answers critical questions about the Decalogue with compelling clarity and biblical evidence. With unflinching conviction, the authors join their voices with great Christian leaders like D.L. Moody, John Wesley and Charles Spurgeon, to trumpet the truth—God never revoked His Ten Commandments!
>
> Prominent Christian leaders are urging believers everywhere to celebrate a national, and they hope annual, Ten Commandments Day on May 7, 2006. In response to this call, thousands of Christians have ordered "Ten Commandments Twice Removed" to share with their friends and neighbors.
>
> The logistics of shipping out this volume of orders has been a challenge for Remnant, but the small-town press has been up to it.
>
> "We only have storage facilities for 400,000 books," says Dwight Hall, president. "There have been paper allocation challenges, plus we have to keep up with our regular printing jobs, so the deluge of orders has been a challenge in some ways."
>
> It's a challenge Remnant first started to face in 2005, when it sold 1.6 million copies of "The Passion of Love" in response to Mel Gibson's hit movie, "Passion of Christ". Remnant's first bestseller, this heart-rending book about the life of Christ was carried in Walmarts and many Christian bookstores as well.

Aletheia, what does the fact the publisher is a "non-profit" have to do with the issue? We have seen rom the tax case that 3abn does in fact make money even if they have a status as a "non- profit" with state and federal authorities. 13

Is there some point you are trying to make? I know both Lee and Bystander, and I'm not a insider....

Do you also have a problem with everyone who trusts and believes what Sister writes? If not, why not? if so, you haven't been very vocal about it...

Did you or did you not ask "Do you know who they are paying for the books?" ?

Well there you go, you have your answer.

I'm going to take a break now. I don't believe it's wise to post when I'm irritated, so I make it a practice not to.

Talk to you later...

Bob has been told there were profits, he is not "claiming" there were, at least that is how I read it. He is asking for someone to refute or corroborate what he has heard, IMO. It is interesting that you would drag Shelly Quinn into the mix.

Aletheia,

i think that the charge is part of the cost was royalty for danny and shelly.

i personal do not have problem if they got paid just be open about it.

If Dan writes a book, the scenario, for example would be that 3abn pays the publisher a particular amount of money to publish it, then the publisher sends money back to Danny, in essense, 3abn then buys it from Danny (this money that comes in check form to Dan from the publisher), he has made money and can also claim that 3abn is giving it away. Obviously because donors pay 3abn money every month, for which 3abn spends it as they want to.

The publisher would then have to issue something to the govt. showing they sent Danny a check, (which remember came by way of 3abn originally). This is something that should be on his taxes, but you also don't now how things are documented when that check comes in and that would be something Dan might have his bookkeeper post under this or that....

There are reasons that things move around the way they do, and why it's not so simple to say blanket statements like "non-profit" and "no one made money". You don't know that.

There are loopholes, legal loopholes, and there are loopholes that one might think they have created that may be legal.

Dan used a different publisher for this book. My understanding is Dan didn't go through Pacific Press (the church presses) or the usual publisher he has used in the past for other books that can do things the cheapest way. He went through a publisher for this book that had to outsource the printing. That in itself doesn't make sense to some.

t would, indeed, be the kind and Christian thing to give Barbara Kerr those tapes that she poured so nuch time, travel, personal sacrifice and energy into creating. It would also be a very positive PR nove on 3ABN's part to provide them to her and allow free use of their content anywhere Barbara has :ultifvated the interest.

;adly, WB's post in reply to your own probably hits very close to the truth of the matter. Such a pity hat pride and downright mean-spiritedness appears to be at play in keeping Barbara's health ministry rom such a useful tool as these videos.

s it because Linda appears on the videos and airing them might rekindle interest in Linda's own ninistry? Is it that someone at 3abn wants to punish Barbara for being Linda's friend? One must vonder what that answer might be.

3ut PB, we know that nothing is being done to hinder Linda's ministry by DS or 3abn right? Isn't that vhat we were told? That they want her to get on with her life and ministry?

'hat's real interesting. Perhaps you've rubbed shoulders at the same church or something?

But then, I would think that conservative conference-affiliated or non-conference-affiliated Seventh-day Adventists would have a problem with some of the moral views of Lee and Bystander. Wouldn't they?

That just proves to me you know neither of them, and so have no business making snide comments about either one...

Posted by: Pickle Mar 18 2007, 06:51 PM

Huh?

Lee suggested that Tommy going after minor and adult males who consented somehow made a difference as far as leadership at 3ABN goes. And Bystander argued that not telling employees and parents about a fellow who had a consenting affair with an adult who happened to be under 18 was fine.

That's a snide comment?

Aletheia,

You work pretty fast. In just over a month you have gone from someone who did not know Bystander at all, to loving him as a brother, to stating you do know him, but are not and insider...All the while spouting insider info.

Have you been spending large amounts of time on the phone, talking to a man?
Have you talked to him for more than 15 minutes?
Have you been guilty of Spiritual Adultery?
Be honest Aletheia.

I just wrote to Bystander yesterday, telling him that I was reading his post carefully, because I want to know the truth. I am comparing notes between the sides.

And then you post again. You who discredits eyewitnesses. You who plays games with the age of victims. You who acts like the authority on every post, but CONVENIENTLY doesn't know who Duane is when you are caught. You who discounts homosexual activity of a married pastor, by asking dates of employment of the victim.

You said you wanted to stop posting while you were irritated. Why don't you stop posting while you are irritating, and we will be done with your spin.

There used to be a toy that would fit you well. It was called Sit and Spin. If you are interested, you may see one here (http://www.feelingretro.com/view_toy.cfm?id=76)

You don't need to respond, cause I'm already tired of what you have to say.

ruth, just look around you. What I have seen here, are many close brothers and sisters who have ome love each other through their posts and chats and yet, many many here have never met. Just ecause we defend 3abn doesn't mean we are not in that same situation. You can get to know a rother or sister in christ in certain kinds of these situations. ow Di, what was that you just posted yesterday about everyone on bsda being your family? How any here have you never met but you are still calling them family. I am being fair, and real.. I gots family(real family) members who are less than stellar in their reasoning. you have got to know that my temperment is the one who is going to tell it like it is. She can be family, and still be confused. You can still be family and still be wrong as two left shoes. You dont' have to lose your basic respect and love as a child of God. We are ALL a part of the Family of God, ar we not. Whether I meet you and Cindy in person or not, we are all still God's children, that makes us family. I have abasic love and respect for all of my Father's children. I owuld tell any sister of mine the same thing if she claimed to meet a man and two months later wasn'ts to believe every single word her says, that is just not long enough, not even for a friendship.

Beleive it or not, I would still ike to see Every single member of BSDA at GC, we plan to meet and I would love to put a face with your name and Cindy's and fellowship, etc. I am not mad at you, just disagreeing with you. I know it takes a bit of christian maturity to get there, and it is not easy, but it saves a lot of stress. That doesn't mean I will still not call 'em as I see ' em, just means I ain't mad atcha!

Bystander,

I told you yesterday, I am willing to listen to what you have to say. I also told you that Aletheia gets on my last nerve. Every time she posts, my head spins.

When you posted your first entry under Authorized, I felt like some of the points you made were plausible. Some of your explanations sounded reasonable to me. That doesn't mean I believe them to be true at this point, but I believe they could be true.

You and Bob have gone back and forth, both stubbornly sounding like a couple of kids, "I'm not showing you my proof until you show me yours". I just wish if there is proof it would be presented, without all the threats of law suits.

I know this is a pipe dream, but I would love to see Danny and Linda both, ON 3ABN, say they handled a very bad situation poorly, and apologize one to another, and to the viewers.

I would like to see Danny acknowledge that the timing of his Guam divorce and re-marriage gives the appearance of impropriety, and apologize.

I would like to see 3ABN allow a truly INDEPENDENT audit of all records, to put to rest all the financial questions.

The save3ABN site shows an apology letter, purported to be from Tommy, and there have been statements made that he apologized to others.

I would like to see Tommy publicly acknowledge that he has been involved in inappropriate sexual behavior, and apologize to all of those involved.

I don't claim to know the mind of the alleged victims, but I would imagine that most would just like the truth to be known, and to be free from the cover-up.

I would also like to see him receive professional counseling. I know many of you think that would do no good. Please don't attack, THIS IS MY PIPE DREAM.

I would like to see the save3ABN site taken down.

I would like to see all the accusations and fighting stop.

I would like to see the world watch Christians handle things like Christians.

And for Linda, the story of Joseph keeps coming to mind. He was cast in to a pit, sold as a slave, accused of rape, and thrown in prison. He tried to work it out on his own. By talking to the baker Joseph tried to secure his own release. The Lord worked IN HIS TIME, and Joseph was elevated to a high position.

I would like to see Linda allow the Lord to work for her. If she makes the way, she will never be where God could take her.

Most of all, I want to see all who are involved in the whole 3ABN mess make it to heaven. God is able, if those involved are willing.

I apologize for writing such a long post, just to share my dream.

Sorry guys.... I cannot agree that "amen" would be an appropriate response to Lookin4truth's descriptions of the content of his "pipe dream", for time moves forward in a cause and effect direction, and once the effects have been caused, they cannot be erased by a few words of apology.... neither can the hands of the clock be turned backwards to change the flow of events... nor to prevent the flow of events that must follow from this point onward in order to bring not only justice, but mercy and healing.

It would probably be much more profitable to "put down the pipe and back slowly away from it" and take a realistic, wide awake look at where we are, where life needs to go.... for everyone on all sides.... what it will take to move in that direction.... including what persons will need in the future as they attempt to come to grips with historical facts of which, at present, they are totally ignorant of, or in denial about.

There are no magic wands.... no way to turn back the hands of time..... no way to cause what has happened to have not happened.... no way to cause those who made bad decisions to go back and change them.... and no way to make them make better decisions in the future.

So my suggestion is.... to sort through the dreams..... ask the hard questions of what is possible now that what has happened has happened. And don't come back with an trite, "With God all things are possible". Taken out of the context in which is was written, that is simply not true. God cannot rewrite history. God cannot force the human will. God cannot save those who cling to their sins. There are many things that God cannot do...

You are saying that DLS Publications, Inc. is a non-profit publisher? Are you sure, Aletheia? (DLS=Danny Lee Shelton.)

What you did, Aletheia, is palmed-off a http://www.prweb.com/releases/20061300/5/prweb379731.htm from the printer of the books,http://www.prweb.com/releases/20061300/5/prweb379731.htm The printer is not the publisher and you know that. The press release simply said Remnant "printed" the books. Nowhere does your press release say Remnant is the publisher.

Aletheia, go to the http://library.avondale.edu.au/files/new_titles/February2007.html . It's about 73 items down on Avondale's New Book list.
You must consider the possibility that the books could have been sold at a profit from DLS to 3ABN. At what price, Aletheia? How do you know that these books were sold by DLS at cost? Danny Lee Shelton's cost to 3ABN, or Remnant Publication's printing costs for the physical items to DLS Publications, Inc.? What in the world are you talking about, Aletheia?

And without seeing the financial books for both 3ABN and DLS Publications, Inc., how can you know anything beyond nonsensical gibberish?

o do a search and see how many pages are in The Antichrist Agenda : The ten commandments twice emoved, and what date it was released. You will find the 2 books are different.

hat isn't the same book called "The ten commandments-twice removed" that was published by emnant Publications, and given out free, and promoted before, during, and after ten ommandments weekend, which we are discussing.

hen go to 3ABN's book store and see them both listed, and how differently even to the price ttp://www.3abn.org/store.cfm nd if you want to get the free ones to hand out for the upcoming "Ten Commandments weekend" or ust general evangelizing, go to REMNANT PUBLICATIONS here:

ttp://www.remnantpublications.com/Merchant2/merchant.mvc?

r you can donate there also:

And don't come back with an trite, "With God all things are possible". Taken out of the context in which is was written, that is simply not true. God cannot rewrite history. God cannot force the human will. God cannot save those who cling to their sins. There are many things that God cannot do...

Watchbird is describing what is closest to reality in this whole mess. Trouble is that reality is at a far distance from some. When dreams are too far apart, what do you do?

It seems impossible for Danny Shelton to realize that the 3ABN which was so close to his dream back in 2004, will never be neither the same or any better than it was then. It is too difficult for him to realize that things could have been much better if he had handled the situation then as a mature Christian, rather than as a president with power.

Now w see the throes of this realization as a last straw in their attempt to handle the situation, shifting the blame from Linda to Sister, to Picle, to Gailon - and to all the rest of you who read the handwriting on the wall.

Seems like Danny thought that if he only could get rid of Johann, then all of his problems were solved. Just notice what he wrote:

Here's a link that shows all the info on DLS Publishing. You can look it over, but I didn't see anything about non-profit status on the page. Now, is this factual information, or does Bob Pickle have something to do with this, too?

How does that help you Johann??

ohann is walking by an alley and see a body on the ground and a man standing over it, a woman is standing there yelling "murderer!" what does he do?

Does he attack the man for his crime and sin, or does he attack the woman for being mean to him and calling him names?

In the real world we know what people would do, but in the topsy turvy upside down world of the 3ABN saga bitter is sweet, and.... Danny was mean to Johann?

And Johann, why are you posting D.S.'s e-mail address, while removing your own?

I have removed the pdf copy after reading further at the site. Anyone can find the information using the link and entering DLS Publishing. You can also research Three Angels Enterprises as well.

Your story about your other "Ten Commandments Twice Removed" reminds me of this story:

Eleanor Roosevelt gave a Thanksgiving dinner party. When the turkey was brought to the dining room and presented to the distinguished guests, the cook accidentally dumped the turkey and the turkey rolled across the floor. Eleanor said to the cook, "Just take that turkey back into the kitchen and bring us the other one."

Of course, there was no other turkey. The cook just took the turkey back to the kitchen, cleaned it up, and brought it right back out and put it on the table.

Eleanor Roosevelt has two different turkeys and you, Aletheia, have two different books. But my focus was on your comments regarding "non-profit" status and your "at cost" statements - things you couldn't possibly know unless you've gotten a peek inside the DLS Publishing books.

DLS Publishing, Inc., is listed as a BCA corporation. A BCA corporation is one filed under the Business Corporation Act. There is a different General Not For Profit Corporation Act.

Aletheia, please notice which type of corporation Mr. Danny Lee Shelton created. It's the "for profit" BCA type. And nowhere in any of your links does it say DLS Publishing, Inc., donated anything, not to 3ABN, and not to Remnant Publications.

Time to go back into your kichen, once again, Aletheia, to clean up that turkey and bring it back out one more time.

Noahswife and Ex3ABNemployee printed the link to this (thanks):

Now as x3abne has pointed out that he sees nothing listed identifying DLS Publishing as a NFP, but I would like someone to point out where it is identified as a FP entity. You can not assume FP just because it isn't listed here as a NFP. This document doesn't address that classification at all.

For what its worth (something to add to the stew):

I've got in my little hands a copy of the "freebie" book, "Ten Commandments Twice Removed" by Danny Shelton and Shelley Quinn

Inside the front cover, I read:

Printed on the back cover, $9.95

On the page just inside the back cover is a printed advertisement that says:

> Ten Commandments Twice Removed is only part of the amazing story behind the battle between good and evil... now get the exciting, in-depth look at the unseen world power doing everything possible to veil Bible truths about end-time prophecy and God's ultimate authority! In The Antichrist Agenda, Danny Shelton and Shelley J. Quinn share the fascinating truth behind the return of the Ten Commandments to the cultural spotlight, and give you the keys to understand what the Bible says will happen next! This powerful book will help every Christian discover inner peace even as they face the forces of evil in earth's soon-coming final battle.

It is my understanding that our church paid 25 cents per book (for the "freebie" book), for shipping and handling. We were told that a "generous contributer" had donated the cost of the books themselves.

And that's all I know about that.....

That wouldn't be the issue. The question, when the corporation is organized under the "for profit" corporate laws, instead of being correctly organized as a non-profit, it is up to the corporation to prove it is a "not for profit" corporation.

Judge Barbara S. Rowe ruled against 3ABN, citing that very same reason. She pointed out that there is a separate law governing non-profits, and 3ABN didn't bother to use it. That's one of the reasons 3ABN got all messed up with their property taxes. As a result, Judge Rowe ruled 3ABN was a private business. 3ABN was unable to prove they were non-profit for Illinois real estate tax purposes. By now, don't you think Danny and his attorneys have learned that lesson?

There are three types of organizations, created under different Illinois laws. Danny Shelton has not used the one reserved for non-profits. The forms are listed below. One has to assume Mr. Shelton's attorney used the correct form this time - the one for for-profit corporations.

My point that got lost in all of this is that nobody has seen the DLS books, so it's impossible for Aletheia to say she knows everything was distributed "at cost" by a "non profit." That's just blind thinking.

There's at least one version of that book published directly by DLS. And I didn't want to even confuse the issue by bringing up the separate royalties issue. Royalties are another question at 3ABN that has remained unanswered. I've seen nothing proving that Danny Shelton did not collect royalties on everything that he holds the copyright to, therefore, all of those "at cost" statements are pointless.

Pete,

What can you tell us about THREE ANGELS ENTERPRISES, L.L.C. with a Type of LLC listed as "Domestic"? Is it owned by 3ABN or Danny? If by 3ABN, where should they be reporting profits or losses from it on their tax forms, like the 990?

Panama Pete, please notice I published the link to the publisher we WERE talking about.

Panama Pete, please notice we WERE talking about the "ten commandments -twice removed" books given out for free, which are published by Remant Publishing, and whether Danny made mucho bucks off the free books and hid it in switzerlland or some offshore account to gip Linda...

You seem to have changed the subject to a"The Antichrist agenda" book, a different publisher and the tax case...

So is it owned by 3ABN or Danny? Danny is also the agent listed for 3ABN, so I think that means that he's the contact person. But is he the owner too?

ete, emnant Publications is selling the "sharing" copies of Ten Commandments Twice Removed for 9.95 n their web site.

ttp://www.remnantpublications.com/index.php?option=com_wrapper&Itemid=769&Store_Code=rem erhaps as it gets closer to the Ten Commandments Weekend the price will drop to match the .99 at he 3abn store.

wonder if the 9.95 price covers just the cost of publication or if there is some profit in there that oes somewhere?

Ok, I see it now. Sorry, PB, My scrollbar was off the page, so I was just looking at the top of the page and didn't know there was more.

I think there is a mistake there. That has to be for a case of 100 like the other books on the bottom of the page. The other page on the Remnant site has them listed for a penny each????

The meaning may vary somewhat with the person and the context, but usually it means something like.... you have my attention..... keep on with the story..... tell me more..... I'm watching even when I'm eating.... etc.

Daylily,
Good question! I have always assumed that those little smileys are feeling intrigued by how a discussion may be developing. Could it possibly be curiosity or anticipating entertainment?

Sonshineonme,
If one follows Aletheia's other link it opens a page where one can choose either a "Bible Study Books" link or a "Remnant Publications" link. The Bible Study Books link does take one to a page where 3 cases (300) The Ten Commandments Twice Removed can be gotten for only the cost of shipping. After that they are sold for as little as .69 each.

The Remnant Publications link takes one to the single copy sales of the book for 9.95.

BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Lawsuit Against Gaj

Posted by: Observer Feb 2 2007, 06:35 AM

Mr. Joy has recieved an e-mail, and he expects to shortly recieve the same mesaage by postal letter making certain demands upon him, and that raised the potential that he will become the subject of a lawsuit.

I am posting that message here. In my next post a little later this morning, I will post an item by item response to this letter.

I know that many of you will want to comment on this message, both pro and con. If you don't mind, I would appreciate it if you would allow me to make the next post in this thread which will contain my comments on the letter. After I have done that, please comment.

Here is the message:

NOTICE: This letter Constitutes a confidential legal communication, which is not for publication. The contents of this communication are subject to common law copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any form or media, without the express, written permission of the author.

Gailon Arthur Joy:

This law firm represents Mr. Danny Shelton and the Three Angels Broadcasting Network, Inc. ("3ABN"), which has informed us that you are involved in the use and exploitation of 3ABN's trademarked, copyrighted name in your website, "www.save3abn.com." Use of 3ABN's name without our client's license or other authorization to do so constitutes an illegal misappropriation of the same, in violation of state and federal copyright and trademark laws. Additionally, use of the phrase "3ABN" in your domain name is likely to cause confusion among the public as to the source, sponsorship or affiliation of your website, resulting in dilution of 3ABN's trademark, which is a separate and additional violation of federal law.

It has also come to our attention that you have inappropriately copied and posted a lengthy excerpt from a 3ABN broadcast on the website referred to above. This action constitutes a violation of 3ABN's exclusive copyright on all audio and video productions created by the Network and on all television transmissions of the same, and is a blatant violation of federal law. Moreover, the presence of this excerpted broadcast serves to heighten the likelihood that the public will be confused into believing that your website is somehow sponsored by or affiliated with 3ABN, which only furthers 3ABN's claim of trademark dilution.

Finally, we have been informed that you have maliciously published outrageous, highly damaging and defamatory statements about both Danny Shelton and 3ABN on this same website. These despicable statements include, but are not limited to:

- 3ABN, through its board chairman has "admitted in writing that Danny [Shelton] had been involved in a cover up" of criminal conduct
- Danny Shelton knowingly lied regarding a feud between Tommy Shelton and Glenn Dryden
- 3ABN directed an attorney to use "intimidation tactics to cover up allegations of child molestation"
- Danny Shelton attempted to cover up and silence child molestation allegations
- Danny Shelton "abuses his power" and "steam roll[s] over alleged victims of his brother Tommy's sexual misconduct."

(hereinafter the "Statements").

The obvious meaning of these horrendous falsehoods is that Danny Shelton and 3ABN participated in an orchestrated effort to cover up alleged criminal conduct. The actions you falsely attribute to our clients would be a crime and, as I am sure you are aware, false accusations of criminal conduct constitute defamation per se by you.

Therefore, on behalf of Three Angels Broadcasting Network and Mr. Danny Shelton, we hereby demand that you immediately cease and desist from the use of the domain name "save3ABN.com" and that you voluntarily surrender and transfer registration of the domain to 3ABN. You are also informed and hereby notified that you are not authorized to use and are, in fact, expressly prohibited from using, Three Angel [sic.] Broadcasting Network's name, or its trademarked nominer "3ABN" in any future website domain name or URL.

We also hereby demand that you immediately cease and desist from the publication of false statements concerning Danny Shelton and 3ABN and that you immediately remove such statements from the "www.save3abn.com" website. In the event that you receive any inquiries from any person or entity about the Statements, we demand you notify the inquiring party that you have been put on notice by Danny Shelton and 3ABN that the statements are false and defamatory.

While 3ABN is in no manner whatsoever beholden to explain itself to you, we proudly withstand the ongoing judgment of God and the continuing examination by our supporters and viewers. As evidenced both by the continued paths of ministry that God has opened at our feet and by the unwavering financial support and testimonials we receive from our supporters and viewers, we believe our ministry has more than satisfied the surveillance of both. Though it is a private enterprise, 3ABN has, for over 22 years, proudly engaged itself as a thoroughly transparent ministry, both in its message and administration. 3ABN has always invited the theological, operational, and financial scrutiny of its loyal and generous supporters and viewers. Unless constrained by legal obligations otherwise, 3ABN has provided financial and administrative information to inquiring parties and has opened its doors and offered access to independent auditors and investigative reporters. More than ever, we stand behind the legal propriety, moral correctness, intellectual honesty, financial soundness, and operational appropriateness of each and every business decision 3ABN has ever made.

As part of its commitment to passionately and effectively spread the Gospel and Good News of the Lord, 3ABN has always welcomed honest feedback, constructive criticism, and suggestions for improvement of the ministry. But its Christian commitment to the Truth will not allow 3ABN to tolerate factually unfounded allegations of impropriety, baseless and prurient gossip, inflammatory innuendo, and unjustified attacks on the organization. 3ABN does not approach such assaults as an objective effort to unmask "truth," but as the divisive and destructive work of the Enemy designed to hinder and frustrate God's work. 3ABN will not quietly resign itself to any effort to obstruct God's message.

Your reckless, willful and malicious activity must cease immediately; you proceed at your own peril. Moreover, your compliance with the demands contained in this letter does not constitute a waiver, relinquishment or abandonment of any right to remedy or enforcement, either legal or equitable, to which our clients are otherwise entitled.

Yours very truly,

Gerald S. Duffy"

hmmm.... No respect for the law whatsoever...

I'm sure that the accusers here are going to be outraged that 3ABN won't just let them continue with their ungodly methods and tactics...

But what else could you all expect after pushing all this slander, libel, gossip and unproven accusations, without handling it biblically, or even seeking to establish anything legally.

One can't reason with the unreasonable.

Thought I'd get Just my 2 cents in before Gregory buries you all in his rhetoric and justifications, where good is evil, evil is good and down is up, and all the accusers are Christlike..

the author.

GM: The above appears to me to be "boiler-plate." Of course, U.S. statute law confers copyright status upon this letter. However, the so-called "free-use" provisions of U.S. copyright law govern. Under those provisions I believe that I may reproduce it along with my comments and critique as I am doing here.

Gailon Arthur Joy:

This law firm represents Mr. Danny Shelton and the Three Angels Broadcasting Network, Inc. ("3ABN"), which has informed us that you are involved in the use and exploitation of 3ABN's trademarked, copyrighted name in your website, "www.save3abn.com." Use of 3ABN's name without our client's license or other authorization to do so constitutes an illegal misappropriation of the same, in violation of state and federal copyright and trademark laws. Additionally, use of the phrase "3ABN" in your domain name is likely to cause confusion among the public as to the source, sponsorship or affiliation of your website, resulting in dilution of 3ABN's trademark, which is a separate and additional violation of federal law.

GM: There are two issues of interest in the above. The first is that this attorney is representing both Danny Shelton and 3-ABN. In so far as Danny Shelton is the President of 3-ABN, there is nothing ethically wrong with this dual representation. Danny has in private communications made statements to the effect that any legal expenses would be picked up by another person with so-called deep pockets [my words]. Again, that is neither illegal, nor unethical. If that person were to have paid for Danny's private legal expenses, those payments might be taxable income to Danny. However, my belief is that such is not currently the case. As President, 3-ABN has the obligation to defend Danny in any action that involves his duties as President.

GM: The second issues relates to the fact that 3ABN is a registered trademark, and has been copyrighted. The comment that such prevents Mr. Joy from using "3abn" in his domain name is subject to challenge. The comment may be correct. If so the court will enjoin future use. However, only litigation will settle that issue. The decision may not be that clear-cut. I will remind everyone that "SDA Kinship" has been allowed by the courts to keep "SDA" in its name contrary to the wish of the General Conference. In any case, if this issue is litigated, I suspect that other "Friend of the Court" briefs will be filed, if allowed.

It has also come to our attention that you have inappropriately copied and posted a lengthy excerpt from a 3ABN broadcast on the website referred to above. This action constitutes a violation of 3ABN's exclusive copyright on all audio and video productions created by the Network and on all television transmissions of the same, and is a blatant violation of federal law. Moreover, the presence of this excerpted broadcast serves to heighten the likelihood that the public will be confused into believing that your website is somehow sponsored by or affiliated with 3ABN, which only furthers 3ABN's claim of trademark dilution.

GM: U. S. copyright law governs here. This is not as clear-cut as it may seem. Under "fair use" one is generally allowed to copy a copyright product for the purpose of commenting and critiquing it. Should the court decide that was the intent, it just might be that 3-ABN would not be able to enjoin such use. It is the same principle that allows me to place "3-ABN" and "3ABN" in my posts.

Finally, we have been informed that you have maliciously published outrageous, highly damaging and defamatory statements about both Danny Shelton and 3ABN on this same website. These despicable statements include, but are not limited to:

- 3ABN, through its board chairman has "admitted in writing that Danny [Shelton] had been involved in a cover up" of criminal conduct

- Danny Shelton knowingly lied regarding a feud between Tommy Shelton and Glenn Dryden
- 3ABN directed an attorney to use "intimidation tactics to cover up allegations of child molestation"
- Danny Shelton attempted to cover up and silence child molestation allegations
- Danny Shelton "abuses his power" and "steam roll[s] over alleged victims of his brother Tommy's sexual misconduct."

(hereinafter the "Statements").

The obvious meaning of these horrendous falsehoods is that Danny Shelton and 3ABN participated in an orchestrated effort to cover up alleged criminal conduct. The actions you falsely attribute to our clients would be a crime and, as I am sure you are aware, false accusations of criminal conduct constitute defamation per se by you.

GM: Here we have an interesting issue. Should 3-ABN (or other individuals) file on the above grounds, the defense will attempt to prove that the claims are true. It should be noted that truth is not an absolute defense against such claims. The potential exists for the court to find the charges true, and still find in favor of the plaintiffs. However, that can only be determined by litigation. The question now becomes: Does any plaintiff want to be subject to the discovery that would take place in such litigation. And, if proven true, that might bar recovery of damages. The results of such litigation are simply not predictable.

Therefore, on behalf of Three Angels Broadcasting Network and Mr. Danny Shelton, we hereby demand that you immediately cease and desist from the use of the domain name "save3ABN.com" and that you voluntarily surrender and transfer registration of the domain to 3ABN. You are also informed and hereby notified that you are not authorized to use and are, in fact, expressly prohibited from using, Three Angel [sic.] Broadcasting Network's name, or its trademarked nominer "3ABN" in any future website domain name or URL.

GM: We now enter a field of law that is developing in regard to domain names. I believe that case law might be cited on both sides of this question. It may be that the plaintiff will be willing to litigate in the hope of further establishing a body of case law? Again, the result of litigation uncertain.

We also hereby demand that you immediately cease and desist from the publication of false statements concerning Danny Shelton and 3ABN and that you immediately remove such statements from the "www.save3abn.com" website. In the event that you receive any inquiries from any person or entity about the Statements, we demand you notify the inquiring party that you have been put on notice by Danny Shelton and 3ABN that the statements are false and defamatory.

GM: O. K. Let it be known that Danny Shelton and 3-ABN deny the charges.

While 3ABN is in no manner whatsoever beholden to explain itself to you, we proudly withstand the ongoing judgment of God and the continuing examination by our supporters and viewers. As evidenced both by the continued paths of ministry that God has opened at our feet and by the unwavering financial support and testimonials we receive from our supporters and viewers, we believe our ministry has more than satisfied the surveillance of both. Though it is a private enterprise, 3ABN has, for over 22 years, proudly engaged itself as a thoroughly transparent ministry, both in its message and administration. 3ABN has always invited the theological, operational, and financial scrutiny of its loyal and generous supporters and viewers. Unless constrained by legal obligations otherwise, 3ABN has provided financial and administrative information to inquiring parties and has opened its doors and offered access to independent auditors and investigative reporters. More than ever, we stand behind the legal propriety, moral correctness, intellectual honesty, financial soundness, and operational appropriateness of each and every business decision 3ABN has ever made.

GM: The references to God hardly belong in a court of law. I would like to know more about the "independent auditors" and the extent to which 3-ABN has opened its books to inquiring parties.

As part of its commitment to passionately and effectively spread the Gospel and Good News of the Lord, 3ABN has always welcomed honest feedback, constructive criticism, and suggestions for improvement of the ministry. But its Christian commitment to the Truth will not allow 3ABN to tolerate factually unfounded allegations of impropriety, baseless and prurient gossip, inflammatory innuendo, and unjustified attacks on the organization. 3ABN does not approach such assaults as an objective effort to unmask "truth," but as the divisive and destructive work of the Enemy designed to hinder and frustrate God's work. 3ABN will not quietly resign itself to any effort to obstruct God's message.

Your reckless, willful and malicious activity must cease immediately; you proceed at your own peril. Moreover, your compliance with the demands contained in this letter does not constitute a waiver, relinquishment or abandonment of any right to remedy or enforcement, either legal or equitable, to which our clients are otherwise entitled.

GM: Here is a pretty clear statement that Mr. Joy potentially could comply with all requests and after he did so, find himself as a defendant in a lawsuit for his past behavior.

Yours very truly,

GM: More boiler plate. To what extent are we really to believe that Mr. Duffy is truly his?

This is clearly a case for the Court to decide.

No, I have great respect for the law. Under the law, materials that are copyrighted do have certain allowable "free use." I believe that I have complied with those provisions.

Alethia:

1) My post could be construed as a warning to all that they could find themselves defending in a lawsuit against them. This would clearly be considered "fair use" of copyright material as my pubication could potentially result in people complying with the demands made of Mr. 'Joy.

2) I posted the message in my first post, without specific comment from me in an attempt to be fair to the writer. It was my intention to post my comments directly following the letter without comments, as that is generally considered fair and appropriate. You interjected your own comment between the two. But, I cannot be held accountable for what you did.

3) Again, my post has been, I beleive, in accord with the law as it related to "fair use" of copyright materials. The attorney who penned the letter either knew, or should have known, that anyone could do what I did, under the law. The only way to prevent such would be to not send such a letter.

I have great respect for the law, and intend to comply with it.

y post is actually a warning. There are many people posting here who could potentially become efendents in litigation. They need to decide whether or not they have the stomach for such. No one ho understands the law really welcomes litigation. It is never a fun process. One can never really redict the outcome.

everal years ago I was asked by an attorney to advise him on certain aspects of a lawsuit that he lanned to file in regard to the First Ammendment (U.S. Constitution) and religioius liberty. I advised im that he would lose. He informed me that he knew the Constitution better than I. I agreed with him nd again told him that he would lose as I knew the case better than he. He filed, and lost.

e was an attorney who specialized the the area of law in which he filed. He was totally surprised that e lost. The issue is not that I was correct. The issue is that people can only make an educated guess s to the outcome of litigation. No one can predict with 100% certaintly the outcome.

will suggest to you that Mr. Joy would rather settle this case without litigation. But, there are issues nvolved that prevent this from happening. There are issues that justly lie in the civil realm.

his potentially looks like it may be the beginning of the search for such a mode of settlement.

o, all read my posts, and make your own decision as to how you want to relate to becomming nvolved in future litigation.

