BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ 3abn Fall Campmeeting

Posted by: sister Sep 28 2006, 06:59 PM

3ABN Fall Campmeeting begins in a few minutes. Interesting events always seen to happen around campmeeting time. Right, Johann? One woman is victimized and publicly humiliated. Another woman gives birth "prematurely", and is praised for her desire to sing on stage less than 24 hours later. The third Mrs. Shelton was baptized during campmeeting. I wonder what surprises Danny has in store for us this year? Not only is he scheduled to speak tonight, but he will also have the sermon on Sabbath morning.

And remember, the 3ABN board is scheduled to meet on Sunday... I hear the roar of distant thunder heading toward T'ville...

Posted by: seeshell Sep 28 2006, 07:32 PM

I may be wrong for letting it bother me, but they are already asking for money...for the 10 Commandments project.

I'm going to be praying on Sunday ... that painful truths will not be swept under the (bulging?) rug, that reality will prevail, and that God will have His way with 'em all ...

Well, tonight the sermon was by Pastor Gilley. If you keep track of those things, his church was the sight of a big 3ABN beg-a-thon in Dallas, Texas. Back then he was comparing Danny to the great men of Scripture, that the Lord had called to fulfill a special purpose. If memory serves me correctly, he equated Danny Shelton to King David and Moses, as was done a week or so prior to that by Shelly Quinn and John Lomacang on a Thursday night live.

Now back to tonight's sermon... Well folks, the theme for tonight was money, money and more money. Basically, the more sacrificially we give, the more the Lord will give us to give and the more we can give on to worthy causes. Now, did you catch that? And whose hands are outstretched, ready, willing and worthy to receive those funds? Why Danny Shelton, of course...

Poor Danny... Did you all know that he has to go bargain hunting for his suits? But Pastor Gilley assured us that Danny is a wise shopper and goes to the best stores and comes away with a beautiful suit of high quality for sixty-five dollars. Now that is a pretty good trick, I know I have been suit shopping. Just for fun, let's consider the possibility that Danny bought that suit the weekend that he was in Dallas with Pastor Gilley. There might be some hidden costs that could be factored in. Would it be unfair to add in the cost for the private jet that took DanBran to Dallas for the beg-a-thon? Then in addition to their regular salary, the two pilots received ministry funds to cover the following expenses: hotel, rental car and per diem for the weekend. Also add on a rental car for DanBran and other misc. expenses and the "savings" on the "bargain suit" seems nothing more than a red herring attempting to misdirect our attention away from the other extravagances that the 3ABN donors have paid for over the years. Oh, and don't forget that Danny is not paid a sacrificial salary, unlike most of the workers, and can afford to buy what he needs without haunting the bargain suit racks at Dillards.

So, in conclusion, it is difficult to get excited over the "bargain suit" when you know how Danny has channeled so much ministry money through his pockets over the years. Sorry, Dan, it was a good try, but you are going to have to do much better than that in order to fool all the people, all the time... You need to work on your showmanship, even P.T. Barnum didn't believe it was possible to fool all the people, all the time...

LOL, none taken, sis! ☐

I didn't watch the whole thing last night, but I did catch a bit of the "suit drama". How are these people getting sucked into praising a man like this? ☐

Opening night. Camp meeting part 1.

Did you catch Shelly Quinn's "beg" for "10-commandment partners" who will "pledge" $10.00 - $1,00.00 per week to go toward "10-Commandment Weekends in major metropolitan cities" and the to follow up with "Prophecy" seminars. They have been planning this for months, but ,

"We THOUGHT that we knew where we were going this year. But it would SEEM that the Lord, ... we ..., ... none of us could just get settled in on it,... and the MORE we prayed the more we were sure that WEREN'T YET IN TUNE WITH GOD.

"If you have ,... if you live in a city , and you've prayed, and you feel the Lord would like us to host it there, please send in your information , .. your church , ..your conference, ..who you think , ...where would be a good idea , ..just send it to us and we'll pray over it, because , if we don't do it this year, MAYBE we'll be at your place next year.

But what I wanted to do was read a few comments here , from Ellen White , she says , in Evangelism pg 29,

'Oh, that God's people had a sense of the impending destruction of thousands of cities now almost given to idolatry ...' and she also said, 'At the present time there is not a thousandth part being done in working the cities that should be done, and that would be done if men and women would do their whole duty. Work while you can, My brethren, Enter the cities while you can. In the cities that have already been entered there are many who have never heard the message of truth. There are many other, who, if given the opportunity, might hear and accept the message of salvation. .

