BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Email From Danny Shelton

Posted by: calvin Jul 17 2006, 04:46 PM

Calvin, I'm very disappointed that you would read a letter from this so called Dr. and support it without even attempting to find out if it is true. This is not the Christian way. This Dr. knows nothing of me except what Linda has told him. We have only talked a few minutes throughout this last 2 1/2 years. This letter is a lie and I'm surprised that you would stake your credibility online to take sides with them. He and Linda did have an affair. Why do you think that the pastor who counseled us, John Lomacang, the 3ABN board, including the Illinois Conference Pres. ect support me. They know things you do not. We are not out to hurt Linda. If you read the chat rooms it's She, Johann, Arild and Derrell. Not 3ABN people talking about this situation. Besides we have been divorced for over 2 yrs. Yes, she doesn't use her real name on your chat room but we know who she is. The way you are going about this is not Christ like. If you want to know the truth you are supposed to try to find out. Otherwise it is just gossip. What a shame that your chatroom is being used to try to destroy the work of the gospel rather than to spread Jesus to the world.

This Dr. does not tell you that he has told John Lomacang, Brenda Walsh, and even his own Norwegian Conf. Pres that he, the Dr., believes that Linda is in love with him, but that he is not in love with her. He told this while we were married. He was trying to save his own name.

But now, 2 yrs after our divorce, he has a lot to gain to try to keep Linda's ministry going. In fact, $100,000. In 2004 instead of encouraging Linda to stay with me, They bought a house together. He put up $100,000 and she put up the other approx. $100,000. Yes, the court papers say it is a 10 year loan, but the Dr. knows that the nearly $250,000 that that 3ABN gave Linda as a separation agreement is about depleted. Linda has said that she is not going to work. She said, and I quote, "I'm not going to cook hamburgers the rest of my life." She wants people to support her financially. The Dr. has to help her in order to get his own money back.

Please call John Lomacang, before you ruin your own credibility and hear another side of the story.

XXXX or XXXX

Thanks,

Danny

We do not want our side on the chat rooms, but I do think that you should not encourage your supporters to get involved in something they know nothing about.

Ok, I have not even read this email, yet, but I told them in LC this morning, it was coming. We were going to hear from somebody in Danny's camp, because talking about what happened is one thing, but talking about doing something about it, especially getting the info to his $$supporters was going to strike a nerve. Ok more after I finish reading.....BTW, is it possible to contact him directly? I dont' mind saying what I have to say directly to him, if possible.

Danny Shelton

Somehow this brings back to mind a story my uncle used to tell about a man who could never be made to speak ill of any person. And finally, in exasperation one day, one of his friends exclaimed, "I'll bet you would even find something good to say about the devil himself."

It took a moment before the man responded, but when he did, he said, "Well, you have to admit, he sure is persistent."

And we do have to admit that Danny is persistent--and even consistent.

What I'm curious about is which one of us who is writing here that he thinks is Linda. Should we all play the game of "Will the real Linda please stand up?" No takers? I kinda thought there might not be. So OK..... It's back to our regular programing of "Pin the tail on the donkey".

Stay tuned.....

Why is Linda always asking me for updates on whats happening at BSDA if she is online here posting? Bluff, Danny, bluff. Danny also said he had all the proof that Johann wrote the Televangelist, and that Linda dictated it to him. Knowing the author quite well, I know that nobody dictated it to anyone, and Johann had nothing to do with it.

Hmmmm, it does not look like the ink from that suggestion was even dry before a response was in route.

I suppose Danny never bothered reading this portion of the board rules:

You remain solely responsible for the content of your messages, and you agree to indemnify and hold harmless BlackSDA forum, the owners of this site and their agents with respect to any claim based upon transmission and/or content of your message(s).

Dead on pernt!

What I want to know is if...If...IF she was actually so...."IN THE WRONG" then why did the woman have to have a "GAG" order?

I believe that she has something to say...and that's why you want to shut her up Danny. That's it in a nutshell.... If I'm wrong then prove it. LIFT THE GAG ORDER

& PLAY YOUR HAND WIDE OPEN! As long as the GAG is in effect - I ain't hearing nuthin' Danny gotta say....

"This ain't Sabbath School and that Dog ain't a huntin'....."