Let me give you-all an illlustration of "fair use" right out of real life:

Several years ago I became aware of a writer who published weekly on the Internet, and in print media. His mission in life was to post Christian art, and then make fun of it, the person who prioduced it, and those who beleived in Christ. It was more narrowly focused in Christ himself. Regularly he posted art from SDA publications, such as books by A.S. Maxwell, and other. Yes, he did this after Maxwell's death. He would have a field day in making fun of Maxwell and the item of art that he had published that week. Again, he would focus on the Christ figure in the art.

I took the evidence to the General Conference for violation of copywight. They infomed me that his use of copyrighted SDA art was included in the "fair use" doctrine and they could do nothing about it. He had the legal right to reporduce, in full, that SDA art.

The same principles apply to my use of that letter, and my posting it.

Alethia, there are other legal reasons why I will suggest that I was free to do so. But, if you want the full story, I will advise you to consult an attorney who specialized in copyright issues. I am not here to instruct you in the law.

Posted by: awesumtenor Feb 2 2007, 08:39 AM

I don't believe it a coincidence that this lawyer is from Minneapolis... or that ASI's pulling out of the dialog on this situation... is one either.

I would wager that one Garwin McNeilus is entering the fray... and knowing this cease and desist communique was coming down, ASI was merely getting out of his way...

I could be mistaken... but I dont think so.

In His service,
Mr. J

NOTICE: This letter Constitutes a confidential legal communication, which is not for publication. The contents of this communication are subject to common law copyright and may not be reproduced, in whole or in part, in any form or media, without the express, written permission of the author.

GM: The above appears to me to be "boiler-plate." Of course, U.S. statute law confers copyright status upon this letter. However, the so-called "free-use" provisions of U.S. copyright law govern. Under those provisions I believe that I may reproduce it along with my comments and critique as I am doing here.

Gailon Arthur Joy:

This law firm represents Mr. Danny Shelton and the Three Angels Broadcasting Network, Inc. ("3ABN"), which has informed us that you are involved in the use and exploitation of 3ABN's trademarked, copyrighted name in your website, "www.save3abn.com." Use of 3ABN's name without our client's license or other authorization to do so constitutes an illegal misappropriation of the same, in violation of state and federal copyright and trademark laws. Additionally, use of the phrase "3ABN" in your domain name is likely to cause confusion among the public as to the source, sponsorship or affiliation of your website, resulting in dilution of 3ABN's trademark, which is a separate and additional violation of federal law.

GM: There are two issues of interest in the above. The first is that this attorney is representing both Danny Shelton and 3-ABN. In so far as Danny Shelton is the President of 3-ABN, there is nothing ethically wrong with this dual representation. Danny has in private communications made statements to the effect that any legal expenses would be picked up by another person with so-called deep pockets [my words]. Again, that is neither illegal, nor unethical. If that person were to have paid for Danny's private legal expenses, those payments might be taxable income to Danny. However, my belief is that such is not currently the case. As President, 3-ABN has the obligation to defend Danny in any action that involves his duties as President.

GM: The second issues relates to the fact that 3ABN is a registered trademark, and has been copyrighted. The comment that such prevents Mr. Joy from using "3abn" in his domain name is subject to challenge. The comment may be correct. If so the court will enjoin future use. However, only litigation will settle that issue. The decision may not be that clear-cut. I will remind everyone that "SDA Kinship" has been allowed by the courts to keep "SDA" in its name contrary to the wish of the General Conference. In any case, if this issue is litigated, I suspect that other "Friend of the Court" briefs will be filed, if allowed.
It has also come to our attention that you have inappropriately copied and posted a lengthy excerpt from a 3ABN broadcast on the website referred to above. This action constitutes a violation of 3ABN's exclusive copyright on all audio and video productions created by the Network and on all television transmissions of the same, and is a blatant violation of federal law. Moreover, the presence of this excerpted broadcast serves to heighten the likelihood that the public will be confused into believing that your website is somehow sponsored by or affiliated with 3ABN, which only furthers 3ABN's claim of trademark dilution.

GM: U. S. copyright law governs here. This is not as clear-cut as it may seem. Under "fair use" one is generally allowed to copy a copyright product for the purpose of commenting and critiquing it. Should the court decide that was the intent, it just might be that 3-ABN would not be able to enjoin such use. It is the same principle that allows me to place "3-ABN" and "3ABN" in my posts.

Finally, we have been informed that you have maliciously published outrageous, highly damaging and defamatory statements about both Danny Shelton and 3ABN on this same website. These despicable statements include, but are not limited to:

- 3ABN, through its board chairman has "admitted in writing that Danny [Shelton] had been involved in a cover up" of criminal conduct
- Danny Shelton knowingly lied regarding a feud between Tommy Shelton and Glenn Dryden
- 3ABN directed an attorney to use "intimidation tactics to cover up allegations of child molestation"
- Danny Shelton attempted to cover up and silence child molestation allegations
- Danny Shelton "abuses his power" and "steam roll[s] over alleged victims of his brother Tommy's sexual misconduct."

(hereinafter the "Statements").

The obvious meaning of these horrendous falsehoods is that Danny Shelton and 3ABN participated in an orchestrated effort to cover up alleged criminal conduct. The actions you falsely attribute to our clients would be a crime and, as I am sure you are aware, false accusations of criminal conduct constitute defamation per se by you.

GM: Here we have an interesting issue. Should 3-ABN (or other individuals) file on the above grounds, the defense will attempt to prove that the claims are true. It should be noted that truth is not an absolute defense against such claims. The potential exists for the court to find the charges true, and still find in favor of the plaintiffs. However, that can only be determined by litigation. The question now becomes: Does any plaintiff want to be subject to the discovery that would take place in such litigation. And, if proven true, that might bar recovery of damages. The results of such litigation are simply not predictable.

Therefore, on behalf of Three Angels Broadcasting Network and Mr. Danny Shelton, we hereby demand that you immediately cease and desist from the use of the domain name "save3ABN.com" and that you voluntarily surrender and transfer registration of the domain to 3ABN. You are also informed and hereby notified that you are not authorized to use and are, in fact, expressly prohibited from using, Three Angel [sic.] Broadcasting Network's name, or its trademarked nominer "3ABN" in any future website domain name or URL.

GM: We now enter a field of law that is developing in regard to domain names. I believe that case law might be cited on both sides of this question. It may be that the plaintiff will be willing to litigate in the hope of further establishing a body of case law? Again, the result of litigation uncertain.

We also hereby demand that you immediately cease and desist from the publication of false statements concerning Danny Shelton and 3ABN and that you immediately remove such statements from the "www.save3abn.com" website. In the event that you receive any inquiries from any person or entity about the Statements, we demand you notify the inquiring party that you have been put on notice by Danny Shelton and 3ABN that the statements are false and defamatory.

GM: O. K. Let it be known that Danny Shelton and 3-ABN deny the charges.

Lawyers are good people.

I have stated a number of times that I believe this will end in litigation, and that such will be the only appropriate way to resolve some of the issues.

And the sky fell. And much that was wrong was destroyed and with it some that was right. And out of the rubble rose a cleaner world. And a bluer sky. And the sun shone on both good and evil. And earth, quite unconcerned with the events, compleated another journey around the sun.

another one of your thoughts? People are still free to more or less say what they want.... even in the sda church... even though there are some people who would like to prevent such from occurring... what camp are you in Task Force? Free speech or thought police? From the tone of your comment I suspect you are more comfortable with the Thought Police....

Whatever... you forget a little thing called the First Amendment... which gives you the right to sound like the village idiot... and me the right to say you sound like the village idiot.

Where it gets dicey is when you and those of your ilk decide to do your shouting "FIRE" in a crowded theater act... and even that is a failure on your part seeing that it has not had nearly the effect you anticipated.

Oh, I'm for free speech ... until it hurts others. I saw an example on TV one time that had a woman who was shouting "i have the right to have as many children as I want!!" Her adversary said, "yes you do, but DON'T expect me to pay for them" She was on welfare and each additional child meant she got a bigger check. The man had an interesting story. He said," you also have the right to swing your fist in the air as long and as hard as you want to.... that is until it contacts my nose... then your rights cease!

Then again, you have a point here. You totally reject SIGNED testimonies of victims and side with people here who aren't even adult enough to sign their names to what they say.

Why do I even try to talk to you?

Duane,
Cindy said it all with her remark "One can't reason with the unreasonable".

I have tried to understand her thinking, I have asked her for clarification and have asked her questions of my own but I have finally had to admit that she and I interpret things differently.

You start out saying that you are not a lawyer, yet, you tempt fate by posting this letter when it specifically says that it is not to be published. It would seem you must put a lot of stock in your own opinion of what you "believe" you are allowed to do or not do, under the law.

Mr. Bystander.

Do you understand what "boilerplate" language is?
Do you understand what "fair use" means?

And as for "good luck", with all the unkind things I have seen posted regarding Mr. Joy by you and others, he just got a major boost in credibility in my eyes. He has just posted an email he sent to Gerry Spence on the save3abn.com website.

We have seen the threatening letters sent by those representing 3ABN. If Mr. Joy is confident enough in his facts as to be willing to contact someone like Gerry Spence........"good luck" in your ongoing attempts to confuse the issues with your posts on this website.

I would assume, and I could be wrong, that a lawfirm would include whatever their client wanted to include. These comments about a "real law firm" are rather ridiculous when phone numbers and email addresses are given. Obviously anyone could check and see if they are "real." So lets not waste time on questioning something that elementery.

Mr. Joy has invited criticism by the way that he has handled this whole situation. I might add for the hundreth time that he has no credentials to handle anything of this nature. So, when you say"he has gained credibility with you" that is saying that he had "some credibility" to begin with and he does not. He is not an a licensed "investigator", or an "official reporter", or a "licensed attorney." It would seem that he has no more business than you or I to do what he has been doing. Therefore, the fact than he had any credibility with the people on this forum has never ceased to amaze me. The same goes for Pickle just how is this going to fix anything by sueing, your group does not not need to sue only put the facts out and let them be decide.

inless you are gambling that you can scare the problem away.

by the way you can name me in suit if you want i could care less the truth is the truth, at least untill you get in to court once what the judge believes is the truth just remember that after you lose.

Mr. Bystander. I have read a large percentage of the 3abn posts since joining BlackSDA including the posts by those who have expressed opinions about Mr. Joy's past legal difficulties and what his crime was or was not. I am not impressed by your statement above that Mr. Joy is not a licensed investigator or official reporter. Who cares? I had made the assumption that Mr. Joy was familiar with the law more than the average person. Can you or someone enlighten me as to what his professional and educational experience is/was without commenting on it?

Can you point me to facts (other than the embezzlement issue that has been rehashed over and over) and not just your opinion as to his lack of credentials as to why I should not find him credible. Again, I want verifiable facts and not your opinions.

I hvae been interested to watch this topic develop. I began this thread with a post of a message recieved by Mr. Joy. In general, the majority of the comments have ammounted to threats toward me for posting it, and other stuff. In my posting, I made comments in regard to the issues as stated in that message to Mr. Joy. My comments may be challenged. They may (?) be wrong. But, generally people have not posted to challenge me. I am comming to the conclusion that people must agree with what I said.

The last time I checked Gerry Spence is a lawyer who doesn't play. He doesn't take cases that he is not sure that he would win. Gailon may not have a law firm, but he is a man who knows where to go o get credible and expert legal advice. Hmmmm.. .That sounds like he is quite resourceful.

Just carrying your little "taunt" to its logical conclusion. You don't seem to be the original Bystander so I'm also quite certain that you are telling the truth when you say you aren't Danny. However, if you are so close to the 3abn situation that you have first hand knowledge of the goings on, you certainly would know who Herb Douglass is, it would seem.

And so attacking of the messengers continues. The 3abn camp cannot debate the issues without admiting guilt so they go after those digging for truth. If they are so right let them debate the issues. Ha, like that will happen.

If Tommy and Danny are truly men of God, let them come on here and lay it all on the line, with their own names. Let Tommy talk man to man with Duane on these boards. But no they would rather let their hired hands, or maybe a rich donors hired hand, go after those digging up the facts. How pathetic can you get? Men of God indeed, taking others to court. As they say money talks, and those with the money think having it proves they are right. Hog wash. It only proves they might have been good businessmen (and women).

If Danny really wants to cool down the talk all he has to do is be honest. Simple as that. Lay down the cards, face up, suffer the end results and pretty soon the BSDA 3ABN board will be but a memory. (As might very well be Danny, family and friends)

Basking in forgiven love,

ichard, you might be confused at your location. You say let them come here and lay it all on the line. ow why on earth would they need to come here for anything? This is not a court of law, nor is it a udicial hearing with both sides represented. This is just one little chat rooms out of thousands on the eb. Danny, Tommy or even Linda for that matter do not owe you or anyone on this public forum any ind of explanations. It never ceases to amaze me when someone on here says if they don't have nything to hide, let them come here and refute these accusation....That is laughable. If they want to efute accusations, or tell their side of the story, they will do it somewhere where it counts...and that on't be here.....

/erry interresting ... For someone so knowledgeable about a very conservative Adventist ministry," this "Bystander" is not very familiar with conservative Adventism. Does that mean that 3ystander is not an Adventist? Does that mean that Bystander has not been an Adventist for long?)oes that mean that Bystander is really not that seriously interested in what interests the viewers of he network? Does that mean that this Bystander is a much more "liberal" Adventist?

\t any rate, I must say that this version of Bystander is more educated than a former version and loes not seem to know the same kinds of things the former version knew. While the last version was ikely resident at 3ABN, this one might not be, even while very knowledgeable about 3ABN ... perhaps rom having written a book about 3ABN?

Posted by: Richard Sherwin Feb 2 2007, 09:53 PM

Ok anywhere is fine. Goodgrief I don't care where just as long as they do it where there will be transparency. Let them all tell the truth and get it over and behind us. However these boards seem to be on the cutting edge of the 3abn issue at the present time.

How about public opinion? If Danny was not concerned, why would he mention Internet lists to the world? If I had no questions before, I would sure go looking after he complained about the "lies" that were written. It is my guess that I am not the only curious soul.

agree that you are not the only curious soul, however, many do not have access to the internet, or if hey do, they do not believe what they read just because it is printed there. Of course he would be concerned about any untruths being put on the net but I, specifically, was talking only about this little forum and how some seem to think that Danny and 3abn should come here to "clear" themselves. That thinking is very unrealistic.

Yes it would be unrealistic, because they know (you know) it won't work. They can not clear themselves any longer in the court of public opinion. It's too late, gone too far, too much out. So that is very unrealistic. (Even though they have tried).

Bad ideal for Linda, Tommy or Danny to come here. They would have nothing to gain. Would what they have to say really change anybodies mind? I don't think so. Just add more drama. It would still be more he/she said. We already have that.

If you are correct that Garwin M is "entering the fray" 3abn is fortunate indeed. There is a man who knows about big business..ie..how things should be done legally and in an appropriate fashion. He knows financial rules and regulations and he knows all about board & administrative leadership. He is also known for never involving himself in any organization unless they are squeaky clean and above board in all areas. The fact that he has supported 3abn gives me a lot of confidence about the way things are done there.
As far as the statement that ASI was just trying to get out of his way, I doubt if that would have been necessary.

Why ignore the facts simply because someone who may not know what is going on is supportive of 3ABN?

By the way, I've had a lot of respect for Garwin over the years. His father Linden and I were friends.

One time when I preached in Dodge Center after Linden had his stroke, the fellow that was taking care of him told me that they couldn't keep Linden done. He just had to go out and witness. So he'd drive Linden somewhere, Linden would hold the literature in the car, and this fellow would take it to the door. Linden would say, "I love this message."

That would make a good sermon illlustration, wouldn't it? A man who has been partly incapacitated by a stroke goes out there and does what little he can, and what are we doing?

I'll quote Bystander here, because he said it well:
"You start out saying that you are not a lawyer, yet, you tempt fate by posting this letter when it specifically says that it is not to be published. It would seem you must put a lot of stock in your own opinion of what you "believe" you are allowed to do or not do, under the law.

Aletheia has done nothing but try to smear the reputation of myself and the other victims from square one. It's really easy for you to pop in here and give us your royal opinion on what was said. It wasn't about you.

Interesting you should say that. Years ago the Sheltons were talking about how they are descended from royalty.

Yes, Lee, I do think it's possible that Aletheia's question was honest. That just goes to show she shouldn't be posting here and mixing things up with people who "pay attention."

Duane, I do have royalty - I'm from Norway.

But I was speaking of the type of royalty in the Bible.

But no, I am not related to Danny or Linda. I don't know them, never have spoken to either of them ever! I do watch sermons occasionally on 3ABN by certain speakers like Doug Batchelor and also on the Hope channel. Some of these programs have really been a blessing to me and are worth watching.

Herb Douglass is retired and spent his career in various administrative capacities at PUC, AUC, Pacific Press and other conference related positions. He is a prolific author (20 books), and his latest book is "Truth Matters". I don't think he is doing more than being interviewed on 3abn, but I could be wrong. I saw a rebroadcast of Danny interviewing him on 3abn Today Friday afternoon. It was a very thought provoking interview and it is most obvious that Herb is a very dedicated man of God.

"Hearken unto thine own words lest thou be shown a fool twice." Should Danny perhaps also consider the matter of lying and slander in his letter to BSDA in which he openly lied? Johann;

I would like to revise the last sentence in the above statement to reflect my true feelings. I would like to apologize to Tommy for singling him out. I did that because he has been the topic of posts for some time now.

I read Bystanders complaint and thought about it all Sabbath, and decided to make my comment clear. Since I made this comment directed to you, I feel the apology and corrected statement should be made to you since Bystander has chosen not to speak to me. That, by the way is no problem for me. Silence from that end is golden.

The sentence should have read, "All molesters, rapist, pedophiles, and all sexual criminals, come on down to Texas, but wait until this law passes please." This is what I meant. I did not mean just Tommy. I will be more careful in the future.

I believe in the proposed law. Our society is like that of Sodom and Gomorrah. Sexual practices were abhorrent. God burned the city and Lot's wife turned into salt for looking back.

However, the sin went out with them. The daughters went after Daddy to commit incest. So, as you can see, males and females are molesters, pedophiles, and rapists.

My comment was to express my opinion that I wish every male or female that is a molester, pedophile, or rapist should come to Texas for their 3rd conviction trial, after the law passes. That does not mean I want them to commit their 3rd act, or any act, in the state of Texas. I just would like them to be tried in Texas. (Fat chance, huh? There's something about having to be tried in the state of the crime.)

Something has to be done. Would I want this penalty given to my brother, sister, son, daughter, mother, or father? If they were/are guilty, I have to give a resounding YES! I believe this law would be a step in the right direction.

Yes, he is a dedicated to the Lord. I personally knew him when he was a religion professor at Pacific Union College. He is a conservative Seventh-day Adventist, and he has been active in Weimar, an independent health treatment facility and educational institution. He is a strong supporter of Ellen White, and a scholar in his own right.

ran,

hank you for writing this correction. I was uncomfortable with the original but felt you were entitled o your opinion.

lthough I do not support the death penalty under any circumstances and certainly question the Board I don't immediately recall its official name) that oversees such things in TX, I would support lifetime mprisonment for a 3rd offense.

Altheia, welcome back, I thought you were gone forever.
Yes, I would also like to know if Mr. Spence has consented to defend Mr. Joy. SInce receiving the letter to cease and desist, Mr. Joy has put more and more accusations on his site, so he will definitely need someone to defend him. Of course with his extensive legal and investigative expertise, I would think he could defend himself.

Ask Yahoo's Aletheia, over at the following Yahoo board:

http://groups.yahoo.com/group/adventism_prophecy/message/9183

Yahoo's Aletheia says that "lawsuits are pending, and this is all coming to a head, and many are going to be sued for slander and libel etc.."

Is Yahoo's Aletheia sure there are pending lawsuits? Has she seen any papers, etc? How many lawsuits does Yahoo's Aletheia think there are?

Yahoo's Aletheia also says, "Go to www.blacksda.com, and click on the 3abn forum also Maritime. It's all one sided, and hypocritical, and evil surmisings for the most part."

Seems to me Yahoo's Aletheia has done some surmising of her own, unless she knows something we don't.

ete, hank you SO much for putting up that link to Al_etheia's post! It is stunningly revealing about her rue agenda, and either her lack of honesty or her lack of understanding of what is being posted here ind why. I particularly took notice of her statement "They also don't like questions, or people vho claim to be searching for the truth."

s one claiming to be searching for truth myself, I certainly have not found this to be the case for me rom the majority of the members. Of course I have found this to be true when I have asked questions f members who do not approve of the 3abn Forum discussions. Sometimes, even with this particular roup of members, I have been pleased to receive informative answers.

don't know if Calvin and the administrators would approve, but this particular statement by Al_etheia vould make a great topic of discussion, IMO, especially now that she is back with us and can discuss ind defend her claims.

This is my first post on this forum. I have read much and find it incredable with all the rumors going around that nothing has been done about these rumors until now. I pray that this letter and attorney are true and that through a court of law that the truth will come out one way or the other.

I do not know the end results of all of this, but one thing for sure, God's will is to be done, not our own.

Welcome to BSDA Liane. I like your name, as mine if actually Diane.

Liane there are more than rumors here. May I suggest that you continue to read. Victim testiimonies are not rumors. Legal documents, are not rumors.

I got word this morning from a friend of mine who had talked to Danny and who said that I'm going to get sued.

But I told him that I really don't think Danny is going to sue. For one thing, following Matthew 18, one would expect Danny to at least let me know where he thinks I have erred in anything I've said, and I don't recall him doing that.

For another thing, I was told that Danny plans on bringing some sort of evidence into court that would prove Linda's guilt. But what would that have to do with me? I haven't gone around saying that Linda just has to be innocent, have I?

Gailon thinks Danny really is going to sue, but on that point we disagree. I'm not going to believe it till I see it.

Did your friend who was told this also know what the legal issue would be if a complaint were filed? And do you know if DS in telling your friend this assumed it would be passed on to you?

As I have noted before... if he sues you, you (or your attorney) will get the opportunity to ask him all of the questions he has stonewalled on... under oath and on the record and that record can be entered into evidence in other court proceedings...

Given the cloud hanging over Tommy's head and the investigations into allegations of fiscal malfeasance, his suing you, then, would be the equivalent of putting the noose around his own neck and standing on the chair and then asking if someone can give him a push...

But hey; this is america... so he can do whatever floats his boat... but I cannot understand why those who claim to have his best interests at heart are not telling him that putting himself in a position where he has to face legal discovery is not ultimately a good thing for him... maybe they are only interested in his best interests as long as they line up with their own...

In His service,
Mr. J

Well, I am quite sure when he and the board consulted with the minn. 14 as someone referred to them, that they did not tell him what could, would and should need to come out. What would 14 attorney's know? Thankfully Danny has you to explain it to everyone because he, obviously, has no idea what to expect. rofl
As usual J you are sooo against Danny & 3abn but yet have not brought anything to the table to prove your accusations. With all of your arrogance and pomp and circumstance, you are a follower..not a leader. They all gossip and speculate and you follow, never requesting proof from your own side.

Bob;

Maybe he wants you to be "convicted" with the same charges your were/are being convicted of stated in the other thread.

I hope that is it. Jesus would come sooner than we thought!

If no one has Googled "Bob Pickle convicted" you should! Then you can see who the real Pickle is!

Yes, NW. Sure hope Calvin sees this and takes notice and prepares to fight each instance of 'possible' infringement. I believe that he will be vindicated under the same reasoning given below from the web site cited by NW. Actually it was under the Comments section called WIPO Corrupt:

"All lawyers know these cases should legally depend upon use of the domain e.g. lucasnursery.com decision by the U.S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that this domain did not violate the law. The female owner used the name of Lucas Nursery to complain about them. Just like I use WIPO.org.uk to complain about UN WIPO.org."

What do you think of this arbitration possibility, Calvin?

BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Thursday Night "live" 2-15-07

Posted by: sister Feb 15 2007, 11:00 PM

Being a woman of a curious nature, I turned on my television set tonight to view the "live" program on 3ABN. There sat Danny with Mollie at his side, surrounded by his loyal minions. The first hour was a promotion for the Ten Commandments weekend planned for Chicago this year. No new information, other than this year the number of free books has been limited, but of course unlimited copies are available for a fee. And you can now buy their t-shirts in additional colors and this year there are baseball caps and tote bags available for purchase. And then, just preceding the break before the second hour, glowing reports of 3ABN were read by each one present, followed by an introduction for the major topic of the second hour: the falsehoods and allegations leveled against 3ABN on the internet. This topic was covered in the next forty minutes.

I will not go into detail in this report, but I will say that every attempt was made to discredit Adventist Today for their most recent coverage of 3ABN. Shelley Quinn made a comment that suggested a comparison between AToday and the National Enquirer. After a through trashing of AToday, Danny continued on about a "small group of Adventist" that are making all sorts of accusations against 3ABN on the internet, he than continued to trash this group. Danny brought up the "false" allegations that have been made about his brother, Tommy. After continuing to discredit those who oppose him, Dan offered to step down, then immediately changed his mind and said there was no sense in doing that because than they would ask that Mollie be removed, than Walt Thompson and finally the Board. Of course I agree with the removal of those he mentioned, beginning with Danny, but unfortunately his brief offer to step down was so quickly rescinded. And YADA, YADA, YADA....

There is one specific area I would like to address: donations. Danny has been claiming all along that donations at 3ABN have been increasing and that anything that has been written on the internet that contradicts that is a lie. Now, tonight be admits that donations are down, and in true 3ABN beg-a-thon style encourages the faithful to open up there pocketbooks wider and make up the slack of those who have quit giving. So taking all of this in to consideration, WHO HAS REALLY BEEN LYING ABOUT THE DONATION SITUATION AT 3ABN? Has "The Man" himself just vindicated the opposition with his own statements? 9

If you are interested in watching the circus for yourself, there is a repeat Sunday afternoon.

Thanks for the critique, Sister. I do not want 3ABN to go down, and I think almost everyone on BSDA agrees with that. Some changes? Most certainly. But to lose 3ABN? No way. I was saddened that Danny implied that anyone had such a thought.

I will transcribe some of the discussion, but not tonight. There are some specific points that I want to see in print so they don't slide by so quickly.

I think people should be encouraged to review the next showing. I know for sure that if people have access to Internet, they will be doing some serious reading.

Posted by: Lee Feb 15 2007, 11:33 PM

Danny said only RECENTLY the donations were down, like in the last month or so. All ministries ask for money--what is so new about that?

I thought the program was done well. Everyone was very kind in what they said. I thought they were very Christ-like considering how much they could have said.

And when the "little group" was mentioned, it as not BSDA. BSDA was not mentioned by name or talked about at all. He was speaking of Pickle/Joy and their web site. That was obvious.

And it is true--the fruits are what we are to look at.

Ralph, look back at the posts on here. Several people have said they wish for the whole 3ABN to close down and tell everyone to watch Hope instead. You can find them on here if you look.

Posted by: Aletheia Feb 15 2007, 11:34 PM

I on the otherhand don't share Sister's negative view or judgments...

I think it was a difficult subject to address, and they handled it beautifully. I would invite all to watch the repeat.

And would ask the same question to lurkers and readers here that was asked on the program tonight.

What are the fruits of 3ABN's ministry? and what are the fruits of her accusers?

They claim they are trying to save 3ABN, but their works deny that. They are trying to destroy the ministry, by slander, libel, by trying to get the 3ABN ministry taken off the air and cable stations, and by trying to block funding and donations...

I say let your conscience be your guide, and don't just judge based on one side of the story.

Walk away from rumors...

Follow the Lamb of God. He went thataway --------->

Posted by: SoulEspresso Feb 16 2007, 12:00 AM

I did not get a chance to view the program.

But you raise a good point about fruits--if all or even some of the people the Lord used 3ABN to win are turned off to spiritual things by all these allegations, that's tragic. If the allegations are false, it's the propagators of such that are wrong. But if it's Danny & Co, well ...

And we're not even talking about the experience of the young men who say they were propositioned ... that's as bad or worse! (Does anyone here know any male that would make something like that up? I don't, no matter how much one man has against another!)

We'll have to wait until things are more firmly established than the hearsay that apparently was broadcast over the airwaves tonight ...

I hope Linda's letter calling for the opening of evidence is heeded, then the spin machine will finally slow down ...

Vhy are you so sure that the leadership of 3abn is pure has the driven snow?

would add that linda has ask for the truth to come forward so bring lets get this mess done with )efore 3 abn is in fact destroyed by current leadership, if at this point they have nothing to hide then )ut out the proof now that linda has called them out, if they do not then all will see that the leadership

\letheia, you are right. Conscience has to be our guide. The big problem that I am facing is ;ummarized in James 3:11 where James asks, "Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet vater and bitter?"

believe that many souls have been saved through the work of 3ABN, and I want that to continue.
\nd yet we see a leader who, on one hand appears to be saving souls and yet on the other hand ippears to have a very dark side.

You need to get a new straw man, Cindy; this one is worn out. Lurkers and readers would be mindful to read the first several chapters of the book of 1st Samuel; there we have a very similar situation of ministers living contrary to the law of God with the minister who was supposed to have oversight of them unwilling to execute that fiduciary duty and reprove them because of his personal connection to them... we know that all of the ministers connected to the overall ministry were not corrupt and we know that, in spite of their flaws, their ministry bore some fruit for it was under their ministry that Hannah's prayer was heard and God opened her womb and she bore Samuel...

So just as with 3abn, there are ministers with issues that put them at variance with God and in spite of those issues there are people who have derived blessing under that ministry...

But in 1st Sam, that derived blessing did not remove the stench of those minister's sins from the nostrils of God... and in the fullness of time they paid for said sin with their lives.

In spite of that derived blessing God did not leave those people in place who were, in spite of the derived blessing, not faithful to God in their daily walk because their personal unfaithfulness reached the point to where they desecrated the tabernacle of God.

You keep straining at Gnats and swallowing camels, Cindy... and you keep showing yourself unwilling or unable to see that you are doing it.

Yes... walk away from rumors... like the ones Cindy states above. Demand proof of BOTH sides and you will find that one side of this has neither a problem nor any hesitation to provide the basis for what they allege... and the other claims to have proof repeatedly... yet has not produced any... ever...

So who is bent on bringing down 3abn? The people pointing out the sins of it's leadership or the ones doing the sinning?

Those advocating that we encourage people to go to the Hope Channel are only doing so as a tool to facilitate changes at 3abn.

ichard, he truth is if the concern was only sins, and preserving the ministry then it would have been handled iblically and privately.

ublishing alleged sins and grievous wrongs to the world is not how our Church was told to handle hings. Of course it hurts the ministry. Scandal always does.

alling for people to stop sending donations, and warning them about doing so based on unproven and nfounded accusations, calling stations and cable companies, and asking them to take 3ABN off, or how Hope instead, is not how to save the ministry, it is how you destroy it.

understand you are saying the purpose as far as you are concerned is to bring about change that you ee needs to be made, bUT Jesus said do it another way, Period. Neither He or the apostles did this vith the Scribes or Pharisees or the Jewish religion , they did not try to bring down or force change. Nor did our Adventist Pioneers ever engage in such when dealing with error and sin.

od and his people don't use coersion or attempt to force their will on others, they rebuke and reprove nd let the holy spirit do the convicting. Satan attempts to force the conscience and will, and those eceived by him do as well.

nd good intentions can NEVER justify wrong acts.

he road to hell is paved with good intentions. The ends do not justify the means.

ll this is antichrist methods and tactics, you see them used for 1260 years during the dark ages, and hey are alive and well today.

understood what Murray said last night. Satan uses any means whatsoever, as he is not limitted by he law of love in what he can do in this spiritual War. God and his people take the higher road and so on't have as much resources at their disposal (the bottom line however is God wins in the end for his vays are right)

ABN did not name individuals, while of necessity addressing the issues last night, as they have eached the point where all this slander and allegations are hurting the ministry itself, and they have o make a stand before the ministry is destroyed and God's message be limitted or hurt, but they still id so in a a Christlike and caring way that the accusers have NEVER given them.

lot once did they reply defensively of self, not once did they lift up self, it was all about God's work, nd the people they are reaching and trying to reach, they defended a ministry of God and gave him he glory.

appreciated that.

letheia, I want to believe you're a person of goodwill who is just misinformed. There's a lot of ocumented evidence, stuff we've all seen firsthand (3ABN publications or letters, etc.) in which anny went about slandering his ex-wife and saying she committed adultery. Tell me ... was that hristlike? Was that Matthew 18?

his is happening now because the powers at 3ABN refused to respond to Christ's methods. But that oesn't mean that we should let wrongs continue. "Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of arkness, but rather expose them." (Eph 5:11) ot everything that has been said against 3ABN on this site has been in a good spirit, nor has all that as been said against its defenders--including by me. There's no excuse for that--but there's also no xcuse for ignoring the firsthand accounts that appear here and on save3abn.com, some of them with ames attached. If you want to consider all of it a "he said she said" thing, that's okay--but be repared to have your own point of view treated the same way.

he pieces fit, what those who work or have worked there say, and the young men who say they were ropositioned by Tommy--I believe them because it fits together way better than 3ABN's defense.

ell, since a lot of that donated money went to buy horses and a private jet, maybe pulling the plug n the gravy train (how's that for a mixed metaphor?) is the only way to get their attention. 3ABN is ot going to go under just because "donations are down."

s far as "unproven and unfounded," again--read here and at save3abn.com. If you choose not to elieve, that's up to you, but if you follow the train of logic you can see why some of us believe there's good cause to believe there are real problems--sins--at 3ABN that need to go away permanently.

Well, I guess people see things differently. I didn't watch because I didn't have time, but what I heard about the show didn't surprise me. It sounds like more of what I have seen.

I get my hackles up when someone starts talking about "The Lord showed me this, and the Lord showed me that"--because that means I can't disagree with them or I'm going against the Lord. In other words, they say that, but if Scripture or even just plain good sense tells me something else, was it really the Lord who told them?

"Many will say to Me on that day, 'Lord, Lord' ... and I will tell them, 'I never knew you.'" Matthew 7:22-23.

