BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Administrative Action Taken

Posted by: calvin Jan 30 2007, 03:42 PM

I don't usually make known or give reasons for any action I take to ban members. Because this usually recreates more drama. I am making an exception because the 3ABN threads are such a hotly charged discussion.

I have banned Dewayneholder, wwjd, and Bystander from BSDA. It is highly likely that they are one in the same person. All are using the same IP addresses (meaning same computer). This is a clear violation of our policy for having more than one membership account here.

Please email me at calvin@blacksda.com if you want to return by providing proof to prove me wrong.