Posted by: princessdi Jul 17 2006, 05:39 PM

Danny, Danny, Danny! Man you need to give this up. As PrincessDrRe' says lift the gag order and let the games begin! Let the chips fall where they may. You have no credibility here as long as you keep insisting she and wrong, but you are afraid to let her speak.

The problem is. I am basically appalled by your actions and that of the 3ABN board, Pastor Lomacang. Those are the only actions I have to go by, because, once again, we have not heard from Linda. Point is if she was dead wrong, as someone who promotes your ministry as a leader in chritian living, you were supposed to remember that in the midst of this mess. Instead you gagged Linda and then proceeded to tell anybody who would listen your side of things, including coming here and lying to us. I say lying because the timeline suggest that you were busy trying to get a quickie divorce, while telling us you and Linda were being counselled and spending a lot of time together. Lying because then you said "spiritual adutlery" because she stayed on the phone too long with the Dr. and you just had no idea why other than an affair. Now, you come here accusing her of an out and out affair, Why because somebody helped her find a place to live after you kicked the to the curb? It is a dark stain on your character for you not to have even mentioned that your stepson was being was having issues and being treated by the Dr.

Oh and I don't buy the flipping burgers part either. Even if she did say it, she should not have to, if the division of marital property is fair and equitable. Why should the co-founder of that ministry be flipping burgers while you live well? Both can do so, if things are done decently and in order. See so, the others testimonies don't even have to come into play for me. My disappointment lies with you for your actions. It also lies with Pastor Lomacang(I knew and respected he and his wife when they pastored here in Northern CA. He has compromised himself in supporting your actions), and the 3ABN board for supporting you also.

I do have more to say, but would really rather say them to you directly.

And when Linda hasn't talked to you for a while, beartrap, then she asks me what is going on. She did just a few hours ago. I try to tell her some real nice things about many of you. She will laugh when one of us reads Danny's letter to her. By now she has two years of experience in reading and hearing all of the false accusations from Danny. Fortunately some of us have associated long enough to know what is true and what is false.

It took me a while to learn the real 3ABN definition of the word TRUTH. Let me just say that it is a far cry from what most of us have had to learn in our Christian experience and by studying the WORD of God. I suspect Kay's book uses the 3ABN definition for truth in some of her stories.

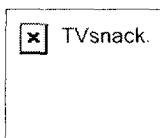

I also received an e-mail from Danny today. He hadn't written a word of it himself, but it was a copy of what you, beartrap, wrote to him back 4 months ago. I still haven't figured out why he sent it to me just now? He must still remember some of us.

Oh Danny boy, the truth, the truth is calling
 From sea to sea, and down the mountain side
 The summer's gone, and all the flowers are dying
 'Tis you, 'tis you must go so the truth won't hide.
 And don't come ye back when summer's in the meadow
 Or when the valley's hushed and white with snow
 'Cause the truth will be here in sunshine or in shadow
 Oh Danny boy, oh Danny boy, you really have to go.

And Mr. Shelton would have us believe that he is the most credible person in the universe.... yeah right...

Posted by: calvin Jul 17 2006, 06:37 PM

My response to Danny.

Danny, I don't know you, Linda, Dr. Abrahamsen or Elder Lomacang. I have no reason to believe either of you are more creditable or honest than the other. However the letter from Dr. Abrahamsen has given me cause to believe that there may be more to this than the venting of a few ex-employees. This letter is damaging to you, but Dr. Thompson's letter was equally as damaging to Linda and Dr. Abrahamsen. So, who is lying?

As I forward this letter broadly to the leaders and those of influence in the Adventist church, I am asking for an independent investigation. Would you agree to an investigation? To be fair, Linda and Dr. Abrahamsen the 3ABN board and others will need to participate as well.

I am not interested in the demise of 3ABN. I take my responsible as a local church elder seriously. I believe anyone in church leadership should adhere to high moral and ethnical standards. If what is true that has been said about you, they I want to know why your board, the Adventist church and it's major independent ministries continue to support you? If you have nothing to hide then why not participate in an investigation and clear your name?

By the way, sister on BSDA is not Linda Shelton as it has been rumored nor is she posing as anyone else. Although members can hide behind a screen name they cannot hide their Internet protocol address (IP) which uniquely identifies everyone and the system keeps a log of all IP addresses ever used by each member. The system also provides search tools to compare IP addresses. Linda did an interview on BSDA in October, 2004 and has not been back to BSDA since then.