I really believe that if it's the Lord's work Danny & Co are about, they would have stepped aside, let the ministry to someone else, and faced the music until all the notes had finished playing--until the fat lady was finished. If they had, this could have been handled privately, in the spirit of Matthew 18 and the rest of Christ's teachings, and we wouldn't be having this conversation.

Jesus and the leaders of Israel. He teached them, He argued with them, He warned about them, He rebuked them. They went away and plotted to kill him.

The apostles and the leaders of Israel after Jesus left earth. They teached them, they argued with them, they took a clear stand for God. The leaders of Israel persecuted them.

The apostles and trouble among them selves. They teached, they warned, they carried out the corpses.

> . . . Well, since a lot of that donated money went to buy horses and a private jet, . . .

One of the things that seems so out of whack in all of this on BSDA are the comments such as the one you made here. Yes, it is true Danny has horses, no one denys this fact. What no one has been able to offer evidence to is that Danny used funds from 3ABN's budget to purchase these horses. Now, it might be argued from a technical aspect that since Danny is paid his salary by 3ABN that he then bought them with 3ABN money. Of course anyone can see that is a ridiculous argument. Unless someone can show an accounting, or receipt, there is no proof whatsoever that Danny purchased his horses with funds from 3ABN coffers that were intended to sustain the ministry.

Secondly, the plane, as has been stated on BSDA many times, is leased and is not owned by 3ABN much less Danny himself. I would be curious to find out how many ministries (of all denominations) own or lease a jet that is used by the leaders of that ministry. Is it that far fetched an idea? There is also the fact that many times donations are made by individuals that are provided with specific requirements. For instance, on last nights program it was pointed out that an individual donated 60K dollars and required that it be used for community projects. Every large organization within a community does this kind of thing - and I believe it is even more appropriate for a ministry of the Adventist church to do this.

The "claim" that Danny bought horses with 3ABN money has been floating around so long that it has become understood as "fact" without one shred of evidence to support it. This is what so many of us on the other side decry.

> QUOTE(SoulEspresso @ Feb 16 2007, 09:27 AM)

Am I to understand then, that because something appears here and/or on save3abn.com that it is absolute truth, verified, based on strong factual evidence, and has been corroborated by multiple individuals?

It isn't a matter of believing. It is a matter of reading, then seeking the other side of the story. Then weighing in the balance the fruits of actions. Many keep saying look at the fruits. When one does that they see one side that has claimed they will not do anything to make public the foundations for their decision - not because it doesn't exist, but because they don't want others to suffer the public humiliation and pain that would result. Yes, I know that yesterday Linda asked for the evidence to be released in her preemptive letter. I would look the leaders of 3ABN in the eye today and tell them to go ahead and heed her request. She will bear the responsibility for the results of that and if she is ready, willing and able to do so - then by all means do so (and I believe they will as part of the legal actions that will ensue).

You have said you don't think there are many who would like to see 3ABN disappear. What then are we to do with the calls to stop giving, to petition local providers to remove 3ABN from their lineups and most egregiously these comments from Mr. Galion A. Joy himself posted on the save3an site?

"Will require very aggressive litigation team but assets of the ministry, it's founder and directors are substantial." (http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-corruption-litigation-gerry-spence-01.htm)

"In my experience, strong possibility of recovery from jury demand and believe we have documentary foundation for punitive damages" (http://www.save3abn.com/danny-shelton-corruption-litigation-gerry-spence-01.htm)

So the very site that claims it exists to "save" the ministry for God has petitioned a high power attorney to assist in draining it of its financial resources. This along with other comments made here and on Gailon's site indicate that there are a significant number who do desire to see 3ABN disappear. Their desire is to take a ministry that has reached tens of thousands of people with the love of God and the message of His soon return and the joy that each one of us can be carried away in the clouds - and shut it down.

> So was it the high road for Danny to destroy Linda's reputation without proving his accusations? Well, I guess people see things differently.

This is true, many of us do see things differently. There are those who do not see Linda's spin on things as being honest or forthright. I am curious, what would you have 3ABN and Danny do? Individuals asked what happened and 3ABN responded in the best way they felt they could. If there is even a glimmer of truth to the accusations of unfaithful behavior on her part, if there is even one piece of evidence that proves the claims of infidelity, would you rather have 3ABN make that public and permanently end her opportunities to minister? That isn't the way God would handle it. The woman at the well for instance was brought to the realization of her nature and God then sent her on her way to minister to those in her life. He did that over and over again. 3ABN by not releasing their evidence to the wolves did just that, allowed Linda to move on, make her life decisions and build a ministry that she could reach others through.

I know of the cries made here that she has been kept from being able to appear in certain churches but haven't seen any evidence that substantiates this - only the "I heard", "Someone told me", or "It was brought to my attention" as a means to found the accusations. Clay challenged me to ask my pastor if Linda could appear at our church. I will be asking my pastor this weekend. My gut reaction is that he will not say no. He may leave it to the church board to decide, but he will not say no. Linda is freely making the rounds in many places she is not being kept from building a ministry.

The "small group" chose this path that everyone involved is on at this point. They have pushed and demanded and claimed that only their rules will be played by. 3ABN has made the decision to, to some degree, go ahead and play by those rules set forth by the "small group" - thus last nights program and the coming actions it hinted toward. For those who want the facts laid out on the table it seems as if that day is coming - but will you be open minded enough to accept the truth when it is revealed?

Many of us fully agree with allowing the conscience be ones guide. And, your point about James 3:11 is on the money. Also, while it is true that God can use anything, (didn't He say He can make the rocks cry out?), as a "tool" to draw men and women to Him, that does not mean the "tool" being used has any ability to save souls.

With that said, it is wise to keep in mind that neither 3ABN, which is a means to an end, nor any man connected to that means is able to save himself, much less anyone else. It is just a thought.

which is a lie.... not all the accusations are a lie.... they do have a jet plane.... they did employ Tommy Shelton who has a history of molestation, they did railroad Linda with no proof seen by anyone impartial.... in fact not even seen by her.....

Danny did say that the allegations against his brother were terrible, and that they were criminal.... if the allegations are correct, then his brother is the criminal....

I want 3abn to be successful, but last night was scary. It was nothing but propangda nothing was gained by 3abn he only made more people aware of the problem. It looks like BSDA is begining to have an impact.

I don't understand why Danny just can't tell us his side of the Story. The only reason I figure is that he is guilty of the charges against him.

Fact: What was said was 3ABN has been doing better the last couple of years, and last year they did recieve more than ever, to expand and spread the ministry and the gospel, BUT during the past few months due to the increasing attacks and accusations, donations and funding have dropped.

What was also said, and it makes sense, is the way to fight the destruction of 3ABN and help, is to show your support, financially, as prayer warriors and by actions. Make donations, call your local stations and cable companies and thank them for broadcasting 3ABN, or if it's not available ask that it be included.

Greetings!

There's a lot here to respond to. If you feel I'm dodging, please let me know. I'll try to hit the major points.

A lot of what we have on the Internet, by its very nature, is hearsay--which I mean in a legal sense. One person says one thing, another says another--which is legally correct, in a court of law, has to be decided in that place. Until then which side any of us believes ought to depend on the evidence and credibility of the sources rather than a priori likes and dislikes of 3ABN.

I find the people who post here, that work or have worked at 3ABN, to be more credible than their detractors and the snipers who come after them on the boards.

There is no proof that he didn't, is there? Any idea how much it costs to own a horse, annually? This is a publically available general fact. If someone gave him the horses, did they also agree to pay for upkeep? It's possible, I know people do this for people in ministry.

Nobody working for the Adventist church that I know of leases a plane for their denominational travel, unless it's geographically necessary (Alaska for example)--and that's not usually a jet. Leasing is certainly cheaper than owning, but that doesn't make it cheap--not to mention hangar space, the pay of the pilots, fuel costs (!) ... denominational workers generally fly on commercial jets for a reason: it's more responsible use of God's money.

It's (in a legal sense) hearsay, but which witnesses are credible depends on this:

Exactly. I've read a lot on here, and I think you probably have too because I saw your name a lot when I first joined. If we come to different conclusions, that's okay as long as we can disagree agreeably.

I'm not pleased with the fruit I see at 3ABN. In other words, the word of those opposed to the current leadership at the channel is more coherent and believable than that of its defenders.

> Individuals asked what happened and 3ABN responded in the best way they felt they could. If there is even a glimmer of truth to the accusations of unfaithful behavior on her part, if there is even one piece of evidence that proves the claims of infidelity, would you rather have 3ABN make that public and permanently end her opportunities to minister? That isn't the way God would handle it. The woman at the well for instance was brought to the realization of her nature and God then sent her on her way to minister to those in her life. He did that over and over again. 3ABN by not releasing their evidence to the wolves did just that, allowed Linda to move on, make her life decisions and build a ministry that she could reach others through.

This is where I'm tempted to anger, FHB. It was 3ABN that accused Linda in the first place. This is public record, it's not hearsay in any sense. They didn't release evidence to the wolves--they released allegations to the public.

Anyway, proof of adultery doesn't mean the end of ministry. Sandy Patty showed us that.

> The "small group" chose this path that everyone involved is on at this point. They have pushed and demanded and claimed that only their rules will be played by. 3ABN has made the decision to, to some degree, go ahead and play by those rules set forth by the "small group" - thus last nights program and the coming actions it hinted toward. For those who want the facts laid out on the table it seems as if that day is coming - but will you be open minded enough to accept the truth when it is revealed?

Sure. Will you?

FHB,

The comparing linda to the women at the well is at best misleading, for starters that lady at 5 husbands, and was living with some other guy.

Linda has been married twice, and is now living alone.

Secondly Jesus lead her to salvation, from what is known at this time linda is been lead to salavtion by that same jesus.

If they had, this could have been handled privately, in the spirit of Matthew 18 and the rest of Christ's teachings, and we wouldn't be having this conversation.

This really is the bottom line. Even if Danny & C. are innocent, for the sake of God's cause they should have stepped aside long ago to prevent injury to God's work. Of course human nature is such that no one wants to leave what they have worked so long and hard to build. No one wants to face the fearful unknown of unemployment etc. If it comes down to a question of God's cause versus our cause though, every Christian must decide for God. Every Christian must trust that God will defend them and vindicate them and refuse to take up arms in a battle that will only hinder God's work and not advance it. To divorce your spouse and re-marry while all the issues surrounding these actions are still in question should prohibit someone from holding church office, let alone leadership of a worldwide/high-profile ministry. Being under the cloud of unresolved sexual abuse charges should likewise prohibit the holding of a leadership position.
Unfortunately, in the case of a television ministry the personalities become equated with the ministry. There is an inordinate emphasis on personalities. It can even develop into a "personality cult" - especially if the leaders take on "annointed, chosen of God, prophetic" status. The temptation is for the personalities to think that the ministry could no longer exist without them. Whenever we think that God's work cannot continue without us we are engaging in righteousness by works.

It is strange how you portray yourself as a person that is detached from the situation. You say you don't know Dan personally, but post things like the above statement that insinuate you are much closer.

(Nevermind that this statement is absolutely FALSE! There are several people who call him Dan, myself being one. You can check my previous posts. You claim to know one, so that makes two. Mollie also calls Danny by "Dan" as well as several others at the station. Of course, I don't have signed depositions for proof.)

Right--even if the charges are false! Life isn't fair, and it won't be fair for them to have to step down if these allegations really are all false. It'd be tremendously painful. But it's still the right thing to do.

Step down, Danny. If you step down, you're really standing up ... for Jesus.

That's just what's happened in some of my churches. It's called idolatry, and it is a sin.

t seems as if you will get your wish. If 3ABN is truly willing to enter into legal action, they do so with he intent of presenting their evidence in court. This of course will mean waiting as evidence is exchanged between the two sides and strategy is planned out. So, we will not be seeing it any time soon I would image - but it is obvious it will be known.

HB,

F the Proof is so solid why has 3abn waited and waited to release it, and is now by your own words vaiting to release it until they get into court.

HB, there are two courts in the modern world one is the legal court the rules there fairly clear, but hen there is the court of public option the rules there are even less clear, and i might add often the ulings by these courts is different.

would think that 3abn would be much more interested int he court of public option, thent he ruling of udge somewhere. They could easily win before judge, and still lose before the people.

I am afraid you misunderstood. I wasn't comparing Linda to the woman at the well. I was refering to the story in terms of Christ's actions - not making a huge public display of someones wrong doings. Instead he kept His knowledge of her wrongs between them only and then sent her on to speak of God's love to others. He didn't make a public display and see moved on and ministered to others.

Luke chapter 7... how did Christ deal with the error in thought and deed of Simon the Pharisee? He pointed to the loving act of the woman of Nain and juxtaposed her actions against Simon's disrespect and haughty thinking... in public

You can only say that Christ handled each situation in the manner He knew it should be handled... which meant sometimes he did it privately... and sometimes He did not... cherry-picking a single instance and putting it forth as the only way Christ handled things is not rightly dividing the word.

God has used programs broadcast on 3ABN to speak to people. In that way, souls have undoubtedly been saved.

That's a long step from crediting administrators such as Dan or Mollie with those souls saved. In many cases they had nothing to do with the soul-saving programs, other than providing the broadcast venue, like any other TV station, whether secular or Christian.

And in cases where they did have something to do with the program, let's remember that God can use asses, if need be. I've seen Him use the sermons of evangelists who were totally corrupt, leaving the ministry and God shortly after those sermons. Should the evangelists get the credit or should God get the credit? And God's use of a person or ass or stones, for that matter, does not justify those persons, asses or stones, IMO. Others' take on the matter may differ.

You just don't get it...

Jesus answered and reproved Simon before others,as Simon erred in front of those others and was speaking to him when he did it.

Jesus did not go out to the nearest multitude and say " Do you know what that self-righteous and judgmental Pharisee said, and did?" Nor did Jesus run up and down among the people saying Simon needs to be removed from his postition as a Pharisee, and turn it into a public spectacle because Simon spoke in his house in front of others.. It was none of their business.

Nor was it any of those strangers business to reprove or say anything to Simon, they weren't there and they witnessed nothing.

For once, Aletheia, I agree with you whole-heartedly. ☐ I just think you've missed the primary application.

One of the biggest things I see wrong with the current 3ABN culture is precisely what you address above -- the use of power to coerce folks into agreeing with the leadership. Some of this is clearly spiritual abuse -- as the recent "corporate worship." In other cases, the abuse of employees continues after these employees leave 3ABN's employ. The attempt to keep Linda from speaking at various churches is merely the tip of the iceberg. 4

You also appear to say that you believe the end does not justify the means. I wholeheartedly agree, and that's why it bothers me so much that Danny appears to justify his actions towards Linda, towards this step-daugher, towards ex-employees, as well as his cover-up of sexual molestation charges against his brother on the basis of 'the good 3ABN has done." He regularly cites this "good" as proof that he's not done anything wrong -- both in private and in public. 7

Thus, as you so clearly point out, 3ABN's pattern of behavior does not meet the standards of Christ. Thank you for this.

They are showing the same program that was shown last night. If you cannot get it on your TV you might be able to get it on your computers, like I do by going to 3ABN.com.

Please people, put aside preconceived ideas and opinions formed from the words of others which does not bear good fruit. Ask that the Holy Spirit help you to discern His truth for yourself.

heck yourself! what is being done here is not the same as God's word being given by inspiration to is people as a guidebook and revelation of his character and will.

od's written word does not make void, the words deeds and character of the Word made flesh, or his xample to us!

> Nor was it any of those strangers business to reprove or say anything to Simon, they weren't there and they witnessed nothing.

ou again presume that Simon had an intimate little soiree with he and Jesus and a few close riends... if that was the case that woman could not have gotten in. While everyone that was there as not invited to eat, those eating were not the only ones there. The common practice in that day as when someone of some renown was invited to a meal that those not invited to eat were welcome o stand against the walls with the servants and observe the conversation at dinner. There were many f the city there when Jesus reproved Simon for being an inhospitable host by using the example of he woman deemed the vilest sinner in Nain...

BTW, maybe you should familiarize yourself with Matthew chapter 23, if you think Jesus called no one out publicly...

Not to mention Paul did call people out publicly... and named names; it's in the bible. If you believe the bible where it says that what is in scripture is of no private interpretation but rather tha holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost... and Jesus said of that same Holy Ghost that "he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak" and that "He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you."

Then the things the Holy Ghost moved Paul to write that are contained in scripture are the things that Jesus told the Holy Ghost. Every prophet that called out every sinful and wicked leader of Israel that was disobedient to God did so at the prompting of the Holy Ghost... and again, the Holy Ghost only deals in the things Jesus tells Him, and speaks not of Himself...

So, you are wrong... again... the fact is, as long as there has been sin in the world, Jesus has called men out publicly...whether before His incarnation, during His incarnation or after His ascension into heaven. In some instances He did it Himself; in most, He has used men as His instruments to speak truth to power.

f I remember correctly, didn't he even claim not to remember what the allegations were?

Vhat caught my attention last night was the effort to disassociate Adventist Today with the Seventh-lay Adventist church. Not being real familiar with the sructure or internal workings of the church, can omeone tell me how 3ABN's affiliation with the church compares to Adventist Today's affiliation with he church? My take-away was that 3ABN tried hard to point out that Adventist Today is not officially ffiliated, but is 3ABN any more affiliated? Help!

Vhen it suits 3ABN they play up the fact that they are not run by the church... implying that they are ot beholden to the church... at other times they try to blur the lines of distinction between they and he church... often at times when donations are being sought or, like last night, when they are seeking o discredit.

ABN is no more or less a part of the church than AToday... where they abut the church is largely on pposite ends (hence the term 'liberal' being bandied about by some of the Danny apologists; the ulk of the 3abn viewing and giving audience would be considered entrenched in the conservative ving of the church) but both have associations and affiliations with the church and speak for a specific omponent within the church... but neither is run by the General Conference of Seventh-day dventists.

Snoopy they aren't SDA as such either. This is off 3ABN's web site.

3ABN is not owned, operated or funded by any church, denomination or organization, so people from all cultures and backgrounds appreciate 3ABN programming. Many of 3ABN's employees and volunteers are members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

So does it make sense to try to discredit Adventist Today for not being affiliated with the church when 3ABN is not affiliated either?? hhhmmm... I have a fairly logical mind, I think, but I'm struggling with that one...

They were simply saying that many see the word "Adventist" on Adventist today, and assume everything in it must be official and the truth. Which of course is not true as Adventist Today is not an official magazine of the SDA organization or Church, it is independantly own and ran.

Apparently 3ABN has had problems with their reporting even before the latest article. (the piano story being one example they gave) I myself have had serious problems with many things AT has written and published over the years so I am not suprised.

Sorry, this is long but I felt the need to say it. Just skip my post if you want to - I don't mind. I have been stewing over this all day after that program last night. It concerns me very much that people are willing (WILLING) to be deceived. The devil has done good. He has it going on in our very midst where we will find it the hardest to see. Think on that.

Snoopy, you caught that right. In fact, it was "those that SAY" they are adventist....he was in effect deciding who was real adventism and who is not, and that comes by way of not criticizing 3abn. As Dan made sure to say "we have talked to church officials..." and so he is trying to paint the picture (be careful now, not to be deceived) that HE is with the CHURCH and those other things (websites and magazines that SAY they are SDA) are not affiliated...all the while, NEITHER IS HE. Look what his own website says. So when it's convenient you hint at affiliation and when it's not, you separate. Hmmm.

My take on Danny and his cohorts is this; only a couple probably KNOW that DS has stretched things, created innuendo (along with other "facts") and spent a lot of time convincing people that what he says is true - and well, we don't want to hurt anyone,and I'm sure that Walt believes this too???? He knew Danny wanted Linda out - and he knows DS well enough to know how stubborn and determined he is when he wants something...does Walt look like the kind of person that stands in Dans way?? The rest have BOUGHT his story, and that includes board members. Remember, HE TALKS AND TALKS and they listen and accept. Simple, isn't it. Do you think ANYONE questions him? In a word NO. Simple again, isn't it. Dan and the rest are simply very confused about 3abn=Danny Shelton. They can and should be separated, and if he loved people and the ministry, he would give it up....but since he feels he is the MOST important thing walking, and it IS all about HIM, he can defend holding his position by staying right where he is, and using those people around him to fight his fight for him - because they have been deceived and believe him. My prayer this morning was that they would be convicted - be willing to listen and act according to what the Holy Spirit shows them, and pray they have not sought after self promotion so much that they are unwilling to have the scales fall from their own eyes. They need to do their own investigation for truth. I would guess they are afraid of what they will find. They are all in deep now, with every program they commit themselves more. Makes it

Danny has made this a HUGE mess. HE has done it. NOT 3abn. But, it is very clear he is willing to take 3abn down with him, and also those he has dupped to "help him" to keep from any accountability. They are blind (some of them) and he has pushed the right religious buttons on each person, as well as those who watch, hearing what their itchy ears want to hear. I have never heard as many opposites from a man as I did last night. Almost everything he said was not true - it was opposite. He has spun things. He will continue to until the Lord puts an end to this. How patient is our God. But, all things work together, don't they? So, everyone keep doing what you also feel convicted to do - share and tell, lead people to information so they can make up their minds. I don't care that DS is willing to drag my church through the mud, because he isn't the first, and certainly not the last, and I hope that people realize that it's about GOD and truth, and NOT a man named Danny Shelton.

The ends NEVER justify the means. Be sure your sins will find you out....we all sin, but consequences can be more seroius in some situations, especially if you continue to live this type of life style with no remorse, intent to change,accountabilty or repentance. And trashing another person(s) for the sake of uplifting himself, feeding the ego, control, jealousy, pride, while supplying a network that shows programs that may be used by the Holy Spirit to lead people to Jesus is still not an ordained combination by our Lord. Jesus did not walk this kind of walk. Yet it seems ok for DS to???

Some of this is clearly spiritual abuse -- as the recent "corporate worship." In other cases, the abuse of employees continues after these employees leave 3ABN's employ. The attempt to keep Linda from speaking at various churches is merely the tip of the iceberg.

> You also appear to say that you believe the end does not justify the means. I wholeheartedly agree, and that's why it bothers me so much that Danny appears to justify his actions towards Linda, towards this step-daugher, towards ex-employees, as well as his cover-up of sexual molestation charges against his brother on the basis of 'the good 3ABN has done." He regularly cites this "good" as proof that he's not done anything wrong -- both in private and in public.

FHB while it's true that sometimes a donor specifies what certain money is used for there is nothing that says an organization has to accept the gift. If you lease a plane you are still paying for it and it's still expensive. No one has forced that jet on Danny.

I've never heard of any SDA org owning or flying a jet, some have used piston twins. I know the Georgia Cumberland Conference has had a couple. (Unfortunately the last one they owned ended up in trees with serious loss of life). If it made economic sense for them to do so they would, but it does not. Somewhere on here it was stated that the Citation VI is leased for $40,000 per month, and that does not include hanger space, pilots, jet fuel, insurance, hourly fees etc.

I would be curious to find out how many ministries (of all denominations) own or lease a jet that is used by the leaders of that ministry. Is it that far fetched an idea? There is also the fact that many times donations are made by individuals that are provided with specific requirements. For instance, on last nights program it was pointed out that an individual donated 60K dollars and required that it be used for community projects. Every large organization within a community does this kind of thing - and I believe it is even more appropriate for a ministry of the Adventist church to do this.

They had two jets at the same time for around two years, and sold the one they owned (a Mitsubishi) around May of 2004, leaving them with the one jet that is leased.

The Mitsubishi Diamond was purchased just before 9/11. Then the Citation6 was leased after. The Citation was a little bigger, had a longer range so there as no need to stop for gas on coast to caost trips, and it has a nicer bathroom.

Oh Fran, so very clever. I am sure you are clever enough to know that the word in my hurried post was "planned" - I will give you the benefit of the doubt for being sharp enough to know that.

You will see the evidence Fran, as I assume you will be sitting in the front row at any court proceedings. Now for the "obvious" - well as all signs point to legal proceedings, and since legal proceedings require evidentiary support, let's see, yes obviously the evidence will be presented.

Since when does evidence have to be "certified" by anyone. The claims are made, the evidence presented, the arguments made, the judge or jury rules.

Erik,

As was mentioned by the individuals on the broadcast aired last night. They had no desire to release anything that would have caused anyone any more hardship than existed because of the divorce and the subsequent working separation - so they didn't parade it around. Had Linda pushed right back into a ministry of her design and calling she would no doubt have a thriving ministry today. She chose not to, instead demanding evidence - knowing that the God fearing Christians doing God's biding at 3ABN wouldn't do anything to hurt her. They had to offer some explanation for the change as questions began to flow in - they did the best they could and no doubt after long seasons of prayer.

It is my feeling that it has been her incessant demands that have lead things to where they are today. I believe the fact that everyone seems on the brink of legal battles is a direct result of Linda's actions since the divorce.

You are indeed correct there are two earthly courts. Maybe 3ABN will win in the courts of the land and lose in the court of public opinion - however, I believe this ministry will come through the trials of fire and God will use it to make one final thrust to show the world the love, forgiveness, and fairness of His ways. No man should seek a positive outcome in the court of public opinion - humans are fickle and the world does not seek God's truth. The court of public opinion has chosen as it representatives Paris Hilton, Anna Nichole Smith, Hollywood, greed and avarice - why would anyone want to have the positive adulation of the court of public opinion.

What matters most is the sight of God. I read here in the past day or two that someone was upset or tired of 3ABN reading the letters of those whose lives have been changed by the words they have heard on the programming - how odd, how very odd that this would be seen as a negative thing. Since its inception 3ABN has shared the letters and stories of those God touched through a sermon, a cooking show, a children's program so that we could all rejoice and know that God is reaching many through 3ABN. He also reaches lives through a myriad of media outlets, publications, and individuals all dedicated to doing His biding.

No one, not you, me, the BoD of 3ABN, the GC, the administration of 3ABN has a life that is spotless. We all have sinned and fallen short. Our church is lead by a man who has a sinful past - is there any doubt? We all have one. If the sinless were responsible for leading God's work on earth the halls of the GC and every church in the world would be silent. No one has presented Danny faultless, least of all himself - is there a transcript, an email, a voice mail, a note scrawled on a napkin where the man claimed to have never erred in his life. No. But, what there is, is a track record of twenty years of working diligently to insure that 3ABN would reach every corner of the earth. There is a track record of fighting for God and His message. In the wake of this twenty years of dedication to the work of God are thousands and thousands of souls whose eyes and ears were open at just the right time for the words of Doug Bachelor or C.A. Murry, or John Dinzey, or the songs of the kids on Kids Time to enter in and be the kindling for the Holy Spirit to work with.

Go ahead, tear Danny apart. He said last night himself that the ministry doesn't need him. Danny is an imperfect man with a heart for the Lord - and a tenacious desire to see the message of God's saving love spoken in every ear on the earth. No one worships him. Does he resonate with some people - absolutely, just as Doug Bachelor does, or Mark Finley does, or Shawn Boonstra does, or T. Marshall Kelly does, or Whintley Phipps does.

In the end the truth will be made known, the evidence will be presented, and will this fight have brought one soul closer to the gates of heaven? If the evidence proves undeniably that there was unfaithfulness on the part of Linda, will that make it easier or harder for her to found a ministry? God allows us to make mistakes and move on, we are the ones who get in the way and slow the process down. Could God have been using Linda all these years to ministry to the heartbroken - I think probably. The argument will arise - but people have stopped her. Is God not stronger than "people?" Can God not overcome? If Linda wanted to minister nothing stood in her way that God could not handle. Nothing! We limit ourselves, we limit our usefulness in God's hands by our own poor decision making. Decision making that is not done on our knees, but in the heat of the moment when we allow the pain Satan brings into our lives to blind us to the leading of our Saviour.

Nothing stands in Linda's way as long as she stands with her hand in the hand of her Saviour. Nothing stands in Danny's way as long as he stands with his hand in the hand of his Saviour. And, it is that Saviour who knows the heart of each of them, and each one of us.

FHB said:

Fran says:

Is this, "A promise," or "A threat"?

You must have used Spell Check this time around! No fair!

One question: Will I get to sit on "Your Side" or the "Other Side?"

Maybe you meant the "Front Row of the Jury Box ? ? ? ?"

What exactly ARE the charges, by the way?

Linda is responsible for the Pastor Tommy Shelton controversy, too?

This is just more of the "blame it all on Linda" campaign coming from Central Control in Hooterville. It didn't work in the past and it is not working now. You and the other apologists at Central Control need a new game plan.

And as for Linda's ministry. If both the pastor in Columbia, South Carolina and Dr. Mable Dunbar received phone calls from John Lomacang at Central Control, trying to discourage anyone from supporting Linda and her ministry, then I think it is fair to say Linda has gotten some hinderance to her ministry. So, I think you're wrong there, too, about Linda's situation regarding her ministry. 4

However, I do think that all of this was never supposed to see the light of day. I think both Danny Shelton and John Lomacang have grossly overestimated their own self-importance and their own cleverness down there in Hooterville.

As I mentioned, get back to Central Control in Hooterville and tell them they need to give you a new game plan and a new spin on how Linda is responsible for everything under the sun, including Tommy getting his ministerial credentials revoked back in 1985.

Incessant demands? The woman's gag order was just lifted at the end of December and she has not spoken publically until now.

The brink of legal battles was brought upon all through the actions of Danny Shelton and Co. They are the ones who are sending out threatening letters from a host of lawyers, not Linda.

And I agree with Pete, what does Linda have to do with the allegations against Tommy Shelton?

....and these are not the only people who were called...no worries FHB, the list will most likely be available at some point, but not yet as to protect the innocent.

But, lets not forget, THEY, the thoughtful board and her wonderful soon to be exhusband, wanted to "protect" Linda, you know, not tell the truth so she could go on with her life...oh, wait, but not ministry?? Was that the new from-a-distance "control" over her now? This kind of "thoughtfulness" together with a 2.5 year contract that didn't allow her to talk about anything (what kinds of things would that be that you would not want someone to talk about???) was helping her go on with her life, you must be kidding that all this is happening now because of LINDA? Do they really think people are this naive and ignorant? What is there to hide?

If Linda is inviting release of all such evidence he says he has, then I guess he should "hurt" her even though he has said he doesn't want to do that (and said on the airwaves no less). What does she have to lose? Would anyone invite such an exposure if they were not confident of their past? He is at risk of looking like a liar even to those around him he has convinced. They all will look as fools who just accepted without asking all the questions and using the proper judgement of what was told/presented to them. But then some were delighted at her departure...ever wonder why?

You learn in life that if you make an issue of something, it becomes an issue. Danny has made an issue of this by stopping Linda from going on with her life and slandering her. I wonder what would have happened if he would have left her alone, let go, and moved on....what kind of bee does he have in his shorts that he couldn't let go and be the christian he claims to be, wait, the anointed one he claims to be?

don't know who is right and who is lying when it comes to Linda committing adultery. I wasn't there.

disagree. Danny/3abn did want to do this quietly. They would have liked nothing better than to erase ıll evidence of Linda ever being there and never make mention of her again. This by the way, this is vhat they attempted to do. But then Linda fought back with her website, discussion boards provided he venue for open and public discussion ...or should I say BSDA did, now save3abn.com and the \today article. They where forced to respond with the public letters and this broadcast. They had little :hoice. This has been a public relations nightmare for them. With all the emails, letters, phone calls to 3abn from their donors and viewers it was more practice to respond publicly than to continue to ıddress each inquiry separately. All the time hoping that each public response will silent his critics, but ›nly raises more questions. He is really between the proverbial rock and a hard place.

'he AToday article was particularly damaging. 3abn spend a lot of time discrediting AToday on the ›roadcast. But AToday is not to be dismissed; they are the leading independent Adventist news ›ublication with a broad reach among Adventist. I don't believe the broadcast would have taken place ›ut for the AToday article.

)anny spoke repeatedly about the rumors on the Internet. Danny underestimated the power of instant :ommunication, collaboration, and influence the Internet brings to bear...and Danny can't control it, ıor will threats of law suits control the outcry. He also underestimated the influence that Linda had on he ministry and the support for her. Maybe he thought 3abn was all about him and he was big :nough to fill her absences.

'olks we are making a difference here. People are paying attention.

i Calvin,
don't like to disagree with the boss, but I do have one itty bitty comment!

ABN did try and did succeed in wiping Linda off of the network, but it has been a weekly bashing ever ince. I was there just a few days after Linda was booted out and watched (with many, many others) vhile Dan made a special segment where he announced what had happened. You know, the one with he tears and all. It started there and has spiraled out of control!

believe the board wanted to do it quietly, but Dan's pride eats at him, so when he gets on camera t's a Linda hate-fest all over again.

orry, JMO.

rofl You never have to apology for disagreeing with me. I hope everyone can recognize my nember voice from my administrator voice.

Vow, I had no ideal of the bashing behind the scenes.

Posted by: SoulEspresso Feb 18 2007, 01:37 AM

I did not get a chance to view the program.

But you raise a good point about fruits--if all or even some of the people the Lord used 3ABN to win are turned off to spiritual things by all these allegations, that's tragic. If the allegations are false, it's the propagators of such that are wrong. But if it's Danny & Co, well ...

And we're not even talking about the experience of the young men who say they were propositioned ... that's as bad or worse! (Does anyone here know any male that would make something like that up? I don't, no matter how much one man has against another!)

We'll have to wait until things are more firmly established than the dissembling and denial that apparently was broadcast over the airwaves tonight ...

I hope Linda's letter calling for the opening of evidence is heeded, then the spin machine will finally slow down ...

A few comments on some excellent points:

1) From the very beginning, 3-ABN has mishandled this. Secular business and government has set a much more effective standard as to how to handle bad news that will likely become public. The do not get defensive. They meet it head on, and with the truth. They establish a framework where people can contact them and get authoritative, truthful answers.

I work in a hospital. A patient died due to an infection received from the hospital. It reached the media. We told the truth, to include what we were doing to protect patients, and to determine the cause of the infection. The public accepted the information we provided.