These, our last efforts for the work of God in the earth, must bear decidedly the impress of the Divine. Soon the way will be hedged up. These cities will be closed to the gospel message. Wake up the church members that they may unite in doing a definite and self-denying work. Time is short. We must continue to evangelize with power.'

'I ... just asked Danny, ... bless his heart, I put him on the spot back there, ... I asked him earlier, I said,

'Danny do you mind if I call for special partners in this work? '

'We would like to have Special Ten Commandments Weekend Partners, and, what the Lord has laid on my heart is there are many people who COULD give $10 a month, beginning this month, that would go toward this project, $10 for the 10 commandments project each month to help finance this great work. Some of you could give a hundred dollars a month and some even more. But what we want to remember is what Jesus said in Matthew 5:18,19, that He said , "Assuredly I say to you , Til heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tiddle will by no means pass from the law 'til all is fulfilled. Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches men to do so shall be called "The Least" in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever DOES and teaches them, he shall be called "Great" in the kingdom of heaven."

'Again I want to thank all of you who participated this year in the "10 Commandments Project". May you be called Great in the kingdom of heaven."

'And I pray that many people will join us, and please, .. we, .. we ask for your prayers. I hope that you'll just,... as the Lord lays this on your heart, ...lift it up every day, ..every time God brings it to your remembrance, because there is great work to be done, and short time to do it. We MUST evangelize with power.
Thank you".

applause

I have comments in regards to this, but I'll wait until you chew on it first. Especially about the part of "breaking the least of these commandments and teaching men to do so (by example, in particular).

Round 2:

Friday Night Live on 3ABN
7:00 - 9:00 PM Central Time
Sermon by Wintley Phipps

Posted by: Truly Blonde Sep 29 2006, 06:02 PM

Justme,

I couldn't believe Shelly Quinn when she started in asking for money. And of course it was an idea she just thought of, to ask people to give to the 10 commandments project. But then when Mollie came out and went through her sanctuary bit for worship. Give me a break By the time she got to the holy of holies and said we could now know we were in the prescence of God and He would Speak directly to us the group came out to sing. Did any one notice that no one was smiling except Bran. Danny's sister looked like she wished she was anywhere but there. They all looked about to die. Sorry that was my impression When we were all prepared to hear from God, Gilley comes out and basically tells us we need to give money to worthy causes (3abn). I just couldn't get over the whole evening. My dear hubby asked why I was watching. He tuned out at the beginning with the good ole southern gospel music and Danny saying we are just going to have a little fun. Hubby's comment this morning was 3abn has become a forum for the Shelton family, nothing more. I missed the suit business but I did hear about all of Gilley's cars, So sad he only has a Huyandi. Maybe Danny could give him some money to buy another Lincoln.

A question I had last night was are the employees of 3abn suppose to attend campmeeting? It didn't look like there were all that many people there and the ones I saw were the perfect people to reach deep into their humble pockets and help Danny. Hopefully those who arn't actually working have a choice to attend or not.

It did seem to me from the applause after songs that most people didn't seem to care for the musical presentations before the actual service started. I havn't watched any other 3abn campmeetings so don't know if this is normal. Maybe these older folk were uncomfortable with clapping after musical numbers.

Also thought it interesting that we all got to meet the latest addition to Melody's family

As sister said I'm ready for round 2 tonight.

Does anyone think it is interesting that tonight and tomorrow Danny is having black speakers? Maybe there is something to that urban channel he is talking about. Maybe he just discovered another untapped mountain of revenue rofl rofl Kill us with kindness Danny!!!

And kill us with music. Are you too young to remember when "This Old House" was a dance tune?

Truly Blonde,
Usually one would expect that employees would be expected to attend to show full support of the business.

On the other hand it would be better if those seats were filled with people who have money in their pockets, which is not true of the employees' pockets.

When the cameras pan the audience you see mostly older people who have money and time and who seldom speak up against falsehood. They have grown up to be compliant, they were trustworthy, trusting, and now gullible to what "sounds" like what they want to hear". They are easily moved by emotion, music, and grandchildren. (Look at all those little mouths 3ABN has to feed.)

Also, if the employees attended they might be asked embarrassing "questions". 3ABN Employees will NOT answer questions from you, when they are out doing a "beggathon".

Posted by: sister Sep 29 2006, 09:42 PM

Round 2:

After watching tonight's program one thought impressed me: how easy it would be to remove Danny, Melody, all the rest of the Shelton clan, Mollie Steenson, Shelly Quinn and John Lomacang from 3ABN.