Keep in mind BSDA is a public open forum, very few issues affecting the Adventist church that are off limit. You are a public figure in the Adventist church, which puts you in play.

Did you ever write to them and tell them to leave us alone? Do you have any idea how many people those folk at 3ABN have maliciously wounded and destroyed over the years? I think alot of Adventists would have yelled at the good Samaritan if they saw him helping that beat up guy. They would have thrown rocks at him, and told him to leave it to God. After all, maybe the guy deserved to be pounded. How could he know the real story behind that victim?

I know it is much easier to "leave it to God" than to stand up for right and say no to evil. Yes, you will probably get hurt in the process, but as Shakespeare said, "The peace of heaven is theirs who raise their sword in such a just, an charitable war."

Posted by: lurker Jul 17 2006, 06:51 PM

I'm sure the good doctor can tell us here whether he said these things to John Lomacang, to Brenda and to his Norwegian conference president or not. He has said and Linda has said that they have not had an affair. What more can they say? I would believe him before I would believe Danny any day of the week. And as I have done a little research into what Danny alledged just in case it might have been true, among other things that I found is that the doctor has been quite a wealthy man for a long time and does not need to "protect his investment" or his reputation by perjuring himself and endangering his eternal life.

The doctor is not just a "so called doctor" but as far as I know is fully credentialed. Danny your letter is dripping with sarcasm and you seem to me to be very paranoid about the chance of Linda talking about you here or in any of the other forums. Why would you think she would do that? You cannot read the motives of anyone's heart although you seem to think you can. And you are ascribing the very worst motives to your "enemies". I don't know who you think is Linda but have you even considered the possibility that she is none of us and is trying to do the Christian thing by living quietly, not speaking ill of you here or anywhere else, and that she only tries to protect her reputation when she is attacked and merely truthfully denies what she is accused of. The pastor who counseled you, John Lomacang, the 3ABN board, including the Illinois Conference President. ect support you because they know what you have told them and they feel that 3ABN has been and is a blessing to the church. Besides, in the past you have had great political power within the church. Anything Linda or others have said has been compared to your version of things and if their reports do not confirm what you alledge, they are said to be liars. If Linda or anyone said anything about the situation it was first understood that since you were to be believed, what they said was not to be taken at face value but was to be searched for hidden meanings and inconsistencies. When I hear you or others on 3ABN make insinuations about Linda, it is quite apparent who you are talking about and that you just must make her look bad. Even if she was guilty (which I do not believe) why must you still be trying to convince everyone after all this time? I don't mean just now after the Dr's letter, but continually during the whole 2 1/2 years?

Because he can only come from his own frame of reference. He has spent 2 1/2+ plus(because he just didn't think this plan up on the fly) years demonizing this woman, he expects her to do exactly the same to him. Her Godly and christian response is foreign to him.

This is the kind of statements we have grown used to from Danny Shelton. Some people believe he is the only one who knows the truth when he makes statements like that. This is what Linda had to face again and again throughout her ordeal, and I witnessed it many times, verified by Danny's e-mail.

Posted by: Brennen Jul 17 2006, 07:28 PM

Danny, I belive is the one lying. The tone of his reponse is empty and extremely defensive. But [b]we are blowing gaps all through it. It is weak, shallow, and gross inexactitudes. Watch out folks, the one who is lying is speaking loudly about himself.

This Dr. knows nothing of me except what Linda has told him. We have only talked a few minutes throughout this last 2 1/2 years. But now, 2 yrs after our divorce, he has a lot to gain to try to keep Linda's ministry going. In fact, $100,000. In 2004 instead of encouraging Linda to stay with me, They bought a house together. He put up $100,000 and she put up the other approx. $100,000. Yes, the court papers say it is a 10 year loan, but the Dr. knows that the nearly $250,000 that that 3ABN gave Linda as a separation agreement is about depleted. Linda has said that she is not going to work. She said, and I quote, "I'm not going to cook hamburgers the rest of my life." She wants people to support her financially. The Dr. has to help her in order to get his own money back.

Please call John Lomacang, before you ruin your own credibility and hear another side of the story.

We do not want our side on the chat rooms, but I do think that you should not encourage your supporters to get involved in something they know nothing about.

Danny, talk about acting christian! Throwing your wife to the lions instead of quietly putting her away was christian? Do you really have any real idea what it means to be 'christian'? How much longer will you continue to hide behind socalled big names in the SDA church circles? How much longer?