When the story first came out that Danny had divorced Linda, I contacted an official spokesperson at 3-ABN and I asked if that were true. That person told me that he/she would not comment on personal issues that involved Danny.

2) There have been several Internet forums (Club Adventist, MSDAOL, BSDA, and Adventist Today) who filled a role in bringing this to the attention of the public, and potentially resolution. I will suggest that the role of these Internet forums could make a good study for the power of the Internet in the instant information age. The SDA church had never before experienced the power that the people hold in their ability to communicate over the Internet, and to develop grass-roots support over wide geographic distances.

Folks, it is a new day for this denomination, and its leadership. God is leading.

Ya. Guess I'll have to disagree with the boss too.

I am cognizant of one slight detail which may be more or less unapparent to the casual observer. There was a campaign carried out by Danny against Linda. It was an underhanded one. We might nearly call it "Operation Public Awareness via Private Disclosure." Beyond the ordinary venues, it involved the so-called "private" means of personal telephone calls to all of the key leaders and persons of influence whom Danny might feel worthy of his personal time. I would like to know how many hundred hours he spent on the phone, domestic and international. Be aware that folks from the upper echelons on down were on Danny's list to share his side of the story, with all of its accompanying misrepresentations.

Thank you very much for this information, Greenie. This adds another dimension to the reports we have received from viewers who heard his not-so-veiled accusations against Linda in many telecasts starting at least by the time of the now infamous campmeeting where Johann and Arild were given the orders to leave the premises and not to return... under threat of being removed by law enforcement officers.... and where also Danny called on Mark Finley publicly and on camera to pray that Linda would return to him, even though this was before she had left, being only in non-attendence at the campmeeting at his insistance that she stay away.

From other reports, we could surmise that he had made private contacts besides this, but I don't recall anyone giving us this direct of a report before this.

Thank you very much.

Also excellent points Observer.

1. As to your first point, there are a number of reasons we have the first amendment clause that encourages the separation of church and state. What would happen if 3ABN spoke plainly and did not use religious conversational terrorism?

I have seen victims of medical malpractice refuse to sue their doctor simply because the doctor went to them immediately and acknowledged his mistake.

2. Does anyone really believe John Kerry meant to say something against our serviceman in his infamous blunder last fall? And when seen in its entirely it was a bad joke and taken out of context but in the end it did not matter. Kerry's bigger failure was taking so long to apologize.

Like many others have posted here, it is not trying to prove Linda's guilt or innocence that brought me here to learn more. It was the way things were handled by 3abn. In light of the more recent TS issues, the inconsistencies are even more glaring and incomprehensible.

As for a new age for the denomination and its leadership, I pray they are listening.

I know this will come as a shock, Mr. J, but the big difference here, is, you and the others are not Christ. You do not have the discernment of Christ, the sinlessness of Christ, nor do you have the loving and forgiving spirit of Christ. Therefore, it is not for you to judge period, much less, decide to point fingers, publicly or privately.

If you had the good sense to make Danny see this 2+ years ago, you wouldn't be here now... and seeing that your statement above applies to you far more than it does to me... and yet you have done nothing but judge and point fingers since you came to this forum... not to mention your continued use of obfuscation and and outright lies and deception... and it becomes clear that the hypocrite is that man you see in your mirror...

that said...You obviously are ignorant of Galatians 2 where we are told "I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. " You are obviously ignorant of the fact that I have put on the mind if Christ, which gives me the discernment of Christ. You are obviously ignorant of the fact I have been washed in His blood and saved by His grace and have the sinlessness of Christ imputed to me and you are obviously ignorant of the fact that I am the temple of the living God and am indwelled by the loving and forgiving spirit of Christ... and you and those in your camp are plainly ignorant of the fact that hiding sin or ignoring sin or enabling sin is not forgiveness. Your continued spiritual myopia that causes you to strain at gnats and swallow camels is a hinderance and a stumblingblock and it is clear that you have chosen unrighteous mammon and the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life over dying to self, taking up your cross and following Christ...

But the good news is that you still have time to get right with God. You stand at a fork in the road having to choose a path and your choices are:

To lay aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings, and desire the sincere milk of the word or

To continue acting and sounding like the Pharisee in Luke 18 who was so full of himself that even his prayers were self-aggrandizing and who left the temple unjustified before God in spite of his overinflated sense of his own righteousness.

One of these is the road less traveled... and one is the road to hell paved with men's good intentions.

Choose wisely.

In His service,
Mr. J

(as an aside, since you brought up forgiveness, are you admitting that Danny and whoever else stand guilty before us and in need of our forgiveness?)

> Being a woman of a curious nature, I turned on my television set tonight to view the "live" program on 3ABN. There sat Danny with Mollie at his side, surrounded by his loyal minions. The first hour was a promotion for the Ten Commandments weekend planned for Chicago this year. No new information, other than this year the number of free books has been limited, but of course unlimited copies are available for a fee. And you can now buy their t-shirts in additional colors and this year there are baseball caps and tote bags available for purchase. And then, just preceding the break before the second hour, glowing reports of 3ABN were read by each one present, followed by an introduction for the major topic of the second hour: the falsehoods and allegations leveled against 3ABN on the internet. This topic was covered in the next forty minutes.
> I will not go into detail in this report, but I will say that every attempt was made to discredit Adventist Today for their most recent coverage of 3ABN. Shelley Quinn made a comment that suggested a comparison between AToday and the National Enquirer. After a through trashing of > AToday, Danny continued on about a "small group of Adventist" that are making all sorts of accusations against 3ABN on the internet, he than continued to trash this group. Danny brought up the "false" allegations that have been made about his brother, Tommy. After continuing to discredit those who oppose him, Dan offered to step down, then immediately changed his mind and said there was no sense in doing that because than they would ask that Mollie be removed, than Walt Thompson and finally the Board. Of course I agree with the removal of those he mentioned, beginning with Danny, but unfortunately his brief offer to step down was so quickly rescinded. And YADA, YADA, YADA....

> There is one specific area I would like to address: donations. Danny has been claiming all along that donations at 3ABN have been increasing and that anything that has been written on the internet that contradicts that is a lie. Now, tonight be admits that donations are down, and in true 3ABN beg-a-thon style encourages the faithful to open up there pocketbooks wider and make up the slack of those who have quit giving. So taking all of this in to consideration, WHO HAS REALLY BEEN LYING ABOUT THE DONATION SITUATION AT 3ABN? Has "The Man" himself just vindicated the opposition with his own statements?

Sister is starting to post so much like observer. She cannot just comment, she always has to tell her story, or those told to her, and then proceeds to do her commentator role, with her own spin, of course. Lots of people were watching the live, some saw it more than once, but sister thinks they need help to understand what was said. Maybe she could rigg up a little box in the corner of her posts where she could also do sign language for the hearing impaired.

What would you think he would tell us, i would guess that he would say of course his lawyers are full of integrity, and guess what they most likely are just that.

BUT what if the lawyers are being feed false or half information, then it would not matter how full of ntegrity they were they would be making false moves. For that matter Garwin M. would be in the same boat.

So it goes back to danny's and tommy's word and their integrity, and at this point it is very clear to many and so clear to others that integrity is in severe doubt.

I saw this program quite by accident Thursday night. I'd gone over to visit my mom. She always has 3ABN TV on. The part I remember best is when SQ gestured with her hands up and asked something like "why...all for what?" (referring to people on internet daring to question the innocence of certain people's actions within). I'd never heard of a forum on the internet that discussed such things as they were saying. So, I searched and found this forum...and the other one.

TV ministry scandals? Unheard of! I wonder why, after all the previous lessons learned from other scandals, TV ministers don't err on the side of caution, distancing themselves WIDELY from even the appearance of unfairness or unaccountability.

It made me wonder how far we've come (or gone) that we're not to question the actions or character of TV ministries. We know they (TV ministries) rely on us for public for support. The next morning, my mom--after sensing something was awry--changed her plans for a Trust donation to said organization. The whole purpose of the program that night backfired. What a shame.

Money and power. Not a good combination. Power often leads to corruption, and all the wealth in the world cannot help humanity forward. Can anyone actually imagine Moses, John the Baptist, or Jesus armed with the moneybags of Carnegie? Paul took his mission worldwide, and with very little support, as evidenced by his statement in Rom 1:8...."throughout the whole world."

That is how I found it too. I told Danny and Walt that they were the best advertisement that the web sites have. Apparently they didn't believe me. They both basically said that they are receiving counsel both ways, to either defend or keep quiet.

I go to a small country church, but my mother goes to a large church. She said she knows several in her church that have quit giving solely based on Danny and the live programs. They have not gotten on the internet but they say something isn't right so they have not been giving. I have shared very little about what is written here with anyone. I am waiting until I hear Linda's side before I can decide what I feel is true and what is not. I use to give money to 3ABN but I quit giving until I decide who is telling the truth. I pray that all of this can be resolved soon. If 3ABN is to stay they need to get back to what they say they were called to do and that is to spread the gospel.

Sam, that is what they want to do more than anything, it is people's lies and accusations that won't let them. By ignoring the accusations they were judged to be guilty, why else would they not speak up. Now they have started to speak out in defense and they are accused of trashing and bringing attention to the websites. a person would have to be comatose to see that on a site like this they can't win for losing no matter what they do. That is why they don't make their decisions based on a small group that will always condemn, criticize and slander them regardless of what actions the ministry might take. When you can't win in a specific situation, you pray, you consult others with wisdom and you go forward the best you know how.

Thanks for the welcome!

Unfortunately, much of the world has a cynical view of TV ministries nowadays as illustrated in http://www.lyricsfreak.com/g/genesis/jesus+he+knows+me_20058872.html written nearly 15 years ago and heard by millions around the world. TV ministers would do well to listen up regardless of whether the allegations are true or not. You just can't be too careful.

Like Uncle Sam, it's only right to stay unassuming until... But, we can't ignore the signs along the way. The truth cannot and will not remain hidden from the eyes of those who have acquired a more profound and perceptive wisdom.

This is a lie... they are judged guilty because they have been claiming to have "proof" of their allegations against Linda Shelton time and again and have yet to produce it... and don't give me that claptrap you've been spouting that you dont put it out because you are trying to save Linda embarassment; your actions have proven there is no truth in such claims

If what you have been doing since you came here is the 'best you know how', perhaps you'd better served to not speak at all... because the best you know how is causing DS damage with every post you make.

You know, Mr. J,

It just occurred to me. Maybe Bystander, wwjd, and Alethiea are actually moles opposed to Danny & Co's continued tenure at the channel. Every post they write serves to make the victims' accounts more credible, and/or those who question 3ABN more intelligent.

So thank you, o contentious ones, for your Oscar-worthy role as the loyal opposition.

You might be right. They sure are not aiding Danny & Co. in the long run. If that is the case. may God bless their efforts!

I agree.
How can Linda be any more embarrased than she has been for the last approx 2 1/2 years? Per her letter posted recently Linda is ready for the truth to come out so she can move on with her life.

Danny Shelton, and all your friends on the board,

You are cordially invited to remove yourself from your position and to allow a free and open inquiry into all the questions that have emerged in the last 2 1/2 years. For the good of the ministry.

To do so would be to admit to being wrong in their actions and attitudes. The question is, in my mind in any case is, are theey willing to man up and let the chips fall where they may? The record thus far, shows that they have not been.

abn airtime is not for the defending of those staff members that are contributing to the problem by vhat they have done in the past and what they are doing to this day. that is less than honorable. (i'm eing extremely kind in my wording.) nor is 3abn airtime for the extreme accusations and bashing of hose who find fault with those individuals. the problem is not the ministry, itself. danny is NOT the ninistry. granted he has spent a large part of his life working for this ministry but so has linda and thers who have been discarded like old newpapers. 3abn is suppose to be for telling the world about the undiluted 3 angels messages". i haven't seen much of that lately. do you actually think it is fair or linda to be given a gag order and for danny to go on worldwide television, with "his team" and rash anyone they want? that's not what 3abn is for.
f danny, walt thompson and others were sincere, upfront, honest and forthcoming with proof in their lefense then it should be put in a newsletter to supporters. danny is using OUR airtime to air his dirty aundry. so much has been wrong the past few years. i've cried all i can cry. i am so heart-broken. it's ike being in a psycho movie. these people are not who i thought they were. none of these staff nembers are doing the right thing. evasion, evasion, evasion and accusing, accusing, accusing. it's vrong and must stop. you can't reason with them honestly because they won't be honest. i've ersonally tried and gotten no where. it's like any other business. the only thing that will affect them s stopping the money flow. i'm sure plenty have done that. then again, i think many keep supporting he ministry because it's about so much more than danny shelton's wrongdoings and his misfit elatives. it's not the ministry that should suffer! if danny, etal. loved the ministry like they constantly laim they do, then they wouldn't dangle it on the edge of a cliff this way. they'd get out of the way, et the ministry regain it's ground and resolve their personal issues on their own time. they are risking his ministry. Again folks, this is OUR airtime. this is GOD'S airtime. Not those who recieve the aychecks.

By ignoring the accusations they were judged to be guilty, why else would they not speak up. LINDA WASN'T ALLOWED TO "SPEAK UP" Now they have started to speak out in defense and they are accused of trashing and bringing attention to the websites. THEY DID EXACTLY THAT. TRASHED! IT HAS BEEN A FRANTIC DEFENSE TACTIC, BECAUSE THEY KNOW THEY ARE GUILTY OF SOME WRONGDOING... NOT SINCERE, NOT HUMBLE. a person would have to be comatose to see that on a site like this they can't win for losing no matter what they do. THAT IS SO REDICULOUS. IF CERTAIN STAFF MEMBERS WERE DOING WHAT GOD CALLED THEM TO DO IN THE MANNER IN WHICH THEY WERE CALLED, THEN PEOPLE WOULDN'T PAY ATTENTION TO "A SITE LIKE THIS". PEOPLE KNOW THERE IS SOMETHING WRONG. MOST IMPORTANTLY, THE 3ABN MINISTRY IS IMPORTANT TO US. That is why they don't make their decisions based on a small group that will always condemn, criticize and slander them regardless of what actions the ministry might take. WHAT DO THEY BASE THEIR DECISIONS ON? When you can't win in a specific situation, you pray, you consult others with wisdom and you go forward the best you know how. GOOD ADVICE. TOO BAD THEY HAVEN'T TAKEN THAT ROUTE.

I trust you are aware that there are many honest and hardworking employees and volunteers who work at 3abn. Not all are corrupt. Many are working sacrificially to support the ministry that they love. Some of them, like husbandoftheyear and Panama_Pete, bring us important information about both good and bad things happening at this ministry that God originally entrusted to Danny Shelton.

Wouldn't' it be more accurate to say originally entrusted to the "Sheltons"? As in Linda and Danny.

ood point PB. And I have no doubt that many of them there now are in serious prayer over this ituation. We need to remember them. Many may be making decisions as we speak.

Here is the link to the Save 3ABN web site:

http://www.save3abn.com/

So far, there is only one article on the New Year's tribute to Tommy Shelton.

I wish that, instead of just posting re Tommy Shelton that there were an introduction to the topic -- something to the effect of a house-cleaning being needed in order to Save 3ABN. Then posting the info on Tommy would make more sense.

This is the first time I have seen Tommy. Y'all know I had no use for 3ABN ever, so I wouldn't know any of thiese people if the walked up and slapped me.

HAIRSTYLIST HAT ON***

What in the world is that Tommy has on his head? Can they just hire a decent stylist? They are on TV world wide, for heaven's sake!! If they weren't so scandalous, I would apply for the job! Plus they would allow somebody like me who would go Sista' Gurl on them and they foolishness, and then call Oprah! LOL!!

HAIRSTYLIST HAT OFF***

On a serious note, did CA Murray have a stroke or something?

Ok Sorry for going ☒ ofl . Back to our regularly schedule programming.............

Seeing this "no he is not" and "yes he is" on a lot of Adventist forums I found a clipping in my 103 year old mother's bible that still can sing most every song in hmynal from memory these words between two arguers.

M R ducks!
M R not!
M R too!

Why, M R ducks!

But rarely are Adventist forum members willing to admit to futher light when shown documented evidence. "C M wings?

Please folks,

I am requesting that everyone please refrain from personal attacks.

It breaks my heart to see a search for facts turn to making fun of a man, and bringing his family into it. Even if a man is found guilty, his family should not be ridiculed.

Please put yourself in the place of those who are truly suffering because of the facts, which are being brought to light.

I have only posted a few times. I don't think any of the comments I have made have been made in such a way as to crush, destroy, or embarrass. If any of my comments have been taken that way, I apologize first to God, then to all who have read them.

I hope we will all try to act in love, even though sometimes love has to be tough.

I learned to comprehend that thang in college, and the more I hear it the more I feel at home. Although I am not able to verbalize it myself, I just love it. Would love to hear it next door in heaven. A lot of solid Christianity can be preached in that thang.

Making an observation is not a personal attack. Accusing anyone here of doing so does not make it the truth.

Also, bear in mind if you are going to take an offering for forgiveness to the Lord you must "first" go to those you have offended, according to scripture. Then, take his offering to the Lord after you have made things right with the one(s) you have offended.

Be Blessed

My statement about CA Murray was in no way meant as an attack. When I first saw him on TV the first thing I noticed was that his face is asymetrical. One side seems to slightly droop down. This is what happens when a person has Bells Palsy. I have known people with that condition, and I have seen the symptoms gradually subside. I understand it is a real drag to have it, but CA's is not nearly as bad as I have seen. IF that is what he has; I don't really know, and it is not really important, it is just that it is very noticable at first.

think you are correct in that. I think that was one of the stipulations of the whole thing of no charges eing pressed at the time if memory serves but from what I was told. I don't think he should even be llowed to work in the state or around children period.

lew Year's Eve Tribute to Tommy Shelton
Vhile serving as a Church of God minister, Danny Shelton's brother, Tommy Shelton, was accused by nultiple people in two states over multiple decades of sexual misconduct and child molestation nvolving men and teenage boys. Just recently in Virginia another alleged victim has come forward vhere Tommy pastored from 1995 to around late 2000. This alleged victim was a minor at the time of he alleged incident(s), and thus this allegation possibly might put Tommy behind bars. The pastor here of that Church of God congregation issued a statement about the new allegations on December , 2006, which was made public two days later.

The following weekend Tommy was to have joined other 3ABN staff at the Lauderhill, Florida, Seventh-day Adventist Church for a 3ABN rally, but he was unable to attend because of an alleged sudden illness. (In 2004 or 2005, a letter sent by an alleged victim in Illinois accused Tommy of having illnesses whenever these sorts of allegations arise, and of suddenly recovering when everything settles down again.) On December 9, a close family member to Tommy wrote and essentially attributed his sudden health problems to these old and new allegations

Dear Friends Do not put your trust in this statement . You are being deceived. The family member refered to by Gailon is a very close friend of mine and have recept of this very document. Gailon has twisted the statement to suit his agenda. I can prove what I am saying.

The burden of proof is upon you, since you claim you can prove what you are saying. I think the expression is, "put up or shut up". Which is it eyewitness?

This is a tough crowd eyewitness. You can't just wave a smiley and throw stuff out here. We will call you on it everytime or rather throw back in your face to prove your point.

Is it not true that Teresa attributed Tommy's health problems to "gossip" on Dec. 9?

And given the fact that these new and old allegations were made public just four days previously, would that not be attributing his health problems to the allegations, which on this very board have been called gossip by Danny's supporters?

And would her statement also qualify as being contradictory to the claim that Tommy's health problems were due to a "tremendous schedule," "weekend travelling," "driving" from Kentucky, and the worst thing of all, that "ferry"?

I've been told by someone who has ridden that ferry that it is a very relaxing ride. They thought perhaps that a different sort of ferry was meant by Danny and Tommy. Given the fact that when Shelly Quinn on August 10 said Salome she really meant Linda's daughter, I'd say that's possible.

Your thoughts?

ickle I guess the statement I just sent to Sister you need to read it. In context not trying to prove nything. I am sure Linda knows there was no finger pointing toward Tommy. Why did you add that art. Honestly I don't think a family member would point such a finger! DO YOU?

Posted by: princessdi Jan 15 2007, 08:53 PM

I don't think that there was any question of Tommy being in poor helath. I think it was mentioned that he attended some place down south for his conditions at one point. However, there is always a cause. Stress being a huge factor in any illness especially BP and heart diseases. Plus, it is just too darn convenient. With all these allegations flying around, Tommy is a liability at this point. they should have just sidelined him until it was all settled, if it was false, then he can come back, If true, well they will have to cross that bridge when they came to it.

Eye Witness,

Assume for the sake of discussion that at least some of the allegations against the Shelton clan are true. Then we have the possibility that anything said by any of them could be a half-truth or a bald-faced lie. I'm not saying that what you quoted is. I'm just saying that if we are going to objectively look at this, we have to leave that possibility open.

I think you should have included the following sentence also found in the same paragraph that you quoted from that Shelton family member: "Then, I don't see why people want to murder others with their tongues." And here is a sentence you did quote: "Gossip, we both know how the pressure from that can be."

If nothing else, it does sound as if this Shelton family member is saying that some of the negative comments made about Linda are nothing more than gossip.

Now Eye Witness, what "gossip" and murdering with the tongue was this Shelton family member referring to in regard to Tommy, if she was not referring to the new and old allegations against Tommy? That is the critical question. And if you can't come up with any other possibility, then what Gailon has on his website is 100% accurate.

I've read this before somewhere. And it still says the same thing as I remember it saying...
Tommy is in very bad health, including high blood pressure. And the statement implies that "gossip" is contributing to the current stress or poor health.

Inga my dear friend we do know that stress is bad and causes health problems. However the quote above does not even hint toward any of the allegations named by Pickle and Gailon Joy. What it does say is that gossip can kill and I am sure Linda can verify that herself. Probably Linda has aged and found heartaches and pains from all this gossip about her, whether true or false. While trying to prove her innocents. Gossip does work on one! Can you imagine if she had the heart problems, high blood pressure, cholestrol, two stints in the main arteries and a seddantary kind of job? All of these conditions spell an early death.

Eye Witness,

You're not making sense.

First of all, Tommy's accusers claim that he puts on an act whenever these allegations surface, and so, if you are going to be objective, you have to keep the possibility open that Tommy isn't having much in the way of health problems at all.

Now if you can produce documentation that he has indeed had stints and such, that would be most helpful. But we certainly can't just take Danny or Tommy's word for it since we have proven where they have been less than truthful.

Secondly, it is quite clear what "gossip" Teresa was referring to on December 9, since the new allegations went public on December 5, and since you haven't suggested anything other than the child molestation allegations, you yourself must certainly know that that was what she was referring to.

And yet you are so bold as to say that that quote does not hint at all at those allegations. Thus, you aren't making any sense whatsoever.

If that wasn't what Teresa was referring to, she shouldn't have written something so vague, because Johann called me and told me that that was how Linda took what Teresa had written.

Now if Teresa meant something else, then by all means find out what she meant and post it here so Gailon can make sure he has his facts straight.

Pickle I have bolded at the top what I am refering to. I guess that you really have read alot into this email when you have the whole email, as obviously I do also. Yet does this email not also talk about the stress that she and Linda have in their personal lives, yet you have assumed she is making application toward Tommy's allegations. You have put words into this statement that were not there. I have read them on this chat site and in Gailon Joys web page. She did not say those things! One minute you quote almost accuratly then another time or place you are inaccurate. The quote is the quote so let the quote be quoted.

About the whole email do you also have the part where it talks about Linda not visiting the chatsites? That it is also out of her control? Her only prayers is the Lord's will be done? Are you the LORD? I question this because what was written to her personally was posted here, on this site, so either she does come here or you are her mouth piece! Then if you are her mouth piece how can you present an unbias view for all these dear people on this chat site?

Well this tells me that all these such confidential informants can't truly be trusted.
For instance you use Gailon Joy as one for your sources for truth. Now it has been posted on BSDA that he had been acquited of embezzelment. Eye Witness, Tell us clearly what the gossip was that Teresa referred to that was affecting Tommy's blood pressure. After you do that, maybe we can move on to another topic, but not till then.

Eye Witness,

Sure, since Gailon was convicted for stealing his own money, if we oversimplify the picture a bit, then we have to keep open the possibility that he may steal his own money at other times too.

But for your information, in these various issues, I have not made Gailon my source of truth.

For example, when Tommy Shelton writes, "As you well know, I had a big problem and should have gotten help years ago or got out of the ministry. ... I have been honest with her that some inappropriate things happened ...," I take his word for it. And so should you.

Brother Pickle I would have to say that I would think that Teresa could have been talking about all the gossip about the family, and then well lets face it Pickle you have literally made some huge accusations. Lets just say for argument sake that Tommy is 100% innocent! Now lets look at the damage that has been done to his life, his family, his wife, his children, grandchildren, and the list can go on and on. The commandments say THOU SHALT NOT KILL! Do you find that only murder can be committed with an object. Yet the tongue is refered to in the bible as lethal. So just consider Pickle the man's life being torn apart. Now lets look at the other side. If he is 100% guilty we are not to take the Law of the land into our own hands. God, my friend knows every detail of your heart, my heart, and Tommys heart and our lives and the hairs on our head. Even if you or anyone else thinks poorly of them.
As far as proving the stints and health problem exist well maybe I can get the name of the hospital where the work was done. Of course we may all get to see the autopsy report instead. Blessing in your house hold.

eye witness,

There was a nice young man on the 3abn Today show January 11th named Nyse Collins who has a ministry called Nyse Lifestyle. He described his lifestyle counseling ministry and it might be prudent for you, Danny, Teresa, and the Tommy Shelton family to review what he said are the three main reasons for illness. I can't remember the exact wording he used but the three are:

1. Some illnesses happen, like in Job's case, to bring glory to God.
2. Some illnesses come due to poor health habits.
3. Some illnesses are caused by unrepented, cherished sin.

Nyse Collins gave numerous instances about #3. They were very compelling.

I believe that you meant that Mr. Joy had been convicted of embezzelment.

Yes, he has. The story has been told. You can draw your own conclusions. Let me ask you: What conclusions do you draw from the fact that Mr. Joy filed a lawsuit against the agency that accused him, and won a $40,000.00 judgement against that agency, which was paid to him?

The law is strange, is it not?

There were many references to stress made by Danny, as he praised Tommy for all his hard work in the 11 - NO 12 years he had been at 3ABN, during that pathetic New Year's Eve interview.

There were also references made to all the travelling he had to do. A jolly long way to travel all the time! Why not move closer to his employment? No sympathy from me on that score. I used to travel 1 1/2 hours into the city to work, years ago. That just goes with the territory.

And there were several references to coming back on a 'voluntary basis', which left me with the distinct impression that this was a 'fake farewell' , along with 'false testimonies by his associates, and that there were other matters waiting in the wings. STRESS is always a convenient excuse to use, if one wants to run from accountability.

Let us establish the facts as I understand and remember them:

1) Yes Mr. Joy took money and deposited it into his personal account. [NOTE: I will take your word that it was the lumber company that you mentioned.]

2) Yes, Mr. Joy was convicted of embezzlement.

3) Mr. Joy had clearly stated that he was so convicted. I do not know where you got your information that he denies it.

4) Under the law in the State where the conviction took place, one may be convicted of embezzleing money that one is entitled to, if one has not yet been given that money. That was the case. Mr. Joy should have passed that money on to the other, and then waited for them to send it back to him, as they owed him the money that he took.

I happen to agree with you entirely, Princessdi. I see the same desperate attempts to side track the issues as has been done before, and failed. The more truth that is revealed, the greater the desperation becomes. If eyewitness is so close to the situation, perhaps he should ask Rick Shelton his opinion of the allegations made against his father and publish that email. It might make a very interesting read.

ister, eye witness is a "she".

think it would be quite prudent for her to speak to Rick Shelton as you suggest. If he is at liberty to ell her the truth perhaps she will have the ears to hear the truth. Unfortunately, there is this thing alled "denial" that can be at play in some dysfunctional systems so that even direct, first person estimony can't pierce through. color=#003300]Well the two statements are different that is for sure. We all know that Tommy has ad health problems. We also know that it hereditary, because his father died at 51 after his 3rd heart ttack. The whole immediate family fight against this disease. Tommy Sr. was a very big worrier stress). f Tommy's health problems are hereditary and the stress is from being a big worrier and not from llegations as you state, why are there those writing emails saying that if he passes the blood will be n the gossipers? I guess I may be getting confused but things are just not adding up in this area.

Your chosen BSDA name is intriguing. While it is beyond the bounds of propriety on BSDA to ask for the identity of a poster who is using a pseudonym.... it does seem as though, since the name you are using APPEARS to be a real name, and since the name "Teresa" has recently been mentioned here as the sender of a certain letter.... perhaps you would be willing to confirm or deny that you are that same "Teresa". And if you are the same, then perhaps you would be willing to clarify the questions that have been raised about what you meant in that letter.

Is Teresa Reiman, in fact, Mrs. Tommy Shelton? Hiding behind a maiden name, peut-etre, in an attempt to look somewhat objective?

Possibly... and the question is rhetorical; I dont expect an answer... truthful or otherwise.

ʾardon me?

ˉirst of all, I'm not the one making the accusations. Roger Clem, Brad Dunning, and too many other ɪlleged vicitms are the ones who've made the accusations, not me.

Secondly, Tommy admitted doing things, as I already pointed out. Thus, he admits that at least some of these accusations are true. Want to see where? Try http://www.save3abn.com/tommy-shelton-confession.htm.

Thirdly, even if Tommy was lying and the accusations really are untrue after all, that doesn't get Danny off the hook from his reprehensible, ungodly, abominable deceit about and covering up of these allegations, and his threats against those who have concerns about these things.

Dear "Teresa"

You have clearly misunderstood what happens on "these many sites". Here at BSDA, you don't get banned when you tell the truth. You don't even get banned when you tell lies. You will get banned if you break the rules as Calvin has stated. Maybe you should read those? They don't mention telling the idea of honesty - although some are not capable of honesty - as something to ban you. So maybe you can think of another excuse? And, asking for answers is one of the main reasons this site exists...again, can't get banned for wanting answers. You are clearly confused, or something, IMO.

Whatever, lady... you and those of your ilk keep running with the same tactic, trying to defame the messenger in the hope that folk will stop listening to what they are saying...

Prove them wrong... if you can... or admit that you cant.

If you could, I believe it would have been done a long time ago... since it was requested a long time ago and nothing has been produced aside from the ad hominem games and the " oh we have proof but you'll just have to trust us" foolishness.

Cut to the chase.

Put up or shut up.

Your move.

There is so much on here that is fabricated. Just read all the stuff. The Bible and Ellen White have plenty to say about slander, gossip and talebearing.

Posted by: Pickle Jan 16 2007, 11:56 AM

Tommy's wife's name is Carol. Ronnie's wife's name is Teresa. I have no idea what her maiden name is.

Teresa, if Walt Thompson is correct that Danny told him that the allegations are 30 years old, what sort of disciplinary action do you feel should be taken against Danny, since the allegations are clearly not just that old?

I just want to make sure we're on the same page as far as the seriousness of everything goes. Then we can proceed to evaluate the credibility of the various witnesses. 7

And those witnesses include one that claims to have been in the house with Tommy laying on the floor and with Danny standing there about 21 years ago when an alleged victim and his parents were bringing a gift car back to Tommy. This witness says Tommy was beside himself and saying, "I can't believe he's doing this to me. Call Alison. He's the only one who can fix this." So we have an account that puts Danny in the know 21 years ago, and that's a lot sooner than 30 years ago.

And then there's the victims who say that Tommy has never apologized, contrary to what Walt says that Danny told him.

I don't have a messenger... and what is demanded of you is no different than was was required of the other side. If you had actually bothered to read what is here, you'd know that.

Still waiting for you to give specific facts that refute specific things stated.

If you are unwilling or unable to do that, just say so and the things you say will be given the proper value that they merit.

Still your move... and the clock is ticking.

I'm clearly not Mr. Pickle, but may I ask you something? What gives you the absolute knowledge that God CALLED Danny Shelton? It's just a question. I think the answers that come to your mind might need to really be thought over, and please, use bible examples when you are thinking it over.

God doesn't need anybody to do anything. However, He uses whom ever He chooses. Now, God could have very well called Danny. Many people are yet and still being blessed by that ministry, but we can ask King Saul about having that favor taken away.

God uses not only whom ever He chooses, but whatever He chooses. He wastes nothing. There is nothing saying anyone is called, but God will use anything to reach people. That by NO MEANS protects or guarentees DS or anyone of anything. Many people have poored blood sweat and tears (and TONS OF MONEY) into that minstry, FOR GOD. Hopefully not for Danny Shelton. Stop assuming that DS is hand in hand with God just because of what you SEE on TV. There is much more to the "behind the scenes" of someone's real life then what is seen on the television. If we don't wake up and realize it's not a PERSON, it's a GOD that does anything good, we shall surely follow a MAN instead of a God. And btw, you do reap what you sew, and that goes for anyone "doing" God's will - as they may say. What happens to a person in this life is largely a consequence of their "fruits" and that happens by way of the other people on this planet that we have to live with. God uses them as well - for His purpose. We have laws of the land, and also morality. If you break those, it's bound to come back to you, one way or another, and often in many ways. If you mistreat someone, God can surely bring that to the table and make you face it. None of us are exempt from that. Do you think this happens magically??? It happens through justice of the land, done through people, based on principal and example, and that's found in the bible too.

I am very sorry for calling you Pickle my mistake. You ask was Danny called? What other human to that point could of done or should I say has been done only by HUMAN efforts? Danny was uneducated, poor man, really no connections he didn't know anyone but the Saviour. No one else to that day had ever attempted such a task. The SDA Church itself has not been able to expand to the degree of 3ABN to this day. all the chuches TV outreach to the entire world... together... doesn't amount to 3ABN's coverage. That will give you quite a varity misfits but God used each of them in His service. So I would say Danny Shelton is in good company and his humaness shows through just as like these above. You did not make a mistake by calling me Mr. Pickle. I just jumped in to your comment towards him, so I stated I am not him, but addressing part of your comment.
As to what you said here, and I'm sure I won't be the only one addressing this, I will comment on your thinking, which I have colored in red.

