BlackSDA _ 3ABN _ Adventist Today Write-up Of 3abn

Posted by: September Aug 21 2006, 12:47 PM

This came in my e-mail this afternoon...

Dr Abrahamson's letter preceeds the following statements.

Statement of Dr. Walter Thompson, Chairman, 3ABN Board of Directors

Thank you for the opportunity to respond to the article in Adventist Today that you are calling "Personal Lives and Three Angels Broadcasting Network (3ABN)."

I have carefully reviewed the article and have the following comments:

The Three ABN Board of Directors, a board that consists of dedicated business men, church leaders, and other dedicated laymen, have carefully and thoroughly studied the situations leading up to the dismissal of Linda Shelton from the ministry as well as the evidence indicating Danny's legal and moral rights to remarry. All decisions and actions taken have been by unanimous agreement based upon defensible evidence.

We live in a world dying without hope and are committed to doing our part in giving only that hope that may be found in the everlasting Good News of Jesus Christ and His soon return.

Walter Thompson MD

Chairman, 3ABN Board of Directors

Statement of Mr. Danny Shelton

Dear Editor:

This is my response to your offer to publish my unedited version of my reaction to the Adventist Today article.

I think it is a shame that the number reason people contact Adventist Today is to hear about Danny and Linda Shelton. I wish Adventist Today was spending as much time telling people about Jesus as they are exposing unsupported rhetoric about Danny and Linda. If that were the case, I suspect you would have conversion stories to share instead of unsubstantiated comments by those who are attempting to bring disgrace to the cause of God. I haven't heard of one conversion story from Adventist Today's printing all this "gossip" about us. I hear conversion stories almost daily at 3ABN because the focus of 3ABN is to take the Three Angel's messages into all the world.

I believe that we all need to consenstrate on truth rather than to sort through all the testimonials and try to pick a side to support. As Christians we should all be on Jesus's side, and he says take the gospel into all the world. He does not say to take GOSSIP into all the world.

You mentioned that you do not have the ability to do "investigative reporting" in your search for truth, so in exchange, you are publishing the comments of the parties involved in the conflict which may or may not reflect truth. I might ask, how does this help to discover the truth of the matter or enhance the cause we all profess to want to serve-and which Adventist Today claims to want to do? The letters in this article that you asked me to respond to are made up of many errors. I won't try to point them all out at this time. I will say that Dr. Thompson's letter speaks for me and the board of 3ABN at this time.

There has been no cover ups on 3ABN's part and neither will there be on the latest letter. The gospel of Jesus Christ is all about taking His salvation message to the world. Jesus says, "Go" and the Devil says, "Stop. The Stop and Go principal has always helped me to make better decisions when it comes to whom I support. I support those who are giving the Gospel message into all the world, not those who are throwing stones and trying to Stop the Gospel through false accusations, no matter how convincing they may sound. The Bible says that we will know which side people are on "by their fruits."

God Bless!

Danny Shelton

Oh, it's been "deep" for a long time. But the disclaimers are getting shorter now.... does that mean we are nearly to the bottom of the "piles"?

Posted by: Lucyladye Aug 21 2006, 01:29 PM

He says....quote" I believe we should all concentrate on truth...."

So when is he going to start?

Posted by: paleface Aug 21 2006, 01:49 PM

May I receive a date concerning the response from Walter Thompson MD and Danny Shelton from September?

Did we really expect any different from these two? At this point that is their story, and they HAVE to stick to it, no matter what. They really don't know they need to just let this go. It will be so much better for them.

As I've read all the post from all these so called Danny supporters over the last couple of days and the I read this by Danny It sure sounds like one and the same to me. Maybe he's posting from different computers.

And as for Walt Thompson, for some reason he thinks we should all believe him because.....

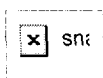

Right now they are trying to shovel themselves out of a sandpit and it just keeps caveing in on them.

Where have I heard this before....

If you dig a pit for your enemy, dig another one for yourself too....

Why does he refer to himself in third person? Sounds like a Mollie letter to me!

As Christians we should all be on Jesus's side, and he says take the gospel into all the world. He does not say to take GOSSIP into all the world.

Let's review what gossip is. Okay. Got it? Okay.
Now, Danny, where exactly is your proof for "spiritual adultery."
I rest my gossip case.

I might ask, how does this help to discover the truth of the matter or enhance the cause we all profess to want to serve-and which Adventist Today claims to want to do?

I don't think you ever tried to discover the truth nor would you want anyone else to discover truth about you.

The Stop and Go principal has always helped me to make better decisions when it comes to whom I support.

I know about this principal. It is STOP AT THE CHURCH AND GO WHEN YOU'VE GOT THE MONEY!

QUOTE(Clay @ Aug 21 2006, 01:18 PM)

Danny is soooo full of "it."

Clayton, Clayton, my brother. Why must our friend Danny be full of it? He has faced the music, as they say, and stood his ground. He has spoken most eloquently, forthrightly and bravely exonerated his name, dissolving all suspicions and effectively dispatching the disgruntlement.

As I studied his letter, I felt no rancor, no ill intent for the persecutors that have so ruthlessly dealt with him. As an eloquent writer once wrote: "The greatest need today is the want of men...who will stand true to duty as the needle to the pole."

Ah, let us heed those words and rise far up above the hissers and the shrill, the teeth-kisser and spitters of venom. I know that you are a good young man, Clayton. I believe there is yet hope for you.