Yea right then why write the letter in the first place?? If he wasn't running skeered he wouldn't have even contacted you after all this time. I have no use for someone like him. Like Di said in LC today we knew this would be coming cause people are starting to join forces & put the word out. Just another scare tactic but he don't realize this group don't scare easy. Let's get this investigation going. Now is the time. Has Linda truly been given the chance to talk to the board of 3ABN? I want someone to investigate that. Was her side heard officially, and in Danny's presense. Did she and Danny really meet with Walt Thompson and did they truly listen to Linda? Let's get this professional investigation going. Please, do not use a conference president.

Danny said, "Why do you think that the pastor who counseled us, John Lomacang, the 3ABN board, including the Illinois Conference Pres. ect support me. They know things you do not."

Pastor John Lomacang - A singer/pastor Danny brought in to pastor the 3ABN church.

- Half of his salary comes from 3ABN
- His wife is a full employee of 3ABN
- Lives in a several hundred thousand dollar home provided by 3ABN
- Promotes his book and CD sales on 3ABN

I wont go into the full board right now, but the Illinois Conference President is on that board and participates in those legenday unanimous votes that Danny requires. Also, both of his parents work for Danny.

Does anybody see conflict of interest, and credibility issues here?

Posting and reading in this forum in optional, as with all other forums.

Paula, also your comment sounds eerily like something my Grandmother used to say of MLK and the Civil rights movement. She would say they were trouble makers, and the whitel folks treated us alright.....as long if we stayed in our place. They should have let the Lord take care of any wrong they were doing. Imagine if the civil rights leaders listen to those Who felt like my Grandmother, well meaning as she was. Sometimes God lets us know we are to sit still and let Him move, and sometimes he tells us to fight. Just like the COI of old, sometimes they actually had to go to war, at the command of the same God who would sometimes tell them to just walk around the wall and sing.

We are all Adventist, and we should be careful who we let say they represent us to the world. If we know they are not right then it is us who should stop it before it goes to far. or at least call it what it is, and make those who openly sin accountable for their actions. Now had you read my post, you would have seen that these are my concerns, as well as Danny bringing BSDA into this in the first place by coming here with his spin. We were content to pray for them both and be a bit concerned about his actions toward Linda as a christian. He brought us to a whole new level when he came here, and lied. And now he is, one more time.....lying again. So, I as told him, I am telling you and Sarah. I don't need Bear's, Sister's, Johann's, or PaperTiger's, or the Dr.'s stories to be upset(although it definitely doesn't hurt, definitely adds fuel to the fire), I have my own. If you two have no interest in who is representing you or God in the name of Adventism to the US and serveral countries then by all means, let it fly.

The behavior of Danny is similar to all deranged dictators that surrounds themselves with people who fear loss of status, money, and other things that they never fully possess because those things only exist at the expense of others.

His approach as the Adventist overseer demanding that the head boy at BSDA get his people in line is further proof that he has set himself apart from others as if he is god on earth. (Someone tell him that the Pope is already holding down that soapbox).

But sadly, Danny will not submit to an independent investigator of your choosing, or any truly independent investigator. He has too much to loose and nothing to gain, if the truth is revealed.

Although it was a compliment to be mistaken by Danny as Linda, Calvin is correct, we are not one in the same. And I have not received any information from Linda in order to write "An Unauthorized History of 3ABN". Neither am I Derrell, as was suggested by some, or Johann. Calvin can also confirm that fact. I have simply been a catalyst that the Lord has used to get the ball of truth rolling. And once it began moving others joined in with additional testimony and the momentum increased. Now it is gaining speed. And the truth, like the advance of an avalanche is heading toward the walls of Danny's compound, with an intensity that can not be held at bay by misrepresentations and shameless lies of his devising. As Joshua and the army of Israel marched around the walls of Jericho, dependant upon the workings of the Lord for their victory, Linda Shelton has depended upon the Lord to orchestrate her defense and expunge the falsehoods that have tarnished her reputation.

Who am I? Danny's worst nightmare, someone who knows the truth behind the public facade he has erected and is willing to speak. I encourage other witnesses to come forth. For there are many. The time to give witness is now...