Have you decided that God did it or Danny? I can't tell by your words...it seems somewhat worshipful of a man to me...
God can do anything in spite of a person. But, you are giving credit to Danny as if he got this done thru God. A man can be VERY determined to do anything he sets his mind to (and if you know DS, he is all about determination and not giving up when he wants something) and so based on his motives and minipulation tactics, he could very well get something accomplished like this. You're picture of how this happend has been given to you by DS as well. It is given to you, and others for the purpose of saying "God did this and used me" for credibility sake. You are looking to a man and assuming GOD did this. God may have made something good come from what DS set out to do for many reasons that could have been very selfishly motivated. I will not assume anything as you have - I certainly can not take DS word on how things came about as I know that he has exagerated and mislead in this area to give a picture he wanted out in order to gain support and to promote exactly what you have now projected. Again, do you really know his fruits? If you are to find out his fruits, as you willing to admit he is a mere man who is faulty and God used that building and those volunteers in spite of the man? This picture is much bigger then you would like to sum up in your mind. Why don't you let God show you exactly what He has done in spite of DS and his real motives. Don't be mesmerized by what you have been taught and lead to see. Open your eyes.

That by NO MEANS protects or guarentees DS or anyone of anything. Many people have poored blood sweat and tears (and TONS OF MONEY) into that minstry, FOR GOD. Hopefully not for Danny Shelton. Stop assuming that DS is hand in hand with God just because of what you SEE on TV. There is much more to the "behind the scenes" of someone's real life then what is seen on the television. If we don't wake up and realize it's not a PERSON, it's a GOD that does anything good, we shall surely follow a MAN instead of a God. And btw, you do reap what you sew, and that goes for anyone "doing" God's will - as they may say. What happens to a person in this life is largely a consequence of their "fruits" and that happens by way of the other people on this planet that we have to live with. God uses them as well - for His purpose. We have laws of the land, and also morality. If you break those, it's bound to come back to you, one way or another, and often in many ways. If you mistreat someone, God can surely bring that to the table and make you face it. None of us are exempt from that. Do you think this happens magically??? It happens through justice of the land, done through people, based on principal and example, and that's found in the bible too.

Justice of the Land is located. . . Not here! This has no bearing on anything but reputation. God has used people all through the Bible and people have tried to use God also. The first will work, the second will only cause personal destruction on ones own condition. We say we trust the Lord but DO WE? Is this all to Big for God? The Ark was literally used in a Battle, they had God in the box and they took Him to battle with them. Guess what the Ark was captured. We can't put God in a Box. We can't use Him. He says, Trust Me.

f you are being deceived, would you like to know it or not? Would you rather sit in your ideas of what eels warm and fuzzy, part of that is thinking you see God doing what you THINK God is doing, or vould you like to see more of the picture? God wants us to SEE, not be deceived.

Danny was uneducated, poor man, really no connections he didn't know anyone but the Saviour. No one else to that day had ever attempted such a task. The SDA Church itself has not been able to expand to the degree of 3ABN to this day. all the chuches TV outreach to the entire world... together... doesn't amount to 3ABN's coverage. Does this sound like the work of a human?

'ou believe that Horatio Alger "pulled himself up by his own bootstraps" story if ya wanna... Joel)steen has an even better story... should we assume he is anointed of God even more than Danny?

Yes, di, I see we are in agreement . My feeling is also that while you can be uncalled, I really can't and won't say that someone has been called. And I have been around a lot of so called "called" people. To me that changes the direction (I'm sure there is a better word for this) in ones mind of what happens and can happen, the human phyche can be mislead if you are locked in to this "no matter what" thinking. I've seen it in my own family, and it terrifies me to see it - this hanging on to a man rather then a God. To me it holds you back from really seeing evil and sin in all its forms.

Posted by: princessdi Jan 16 2007, 01:44 PM

Well, now we do have to look at the fact that the ministry is still there and blessing people, bringing them to Christ. We can't discount the many people who still say it is a blessing to them daily. We also know that there are Godly people working there, some of our members here, the Eakins, etc. who are true Christian people ministering. So, Danny could have been called to start it, but like Saul his sinful ways are causing him to be "uncalled". He is suffering the consequences of his personal choices.

> Have you decided that God did it or Danny? I can't tell by your words...it seems somewhat worshipful of a man to me...
> God can do anything in spite of a person. But, you are giving credit to Danny as if he got this done thru God. A man can be VERY determined to do anything he sets his mind to (and if you know DS, he is all about determination and not giving up when he wants something) and so based on his motives and minipulation tactics, he could very well get something accomplished like this. You're picture of how this happend has been given to you by DS as well. It is given to you, and others for the purpose of saying "God did this and used me" for credibility sake. You are looking to a man and assuming GOD did this. God may have made something good come from what DS set out to do for many reasons that could have been very selfishly motivated. I will not assume anything as you have - I certainly can not take DS word on how things came about as I know that he has exagerated and mislead in this area to give a picture he wanted out in order to gain support and to promote exactly what you have now projected. Again, do you really know his fruits? If you are to find out his fruits, as you willing to admit he is a mere man who is faulty and God used that building and those volunteers in spite of the man? This picture is much bigger then you would like to sum up in your mind. Why don't you let God show you exactly what He has done in spite of DS and his real motives. Don't be mesmerized by what you have been taught and lead to see. Open your eyes.

read what you have written with an open mind. Really, and for 20 years that ministry has been oing. Um, have we fogotten that the majority of these 20 years, there was a lady named Linda who acked, supported, and well according to you was part of some huge deception. See some how the icture has narrowed here. Have you always felt this way about 3ABN? Oh, I assume that there are Snoopy Topics are the question. Which topic will be discussed to prove fabrication. Johann and Pickles control this. There is much fabrication, on what points I will comment, is my choice.

Eye Witness tried to open some opportunity on some facts and they choose to not talk. They only want to discuss a charge that no one can prove but the court of law. Could it be that people are being lead by a deception here? Could there be another motive to all this, this stuff? Who is winning? I guess really who are the players? The bigger question what is the prize in the end, if there ever is one? I not dancing just showing some respect.

Yes this goes with the territory of being on TV. The falicy of people. Out of Danny and Linda's control of course. That is within the person who is doing the following. Again, I am not talking of the people watching the tv with regard to the "prophet" idea and worship of a man, although that has taken place as well - I am talking of the man, DS. Linda told him, he didn't mind, and he allowed the worship- and let me remind you , this came from WITH IN the compound, not the tv screen. Danny likes it. Plain and simple.

I think, Teresa, that somehow you are part of the cover up. Don't know how else to describe it.

There is sin in the camp, and until it is taken care of, God will not bless His people as He wants to do. Lying, attacking, accusing, distracting, threatening, intimidating, all to cover up allegations of a) child molestation and b) propositioning men, allegations that Tommy himself admits to, at least in part, and you choose to be part of that? Why? Why would you be involved in something so ungodly?

Whether the allegations prove true or false, this is absolutely the wrong way to deal with such allegations. If you think otherwise, go talk to a conference administrator somewhere. Go talk to your insurance agent. Go talk to your sheriff or police chief. Go talk to the local Catholic bishop.

And then come here and tell us what they had to say.

The prize in the end is the glory of God... the releasing of prisoners of fear... and the exposure and dethronement of evil.

Yes, Teresa, whoever you are and for whatever reason, you ARE "dancing" rather than showing respect to those who are attempting to dialogue with you. And you are are not only showing disrespect to us, but you are showing disrespect for yourself.... for you are tripping over your own feet.

You would be well advised... if you have any shred of self-respect even... to either answer the questions directly or stop making more oblique accusations. If you have specific complaints... for example that you object to your letter having been made public... then have the guts to say exactly that. Own the letter and explain why you wrote it and why you aren't brave enough to own up to it now. If you don't... then give up on the distraction game. This group is not that easily distracted and you are liable to get trampled in the mud if you try to play it.

As it is, you are doing nothing but continually making yourself look more emptyheaded and crass.

It is not too late to redeem yourself... .this is a very forgiving and understanding group to anyone who is playing fair and honest with them.

And the Bible and Ellen White have plenty to say about immoral behavior.
Have you read 1Corinthians 5? I suggest you do so. It is very clear on the bad influence those who claim to be Christians but instead have the fruits of fallen Lucifer. It is also clear on what to do with these dangerous people.

Beware lest you deal harshly with those who you think have made mistakes, while others, more guilty and more deserving of reproof, who should be severely rebuked for their unChristlike conduct, are sustained and treated as friends."--RH Mar. 12, 1895.

So you, eye witness, kaiser Schlobotnick, Bystander, wwjd and others who seem to interpret what we are doing here on the 3abn Forum as gossip and slander are in an interesting position. You are harshly judging those of us who are loyal to God and have a burden to expose some dangerous conditions in a ministry that was set up to spread the undiluted message, but all the while allowing behavior to flourish around you that is damaging to the reputation of that ministry, the Seventh-day Adventist church and the character of Christians in general.

Yes, we are all sinners saved by Grace. But when there are cherished sins that are unrepented of, damaged lives that have not received proper restitution and an intentional cover up of the behavior, how can that Grace truly be available?

I know for myself, when I admit to those I have harmed that I was wrong it is a liberating experience. It is good for the soul!

The fact that a) 3ABN general manager Mollie Steenson sits on the conference committee, b) the conference president sits on the 3ABN board, c) a conference academy campus sits on the 3ABN campus, from what I understand, and d) the conference was apparently concerned in the early '90's about Tommy's problems, could be used by a plaintiff in a lawsuit to go after the conference as well as 3ABN if recent incidents have occurred or if new indidents occur in the future.

Hello Pickle. I been away for a while, but now I am back and reading to catch up. You made some interesting statements above... Do you have documentation that Mollie sits on the Ill. conference board? She may, I really don't know that's why I'm asking. Also, do you have documentation that 3ABn has a conference academy campus there? I'm not aware of that either, again, that's why I'm asking for your proof.

Sister have you considered the verses in Psalm 64:7&8 "But God shall shoot at them with an arrow; suddenly shall they be wounded. So they shall make thier own tongue to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away."
> God does not change, he does not lie. So repeating such evil will find you in a serious way.
> Teresa Reiman

Teresa, again I am asking the same questions as Johann in regard to the statement you have made about me, that I have quoted above for the second time:

"It is a little hard for me to understand what you are hinting at. Could you explain it somewhat clearer? What evil is being repeated?"

As long as you keep sidestepping the issue, I will continue to ask the same question...

Joe:

You can find your answers in official both records denominational and other official records. Here is what you will find:

1) Academy: Bob Pickle made a short one sentence statement in regard to this. The actual facts are available on denominational websites. They will reveal a relationship, as Bob has stated. Some might believe that the extent of that relationship properly takes more than the one sentence that Bob made in describing it. But, Bob was correct in his essential comment. There is a relationship (unless changed in the past few weeks). That relationship is such that under some conditions attempts could be made to hold the IL Conference financially liable. Bob is correct in that.

2) IL Conference sitting on the 3-ABN Board: That has officially existed for some time. Unless it has recently changed, which I doubt, he still does. 15

3) 3-ABN on the IL Conference Executive Board: In more recent times that has been true. Unless there has been a recent change, 3-ABN still has a person on the IL Conference Board.

4) Under some conditions # 2 & 3 could result in people attempting to hold the IL Conference financially liable. It is a potential problem. Bob is correct.

NOTE: The conditions under which 3-ABN added a person to the IL Conference Board are clearly within denominational policy.

Hi Joe. 15

Check out http://www.bvanet.org/. Up at the top look at the banner. It says that Broadview Academy has a campus at Thompsonville. That campus is part of a pilot project that just started, so I am a little unclear what exactly is happening this year. It got voted by May of last year as indicated by http://www.kdenslow.blogspot.com/, which says that the location of this satellite campus is supposed to be the Thompsonville school. I'm told there was talk about building dormitories as well.

As far as Mollie sitting on the conference committee goes, all I can say is that when I mentioned this in relation to another issue to some folks that work for the conference office there, they didn't correct me on that one, while they did correct me on another personnel issue.

he fact that a) 3ABN general manager Mollie Steenson sits on the conference committee, b) the onference president sits on the 3ABN board, c) a conference academy campus sits on the 3ABN ampus, from what I understand, and d) the conference was apparently concerned in the early '90's bout Tommy's problems, could be used by a plaintiff in a lawsuit to go after the conference as well as ABN if recent incidents have occurred or if new indidents occur in the future.

t's not really a "documentation" type of issue, but it's there for those who seem to need or want it.

n 2005, Mollie Steenson was listed in the constituency newsletter. Click the link and look at the PDF ile if you wish.

haven't checked since then. At that time, there were three people, working with 3ABN, listed on the xecutive committee. Just go to the PDF newsletter and look in the blue box on the right-hand side of age 2.

Teresa is from another Country, obviously. I would appreciate it if you all would cut her some slack in that English may not be her "first" langauge. You know, as in some "Christian" kindness.

And no, I do not know Teresa--never heard of her until I read her posts on here. But really, I think her HEARING is fine, no need to yell at her.

oe Smith,

'he website for Broadview Academy has the following listing under staff:

Genny Grinley, Thompsonville Campus, Facilitator
;18-627-2065, Thompsonville Campus

Vhy don't you call the above listed telephone number, ask for Genny Grinley and get the information lirectly from her. I am sure that Ms. Grinley can give you directions to the exact location of the 'hompsonville Campus of Broadview Academy. Mr. Pickle, is not a resident of Thompsonville and can ıot just jump into his car and take a picture of the school and post it on this site. Since you know the way to 3ABN, you can do you own leg work or let your fingers do the walking and call Genny Grinley.

Lee, why do you assume that Teresa is from another country? Why is it obvious? Why do you assume that English is not her first language? Please, enlighten me....

Johann and I have repeatedly asked Teresa to explain the content of what she is saying, I am not addressing anything else. I simply want to know what she means when she says the following: "My goodness, that Rick would write such a thing about his father???" What thing is Teresa referring to in this sentence and when she speaks about evil. And why is she unwilling to answer these questions?

Iow are you deducing that Teresa is from another country? Has she told us such? Does she mention it ;omewhere here on the forum? Is it her misspelled words or imperfect grammer? I really would like to :now how you came up with that.

3abn functioned when Linda left and it will continue if Danny leaves if it is God's will.

Io human being is irreplaceable in any position in any ministry or organization, if that were not the :ase, the world as we know it would have crumbled long ago. Obviously the time of grief varies, but if t is God's will for an organization or ministry to continue, a replace will be found. God called David ong before Saul's death. Hopefully, we will not have to wait for Danny's death for his replacement at 3ABN, especially as the investigations of several government agencies continue to discover further :vidence of illegal activities.

3alion really needs to pull that quote out of his web site statement and you Pickle need to pull that out)f your statements as well!!! Why? Because you are not using it in context with the rest of the :ommunication that Linda and Teresa has conversed in. This is only the tip of a communication)rocess that has gone on hit and miss for years. Its shocking to see that Linda would hand this email)ver to someone to use in this way. Expecially when Linda says "She has absolutly nothing to do with he controversy the Shelton family is facing at this time. I do not visit the chatsites...."
'hey have shared tears and joy, I am told. Not about Tommy but about the many different attacks rom the many different ways the attacks have occured. I guess they have spent many hours on the)hone, in email and visiting, after all, they were related for a while.
f Linda has nothing to do with the controversey of the Shelton family, why is she pulling in innocent)eople to create more of a mess? That would be a good question for you to ask her since you are so :lose to her.

don't know who Teresa is, but there have been plenty of people around West Frankfort with that ;ame name. I have no information to indicate Teresa is orginally from outside the English-speaking :ommunity.

\s I said, there have been plenty of people with the name Teresa around. Here's just one example:

☒ ofl

ABA, NIGERIA Friday, November 28, 2003
3y Marti Schneider

\t our nine o'clock meeting this morning, the King's Heralds sang a small concert for our entire group. We have really appreciated their ministry here . . . both in their music and in their presence. We could feel their support, their heart for ministry, their care for people. It was our last group meeting.

When Elder Folkenberg asked the speakers from the outlying evangelistic meetings to tell what this experience meant to them, Teresa Shelton summed it up by saying, "I have spoken tremblingly to 20-some people . . . but now I am an evangelist!" She and Ronnie Shelton had separate evangelistic series going. There were good testimonies from all of the teams."

you know, in looking my post over, I shouldn't have said "Teresa is from another Country" because I don't know any more than you do. But as I read her posts, she reminded me of some of people who have come here from Russia and other countries, sometimes their English is different, or words will be missing from their sentences and words misspelled.

I believe she "might" (sorry to have said it incorrectly in the first place) be from another Country, but only she can say where she is from, if she hasn't been banned from this site already.

There is not a campus on 3ABN property. I have been hearing for several months about the desire or plans to have an academy on hand. But why wouldn't we...when Dan's grandchildren were old enough to start school, poof, a 3ABN school opens. And now that they are getting older, poof, it's time for an academy!

Broadview is part of a new program on 3ABN and they have been at the station to discuss this, so it's logical that they would have pictures of them on site.

Conference people were there some 3 years ago to talk about this project.. I saw them there myself. BUt nothing came of it because of a lack of money. The conference wanted 3ABN to foot the bill, which they were not able to do. The conference was needing.... big time ...to close Broadview who had been operating in the RED for some time. Conference had no money... 3ABN had no money. Wonder what changed?? If it changed...
Again I would ask, if there is a campus, where are the buildings... where are the students? and where will they be living??

Joe:

Mr. Joy was convicted of one charge. Multiple other charges were dropped. So, technically he was neither aquited nor convicted of those charges.

Joe:

On November 23, I posted the following in a thread, in BSDA, titled "The Investigator of 3Abn [sic.].:

"In the interests of transparency, and openness, I am making the following brief statements:

1) The GAJ who was convicted of the crime of embezzlement in the VT, is the GAJ who is presently conducting an investigation into this 3-ABN mess.

2) Mr. Joy has advised several of us, to include Linda Shelton, of the details of that conviction that have not been publicly presented before.

3) Mr. Joy was charged under Title 13, part I, Chapter 57 "Larceny and Embezzlement, Subchapter II, and Section 2531. In my mind a critical part of that statute is the following: "[One may be convicted of embezzlement] notwithstanding [that] he may have an interest in such money or property,. . ." In simple language: One may be convicted even if one had a right to that money.

4) The above statue allows one convicted of the crime to be imprisoned for up to ten years, and fined up to $500.00. It should be noted that GAJ was not sentenced to prison.

5) The charge against Mr. Joy began in 1980, and continued through the end of 1984. It was brought by an organization which was essentially VT. Legal Aid (LSCVT).

6) LSCVT first brought the claim against Mr. Joy in the Vt. Superior Court. They lost.

7) The LSCVT then attempted to file in a Federal Court. They failed.

8) At that time the LSCVT attempted to settle with Mr. Joy for the payment of $1,500.00, which would be made to them, and an agreement to change certain collection rules.

NOTE: In all of the above, the charges were made against Credit Management Services Corporation (CMSC), and not Mr. Joy, personally.

9) Mr. Joy did not want CMSC to settle. As a result, he bought out the other owners of the corporation, and became a personal defendant in the litigation.

10) During this process, Mr. Joy obtained a $40,000 judgment against the LSCVT for misuse of process. That judgment was paid.

11) In the litigation that LSCVT had brought, there were 58 named plaintiffs. The Court dismissed 57 of those plaintiffs, and trial went forward with one plaintiff.

12) During this litigation, Mr. Joy controlled five different companies. He put all five of them on the line, so to speak, in order to defend his innocence. As a result, all five closed.

13) In the final end, he was convicted. He was required to pay the sum of $1,152.15 to the plaintiff.

14) Mr. Joy acknowledges his conviction. As he was the sole owner at the time of the conviction, he accepts responsibility for that conviction. He does not challenge his conviction. At the time the charges were first brought, he was not the sole owner of CMSC, and he owned less than 50 per-cent of the stock in that company. As he bought out all of the other owners under conditions where he released them from responsibility for the charges, he at the time of the conviction became solely responsible for the crime.

15) It would have been far easier to have settled the case for the required $1,500 payment when that offer was made. However, Mr. Joy believed that he was innocent. He chose not to buckle under to the pressure, and to defend his innocence. Of the 58, he stands convicted of one.

16) Yes, he exercised his legal right to defend himself. Once a definitive decision was made, he stopped the appeals, made the payment, and went on with his life. He accepted responsibility.

Folks, as I have stated from the beginning: Yes, he has been convicted of a crime. His conviction came about due to the fact that he, at the time of the conviction, was the sole owner of the corporation. It should be remembered that at the time of the commission of the crime, he was not. To me this appears to be more a crime of lack of attention to detail, and/or sloppy bookkeeping. Further, he may very well have had a right to the monies. That issues was not determined by the Court, as VT law ruled that out as a defense.

Folks, one cannot rightfully state that Mr. Joy intended to obtain monies that were not rightfully his.

All one can state is that he was convicted of a crime that was essentially inattention to detail. He paid a very large price for that omission.

Make the best of this, folks.

We believe in transparancy, and oppeness.

Let us move on to more important issues.

NOTE: In regard to item # 12: With the purchase of CMSC, and before the litigation was completed, he controlled five companies. When the litigation began he did not control that many.

Joe, it may be helpful for you to read the whole thread as there are more comments on this situation in that thread.

If you question anything that I have said, you can check it out, and either verify or prove incorrect. I am open to either.

Well said Ozzie. The temperature must surely be rising quickly under Danny and Tommy to have such a strong smoke screen rise up on BSDA.

So, Danny, do you and Tommy really think your most recent threat of lawsuits against Pastor Glenn Dryden and the Dunn Loring, Church of God, Board of Trustees will stop the information about Tommy being distributed? A person can not be convicted of slander and libel who has told the truth. The truth is that children who were molested by Tommy, in Virginia and Illinois, are now adults and are coming forward with their testimony of the heinous acts perpatrated against them. Yes, interesting indeed, because you make the same mistake as many other defenders of your cause have done. You indicate that Sister is Linda. I can vouch for that these are two very distinctive persons, and that Sister has most of her information from a different source than from Linda.

It is so true that Sister has, and is, putting a lot into this. Her goal is to glorify God, and to reveal the truth that she knows from her own experience. She knows that the utter falsehood you are hiding is not to the glory of God.

Theresa, this is true for me too. I failed back in 2004 because I was afraid of Danny when he threatened to have me put in prison because I wanted to reveal the truth as I had experienced it. I was scared and ran away, but with God's help, this will never happen again. I do not fear Danny's prison. To me it means more to stand on the side of truth, and I appeal to you to be honest too. Or you may have problems on the final day of this world's history. Therefore, remember that the truth will make you free. Stop hiding in the mist of wickedness hun, no need to be amazed, except you should be amazed that things are no longer secret. You're the one talking to the air. nothing you are saying makes any sense. Don't need to keep going in circles over this - it's not Linda, so maybe you should just accept it. AND, just because others know many of the things that all of you know Linda does know, also means they can tell what they know without getting it from Linda. And from where I sit, and I am sure I'm not alone, Eye witness hasn't shown any proof of anything. Of course, it is obvious you will say anything you want to get whatever response you seem to need to get.

I was just amazed at sister writing to the air. Found it very interesting how she talks as if she is Linda Shelton. But I just came from Whats Happening With Linda and read she would never say or do something to deliberatly bash someone. Well, of course this is probably just what someone else thinks about her. Eye Witness has already shown proof that she will if it's to make her case.

Well thank you for you thoughts. I guess what Eye Witness has shown, is what it is, to those who want to read it, and put pieces together. As far as making sense we make a pretty good match. I was just reading an interesting editorial by Ted Olsen that refers to Matthew 18. Here it is:

http://www.christianitytoday.com/ct/2007/february/6.22.html

Bottom-Up Discipline
What do you do when your pastor--or your entire denomination--strays?

The bottom line was:

"A church's desire to be praised by cultural elites and a pastor's desire for sexual gratification are not that different. Pride deafens a denomination called back to Scriptures it thinks are outmoded, and it mutes a pastor who won't admit his failures to accountability partners.

There may be no Matthew 18 chapter for disciplining pastors neatly, but becoming more familiar with the thousands of verses on pride and humility would make the need for such discipline less frequent."

This author is saying that "pride deafens a denomination." Is this a possibility? When we become overcome by our own sense of pride, do we become a deaf denomination?

What about the part where Ted Olsen says that pride "mutes a pastor who won't admit his failures to accountability partners?"

By any chance, do you think that pride, inordinate self-esteem, could play a part in the House of Shelton? Could no one ever fill Danny Shelton's shoes?

Just asking.

Pete

My response to your statement above is First Danny Shelton is not a Pastor and the Church is not deaf. Pride is an inward problem and I would not be able to determine that. Inordinate self-esteem I don't see. He has modest attire, no fancy this and that. Can someone else fill Danny's shoes? If the Lord has someone else, He wants, to fill the position of Danny at 3ABN, then that person would be able to do the task for they would be lead by the Lord.

A board cannot do day to day operations because either all the board members would have to be there or they would have to be on a constant conference call. Have you seen the list of 3ABN board members and where they live? there has to be "in house" direction and decisions made by someone there...it is a fair question however.

A man can be VERY determined to do anything he sets his mind to (and if you know DS, he is all about determination and not giving up when he wants something) and so based on his motives and minipulation tactics, he could very well get something accomplished like this. You're picture of how this happend has been given to you by DS as well. It is given to you, and others for the purpose of saying "God did this and used me" for credibility sake. You are looking to a man and assuming GOD did this. God may have made something good come from what DS set out to do for many reasons that could have been very selfishly motivated. I will not assume anything as you have - I certainly can not take DS word on how things came about as I know that he has exagerated and mislead in this area to give a picture he wanted out in order to gain support and to promote exactly what you have now projected. Again, do you really know his fruits? If you are to find out his fruits, as you willing to admit he is a mere man who is faulty and God used that building and those volunteers in spite of the man? This picture is much bigger then you would like to sum up in your mind. Why don't you let God show you exactly what He has done in spite of DS and his real motives. Don't be mesmerized by what you have been taught and lead to see. Open your eyes.

I don't think you understood what she was saying. She wasn't giving credit to Danny, her whole point was how God USED Danny to accomplish a HUGE job that the organized SDA church had not been able to do.... and not to this day as far as that goes. There are tooo many things that HAD to be "God things"... Linda used that phrase a lot in reference to these miracles for 20 years... So what changed? Are they not miracles any longer just because Linda is not there? Sorry, you can't change the past.

Name the miracles.
God uses what He sees fit to use - if he can use a donkey, he can use anything or anyone. This does not mean however that Danny is special or unique (or anybody that wants all the credit for what "they" have done - like old Nebby, Danny resembles him). And it certainly gives him no right to claim he's a prophet or allow someone else to claim it for him.

Johann, are you saying that everything that is posted here about Danny and Linda is TRUE? surely you are not that gullible.... maybe it would be helpful for you to re-read or review everything posted, and then ask yourself............... could anybody be that bad??? wouldn't God have taken him out years ago? Did Danny just go bad about 2-3 years ago? the rest of the time, when you had faith in him.... and was employed by 3ABN... was he God's man then??

few months after the death of Tommy's mother....he had a Heart Attack while in Nashville. They vere close..He was Transferred to Sentential Hospital in Nashville where he had a stint on his left main rtery put in... and they used a balloon on another artery too close to the stint to unclog it. Pastor ------------- and 3 others were there for the procedure.
round six weeks later, Tommy entered Fairfax County Hospital in Virginia for another heart cath and hey did another balloon procedure because the earlier stint had collapsed. A couple of weeks later he vas back because the incision became infected.
n 2003 he was hospitalized in St. Thomas where the heart specialist told him, he was hours away rom another heart attack. He was sent straight to Nashville and had a team waiting on him when he rrived. This time it was the main right artery. He got another stint.
few months after the Blackhills program, he went in again for another heart cath to make sure there vere no more clots. There were none.
here are multitudes of people who know about his high blood pressure .....it is heredity. His father lied of his 3rd heart attack at the age of 51.... most of Tommy's brothers and sister also have HIGH lood pressure and high cholesterol and take medications for them.

Joe, if you really knew Mollie, you would know that she doesn't jump for anyone and that the only one who did any "barking" at 3ABN was Fluffy.

As to the question of who trained Mollie, that training came from her formal education when she attended college in New Orleans, where she met her husband Hal, and through the experience she gained in running a very successful ministry with him after they were married. I too have been in and out of Mollie's office and heard her make the following statement in front of Dan, when Linda was not present: "Danny thinks he runs 3ABN, but it is really myself, Linda and Mom Ford." Well, now both Linda and Mom Ford are gone from the scene and only Mollie remains. So who does that leave in charge of 3ABN? Danny could drop dead of a heart attack today and the "business" of 3ABN would carry on without a pause. Mollie would continue managing the business as usual and Hal would do the preaching. There is only one final purging of the ministry necessary for Mollie's dream to come true. And once that happens how long do you think it will take for Mollie to "purge the ministry" of the rest of the Shelton family?

And if Mollies falls? Well, Shelly and J.D. Quinn would be more than happy to step over Mollie and Hal and take the reins of 3ABN...

I couldn't have said it any better. Mollie is the one who runs 3ABN's daily responsibilities. Dan comes in with his demands, tapes a program, checks the money, and goes away.

God help us all if the whole lot of them are not thrown out together!

OK Joe, let's be honest about it! You give me right here a list of the obvious falsehoods posted, and I will have those things cancelled, providing you will give me a verifation the things are not true.

Yes, Joe, I was convinced Danny was God's man until I discovered how he was making false accusations against Linda, just so that he could get rid of her. I knew that a man of God would never do such things.

appealed to Danny. I tried to get Walt help Danny outline how their marriage could be restored, but all to no avail.

His father suffered his first heart attack at 36. The third one, at 51, is the one that caused him to die.

I am very sure. Tommy Shelton SR. was born in 1922 and died in July 1974. He would have been 52 if he had lived to his next birthday in Nov. What Danny should have clarified, was his dad's first heart attack was at age 36. the 2nd, was in his 40's and the killer attack was at 51 and some months.

Hope this is helpful

Joe, have you noticed (you obviously have) how many times sister has said put up or shut up and the first time you say it, it is taken as a threat. The allegations of "investigations" were addressed sufficiently, last night, to the whole world, even the FBI & IRS were addressed and answered. I loved Mollie Steenson's comment when she addressed the "rumors" of undercover investigations by saying "if they are undercover how do these people (that are spreading the rumoring) know about them? Exactly. Anyone who fails to see that there are truly not any investigations going on, doesn't want to see it. I'm with Joe. If there is investigations, come forward and show proof. 3ABN made a claim on world wide television knowing that if they lied, both the IRS and FBI would be very upset. So, accusers, go ahead and expose your proof of these investigations because, if you are telling the truth about them, you might be telling a lot of truths. If you are not being truthful about them, you might not be being truthful in many of your other accusations.

The accusations have been made here, that the leadership of 3abn isn't accountable to anyone. What about the "accountability factors" that Larry Ewing so beautifully explained?
There's Danny who can't take one penny without the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) making a record of it. Then there is a very professional 3ABN board of Directors who hold Larry E. accountable and then there's the outside audit each year.
How does all that line up with lies about no accountability? Oops, I forgot. All of these people are naive, stupid or involved. Funny, HOTY has said most of the people there are wonderful God fearing christians that are there because they want to work for our Lord. Yet, as stated before, many departments and the people in them would have to be corrupt or going along with the corruption to make this the den of iniquity that this forum paints it to be.
NEXT.....

What about the comments made on the live that the board has NOT ask Danny to resign? Who can refute it? He is still here.
The little group here is only showing their ignorance to claim that a large board of proffesional people, all of the accountants in the accounting office, the outside auditors and everybody in 3ABN administrative positions are all naive, stupid or are involved in all kinds of coverups. That just defies logic. Some of the comments made here only proves that the group on this forum refuse to hear any "real" truth and/or proof presented if it is on the positive side of 3ABN instead of on the negative.

Where is Gailon Joy in all of this? He has made a lot of statements. Is he still willing to come back with his false allegations with substantial proof. His post certainly did not contain anything but trying to pick words apart.
Well Joe, I guess we will both be accused of making threats just because we repeat sisters phrase of "put up or shut up."

Sorry, Clay, that doesn't make me a liar. It means I changed my mind, as many have done on this forum, when I saw a real "need" to post some "truth"
The fact that you would be so quick to insinuate that I am a liar shows where your heart lies.

And if a person knew about potential problems of child molestation, why would they have a liking for the word "bystander."

Who would ever act as a bystander if they thought there was a chance something unsavory going on?

As one pastor once said in his sermon, there is no such thing as an "innocent" bystander.

Is that really true? Addressed sufficiently?

I think not. Join the Catholic priesthood if you're thinking like that.

Pete, you are so one track minded. I said specifically in my post that all the rumors flying around in here about investigations by the IRA and FBI and whatever other law enforcement agencies that people here have thought up, was shown to be a total lie. The reason that I addressed those agencies are because they are "real". They actually have "real" trained investigators that have "real" credentials and everything. So, obviously, 3abn is not under any "real" investigations by any "real" law enforcement agencies. Thus let's squelch all the lies and rumors applying to such. Doesn't that seem reasonable.

You said "all" investigations. Now, you say, its really all the investigations except the ones they chose not to mention last night."

That's very different from "all investigations."

You said they were all addressed sufficiently. That's the idea you were trying to leave in the readers' minds.

It's good to know you really didn't mean all. Maybe you meant some? A few? The ones they chose to mention?

Dear Brother Bystander,

If you can provide convincing evidence that there is no truth to the allegations against Tommy Shelton, if you can refute the testimonies of the Clem brothers and Pastor Dunning, if you can show evidence to refute the claims in Pastor Glenn Dryden's warning letter of May, 2003, and if you can convince me that Tommy's emailed confession to alleged victim #7 does not mean what it says I will gladly leave this forum and let God deal with any other issues that might be present at 3abn.