Anyone with some talent and on air experience could have lead out in the program just as well as Danny. Bran is so silent, she would not be missed. There are many more talented singers than Dan, Melody and the rest of the Shelton clan, who would be willing to sing at camp meeting. Without Dan, the type of comments that originate from Mollie, Shelly and John to support the "holiness" of Danny are not necessary nor is the type of "sermon" delivered by Pastor Gilley. Yesterday's program was nothing more than a shameless, bold faced beg-a-thon.

The singing and preaching of Whitley Phipps tonight was like a breath of fresh air in room that has been closed up for too long: there was no call for sacrificial giving, deifying of Danny or justification of his actions. It was a sermon that ended with a call for unity in the church: regardless of race, ethnicity or national origin.

On Sunday, Pastor Phipps and the other members of the 3ABN board will meet in session, unfortunately still chaired by Walt Thompson. Hopefully, they will realize that it is past time to open wide the windows at 3ABN, let in the light of day and purge this ministry from the administration that has kept it in bondage for so long. It is time for accountability.

Dan, you know what you have done. Step aside, repent and allow the Lord to humble you before it is too late... This is my prayer for you.

Justme,
I couldn't believe Shelly Quinn when she started in asking for money. And of course it was an idea she just thought of, to ask people to give to the 10 commandments project.

Why not? She's one of the authors of Ten Commandments Under Attack . She probably gets royalties for every copy of the book distributed. Why wouldn't you, in an indirect way, up your own income if you had the chance? The whole "Ten Commandments Commission" thing is just a thinly disguised ploy for money, in my opinion.

The title of the book is meant to appeal to the emotions of the under-educated.

The Commandments Under Attack, By Pacific Press.

<http://www.adventistreview.org/article.php?id=503>

"The book released by Pacific Press Publishing Association, The Ten Commandments Under Attack, is written by twelve prominent Adventist evangelists and meant to be shared with non-Adventists. Authors include Doug Batchelor, Dwight Nelson, Lonnie Melashenko, Ty Gibson, Shelley Quinn , and Mike Tucker, and the foreword is written by Mark Finley, a vice president of the General Conference. The book is meant to be a witnessing tool to non-Adventist Christians and so has been kept small—only 80-pages and pocket-size, with an offer for free Bible study guides."

"Witnessing Tool" means, in Adventism, that you , dear supporter, are to purchase these in quantity even if you cannot afford to do so.

I read the article as well and it appears that for the Wexler contingency for sure it was just a money-making affair. I certainly would hope that wasn't the same reason Mark Finley, Doug Batchelor, etc. were involved.

What is it with that Hebrew numerology stuff? I just wonder how many base their beliefs on that superstitious mumbo jumbo!

Bet they been "making beautiful music" for some time.

Wonder when HER CD will come out. What would the title be?

Danny just flatters those he wants to influence. Did you notice the plaques and the recognition of all the board members. Putting Doug Batchelor's picture on the front of the 3ABN magazine etc.
Having the black speakers (who were truly inspired speakers and very good.) Bet they wouldn't be there though if he didn't feel threatened by the talk on blacksda.

I have noticed that he gives publicity to whoever he is currently "courting". You will see them featured in the 3ABN magazine or they will be featured on air. It doesn't last though. Usually it is only as long as he needs them or as long as they support him.

I think you are right. Danny is feeling threatened by blacksda so he is trying to get the black vote by using these speakers. Thankfully both Wintly and Ivor are sincere Christians who won't let Danny get to them.

Ivor Meyers was a rapper who was offered an 8 record deal. His group was making it big. One of their friends was also into rap but had been raised an Adventist. He started talking to Ivor's band and he said they would be doing pot and drinking and at the same time studying the Bible. They were baptised but still didn't know what the Bible was all about and what God really wanted in their life. They kept studying and what you saw tonight was the change that God makes in people when they sincerely accept Him as their Savior. He has a web site and sells DVD's. We watched his first DVD and it was very moving. On his DVD he has pictures of his rap group and his days when he had dread locks and was a rapper, then there are pictures of him after his conversion what a change. His first DVD is all about music (all kinds of music) and how Saten is using music (including christian rap and regga to lead people into spiritualism. Very eye opening. Reccomend it for everyone to see.

Question: Is the man that is with Melody holding her baby the father of that baby and her husband?
Just wondering

Try boogiemonsters not boogiemasters. After his conversion he wrote religious lyrics to rap for a while until he decided God wanted him to do something different. Interesting lyrics.

Is so sad that he is so insecure that he has to deprive those around him from reaching their own full potential.

It's so hard to see the "mending broken people" part, when, for so long, the opposite has been true .

Pray that God will be able to get through to the 3ABN BOARD for once and get things straightened up.