I just read Danny's e-mail this morning and I am more disallusioned than ever by his unchristian like attitude and the character that shone through every word. Once I admired Danny and thought that he was a man who was spoken to by God. Now I do not believe that God could speak to a man who has acted and done the things that he has done over the last 2 years. I did not see a Christ-like attitude in his letter--I saw a man with a revengeful, hateful mind who would stop at nothing to defend himself. I wonder if he will take Calvin's suggestion for a thorough investigation. Not only of his well-manipulated books but of his mind, his character, his ability to hurt others and the Satanic mind who has bound around him a group of people who are of the same religion as the rest of us, and who are willing to answer his call to hurt anyone who does not agree with him. I hate to think that I ever admired him and the parade of speakers who have appeared on his network and who will continue to do so. He needs to be investigated and the truth will come out!!! He did not do Jesus or himself a favor by writing the letter that has come on this forum.

I wrote to Mr. Shelton sometime ago and received a reply. I will say that he was courteous to me, to give credit where due.

He made mention that if he was in the wrong, wouldn't it be strange that his church, conference and the 3ABN board would be silent about it. Well, I guess they would be if they are full of people who are "in his pocket". He definitely needs to come up with some independent folks with nothing to gain or lose to support his position if it is to be taken seriously. An independent investigation would only help his cause if he is innocent.

Correct me if I'm wrong, but in the letter from Dr. A, he mentioned that he had been sent e-mails from Linda--but the Doc knew they weren't from Linda...so, how do we even know that e-mail was from Darrell? It's probably another one of Danny's ways he's blazing the "spiritual adultery" trail.

By the way...here's that part of Dr. A's letter:

Exactly Derrell because I honestly don't think Brandy realizes what she has gotten herself into. I could see that from reading it but unfortunately who we are dealing with they see it as they are still "god"!

For me when I read it I see it dripping with sarcasm. That had nothing whatsoever to do with your request for an independent investigation. If you have NOTHING TO HIDE then you would willingly undergo what Calvin asked him too.

That's exactly what I got from the letter too! Chock-o-lattie you read it. I also agree. If you ain't got nuthin' to hide and want to "bolster" your "view to the masses" then by all means do the independent investigation. This would prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that you were right Danny. Then again - the only reason folks don't want to be investigated is that they don't want an investigation to show what they have already buried via "other investigations"....

Yep.

I said it.

Whut?

It's truth. Jes like my Momma said (wise woman ain't she?) If you ain't got no dirty laundry in the pile - then you ain't gonna never have no laundry problems.

Now.

If you do have laundry problems....then by all means...let's get it out in the wash.....

I don't know Brandy all that well, but I can say that next to Danny, she is innocent. If there were things going on prior (and I'm not saying there were) It was not Brandy who launched a global smear campaign, lied about a number of people, and set out for the purpose of hurting and destroying them. That was Danny. Brandy has always been nice to me, and I've never seen her act in a malicious way. My observations come from limited exposure, but that is what they are.

No Brandy and Linda did not know each other. The last time they met was in the late eighties when Brandy was a little girl and came to 3ABN to sing with her family.

What I saw from Derrell's e-mail is that he is a very Christ-centered person who really wants Brandy to be happy in spite of what will be ahead of her in the future. I remember when he knew that his children's Mother was pregnant out of wedlock he only wished them his prayers and a hope that all of the children (his and the second husband) would have the Lord's blessing. I think that it took a big heart to congratulate Brandy and still wish for her that the future could be as good for her as possible. What I do not understand is why Danny is publishing Brandy's personal e-mails. Says something about the privacy that he accords his wives.----Obviously, he is not willing to be investigated---NO SURPRISE!!!

Subject: Congratulations!

Danny & Brandy,

A belated congratulations to you! Danny, you are a very fortunate man and, in regards to your new wife, to be most envied. Brandy, you and the girls deserve the best life has to offer, and the kindness and benevolence that I've seen you exude everywhere you go will come back to you with interest attached. Danny isn't a saint but now he has his halo, and I'm sure he agrees with me there. I wish you all the very best!!!

Sincerely,

Derrell Mundall

well I guess Mr. Shelton did not want his email shared, he wanted you to handle your forum, and was contacting you man to man.... oh well...

I understand that when Danny and Brandy were first married that she had 2 children by previous husbands. Do they still have both children with them---are the children going to appear on the "tots" programs or will they be featured separately singing as Melody Firestone has always done? Did Linda's children ever have a part of the programs shown on 3ABN the same as Melody Shelton did? I have been hoping that we would see Brandy's children singing for Jesus on 3ABN.