If you are unable to gather the above evidence, I will need to follow the burden that God has placed on my heart and continue to do what I can to bring this truth to light and pray for healing for all involved.

Personally, I have not mentioned nor heard mentioned the FBI, here, except by you Bystander and last night by Danny and company. What I will say is there is an investation by the EEOC, which implacates both Danny and Mollie as well as the head of Trust Services, Leonard Westfahl. I did notice that nothing was said about that situation last night. And Bystander we both know what you, ahh, Danny calls Black people behind their back as he laughs at them. I will not repeat the term here, personally I find it degrading and so as not to offend anyone else.

Another question for you? What happens to the cash donations that come into 3ABN, do they still go to Mollie Sue and Danny, BEFORE they are sent to the accounting department to be posted? And what about the cash donations that come in at the Ralley's and go back in a briefcase with Danny on the jet and are not receipted in accounting until the following Monday? What about the cash that comes into Trust Services? And what about the trips Danny has personally made to individuals that want to place their large cash donations directly into his hands?

First of all, prove it. Prove where this agency is investigating. Now, I saw recently where Calvin said he is tired of people trying to identify each other and he doesn't want it to continue. I see this has not affected you with your constant insinuations toward myself and others. EVen though I have no responsibility to answer to you in anyway, I will, simply to put one more of your rumors to rest. I can promise you, and give you my word as a fellow believer that I AM NOT DANNY SHELTON AND NEITHER AM I A SPOKESPERSON FOR HIM.
You constantly say or insinuate that the only people that might defend 3abn on this forum would be close friends of Danny S. and/or his family. I have news for you sister. Despite your "Destroy 3ABN" campaign, despite the measures that you have used to pull people into your web of deceit, there are still thousands and thousands of viewers out there who love and support 3ABN and the message it takes to the world. I am one of these. CALVIN where are you when one of your own tries to plant sees of identity on others?

Posted by: sister Jan 19 2007, 03:21 PM

Bystander, you quoted the following, but neglected to address it, neither was it addressed on the "dead" live last night. Where is the accountability in regard to the previous statement I made and you quoted:

"Another question for you? What happens to the cash donations that come into 3ABN, do they still go to Mollie Sue and Danny, BEFORE they are sent to the accounting department to be posted? Sister

P.S. Bystander, I am not trying to "destroy 3ABN" , it is my desire it is saved. And I have spun no web of deceit, nor attempted to draw others into such a web. I tell the truth in the hope that by doing so the web of lies and deceit that have been spun by Danny Shelton will be subjected to the light and the ministry will be purged from the cancer that could kill 3ABN if let to it's own devices.

Bystander, what you and some others are not getting is that this forum is not, I repeat NOT waging a "Destroy 3ABN" campaign. We are making a concerted effort to HEAL 3ABN!

Teresa, I don't know Huggies motives for continuing to watch the 3ABN programming, but as for me I continue to watch 3ABN because there are MANY programs on there that are a spiritual blessing to me.

s sister pointed out, it was Bystander and Danny that mentioned "FBI investigations" not sister.

astor Joe and Teresa, I will make the same proposal I did to Bystander earlier today:

f you can provide convincing evidence that there is no truth to the allegations against Tommy helton, if you can refute the testimonies of the Clem brothers and Pastor Dunning, if you can show vidence to refute the claims in Pastor Glenn Dryden's warning letter of May, 2003, and if you can onvince me that Tommy's emailed confession to alleged victim #7 does not mean what it says I will ladly leave this forum and let God deal with any other issues that might be present at 3abn.

f you are unable to gather the above evidence, I will need to follow the burden that God has placed n my heart and continue to do what I can to bring this truth to light and pray for healing for all nvolved.

What exactly does an audit accomplish? How is it done? Who does this audit? How were they selected? I'm not trying to sound like I am demanding answers - these are just some questions that came to my mind...

Some of the shows I refer to are:

It Is Written Breath of Life
Wonderfully Made
Teen Pathways Tiny Tots Kids Time
Back To Nature
Voice of Prophecy
Body and Spirit
In the Footsteps of Paul Battles of Faith
Hans Diehl's health shows
All the General Youth Conferences
All of the cooking shows
Anything with Doug Batchelor
Anything with David Asherick(sp?) and Nathan Renner Anything with Dwight Nelson
Many of the "On The Road" programs

I watch 3abn Today nearly every weekday during my job and the ministries featured are often great. As far as the main characters under discussion here are concerned, I do see them in a different light now and it makes me sad. I constantly pray for them and for 3abn.

ince I have children, I make it a point to regularly check the national list of sex offenders. It is a very ood habit for parents to get into and would suggest that everyone do this. here are two people that I know of that are on that list that have been or are currently working at ABN. You may check the facts out for yourself at www.nsopr.gov Just type in their names or town nd click for a picture.

ne is Herb Grimm. He is no longer at 3ABN that I know of. The other is Bill (William) Cochran who is urrently working in the Production department and on the Production Truck. I do not know the pecifics in either of their cases.

or the bleeding hearts out there, there is no mistake here since their pictures are also on the site. It s as simple as that.

I was killing time while getting the oil changed in my car today and got interested in an article about Sherron Watkins, the Enron whistleblower. I have always had a great deal of respect for her courage so this recent interview with her caught my eye. The more I read, the more parallels I began to see with what I have been reading about 3ABN's situation. I truly believe in the work the ministry is doing, but I believe God is doing it, not Dan or Mollie or anyone else. Anyway, here are a few Sherron Watkins quotes that caught my eye - I especially like the last one:

"The CEO of a company must have pristine ethics if there is to be any hope of ethical behavior from the employees."

"How in the world did a qualifired and talented independent board of directors waive Enron's code of conduct twice?...their judgment was severely clouded..."

"There were managers within Enron, actually in the room when Enron's questionable accounting structures were hatched, and they complained - they tried to stop their birth. But in every case that person was shot down. Others soon realized to protest was fruitless and they just left the company. Or they reacted the only way they knew how - they posted comments on Yahoo's message board."

"I think there are difficult moments of truth when leadership is tested. And if these moments are not faced honestly, if the hard decision is not made at the point, it becomes next to impossible to return to the right path. It is that rationalization we spoke of before. Once you start to rationalize, you're stuck."

"I am sure you have heard of the analogy of a frog in boiling water. If a frog is thrown in a pot of boiling water it will jump out and save itself. If a frog is in a pot of cool water that is slowly heated, he'll stay in the pot until he boils to death."

"From bosses to managers to staff, we must realize when we are in a pot of water that has gone from cool to lukewarm. We must recognize that moment of truth, we must address it and then act. Once the water is heated past lukewarm, we won't have the willpower to jump out."

"The major point I sress now is how and why company leaders must have a zero tolerance policy for ethically challenged employees. It is probably the hardest role of a CEO, but when he or she discovers that an employee has violated the company's value system, that person must go."

"All it takes for evil to prevail is for good people to do nothing...Being an ethical person is more than knowing right from wrong. It is having the fortitude to do right even when there is much at stake."

I like a person that admits their weaknesses. Many of us can be one track minded at times, so don't feel bad. Anyway, No I am not addressing some or part of investigations. I said all and I meant all. Sister is the one who through in this EEOC thing in. No, they are not under investigation by that organization either. Even if they were investigated every which way that would not make them guilty of anything.

As far as sisters questions about cash being carried on the plane, if it is so..then..Linda was on that plane many many many times with that cash too. I am sure people handed her donations, at times, also. Was that ok then because it was Linda and not Danny S? IF any allegations toward Tommy S.

are true and go back many many years as has been stated here, then Linda would also have been aware of those allegations. Yet I have seen Tommy & Linda on the air many times together doing music in the studio and at the Live Rally's that were "on the road." Obviously they all traveled together to these events. The job that Tommy S. held before he took over production was something in programming and would therefore be under Linda's department. Obviously she didn't have a problem with putting him in that position. Many of the accusations made toward Danny S. and other administrative heads was supposed to have happened while linda was there as 2nd in charge. So where was she while all of these alleged things were going on. if she was totally oblivious to the many charges presented here, then she was a complete failure at her job of Vice President. If she closed her eyes to these alleged sins , then she was doing exactly what Danny S. is accused of doing and should be hung out to dry in the same manner you are trying to hang him out. Last but not least, if she wasn't oblivious, and she didn't close her eyes purposly to these events, there is only one other option....she was in on everything and therefore was part of the alleged "corrupt administration." After all, I have read on this site that Linda gave 200% to the ministry. If so that certainly puts her " In the Know" with day to day happenings on the premises. No matter how you spin it folks, Linda was not a "victim."

Whether Linda was innocent or not of the same things as Dan, she ended up a victim in the end.

How can you justify the diffence in treatment that Linda and Tommy received. If both are guilty of what they've been accused of, then why was the treatment so severe for one and the other soft as Charmin?

Don't assume that this site is pro-Linda, anti-Dan, because that isn't the case.

> Don't assume that this site is pro-Linda, anti-Dan, because that isn't the case.

irst off of course this site is pro linda anti dan. How can I justify the difference? Easy. I understand hat Linda was let go after proof was found of wrong doing and it was understood by those involved, fter a time, that the marriage would not be reconciled. Even with the reasons of dismissal It is again ny understanding that when Linda left, she was compensated extremely well (and that is an nderstatement) for her years of service. I was told that Tommy S. was not in any way, dismissed. He etired due to health reasons which I believe Joe smith named hospitals and dates and also heart urgeries that he has been through. So we know that this was not an excuse to hide the allegations hat Danny got rid of him. Either he has had a heart attack or he hasn't. Either he has had stint and alloon heart surgeries as Joe stated or he has not. Any doubters please, check the hospitals that Joe amed. you will find it is all true that he is in severly poor health due to heart problems. HOTY You can nly compare apples to apples. These circumstances are in no way related.

Bystander, I could apply your name to myself - I am a bystander with no direct interest in either side of all this discussion.

But I have read most of what has been posted - and if you had, you would know that one of the points of contention in the divorce was the reliability of the evidence of Linda's wrongdoing. For instance, when she was alleged to have been with the doctor in one place, Johann as a first hand witness put her some where else, without the doctor.

She received monetary compensation, and I am no judge of its adequacy, but with that had to accept a gag order while the other party to the marriage was free to say whatever he liked about her on world wide television.

Linda not a victim? What is your definition of a victim?

You really have a distorted ability to justify this. Linda was "let go" after some "supposed" proof was out there. Did you see it? Who exactly did see it? I didn't know it was possible to take pictures of spiritual adultery. (I'll have to figure out how to do that.) Linda - who was also a major factor on the 3ABN lineup was pulled virtually overnight. She's been bashed and bashed and bashed since then. And Tommy got a plaque. Isn't that sweet? (Let's get it straight - Tommy had a stEnt put in and had health problems before he came back to 3ABN this last time. His heart attack was not recently which you would lead everyone to believe.) I never said he wasn't in poor health. But which came first - the problem or the PROBLEM?

I don't know how you compare apples, but I think one's missing.

hoty, you know you are wasting your time. this bystander is a button pusher who has no interest in truth. he/she/they have definite reality issues (and a definite agenda). spin distract spin distract spin. tiring for sure, but it doesn't change the truth nor the facts. let them beleive what they apparently need to (or say what they need too). it's their loss to be in the darkness.

Nobody can make a claim that BSDA is pro or anti either one of them. Not when everyone is allowed come down on either side of the discussion within what I think are very broad parameters. Your story of events and explanation only serves to justify the openness of this place to express your opinions, nothing more. BSDA takes no position.

Dear HOTY:

I know for sure that you are telling the truth as I have wondered for some time about Herb Grimm. You have answered my questions because while I knew that he had moved down to that area, I was not certain that he had ever worked at 3ABN.

So folks, YOU CAN TRUST WHAT HOTY SAYS because Herb's first wife was a classmate of mine many years ago as was his twin brother's wife. Herb's sister-in-law told me not long before he and his second wife, Sue, moved down to Thompsonville that Herb had molested her son, his nephew, when he was over at Herb's house playing with his cousin. How many times this happened before she found out about it I don't know.

Thanks for the honest reporting, HOTY.

Brother Bystander,

While you are certainly entitled to your opinion and are equally entitled to have your own interpretation of history, I would like to make a small correction on part of what you posted.

Walt said he was told by someone that the allegations against Tommy went back approximately 30 years. Yes, Walt stated that and it was posted here. What Bob Pickle stated here was vastly different from what Walt stated. Bob was recently told that there are allegations of molestation against Tommy by several more males, including a minor, from Tommy's stint as a Pastor in Virginia in the 1995 - 2000 time period.

sigh First of all, did I ever say that 3ABN is offensive to me? I couldn't care less about 3ABN programming because I don't watch it...ever. If you would get down off that high horse every now and then and pay attention to reality down here on terra firma you might've actually read my post instead of reading into it words that I've never said. What I do find offensive is the hypocrisy and legalism that's being held up by pseudo-Christians as the new standard of "rightness" for Adventists. Second, I come back here because I choose to. Simple enough. The birth date on my drivers license indicates that I am an adult by all societal measures and, therefore, I am free to make my own decisions. I've never questioned the moral integrity or "Christian-ness" of this board or its owner, so my actions relative to BSDA are not on trial, nor are they any of your concern. I questioned the "Pastor" (whom you seem compelled to defend) because he wants to be holier than everyone else. When you do stuff like that, expect to be questioned.

Re: ". . . Linda was 'compensated extrene,y [sic.] well'. . . . just last week, Linda got approx. $250,000.00. She was co-founder, she got shafted."

Is this saying that Linda recieved 250 K last week? If so, is this a brand-new settlement? Or is the 250 K amount the total amount recieved over the time period covered by the settlement agreement?

Whatever it is, it is a settlement of something. As such, it is a clear statement that the involved parties (Linda, Danny, 3-ABN, or whoever) all agreed that 250 K was a fair amount for the issues resolved. As such, I would not say that she was compensated extremely will. The best that can be said is that all agree that she was compensated fairly. [NOTE: There may be legal reasons to challenge it as a fair settlement.]

It should be noted that the origonal settlement agreement, did not settle everything. It did leave some issues unresolved. If the 250 K is a recent settlement of those issues than that is what it is. It is an agreement between Linda, Danny, and 3-ABN that settles the unresolved issues for 250 K. If that is what it is, it should put the lie to the statements by some that Linda wanted multiple millions of dollars. If Linda wanted that much she would not settle for a mere 250 K. She would take her chance on a jury trial.

NOTE: I am making some general comments. I know that the last part of my quote is: ". . . she got shafted."

With all the public trashing of Linda going on, the claim that the "proof" has not been made public to "spare Linda" just doesn't fly any more.

And no proof of Linda's wrong doing has been presented!

Sounds like they are "scared" presenting their final "proof". Is it is too closely associated with the favorite 3ABN "demon" to present it to an audience that belives in Jesus Christ who rebukes the demons?

I'm starting to think a couple people could have lucrative careers with the national Enquirer.

Bob, rather then asking Joe to prove all, Can't you or Gailon call Black Hills, or ask Linda?

Or since she doesn't have a "gag order" of any kind at the present, couldn't she just post here and speak for herself, and tell us? or not

OR MAYBE, Since Derrell Mundall is a member here, and in touch with her (Being that he is the registered owner, Administrator and tech, contact for her website) maybe he could clarify???, or have her give her input about this whole Tommy dilemma on her website???? Does she support what you are all doing and agree with your new website?

Linda was working at 3ABN when Tommy previously was, around the time all this happened, and knows about his health, she knows when he went to Black Hills. In the website you and Gailon put up you have the New Years tribute where all this was being talked about by Danny and Tommy.

Linda was also on the board and knows about Drydens letter and what happened on the board.

Did Tommy's "alleged victims" claim he was so good at faking health problems that Doctors did heart surgery and put stints in?

That seems very unlikely.

Really so far...

There are far more people testifying to the fact that he does have high blood pressure and cholesteral problems and has had a major heart attack and surgery twice, then there are testifying about him faking it.

As a matter of fact Bob, it's you who keeps claiming this for these anonymous "alleged victims".

So it's actually your versian against every other person who claims to know about it, so far..

Derrell Mundall bought the domain and gave it and everything about it to Linda over two years ago. He is not her administrator, tech, or contact. If she cares to communicate something, she will. If not, she won't.

Althia, where do you get your information? You speak as though you know for sure, when clearly you do not, since for example Derrell Mundall has nothing to do with Linda's site as you put it. Also, it is interesting that you are among the crowd that want first hand information, as we all do, yet you don't accept it and then ASK someone to speak for someone else?

Does any one here actually doubt that Tommy Shelton has had these medical problems?

t is entirely possible that stress related to his lifestyle and its consequences has contributed to his health issues, and that could include an acute exascerbation of his symptoms.

for one do not accuse him of faking anything.

But those symptoms do not remove the necessity for answering the questions raised by his victims, not all of whom are now anonymous.

The procedure uses a tube called a stent, not a stint.

However, when these Southern Illinois spin doctors told it to you with their rural drawl, it came out "stints" didn't it?

And you took it at face value?

You actually know there are stents?

Just wondering, since you were the one that warned everyone at Maritime SDA Online that motor vehicle registrations are easily forged. But you seem to have absolutely no problem accepting these "stints" as something that actually happened?

It's too bad that Ted Haggard -- Colorado Springs -- didn't know about your "stints" theory. He could have run away and hidden, too.

Pete

Posted by: lookin4truth Jan 22 2007, 07:21 PM

There has been much Back and Forth regarding Tommy Shelton's health condition.

He may or may not have had the medical procedures, which have been discussed in these forums.

The fact is that victims have come forward, some who have been willing to open themselves up to ridicule. Tommy admitted in the letter, which has been posted on these forums, and on Save3abn.com, that he is guilty of inappropriate acts with Duane Clem.

If this man is a pedophile, what difference does it make if he is in good health or not? His physical illnesses do not give him the right to commit, nor protect him from the consequences of his crimes.

Those who wish to try and make his health issues the focus cannot change the fact that he has sexually abused, and that at least some of the victims were minors at the time of the abuse.

Posted by: Clay Jan 22 2007, 07:27 PM

thank you looking4truth.... you hit the nail on the head..... the health issue was brought up as a distraction.... the FACT is the man molested people....can't get around that.... what is obscene is that the Danny's apologists would excuse the molestation because he is reportedly in bad health...

Just wait, when Danny claims to have prayed for forgiveness for all he has done wrong, his apologists will then use that as proof that this situation no longer be discussed....

Cindy,
You have an interesting "version" of what has been posted here. In his letter to Tommy Shelton, Roger Clem states:

"When someone would confront you about what you did, you would try to take the attention off of what you did by having some sort of health problem (loss of memory, heart problems, nervous breakdown). It seemed odd to me that you recovered quick when you realized that you were in the clear. "

This is an eyewitnesses testimony. Roger doesn't say Tommy is "faking" it, just that Tommy's health problems conveniently would surface when someone would confront him about the abuse and that it seemed odd to Roger that Tommy would recover quickly when the heat was off.

Also, the "alleged victims" you are referring to are no longer anonymous but have stepped forward to bring forward this behavior that allegedly victimized them in their youth.

I would invite you to read their words yourself, Cindy. I would also invite you to go and read the confession email from Tommy Shelton himself to victim #7 at http://www.save3abn.com .

If in fact DS actually owns 3abn then it's true Linda got the shaft. But does he own it? Can he sell it and pocket the proceeds? Believe me I'm not one to defend Danny but I have to ask the questions. Did Linda really get the shaft based on the net worth of 3abn? Granted she got shafted in many other ways but I'm not convinced she did because of the worth of business unless Danny's name is on the title. Who actually owns 3abn?

xcellent points, lookin4truth!

would just point out that even if some of the alleged victims were not minor children at the time of he manipulation and abuse, the fact that Tommy was in a position of power makes his alleged actions ualify as pastoral sexual abuse which still, as the Clem brothers' testimony reveals, had devastating ffects on them.

Also, it is interesting that you are among the crowd that want first hand information, as we all do, yet you don't accept it and then ASK someone to speak for someone else?

SM,

ou need to do a little research yourself. Aletheia is spot on! If you want to see for yourself take a ook:

Registrant Name:Derrell Mundal
Registrant Email:derrell@mundall.com
Admin Name:Derrell Mundall
Tech Name:Derrell Mundall

I think that makes it rather clear that Derrell Mundall is certainly involved in Linda Shelton's website. I know that beartrap claims it was purchased for and given to Linda - but the fact remains DM is the Admin and Tech name attached to the site. Let him come here and explain any differences in the facts.

There is a significant difference between accepting "first hand information" and accepting what anyone with an ax to grind wants to say.

Yes, I paid very close attention to what is says on the site - I also noticed that it says in at least two places on the same page:
"This information was obtained from a different whois server, so we cannot verify its authenticity."

beartrap has told us that Derrell gave it over to Linda over two years ago. Just because someone sets up a website for someone else does not make them a spokesman for the person using the website.

SSM,

Go ahead and hide behind that weak point. A disclaimer does not mean that beartrap is correct. Linda's site has no link to a "webmaster" so based on the information that IS available one must logically assume that Derrell is indeed the Admin and Tech contact for Linda's site. If he did turn it over to Linda why hasn't that information been changed? It seems that if you turn a domain over to another individual and planned on having no other involvement with it whatsoever, you would also alter the Admin and Tech contact info.

You can check any search tool and discover the same exact information. Derrell is the Owner, Admin, and Tech contact for lindashelton.org. The available, verifiable information makes that unmistakeably clear. When that information indicates otherwise then we will know that he isn't involved. Additionally, it seems rather copasetic that Derrel would be managing and maintaining Linda's site as they both would be upset with 3ABN.

Observer the meaning is:

There was a post last week that stated how much 3ABN was worth for the last couple of years, and it was several million dollars. Linda got payment totalling close to $250,000.00. duerint the time this ministry was valued at several million dollars....she got shafted. as co-founder she should have been bought out for half the value of the ministry/business. It was by no means fair, while included within a statement whic kept her quiet while Danny blasted away at her character, even to this day. Got it now.............

If the 250 K is a recent settlement of those issues than that is what it is. It is an agreement between Linda, Danny, and 3-ABN that settles the unresolved issues for 250 K. If that is what it is, it should put the lie to the statements by some that Linda wanted multiple millions of dollars. If Linda wanted that much she would not settle for a mere 250 K. She would take her chance on a jury trial.

Beartrap could very well be mistaken, have been feed false information, or misunderstood what he was told. Who knows. The fact remains that:

I don't see anywhere that I call you or beartrap a liar. I am merely pointing out that your claim that Derrell isn't involved does not match up with the verifiable information. So, make of that what you will.

beartrap did not make a mistake, and neither did I when telling you that the site says

If you don't accept what beartrap is telling regarding this, you are in essence calling him a liar.

SSM,

Okay, let's play your little game. If (and there is not evidence that substantiates this) Derrell turned over the domain name to Linda it doesn't mean he doesn't maintain the site for her. It doesn't mean that he isn't still the Admin and Tech contact for the site. Let him come here and show us the transfer and make the claim that he isn't involved in any way, shape, or form.

\s owner of numerous domain names myself, I know that the reality is that the information at the lomain registrars is often hopelessly out of date. They don't care a whit, as long as they have a vorking credit card on file. ;-) And they don't care whose credit card it is.

t is likely that Derrel got the domain name for Linda, then turned it over to her just as he said, ncluding passwords to the registrar site. By what FHB says, the info at the registrar site is not ıpdated to reflect present reality.

'hat proves nothing.

agree Brenda, and am not disputing that he has a genetic predisposition to cardiac problems, and nost likely has the stent (mentioned) inserted, along with becoming ill, whenever there is a crisis.

tress is bound to exacerbate his condition. Does that mean that we should ignore the fact of edaphilia, that some seem to think is an extenuating circumstance?

s Brenda said above, his symptoms do NOT remove the necessity for answering the questions raised y HIS VICTIMS; especially in light of the fact, that SOME are now known. As is usual with any erson who engages in this behaviour, I believe that there would be many more victims who ave not come forward.

pparently, there is a history of memory loss, 'nervous breakdown' (whatever that really means) and hose are usually initiated by stress also. With the thought of being held accountable, it's no wonder hat Tommy is feeling stressed.

hould he be excused? NO.

nga, ccording to the latest domain history entry on whois.com (dated January 22, 2007) it indicates that errell is the owner and operator of the domain lindashelton.org. That would be rather current nformation.

Maybe this is the same reason that the word alleged is used when discussing the alleged abuse by Tommy Shelton of the alleged victims. Remember, "A disclaimer doesn't mean the information isn't true, it is an effort to insure no legal responsibility for the information to avoid legal situations later on. The fact remains that no matter where you look it up the information is the same."

You have a unique way of allegedly sidetracking the discussion from the important issues.

Linda's site has no link to a "webmaster" so based on the information that IS available one must logically assume that Derrell is indeed the Admin and Tech contact for Linda's site. If he did turn it over to Linda why hasn't that information been changed? It seems that if you turn a domain over to another individual and planned on having no other involvement with it whatsoever, you would also alter the Admin and Tech contact info.

t is plain that we can add domain name registration to the ever growing list of things regarding which ou are utterly clueless.

Here's my opinion: Don't post it.

Whether rightly or wrongly, you have gotten a reputation that will be difficult to change. It's just the facts. And if you post this you will not gain anything.

For example, you were the one who asked online in huge letters, "Is there a lawyer in the house?" Now if you interpret Johann's statement as being a threat, it will further convince people that you are terribly confused and don't have a clue about what you are talking about.

Do you really want that?

No Bob, I am not going to quote you.

But my "Is there a lawyer in the house?" was in reference to whether the contract between Linda and 3 ABN was still binding after the 24 mos, and I was hoping for one would answer. Don't you think thats a valid question?

But, that was, and is totally unrelated to Johann or anything I have asked him or posted about with him.

You think Johann was talking about that?

That doesn't even make sense.

Hi Cindy.

When I said, "Don't post it," I was talking about what you were thinking of posting, not my opinion. Of course, it would not be wise to post my opinion either.

Most folks who read the contract can tell that it is only good through December 2006. People will react negatively to your even asking that question since it seems so obvious to them just from reading it.

You may still wonder about many things, but it isn't wise for you to ask every question that comes to your mind. If at all possible, pick questions that most folks would think are good questions. And if you aren't sure if you can do that, it would be better if you were just a lurker.

You don't mind me being honest, do you?

Johann's message to you makes sense to me in light of your post. And if he could have worded it slightly better to communicate his thoughts better, well, he wouldn't be the only one that could do that in this matter.

I think at this point it would probably be better to just be a lurker. I had a pastor call me today who reads these forums, and he thought about the same.

See you.

Well Bob, Johann and I are still emailing back and forth. I do appreciate your honesty, but you have to know that what you just said clearly shows your take on everything and where you stand, and that changes everything. I reserve the right to repeat or post anything you write, from here on out. Just as you do with those you receive emails from..

I am NOT going to be censored nor adjust my thinking or questions to not rattle or disturb or make angry the majority, nor just lurk. Running with the crowd and letting them rule you is NEVER a good thing, for the majority is lost.

The majority thinks stating the obvious about the contract is a bad thing, and wish to keep it quiet??

How very opposite of honest people. Why are you with, and representing them?

I am sure many would like me to shut up and go away, but me thinks people protest way too much. The more people attack and get upset with me personally rather then dealing with the subject, the more I think they are doing so because there is something really rotten they are hiding and doing.

Christians NEVER fear questions. Why be afraid of the truth?

I never am

Cindy,

What you don't realize is that the pastor who called me put it a lot less kindly than how I worded the gist of his conversation.

You write:

"The majority thinks stating the obvious about the contract is a bad thing, and wish to keep it quiet??"

Why would they even think about taking that person seriously?

I can only speak for myself. I am not a Danny apologist, I don't know the man, and the first time I ever watched 3ABN was 10 commandments weekend, and since being on this forum, as posters here keep referring to broadcasts.

As far as Tommy goes, if he's guilty that will be proved. For many that has been proved by what has been posted here, for me, the evidence here needs to be verified as factual. So, I am trying to do that for myself, off these boards.

What I find sTrAnGe here is that with so many talking about Danny's guilt, they cannot seem to understand that for honest people who look at the whole situation in a unbiased way, most of what they find Danny at fault for, are the same things they refuse to find Linda at fault for.

"The Linda apologists" all claim they are not trying to defend her yet accuse all who mention her, or question her stance and accountability as being "Danny apologists"

This is surely strange behavior to me.

I constantly have to remind myself, that Linda can not be found gulty based on the characters, methods, tactics and spirit of those siding with her here.

On the otherhand, if I had such defending me, I'd have to speak up for myself and ask them to stop from shame, and embarassment.

Thus my question on several occasions:

Where is Linda's voice in all this?

My opinion also.

There are dozens of domains which have me as Admin and Tech Contact from when I used to work for an ISP because I was the one who submitted the request to the domain name registrarand who set their web site up... and once they were set up and I turned them over I have not had any further involvement with the domains, the information presented on those web sites or anything else pertaining to them...even though my name remains in their WHOIS information.

In order to keep people from hijacking domain names, domain name registrars make it painfully inconvenient to change the contact information for a domain... and most companies dont bother to change the info.. even when the person listed may no longer be with the company or may no longer have any involvement with the domain in question.

You are going to have to do better than this if you are going to 'prove' beartrap a liar... at this point you've proven squat.

The contract payments to Linda did end in December. That is the part that is obvious.

What is not so obvious is that those payments, in part, were for the promise of confidentiality. There is no time limit on the promise of confidentiality.

When you visit a law firm, a hospital or a real estate agency, you have a contract. Those contracts end when you get well, finish your legal business, or sell your house.

The contracts do not give the hospital the right to publish your health problems , the law firm the right to publish your will, or the real estate agency the right to tell why you sold your house. Those promises of confidentiality continue after you have moved on with your life.

Bob Pickle mentioned to you that he had an "opinion." And he specifically told you it would not be wise to publish that opinion. You should have listened to him.

Pete,

Ellen White wrote that a law that has no penalty is of no force.

Is there any penalty in the contract for speaking out after the final payment is received? Is there any penalty that could be conjured up and stick in court?

Posted by: Lee Jan 23 2007, 10:11 AM

Of course Linda can talk now on this board. To say otherwise goes against the freedoms of our Country. She has a free will and she can come on here and defend herself. Says WHO that Linda made a "promise" of confidentiality??--then WHY is she writing a book? Oh-excuse me, an "alledged" book!

To say otherwise is putting your head in the sand.

The same goes for Danny and Tommy and the 3ABN board... ergo there is no need for you and others to do it, is there...

Do you ever consider the ramifications of what you say on the things that you do? Given the frequency with which you are hoist by your own petard, I would have to conclude you do not... pity.

Yes, I think there are penalties.

I think this area of law is called "breach of contract."

Wikipedia:

"Breach of contract is a legal concept in which a binding agreement or bargained-for exchange is not honored by one or more of the parties to the contract by non-performance or interference with the other party's performance."

Writing a non-fiction account would likely be considered "non-performance" since Linda received money with the stipulation she would remain silent. There is likely no expiration on that promise. This silence was part of the "bargained-for-exchange" that Linda agreed to.

So, if silence was part of the contract, and that part of the contract is broken at a later date, the other party could ask for a remedy from the court, depending on the breach.

This violation is no different than if your law firm or medical clinic discloses your legal and medical affairs to the public - without your permission - at a much later date, long after you've paid your legal and medical fees, and moved on.

However, Linda is protected by the First Amendment when it comes to writing books. She can write fiction to no end.

However, I'm not an Illinois lawyer, so my opinion should not be construed with giving legal advice. All of what I have said would have to be verified by someone who is licensed there and can work directly with the person who signed the contract.

Vhat if - and this is merely a "what if" question - Liinda should welcome appearing in court to defend ier right to speak out, and to have the "gag order" made invalid?

Posted by: princessdi Jan 23 2007, 11:41 AM

Cindy, I am going to say this just one more time. Danny is guilty in my eyes, and many others because at one point in this sordid mess he has lied and exhibited behavior not befitting a christian, including his treatment of his Linda(for me it was the fact that he lied when he came through the dorr at BSDA). Simple as that! 9

What you fail to realize if that you are called an apologist, because even with letters posted by two of Tommy Shelton's victims, you refuse to believe, or it just doesn't matter to you. You asked for first hand, you got first hand, and you still don't believe it. Nobody is minimizing the actions of Linda, mainly becuase there have been none to speak of. She has been quietly going about her business.

As late as last night a question was brought about Linda's website, and it was answered from the horses mouth(begging you forgiveness Derrell), but for some reason you and FHB are having a problem with the answer. Now, it seems to me that there is not reason for you to be here asking questions, if you aren't going to accept the answers. There is very little second or third hand information here, but because neither of you even took the time to read, you don't know that.

Even if Linda did breach the contract by writing a non-fictional book, wouldn't she only be liable to the extent of the compensation she received to stay quiet, ie, $250K? Not that a quarter of a million dollars isn't a lot of money, but wouldn't book royalties cover that cost with a substantial margin left over?

Posted by: Spike Jan 23 2007, 01:36 PM

So the $64,000.00 question is why would they want to keep her quiet? If DS and 3abn are such an honorable and upstanding organization why the gag order? I mean they have nothing to hide right.

The answers are here if you are truly seeking for them!

hmmmm...

It's actually very quick and simple. This is pretty standard too.

The registrar for LindaShelton.org is Wild West domains.

Wild West Domains FAQ

How do I modify my account information?
To modify your account information, log into your account and click on "Account Information" and then on "Update Contact Information." Make the necessary changes and press submit.

How do I modify my domain registration WhoIS information?

The contact information for an account is the WhoIS information for all the registrations within that account. Updating the account information for your account, will update the domain registration owned by your account.

The contract specifically says that if she violates the contract by talking negatively in public, the payments will be terminated. That is the only penalty mentioned. There is nothing in it about having to pay back previous payments already made.

I personally feel that there is nothing that really can make the contract binding past Dec. 2006.

