Thanks for the links. I read some stuff there I hadn't seen before. In one of the AT articles WT claims he showed the secret "evidence" to GC leaders and they agreed with the conclusions about LS and the doctor. I wonder if they'd be so easily convinced today...not being so wrapped around anyone's little finger.

well, all i can say is, when "Christians" or anyone for that matter, use the Bible to underhandedly and by innuendo, slander someone, that's evil. also, if the "so-called" evidence was obtained through illegal means, then couldn't they be sued like all get out and also be brought up on criminal charges? these are questions i asked WT and got no answer to. #1 - is the "evidence" real? #2 - was it obtained legally? wouldn't this be the real reason they have not made the so-called "evidence" public?

The interesting thing is that WT or whomever is the PR person will not hesitate to make accusations about Pickle and Joy saying they are posting lies although he/she is not able to tell us definitely what lies are being told and in the same breath he/she accuses Pickle and Joy of mailing postcards all over to churches even though that is a lie.

As far as slander goes WT or whomever did not hesitate and continues to not hesitate to say slanderous things about LS producing no evidence...he/she just tries to make people believe that there is some secret evidence that they showed certain high ranking "others" but not us...the ones who have given liberly to their ministry to preach a certain message that they claim they are not preaching although I have heard that message.

It is all so confusing listening to storys told back to back to cover up the other story...better to tell the truth and be done with it as it causes less damage...just say I goofed, sinned, didn't know, was wrong....I am sorry and please forgive me.