It is my understanding (correct me if I'm wrong) that Brandy's oldest is living with her dad & only the youngest is here. As for Linda's kids being on if they were I don't ever recall seeing them on the air. Why would he air them when he don't even so much as talk about them?

If he and Linda were married for 20 years, their son Nathan was still a small child when they were first married. One would have Mending broken people as a slogan gets you lots of financial support. It does not apply to close family members in that area.

Back in August/September, 2003, several months before Dr. Arild came to see us at 3ABN, I was touring Europe together with Danny and Linda. As we were crossing the bridge between Sweden and Denmark my wife, Irmgard, asked Linda about her children. All went well while Linda told us about Alyssa, but Danny's reaction when Nathan was mentioned made me say a silent prayer, "Lord, save their marriage!"

The Lord could not answer that prayer against Danny's will. It seemed like he was looking for an opportunity to throw Linda overboard, and he thought it had arrived when Arild came to visit us at Thomsonville.

I've never seen Brandy's kids on 3ABN (course I don't watch 3ABN LOL!), but Nathan and Alyssa did sing a few times when they were very little.

Danny doesn't bond with people, he bonds with what people can do for him. Many people who have dealt with him face to face will know that if you come up and make a small donation of... oh $10,000.00 he might thank you and walk away. If you make a donation of tens or hundreds, he likely won't speak to you. If you make a large donation and he believes that there is more to be got, he will coax and tease and flirt and call and visit, and when you are depleted, he will never speak to you again. Thats our Danny!

And you know, that is a very solid Shelton trait.

Clay, you are right. I should not have said that I was hoping that Brandy's children would be given the opportunities that Danny has given to his own daughter---or does he have more than one daughter? I don't know why I made that statement since 3ABN is non-existent in our home anymore and I hope more people will not be fooled by his mantra. For the sake of the child that is still in his home, I hope that she will be held with the same respect that he would show to his own daughter. Since we are on the subject, I wonder why the oldest daughter would chose to leave her Mom and go to live with her Dad. I know from experience that little girls do not want to be separated from their Mom.

QUOTE

Danny wrote to Calvin,

Calvin, I'm very disappointed that you would read a letter from this so called Dr. and support it without even attempting to find out if it is true. This is not the Christian way. This Dr. knows nothing of me except what Linda has told him. We have only talked a few minutes throughout this last 2 1/2 years. This letter is a lie and I'm surprised that you would stake your credibility online to take sides with them.

There are two main points here:

- 1) The "Christian way" in this situation has been dictated by your actions. You made this unfortunate circumstance public, so it must be resolved publically.
- 2) You had a long conversation with Arild in your office. We also had a long meeting in the hall. Arild also had a long conversation on the phone. Also Arild knows much of your behavior from many other sources other than Linda, including a large number of your own emails.

QUOTE

He and Linda did have an affair. Why do you think that the pastor who counseled us, John Lomacang, the 3ABN board, including the Illinois Conference President support me. They know things you do not.

Linda never spoke to the Illinois Conference President or the 3ABN Board. She can count the number of times she saw John during this time on one hand. But if you have the PROOF of infidelity, let's have it. Bring it out in the open.

QUOTE

We are not out to hurt Linda.

You and the actions of your colleagues say differently. You are still sending out mass mailings of slander. You are still actively working to stop her ministry. Yes, I have proof.

QUOTE

If you read the chat rooms it's She, Johann, Arild and Derrell. Not 3ABN people talking about this situation. Besides we have been divorced for over 2 yrs. Yes, she doesn't use her real name on your chat room but we know who she is.

Linda is not on this chat room, so this is another untrue statement. Watch out, Danny. There is no substitute for accuracy, especially when you are arguing our own case. This is just another point that shows how you have been making untrue statements about Linda all this time. You make a guess and proclaim your guess as the real truth.

QUOTE

The way you are going about this is not Christ like. If you want to know the truth you are supposed to try to find out. Otherwise it is just gossip. What a shame that your chatroom is being used to try to destroy the work of the gospel rather than to spread Jesus to the world.

 This Dr. does not tell you that he has told John Lomacang, Brenda Walsh, and even his own Norwegian Conf. Pres that he, the Dr., believes that Linda is in love with him, but that he is not in love with her. He told this while we were married. He was trying to save his own name.