Someone said Linda might be writing a book. I think maybe she needs to, but it should be a combined effort of all that DS has wronged. I'm sure that list is quite long and would make for a most interesting read.

> The contract specifically says that if she violates the contract by talking negatively in public, the payments will be terminated. That is the only penalty mentioned. There is nothing in it about having to pay back previous payments already made.

> I personally feel that there is nothing that really can make the contract binding past Dec. 2006.

'our interpretation seems to be exactly what the contract says. The contract says that termination of :ontract payments is the remedy for non-compliance.

5o, Pickle, you feel the contract is written so that the Munchkin Coroner can say it is "most assuredly lead."

'hat's a good point of view. I like that one. But, I hope somebody checks with an expert, first.

question the wisdom of 3ABN creating a gag order that only lasted 24 months, if that was their ntent.

That allows you to submit it... it declares your intent to change it... it doesnt, however, change it. To avoid things like lawsuits, the registrar is going to check that 8 ways from sunday before the contact info is actually changed. What you see here gets the process started online... but the bulk of the work is done offline and involves things like originals of notarized documents on company letterhead... things one cannot submit online.

Nice try, Cindy...but again... no cigar.

Owning a number of domain names clearly doesn't make you an expert. Where did you find an entry that said the info on file was updated January 22, 2007?
This is what the whois server says today (Jan 23, 2007):
Domain Name:LINDASHELTON.ORG
Created On:12-Jun-2004 18:34:26 UTC
Last Updated On:07-Jun-2006 18:58:27 UTC
Expiration Date:12-Jun-2009 18:34:26 UTC
Sponsoring Registrar:Wild West Domains, Inc. (R120-LROR)

The information says that the last time anything was updated on the domain was Jun 7, 2006. And it is evident that the "updating" consisted of renewing the domain name for 3 years. That could mean that no more "updating' will be done till Jun 2009. Furthermore, if Derrell shared the login information and password, anyone could make the changes. Further beyond that, if Derrell himself made the changes and paid for three years of hosting ($27.00 or so), it would not prove that he was involved with the content of the web site in any manner whatsoever. I personally own domains and host sites with whose content I am in no way involved.

Not that it really matters, because, as I said, the registrar doesn't care a whit whether or not the information is current, as long as they have a current credit card on fiel. And if you don't believe Derrell, you'll not likely believe anyone else. Not that that matters either.

This is all just a red herring to distract from the real issues.

These are the despicable behavior of Dan Shelton towards not only Linda Shelton but towards other ex-employees as well, not to mention breaking of trust in the handling of funds entrusted to him. Further issues include Dan's knowingly employing a man previously fired for sexual misconduct with minors.

H'mm ... maybe someone close to Linda should encourage her to make a public statement as a challenget to 3ABN lawyers?

I suspect that Linda will not want to get involved in defending herself, because that is not generally productive. It is far better to leave the defense to supporters.

But perhaps it would be good for her to release a statement that would help in cleaning up some of the mess at 3ABN. She would need counsel to ensure that corroboration for anything she might say is available and forthcoming, etc. .

Very likely 3ABN lawyers would threaten. I suspect it's unlikely that they would actually bring charges. They have usually played the bully, and bullies are known for not following through.

BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ How Did 3abn Pass The Test?

As we sometimes say in colloquial jargon, 3ABN 'resembles' that article!

Oh...and the next question might be, "How did those other Adventist ministries NOT pass the test?"

I dont think mainstream news will care until this hits the courts. i dont' think the public would care at this point because looking at it all in a 30 sec. segment, which most news does, would only appear as a few speculations of wrongdoing on the part of a few people. right now i dont think there is enough clarification to assure them there would be no libel or slander. know what i mean? mainstream news doesn't care about Adventist, it cares about sensationalism and scandal. now even tho' we believe there is a lot of scandal, we've had to read a lot, hear a lot and observe a lot to bring us to this point. mainstream news won't do that. they will wait until it hits the big civil courts before they will show some interest. that keeps them safe because they will just be reporting the info the courts have before them.

Posted by: Noahswife Mar 25 2007, 09:38 AM

My guess is that ministrywatch.com might be getting a few emails this weekend?

Posted by: Pickle Mar 25 2007, 10:01 AM

As far as mainstream news getting a hold of it goes, the longer the delay of dealing with the issues, the more the chance someone will carry the story. For example, http://search.msn.com/results.aspx?q=3abn lists Save3ABN.com as #5 in a search for 3ABN. That's pretty high for just 2+ months of existence.

Then why did the mainstream news care about the ones in this picture? ☒ Attached Image

If it was "sensationalism and scandal" as you say, that they are interested in, then is it "sensationalism and scandal" to not be forthright and honest about where donor monies are going while going round the world in a private jet, having a fancy home, etc. which that article speaks to in specific relationship to TELEVANGELISTS? (And it wasn't a "30 sec. segment", it was a 4-page online article with references and links to specific names of people and ministries on the "watch-list." Of course, if you saw a 30-second segment on this in addition to the online info, you're ahead of me.)

BTW, anyone else recognize any of the faces in that photo? Wonder how we'd feel if another face entered the picture...

Some ministries have managed to fly under the radar...key word, "HAVE". Once they are on the radar screen, it's usually the end of the "hiding". God will not protect evil.

Seemed to me the latest records were 3 years old. What will make them up-to-date?

Even then some of the ministries listed are featured on 3ABN:

I ain't even gonna lie. Soon as the report came on I went to search for 3ABN....

Sho' did...

Posted by: princessdi Mar 25 2007, 08:40 PM

I saw part of this report on GMA Friday morning. The whole report was part of the 20/20 to be aired Friday night and was one of three stories where normal everyday people got fed up with certain situations,a nd did something aobut it. One of the others was a woman who was tired of folks in her neighborhood beeing baby mamas and daddys and not being married. She now has hosted at least one ceremony where 10 of these couples are given a wedding.

Those minitries were chosen because the citizen who did the investigation used to contribute to those ministries, and he got fed up with the opulent lifestyles. So it wasn't like a investigation by 20/20, just a regualr citizen. That is probably why 3ABN was not even considered, the mane is not Adventist, and his concern was amongst the evangelicals.

Now, my thoughts on why it hasn't hit the radar at all is that most have been very diligient in getting even GC to look in on BSDA and save2abn.com, did anybody think to call 20/20, primetime, Dateline, 60 Minutes. I dont' think so. Why? My belief is we are more afraid of this reflecting badly upon the Adventist church, than we are of someone who perpetrates these offense in the name of God. We are content to just go along as long as we don't let the world know that we even have dirty laundry let alone air it............so it stays in the dark. The Bible, however, promises that it will come to the light. Bringing these things to light within the church has not gotten any kind of decent response, let alone brought any changes. The way I see it, when the media gets a hold of it, it could be a story of how we dealt positively when we, indeed, had issues within the church, or we can continue on the route on which we are travelling and GC will be scrambling a day late and a dollar short, to get some PR aobut 3ABN being and independent ministry and not an "official part" of the Adventist church and how they just happen to carry every important event to the the church on their netowrk. The mainstream media has not picked up this story because it is not newsworthy. This mostly is about a 3 year old and very stale messy divorce. Please folks, this is not newsworthy to most Adventist, so why would the media care? After over 16,000 post on this subject, there is very little substance here nor any recent developments.

Tommy was found out, but now gone from 3ABN and there where never any charges files, no story here.

From what Fran has presented with the financial irregularities, IMO it is not material to make much diferences, no story here either.

So, somebody tell me where is the story?

Posted by: PeacefullyBewildered Mar 25 2007, 10:41 PM

Calvin,

Where is the story?

7

Yes, Tommy was "found out", it appears that charges have yet to be filed and now, like the Catholic Church did when it moved scores of abusive priests to other parishes, Tommy is "gone" from 3abn. And that means there is no story? All that means is that the cover-ups continue to have some success, but for how much longer?

If and when this finally sees the true light of day, IMO, it won't only be the story of a pastor's abuse of power but also how the president of a Christian ministry used his own power and influence to keep the alleged abuse out of the public eye by denial, minimization and intimidation.

The story won't be over until every victim has received Biblical restitution and there is the level of accountability needed to insure that other young men/boys are protected from victimization.

Points taken But I still don't see where TS is a newsworthy story related to 3ABN that merits national attention. The analogy of the Catholic Church does not work for me. The problem was widespread, numerous parishes, not one individual, that is what brought the nation attention.

There is a story here. It played on AToday, BSDA, and maybe can get some press in Thompsonville. But from a practical viewpoint, why would CNN or Time or any other mainstream media care that Danny hired his brother an alleged child molester?

So let me rephrase my question. Where is the mainstream media story?

there isn't one except for those who are into 3abn..... and since it is an independent ministry, the church can distance itself from 3abn anytime it wishes IF say 3abn became bad press.... However some of us were of that opinion from day one....

Calvin,
My analogy was that Tommy being "gone" does not solve the problem just as it didn't solve the problem for the RCC to move offending priests from parish to parish. Yes, the vast scale of pedophile priests far outweighs one protestant pastor but the attempted solution by 3abn was the same. The victims have not been taken care of properly.

One pastor + x number of victims + the leader of a world wide conservative Christian ministry allegedly covering it up = less than a mainstream media story? Perhaps. But then look at the legs the Haggard story got.

Posted by: LadyTenor Mar 26 2007, 01:40 PM

Several of you have mentioned that SDA ministries are not mainstream but look closely at the list supplied by MinistryWatch that they have deemed to be "suspect" about making financial records public. I saw three ministries listed with affiliations to the Adventist Church, namely, Amazing Facts, Quiet Hour and Your Story Hour. If I am not mistaken, these are all independent minstries with SDA affiliations.

Therefore there is someone out there who is not connected to the SDA church who has placed these "Adventist" ministries on the list of ministries who are suspect in disclosing financial records.

This does not mean, however, that there is something illegal going on at any of these minstries, or any of the other ones MinistryWatch has placed on their list.

BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Letter From Linda Shelton @ Www.lindashelton.org - Feb. '07

Posted by: sonshineonme Feb 15 2007, 12:18 AM

NOTE: Her letter of demand, posted March 2nd, 2007 now on her website. To go right there, click here http://www.lindashelton.org

In keeping with Linda Shelton requiring an open and transparent ASI sponsored hearing, Linda has now published a letter that includes a clear demand that 3ABN and Danny Shelton produce the evidence they claim to have for inspection and verification to the entire church membership and to the stockholders in the pews. Danny Shelton in various forms and under various alias has repeatedly referenced evidence that he claims to have thereby giving him a basis for divorce and remarriage. The chairman of 3ABN on AToday has made it clear they have no proof of an adulterous affair. Linda Shelton and Arild Abrahamsen have repeatedly asserted that there is no basis for divorce, that no inappropriate relationship occurred and that there is no evidence to support the Danny Shelton claims.

We have repeatedly asserted that if there is no proof, then a remarriage would constitute an adulterous relationship. Danny Shelton was married at 3ABN in March 2006 to a Brandy Murray, a 3ABN employee that reportedly arrived at 3ABN of Thompsonville in July of 2004.

Here is the letter from Linda in its entirety and is also available at www.LindaShelton.org and on www.save3ABN.com . I believe it reflects the same Linda, a bit stronger and less naive than in the past, but as deeply committed to her relationship with the Lord as we all remember so well on that porch at 3ABN.

Linda Shelton does respond to e-mail and will be happy to have a concert or a deeply spiritual service at your location, wherever you may be.

February, 2007

My warmest greetings,

A couple approached me, with tears in their eyes, and said, "We have just missed you and we wanted to see you to make sure you were okay." As I saw the pain in their eyes, over the events that have transpired in my life in the last few years, it was as if my heart was pierced again. "We are just so happy to see you smiling, in church and still serving God." Our meeting took place a few months ago at the Bible Chapel Seventh-day Adventist Church, where I am a member. I enjoyed my visit with this caring Christian couple and the compassion and love they showed toward me.

Some people act surprised that I am still a member of the SDA church. But why? God is still the same awesome God that He always has been, the incredible Bible truths embraced by the Seventh-day Adventists are still just as true today as they ever were and although a "thousand shall fall on my right and a thousand fall on my left" nothing will ever change these facts. We must hold firm to our faith during troubled times!

Many have written to me over the past many months asking me to update my website. This I have prayerfully considered for quite some time, nearly a year. Quite frankly, I just have not known what to say. I feel that this scandal has made a large, festering open wound in my Church. Perhaps the truth revealed will ultimately bring the healing that everyone needs. Then we can grieve together and move on. I am certain, in essence, I have died a thousand deaths over the events of the last couple of years. But, with the Lords blessing, I will try to address issues which have been brought to my attention in the kindest manner possible.

For the first time in nearly three years I will not simply deny the accusations, but will directly address certain issues. I do not take pleasure in speaking of these things. I think I have always been the one who would rather receive hurt, than be the one to inflict hurt upon others. But during the course of this last year I learned some valuable lessons through Dr. Mable Dunbar of Pollys Place Network, she has been an incredible support and help to me. Mable is a woman who truly loves the Lord and is not afraid to stand up for what she believes is right, even if a whole army would stand against her.

Pollys Place Network is a ministry which empowers abused lives and aids them through their difficult circumstances. It is a marvelous organization and so needed for this age when Satan has focused his wrath upon breaking up the security and circle of love God intended for our families. I videotaped some interviews, for Pollys Place, at the SDA Conference office in Spokane, Washington with several individuals who had been through incredibly painful situations. Each of them, in essence, had the same healing story. It was when they were able to come forward and expressed the truth about what happened to them, that their healing came. Inspired by these individuals, now I can accept and believe it is Gods job to protect the ministry I have loved and co-founded, and its my right and my healing to tell the truth about what has occurred.

I am co-authoring a book and its purpose is to share the silver lining of the amazing lessons the Lord has taught me through this crisis. I feel the Lord has lifted a veil and allowed me to see the world that He sees, a world far different than we see. I see that the darts of false allegations that Satan has thrown toward me and my ministry were not directed solely for my downfall, but the aim was much wider. Although I was the apparent target, Satan was attempting to destroy the ministry I loved and co-founded and cripple the witness of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. My perspective has been forever changed through my experiences and my book will give me the opportunity to share these lessons more fully with all of you. (I will keep you posted as to the release date of this book.)

John Knox once said, "Kings (or leaders) have not an absolute power to do in their government what pleases them, but their power is limited by Gods Word; so that if they strike where God has not commanded, they are but murderers; and if they spare where God has commanded to strike, they and their thrones are criminal and guilty of the wickedness which abounds upon the face of the earth, for lack of punishment." John knew his Bible. It is a Biblical principle that if we see a wrong and only look the other way or feebly say, "I will let the Lord deal with that one," then that wickedness is applied to our slate, plain and simple.

The most devastating blow a televangelist can get is the false accusation of adultery. Although I have already made this statement on my website I want to address those of you who have loved and valued my Christianity, integrity and my ministry for the 19 years that I was at 3ABN. I want to clearly emphasize that I was 100% faithful to my husband. I loved, trusted and believed in him to a fault. Imagine my shock when I realized that the false allegations in the form of libel, slander and defamation directed my way were initiated by two of the closest people to me on planet earth; one was my beloved partner and the other was my closest lady friend. I loved them both and trusted them both to the point that their close communication did not bother me in the least. I know that sounds naive, but I did not believe that Dan would do anything that would harm the ministry we had built together.

In 2004 there was a tremendous outcry at my departure. There was suspicion over how swiftly I was fired from my position and divorced. There was suspicion over the fact that I never had the opportunity to talk to the Board and defend myself. There was suspicion over the fact that every trace of my presence was completely cleared out of the campus of 3ABN, even before my termination, as well as the website, television and radio broadcasts. I was made a sacrificial lamb in a scheme calculated to remove me from both my home and my ministry through an orchestrated campaign of malicious lies circulated around the globe. No words can begin to describe the absolute agony this has brought to my life, but there are other victims as well, and may God bless and spare the young lives and tender souls who have also felt the stinging thrust of this sword of scandal.

It has completely broken my heart to see the emails and letters which have come from the Chairman of the Board, Dan and others at 3ABN, to hear of the television and radio programs where erroneous references have been made to the situation, to watch the ministry that I helped build with much devotion used to destroy me and also to hear of the reports of what is being said on the SDA chat sites about me today by those bent on my destruction...nearly three years later.

It was the false accusation of adultery which caused the loss of my marriage, my reputation, my employment, and everything else. I challenge the 3ABN Board to produce the "irrefutable evidence" which caused a co-founder, a life-time Board member, Vice-President and Secretary of the Board to be removed in that May, 2004 meeting! I am asking, no demanding, that the information is made public, at my request! Cast aside these pretended desires to "spare me"! The world is waiting with baited breath!

The stakes are high. I, as well as others, have personally experienced electronic surveillance, email theft, interception of cell phone calls, post divorce entry into my private residence to the point where charges were filed with the police. It is not easy to live your life when you feel that you can never know for sure if you are being followed, watched or recorded...even now. I have had invitations to do ministry thwarted because of continued allegations by those, who, like wolves in sheeps clothing, attempted to stop my ministry.

I want to make this absolutely clear: I left my home because I was not safe, I was not welcome. I was witnessing the murder of my reputation and ministry day by day. I stayed as long as I felt I could. I hoped, believed and prayed that things would change but they only got worse. The statements made that I left my husband for another man are absolutely and totally false. Any thinking person would realize that I had everything a Christian woman could have wanted in this life: a husband I loved and the opportunity to minister to millions of people about the tremendous love of my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, though the ministry that we spent so many years building together. Although two of the people who I loved best have called me "Gomer", yet a more accurate term would be "Hosea", which I would only discover later. But I prefer simply, Linda, "SAVED by the Blood of the Lamb!"

I do not visit the chat sites. This has been a mega-trial for me and my way of coping has been to try and focus on other things. I realize that the individuals which make up our Church need healing from this disaster too. And perhaps the chat sites have served to help people give expression to their frustrations and hurts in this situation. I am grateful to each of you who have prayed and interceded for me. It has meant so much during my dark days. Youâ€™ll never know just how much!

Now my kids are grown and I am alone...but not really alone, although I have not husband. Now I belong to everyone and everyone belongs to me! And I still sing, "Thank you for being my family, thank you for being my friends: May God bless and keep you in all that you may do until we meet again!"

It is my goal to just make your journey and mine a little lighter and brighter. I have faith that the Lord still has a work for me to do, a new ministry. I am ready and available for church services, week of prayer, concerts, etc. as the Lord opens the doors. I do not know what my future holds, but God does and that's enough for me.

Just in closing I want to make an appeal to you to get out your binoculars, dust them off, bring them into focus and then search... Love your neighbor enough to be a Good Samaritan. When he is broken and bleeding in the middle of the road, focus your binoculars with the love of Christ, but don't stop there, reach out and meet his need in his time of crisis. Christianity is not something that "just happens". True Christianity occurs when a decided action is taken...when we search, when we fill a need, when we mend a broken heart and when we are just "there" for hurting people. There is a lot of them. But there are too few Christians who focus their binoculars with love.

Thank you for being my family! Stay close to the Shepherd!

Blessings to you and yours

Linda Shelton

I realize you do not come here, but if you ever do, I have been praying that the Lord would open a Door to end this whole mess, and your courage I believe has openned that door.

Praise God whom controls all things in the end.

Linda;

One day I would like to meet you if it the Lord's will. I would like to tell you what your silent witness has done for me.

However, your walk has been so public, thanks to your ex-spouse, and I see that it took a miracle of love and grace for you to stand today. "You have been broken and spilled out for the love of You, Jesus."

Have you ever had a foam throw pillow that got buried under a heavy pile of blankets? Then one day you find it, but it is flatter than a pancake? Yet you take it out to give it room to expand and eventually it does!

We are like that pillow. Some of us have been under a heavy load for years, however, 3 years ago someone (God) took you away from your oppression and has given you room to grow. Just like that pillow, you can now stand tall and bring this travesty to an end.

May your "pillow" grow even larger than it ever was before.

We are family.

Much love,
Fran

Praise the Lord for Linda's letter!!! I have been blessed reading it. It's very encouraging to see the Lord at work in her life. I'm so glad to see that though she's gone through the fire of terrible tribulations she's stayed firm in the Lord. Alleluia!!!
I'll be praying even more now. I imagine that the devil will do everything in his power to annul Linda's strong witness for truth. I pray for protection for Linda and for the Holy Spirit to work in peoples hearts so truth can shine. And, if possible, I would like for the 3ABN ministry to be spared through confession and repentance. Oh, Lord, hear our prayers! Amen!

NOTE: Linda's reputation has been so trashed that she believes that she has nothing to lsoe by making everything public. So, 3-ABN, Danny, Dr. Thompson: Bring it on.

As stated, the issue of making it all public was a major factor in the failure of ASI to mediate a resolution to the issues. LInda wanted a public record for the world to see, where each perosn could make up their own mind. ASI (apparently 3-ABN, Danny ?) did not.

In my opinion, this has no substance, for the most part it is just: cut and I think all this talk of lawsuits, is what stirred this rally the troops letter.

What did she really say?

1. "I'm persecuted" -- No proof or evidence

2. "I don't visit the chat sites... " -- This is a bit much if you are aquainted with any of the behind the scenes garbage. In any case all her friends and supporters do, and her representatives have a website, slandering 3ABN and this letter will appear in both ...

3. Prove I committed Adultery!

The facts are ASI was to consider the issue of Linda and Danny's divorce and his remarriage with evidence submitted by both sides, and witnesses for each. Their findings and the reasons for them were to be made PUBLIC.

Danny and 3 ABN agreed. Linda's side, including you, did not. You wanted to discuss other thiings...

Yes, it does seem as though not only does Linda reveal the same spirit which she has shown since "the beginning" of her ordeal, but that Cindy has also (and dramatically) revealed the spirit with which she has posted on this topic since "the beginning" of her time with us.

Scripture gives us the principle that when one judges others without sufficient cause, one reveals one's own self by the type of judgment one passes. But seldom does one so clearly portray their own inner attitude as Cindy as done for us here.... including her own execution and plea for it to be speedy.

Very interesting. Very interesting indeed.

God the Righteous Judge will continue guiding in the process of bringing both good and evil to the light of day........ ....

Aletheia:

In early December, I recieved an e-mail from Mr. Lance. Quoted below are a couple of paragraphs from that e-mail that I believe are important:

> QUOTE
> I know there are many issues being discussed. I have counted at least 23 in the last few weeks. Some issues are already the subject of ongoing litigation. The request from the 3ABN Board of Directors to ASI was: ..."request to ASI that it establish a commission to evaluate and determine Danny's' legal and moral right to remarry". ASIs' membership criteria includes a component that requires the applicant or its leaders to be in regular standing with the SDA Church. We check that factor in every application. Membership in the SDA Church is the exclusive province of the local church (except for membership in the "Conference Church", not involved > here). The rather unique situation of the Church associated with 3ABN creates a different perspective from the typical SDA Church on matters of membership.

>
> All of us know ASI has no jurisdiction to act as a court with authority to make orders and awards that disputants are required to follow. What we may have that could be of assistance is some stature and credibility that would make its' findings hard for the parties to ignore. This can only have a possibility of succeeding if the parties support and respect that potential. Because of ASI's membership requirements there is some logic for ASI's involvement on issues that directly reflect on 3ABNs' membership status in ASI. We believe that ASI could properly focus on issues revolving around the biblical appropriateness of the Shelton's divorce and Danny's subsequent remarriage, issues relating to Linda's and Danny's employment status at 3ABN and actions taken concerning Linda's membership in the local SDA Church.

GM:

1) You will note that ASI accepted a request from 3-ABN to examine Danny's legal and moral right to emarry. That is clearly a one-sided approach that appears to benefit Danny and 3-ABN. As you know, ne of the issues was whether or not Linda had a Biblical right to divorce Danny and to remarry. In airness, the examination should clearly have been expanded to include this aspect: Did Linda have a Biblical right to divorce Danny and to remarry.

2) In mediation, an impartial mediator never accepts the boundaries that one party wants. Rather, the mpartial mediator discusses boundaries and limitations with both sides. Only when both sides agree pon those limitations does mediation begin.

3) As I have said, several times: I agree with Mr. Lance that the majority of the issues lie outside of he ability of ASI to resolve. Those issues, if ever resolved lie in the area of the civil authorities.

>
> You may have learned that it is the ASI position that there needs to be a balance between the process of being open and on the other hand be respectful of the legitimate privacy concerns of the parties. Government, worldly businesses, charitable organizations and the Church all recognize this need. When sensitive personnel matters are under consideration Boards typically go into executive session for such discussions. Accordingly we expect that this process would do the same and that information and documentation would be received and held in confidence by all of the parties and their representatives. At the conclusion of the matter the Panelists findings of facts and recommendations would become publicly available.

16

letheia, Here Mr. Lance states that the facts and recommendations would become public. His tatement is fairly clear that the reasons for those recommendations would be held in confidence. That vas unacceptable to Linda. Her reputation has been so trashed that it was a fundamental position of urs that the reasons for the recommendations should be laid out in a manner that any person would e able to access those and decide themselves as to whether or not the charges were true. Linda elieves that she has nothing to lose in this. There is a very clear difference of opinon on the issue of naking things public. This was one of the reasons the ASI attempt failed.

letheia, you are wrong when you attempt to imply that ASI wanted it to be more open than Linda vanted.

> It seems to agree with my assessment of what must be accomplished if ASI can establish a panel that can achieve some degree of resolution. If he has read what I have previously posted on the Internet, he knows that I have stated that the following are the critical issues that the respective parties must agree upon if this panel is to be effective:
>
> 1) They must agree upon the issues to be considered.
> 2) They must agree upon the aim of the panel, or to put it another way, what the expected results are.
> 3) They must agree upon the process.
>
> NOTE: In my previous public posts, I have expanded upon the above slightly.
>
> In my understanding of what Harold has written, he also sees the above as critical issues.
>
> I have reflected upon his document overnight. Without detracting from what I consider to be an excellent document, I will suggest that it contains a number of issues that need further clarification, and agreement by the parties. It is my intention in my response to identify those and to comment upon them. Any references that I may make to "critical issues," unless otherwise identified, will reference the three listed above. To identify my point for discussion, I will quote from Harold's document with a "Re:" followed by either the quotation, or a brief summary of a point in his document.

Discussion:

a) Re: ". . . request to ASI [by 3-ABN] that it establish a commission to evaluate and determine Danny's' [sic] legal and moral right to remarry."

This falls under my critical issue # 1.

This request seems to limit the issues that are to be considered by this commission. Perhaps that is O.K., if the respective parties agree to this. In my mind, the marital issues, which have some importance, are much less important than other issues. Again, what do the respective parties want, and agree to?

A larger issue is that this wording restricts the marital issues to Danny and Linda, their divorce, and Danny's remarriage. I will suggest that the marital issues are much larger than this focus. Danny has been charged, rightly or wrongly, I do not know, with sexual misconduct, during the time that he was married to Linda, and following the divorce, prior to his marriage to Brandi. These issues are clearly marital issues, yet they lie outside of the narrow focus as requested by 3-ABN.

I acknowledge that this commission cannot be expected to consider every one of the issues that are considered important by everyone. But, I think it is important that this commission issue a statement of such limitations, and that therefore interested parties are free to pursue redress in other venues, to include the civil authorities. After all, God established civil government, and directed all of us to submit to its rule, when not in conflict with God. This all is related to my critical issue # 2.

Re: "ASI has no jurisdiction. . . [and is without} authority to make orders and awards that disputants are required to follow."

I agree wholeheartedly with the above. ASI is very limited in what it can accomplish. To place what Harold then states in words of my own: ASI can only make findings of fact, and recommendations. Again, this is related to my critical issue # 2. With this perspective, ASI cannot require binding resolution. There must be an acknowledgement that the parties are free to reject, and to see other venues for resolution. If any of the parties should do so, the findings of fact, and recommendations of the Commission would play a role as to how the SDA public perceived this situation. From this perspective, I believe that the parties would carefully consider such findings and recommendations, before rejecting them. I believe that this would be helpful.

c) Re: The Biblical appropriateness of the divorce and the remarriage.

We are on uncertain ground with this one, as important as it is. Regardless of the CHURCH MANUAL, we as a denomination do not agree with what constitutes Biblical grounds, and remarriage following divorce. In my personal opinion, as applied to this situation Biblical grounds must be limited to sexual misconduct, and what is commonly considered to be adultery. This presents us with a problem. Danny and 3-ABN (Dr. Thompson) have clearly stated, many times, that they have no proof that Linda violated what I have just laid out above. From this standpoint, by the thinking of some, with this admission from Danny and 3-ABN, the Commission can only find that Linda did not provide Danny with Biblical grounds for divorce. I agree with that position, until it is proven to me that she did commit adultery.

NOTE: In my mind, and that of many conservative SDAs so-called "spiritual adultery" and adultery in one's thoughts are not Biblical grounds. ASI will clearly, in my mind be off the conservative platform if it suggests any such do constitute Biblical grounds. Any such opinion coming from it will highly disturb its conservative base of support.

[I have removed a very short paragraph—GM.]

There is also another issue here that is raised due to the fact that the SDA church is divided in regard to what are Biblical grounds for divorce and remarriage. It is a fundamental issue under law that people be treated equally. It is likely that people are not treated equally in this issue, and are treated according to the congregation in which they find themselves. The ASI Committee should consider not only Biblical grounds, the CHRUCH MANUAL, but also the typical way that people are treated today in SDA congregations. I.e. They should not treat either Danny or Linda more strictly than they would be treated in the typical local congregation. This is required by basic fairness.

Retention in a position of spiritual leadership is an appropriate consideration. I.e. A person might be retained in church membership, yet removed from a position of major ministry. When such is done, there is an obligation to treat all in the same manner. E.g. If Linda is to be examined as to her conduct, and whether or not she should be retained in a position of spiritual leadership, so also should Danny be examined. And, her treatment should also be examined in relation to other people who may also have been charged with sexual misconduct.

d) Re: Issues of Danny and Linda's employment:

ASI can only recommend. It cannot enforce. ASI potentially could recommend that Danny be relieved from all employment at 3-ABN, if this was thought to be appropriate. However, it is a stretch of the imagination to believe that such would happen if ASI were to recommend it.

As to Linda: Realistically, she could not effectively return to 3-ABN unless there was a major change in leadership to include the Board. She simply would not be allowed to effectively work there, and would likely be marginalized.

e) Re: Issues regarding Linda's membership:

Linda is presently a member, in good standing, in a SDA Church recognized by a recognized SDA Conference. Her membership should not be an issue.

Should ASI consider how she was treated by her church of former membership? Perhaps? Maybe? I am not certain? What would be accomplished? Within the denominational rules that are supposed to govern such, local congregations have the authority, right or wrong. Perhaps the best that could be said might be so say that the relationship between Linda, the local congregation, the Conference and its leadership, and 3-ABN, was of such a nature that denominational rules in existence did not provide the guidance that was needed, and that therefore issues of potential ethical conflicts arise out of this situation.

NOTE: I am not attempting to prejudge the case, or to suggest that there is only one conclusion that the Committed may make. I think that there are many aspect of this case that present very hard questions and I am not certain that ASI can resolve them. Perhaps, however, they can raise issues that may be resolved for future situations should they rise again.

[I have removed a major section of material which deals with issues outside of what Aletheia mentioned—GM.]

The issue of a record is important. There must be enough detail to provide a historical record for the future.

'i) Re: Balance between privacy and openness.

There is a clear place for privacy. Women who accuse someone of sexual misconduct must have some expectation of privacy. Society in general recognizes such.

However, society distinguishes between common people and public figures. Danny and Linda are both public figures. Both have been accused publicly of major sins. Neither rightly has the > expectation of privacy that a common person might have. In any case, with the publication of their alleged sins for the world to read, privacy in [is] not the answer at this time. In fairness to both of them, a final report should report findings on the accusations that have been made against them. As public figures, the SDA public needs to know such findings. If this is not done, these issues will not go away. They will remain in public view and under public discussion.

I have removed a very short paragraph as it dwelt with an issue outside of what Aletheia mentioned—

I agree with much of what you have said. This mess could turn into litigation that conceivably could result in the expenditure of several hundred thousand dollars. Under some circumstances the idea of it costing tens of thousands of dollars is a gross underestimate. I agree that the Church does not have a process that is suitable for the situation that we are facing. I also think that it is not possible for some of these issues to be resolved outside of the civil realm.
>
> However, I do believe that it is possible for ASI to be involved in this situation in a manner that will be helpful. But, that is only if the respective parties can come to an agreement that allows for that. I am not certain that such an agreement will be reached.

I will make some personal responses to your post to us. I will identify them with my initials (GM), to distinguish them from your comments. It should be noted that my response is simply that, my personal response. It may, or may not agree with that of others of us. In this issue, Mr. Joy is the primary person who is representing the interests of Linda Shelton.

WILL OUR PROCESS CONFLICT WITH THE PENDING ASSET DIVISION LITIGATION?

GM: This is clearly an area that should not be decided by any independent panel. This belongs to the civil realm. In my opinion, it is Biblical for some issues to be left to t he civil realm. Further, that is consistent with the CHURCH MANUEL. Some issues simply cannot be decided outside to the civil authorities. This also applies to a number of issues. Included in these would be criminal matters, and certain financial matters, and issues of taxation.

If we agree on the above, I believe that it is critical for the ASI panel to issue a statement that certain specific matters belong in the civil realm, and people who pursue those issues in civil courts, or cooperate with such, are on Biblical grounds for doing so.

Is ASI willing to issue such a statement?

IS ASI IMPARTIAL OR IN DANNY'S HIP POCKET?

GM: There will always be people who will believe that ASI should not be involved. In one sense, probably most people involved in this will have some sort of a bias. We are never going to change the mind of those who believe that ASI should not be involved. The issue is: Can we structure a process that the respective parties can agree to, and is as fair as possible?

SINCE THERE ARE MANY OTHER CONCERNS WHY LIMIT THE ISSUES TO THOSE SUGGESTED?