P.S. Ivor has somethings 3ABN can learn, if they'll listen. Problem is, while he's preaching, they're backstage making more plans to raise and spend more money.

Nice "Autumn Skin", thanks.

My observation is that 3ABN does not have a Board of Directors in the same way we think of them.

I expect that the board members will come together today at some person's house, read carefully screened and prepared reports from each department, if they don't fall asleep during the presentations, and then they will leave Mr. Shelton to run his private business any way he wishes.

That's all that I expect to happen today. However, it would be nice to be pleasantly surprised.

Maybe, if they don't fall asleep first, they may all hear some rambling about attacks by Satan and his minions. But, if they all fall asleep, they will be spared the misery of listening to it all.

Does 3ABN ever make public any of the decisions the board makes?

I did not watch ALL of the campmeeting, so I may have missed it but...I did not see anything unusual. They sang too much for my liking but that is not new. Danny had his grandkids on, which I assume he is a proud grandfather. Brandy was on quite a bit but that is probably something we need to get used to. If I am not mistaken she went to 3ABN so Danny could help her with her music career???

Did I miss anything? Did Danny "repent" or anything????

probably not..... but my question is why do some of you guys (and gals) insist on watching something that turns your stomach so? Is this some form of self punishment or what?

There are many aspects of 3ABN that I enjoy. What I don't enjoy is when Danny gets on and rambles on defending himself, or when others get on defending him....

Try boogiemonsters not boogiemasters. After his conversion he wrote religious lyrics to rap for a while until he decided God wanted him to do something different. Interesting lyrics.

Thanks for the correction. It was late when I posted that. I knew his group was the Boogiemonsters. Guess that may be why I couldn't Yahoo and image of the group.

YouTube.com has music videos posted of both before exposure to the Lord and after. It's interesting to see their musical take on the Great Controversy. Before they realized that the Rap Concert venue wasn't conducive to spiritual health, they would talk about the Great Controversy and even throw them out to the crowd!

So, God can use even backslidden, drunken potheads to plant the seeds of His Kingdom. Praise the Lord!

I think you are right. Danny is feeling threatened by blacksda so he is trying to get the black vote by using these speakers. Thankfully both Wintly and Ivor are sincere Christians who won't let Danny get to them.

Ivor Meyers was a rapper who was offered an 8 record deal. His group was making it big. One of their friends was also into rap but had been raised an Adventist. He started talking to Ivor's band and he said they would be doing pot and drinking and at the same time studying the Bible. They were baptised but still didn't know what the Bible was all about and what God really wanted in their life. They kept studying and what you saw tonight was the change that God makes in people when they sincerely accept Him as their Savior. He has a web site and sells DVD's. We watched his first DVD and it was very moving. On his DVD he has pictures of his rap group and his days when he had dread locks and was a rapper, then there are pictures of him after his conversion what a change. His first DVD is all about music (all kinds of music) and how Saten is using music (including christian rap and regga to lead people into spiritualism. Very eye opening. Reccomend it for everyone to see.

Question: Is the man that is with Melody holding her baby the father of that baby and her husband?
 Just wondering

Without black, no color has any depth. But if you mix black with everything, suddenly there's shadow - no, not just shadow, but fullness. You've got to be willing to mix black into your palette if you want to create something that's real.

Hi ya all...my first time posting, although I have been reading for weeks. Anyway, just want to comment on the statement that Brandy went to 3ABN to further her music career. She did not go to 3ABN for that reason, at least not at first, or not openly, and maybe not even knowingly. She went there because she was going through a "crisis" and Danny invited her there to "work", he offered her a job, at least that's what they both told me in February '06. He did have plans to record a song she wrote, that he went on and on about. Personally, I don't think Brandy had a realistic understanding of what she was getting into. I may be wrong, but she seemed to me to be pretty naive, submissive, sort of "I'm sure lucky to be here with Danny Shelton, he's really somebody...." I might guess by now that she might like to turn the clock back and get off this sinking ship before it's too late. I think she's in way over her head. And yes, Brandy has worked at the Sound Center on her CD but I'm not she's finished her recording.

As far as having to get used to seeing Brandy on TV...well I don't think it will be too much longer before we are relieved of ever seeing Danny and his entourage anywhere but behind bars! Brandy may get away as she was last on the scene, but the rest of 'em....well, we'll just have to wait and see.

I think it's a common thought that Brandy is innocent of 99.9% of everything. Naivete is her biggest fault.

If you're reading, Brandy, I really do wish you all the best! I'm sorry for the situation you find yourself in - but it isn't too late...