It looks like two of these people will say what Danny Shelton wants them to verify. I was there at Thompsonville when Dr. Arild Abrahamsen talked to John Lomacang, and I heard Arild say the opposite of what you now claim he said. On the last Friday afternoon in May 2004, I had a meeting with Dr. Walt Thompson, Nick Miller, and John Lomacang. Before that meeting Arild had asked me to tell John Lomacang that John was misquoting Arild, but no matter how thoroughly I tried to explain this to John he had his own agenda, I mean "truth" to share.

Just now I called Arild's own Conference President. I read to him exactly what Danny claims Arild has told him. He assures me he's NEVER heard nor carried any such words. He also does not believe them.

QUOTE

But now, 2 yrs after our divorce, he has a lot to gain to try to keep Linda's ministry going. In fact, $100,000. In 2004 instead of encouraging Linda to stay with me, They bought a house together. He put up $100,000 and she put up the other approx. $100,000. Yes, the court papers say it is a 10 year loan, but the Dr. knows that the nearly $250,000 that that 3ABN gave Linda as a separation agreement is about depleted. Linda has said that she is not going to work. She said, and I quote, "I'm not going to cook hamburgers the rest of my life." She wants people to support her financially. The Dr. has to help her in order to get his own money back.

This is a very interesting account, Danny, but how does it fit into the whole picture? When you managed to chase Linda out of your home, she bought a mobile home in Carbondale. I know, because I was there. Walt claims in a recent letter that you were very kind to her, helping her with all kinds of things, doing construction work for her, etc. I have a number of those e-mails you sent to me at that time when you gave your account of your good works, even buying Linda some flowers. It was evident that those "good works" were for the gallery, to make an impression on people that you were trying to save your marriage, when in reality you were doing the opposite. In a weak moment you told me that you wanted a divorce so you could marry someone else. Later you changed your story.

In reality you made life so difficult for Linda at such close range as Carbondale, that she had to sell that home and move to Springfield, so she could share a house with her daughter.. She found the right house, and managed to keep the location secret from you for a while, so that you would not come there and harass her after the unfortunate divorce. Linda was still suffering from what you had done to her, and you know what THAT includes. She had no employment because you fired her, and therefore no bank would finance her. Neither did she have any sickness and health insurance. You took all of that from her. You divorced her, humiliated her before the world, and now you even want to discredit her because a friend helps her in her agony because of your evil behavior!

QUOTE

Please call John Lomacang, before you ruin your own credibility and hear another side of the story.
 XXXX or XXXX

Thanks,
 Danny

We do not want our side on the chat rooms, but I do think that you should not encourage your supporters to get involved in something they know nothing about.

It appears evident that many honest Christians have a sense of fairness and truth, and they feel that unfair actions and evil must be eradicated from the assembly of the followers of Jesus Christ. This solidarity and brother/sister-hood is what we appreciate and feel is needed in order for the Church to proclaim the true Gospel to a World of sin and darkness. An investigation is needed. Arild, myself, Linda and many others are ready to cooperate fully for the truth to be known and for wrongs to be made right.

I know, because I was there. Walt claims in a recent letter that you were very kind to her, helping her with all kinds of things, doing construction work for her, etc. I have a number of those e-mails you sent to me at that time when you gave your account of your good works, even buying Linda some flowers. It was evident that those "good works" were for the gallery, to make an impression on people that you were trying to save your marriage, when in reality you were doing the opposite. In a weak moment you told me that you wanted a divorce so you could marry someone else. Later you changed your story.

In reality you made life so difficult for Linda at such close range as Carbondale, that she had to sell that home and move to Springfield, so she could share a house with her daughter.. She found the right house, and managed to keep the location secret from you for a while, so that you would not come there and harass her after the unfortunate divorce. Linda was still suffering from what you had done to her, and you know what THAT includes. She had no employment because you fired her, and therefore no bank would finance her. Neither did she have any sickness and health insurance. You took all of that from her. You divorced her, humiliated her before the world, and now you even want to discredit her because a friend helps her in her agony because of your evil behavior! It appears evident that many honest Christians have a sense of fairness and truth, and they feel that unfair actions and evil must be eradicated from the assembly of the followers of Jesus Christ. This solidarity and brother/sister-hood is what we appreciate and feel is needed in order for the Church to proclaim the true Gospel to a World of sin and darkness. An investigation is needed. Arild, myself, Linda and many others are ready to cooperate fully for the truth to be known and for wrongs to be made right.