GM: You are correct that ASI probably cannot deal with all of the issues that have surfaced. There are many reasons for that. The decisions as to what issues to deal with cannot be made unilaterally. If ASI does that it will immediately be seen in a negative light. The decisions as to what issues to deal with must be made by the parties involved. That is the first issue: What are the issues to be considered?

The second issue is as I have referenced earlier: What about the other issues? How should people work to resolve them? As some are likely to only be resolved in the civil realm, will ASI publicly state that people who do such are acting appropriately?

DO ACTIVITIES AND PERSONNEL ACTIONS THREATEN LIABILITY FOR THE SDA CHURCH?

GM: I am one who has clearly raised this issue. In discussions that I have had with other people, it is clear to me that I have not been clear in what I was attempting to communicate. Let me attempt to state this issue in a better form: I DO NOT believe that either 3-ABN or the denomination has so-called ascending liability for the past actions of any person during a time when they were not employed by 3-ABN. It would be a stretch to conclude otherwise. However, I do believe that should a person accused of prior criminal acts commit such acts in the future, while in a relationship with 3-ABN, that such could involve both 3-ABN and/or the IL Conference in liability. That liability could be based upon the failure of both 3-aBN and/or the IL Conference to exercise due prudence in assigning duties to an individual whom they knew has been accused of criminal or immoral acts in the past.

Re: "IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT THE INTERCHAGES, CONTAINING DEROGATORY INFORMATION, STOP AMONG THE PARTIES AND THEIR TEAM MEMBERS."

GM: Harold, you have been unable to stop Danny from fueling the fires that you understandably object to. Further, the supporters of 3-ABN are independent, and not controlled by Danny. They continue to engage in such. They can not be stopped. As long as they do such, others will respond.

So, also those who support Linda are independent, and not controlled by either Linda, or us. We cannot stop them. As long as people supporting Linda engage in such, those who support 3-ABN will respond.

Harold, I understand what you are asking. It is not possible for either you or for us.

SHOULD AN SDA JUDGE BE USED TO CONDUCT THE PROCEEDINGS?

GM: Point taken, if the parties agree to such.

DO PARTIES WHO MAY BE "PUBLIC FIGURES" GIVE UP THEIR RIGHT TO PRIVACY?

GM: No, anyone who understands the law knows that public figures do not give up all rights to privacy. But, U.S. law clearly limits the rights to privacy of pubic figures over non-public figures.

Further, public figures to have a right, if conditions are met, to recover damages for slander, libel, and defamation of character. Those who understand the law know that this cuts both ways. It is likely that neither side is guilty to the exclusion of the other side. Should one side litigate over these issues, it is likely that counter-suits will be filed against the side that initiated the litigation.

In addition, I could propose situation in which neither side would want to litigate these issues. It is correct that "truth" may sometimes not be a defense against such a lawsuit. But, I can imagine where a side would not want to litigate an issue that they might win due to discovery and public exposure during a trial.

One fundamental issue is simply this: Public charges have been made against public individuals, and 3-ABN that will not go away unless they are resolved in public. To publicly resolve them, there may have to be some public exposure of facts that are typically protected by confidentiality in denominational circles. A failure to do this will likely result in continued discussion in public.

Let me add an additional factor: The so-called media is following this more closely that some may know. I have been asked to write an article for publication on one aspect of this which I declined to write at that time. There are others who have been approached in a similar manner, to include the secular media. Herald, I predict that if this is not resolved, and fairly soon, the media, to include the secular media, will begin reporting aspects of this which none can control. If ASI cannot resolve this, the world at large may do so.

SHOULD THE PANEL INCLUDE EXPERTS THAT COULD ASSIST IN THEIR COMPREHENSION OF THE INFORMATION?

GM: My comment on "transference" could be satisfied by a witness, rather than a member. Regardless, my point is taken, and you seem to have heard it.

WHAT STANDARD IS TO BE USED IN WEIGHING THE BIBLICAL DIVORCE REMARRIAGE ISSUE?

GM: Yes the CHUCH MANUAL is the standard. But, that can be understood and enforced in various ways. As an attorney you know that while "statute law" is the standard, "case law is always considered. My point is made. As I have previously stated, the "gold standard" among conservative SDAs is physical adultery. It has been clearly stated by 3-ABN that proof of such does not exist. If ASI strays away from that gold standard of adultery, it will lose status among conservative SDAs.

WHAT STANDARD WILL BE USED IN ALLOWING INFORMATION TO BE CONSIDERED ?

GM: Sounds good as I understand it.

HOW WILL PANEL PROCEED AND THE QUESTIONING OCCUR?

GM: The representative must be the one chosen by the party. In other words, ASI cannot exclude anyone from being a representative.

Re: "The hearing will be confidential and private, not recorded or reported by the panel, the parties, or the representative."

GM: I understand. I have some concern. This scandal is public. There must be enough information given to the public to resolve their issues. Harold, the public has a stake in this. All parties, to include 3-ABN have a major interest in this being resolved in the mind of the public.

Re: "Thank you for your patience in awaiting my thoughts. Please read this carefully. If you have questions feel free to express them. Whenever we have clarified adequately we will put our process information into a document that we can all sign on to, then begin the details of scheduling, etc."

GM: And thank you for the effort you have put into this.

Aletheia:

I have other things to do. So, I am going to do them now.

Keep in mind that we who were involved in the attempt by ASI to mediate have pretty good records. If you want to debate and challenge us, we can probably rebut what you say.

You have clearly made statements that were inaccurate. I can provide further support for my position.

I am very serious in appreciateing the efforts of Mr. Lance to effect this resolution. But, certain of the positions that he and ASI took made an ASI mediated resolution impossible. He, in his statement posted on the 3-ABN website has made statements that are false. I do not attribute that to any personal dishonesty in him. I consider him to be an honest person. I could easily sit down with him and have a pleasent conversation with him. But, he failed to understand some of the dynamics that went on in the process. That failure contributed, in my mind, to the failure to obtain agreement on the process. He came to us with an agenda of what and how. In mediation all parties must have a part in selecting the what and the how. Otherwise failure occurs. The failure that occured clearly demonstrates the correctness of my position.

You're kidding, right?

If you have read all of what is on this site, you would know that these questions have been asked and answered.

If you have not read all of what is here then you need to do your homework. If you feel that is not worth the time it will take you would be better served not to engage in the topic than doing so ignorantly... but you're not Gordie Howe... so you shouldnt need to get someone to do your thinking for you...

As I was reading Linda's letter I kept wondering what spin the Danny apologists would put out there. At the end of the letter, I thought surely Linda's request for Danny to show all this rock-solid evidence that he claims he has would be welcomed by people on both sides of the argument. But, incredibly, I see by reading Alethia's response that they've sunk to a new low. I can't wait to see what darts the others have to throw.

I've never met Linda and have no feelings for her either way, but I am impressed with the tone of her letter. Unlike the vitriol and hate that seeps through every word posted by Danny and his crew, Linda never once bashed her accusers, even though some would say she would be completely justified in doing so, and never condemned them all to hell. Whether she's right or wrong, innocent or guilty, I appreciate her approach to the whole situation.

I agree with you.... the tone of the letter is becoming a servant of Christ.

If nothing else, it definitely serves as a reminder of how we as Christians need to handle difficulty, criticism, and scrutiny...

Alethia,

Apparently you are aquainted with the behind the scenes garbage. How about some transparency and open explanation what you mean by that?

I don't know what you mean by supporter of Linda. If you mean spiritual supporter then I spiritually support Linda. If you ask me to be your spiritual supporter I will be happy to do that too. There is no conflict of interest. Last time I looked in the Bible God didn't say anything about supporting one person and not supporting another. Do you know that God even Loves Hitler?

When I read Linda's letter it contained the same loving caring Christ centered way she always portrayed when she would sit on the porch talking to us lifting us up to God in prayer when she was co-founder of 3ABN. This time her walk with Jesus is even closer than ever.

I am so sorry you are hurting so much. I will keep you in my prayers daily so that you and Jesus can become good friends again and begin to heal so your heart can be so overfilled with Love that it spills out in your life to those around you and you can begin to minister to others showing them God healed you so God can heal them also.

Jesus loves me this I know. I die daily when I ask the Holy Spirit to take out my filty rags righteousnes and fill me up with Holy Spirit righteousness so I can be more loving and caring and helping to others around me and point to Jesus how Loves them too.

Sending Linda's letter to as many sites as possible will be a wonderful witnes of Linda's relying on her relationship with Jesus. Thank you.

Rosyroi... A Rose for you to smell and think of Jesus and HIS Love for you.

Aletheia,

It is a curious thing, your behavior.

Do you seriuosly feel you are stating comments that cause a person to think? I don't think that is what you are about.

You might consider what your personal issues really are with Linda, because there is NOTHING productive about your attitude whatsoever.

Your comments only serve to show you angry, bias, and worshipful of a man inspite of the warnings and proof. You have only more pits to fall into at this rate.

This is sad.

And I too can't wait until this situation is resolved, in every area.

Folks, in regard to Linda's letter, I have the word:

Linda was working in connection with some other people to develop a letter that she could post on her website. That letter had NOT yet reached its final form.

The letter that was posted was a working draft. It had been extensively revised by another person working with Linda on its preparation. Some of Linda's comments were removed from that letter, and some comments from another person were added to it.

It was sent to Linda with the intention that she review it to see what changes, if any, she would make to that draft. Linda did not consider it to be in the final form that she wanted to post on her website.

She was not asked if she would permit it to be posted on the Internet prior to her posting it on her website. She would have denied permission if she had been asked. When Linda first learned that it was posted on the Internet, she asked that it be removed. She has been informed that it is to late to remove anything. So, the letter stands, and will remain posted on the Internet.

While the letter posted was not the final version of what Linda would have posted, she is clear that she was working with other people to prepare a letter to be posted on her website.

She plans to later post such on her website. She is considering her options in view of the fact that this draft was posted. She will probably make some revisions in the letter that she posts on her site. But, that will be done in the context of what has been posted here.

Well, we have the general idea, anyway.

I applaud Linda for working on this. Hopefully it will lead to greater healing of her own hurt as well as to resolution of this issue as a smudge on the church's reputation.

Then, will it lead to the openness in dealing with all the other problems at 3ABN?

The letter was understood as being the final copy. That was a misunderstanding. The final is to come soon. It won't change in context. It was a simple misunderstanding and it was caught immediately and also comminicated immediately here. Observer explained it well. Mistakes happen. It was aknowledged and that speaks for it'self. Yes, I have heard of the KISS (Keep It Simple Stupid) mantra.

But, that mantra does not work with some people.

You kept it simple, without any backup documentation. Thus I could not respond to a simple cited item of documention. To keep from being accuse of selective editing, I had to respond to you at some length.

However, in reality, I did keep it short in relation to the amount of material published. So, I did adhere to your mantra.

As I have said many times, we are imperfect. You will catch us in mistakes. This will not be the last one.

However, I would rather publish a mistake that I have discovered than to be accused of covering it up in the hope that no one would learn about it.

I do not know exactly what Linda will publish on her website. I do not know in what ways it will differ from the letter posted here. But, I do beleive that whatever Linda published on her website will be close to what was posted here. In any case, we will just have to wait to see.

Linda is also demanding the verifiable facts and evidence and truth as are you.

Since you are concerned about the truth, as you say you are, you should be pleased with Linda's demand for the exact same evidence, which 3ABN has claimed to have in their possession.

You also said:

Linda is speaking up for herself as you can see from this rough draft of her letter.

You're hearing "Linda's voice" as you have requested "on several occasions."

Once again, you should be pleased with that.

gonna move the questions about the pregnancy test to that thread.....

Posted by: SoulEspresso Feb 15 2007, 05:52 PM

I posted to this effect the other day but I'll say it again (I hope this doesn't count as double posting): unless you're an eyewitness yourself, anything anyone tells you is hearsay--until established in a court of law.

I don't know whether scans of original documents count--legally speaking. And this isn't a court anyway, no such thing as an online court. I'm not a legal person, but I've had enough contact with this sort of stuff to know you have to be careful.

You don't come to the Internet, generally, looking for verifiable evidence on a topic like this. Especially not a message board.

What you can do is look at the various versions of hearsay and try to weigh them. It can be exhausting, reading all the threads; I reviewed them this morning again. I don't pretend to have covered all of them, but the overall picture is that there's a lot of nefarious business at the network, and no one there can seem to refute it.

I say "there" and mean "here." 3ABN folks post here all the time trying to spin the discussion in every way they can, but if they had any good proof they could talk about -- wouldn't it have come up by now? The pregnancy test? Please.

Linda has done the whole church a service by beginning this letter. The hearsay stops, the real evidence begins to emerge--such as it is.

NOTE: I've gone back and edited some of my posts to use more precise language. I've changed none of the content. This one I'm leaving like it is so the conversation with PB makes sense to lurkers. PB believed that I was muddying the waters by the use of the term "hearsay." I meant it in a legal sense, but that nuance might be lost on some lurkers. What we see here on these boards is one person's word against another, but I've spent hours and hours reading through this stuff and the pattern that emerges is this: 3ABN has some stuff to hide, maybe a lot. Probably a lot. That's my interpretation of what I see here and elsewhere on the net, including save3abn.com.

SoulEspresso,

I agree that this isn't an online court and we must take care when attempting to discern what is true and equally take care when we decide that what we see is actual evidence. However, in this particular instance, we have a wealth of information that comes from first-hand eyewitnesses, folks that have actually experienced the saga for themselves. They can provide their pieces of the puzzle and, when looked at as a whole, we can get a pretty good indication of what the true picture is.

To date, no one from the Thompsonville/West Frankfort area has challenged Tommy's emailed confession that is posted over on save3abn.com. So, unless someone brings convincing proof that it is fake I believe the heresay was stopped for that subject and the real evidence is emerging.

This draft copy of Linda's letter that we are now privy to adds to the picture that is developing.

> The question I have is why was this letter presented here as something Linda was ready to publish. Implicit in the OP was that Linda had approved the letter. Makes me wonder what else has been presented as "fact" that really isn't.

Linda has been charged with being responsible for just about everything that her supporters say about her. They tell us that we who support her could not know X if Linda had not told us X.

Well, the publication of this draft letter demonstrates that people who support Linda are not acting under her control.

Here is how the situation developed, and the facts became known.

1) Daryl F. of MSDAOL, and I acting independently checked our Linda's website and noted that it had not been posted there. Both of us attempted to make contact with Linda. Daryl succeeded before I made contact with her.

2) When Daryl made the contact, and Linda told him the facts, Daryl contacted me. I attempted to contact Linda, and succeeded. Linda told me, as I related it here.

3) When I discovered that the letter had not been posted on Linda's website, I wondered. However, in the early days of Linda's website, Linda was working with others, as I recall, to keep the website going. As I remember, sometimes her letters, etc. were not posted immediately on her website by the webmaster. So, I thought that might have been the case. But, I wanted to tell Linda about the letter that had been posted on three forums.

4) Then when Daryl informed me of his contact with Linda, I re-doubled my efforts to contact her, and I did.

So that is how this all came about.

Unlike the vitriol and hate that seeps through every word posted by Danny and his crew, Linda never once bashed her accusers, even though some would say she would be completely justified in doing so, and never condemned them all to hell. Whether she's right or wrong, innocent or guilty, I appreciate her approach to the whole situation.

...because - even if (big IF) she was guilty - she has handled this in a very CHRISTlike way. Danny and the gang on the other hand have talked about her worse than a dog. With which; makes one wonder if they are being CHRISTlike or no....

I am glad that she is finally speaking because hopefully the truth can come out. I think we are at a cross road here, either Linda is a liar or she is telling the truth there is no middle ground. She has express 100% that she is not guilty of adultry. She has asked for the proof that Danny has stated that He had concerning her supposed adultry. Now if Danny does not provide the proof Him and the others at 3abn in my eyesight will forever be tainted as liars and mere pretenders.

I find it very difficult to understand how the board members could dismiss Linda without providing her with the reason as to why. The fact that she must ask for that information is by its very nature suspect to say the least. And why would they not just give her the information before now so she could do what she wanted with it? I have been in many a board meeting where the individual that was being disfellowshiped or put our was not there, in every case we the board sent them a letter explaining the reason we disfellowshiped them and all pertinent information via a certified letter.

I have enjoyed the many years that I watched Danny, Linda on 3abn but I am impartial to either of them. I have also contibuted to them finacially tho I have stopped at this time. It is my prayer that Her request is answered promptly without excuse.

I'm using hearsay in a technical sense. What I mean is this; unless I'm an eyewitness myself, anything anyone tells me is hearsay to me until it's been established in a court of law and/or by other evidence.

I tip heavily toward believing Linda was wronged (and that there's other nefarious business afoot) because much of the hearsay on this site and on save3abn.com is more credible. Why is it more credible? Because these other people are eyewitnesses and have posted documentation--and some of them have identified themselves, bless them. Those than haven't identified themselves want to keep their jobs, I understand that.

But since I'm not an eyewitness, haven't seen the original copies of the documents, I still consider it hearsay. In other words, it's not hearsay to them because they saw it with their own eyes, but it's hearsay to me when they tell me. Does that make sense?

Another reason I believe Linda was wronged and that there's other nefarious business afoot is the attitude of certain posters who will go to great lengths to defend Danny and try to paint 3ABN in a good light, even when they have to misquote, contradict themselves, etc. They claim to be eyewitnesses, too, but they don't have names and dates like the others do--all they have is the desire to stir things up and defend their boy.

The third reason? AToday's article. AToday is a news magazine, and they can't publish libelous stuff. What they got was established enough by credible sources that they figured their story would stand up in court--not as testimony, but that it wasn't libel the way it was written.

Those of us who find ourselves frustrated with these people are sometimes guilty of a rough spirit--no worse than theirs, mind you, but they're not the Standard (by the way, I haven't seen in any of that in you, PB). I've tried to keep myself in a positive tone but when I catch them in an obvious act of deception I get mad.

It's too bad there's no arbiter in this case. Because it fell through, this tale is going to hit the secular press soon. I bet they're lurking, waiting for as much data as possible before blowing open the story. And they will be merciless, far more than AToday--because they don't care about a church or its reputation.

A few comments, and you are on target:

I was once asked to write an article for the media. I refused to write one with the focus they wanted.

A major figure in this mess was approached, some time back, and asked to cooperate in writing a an article for major national publication in the seccular media (i.e. not associated with the SDA press). That person also refused.

Some of us believe that once litigation begins, the seccular media will begin to run with this developing story. We think that it is possible that 3-ABN/Danny will soon begin litigation. That litigation may be focused on issues that are not of great interest to the seccular media--trademark issues associated with the website <save31bn>. But, if a lawsuit is filed against Linda, the media may jump on that like a flea jumping on a dog, on a hot summer day. That, in my opinion, would be a public relations disaster for 3-ABN.

Frankly, God is more concerned about truth, righteous, justice, mercy, and other such, than reputation. As 3-ABN is independent, and not a denominational entity, the reputation of the denomination may not suffer as much as some would have us to beleive.

In any case, the reputation of the denomination is less important than is God's standards of righteousness. It is better for us to take damage to reputation than to cover-up wrong doing, if that is the case.

We say that we do not want to destroy 3-ABN. I do not believe that we could do so, if we wanted to do so. 3-ABN is in God's hands for as long as 3-ABN is in compliance with the mission of God for it. If 3-ABN is destroyed, whatever that may mean, it will be because such was in the will of God for it.

The Bible is clear that there are times in human and spiritual history that God does destroy, so to speak, so that God can build anew.

God destroyed the Earth with a flood, so that God could build anew.

God will at a later tieme destroy the Earth with fire so that God can build anew.

God burned Battle Creek so that God could build anew out of the ashes of Battle Creek. That destruction came only after God had sent warnigs by humans, which were rejected.

If God allows 3-ABN to be destroyed, so to speak, there are two possibilities:

a) God can reconstitute 3-ABN again, out of those ashes, and 3-ABN can again fill the role that God gives it.

God can leave it in ashes, as Hope TV may fill the role that God intended for 3-ABN, and for which 3-ABN departed, and went another direction. I am not saying that 3-ABN has done such. I am saying that God is in charge. God will accomplish His purpose with or without 3-ABN, according to 3-ABNs willingness to follow what God lays out for them.

There is a big difference here. In your examples God carried out the judgments, NOT MAN. His servants role was only to rebuke and warn...

You claim "if God allows 3ABN to be destroyed.." that indicates it is others attempting to do the destroying.

And indeed such appears to be the situation.

What will you conclude IF God does not allow 3ABN to be destroyed?

letheia:

o, I am not indicating that others are attemptiing to destroy 3-ABN. If a lightening bolt set a building n fire, God would have allowed it, but humans would not have done it. Your logic is a typical nesrepresentation of my statement.

f God does not allow 3-ABN to be destroyed, I will give thanks to God that God has been able to eform 3-ABN, and again use it according to God's purpose.

es, in my examples, God did not use humans to destroy. However, I assume that you know Scripture vell enough to know that there are many examples in the Bible where God did use people to destroy o that God could rebuild. So, I do not think that I will need to cite them here.

gain, the questions as to humans destroying 3-ABN is not revelant for our purpose. It's destruction is ot our goal. If it is destroyed, it will likely be because people rejected God's call to change. In that xamples that I gave (flood, etc.) that is very clear. It is upon those people that the responsibility for he destruction that came rests.

he very site that claims it exists to "save" the ministry for God has petitioned a high power attorney o assist in draining it of its financial resources. How is one not to come to the conclusion that there re those in the "small group", of which you are a part, that 3ABN's demise is the desired outcome?

his along with other comments made on various BBS and on Gailon's site indicate that there are a a umber of individuals who do desire to see 3ABN disappear. Their desire is to take a ministry that has eached tens of thousands of people with the love of God and the message of His soon return and the oy that each one of us can be carried away in the clouds - and shut it down.

O. K. Let us apply the above to the situation in a court of law:

1) If punitive damages were to be awarded, it is a stretch to believe that theye would be awarded in an amount that would destroy 3-ABN. Most of the time U. S. courts have some modicum of reasonableness. Look at the tobacco companies. Punitive damages have not been awarded in an amount that has destroyed them.

2) Certainly some punitive damages could (?) be awarded to a number of people to include Linda. But, again, I find it a stretch to believe that any court would order the assets of 3-ABN to be liquidated in order to pay damages. Look to the Roman Catholic chruch. Regional assest that belong to it have not been liquidated in total. 5

3) Under the right set of circumstances, should they come into being, a court could potentially order a change in management, and policy.

Gregory,

While your response is reasoned and contains a possible logical look at what could happen, it doesn't answer my question or comment on my point.

My point: It seems obvious that Gailon Joy and others in his "small group" do want to see an end to 3ABN.

My question: How is one to interpret his statements any other way than supporting the idea that he has no problem with the disappearance of 3ABN.

es, I did wonder why it wasn't on even one of those two websites, particularly Linda's own website, specially when I was told they were on there. This prompted me to inquire about it to Linda and to he main person of the other website, which prompted Linda to respond accordingly. Linda, at first sked me if they could be removed, but before I could respond, she realized it was to late and decided o leave them there.

n light of the draft letter, I will be glad when the final one appears.

The charge that there is a desire to destroy 3ABN only flies if one believes that 3ABN cannot exist without DS and the current leadership.

If this is the case, then it is not God's ministry... the benefit derived from it by viewers notwithstanding.

God doesn't do single points of failure; if it is truly His ministry then He will, if need be raise someone up who had nothing to do with the failings of the current leadership to carry it forward.

God doesn't need DS... or any other man and just because someone may hold a position now does not mean that he is indispensable

As was shown with Nebuchadnezzar, God can depose and maintain without the one engulfed by his hubris... there be a lesson in that for those with ears to hear...

In His service,
Mr. J

Well, you can't tell from what you posted here that he "has no problem" with the disappearance of 3ABN. All we know is that he believes that substantial punitive damages are possible or even likely. The existence of 3ABN doesn't factor into his statements.

think what Greg is saying is that courts don't award such large punitive damages that those who have to pay them are wiped out.

But even the court of public opinion would eventually forgive the channel, if Danny loses in court. They may not forgive him. People are more tolerant of adultery than public and malicious deceit.

Exactly, Kevin... and the "charge" is MADE because those who make it equate Danny with 3abn such hat any move against Danny is equated with a move against 3abn as a separate entity.

The facts are... as we have noted here on BSDA many times... that it is Danny himself that makes that equation... and who has said multiple times that 3abn in HIS baby... and that NO ONE is going to take "HIS BABY" away from him.

Those who are uncovering the evil at 3abn are wanting to SAVE 3abn from the evil being perpetrated by its present owner/directors. If those owner/directors will not allow 3abn to be saved from the evil hat has exuded from its pores increasingly over the years... then they themselves will be the ones who destroy 3abn. And those who wished to have saved it for future use by God will have failed in heir mission.... even though they succeed in exposing and destroying the evil.

t looks to be a hopeless muddle ... from a human point of view... But God is still working through the events and persons responsible... on all sides of the issue... and eventually He will reveal to all ... all hat needs to be revealed. And eventually Right and Justice will prevail.

But if he doesn't believe God just has to have him, why are his acolytes equating him with the "anointed ones" of the Bible? (Hebrew--"messiahs") Why is questioning him the same as questioning God? This isn't hearsay either, it was broadcast over 3ABN ...

If you will look in the Bible-God used others to bring judgement on Israel when they wouldn't repent and do his will. What makes you think God won't bring judgement on 3ABN if they don't come clean. Israel was supposed to do much more than 3abn could ever do-look what happened to them in their history. No human institution has the right to trample on God's people and think they are immune from judgement.

SoulEspresso,

Yes, now I do understand. You are using the word "hearsay" as it applies in a legal setting. My only hesitation is that there are some here who would misread your intended usage, those who have been charging many of us with believing in and spreading rumors. As you'll notice, the common usage of the word "hearsay" would tend to bolster their claims of rumor, gossip and slander, if they did not discern that you were using it in the legal sense.

From TheFreeDictionary:

Hearsay, n.

1. Unverified information heard or received from another; rumor.
2. Law Evidence based on the reports of others rather than the personal knowledge of a witness and therefore generally not admissible as testimony.

Since this forum is not a legal courtroom, the process of building a case for truth is held to a slightly different standard. If Duane Clem tells me that he was a victim of pastoral sexual abuse as a young man by the pastor of his church and then I read the emailed confession Duane received from that very pastor, I believe that I can safely conclude that Duane's testimony is truthful. In this court of public opinion, the use of the word "hearsay" may be a bit of a sticky wicket, diverting the minds of some from the fine points that you are bringing forward.

In the case of those people who have been eye witnesses to certain events, such as sister and HOTY, etc., our job is to determine whether or not they are credible witnesses. If deemed credible, their first-hand testimonies should be able to be viewed as factual. I believe it is an injustice to them to characterize their testimonies as hearsay when repeated by others. Certainly, if we were to be witnesses in a court of law, reporting what we have heard from them would qualify as hearsay - but not here and not in normal every day life.

> The third reason? AToday's article. AToday is a news magazine, and they can't publish libelous stuff. What they got was established enough by credible sources that they figured their story would stand up in court--not as testimony, but that it wasn't libel the way it was written.

rom all that I have seen lately, you have done a great job keeping your positive tone. I understand ow tempting it is to get frustrated or mad at the deceptive practices of some. Just try to keep seeing hem through the eyes of Jesus and divert that emotion with a little prayer for them.

Yes, it is a serious thing to go against the will of God.

http://preteristarchive.com/StudyArchive/t/televangelists.html warns us this way:

"The Holy Ghost is upon me...The day is coming when those that attack us will drop dead. You say, 'What did you say?' I speak this under the anointing of the Spirit. Can I tell you something? Don't touch God's servants; it's deadly...Woe to you that touch God's servants. You're going to pay. 'And the day will come," the Lord said that to me. He said, "The day will come when I will punish instantly. Woe to those that touch my chosen.' They will fear us. Hear this: today they mock us; tomorrow they will fear us." - "Miracle Invasion Rally," Anaheim Convention Center, 11/22/91

Do you think that it would be deadly for me to question Benny Hinn? He is the Lord's chosen, isn't he? If he says the Holy Ghost is upon him, do I have a right to quesiton that?

God told Benny Hinn, right?

If I have relatives that want to climb up on the stage with Benny at the Miracle Invasion "Rally" do I have a right to say anything, or will my opposition to "the chosen" cause my demise?

Notice also that Benny Hinn has "the anointing." Can I question someone who has been anointed?

And remember, when the chosen has been anointed, that's just not for one day, either, as I learned watching 3ABN on a Thursday night.

Things to think about.

God established a ministry at Battle Creek. And the people learned that establishment by God did not mean that it would always remain God's ministry doing God's will. It's leadership rejected the leading of God, and went their own way. God sent warnings. They refused to listen. God burned Battle Creek, and our of those ashes built a ministry that was again in conformity to God's will. In that process the leadership either repented of their rebellion or they were removed and replaced.

Yes - he did.

You beat me WB. I was thinking of a reply to this thought....

Pentecostals frequently say things that are downright blasphemous if we stop to think about them. See http://www.blacksda.com/forums/index.php?s=&showtopic=12554&view=findpost&p=178837 where he uses Benny Hinn as an example. Problem is, that they are said in such a pious tone surrounded by so much "God talk" that turning our "thinker" off is almost as automatic as bowing our heads and closing our eyes for prayer. (Or has the Pentecostal influence taken hold so much that we don't bow our heads or close our eyes in prayer any more?)

Maybe we need to move past "Kindergarten Ten Commandments" class content.... where "taking the Lord's name in vain" applies only to using swear words.... and move on to "Basic Principles of Ten Commandment Applications 101"... where it is recognized that "taking the Lord's Name in vain" applies also to a lot of other areas.... including even calling ourselves "Christian" whether or not we live like Christians would. To say nothing of appying to ourselves labels and terms used in scripture for God's specially chosen prophets and messengers.

What a sad day for Adventism when we allow our church to be represented by those who spout Pentecostal jargon that is indistinguishable from the most extreme of popular Pentecostal Televangelists...... and even dare to label it "conservative Adventism"! ....

And because we don't frequent Pentecostal meetings many of us remain unaware of the source of this Pentecostal jargon. Yes, it truly will be a sad day when our theology becomes indistinguishable from the Pentecostal theology.

Vhat about biblical Jargon?

'es, Jesus is, the Christ, THE* annointed one, even as he is THE* light of the world, yet he aid:"Ye are the light of the world"

Vhy?
Jo 4:4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, han he that is in the world.

very Priest was anointed in the Old Covenant, and in the New?
Pe 2:5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual acrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

Ve are ALL called to the ministry of God, All called to bear the good news, and to be witnesses for our reator and his truth.

t is sad to me that in seeking to find fault with DS or a3ABN, you mock and ridicule, feigning shock nd treating sacred truths like a joke. Petacostalism? It seems plain,"You err, not knowing the criptures":. Why, rather then denying truth, should these words not apply to yourselves? Our God is ood he is gracious and merciful and gives plentifully to all who come to him in faith.

Jo 2:18 Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now re there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.
9 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would [no doubt] ave continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of s.
0But ye have an unction[anointing] from the Holy One, and ye know all things.
21I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie s of the truth.

Jo 2:24-27 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye ave heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the ather. And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life. These things have I written nto you concerning them that seduce you. But the anointing which ye have received of him bideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you f all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. And now, ittle children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed efore him at his coming. If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth ighteousness is born of him.

Cr 1:20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us. ow he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God; Who hath also ealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

his would be a very good principle. It will not, however, be helpful unless we have learned enough piritual discernment to recognize Pentecostal "scripture twisting" when we see it. For there is hardly nyone who quotes more scripture than a Pentecostal.

ut when the fundamental belief system upon which we stand when we read scripture is different... hen the interpretations and applications are going to be different.

nd we will drift from a truly scriptural ground to a spiritualistical ground.... and we will not know hen Satan insinuates himself into the doctrines in his predicted "angel of light" disguise.

letheia, your quote was from Panama Pete, not me--Gregory Matthews.

Here is my human judgment. Based upon my observation of Linda on 3abn she doesn't seem to be a person who would commit adultery easily, so I don't think she committed adultery with the doctor. However, she does seem to be a very head strong person who is very confident of herself and the decisions that she makes. I have not read all of the threads, but from my understanding she was advised by several persons concerning her relationship with the doctor and that it was uneccessary to take a trip to see him. It seems that she was ignoring all the advice given to her, that is probably why she is being accused now of things she may not have done.

Linda's letter sounds good but has she ever given any detailed proof of her whereabouts with the doctor at all times she was with him. Was she ever alone with him behind closed doors for a long period of time. Maybe she should give some proof that she did not commit adultery with the doctor since the other side doesn't have any proof that she did commit adultery.

The question arises in my mind: Was Linda a person who was willing to take advice from other persons. Yes, Danny may have major faults, but I think Linda has helped to contribute to her dismissal from 3abn.

These thoughts are my human judgment, I may be wrong.

> I think Linda has helped to contribute to her dismissal from 3abn.

It has been said that many people at 3-ABN did not like her, and were glad to see her gone (not an exact quote). So what? I do not have to like my boss. I have to work with him. People at 3-ABN did not have to like her.

Other statements have been made about Linda that reflect badly upon her leadership. So what? According to statements released by 3-ABN she was fired due to an inappropriate relationship with a male not her husband. On that basis nothing else is important. It the real issue had been Linda's incompetence, she could have been fired if found to be incompetent. That was not why she was fired.

We who are on the so-called Linda's Team have never claimed that Linda was perfect. 4

Our issue is what we believe to be false charges that imply adultery, on some level, and the way she was treated in this process.

If she had been fired because the staff did not like her, or that she was incompetent, we would not be in this situation today.

Linda worked at 3-ABN for some 18 - 20 years. That was more than enough time for people to see her faults, and fire her, if those faults existed. Why would any organization keep an employee for going on almost 20 years if they were not liked by the staff, and incompetent?

Where is the proof that she committed adultery and where is the proof that she did not commit adultery. Everyone seems to be using their own human judgment, including Danny Shelton and the other person who it seems helped in making the accussation of adultery.
