Hello Gailon,

Thank you for the update. I have had short, positive, but non-committal responses to my two and a half page letter from both Elders Dwight Nelson and Jay Gallimore. I have noticed, however, that neither Danny nor Tommy have appeared last night or tonight on the program. I am uncertain if there is a connection or not with my concerns, as it could be a coincidence. I know that Mark Finley seemed quite opposed to the idea of either Danny or Tommy appearing on the Hope Channel during this period of investigation, and was going to communicate this to the PMC leadership. Prior to my discussion with him yesterday, he seems to have been unaware that Danny and Tommy were appearing on the program.

I think the idea of a mixed, neutral tribunal is a good one, as any one in Linda's camp has completely written off the Three Angels board as a fair and unbiased tribunal. While that is perhaps not entirely fair, it is true that the board gives Danny a tremendous amount of latitude in operation, and gives him the benefit of almost every doubt. Thus, I imagine that either Alyssa or Linda will only appear before a neutral, church related body, perhaps that includes 3ABN board representation. The sticking point, ironically, may well be Danny, who has told me that he is unwilling to place his fate in a group made up of church leaders.

I have wondered about the numbers. When I spoke with Danny about a month or so ago, he insisted that numbers were up by a couple of million. But when I spoke with a board member he indicated that the finances were not doing well, in part relating to a tremendous amount of money 3ABN put into the "Ten Commandments Twice Removed Book" which was distributed by the millions during the spring. I am quite certain that Danny received royalties on this, probably to the tune of several hundred thousand dollars, although he is refusing to disclose the amount to his own board members. This is a gross conflict of interest and also an improper personal inurement that could cause the ministry to lose its tax exempt status if it came to light. It is the kind of thing that led to my leaving the board.

In any event, Danny needs at least a leave of absence to have these things sorted through and for him to re-orient himself. He has been used by God, has had a good heart, but has, in my opinion, become confused and misguided over the last couple of years. It is questionable whether the Three Angels board, on its own, can come to grips with these issues.

Let me know how things unfold,

Blessings,

Nick Miller