In addition to the point Clay made, the words "his house" struck me as so sad. As if there was no sharing of responsibility or accountability on both sides. As if to say it's mine all mine and you can't have or be a part of anything that belongs to me... sigh

I can't put Brandy as totally innocent as of yet.

Is it not true that she and Linda were friends prior to all of this?

Excuse me, everyone, but how is Brandy sweet and innocent. My understanding is that she worked on the streets in Florida.

She was broke and went to 3ABN asking for work and wanting to become "friends" with Danny.

Uumm, was Brandy someone Danny visited with when he was in Florida.

If you have read the other articles you will understand the meaning of this.

I tend to agree with you; a trailer park Lady Macbeth looking to climb up the totem pole by any means necessary is what came to mind reading all of this... especially with the allegation that the whole 'Dump Linda now' movement was sparked by an ultimatum she gave Danny.

I am sure up to that point Danny was content having his cake and eating it too... so no... I'm not buying the "pure as the driven snow" act either...

Danny, talk about acting christian! Throwing your wife to the lions instead of quietly putting her away was christian? Do you really have any real idea what it means to be 'christian'? How much longer will you continue to hide behind so-called big names in the SDA church circles? How much longer?

He couldn't "quietly put her away". He HAD to had some real good justification for his actions and subsequent remarriage. He had no choice but to prove that SHE was the problem.... if he expected to remain in his nice job with all of it's perks.

NO, they were NOT friends. They did NOT know each other. Although, Danny did know her. Linda only saw her for the FIRST time just almost 3 weeks ago.

QUOTE(Johann @ Jul 20 2006, 03:36 PM) □

There are two main points here:

1) The "Christian way" in this situation has been dictated by your actions. You made this unfortunate circumstance public, so it must be resolved publically.
 2) You had a long conversation with Arild in your office. We also had a long meeting in the hall. Arild also had a long conversation on the phone. Also Arild knows much of your behavior from many other sources other than Linda, including a large number of your own emails. Linda never spoke to the Illinois Conference President or the 3ABN Board. She can count the number of times she saw John during this time on one hand. But if you have the PROOF of infidelity, let's have it. Bring it out in the open. You and the actions of your colleagues say differently. You are still sending out mass mailings of slander. You are still actively working to stop her ministry. Yes, I have proof. Linda is not on this chat room, so this is another untrue statement. Watch out, Danny. There is no substitute for accuracy, especially when you are arguing our own case. This is just another point that shows how you have been making untrue statements about Linda all this time. You make a guess and proclaim your guess as the real truth. It looks like two of these people will say what Danny Shelton wants them to verify. I was there at Thompsonville when Dr. Arild Abrahamsen talked to John Lomacang, and I heard Arild say the opposite of what you now claim he said. On the last Friday afternoon in May 2004, I had a meeting with Dr. Walt Thompson, Nick Miller, and John Lomacang. Before that meeting Arild had asked me to tell John Lomacang that John was misquoting Arild, but no matter how thoroughly I tried to explain this to John he had his own agenda, I mean "truth" to share.

Just now I called Arild's own Conference President. I read to him exactly what Danny claims Arild has told him. He assures me he's NEVER heard nor carried any such words. He also does not believe them.

This is a very interesting account, Danny, but how does it fit into the whole picture? When you managed to chase Linda out of your home, she bought a mobile home in Carbondale. I know, because I was there. Walt claims in a recent letter that you were very kind to her, helping her with all kinds of things, doing construction work for her, etc. I have a number of those e-mails you sent to me at that time when you gave your account of your good works, even buying Linda some flowers. Thank you Johann for doing this, as with Thompsons recent letter. I will be coping this for distribution as well.

You're good!

Sorry Danny, I refuse to be called a "supporter" of any program. The Lord sent me here to find the truth. Since Linda left I had been disturbed by a lot of discrepancies by email sent by you and friends and what you would say on tv before I came to this forum. I came not here to vindicate Linda or you. Just looking for the truth. All I find are love and caring from Linda's website and noething but lies and threats and put downs and coverups by you even on live world wide television. Tsk... Tsk... Prove you are telling the truth by accepting with open arms the investigations offered so we can get truth open. I am open to have my mind changed. It is all up to you Danny to prove you are being truthful.

Sorta like ~~Danny~~ "bystander" when he said he was leaving, never to return?
